FIRST SHOT. NBC HAS MOVIE FILM TAKEN AT SOME ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY FEET SHOWING A DALLAS POLICE DEPT. OFFICER RUSHING INTO BOOK DEPOSITORY BUILDING WHILE MOST OF POLICE AND SECRET SERVICE WERE RUSHING UP AN INCLINE TOWARDS RAILROAD TRESTLE. [redacted]STATED, AFTER VIEWING THIS FILM, IT RAISED QUESTION WHY MAJORITY OF THE PEOPLE WERE RUNNING TOWARDS THE RAILROAD TRESTLE. SEVERAL RAILROAD PERSONNEL HAVE BEEN INTERVIEWED BY NBC, INCLUDING ONE FIRST NAME UNKNOWN BRENNAN OF UNION TERMINAL COMPANY, AND HAVE STATED THAT THEY HEARD SHOTS FROM THE OPPOSITE OF BOOK DEPOSITORY AND SAW SMOKE AND "PAPER WADDING" COMING OUT OF BUSHES ON SLOPE BELOW RAILROAD TRESTLE AT THE TIME OF THE ASSASSINATION.

JACK RUBY ALLEGEDLY ADVISED DALLAS POLICE DEPT. OFFICIALS HE WAS IN OFFICE OF "DALLAS MORNING NEWS" AT CLASSIFIED AD DESK WHEN PRESIDENT WAS ASSASSINATED. RUBY WAS PLACING AD WHICH RAN IN SATURDAY EDITION TO THE EFFECT THAT RUBY-S CLUB WOULD BE CLOSED FRIDAY, SATURDAY AND

ANOTHER SALESMAN FOR THE LINCOLN MERCURY AGENCY. LAWRENCE STATED THAT HE HAD ADVISED THE FBI OF BOGARD-S KNOWLEDGE REGARDING OSWALD. BOGARD ADVISED NBC THAT LAWRENCE HAD BEEN "PICKED UP" BY FBI THE EVENING OF ELEVEN TWENTY TWO SIXTY THREE AS A SUBVERSIVE, AND THAT LAWRENCE THEN ADVISED FBI REGARDING BOGARD. LAWRENCE DENIED BEING A SUBVERSIVE AND ADVISED NBC THAT HE HAD POSSESSED A SECURITY CLEARANCE HAVING WORKED FOR PROJECT MERCURY IN FLORIDA. NBC CHECKED WITH PROJECT MERCURY AND NO INDIVIDUAL BY THAT NAME EVER EMPLOYED THERE. LAWRENCE ALSO ADVISED NBC HE HAD WORKED ON PRESIDENT KENNEDY-S PRIMARY CAMPAIGN IN LAWRENCE-S HOME TOWN, CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA, AND HAD HAD A "PLUM JOB". LAWRENCE LEFT DALLAS GIVING FORWARDING ADDRESS IN CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA. NBC CONTACTED THIS ADDRESS AND MAN IDENTIFYING HIMSELF AS FATHER-IN-LAW OF LAWRENCE ADVISED LAWRENCE HAD NOT BEEN THERE FOR SEVERAL MONTHS AND WAS NOT EXPECTED. CHECK OF LOCAL DEMOCRATIC OFFICIALS, CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA, BY NBC REFLECTED NO RECORD OF LAWRENCE EVER HAVING WORKED IN PRIMARY CAMPAIGN.

TO SAC DALLAS (44-1639)

FROM DIRECTOR FBI (44-24016) 699

JACK LEON RUBY, AKA. LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA. DASH VICTIM. CR. REBUCALL THIS DATE.

PROCEED WITH INTERVIEW OF RUBY BASED ON CONCURRENCE OF COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY AND DEFENSE COUNSEL. IF RUBY CONSENTS TO INTERVIEW ONLY IN PRESENCE OF COUNSEL, THIS WILL BE PERMISSABLE BUT AGENTS ARE TO TAKE ALL DUE PRECAUTIONS TO INSURE THAT QUESTIONS ARE PHRASED IN SUCH A MANNER THAT NEITHER RUBY NOR DEFENSE COUNSEL WILL BECOME AWARE OF INFORMATION WHICH SHOULD BE WITHHELD FROM THEM.

IN ADDITION TO ITEMS PREVIOUSLY SPECIFIED TO BE COVERED, THE INTERVIEW WITH RUBY SHOULD DETERMINE HIS MOVEMENTS ON NOVEMBER TWENTYONE AND APPROPRIATE INVESTIGATION SHOULD BE CONDUCTED TO ESTABLISH HIS MOVEMENTS ON NOVEMBER TWENTYONE IN AS MUCH DETAIL AS POSSIBLE.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Belmont

DATE: December 11, 1963

FROM : A. Rosen

SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY, AKA
LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS

The Dallas Office previously recommended that Ruby be contacted to ascertain his willingness to answer many questions concerning his movements, possible associations with Oswald, his motive for killing Oswald, how he gained entrance to the basement of the police building and so forth. On 12-11-63, approval was given to Dallas to interview Ruby if County District Attorney Wade and defense attorney Tom Howard interposed no objection. Dallas was also advised that if Ruby insists the interview take place in the presence of Howard, the interview should still be conducted taking all due precautions to phrasing questions in such a manner that neither Howard or Ruby would become aware of information which should be withheld from them.

Press releases now indicate that Melvin M. Belli, a flamboyant attorney from California, will participate in the defense of Ruby and has arrived in Dallas in this regard. Although it appears Belli will gain all of the publicity out of this case he can, it is still believed that we should proceed with the interview of Ruby as we would not be in a favorable position if, merely because Ruby's attorney may be of questionable character, we neglected to receive all of the information Ruby is willing to furnish.

ACTION:

If approved, we will proceed with the interview of Ruby subject to concurrence of the County District Attorney and defense counsel.

RUBY's being able to enter the basement area at Dallas Police Headquarters.

It should be borne in mind that referenced reports contain the results of some interviews with news media representatives, police officials and some results of investigation by the Dallas Police Department.

The overlap with period of prior reports was occasioned by the fact that an effort is made in this report to incorporate the majority of interviews of news media and police representatives who were present at the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY on November 24, 1963, for ready-reference purposes.

COVER PAGE

With regard to the interviews of JOHN A. SMITH, WARREN RITCHEY and I. N. WALKER, all employees of WFAA, Dallas, which are set forth above, these men are apparently mistaken in their identification of JACK L. RUBY as the man they saw at 8:00 a.m., 8:10 a.m. and 10:00 a.m., November 24, 1963, in view of information furnished previously by JACK L. RUBY, ELNORA PITTS, MALCOLM SLAUGHTER, KAREN BENNETT KARLIN and GEORGE SENATOR, all of whom are acquainted with RUBY. PITTS telephoned RUBY at RUBY's apartment at about 8:30 a.m. that date and talked to him. KARLIN telephoned RUBY at RUBY's apartment between 10:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. that date and talked to him. SLAUGHTER advised that his roommate, SIDNEY EVANS, JR., saw RUBY on the stairs of RUBY's apartment house at about 10:10 a.m. that date. SENATOR advised that RUBY left RUBY's apartment at about 10:30 a.m. that date to take a dog to the club. It is noted that a dog was found in RUBY's car after his arrest on that date. RUBY estimated he left his apartment that date at about 10:00 a.m. to go downtown.

The Chicago Office advised that [redacted] (PROTECT IDENTITY), had stated that RUBY had frequent contact with police and that RUBY had made trips with the Dallas Chief of Police to Hot Springs, Ark. He did not state the time of such trips or whether this was the present or a past Chief of Police.

CARL HANSSON, former Dallas Chief of Police, advised 12/5/63 that the name RUBY sounded familiar to him but that he did not know RUBY and that he had never made a trip to Hot Springs, Ark., with RUBY, or anyone else who was going there to gamble. He further stated that approximately 4-5 years he had been up in Kentucky and his wife was with him. He stated that on their return they decided to come through Hot Springs, Ark., and stopped there approximately 1½ hours. He stated they did not go into any gambling places at that time and he had never been in one there at any other time.

Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, advised on 12/9/63 that he did not know RUBY; that he had never gone to Hot Springs, Ark., with him or anywhere else. He further stated he had never been in any of the gambling places in Hot Springs, Ark., that he had gone to a lake on vacation near there during his vacation in 1947 and he thought he may possibly have gone back in 1948 but in both instances his wife was with him and he had not gone into any gambling establishments there.

Regarding the interview of ROBERT MULHOLLAND, NBC Ne at Dallas, Texas, set forth in the body of this report, it sho be noted that the FERRIE referred to by MULHOLLAND is DAVID WILLIAM FERRIE, 3330 Louisiana, New Orleans, Louisiana, who was interviewed by Bureau Agents there on November 25, and 27, 196 Details regarding these interviews are set forth on pages 190-2 and 285-297 in the report of SA WARREN C. DE BRUEYS at Dallas, dated December 2, 1963, entitled LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka; IS-R-CUBA; Bufile 105-82555; Dallas File 100-10461. In these interviews, FERRIE denied any association with or acquaintanceship with OSWALD in New Orleans, Louisiana. Information had been received by the New Orleans Division indicating the possibility that FERRIE and OSWALD had been associating together in New Orleans, Louisiana, but investigation failed to establish any association. Details regarding interviews of acquaintances of FERRIE and this reported association are contained in the above referred to report under the heading Associates, Acquaintances, and Persons in Contact with Subject in the Past, pages 179-349 o this report.

The appropriate leads have been set forth for the New Orleans Division to re-interview FERRIE and to interview JOHN COPORAN, News Director, WDSU, New Orleans, in captioned report, for any information indicating a possible association between DeMAR and/or RUBY with OSWALD, in line with the speculations of MULHOLLAND in the body of this report.

Title: JACK L. RUBY;
LEE HARVEY OSWALD (DECEASED) - VICTIM

Character: CIVIL RIGHTS

Synopsis: Captain W. B. FRAZIER, Dallas PD, advised received phone call, 3:45 A.M., 11/24/63, from FBI, advising anonymous call from male indicated group was going to kill OSWALD that day, that night or following day; he immediately contacted Captain J. W. FRITZ who told him to contact Chief of Police CURRY but he found CURRY's phone to be out of order. TOM HOWARD, Attorney for RUBY, advised Captain FRITZ, Dallas PD, that RUBY states left Western Union, 11:16 A.M., 11/24/63, walked one block to Main Street ramp leading to basement of PD; as he approached a car was at the entrance and the driver was talking to officer on duty standing at ramp entrance; that RUBY walked behind the officer and down ramp into basement and in very short time OSWALD appeared in area; that RUBY did not discuss this matter with officers because he did not want to get the officer in trouble. Interviews with police officials reveal police personnel were ordered to and did search basement area prior to arrival of OSWALD in area; officers posted at basement entrances with instructions to permit only officers and news media representatives to enter; that officers searched basement area on two occasions, guns removed and unauthorized persons ejected. Several city employees state they were ejected from basement area prior to OSWALD's arrival in area. Interviews with officers and others indicate approximately 60 officers in basement or immediate area at time of shooting. Patrolman ROY EUGENE

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

VAUGHN stated was instructed to go to top of Main Street ramp, north side of police building, morning of 11-24-63, and to admit no persons except press and police officers with credentials; that he talked to expoliceman N.J. DANIELS on sidewalk; that a police car drove out, occupied by Lt. PIERCE, Sgt. MAXEY and Sgt. PUTNAM and shortly thereafter, he heard a shot; states he knows RUBY by sight and is positive RUBY did not enter via Main Street entrance. Dallas PD ran VAUGHN on polygraph and results reveal no reason to question information furnished by VAUGHN. NAPOLEON J. DANIELS, ex-patrolman stated was talking to VAUGHN at Main Street ramp, and about 2 minutes prior to hearing shot, saw man walk west on the south side of Main Street and go down ramp into basement of PD; and states photo of RUBY is similar in appearance; also saw black unmarked squad car carrying three officers drive up Main Street ramp from basement just prior to this incident. Lt. RIO S. PIERCE; Sgt. JAMES A. PUTNAM and Patrolman BILLY JOE MAXEY, all state they drove up Main Street ramp from basement just prior to shooting, saw VAUGHN on duty as they drove out, but did not see RUBY. Additional copies of letters and some affidavits obtained by Dallas PD from officers assigned to security of OSWALD set out herein, and contain no pertinent information in conflict with information received in interviews conducted by FBI. Over 50 representatives of news media interviewed, of which approximately 32 state were in basement at time RUBY shot OSWALD; 10 others state were in and out of basement on 11-24-63 although not there at time of shooting; majority comment favorably on security afforded OSWALD by Dallas PD, some saying they saw officers search basement of PD and building and roof across street prior to shooting; one states has been on Presidential trips with Presidents EISENHOWER and KENNEDY and considered security at Dallas PD to be good; one crime reporter for 15 years states Dallas police were well organized and required press card in every area entered; none knew of unauthorized person in basement except RUBY; some representatives state security lax, were not required to show identification, and some of these state they were well known to Dallas PD officers. Persons interviewed report no association between RUBY and OSWALD and no conspiracy between RUBY and anyone else to gain entry to basement of Dallas PD and/or to shoot OSWALD known.

Date Dec. 9, 1963

Captain W. R. FRAZIER, Radio Patrol, Dallas Police Department, advised that about 3:45 a.m., November 24, 1963, he received a telephone call at the Dallas Police Department from Mr. NEWSOM, a Special Agent of the Dallas FBI Office, to the effect that the FBI had received an anonymous telephone call from a male individual, indicating that a group was going to kill LEE HARVEY OSWALD that day, that night or the following day. The anonymous caller had stated further, he did not want any officer hurt and that was the reason for the call but was going to kill OSWALD and there was nothing anybody could do about it.

Captain FRAZIER stated subsequently, about 5:00 a.m. to 5:30 a.m., November 24, 1963, he called Captained J. W. FRITZ, Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, at his (FRITZ's) home and related the circumstances of the above call from the FBI. Captain FRAZIER stated that Captain FRITZ told him that Chief JESSE CURRY was handling the transfer of OSWALD and suggested that he (~~FRITZ~~ FRAZIER) call Chief CURRY.

Captain FRAZIER stated between 5:30 a.m. and 5:45 a.m., November 24, 1963, a Deputy COX or COY from the Dallas Sheriff's Office, called and stated Sheriff DECKER had instructed him to call the Dallas Police Department and request that Chief CURRY call him (DECKER) about the transfer of OSWALD. Captain FRAZIER added that the Deputy Sheriff indicated Sheriff DECKER wanted OSWALD transferred to the County Jail as soon as possible.

Captain FRAZIER stated as he recalls he thereafter called Captain J. W. FRITZ again and advised him that Sheriff DECKER wanted OSWALD transferred as soon as possible. Captain FRAZIER stated Captain FRITZ again told him that he (FRAZIER) would have to contact Chief CURRY as he (CURRY) was handling it.

Captain FRAZIER stated he attempted to call Chief CURRY at his residence about 6:00 a.m., November 24, 1963, for approximately 15 minutes and the line was busy. Captain FRAZIER said he contacted the telephone operator and asked the operator to check Chief CURRY's telephone and see if a conversation was in progress on that line or if the line was out of order. Captain FRAZIER said the operator called back and stated the telephone was out of order.

Captain FRAZIER stated by this time it was about 6:15 a.m., November 24, 1963, and Captain CECIL E. TALBERT arrived at the office and relieved him (FRAZIER). Captain FRAZIER said he advised Captain TALBERT of the facts relating to the above threat and also of his attempts to contact Chief CURRY and the fact that Chief CURRY's telephone was out of order. Captain FRAZIER said he also advised TALBERT that Sheriff DECKER wanted Chief CURRY to call him.

Captain FRAZIER stated Captain TALBERT said that he would send a squad car by Chief CURRY's residence and have Chief CURRY call him (TALBERT). Captain FRAZIER said he (FRAZIER) then went off duty, and he has no knowledge as to what may have transpired thereafter.

Captain CECIL E. TALBERT, Dallas Police Department, voluntarily furnished the following information:

When he arrived for duty at 6:00 AM on November 24, 1963, he was informed by Captain W. B. FRAZIER that the Dallas FBI Office and Sheriff BILL DECKER had called and informed that the FBI had received an anonymous call that LEE HARVEY OSWALD would be killed this date. Captain FRAZIER told him that he had attempted to contact Chief CURRY but had been unable to do so. TALBERT attempted to contact Chief CURRY by telephone and the telephone line was out of order. He directed a squad to Chief CURRY's home with instructions for Chief CURRY to call him. At about 6:30 AM, Chief CURRY called and he relayed the above message to the Chief.

Chief CURRY told him to get in touch with the FBI and Sheriff DECKER and inform them that he would be in his office by 8:30 or 9:00 AM and he would contact them at that time. TALBERT telephonically contacted the FBI and Sheriff DECKER and relayed Chief CURRY's instructions. TALBERT could furnish no further information regarding any action taken by Chief CURRY or the Police Department regarding this matter.

1 C. E. Talbert C. E. Talbert Date December 11, 1963

Captain CECIL E. TALBERT, Patrol Division, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, was interviewed at his place of residence, 1211 Tolta, Dallas, Texas, at which time he furnished the following information pertaining to November 24, 1963, the day that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot in the basement of the City Hall:

He advised that on November 24, 1963, he reported at the Dallas Police Headquarters which is located in City Hall for his regularly scheduled duty. It was on or around 9:00 a.m., that morning, acting on his own behalf, he began to make some arrangements for the transfer of OSWALD. Although Captain TALBERT was not completely aware of all the specific details concerning the transfer of OSWALD from the City Jail to the County Jail, he decided that he would begin to initiate his plan of coverage for the transfer. His first step along this line came at approximately 9:00 a.m., when he began to discuss the coverage and security of the transfer with Lt. R. S. PIERCE, who he identified as being commander of Central Headquarters Division Area. After a brief discussion, Capt. TALBERT directed Lt. PIERCE to call in 3 squads from their district assignments from the three different stations and to take four individuals from headquarters station. His plan was to obtain at least two men from each squad at this time. The original plan and the plan that was put into effect was that the police officers being made available for the transfer were to report to Central Station with the squad cars parked in the immediate area in case the cars were needed. All officers were to report and have their cars parked in position prior to 9:30 a.m., that morning. Although he could not be positive Capt. TALBERT was quite sure that the majority of officers involved were available by 9:30 a.m., barring a few individuals who may have been a little late. In regard to this plan, Capt. TALBERT advised that he obtained a total of 19 patrolmen and identified these individuals as follows:

M. L. WISE
A. R. BROCK
L. G. TAYLOR
B. G. PATTERSON
L. E. JEZ
R. E. VAUGHN

In addition to the foregoing individuals, Capt. TALBERT identified the following listed individuals as supervisors who would assist in the control of the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD:

Lt. PIERCE
Sgt. P. T. DEAN
Sgt. PUTNAM
Sgt. STEELE
Lt. WIGGINS

Capt. TALBERT went on to say that although he had not been briefed on all the aspects of the transfer, he had learned that the transfer route was originally planned from the basement level of city hall, out the ramp way to Commerce Street, up Commerce over to Main, and directly down to the county jail. Capt. TALBERT later learned that the route was being changed and that the second plan was to transfer OSWALD by means of the armored car from the Dalls Police Department basement level, up Commerce to North Central Expressway to Elm Street, left on Elm Street to Houston Street, and left one block to the Dallas County Jail. Capt. TALBERT stated that he had originally based his coverage of the transfer on the original route but later changed a few men to cover the second planned route.

Capt. TALBERT continued to say thatLt. PIERCE instructed one of his supervisors, Sgt. P. T. DEAN, to check all the entrances and exits leading from the basement level of city hall to assure that all personnel, other than authorized individuals, were cleared from the immediate area. He added at this time that there were no reserve officers utilized in the basement of the police building and that specific arrangements were made to check the vicinity of the basement. In regard to this, Capt. TALBERT stated that he had two of his supervisors search the immediate area on the basement level of city hall and that the two supervisors in charge of this were Sgt. PUTNAM and Sgt. P. T. DEAN. Although he could not recall the exact time, Capt. TALBERT stated he had discussed the search of the area with the two supervisors prior to the transfer. At the time of their discussion he could recall both DEAN and PUTNAM had advised him that the search included the cars, trunks of cars, tops of pipes, entrances and exits, were all checked with negative results. Nothing unusual was found during the check and he could recall being satisfied with the area search. Capt. TALBERT went on to say that he personally checked the doors leading off the basement level to insure that they were all locked.

In regard to other security measures that were taken by Capt. TALBERT he stated that the city basement elevators, of which there are two, were both "shut off" and this was done by means of a key. He explained this by saying that the elevators were adjusted so that they could not be operated below the level of the first floor of city hall. The service elevator which has an operator, was instructed not to pass the level of the first floor. Capt. TALBERT stated he could not recall the name of this particular operator, but felt it was something like "MITCHELL" or "MICHAEL." In regard to this, all city hall employees who were not police officers were cleared from the area including the parking attendant, whose nickname he could recall as being "KING." He could recall that "KING" was sent to the first floor prior to 10:00 a.m. that morning.

After the search had been conducted and the area cleared of all individuals other than authorized, Capt. TALBERT personally continued to check the area to include the Commerce Street exit leading from the basement area. He explained that the authorized personnel were those police officers who were to assist in the transfer as well as all news personnel who presented proper credentials. Capt. TALBERT could recall that during the course of the morning two news individuals were brought to him because they did not have press credentials. After a check of these two individuals, he determined that both were authorized newsmen and were permitted to stay on. He added that this check of news media representatives was one of several that was conducted during the morning hours prior to transfer of OSWALD.

Capt. TALBERT further advised that during the morning hours, prior to the transfer, he could recall that regular business was being carried on at the jail office. All individuals conducting business at the jail office were checked and if it appeared that they were authorized they were allowed to complete their business. He could specifically state that the jail office business was light that morning and very few individuals were actually conducting business. He could not recall if this business was being carried on at the time of OSWALD's transfer.

Prior to the transfer, exact time he could not recall, Capt. TALBERT telephonically contacted the Homicide Section and advised Detective BECK that the parking area was checked and if Capt. FRITZ would desire to have uniformed officers proceed and follow the transfer vehicle which he still believed was to be the armored car. He was told that Capt. FRITZ was still interviewing OSWALD and that if anything was needed along this line he would contact him. Immediately thereafter, Capt. TALBERT prepared three plain police cars and three marked cars for the purpose of escort if desired. Subsequently, Chief STEVENSON and Chief LUMPKIN contacted Capt. TALBERT and advised that the armored car that was to arrive for the purpose of transfer should be backed into the ramp way leading from Commerce Street as far as possible. Upon arrival of the armored car it was noted that because of its weight, the armored car could only back in a short distance and in order to maintain the security measures, Capt. TALBERT assigned two officers, one on each side of the armored car, to insure no one would either leave or enter from that ramp way. Although Capt. TALBERT was not aware of the officers' identity at that time, he later learned that Sgt. P. T. DEAN and Officer R. A. WATKINS were assigned to each side of the armored car.

Capt. TALBERT further advised that just prior to the arrival of the armored car, Chief LUMPKIN, Chief STEVENSON and Capt. TALBERT discussed the route and traffic obstructions that he may encounter during the transfer. Although he had no personal knowledge of the number of individuals around the county jail, Capt. TALBERT was advised by an unknown police officer that there were approximately 600 people in the vicinity of the county jail. He added that Sgt. STEELE was instructed to place a police officer at each traffic light and to maintain their cars at a close distance. His plan was that the lead car would flash its lights as they approached and the officer who was assigned to the corner would be able to cut off all oncoming traffic. He explained that after the vehicle had cleared the intersection the police officers stationed at various points were to follow in their cars to give assistance if needed.

Capt. TALBERT could also recall that upon arrival of the armored car at the Commerce Street exit, a plain car with three detectives were sent out the Main Street ramp way so as to be in condition in front of Armored car for purposes of escort. Capt. TALBERT identified the occupants of this car as being Lt. PIERCE, who was at that time driving; Sgt. J. A. PUTNAM, who was in the right front seat; and Sgt. B. J. MAXEY who was in the left rear seat. He was later informed by Lt. PIERCE that it was approximately five minutes prior to the shooting of OSWALD that they had proceeded from the basement level of City Hall. Lt. PIERCE advised Capt. TALBERT that his route was out the Main Street exit, left on Harwood Street, and then over to the Commerce Street exit of the basement.

Although Capt. TALBERT could not be absolutely sure of the exact positions of each of the police officers assisting in this transfer, he did recall that Sgt. PUTNAM was stationed in the center of the ramp way and was trying to clear the news media that had congregated at this point. He could recall that Lt. WIGGINS was inside the jail office but was not aware of his exact duties in the jail office. He later learned that just prior to the arrival of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the basement area, Lt. WIGGINS had received a phone call from the Homicide Section who advised that Capt. FRITZ was on his way to the basement level of City Hall with OSWALD. Lt. WIGGINS had advised him that the Homicide Section had asked him if everything was ready, at which time replied in the positive.

Capt. TALBERT related that just prior to the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, which he estimated to be approximately 11:20 a.m., he noticed a Homicide detective, name unrecalled, pull a plain car on the ramp way behind the armored car and then observed another Homicide detective, name unrecalled, who pulled in behind him with another plain car. Although he did not know the identities of these two detectives, at this time, he later learned that the first car was being driven by C. W. BROWN and the other car was driven by CHARLES DHORITY. He observed that the second car, driven by Detective DHORITY, was attempting to straighten as well as back into position for the transfer.

Capt. TALBERT could recall that he was standing at the left front fender of the car that DHORITY was driving, and was attempting to clear the area of the people that had congregated. He stated that news media individuals were as close as two or three feet from the rear of the police car and for this reason was trying to clear the area. Although Capt. TALBERT did not actually see LEE HARVEY OSWALD being escorted from the basement level, he did hear a pistol shot during the time he was attempting to clear the congested area. He immediately turned to observe what had happened and noticed that several police officers were struggling with an individual whom he could not identify at that time. It was not until after the shooting that Capt. TALBERT realized that the individual identified as JACK RUBY had actually shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Immediately following the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Capt. TALBERT stated that he talked with Chief CHARLES BATCHELOR and asked him at this time if he could arrange to have all the individuals in the basement area assemble in the assembly room for purposes of a search. He explained this by saying that he was not aware of the fact that the pistol with which RUBY had shot OSWALD was in possession of the police officers. He later was advised by Detectives GRAVES that the gun had been recovered and that there would be no need to assemble the individuals for the purpose of a search. Capt. TALBERT then obtained several pads from the jail office and instructed Sgt. EVERETT to obtain the names and addresses of all individuals in the basement area. Although he could not recall the exact time, Capt. TALBERT stated that he had instructed Sgt. EVERETT prior to the arrival of the ambulance and later learned that the names and addresses of the individuals were not obtained as directed.

Tel

Capt. TALBERT further advised that shortly thereafter, he proceeded to the Parkland Hospital with other officers to initiate security measures at the hospital. He stayed at the hospital until approximately 5:30 p.m. that day at which time he returned to the police headquarters. He could not recall the exact time, but Capt. JAMES M. SUTER relieved him and the remaining officers around the area. He estimated this time to be approximately 6:45 p.m. that day, and stated that he thereafter left for his home.

In regard to his particular assignment, Capt. TALBERT advised that he was acting on his own behalf concerning the security measures and was not instructed by any particular superior as to what he was or was not to do. At no time prior to the proposed trasnfer, did Capt. TALBERT receive any specific instructions concerning the details of the transfer and most of this information was obtained during the course of the morning.

Capt. TALBERT continued to say that he has never worked for JACK RUBY in any way whatsoever, but had heard through rumor that an individual by the name of "COX", who was alleged to be a reserve officer, was at one time employed by JACK RUBY. He stated that he could not base this on any particular fact and had only heard this through rumors. He could offer no information pertaining to any association between JACK RUBY and any Dallas police officer and felt that the only connection would be that of any normal association. He explained this by saying that several of the police officers are required to check night clubs and for this reason there would be a chance that several police officers would know of him only as a night club owner.

Capt. TALBERT stated that he felt he could not estimate the number of individuals that were in the basement level of City Hall either prior to the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or after the shooting had taken place. He was not particularly concerned over the exact number who were present and stated that his only intentions were to maintain the security measures. He was unable to identify any of the news media representatives who were in the basement level at the time of the transfer.

In regard to any background information concerning JACK RUBY, Capt. TALBERT stated that he was never personally acquainted with JACK RUBY and when he did see RUBY he could only recall that it was a familiar face. He related that he could not associate the name with the face and was not aware that RUBY was a night club owner in the Dallas area. Subsequent to the shooting of OSWALD, Capt. TALBERT was reminded by Lt. PIERCE that they had seen JACK RUBY approximately two years ago Ramada Inn Pancake House but could not recall any circumstances surrounding this meeting. He stated that to the best of his recollection he did not talk to RUBY at this time.

Capt. TALBERT continued to say that he did not observe RUBY prior to the transfer and did not at any time talk with RUBY either before or after the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He advised that he could offer no information pertaining to LEE HARVEY OSWALD and was not aware if there was any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD. The first time he had heard the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963.

In regard to this entire matter concerning the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 24, 1963, Capt. TALBERT advised that he had prepared a statement which was submitted to the Chief of Police, Dallas, and that the information that was furnished in this statement was essentially the same information that he had just now furnished interviewing Agents.

J. EARL CURRY

JESSE E. CURRY

Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed and immediately advised of the official identity of Special Agent LEO L. ROBERTSON. He was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised that he had the right to consult an attorney prior to making any statement. He then furnished the following information:

On December 9, 1963, he advised that the police department had not given a press card or pass to JACK RUBY or any sticker for his car. He advised that Captain GLEN KING, his Administrative Assistant, was the press relations officer and that he had checked with him and was satisfied that RUBY had no kind of press card or otherwise which was issued by the police department which would have admitted him to the area. In addition to the information that Chief CURRY previously gave on November 25, 1963 he advised on December 10, 1963, as follows:

He advised that at the time OSWALD was shot he was either in his office or near the entrance between his office and the lobby. He could not recall which. He stated he did not know JACK RUBY, that none of his officers had ever worked for RUBY, and that it was against departmental regulations for any Dallas policeman to work for any night clubs or any other type of establishments where alcoholic beverages were sold.

He advised he did not know how many people were in the basement inasmuch as he had not been down there immediately prior to the shooting. Chief CURRY stated he had discussed security measures with his staff, that he had not given any specific assignments to any one individual inasmuch as the department went strictly by chain of command and he did not feel it was necessary to give specific assignments.

He stated he believed that Assistant Chief CHARLES BACHELOR and Deputy Chief STEVENSON had made a couple of trips down to the basement that morning prior to the shooting of OSWALD. He advised that when they got down there, Captain TALBERT had already set up security measures, that the two chiefs conferred with him, thought his plans were adequate, and when they returned to the 3rd floor, they told him they thought everything was all right.

Chief CURRY reiterated that contrary to what had been released by various news media, he did not name a specific time when OSWALD was going to be moved from the City Jail to the County Jail. He stated that on the night before OSWALD was moved, he, (CURRY), was very tired and he was very sure the newsmen were also tired and they tried to pin him down to the time OSWALD would be moved. He stated that one of the newsmen, whose name he could not recall, finally said "Well, what time should we be here?" Chief CURRY said he told him they should be there by 10:00 a.m., but he did not state OSWALD was going to be moved at that time and that, as a matter of fact, they had made no attempt to move OSWALD until a few minutes after 11:00 a.m. on November 24, 1963.

Glen D. King

Captain GLEN D. KING, Administrative Assistant to Chief JESSE E. CURRY of the Dallas Police Department, was interviewed and was immediately advised of the official identity of Special Agent LEO L. ROBERTSON. He was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to consult an attorney prior to making any statement. He then furnished the following information:

Dallas, Tex

On December 9, 1963, Captain KING advised that he was the press relations officer for the police department and that he had not given a press card to JACK RUBY. He stated he was also sure that no one else in the police department had given RUBY a press card and that he would have known about it since he was the person assigned as press relations officer.

On December 10, 1963, Captain KING advised that he had no assignment in regard to moving LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the City to the County Jail but stated that since he was the press relations officer he went down to the basement at approximately 10:45 a.m. and was there until after the shooting. At the time he went into the corridor where the shooting occurred, he glanced over and saw the various media of the press and recognized two men from the Dallas Times Herald, JACK BEERS, a photographer, and also GEORGE PHENIX. He stated there were possibly others in the group he knew, although he could not recall the names of any others who were there at that time as he was more concerned with the set-up in the basement and was not actually thinking about who was down there.

He stated he has known JACK RUBY since about 1955 or 1956 as he worked in the Vice Squad at that time and they came in contact with most individuals who operated the type of places that RUBY had. He could not recall having seen RUBY since about 1956 and stated he doubted whether or not he would have recognized RUBY had he seen him. He stated at the time he arrived in the basement he would estimate there were possibly 30 or 40 members of the press there at that time but he was not sure about this as he was not thinking about that, as mentioned previously. He advised he was not in on the conference that the administrative staff had concerning security measures and did not know the actual plans, although he was aware that the press and police officers were the only authorized people who were supposed to be in the area. He did not know of any unauthorized person there and was not in a position to observe any of the members of the news media coming in at the time he arrived there.

He advised he had never known any police officers who had worked for RUBY and it was against the department's regulations for any Dallas policeman to work for any night clubs or any other type of establishments where they sold alcoholic beverages. He advised that shortly before the shooting, they were attempting to move two police cars onto the ramp and that he had gone out to the end of the corridor and turned to his right, which was south or onto Commerce Street and was attempting to get some of the police officers and newsmen moved back so that the police cars would have room to back up to the corridor where they were going to bring OSWALD out. He stated he was approximately half way between the two cars but was up on the west side of the ramp when he heard the shot. He looked around and saw that several officers had a man down, whom he later determined was JACK RUBY. He immediately ordered police officers to block all entrances and not let anyone in or out. He stated he then went over to where RUBY was lying and accompanied RUBY, Detective HARRIS and two or three other officers, whose names he could not recall, to the elevator where they took JACK RUBY to the 5th floor. He stated when they arrived on the 5th floor he ordered these men to strip RUBY down and search him thoroughly. He stated he had not hear of any information concerning any relationship between OSWALD and RUBY.

Assistant Chief CHARLES BATCHELOR stated that he received all of his instructions on everything in the department from Chief CURRY. He stated that on the day of November 24, 1963, he had gone down to the basement at approximately 9:30 A.M. and observed regular and reserve police searching cars in the basement area. He stated he went back up to his office and then at approximately 11:00 he went down to the basement a second time and went on up to the armored truck which was parked at the entrance of the Commerce ramp on the south side of the station. He stated that he personally, got into the armored truck and searched it himself. He remembers that Lieutenant BUTLER and Lieutenant SHARTT were there as well as two or three patrolmen, whose names he could not recall. He stated he did not see the shooting but heard the shot and went immediately down toward the corridor where the shooting had occurred. He stated that before he got there, Deputy Chief LUMPKIN issued instructions that no one was to leave the area. He stated he did not know RUBY, that no policeman as far as he knew, had ever worked for RUBY inasmuch as that was against the rules and regulations of the department. He stated the security measures to be into effect was to have all entrances into the basement blocked or have guards stationed at each entrance and that no unauthorized person was to be allowed into the area without showing proper credentials. He had never heard any information concerning any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD. He stated that he could not estimate how many people were present, but there were just a few photographers there when he went down the first time and he did not recall seeing anyone come in when he went down the second time prior to the shooting inasmuch as he was occupied with searching the armored truck. He stated he was not thinking about the number of people there and did not know that they had a double row of officers lined up on either side of the corridor and had officers posted at all entrances leading into the basement but that he could not honestly give an estimate as to the number of people in the basement area.

Deputy Chief of Police GEORGE LUMPKIN, in addition to the information previously given, advised that he accidentally met Chief STEVENSON of the Detective Bureau in the hallway on the third floor and he went down to the basement with him just approximately three to five minutes prior to the shooting of OSWALD. He stated that he had no assignment in connection with the moving of OSWALD; that he was in charge of the Service Division and went to basement partly out of curiosity and partly to see that the jail office was functioning as it should be. He stated that the jail office was empty and he stepped on out into the corridor to be of any assistance that might be needed. He did not know RUBY and could not recall ever having heard his name prior to the shooting. He stated that no police officers had ever worked for RUBY to his knowledge, and that the department had rules against any officers working at any place where they had a beer license. He did not know the details of the security measures since that was not his responsibility but was aware that orders had been given that no unauthorized person was to be in there. He did not personally see anyone come into the area inasmuch as they were all there, so far as he could tell when he arrived. He did not know of any unauthorized person that was allowed into the basement. He has never heard of any relationship between OSWALD and RUBY. He stated he did not see the actual shooting as he had stepped out into the corridor leading from the jail office to the ramp where two police cars were parked. He stated he had stepped around to the right of the corridor as he came from the jail office and was standing just around the corner about even with the middle of the police car which was sitting there. He stated that when he heard the shot, he saw the officer struggling to subdue RUBY and he went over and gave orders to all officers present that no one was to be allowed to leave the area. He reiterated that he was in no way responsible for anything pertaining to the moving of OSWALD but that since he was in charge of the Service Division, the patrol and so forth, was supporting the movement. He advised that he had no idea how many people, officers or otherwise were present because at the time he went out there, he was not thinking of people there and did not even think about that at that time.

O. A. JONES, Captain of Police, Forgery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information freely and voluntarily to Special Agents EDWARD J. MABEY and KENNETH P. HUGHES, who identified themselves to him as Special Agents of the FBI. He was immediately advised of the nature of the investigation; that he did not have to make any statement, and that any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law. JONES was also advised of his right to counsel.

Prior to 11:00 AM, on November 24, 1963, he was in the administration offices in the Police & Courts Building performing administrative duties. A little before 11:00 AM, Deputy Chief STEVENSON told JONES to place two officers at the entrance of the Commerce Street ramp to help and assist the armored car that was en route. STEVENSON also advised JONES to take any remaining detectives that were available on the third floor to the basement and place them where needed. JONES and two or three other detectives, names unknown, went to the basement where JONES placed Patrolman JEZ and one other unidentified patrolman at the entrance of the ramp on Commerce Street. He also advised Captain TALBERT of the Chief's instructions on placing these two patrolmen at the entrance of the ramp and advised that they were not to be moved. JONES placed two detectives, names unknown, at the jail office door. JONES noticed that there were newsmen inside the jail office and called this to the attention of Assistant Chief BATCHELOR and Deputy Chief STEVENSON. JONES, Chief BATCHELOR and some other officers removed the newsmen from the inside of the jail office and then continued moving these individuals down the hallway and into the basement area. JONES was aware of an automobile driving up the Main Street ramp in the wrong direction during the process of moving the press back. He later found out that the driver was Lieutenant R. PIERCE. At this point, Chief STEVENSON approached JONES and stated that there had been a change in plans and that two automobiles were now going to be used. These automobiles were located behind the press line and were started up and had to drive through the press line to get into position. JONES assisted in holding back the press lines during this process and gave instructions to all officers near the jail office and the doors to allow no one in the area from the jail to the automobiles down the route the prisoner was to take. After the shooting, JONES learned that Detective CHARLIE BROWN was the driver of the first automobile and Detective DHORITY, initials believed to be C. T., was the driver of the second automobile.

JONES was walking up the Commerce Street ramp when he heard from behind him, "Here he comes," from an unidentified individual. The police lines were again being re-formed and JONES turned and gave orders to the policemen in the vicinity not to let anyone follow the prisoner up the ramp. JONES noticed that Chief STEVENSON was across the ramp and further on up the ramp from himself and that Detective "BLACKIE" HARRISON was in the general area. JONES then turned to watch the crowd and the police line when he heard a shot to his left. He turned and saw two scuffles in the center of the ramp and, at this point, gave the order to seal the exits and ramps. He then approached the area where the scuffles were taking place, noticing at this point that the second automobile was closer to the jail door than he realized as he had to go around it to get to the scene of the scuffle. As he approached this scene, he heard two or three unidentified persons holler it was JACK RUBY. Upon his arrival at the scene, RUBY was in the custody of two detectives whose names he cannot recall.

At this point, JONES noted that Lieutenant SWAIN, of the Burglary & Theft Bureau, was having trouble holding back the crowd and JONES gave the order to get the prisoner back in jail and to help Lieutenant SWAIN. JONES, himself, helped Lieutenant SWAIN and thereafter went into the jail office where he saw OSWALD on the floor with a bullet wound in his stomach slightly under his left rib cage. JONES then left the jail office and noted that at this time the ambulance was arriving. He saw OSWALD taken out of the jail office and put into the ambulance and the ambulance start up the ramp. JONES noticed there was a slight delay from the time that OSWALD was placed in the ambulance and the time that it left the ramp, due to the armored car still being located on the ramp. JONES then placed two officers on the swinging doors just outside the jail office and advised them to let persons leave who had proper identification. At this point or just after he arrived on the third floor, JONES told Lieutenant R. E. MC KINNEY to get ten detectives and go to Parkland Hospital. JONES, himself, did not see the shooting.

JONES stated that he did know RUBY and had known him prior to 1952, when he ran the Silver Spur, a night club on South Ervay. He stated that prior to 1952 he was a Lieutenant covering this district and had gone into the Silver Spur, at the most, six times looking for white subjects. JONES stated he knew the name JACK RUBY, but stated it was doubtful he could connect the name with the individual without seeing his face. JONES stated he never worked for JACK RUBY and he did not know the names of any other officers who did.

JONES estimated there were more than fifty people other than officers in the basement and that there were two television cameras in operation and one not in operation. He did not know the names of any of these individuals.

Due to the fact that JONES was recalled from vacation, he was not present at any briefing on the security measures that were to be in effect in the basement on November 24, 1963. JONES knew that the officers in the basement were stopping individuals and asking for identification and, in fact, he, himself, was stopped and asked to produce his identification by a reserve officer. He knew of no unauthorized person in the basement, with the exception of JACK RUBY, whom he saw after the shooting. He did not see JACK RUBY in the basement or talking to any individual prior to the shooting. He did not see JACK RUBY at any time between November 22 and 24, 1963. He stated he is currently aiding in investigation of any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD by SA'S JAMES W. BOOKHOUT and GEORGE W. H. CARLSON, of the FBI, but had no knowledge of any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD prior to their current investigation.

CONVERSATION BETWEEN ATTORNEY TOM HOWARD AND CAPTAIN J. W. FRITZ, HOMICIDE AND ROBBERY BUREAU, DALLAS POLICE DEPARTMENT, ON DECEMBER 6, 1963, AND PRESENCE OF AGENTS.

On December 6, 1963, SAs JAMES W. BOOKHOUT and GEORGE W. H. CARLSON were called into the office of Captain J. W. FRITZ, Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, at which time Captain FRITZ made available two postcards from JOSEPHINE BRIGGS, 2106½ Crenshaw Blvd., Los Angeles, California. While discussing the above with Captain FRITZ, Attorney TOM HOWARD came into the office and spoke to Captain FRITZ.

Captain FRITZ asked HOWARD if he had obtained any information from JACK RUBY that might be helpful in the investigation, specifically had RUBY told him how he got into the City Hall building on November 24, 1963.

HOWARD stated RUBY had told him how he (RUBY) got in the basement, and the facts were the same as he (HOWARD) had released to the newspaper. HOWARD related that on November 24, 1963, at about 10:30 AM, RUBY was at his (RUBY's) home when he received a long-distance telephone call from some woman in Fort Worth who wanted RUBY to send her some money. HOWARD stated (FNU) SKINNER, RUBY's roommate, was present at the time RUBY received the call and corroborates same. HOWARD said RUBY thereafter dressed and went directly to the Western Union and sent $25 to the girl in Fort Worth. HOWARD stated he understood Western Union records reflect same sent at 11:16 AM, November 24, 1963. HOWARD said RUBY told him that after leaving the Western Union RUBY walked up Main Street to the Main Street ramp leading to the basement of the City Hall building. HOWARD said that RUBY said that as RUBY approached the ramp, an automobile was at the entrance of the ramp, and the driver of this automobile called the officer, standing at the ramp entrance, over to the automobile. While this officer was talking to the driver of the automobile, RUBY walked behind the officer and down the ramp into the basement of the City Hall building.

Captain FRITZ asked HOWARD how long RUBY had been in the basement before the killing. HOWARD stated that RUBY told him (HOWARD) that after walking down the ramp he stood in the basement only a very short time when he saw Captain FRITZ walk out and then saw OSWALD and the other officers. HOWARD pointed out that he had heard that the time of the killing had been fixed as 11:21 AM or 11:26 AM, and therefore, he (RUBY) could not have been in the basement very long.

Captain FRITZ asked HOWARD if RUBY had given him any indication that he (RUBY) knew the officer stationed at the head of the ramp. HOWARD said no. FRITZ asked why, then, had RUBY refused to discuss this point with him (FRITZ). HOWARD stated the reason was because RUBY did not want to get the officer in trouble.

FRITZ asked HOWARD if RUBY had said why he shot OSWALD. HOWARD stated that from talking to RUBY, he (HOWARD) feels that RUBY probably thought that he would be a hero and would be carried out on the shoulders of those present.

FRITZ asked HOWARD if there was any possibility of RUBY having any communist connections or Cuban connections. HOWARD said "absolutely no."

FRITZ asked HOWARD if RUBY knew OSWALD prior to the killing. HOWARD stated RUBY had not known OSWALD.

FRITZ asked HOWARD if RUBY had ever killed anybody before. HOWARD said no, but he understood at one time in the past, an associate of RUBY's had been killed, but that RUBY was not involved in the killing; HOWARD did not elaborate further.

HOWARD stated RUBY indicated he had been active in the past in some union in Chicago.

HOWARD said that he was leaving town this weekend to confer with the attorney who was going to take the lead in RUBY's murder trial (name of attorney not disclosed). HOWARD said that he (HOWARD) and the unnamed attorney will decide whether there is any reason why an interested agency should not interview RUBY and get all the background concerning RUBY first-hand. HOWARD said in his opinion, it would be to RUBY's advantage to give complete information concerning his (RUBY's) past so it could be definitely established beyond anyone's doubt that RUBY had no communist connections or prior acquaintance with OSWALD.

The Western Union Building is located at the intersection of Main and Central Expressway, which goes south on the east side of the building. Main Street runs on the north side of the building, and the building is in the same block with the police station, and the address is 2034 Main. There are two doors, which open on the north, or on Main Street.

SA LEO L. ROBERTSON, who is 6 feet, 3 inches tall, walking at a normal rate of speed, took the following set out time to cover these distances:

From the far entrance at the front of the Western Union office, down to the entrance approach to the Main Street ramp, which leads into the basement of the Dallas Police Department, 105 steps, time was 63 seconds.

From the near Western Union door, or the west door of the building entrance, to the middle of the Main Street entrance ramp, 101 steps in 58 seconds.

From the middle of the sidewalk of the Main Street ramp to the place where the shooting occurred, 33 steps in 22 seconds.

SA JAMES C. KENNEDY is 5 feet, 10 inches tall and, walking at a normal rate of speed, covered the distance from the nearest Western Union door, or to the one on the west side of the building, measuring 107 steps in 62 seconds to the middle of the sidewalk on the Main Street ramp. From the middle of the sidewalk of the Main Street ramp to the place where the shooting occurred, he took 37 steps in 22 seconds.

Captain O. A. JONES, of the Dallas Police Department, had the man in the Police Crime Laboratory measure the actual distance from the east end of the Western Union Building to the center of the Main Street ramp and found that it was 356 feet and 6 inches. It is to be noted that there are two doors opening on Main Street from the Western Union Building.

He stated the first door, or the one farthest from the police station, was 10 feet from the east side of the Western Union Building to the center of the first door of this building. He stated the first door, or the one farthest from the police station, was 10 feet from the east side of the Western Union Building to the center of the first door of this building. He stated it was 17 feet from the center of the first door to the center of the second door of the Western Union Building. By steel tape, it measured 99 feet from the center of the sidewalk to the corner of the wall on the east side of the corridor that goes to the jail office, where OSWALD was led out at the time he was shot. It is approximately 8 feet from the center of the driveway on a line with this east wall to the point where OSWALD was shot.

Mr. KENNETH K. ANDERSON, 405 E. College, Grapevine, Texas, was advised he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law, that he had the right to talk to an attorney, and the identities of Special Agents ROBERT J. WILKISON and EDMOND C. HARDIN. No threats or promises were made to ANDERSON.

ANDERSON advised as follows:

He is employed as Patrolman for the Dallas, Texas; Police Department and assigned to the Northwest Sub Station. On November 24, 1963, he started the 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. shift.

At about 9:00 a.m., November 24, 1963, he was on routine duty in his patrol car and received a message to call the Patrol Office by telephone. He did so, and was instructed to report to the Police Captain's Office, downtown Dallas Police Department Headquarters.

ANDERSON arrived at the downtown Dallas Police Station Headquarts at about 9:15 a.m. and stood by for instructions. There were approximately 14 or 15 other patrolmen standing by. At approximately 9:45 a.m., Patrolman TAYLOR instructed them to report to Sergeant P. T. DEAN in the basement. Upon arrival in the parking area of the basement garage they met Sergeant DEAN. Other police officer supervisors present with DEAN were, Sergeant STEELE, Sergeant PUTNAM and Captain TALBERT. Several other policement who just arrived at the Police Station also joined the squad of officers, there might have been a total of approximately 20 officers present.

ANDERSON stated Captain TALBERT asked the patrolmen how many had shotguns in their patrol cars and instructed those who had shotguns to go get them. After the officers obtained their shotguns, they put them in Sergeant DEANS station wagon.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

The patrolmen then stood by for further instructions.

A little while after 10:00 a.m., Sergeant DEAN assigned all of the patrolmen to proceed to specific street intersections along Elm Street and stand by. DEAN said that a regular patrol car, a squad car or possibly the Police Chief's car would be driven down Elm Street in connection with the transfer of OSWALD to the County Jail. Before the car reached each intersection, the red signal lights of the car would be blinking which would be the signal to the patrolmen to permit the car through the intersection. An armored truck would be behind the police car. They were instructed not tell anyone the plan. Sergeant PUTNAM was there when the patrolmen were given the instructions.

ANDERSON left for his assigned station which was the corner of Elm and Field Streets and stood by in his patrol car. The traffic was so heavy at the intersection, that shortly after arrival, he started with the direction of traffic.

About 11:30 a.m. someone in a passing car told him that OSWALD had been shot. He got into the car, and radioed headquarters for instructions. A few minutes later he was instructed to report to Parkland Hospital and not to allow anyone to enter the building. Upon arrival at the hospital he immediately started with the direction of traffic. A little while later, a Police Lieutenant whose name he does not now recall instructed him to permit hospital personnel, emergency cases, press and TV representatives to enter the hospital area.

He does not know JACK RUBY personally or by sight. He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, before the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

When he left the Police Department Basement area for his traffic assignment, he estimated there were approximately 75 TV and press representatives in the basement area.

When he entered the basement ramp on the Main Street side of the Police Department Headquarters at approximately 9:15 a.m., November 24, 1963, he observed a Police Officer on guard and checking people entering the ramp. He believes the officer on duty was Officer VAUGHAN, who was alone at that time. When he later left by the same ramp, he believed that Officer VAUGHAN was still on duty and was alone.

He had nothing to do with security measures in the basement area, but believes there were patrol guards on all entrances and that apparent security precautions were taken.

While he was in the basement area, he did not see any suspicious people, everyone was a police officer, press or TV representative. He had no knowledge of any unauthorized persons being permitted entrance to the basement or of anyone permitted to enter without show his identification. He has no information concerning any relationship between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

He never worked for RUBY or at any of his, RUBY's, night clubs. He does not know of any police officers who ever worked for RUBY or in any of RUBY's night clubs.

He said that regulations of the Dallas Police Department prohibited police officers from working off duty in establishments where liquor is served, however, he has heard that this regulations does not prohibit reserve police officers from working in such establishments. He has heard from stories he does not now recall, but has no personal knowledge, that if a night club operator wants to have a police officer in uniform stationed at his establishment, arrangements are made with Captain GANNAWAY, Special Services Bureau, Dallas Police Department. When regular police officers are prohibited from working such establishments, a reserve police officer is stationed at the establishment. The night club owner does not pay the reserve officer directly, but makes payment to the city of Dallas and the reserve police officer is then paid by the city.

ANDERSON said he did not personally know any reserve police officers who were ever so employed.

ANDERSON said he had no additional pertinent information concerning the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

CHARLES OLIVER ARNETT, 1223 South Waverly Drive, Dallas, Tex was contacted at his residence and was advised of the identity of the interviewing agents, the fact that he did not have to make a statement and that any statement made by him could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised that he had a right to consult an attorney prior to making any statement.

ARNETT stated he is a captain in the reserve police force and has been a reserve police officer for the past ten years. He stated that on Saturday night, November 23, 1963, he was stationed at the door of Chief CURRY's office at the police department and was assigned to keep unauthorized persons from the Chief's office. He stated he was told by an unidentified patrolman to call Lieutenant MERRELL, which he did, and was advised by MERRELL that the police department had requested that a few reserve officers report to the basement of the Police and Courts Building the next morning for assignment.

Captain ARNETT advised his men and on the following morning, Sunday, November 24, 1963, he arrived at the Assembly Room of the Police and Courts Building at about 9:00 a.m. and was asked by Lieutenant WIGGINS of the police department to furnish men to search the basement parking area of the Police and Courts Building. He advised he was later requested by Captain LAWRENCE of the police department to furnish five or six men on traffic duty at the site of the assassination of the President. Captain ARNETT stated he also furnished three or four men on Commerce Street adjacent to the Police and Courts Building to help direct traffic and remove spectators from the immediate area and also furnished one man at the intersection of Pearl and Commerce Streets to direct traffic because of a faulty signal light.

Captain ARNETT stated he was in the basement during this entire period and that about 11:05 a.m. he took a position in a line of men composed of both newsmen and police officers which extended from the jail lobby door to the location of the two operating television cameras. He stated this line of men were facing into the parking area with their backs to the Main Street ramp. He stated there was a man in civilian clothes on his immediate right who was holding a microphone and also a man in civilian clothes on his immediate left holding a note pad and next to this individual was Captain GLEN KING. He stated he recalls there was another individual standing to Captain KING's left but that he does not know who this individual was or if he was in uniform. Captain ARNETT stated that this line of men separated to allow a police vehicle to exit on the Main Street ramp and that they later had to separate, as a vehicle was backed into their area.

Captain ARNETT stated that as OSWALD was walking past him, accompanied by two plainclothes detectives, a man appeared in front of OSWALD with his right hand extended and he then heard what sounded like a gunshot. ARNETT stated he then saw that the man who had stepped in front of OSWALD was carrying a gun and that he immediately rushed to this individual and managed to grab his leg and that assisted by other police officers, carried this individual into the jail lobby. ARNETT stated that when they reached the jail lobby, this individual stated "I am JACK RUBY, you all know me." ARNETT stated that was the first that he knew he had been holding JACK RUBY.

Captain ARNETT stated that he did see the shooting as noted above. He stated he did not know JACK RUBY prior to this and that he had never worked for RUBY and did not know anyone who did. He estimated there were between 15 and 20 individuals in the basement area of the Police and Courts Building other than police officers at the time of the shooting. He advised he was not given a briefing of the security measures to be employed in the basement, and that it seemed to him that individual assignments were made as the situation developed. ARNETT stated he does not know of any unauthorized persons permitted entrance to the basement or of anyone being permitted to enter without identification. ARNETT was exhibited a photograph of JACK RUBY taken on November 24, 1963, and he stated he does not recall seeing this individual in the basement prior to the shooting and that he is sure he has never had occasion to talk to RUBY at any time in the past. He stated he does not have any information concerning any relationship between OSWALD and RUBY.

BUFORD LEE BEATY, Detective, Narcotics Section, Dallas Police Department, residence 404 Freeman, Dallas, was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents, and that he need not make any statement, and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was also advised of his right to an attorney. He furnished the following information:

On November 24, 1963, he started work at approximately 8:00 AM, which was his regular Sunday shift. From his arrival at the Police Department to approximately 9:30 AM, he was in his assigned office doing paper work. He then went down to the basement of the Police Department, where Captain TALBERT requested him to watch an individual of apparent Hungarian origin who was allegedly in the basement attempting to secure the release of two of his employees.

About 10:00 AM, Captain O. A. JONES passed by and requested that he wait by the jail elevator and meet the contingent of detectives from the third floor who were coming down to aid in the transfer of OSWALD and have them remain at the elevator for assignments. At approximately 10:10 AM, Captain JONES instructed the detectives to form a double line along the walls of the anteway and into the far side of the garage. Captain JONES also asked the press not to ask questions of OSWALD.

To his recollection, a Patrolman NELSON and one reserve policeman were in the basement on the other side of the double doors from the garage checking everyone who entered. After the double line was formed, only one TV cameraman was allowed through the double doors from the basement interior.

Around 11:30 AM, OSWALD was brought down in the elevator and passed through the line of officers, preceded by Lieut. R. E. SWAIN and Captain WILL FRITZ. Detectives J. R. LEAVELLE and L. C. GRAVES were on either side of OSWALD and Detective L. D. MONTGOMERY immediately behind OSWALD.

When OSWALD entered the driveway area of the basement, the members of the press surged forward and someone yelled for OSWALD to make a statement. At this time BEATY leaned slightly forward and looked around at the group of pressmen, anticipating having to move forward to keep the crowd back. He heard a shot and looked in time to see two police officers grabbing JACK RUBY, whose hand, bearing pistol, was up in the air. He saw Detective GRAVES remove a snub-nosed pistol from RUBY's hand as RUBY was forced to the floor.

He did not see anyone prior to the time of the shooting whom he knew to be other than a policeman or a member of the press. He estimates over 100 people other than police officers were in the basement at the time of the shooting, none of whom he could call by nam

He has known RUBY for six or seven years, only casually, and had no extended conversations with him. Some time, exact date not recalled, he wrote a traffic ticket for a violation which RUBY committed in his presence. He last saw RUBY about four weeks prior to the shooting. He did not speak with OSWALD or RUBY after the shooting.

He does not know of any police officer or ex-police officer who has ever worked for RUBY. He has no knowledge of any political activity or beliefs of RUBY. He did not know OSWALD prior to the assassination and has no knowledge of any connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

He understands the garage area was searched by a group of officers prior to bringing OSWALD down. He personally saw MELBA ESPINOSA, an employee at the Police Department Information Desk, refused admittance to the basement just prior to the shooting. He noticed the reserve policeman inside the basement at the double doors challenge Captain JONES, who was in plain clothes at sometime before the shooting.

He did not personally request identification of anyone since he understood the entrances to the basement were being guarded and identification was required for persons to enter.

He advised the following is a list of officers that he remembers seeing in the basement just before and after the shooting:

B. H. CONBEST	R. L. LOWERY
J. H. HUTCHINSON	CHARLES GOOLSBY
W. J. HARRISON	W. E. CHAMBERS
WILBUR CUTSHAW	Captain FRANK MARTIN
JAMES WATSON	Lieut. W. WIGGINS

FREDERICK A. BEIBERDORF, 8603 Midway Road, medical student, Southwestern Medical School, University of Texas, at Dallas, Texas, was contacted at the Southwestern Medical School and immediately advised of the official identities of the interviewing agents, the fact that he did not have to make a statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was further advised of his right to consult an attorney prior to interview. He furnished the following information:

BEIBERDORF stated he reported for duty as the First Aid attendant in the basement of the Police and Courts Building at approximately 9:30 a.m., November 24, 1963. He stated he relieved a BILL HALL, former classmate, who had been on duty since noon of the previous day. He advised he reported to the First Aid Office in the basement which is located immediately to the east of the Main Street ramp of the basement against the east wall of the building. He advised he remained there until about 9:45 a.m. when a police officer requested him to vacate the office and to leave the basement area. He stated he then took up his position in the basement at the intersection of the hallway underneath the City Hall. He advised that from this position he had an unobstructed view of the basement parking area and that he did not notice if there were any doors between him and the basement area. BEIBERDORF stated he was at this position when he saw OSWALD being brought into the basement area accompanied by several detectives, and then he thought he heard a gunshot and immediately proceeded into the basement area. He stated this took him several minutes due to the confusion and by the time he reached the general vicinity of the location where OSWALD had been shot, he found that OSWALD and RUBY had already been removed from the scene. He stated he searched the immediate area for several minutes before proceeding into the jail lobby adjacent to the parking area where he was asked to identify himself by a detective at the door. He stated he then immediately saw RUBY lying face up in the jail office lobby approximately ten feet inside the jail lobby door, and he then saw OSWALD in the same position approximately half way between RUBY and the elevator which had earlier taken OSWALD to the basement. He stated he could not detect a pulse, breathing or heartbeat of OSWALD and that OSWALD's pupils had partially dilated. He stated he was under the impression OSWALD had expired. He noted that someone had pulled OSWALD's shirt up to his chest and he could see a puncture wound on the left side of OSWALD's stomach just below the rib cage but that no external bleeding was evident. He stated he could feel the bullet in OSWALD by pressing with his fingers between OSWALD's ribs on his right side. He stated he may have missed hearing OSWALD's heartbeat due to the noise in the jail lobby at the time. He stated he commenced massaging the sternum of OSWALD in an effort to start a heartbeat and that while doing this, several attendants from an ambulance unit arrived, placed OSWALD on a stretcher and placed him in an ambulance which they had backed into the basement parking area from the Commerce Street ramp. He stated this was approximately five minutes after he had heard the gunshot.

BEIBERDORF advised he continued his massaging during the trip to the hospital and also used the oxygen cup resuscitator which he placed over OSWALD's mouth and that approximately five blocks from Parkland Hospital OSWALD started thrashing about and resisting his efforts of massaging and also attempted to remove the resuscitator from over his mouth. He stated that he was accompanied on this trip by Detective LEAVELLE who had been handcuffed to OSWALD and two other detectives, names unknown, plus the ambulance driver and his assistant. He stated the latter two were riding in the front seat and the two detectives were in a seat immediately behind the front seat, and Detective LEAVELLE was sitting immediately to his left in the rear of the ambulance.

BEIBERDORF stated he followed the ambulance stretcher carrying OSWALD into the Emergency Ward and remained with OSWALD while hospital attendants inserted a tube into OSWALD's throat to aid his breathing. He stated two minutes after entering the Emergency Room, also known as the Trauma Room, OSWALD was removed to to the operating room. He stated this was the last time he saw OSWALD.

BEIBERDORF advised that while he was with OSWALD in the jail lobby basement until he left him in the Emergency Room of Parkland Hospital that OSWALD failed to make any statements whatsoever.

BEIBERDORF stated he was not acquainted with JACK RUBY but that he had interviewed RUBY in the Dallas Police Jail on Sunday, November 24, 1963, at about 4:00 or 5:00 p.m. at which time RUBY stated he had no complaints concerning any brutality and that the finger bruises on his upper right arm and a few bruises on his right wrist and forearm were the result of the scuffle in the basement when he was apprehended. BEIBERDORF stated he gave RUBY a physical examination at this time in order to insure RUBY had not concealed any weapon on his person.

BEIBERDORF advised that he does not recall any double swinging doors separating him from the basement parking area prior to the shooting and that he has since viewed several television tapes of the shooting and he has been able to see in these tapes his position at the time of the shooting from the position of the two television cameras operating in the basement parking area. He advised he has walked through this passage several times previous to November 24, 1963, but does not ever recall seeing any swinging doors and that if there were doors between him and the basement parking area at the time of the shooting, they must have been wide open.

BEIBERDORF advised he has no idea how many people other than police offiers were in the basement area prior to the shooting and that he did not know any of these people. He stated he has no knowledge of security measures that were in effect in the basement on November 24, 1963, other than the fact he was asked to remove himself from the basement and he assumed only police officers and press men were allowed to remain. He stated he does not know of any unauthorized persons permitted entrance to the basement or any permitted to enter without showing identification.

BEIBERDORF stated he did not observe RUBY in the basement area prior to the shooting and that when he observed RUBY lying on the jail lobby floor, it was the first time he had ever seen RUBY and he does not have any information concerning a relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

He stated he was on duty in the basement this date as a First Aid attendant employed by the City Health Department and that his duties normally consisted of treating injured prisoners of the police department. BEIBERDORF stated he is a senior medical student in his forth year of study at the Southwestern Medical School and that he will graduate in June, 1963, and commence his intership.

D. C. BRANTLEY

Detective DANIEL [illegible] advised that he is in the Burglary and Theft Detail of the Dallas Police Department. He was advised that he did not have to make a statement; that any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law, and that he was entitled to talk to an attorney. BRANTLEY voluntarily furnished the following information:

T-175

On November 24, 1963, he was assigned by Lieutenant SWAIN of the Burglary Detail to go to the basement of the Dallas Police Department. He and other detectives were told to "spread out and be inconspicuous and watch the crowd in the lobby." The lobby is the area between the information desk and the jail windows. BRANTLEY was instructed to do this shortly before LEE HARVEY OSWALD was brought out from the jail to be taken to the County Jail.

When BRANTLEY arrived in the lobby area there were two uniformed officers at the door leading from the lobby to the ramp. BRANTLEY believes that he would not have been allowed to go through that door without identifying himself. BRANTLEY went to the lobby and observed the crowd and also saw OSWALD when he was being taken from the elevator to the ramp area. He lost sight of OSWALD and the detectives transporting OSWALD within a short time after they left the elevator and did not see OSWALD further and did not see him shot.

Shortly after OSWALD was taken through a door onto the ramp area, he heard a shot and he ran to the ramp to see what was going on. He saw considerable struggling going on and only saw JACK RUBY's face. He heard someone say that it was JACK RUBY who had shot OSWALD.

BRANTLEY estimated there were 40 to 50 persons on the outside ramp area where the shooting took place and approximately half of those persons were probably people from the news media. There were television cameras and other cameras set up out on the ramp area. He does not know what the entire security picture was or what other persons' orders were in connection with security of the basement area. He does recall that when he rode down on the elevator two men pushing a television camera were trying to get on the elevator and he helped them get the camera on the elevator. When he arrived in the basement, he heard one man say to the other "I believe we can push through this crowd and go up the ramp." BRANTLEY does not believe that they would have been challenged or that anyone else appearing with a camera would have been challenged if they appeared to be working for a news media.

BRANTLEY was not told to check identification himself. He was instructed only to watch the crowd in the lobby.

BRANTLEY has heard rumors that JACK RUBY was around the Police Department for the two previous days and he is of the opinion that on this day RUBY just walked in.

Every person that he personally saw inthe lobby appeared to be either with a news media or with the Police Department. There were uniformed officers at practically every door and he does not believe that he would have been allowed to pass those officers unless he identified himself. However, he felt that if he had had a camera and had looked as if he were with some TV station or newspaper he would probably have been allowed to pass without displaying identification.

Detective BRANTLEY informed that he had been in JACK RUBY's place, the Carousel, on two or three occasions, but he said RUBY does not know him by name and he has never worked for RUBY. He said that when he was in RUBY's place he would have talked with RUBY because RUBY makes a special point of being friendly with officers of the Police Department.

BRANTLEY said he did not see RUBY any time between November 22 and November 24, and he does not have any information indicating that RUBY and OSWALD were acquainted prior to the shooting.

(1) A.R. X Brock

Mr. ALVIS R. BROCK, 207 East Baylor, Ennis, Texas, was advised he did not have to make any statement, any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law, he had a right to talk to an attorney, and of the identity of SAs ROBERT J. WILKISON and EDMOND C. HARDIN. No threats or promises were made to BROCK.

BROCK advised as follows:

He is employed as a patrolman by the Dallas, Texas, Police Department and assigned to main Police Headquarters.

About 9 a.m., November 24, 1963, he was on routine patrol with Patrolman M. L. WISE. They received a radio message to telephone the patrol office. They did so and received instructions to report to the patrol office, which they did a few minutes later.

A few minutes after their arrival Lieutenant PIERCE instructed BROCK and three other patrolmen to report to Sergeant P. T. DEAN in the basement for assignment. This was about 9:25 a.m.

Upon arrival in the basement they contacted Sergeant DEAN and Sergeant PUTNAM who were then together. Sergeant PUTNAM assigned BROCK to guard the elevator entrance located at the east end of the basement in the garage area. Sergeant PUTNAM instructed him not to allow anyone except police officers and press representatives into the basement and to check everyone's identification.

The elevator where he was on duty was an elevator not used very much and possibly was a freight elevator. He assumed his position a few minutes after arrival in the basement.

When he first arrived at the elevator there were three city employees at the elevator in addition to the elevator operator. A few minutes later Sergeant PUTNAM told him that the city employees would have to leave. He and Sergeant PUTNAM then made the city employees leave the area. Sergeant PUTNAM told the elevator operator to keep the elevator on another floor or not to operate it.

A little while later Sergeant PUTNAM brought a TV man over to the elevator, who used it to go to one of the upper floors and return to the basement a short time later. When the TV man was returned in the elevator to the basement, Sergeant PUTNAM told the elevator operator not to answer the elevator buzzer any more and to keep the elevator on another floor.

At about 10:45 a.m. Sergeant DEAN and Sergeant PUTNAM contacted several of the officers, including BROCK, in the basement area. Sergeant DEAN assigned them traffic assignments along Elm Street during the period when OSWALD would be transferred from City Jail to the County Jail. BROCK was assigned to the Elm Street - Irving Street intersection and assumed that position shortly thereafter. When he left the elevator area there was a reserve police officer nearby and he assumed the reserve officer was watching that area.

He worked his traffic assignment at the Elm Street - Irving Street intersection until about 11:30 a.m. At about that time another traffic officer, M. L. WISE, picked him up and they reported to Parkland Hospital for assignment.

He was not in the basement area when OSWALD was shot.

He does not personally know JACK RUBY but believes he would recognize RUBY on sight. He did not see RUBY on the day of the shooting, or between November 22 and November 24, 1963. He never worked for RUBY or in any of RUBY's night clubs. He does not know any police officers who ever worked for RUBY and never heard of any police officer ever working for RUBY.

He did not know how many police officers and people other than officers were in the basement area. While he was in the basement area he did not see anyone other than officers or press representatives. He was not familiar with the security measures in effect in the basement area, but observed that a police officer was at the entrance to the basement ramp. He had no occasion to require anyone to identify themselves. No one got off the elevator when he was on duty at the elevator other than the one, previously mentioned, TV man.

He never heard of OSWALD before the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

He never heard of any relationship between OSWALD and RUBY.

He does not know of any unauthorized person who was permitted entrance to the basement or of anyone permitted to enter without showing identification.

He does not have any additional pertinent information concerning the shooting of OSWALD.

I. D. Brockway

JIMMY DON BROCKWAY, 2710 Douglas, Irving, Texas, was contacted at his place of employment, L. IV, 9314 West Jefferson Boulevard, was advised of the official identities of the interviewing agents, the fact that he did not have to make any statement and that any statement made by him could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised of his right to counsel.

BROCKWAY stated he is a reserve officer, Badge No. 398, and has been in this capacity for the past six years. He stated that at about 10:00 a.m. on Sunday, November 24, 1963, he received a telephone call from Captain SOLOMAN from the Dallas Police Department who requested him to report to the Police Department as soon as possible to help in the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

BROCKWAY stated he arrived at the Police Department at about 11:10 a.m. that morning and reported to Lieutenant MERRELL at the Assembly Room which was also used as a press room in the Police and Courts Basement. He stated he was told by Lieutenant MERRELL that the basement had been sealed off and that he was to go into the basement and check with the officer on duty for an assignment as OSWALD was about to be brought down to the basement. BROCKWAY stated that as he stepped out of the Assembly Room he was told by the sergeant at the Information Desk that OSWALD was now being brought down in the elevator. He said that just prior to stepping through the double doors leading to the basement parking area, he looked to his left through a caged window and could see two detectives flanking OSWALD walking from the elevator and approaching the jail lobby door. BROCKWAY advised he was preceeded by several newspaper men and as he stepped through the double doors to the basement, he heard a shot and immediately rushed forward and joined hands with other officers who were attempting to fence off the area. He stated that by the time he reached the scene of the shooting, police officers had already removed RUBY and OSWALD into the jail lobby area.

BROCKWAY advised that he did not actually see the shooting. He stated he does not know JACK RUBY, has never worked for him and does not know of any officers who have ever worked for RUBY. He estimated there were a maximum of 20 individuals in the immediate area of the shooting other than police officers, but that he did not recognize any of them. He advised he did not know what security measures were being taken to guard OSWALD in the basement on that day and does not know how the basement was sealed off or how individuals were required to identify themselves. He stated he does not know of any unauthorized persons who were permitted entrance to the basement, and that he does not have any information concerning any relationship between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

C. W. Brown Date 12/4/63

Charles Brown

Detective CHARLES W. BROWN, Badge #759, assigned to the Homicide and Robbery Division, Dallas Police Department, residence De Soto, Texas, was interviewed in the office of the Homicide and Robbery Division. Detective BROWN was advised that he did not have to furnish any information and any information that he did furnish could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised of his right to consult an attorney prior to furnishing any information.

Detective BROWN furnished a copy of his report regarding the death of LEE HARVEY OSWALD which reflects as follows:

"On the 24th of November, 1963, I reported to work at 7:00 am driving Squad Car #376. After an interview of the suspect, Lee Harvey Oswald, by Captain Fritz, I was told to get my car and get in position in front of the other squad that was to carry Oswald to the County Jail. At approximately 11:40 am, I went to the City Hall basement and drove my car about half way up the south ramp, which leads out to Commerce Street, and my partner, Dhority, moved the other squad car up behind me. We both started attempting to back up to the jail office door when I heard a shot. I immediately put the emergency brake on and ran back to the other car. By this time, other officers had removed Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby into the jail office. I went back to my car and moved it back into the parking area so the ambulance could get through. When the ambulance arrived, Captain Fritz, Detg. E. R. Beck, L. D. Montgomery and I proceeded behind the ambulance to Parkland Hospital and set up security, first in the Emergency Room, then to the fourth floor, where Oswald underwent surgery. After Oswald died at 1:07 pm, the body was removed to the X-ray room on the ground floor. Judge Pierce McBride was contacted via telephone, and he reported to the morgue desk and gave authorization for a post mortem to be performed by Dr. Rose of the Parkland Staff. Dr. Rose took charge of the body, and I went with him and got the wife and mother of Oswald from the waiting room and let them view the body in the X-ray room. After the relatives viewed the body, I accompanied it along with my partner, C. W. Dhority, and Dr. Rose to the Morgue. At the Morgue, Dhority and I witnessed the preliminary photos taken of the body by Dr. Rose and his staff. After this, I returned to the office and continued our investigative work there."

He added that the original plan to transfer OSWALD was to be by armored car but this plan was later changed. The new plan was to transfer OSWALD in an unmarked police car with Detective CHARLES M. DHORITY driving and accompanied by Captain WILL FRITZ and other Detectives. He, BROWN, was to drive the lead car in front of the vehicle carrying OSWALD. They were to proceed west on Commerce Street from the Police Building for two blocks and north on the Central Expressway for one block and then west on Main Street to the County Jail. The armored car was to proceed in front of them on the same route but would continue north on the Central Expressway to Elm Street and then west to the County Jail.

He did not recognize any persons in the basement of the Police Building on November 24, 1963, except police officers. He estimated there were about 40 or 50 newsmen, TV men and cameramen in the basement known of which he recalled known.

He knew JACK RUBY by sight only but never recalled having actually met him. He recalled seeing RUBY on the Police Building elevator on November 23, 1963, and as he recalled, RUBY got on the elevator at the second floor and went to the basement. He did not recall what time of day this was or which direction RUBY went after leaving the elevator.

He did not know the details of the security restrictions in the basement of the Police Building nor did he require anyone to identify themselves.

He had never seen OSWALD prior to his arrest on November 22, 1963, nor does he know of any association between OSWALD and RUBY.

He furnished the following copy of his report of his activities on November 22, 1963, which reflects as follows:

"Last Friday, November 22, 1963, I reported for work at 10:00 AM. My partner, C. M. Dhority, was on a day off, and I was working alone. At approximately 11:00 AM, Det. J. R. Leavelle and myself started looking for a colored male that was wanted for armed robbery by this Bureau. At 12:15 PM, we arrested this subject at 2421 Ellis Street and brought him to the Homicide Office for booking. While Det. Leavelle and myself were booking this prisoner, we heard the police radio announce that the President had been shot and was enroute to Parkland Hospital. Det. Leavelle and I placed this prisoner in jail and proceeded to the location of the shooting at Elm and Houston. When we arrived at the location, we found that the Book Depository was sealed off for search. Det. Leavelle went in one direction, and I went to the rear of the building and entered. I saw several officers and proceeded to the sixth floor. I contacted Capt. Fritz. Capt. Fritz advised me and Det. B. L. Senkel, who was already there, to bring the employees of this building to the Homicide Office and get affidavits from them. Det. Senkel and I brought three of these employees to the office, and I took an affidavit from a William H. Shelley, w/m/37, of 126 South Tatum Street, FE 7-1969. While I was taking this affidavit from Mr. Tatum, a group of officers brought a Lee Harvey Oswald in, and these officers stated that he was the one that shot officer J. D. Tippit. Mr. Shelley saw this Oswald, and told me that he was one of his employees at the book store. After I took the affidavit from Mr. Shelley in regards to his whereabouts and action after the shooting, I took a second one from him relating to the employment and job supervision of Oswald. Det. Senkel took an affidavit from a Bonnie Ray Williams, c/m/, of 1502 Avenue B, that we brought from the building. The rest of the night until 2:30 AM, November 23, 1963, was spent in the Homicide and Robbery Bureau answering telephones. The next day, which was the 23rd of November, I took an affidavit from a Mr. Seymour Weitzman, w/m, of 2802 Oats Drive, DA 7-6624. This man is a deputy constable working out of Constable Robie Love's office, in the Court House Building. This man and a Deputy Boone of the Sheriff's Office were on the sixth floor of the Book Depository Building and found the rifle used in the shooting of the President. Throughout the day and night I remained in the Homicide office continuing the investigation.

"At approximately 6:00 pm Lt. T. B. Wells gave Tell my partner, C. N. Dhority, and myself information that the bus driver that picked up Oswald near the scene of the President's murder was driving the Piedmont bus #50 and would be at the intersection of Commerce and Harwood at 6:15 pm. We walked over to the bus stop and stopped this bus which was driven by a Mr. McWatters, and he accompanied us to the Homicide Office where my partner took an affidavit from him. This suspect Oswald, when arrested, had a bus transfer slip in his pocket and Mr. McWatters identified this as being the one that he had punched earlier. After the affidavit was taken by my partner, we both took Mr. McWatters to the Police Assembly Room located in the basement of the city hall for a lineup. Mr. McWatters identified Oswald as #2 man in a 4-man lineup at 6:30 pm, numbering left to right on the stage. Mr. McWatters went back to his work, and my partner and I returned to the Homicide Office for further investigation.

D. L. Burgess

Detective DORELINE BURGESS, Badge No. 1412, who is assigned to the Burglary and Theft Section of the Dallas Police Department, was interviewed at which time he was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to consult an attorney prior to making any statement. No threats or promises were made to him to induce him to give a statement. He furnished the following information:

Detective BURGESS advised he is a detective assigned to the Burglary and Theft Section of the Dallas Police Department and was working his regular duty schedule on the day of November 24, 1963. At approximately 11:15 a.m., under the direction of Lieutenant SWAIN on the day of November 24, 1963, he and several other detectives assigned to the Burglary and Theft Section were directed to proceed to the basement of the City Hall and stand by for the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the alleged assassin of President KENNEDY. Immediately thereafter, Detective BURGESS proceeded from the 3rd floor to the public elevator that would take him to the basement. He could recall boarding the elevator with two other detectives, whose names he could not recall at this time, and one or two cameramen or newsmen. Although he could not be sure, Detective BURGESS was under the impression that the two cameramen or newsmen who rode the elevator with him were local newsmen or cameramen inasmuch as they were wearing some type of identification indicating they were from the local news media.

Upon arrival in the basement of City Hall, Detective BURGESS walked to the window of the Jail Office. Shortly thereafter, approximately five minutes, he observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD departing the jail elevator on the basement floor. At the time of his observation, he noticed OSWALD was accompanied by two other detectives from the Dallas Police Department, who he identified as Detectives J. R. LEAVELLE and L. C. GRAVES. He noticed OSWALD was handcuffed to Detective LEAVELLE, who was at the time escorting OSWALD through the Jail Office area and toward the exit leading into the basement parking area.

by Special Agent LANSING P. LOGAN & ALTON E. BRAMBLETT/csh Date dictated 12/4/63

He continued to observe OSWALD, accompanied by the detectives, and noticed that they proceeded directly through the exit and into the basement driveway. Shortly thereafter, which he estimated to be approximately two minutes, he heard a gunshot and a scream. Detective BURGESS was not fully aware of what had happened and immediately proceeded to the exit to determine if he could be of any assistance. As he walked through the exit doors of the basement, he noticed several newsmen and cameramen as well as several police officers all crowding around in a big group but could not determine what had happened. Detective BURGESS advised that the next thing he heard was a newsman stating "Get a doctor" and at that time, he noticed that OSWALD had been shot.

Immediately after the shooting, Detective BURGESS was directed by Captain JONES to secure the basement and to obtain all the names of the individuals in that particular area. He proceeded toward the north end of the ramp where he stood guard for a short period of time.

In regard to his personal knowledge of JACK RUBY, Detective BURGESS stated that during the past few years the name RUBY had been mentioned in his presence by various police officers, but that he had never paid much attention to the men or any of the details regarding the name RUBY. He could not recall any police officers who may have known or brought up the name RUBY during the past few years. He stated that the name RUBY was just another "character" whose name had been mentioned around the police department.

Detective BURGESS stated he may have seen RUBY once or twice over the past few years but felt he would not recognize him if he saw him in a crowd. He added that to the best of his knowledge he did not see RUBY on November 24, 1963, and if he did see him, he did not recognize RUBY. The first indication he had concerning RUBY's presence was after someone advised him that RUBY was the individual responsible for shooting OSWALD.

In regard to any relationship between OSWALD and RUBY, Detective BURGESS stated that he knew of no connection whatever and had not heard of anything that would connect them in any way.

Detective BURGESS further advised that prior to his arrival in the basement on November 24, 1963, he was not fully advised of the circumstances surrounding the transfer of OSWALD and was quite sure that specific security orders were not put out by the department. He stated he was not challenged at any time during the entire day and was of the opinion that very few people were challenged.

In regard to the identity of any individuals other than cameramen, newsmen or police officers, Detective BURGESS stated that he had no knowledge concerning the presence of any other individuals in the area at the time of the shooting.

Detective BURGESS further advised he had made a statement concerning this entire matter and that it was directed to the Chief of Police of the Dallas Police Department. The information set forth in this statement was initially the same information that he had given during this interview.

Detective BURGESS went on to say that the only other information he could think of that would be related to this matter was the fact that one of his sources had told him something to the effect that a Mr. WEST/WISE, who is a sports reporter for KRLD radio, had reportedly seen OSWALD at the Texas School Book Depository Building on Friday, November 22, 1963. After receiving this information, Detective BURGESS conducted a preliminary investigation to determine if it would be possible that OSWALD was at the Texas School Book Depository Building on Friday and had determined that although it would have been possible, he was quite sure the information was somewhat distorted. He based this on the fact that Mr. WISE was at the Texas School Book Depository Building on Saturday, November 23, 1963, and not Friday, November 22, 1963.

W. R. BURTON, Shield 1308, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, residing at 2402 Glenbrook Drive, Garland, Texas, upon interview advised he reported for duty at the Dallas Police Department Headquarters, at approximately 9:15 to 9:20 a.m., November 24, 1963. BURTON reported to Station 511, which is the Patrol Captain's Office, Room 211, Dallas Police Department Headquarters. Captain TALBERT was in charge of Radio Patrol and each Patrol Officer was assigned a traffic assignment. BURTON was assigned Commerce and Central Expressway by Sergeant P. T. BEAN.

BURTON went to the parking area at approximately 10:50 a.m. and then found he had to return to the building to the restroom. En route to the restroom he went through the basement and noticed what he estimated to be at least 10 to 15 cameramen and a number of TV cameras set up. BURTON stated that he stopped and looked through one TV camera which was already set up and found it trained on the door through which OSWALD would be brought on leaving the elevator from the upstairs jail.

On returning from the restroom BURTON noticed what he would estimate to be 40 to 50 newspaper people, also in the basement, and stated that he did not recall any type identification on either the cameramen or on the newsmen, nor did he see any police officers challenging any of the newsmen or cameramen as to their identity.

BURTON stated that he did not see JACK RUBY on either trip to the basement, and went on to his traffic assignment, leaving shortly before 11 a.m.

BURTON did not know what security instructions had been issued to the police officers who were to be in the basement or at the entrances to the basement, nor did he know by whom any such instructions would have been issued.

BURTON stated that he had known JACK RUBY since 1956, when he first came out of Police Rookie School and was assigned to work in the area where JACK RUBY was at that time operating the Vegas Club. While working this area, BURTON stated that he went into the Vegas Club almost every night during the approximate two years that he worked on patrol. For the last four years, approximately, BURTON worked on the inside at the Police Department, and approximately one month ago was returned to patrol. BURTON recalls that during the time he was working inside, he saw RUBY on only one occasion, and that was approximately two or three years ago when he answered a call for RUBY's club on a disturbance.

BURTON stated that he did not know OSWALD and knew of no connection whatever between RUBY or OSWALD and had not heard any discussion among any of the police officers as to the manner in which JACK RUBY gained access to the basement on November 24, 1963.

BURTON did not know OSWALD had been shot until a civilian stopped where he was working traffic and told him OSWALD had just been shot. Shortly thereafter BURTON was instructed to go to Parkland Hospital and on arrival found that he was the 4th patrolman to arrive, and began working traffic at the hospital.

Detective VERNON C. CAMPBELL of the Dallas Police Department who resides at 3306 Wise, Mesquite, Texas, telephone number BR 9-5767, was interviewed at which time he was advised that he need not make any statement concerning this matter and that any statement he did furnish could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised that no threats or promises would be made to him to induce him to give a statement. He was advised of his right to consult an attorney prior to giving a statement.

He advised he is a Detective assigned to the Burglary and Theft detail of the Dallas Pplice Department and was working his regular duty schedule of 7:30 AM to 3:30 PM on Sundy, November 24, 1963. Under the direction of Lieutenant SWAIN on the day of November 24, 1963, he was asked to stand by near the Jail Office Room located on the basement level of the City Hall to assist in the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. At the time he was directed to go to the basement, Detective CAMPBELL wasn't briefed nor was he given any specific instructions concerning the transfer. He was not aware of any specific security measures and was not ordered to check any of the personnel in the basement area prior to the transfer.

After being directed to the basement area, Detective CAMPBELL and three other Detectives, who he identified as being HOMER MC GEE, I. R. STEVENS and D. G. BRANTLEY, all of Burglary, proceeded to the basement area.

At approximately 11:25 AM, exact time he could not recall, he observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD being escorted from the jail elevator through the Jail Office and heading toward the exit located near the Jail Office on the basement level of City Hall. He stated that the detectives escorting OSWALD proceeded to the exit, out the exit and shortly thereafter, which he estimated to be approximately one minute, he heard a shot and thereafter observed a lot of commotion. Immediately after hearing the shot, Detective CAMPBELL attempted to proceed to the exit and toward the ramp area but was unable. to give any assistance to the officers due to the large amount of individuals congregated at that point. He stated that the next thing he knew he observed BILLY COMBEST, who is a detective of the Special Service Bureau, taking the handcuffs off of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Detective CAMPBELL stated that he also stood in the area for a short time and upon arrival of the ambulance he assisted in loading LEE HARVEY OSWALD aboard the ambulance for transferring to the Parkland Hospital. Immediately after OSWALD was taken from the area, he and Detective BURGESS went to the Parkland Hospital and were on stand by at the hospital until approximately 3:30 PM that same day.

In regards to any unauthorized individuals that may have been in the basement prior to the shooting of OSWALD, Detective CAMPBELL stated that he was not aware nor did he see anyone that was not authorized to be there. He stated that he observed several local newsmen whose names he could not recall and several police officers in the basement area. It was his impression that all of these individuals were authorized to be in the area for purposes of the transfer.

Detective CAMPBELL further advised that he did not talk to RUBY at any time between November 22, 1963 and November 24, 1963, and to the best of his knowledge could never recall having any recent conversation with RUBY. He stated that he had talked with RUBY during the previous years and that he had come in contact with RUBY on various occasions. He explained this by saying that he had worked with the Vice Squad of the Dallas Police Department for quite some time and this brought him in contact with such individuals as RUBY.

In regards to RUBY's background, Detective CAMPBELL stated that RUBY was a well liked individual who would always attempt to help the local authorities in any way possible. He added that RUBY catered to several types of individuals, both businessmen and other individuals in the Dallas area. He described him as being somewhat of a "hustler", explaining that RUBY was mainly concerned about making money. To the best of his knowledge RUBY was the owner of the Carousel and Vegas Club, both of which he described as being night clubs. Detective CAMPBELL stated that although he could not be certain he could faintly recall that RUBY had also owned the Silver Spur which used to be located on South Ervay, Dallas, Texas, and that this was almost five years ago.

Detective CAMPBELL stated that the only other information concerning RUBY was the fact that he had seen RUBY on various occasions with a girl by the name of TAMMY TRUE, who he believed was employed in one of RUBY's night clubs. Although he could not be sure, Detective CAMPBELL was of the opinion that RUBY had possibly dated TAMMY ~~TRUE~~ on different occasions. He described TAMMY as being a white female, 5' 4", weighing approximately 120 pounds, very well built with reddish blonde hair. He was under the impression that TAMMY TRUE was a "stripper" at the Carousel.

In regards to any type of relationship between RUBY and OSWALD, Detective CAMPBELL stated that he definitely was not aware of any connection and that prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY he had never heard the name OSWALD. He added that since the assassination of President KENNEDY and the shooting of OSWALD, he has not heard any information that would associate RUBY with OSWALD.

Detective CAMPBELL stated that he had made a statement concerning the entire matter which he directed to the Chief of Police, Dallas Police Department, and that the information set forth in this statement was essentially the same information that he had just related to interviewing agents.

WILLIAM E. CHAMBERS, 6521 Oleta Drive, Dallas, Texas, after being advised of the Agents' identities; that he did not have to talk to the Agents; that any statement he might make could possibly be used against him in court of law; and that he had the right to consult an attorney, advised as follows:

He is employed by the Dallas Police Department as a detective, badge #1087, assigned to the Forgery Division, Criminal Investigation Division, and has worked in this capacity for approximately ten years.

On November 24, 1963, he reported for duty on the 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. shift in the Forgery Division as he normally does. About 10:00 a.m., he and another officer went out of the building for coffee, and on their return he stopped in the basement about 10:30 a.m. About this time several other detectives with Captain JONES came into the basement and Captain JONES instructed CHAMBERS to stand by while OSWALD was being removed from city jail for transfer to the county jail. Captain JONES told the officers to line up outside the jail door and keep the press away from OSWALD when OSWALD was being taken through the basement.

CHAMBERS stated he took a position on the south wall outside the jail office. He did not recall the officers on either side of him but stated Detective GLEASON was standing behind him. While in this position, he noticed about 30 plain clothes officers and about 30 uniformed officers and 30-40 or more press, TV and cameramen in the immediate area in the basement. CHAMBERS stated he was in this position approximately 30-40 minutes when he heard someone holler, "Here he comes." The area outside the jail door was cleared of all press people and two lines of police officers were formed on either side of the hall so that OSWALD could be taken to the transfer car. Captain FRITZ was the first one to come out of the jail office doorand he was followed by Detective LEAVELLE on OSWALD's right side and Detectives GRAVES on OSWALD's left side. Just as this group passed CHAMBERS, he took a step to the rear of this group and in front of the swinging doors that led to the jail hallway. CHAMBERS took this position to prevent any press personnel in the hallway outside the jail office from coming into the basement. Almost immediately in only a matter of seconds, after OSWALD had entered the basement area from the jail office, CHAMBERS heard a shot and heard OSWALD moan "Ohhhhhh," and saw OSWALD fall to the floor. The detectives on both sides of OSWALD went down with him. CHAMBERS related he saw a man in front of OSWALD crouched down with a gun in his right hand. CHAMBERS immediately reached for this man but about the same time approximately ten other detectives were on top of this man. CHAMBERS saw a detective grab the gun from the gunman. After this man was subdued some of the detectives took this man into the jail office. CHAMBERS followed this group into the jail office and saw detectives searching the man, who told them hiwas JACK RUBY. After RUBY was searched a group of detectives took him to the jail elevator. After this, CHAMBERS stated he noted OSWALD laying on the jail office floor and the jail doctor whose name he did not know, was giving OSWALD artificial respiration. Almost immediately the ambulance arrived and OSWALD was placed on a stretcher and placed in the ambulance. Lt. McKINNEY instructed CHAMBERS to accompany him with Detectives BEATY, WAGNER and RAMSEY to the Parkland Hospital. At the hospital, Lt. McKINNEY instructed CHAMBERS to guard the exit door on the second floor north and to keep all people out. CHAMBERS remained there about one hour until relieved after OSWALD's death and was told to continue his normal duties.

CHAMBERS stated he did not actually see OSWALD shot but did hear the report. He did not know RUBY and did not recall ever seeing him before. He has never worked for RUBY nor does he know of any police officer who has worked for RUBY. CHAMBERS stated he knew of no security measures placed into effect by the police department on November 24, 1963, and performed his duties as instructed by his superiors.

He did recall that uniformed officers were stationed in the basement area and that he observed officer R. C. NELSON in the jail hallway checking people for proper identification. CHAMBERS knew of no unauthorized people in the basement area and stated that he had no information of any relationship or association between RUBY and OSWALD.

JAMES RILEY CHENNAULT, 1098 Joaquin Street, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He is employed in the Engineering Department of the Adolphus Hotel, Dallas. He has been a reserve police officer for 9 years and is presently a patrolman assigned to C Company, First Platoon, Dallas Police Reserves.

He was not in the Central Headquarters of the Dallas Police Department at any time on November 22 or 23, 1963. At about 10:00 a.m., November 24, 1963, he received a phone call at his residence from a Sergeant of the police reserves whose identity he could not recall. He was told to report to the Central Police Headquarters as arrangements were being made for moving the prisoner, LEE HARVEY OSWALD from that building.

After putting on a uniform, he drove from his residence to the Police Headquarters, arriving at about 10:30 a.m. He parked his car in the parking lot across from the Main Street side of the police headquarters and entered the basement on foot, through the Main Street ramp. At that time a regular and reserve officer were engaged in conversation at the head of the Main Street ramp, and allowed him to enter the basement. They did not ask for his identification but apparently allowed him to pass inasmuch as he was in uniform. He also recalled that there was a regular police officer directing traffic at the intersection of Harwood and Main Streets at that time. He did not recall seeing anyone other than the reserve officer and the regular officer at the entrance to the Main Street ramp.

When he arrived in the basement in the vicinity of the jail office, a Lt. MERRILL (phonetic), a reserve officer, told him to report to the Commerce Street side of the building and direct traffic there. He was told to let no one come in the Commerce Street garage entrance without proper press or police identification. He recalled that he arrived outside the building on the Commerce Street side at about 10:50 a.m. During that time he recalled that a few of the officers refused to allow a man who identified himself as a press photographer enter the basement, because this individual had no identification. He was carrying a cheap camera and the assumption was that he was not an accredited news photographer. He directed traffic outside of the Commerce Street ramp for about 15 minutes and assisted in stopping cars so that the armored car could back down the ramp. While he was standing on the street side of the armored car, he heard what sounded like a shot in the basement. A few moments later, he overheard that OSWALD had been shot by an unidentified individual. From where he was standing he was not able to observe any of the activities in the basement of the police headquarters and did not know the identities of any of the regular or reserve police officers assigned there. He knew of no unauthorized persons that were allowed to enter the Central Police Headquarters on that day.

He has known JACK RUBY for about 3 years. He first met RUBY sometime after he opened the Carousel Club. RUBY contacted him at the Adolphus Hotel in order to borrow light bulbs and that was the occasion of his first meeting with RUBY. Occasionally, RUBY would come over to the hotel and borrow various items from him, usually electrical items but he never had any social dealings with RUBY. He has never been in any of RUBY's clubs and recalled that RUBY contacted him only when he wanted something. RUBY was always friendly to him but he recalled that RUBY was apparently emotional and hot tempered from some of the incidents that he observed, from the hotel, at the Carousel Club. These incidents in particular were when some type of trouble had occurred at the club and the Dallas police were summoned. RUBY would appear highly agitated on these occasions although from what he saw from the hotel he was usually unable to overhear any of RUBY's conversations.

He has never met JACK RUBY while working as a member of the Dallas Police Reserve on official business and does not know of any regular or reserve officers who have. At no time on November 24, 1963, did he see JACK RUBY. Knowing RUBY as he does, if he had seen him he probably would have let him in the building. He said RUBY was the type of person that if the opportunity arose would have probably assisted some TV cameraman in carrying equipment into the building and under those circumstances he probably would have let him in. He has no idea of how RUBY actually entered the basement and the only information he has concerning this is what he has read in the papers. He heard no conversation after the shooting and while at the PoliceDepartment regarding RUBY's manner of entry into the building.

He knows nothing concerning RUBY's background, personal life or political beliefs. He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

BARNARD S. CLARDY, Detective, Auto Theft Bureau, Criminal Investigation Division, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, was interviewed at his residence at 936 Forncliff Trail, Dallas, home telephone FR 4-5358. He was advised at the outset that he did not have to furnish any statement, that any statement he did furnish could be used against him in a court of law, and of his right to an attorney. He furnished the following information:

Since being interviewed on November 25, 1963, by FBI Agents at Dallas, he recalled certain additional facts concerning the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. On the morning of November 24, 1963, he reported for his regular shift with the Auto Theft Detail at 7:00 a.m. After reporting for duty he handled some routine matters at the Auto Theft Bureau and at about 10:00 a.m., Lieutenant SMART, who is his commanding officer, told him to stand by at the office with Detectives McMILLON, ARCHER, HAROLD DAWSON, J. C. WATSON and GREESON. A short time later, Lieutenant SMART directed that he and the other officers to report to the jail office. They then took the elevator to the basement of the central police station and he recalled someone referring to him by his name as they left the elevator. He could not recall who this individual was but it was apparently part of the security force and they were allowed to enter the lobby in the basement apparently after being recognized as police officers. He recalled about that time some newsmen entered the lobby from another elevator and they were required to show identification by the men on duty there.

Lieutenant SMART then directed them to take up positions on each side of the hallway leading to the garage ramps. He took a position on the Commerce Street side of the hall directly adjacent to the Commerce Street ramp, which meant he was almost on the corner of the ramp of the hallway. He recalled looking out over the crowd of newsmen to see if he recognized any of them and did not recall seeing JACK RUBY in the crowd. Lieutenant SMART was located near the armored car which was in the Commerce Street ramp at that time. In his estimation there were approximately 50 newsmen in the garage and basement area at that time and he did not recognize any of them.

He was not familiar with what the security arrangements

were as far as transporting the prisoner, OSWALD, to the county building and his knowledge of the security arrangements in the basement of the central police headquarters was strictly limited to what directions Lieutenant SMART had given him and the other officers with him.

As concerns the actual shooting of OSWALD, he could think of nothing additional to that previously furnished the FBI and in particular, he could recall hearing no comments or shouts of an unusual nature directly prior to the shooting. He heard OSWALD make no comments after the shooting. He personally did not see the actual shooting but observed RUBY being taken into custody. He then assisted Detective McMILLON and assisted in taking RUBY to the fifth floor of police headquarters. After the handcuffs were taken off of RUBY and he was strip searched he asked him how he got into the building. RUBY replied that "RIO" PIERCE was driving out the driveway and stopped to talk to someone at which time he started down the ramp behind PIERCE's car. RUBY said that about half way down the ramp someone said, "Hey you," and he "pulled my hat down a little lower and kept coming." He also recalled RUBY saying at the time he was subdued in the basement of the police department that "I'm JACK RUBY," and he apparently did this so that the officers would know who he was. He also recalled RUBY saying at the time of his being searched on the fifth floor that, "If I had planned to kill OSWALD, my timing could not have been more perfect." He also heard RUBY mention at this same time that he had intended to get off three shots apparently in reference to the fact that he only shot OSWALD once.

He personally did not require anyone he did not know to identify themselves during his assignment in the basement. He did not know of any unauthorized person who was permitted to enter the basement or anyone who may have entered without having to show identification. He had not seen JACK RUBY for about 6 months previous to November 24, 1963.

On Saturday, November 23, 1963, he spent the entire day in the Auto Theft Detail office and had no occasion to see any of the activities in the police department. On Friday, November 22, 1963, he was off duty. To his knowledge, he knows of no police officer who actually saw JACK RUBY during the weekend of November 24, 1963, prior to the shooting of OSWALD.

He personally has never worked in any capacity for RUBY and does not know of anyone presently connected with the Police Department or formerly employed by the police department who has worked for RUBY. He has known JACK RUBY for the last 8-10 years, having become familiar with him in the line of duty. His knowledge of him, however, was very slight and he was not even aware that RUBY owned the Carousel Club. The occasions that he would talk to RUBY and probably the occasion of his first meeting with him was when he was looking for individuals during the course of his investigations over the years. He also recalled that when he has been working the night shifts he would drink coffee or eat at the B & B Restaurant near the police station and he recalled seeing RUBY there on a number of occasions over the years. This was one of the only all night restaurants in downtown Dallas and it would be natural for a night club operator to go there after closing his establishment. He also recalled on the last occasion he saw RUBY he approached him on the street and mentioned that one of the officer on the department had issued him a traffic ticket. He knows nothing concerning RUBY's background, personal life, or political convictions.

He had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and has heard of no connection between JACK RUBY and OSWALD.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 11, 1963

Detective RICHARD L. CLARK, Special Services Bureau, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, furnished the following information:

Detective CLARK, 4928 Live Oak, Dallas, Tel was off duty and at his residence at the time of the shooting of OSWALD in the basement of the Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963.

CLARK, as a detective in the Special Services Bureau for four years, works narcotics and vice cases. In this connection he has known RUBY during this period and has contacted RUBY on investigative matters on an average of once a month. To the best of his recollection, RUBY has never furnished him any information that he has been able to utilize in his assignment.

He has had no association with RUBY beyond that of his official duties. He has never been in RUBY's employ. He knows of no one who was permitted entrance to the basement of the Dallas Police Department at the time of the shooting of OSWALD. He has no knowledge of security measures in effect in the basement at the Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963.

The last time that DetectiveCLARK saw or talked to RUBY was in early October, 1963, at which time he was on official duty.

Detective CLARK did not know OSWALD nor does he know of any association or acquaintanceship between RUBY and OSWALD.

BILLY H. COMBEST.

Date Dec. 4, 1963

BILLY H. COMBEST, Detective, Vice Section, Special Services Bureau, Dallas Police Department, was advised at the outset of the interview that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to consult an attorney prior to making any statement. He furnished the following information:

He advised he resides at 2803 Linhaven Drive, Mesquite, Texas, home telephone EM 9-5304.

On November 24, 1963, he was assigned to his regular day shift and reported to the Central Police Headquarters at 7:00 a.m. He advised he was wearing civilian clothes during his entire tour of duty that date. After handling some of his routine work, he left the Special Services Bureau with Detective B. L. BEATY and Officer J. D. HUTCHINSON who are also members of the Vice Section. He and Detective HUTCHINSON had coffee at the coffee shop of the White Plaza Hotel across the street while Detective BEATY remained in the basement of the Police Department in the vicinity of the Jail Information Desk. After having coffee, he and HUTCHINSON returned to the Police Department, entering the basement through the Harwood Street entrance and there met with Detective BEATY. They waited there for some time to see what was going on, and at about 10:50 a.m. were approached by Captain O.A. JONES of the Forgery Detail. He asked them if they would remain in the basement as they would be needed to help with the transfer of the prisoner, LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He had been aware, through conversation in the Police Department, that OSWALD would be transferred to the County Jail on the morning of November 24, 1963; however, he had received no assignment in this matter from the head of the Special Services Bureau.

Several of the officers joined the group near the Jail Information Desk, and Captain JONES then directed them to the passageway leading from the Jail Office into the parking basement. They were given orders to form a line on either side of the passageway so that OSWALD could be escorted through that area to whatever vehicle had been arranged for his transportation to the County Jail. They were ordered to keep the members of the press back and specifically instructed not to allow them to fall in behind OSWALD and the escorting officers when they passed.

He recalled that there were some reporters in the public area of the Jail Office Booking Room, and someone made the decision to clear them out and to clear the passage of nonpolice personnel. They were moved to the far side of the driveway to the garage area. He also overheard Captain JONES and Sergeant J. A. PUTNAM ask the members of the press not to ask OSWALD any questions when he was to be brought out. He also recalled orders being passed to search all vehicles at the basement garage and he personally observed Officer DAVID PATE Tel locate a police shotgun in one of the police cars and saw him unload it and carry it back to the Jail Office.

It was approximately 15 minutes from the time he was ordered to stand guard at the passageway until the prisoner, OSWALD, was brought down from the jail. His post was at the inside corner of the corridor leading from the jail to the ramp leading to Commerce Street. A few moments before OSWALD was brought out of the elevator he heard someone say "OSWALD's coming" and everybody there got ready. The first one to appear was Lieutenant SWAIN who walked down the passageway to the ramp. He overheard Captain FRITZ ask if everything was "okay", and Lieutenant SWAIN answered in the affirmative. Captain FRITZ then led the way with Officer LEAVELLE on OSWALD's right and Officer GRAVES on OSWALD's left. This group had just started the turn toward the Commerce Street ramp after leaving the passageway from the Jail Information Desk area, the group, therefore, being directly in front of him, when he suddenly observed JACK RUBY moving forward directly toward OSWALD from the garage side of the passageway with a pistol in what he believed was his left hand. He also noted that the newsmen surged forward at this time, some with microphones thrust forward, from the area of the Main Street ramp. The only person who obstructed his view at that time in any way was Officer LEAVELLE. He was completely taken by surprise by RUBY's presence and action and because it happened so fast, he was unable to make any movement to prevent RUBY from rushing directly up to OSWALD. RUBY apparently fired the pistol as soon as he thrust the weapon into OSWALD's stomach. Upon recognizing RUBY and seeing what he was about to do, he said to him "JACK RUBY, you son-of-a-bitch, don't." As best as he could recall, RUBY had what could be described as a determined look or grimace on his face, and he could recall RUBY making no statement in conjunction with his action. The next thing he knew, Officer LEAVELLE who was handcuffed to OSWALD, was bending over OSWALD who was lying on the floor. He asked LEAVELLE what he could do, and LEAVELLE said "We should get him out of here the best we can." They then took him to the Jail Office Booking Room, and he removed the handcuffs connecting OSWALD and LEAVELLE and also the handcuffs which joined OSWALD's hands. OSWALD groaned and was apparently conscious, and he asked him if he had anything to say. OSWALD looked at him in such a fashion that he apparently understood his question but merely shook his head slightly as if to say "no." He then lifted up OSWALD's shirt and noted a bullet hole on his side and his first impression was that the bullet had passed directly through his stomach and that he was not badly hurt. He then, however, felt the bullet just beneath the surface of the skin on the other side of OSWALD's stomach and realized that he was probably in serious condition. He did not see any blood and assumed that the wound at the point of entry had possibly been seared. A few moments later, the ambulance arrived to take OSWALD to the hospital, and he then went back to his regular duties.

As concerns the security precautions in the basement of the Police Headquarters, he recalled that Sergeant PUTNAM had stopped one of the female civilian employees who works behind the Police Information Desk from leaving that area when she had attempted to go out and summon police officers who had received telephone calls. He also recalled that PUTNAM told a male civilian employee who works behind the Jail Booking Desk to stay behind the counter and not to go into the hall or passageway area. He also recalls that everybody that was not recognized as being associated with the police department had to show appropriate identification to the officers in the basement. In particular, he recalled a reporter, JIM STANDARD, from the Daily Oklahoman in Oklahoma City who did not have a press card. He asked STANDARD for identification, and STANDARD showed him a Blue Cross Hospitalization Group Policy card and a gasoline credit card, both reflecting he was associated with the Daily Oklahoman. He also frisked STANDARD to make sure he was not armed and after asking Captain TALBERT if the identification was sufficient, STANDARD was allowed to remain on the scene. To his knowledge, no unauthorized individuals were allowed in the basement and even the civilian employee who parks the cars in the basement was not allowed to remain in the building. He personally recalled asking several individuals who were members of the press for identification, which they exhibited to his satisfaction, but he could not recall who they were. He estimated that there were about 70 press personnel in the vicinity during the time the above related incidents took place. The only nonpolice personnel who were allowed in the area of the Jail Information Desk were a couple of photographers who took photographs of the elevator coming down from the jail, and they were not allowed to follow the prisoner out through the passageway to the ramp. Only police officers were positioned on the inner wall leading from the area of the Jail Information Desk to the Commerce Street ramp.

He first met JACK RUBY when he was assigned to the Special Services Bureau over four years ago. As part of his duties as a Vice Officer, he checked the Vegas Club and the Carousel Club for possible violations of City ordinances. He described these as being routine vice checks. RUBY naturally made himself aware of the presence of any police officers, especially vice squad officers, who entered his places of business because he apparently took every precaution not to violate any laws which would result in the revocation of his licenses. He did not develop any friendship with RUBY as a result of his work, but merely knew him on the same basis as any vice officer would as a result of checking such establishments. He also visited one of RUBY's clubs on a social basis with his wife on a few occasions but only recalled one occasion when RUBY was present and recognized him as being a police officer.

He never knew of any of the officers working for RUBY, either before or after they left the police department. He did recall, however, that an individual by the name of NEWMAN (first name unknown), who was formerly the District Supervisor for the Texas Liquor Control Board, had worked for RUBY at the Theater Lounge. NEWMAN terminated his employment with the State about a year and a half ago and it would have possibly been about that time he started working with RUBY.

Prior to November 24, 1963, he had not seen RUBY for six to eight weeks. The last time he saw him was during a routine check of his clubs in Dallas. He did not see RUBY at any time during the weekend of the 24th of November other than the exact moment when RUBY lunged forward and shot OSWALD. He personally made it a point to stay away from the Third Floor of the Police Headquarters during the time OSWALD was in custody there. He did recall that Lieutenant J. R. GILMORE had told him some time shortly after OSWALD was shot that GILMORE had recalled possibly seeing RUBY outside of the Police Showup Room in the basement of Police Headquarters on Saturday, November 23, 1963.

He does not know anything about RUBY's personal habits, political convictions or associates. He does know that RUBY was conscientious in the operation of his business and made it a point to make friends wherever he could. It was his understanding that RUBY was very careful not to be caught in the violation of any law that would result in the closing of his clubs because it was obvious he was "always after the money." He never recalled seeing RUBY at the City Hall or Police Department at any time other than on November 24 1963. He knows of no relationship between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never recalled seeing OSWALD or hearing anything concerning him prior to the President's assassination.

As concerns the identity of police officers that he observed in the basement area of the Central Police Headquarters on November 24, 1963, he could recall no one in addition to the list of officers that he furnished to Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY in his written statement made to Chief CURRY dated November 26, 1963.

ROLAND ~~W~~ COX, 311 Bob White, DeSoto, Texas, was interviewed at Sears Roebuck Store, 4109 Lamar, Dallas, Texas. He was advised of the identity of the interview Agents; of the fact that he did not have to furnish any information; that any information he did furnish could be used against him in a court of law; and of his right to counsel.

He then furnished the following information:

He stated that on November 24, 1963, he was not in the basement of the police and courts building but worked on the south side of the building on Commerce Street directing traffic. He advised, however, that he formerly worked for JACK RUBY in his Vegas Club on Oak Lawn during the year 1952 or 1953, as a night club officer. He stated that he was not paid by JACK RUBY, but was paid by the City of Dallas. RUBY in turn paid the City of Dallas. COX had worked in RUBY's Vegas Club for approximately 10 times in addition to working 8-10 other clubs during this period. His acquaintanceship with RUBY was limited to the employer-employee relationship and he had not seen RUBY since the last time he worked for him which would be in 1952 or 1953. He did not see JACK RUBY at any time during the period November 22 to 24, 1963.

ALVIN BENTON CRAIG, Reserve Patrolman, Dallas Police Department, residence 4310 Dawes Drive, Dallas, employed at Socony-Mobil Research Laboratory, 3500 Duncanville Road, furnished the following information: TEV

He reported to the assembly room at the Dallas Police Department about 9:30 AM on November 24, 1963. He entered the building through the south basement door on Commerce Street and reported to Reserve Lieutenant MERRELL and a Sergeant whose name is unknown to him. He was told to wait in the assembly room until it was determined where his help was needed. About 9:45 AM he was assigned to a location at the bottom of the ramp leading to the parking area in the basement. He was instructed by Lieutenant MERRELL and the Sergeant not to allow anyone past him in the area other than police officers and newsmen. He was instructed to ask for credentials and identification of anyone he did not know. He remained in this position only about fifteen minutes. At that time there were not more than seven or eight persons in the area around the ramp other than officers in uniform or plain clothes officers who were known to him. There were some cameras in position near the exit from the elevator onto the ramp at that time.

He was told by some other officer on duty in the basement, whose name he does not recall, that the basement had already been secured prior to his arrival. About 10:00 AM he was assigned to assist Patrolman NELSON inside the hall of the basement where the barred windows open into the jail office and near the double doors that exit onto the ramp. NELSON was already on duty at this post when CRAIG arrived. In addition to him and Patrolman NELSON, there were two Special Services officers on duty at the site. They were instructed to let no one pass them other than police officers and members of the press.

On one occasion a young woman who was employed in the Police Department started by them and was stopped by Sgt. PUTNAM at the double doors. He refused to allow her into the area and then reprimanded the officers on duty, including CRAIG, for letting her past it. He told them very emphatically that absolutely no one other than police officers and members of the press were allowed to be passed. Everyone that tried to pass them was required to show identification unless he was known to one of the officers as a police officer. He is not sure of the number but believed as many as fifteen members of the press passed them to enter the basement area. All of them were required to exhibit press cards. One of these men did not have a press card, but he did have identification reflecting he was a newsman from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He was turned over to Captain TALBERT, who apparently checked his identification and was satisfied that he was a legitimate member of the press. In one instance a man identified as a driver for some press representatives tried to pass them with a group. Although he showed identification as a driver for the press, he was turned over to Captain TALBERT, who refused to allow him to enter the area near the ramp.

Mr. CRAIG's post was near the windows at the jail office, where the public is usually admitted to make bail for the prisoners held in the City Jail. Numerous people tried to pass them for this purpose, but they were denied entrance and directed to another window. Two men, a Mexican and a Negro, were standing around in the hall, and one of the officers told him "to keep an eye on them". They never gained entrance to the area leading onto the ramp and never attempted to do so. CRAIG was never told the exact time OSWALD would be moved from the City Jail, but one of the officers did say it would probably be after 10:00 AM.

A group of ten or twelve detectives came to the hall and were told to remain there for just a short time and then led into the ramp area by one of the captains. This was about ten minutes before OSWALD was shot. CRAIG looked through the barred window from the hall into the jail office and caught a glimpse of OSWALD as he was brought from the jail toward the exit from the ramp. Just a short time later he heard what appeared to be a shot. From his post he could not see the site where OSWALD was shot. CRAIG was immediately instructed by one of the officers not to let anyone out of the area. Everyone was kept in the area for a few minutes, and then two officers at the double doors started checking identifications and allowing the people to leave.

He remained on his post for about thirty minutes after OSWALD was shot. While they were there and after they had heard that JACK RUBY had shot OSWALD, Patrolman NELSON remarked, "My God, I'm glad RUBY didn't come by here". He surmised from that statement that NELSON knew RUBY, but he is not positive of this.

CRAIG advised that he does not know RUBY and after examining his photograph could not recall having seen him at the Police Department on the morning of November 24, 1963. He has never worked for RUBY and does not know officers who have.

CRAIG stated that no unauthorized persons entered the basement past him, and he knows of no instances where other officers allowed such persons to pass. He did not know OSWALD and has no information concerning a possible connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

K. HCROY

KENNETH HUDSON CROY, residence 2634 West Illinois, was interviewed at his place of business, H. E. Croy and Son Real Estate, 1720 South Lamar. He was advised he need not make any statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised of his right to an attorney. He furnished the following information:

He is a Sergeant in the Dallas, Texas Police Reserve and has been for a good number of years.

On November 23, 1963, at approximately 11:00 P.M., Lieutenant BEN McCOY, Dallas Police Department, telephonically advised he would need six or seven reserve policemen to report to the third floor of the Police Department at 9:00 A.M. on November 24, 1963.

He arrived at about 8:30 A.M., November 24, 1963, at the Police Department and went to the Assembly Room to make detail. Lieutenant BARNEY MERRELL gave him the duty of assigning men out of the Assembly Room as required by the other police officials. He thereafter sent groups of men downstairs when called for by the police dispatcher. At one point, a Sergeant, name unknown, came in and secured five men to help search the building.

At about 10:00 A.M., he went to the basement parking area on his own volition to aid in the basement security. He thereafter located men when more were called for by the various police officers present.

Captain ARNETT, around 11:00 A.M., requested some policement to form on the Main Street side of the center ramp area to aid in keeping members of the press back from the area where LEE HARVEY OSWALD was to be passed through.

He recalls shortly before the shooting, a few minutes at most, a blue Dallas police car drove out of the basement up the Main Street ramp past his location. He did not see anyone coming down the Main Street ramp. He recalls there was one regular police man, name unknown, stationed at the Main Street ramp entrance.

Just prior to OSWALD's appearance, an unknown officer in plain clothes came out of the jail office and told the press to move back. CROY then turned to his left and requested a man with a large movie camera, who was on his immediate left and another man on his left rear, who was dressed in a dark hat and dark maroonish brown sport coat with black thread woven into it, to step back. CROY then looked back toward the jail office at the crowd and then glanced back to see if the two men on his left had complied with his order. He saw the man with the movie camera had stepped back to the ramp railing and was standing upon the railing; the other man he did not see. He then looked back at the crowd by the jail office for OSWALD was being brought down. At approximately 15 or 20 seconds later, OSWALD was brought out, the members of the press surged forward and one placed a microphone in front of OSWALD's face and asked him to make a statement. At this instant, CROY got a blurred movement to his left and turned and made an off balance grab at a man who was moving in a low crouch with his hands tucked into his stomach much like a football fullback. CROY's hand brushed the tail coat of the man and at this time had the impression the man was the same one who moments before, had been standing to his left and rear.

He then heard a shot and started forward to assist in bringing the man under control but saw he was already being wrestled to the floor by a number of officers.

He did not hear any statements made by anyone while the man was moving forward and the shooting taking place. He did not know the man was JACK RUBY until after RUBY was removed upstairs to the jail.

He met JACK RUBY about three years ago when riding with a patrolman, name unrecalled, which is required at least once a month to retain membership in the police reserve. On that occasion, they drove by the club Vegas at approximately 2:45 A.M. and drove into the Lucas B & B just up the street from the Vegas. A man later identified to him as JACK RUBY, came hurrying and told CROY and the patrolman to put down the menu as he, RUBY, would order for them. RUBY ordered steaks and paid for them.

CROY recalls the incident since it was rather humorous in that RUBY was attempting to keep them away from the front of his Vegas Club while it closed at 3:00 A.M. and the patrons left. When in reality, he heard two other patrol cars were sitting in front of the Vegas Club "loading up".

He estimates total number of people present in the basement at around 100 and could not state the number of press people in the group. He did not see anyone he believes was, other than police officers or members of the press.

He has no information or knowledge of OSWALD or RUBY whatsoever other than furnished above.

He recalls the following reserve police officers as being in the basement at the time of the shooting:

Captain C. O. ARNETT;
Lieutenant HARRY KRISS;
Lieutenant BEN McCOY;
Lieutenant DON SUITS.

Date 12/2/63

WILBUR JAY CUTCHSHAW, Detective, Juvenile Bureau, Dallas Police Department, was contacted at his office in the Police & Courts Building, Harwood and Main Streets, Dallas, and was advised of the nature of the investigation; the official identity of the interviewing Agents, and the fact he did not have to furnish any statement, but that any statement he did furnish could be used in court against him. CUTCHSHAW was also advised of his right to counsel.

CUTCHSHAW advised that at about 9:00 AM, on Sunday, November 24, 1963, he was in his office when he overheard Deputy Chief STEVENSON tell Captain MARTIN that he wanted all personnel in the office between 9:00 and 10:00 AM. CUTCHSHAW stated that at about 11:00 AM Captain O. A. JONES told him and the other detectives standing by in the office that it was time to go down to the basement. He stated he proceeded to the basement in company with Captain FRANK MARTIN, Detectives L. D. MILLER, R. L. LOWERY and Charles Goolsby. CUTCHSHAW stated that when he reached the basement he was instructed by Captain O. A. JONES to clear the hallway connecting the basement lobby with the parking area and to also clear the jail office lobby of all news media personnel and camera equipment. He said he was also instructed at this time to keep all unauthorized persons from the basement and to permit only press and police officers to remain.

CUTCHSHAW stated that approximately five minutes before LEE HARVEY OSWALD was brought down to the basement he noticed a Channel 5 Television camera being pushed from the basement lobby into the basement parking area by three white males who were bent over pushing on the base of the camera. He stated that the man on the right, which is the right-hand side facing the parking area, was wearing a green shirt, the man in the center was wearing a dark suit, and the man on the left was wearing a black coat which extended to the knees.

CUTCHSHAW advised that everything at that time seemed to calm down for a few minutes and then someone said, "Here he comes." He advised he was standing with his back to a small area of the wall located between the double swinging doors and the door between the hallways and jail

by Special Agent EDWARD J. MABEY & KENNETH P. HUGHES/eab Date dictated 12/2/63

office lobby. CUTCHSHAW stated that Lieutenant SWAIN or Captain FRITZ came out into the basement hallway from the jail office door followed by Detectives JAMES LAVELL (PH) and GRAVES, walking on either side of OSWALD. CUTCHSHAW stated that LAVELL and GRAVES are detectives in the Homicide Bureau of the Dallas Police Department. He said LAVELL was walking on the right side of OSWALD and GRAVES on the left and as they approached the jail office door they stopped for a few seconds and LAVELL asked, "Is it O.K.?", to which CUTCHSHAW replied, "O.K., Come on out, JIM." CUTCHSHAW stated that the detectives and OSWALD then came through the door followed by Detective MONTGOMERY, of the Homicide Bureau, who was walking directly behind OSWALD at a distance of approximately one stride. CUTCHSHAW stated the detectives and OSWALD were forced to walk between a narrow corridor of individuals composed of news media personnel and plain-clothes detectives about four and one-half feet wide. CUTCHSHAW stated that OSWALD and the two accompanying detectives had just reached the bottom of a small incline extending from the parking area when he noticed a general movement of individuals in the vicinity of OSWALD's location, followed by a loud report, which sounded like a gunshot. CUTCHSHAW stated he immediately rushed to this location and grabbed the left hand of JACK RUBY, while W. J. HARRISON, a patrolman assigned to the Juvenile Bureau, took hold of RUBY's right hand, and, together with several other detectives, half carried and half marched RUBY into the jail office lobby. CUTCHSHAW stated he had seen JACK RUBY only once previous to this, which was about two or three years ago at the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas, at which time he (CUTCHSHAW) was working in plain-clothes as a detective in the Juvenile Bureau.

CUTCHSHAW stated that after marching through the jail office door he immediately closed this door to prevent anyone from following, after which he opened the door to admit OSWALD, who was being carried on a stretcher. He said he was still at this door when a young man, approximately 24 or 25 years of age, wearing a dark-colored sport coat, came to the door and said he was a doctor stationed there. CUTCHSHAW said he admitted this man when he noticed a stethoscope in the right-hand pocket of the individual.

CUTCHSHAW stated he remained at the door looking out into the glass partition and saw two men pushing the television camera which he had seen being pushed in earlier. He said these men were pushing the camera up the driveway ramp to the hallway leading to the basement lobby and that he recognized the man with the green shirt and the man wearing the black coat as two of the men who had pushed the camera into the basement. CUTCHSHAW said he went back into the basement and stopped these individuals and asked them where the third man was. CUTCHSHAW said they told him there was no third man and that if a third man helped them push the camera into the basement they had not been aware of it. CUTCHSHAW noticed the cable of the camera was still wrapped in place and learned from these individuals that they had not been able to get the camera in position and had, therefore, not used it. CUTCHSHAW stated these men were later questioned by Lieutenant SWAIN, of the Bureau & Theft Bureau, and he later found out the last name of one of these men was ALEXANDER.

CUTCHSHAW stated he has never been employed by RUBY and does not know of any Dallas Police Officer who is or ever has been employed by RUBY. He stated he would estimate there were approximately fifty persons other than police officers in the basement at the time of the shooting, but he did not recognize any of the news media personnel present. CUTCHSHAW stated he was not briefed on the security measures to be taken on November 24, 1963, to transport OSWALD, but had heard the basement area was to be cleared of all persons, with the exception of press and police officers, that all parked cars in the basement were to be searched, and that officers on duty in the basement were required to check the identity of all persons present. He stated he did not see any unauthorized individuals in the basement on November 24, 1963, and does not know of any such persons being admitted to the basement or of anyone being permitted to enter without showing proper identification.

CUTCHSHAW stated he did not know of any relationship existing between RUBY and OSWALD and did not notice RUBY in the basement before taking hold of his left hand and then did not know it was RUBY until someone else identified him.

1 N. DANIELS

Date December 4, 1963

NAPOLEON J. DANIELS, 2229 Sutter Street, Dallas, Texas, residence phone FR 4-6179, was interviewed at his place of business, the N. J. Daniels Real Estate Company; 4316 Oakland Street, Dallas. He furnished the following information:

Prior to November, 1962, he was a Patrolman with the Police Department at Dallas, Texas. Since that time he has been engaged in the real estate business.

On Sunday, November 24, 1963, he left his home and drove by himself with the intention of seeing the sight of the President's assassination at Houston and Elm Streets. When he left the vicinity of downtown Dallas he drove west on Main Street. As he was passing the City Hall, he saw a number of people standing in the vicinity and since he had heard that the prisoner, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, was to be moved that day, he decided to get out of the car and watch. He doubled back off of Main Street and eventually parked his car on the south side of Main between the Western Union Office and the City Hall. From there he walked to the Main Street entrance to the police garage.

When he arrived in the Main entrance, or ramp, to the police garage, he noted that an officer (FNU) VAUGHN, was on duty there. He saw no other uniformed officers in the vicinity nor anyone else that he recognized as a police officer. He stood on the east side of the ramp directly adjacent to the iron railings there and from that position could see down into the basement. When he first arrived there, there were no other spectators in that immediate location, but shortly before the shooting of prisoner OSWALD, no longer than 10 minutes, an individual he recognized as being the former shoe shine boy at the police department locker room appeared on the west side of Main Street ramp which was directly across from him. He does not know this individual's name, but he thinks it may have been ALONZO (LNU) or ALPHONSE (LNU). This individual is in his late 20's and has a light brown complexion. Hanging from his neck was a small camera approximately 4 inches by 4 inches. He believes that the "shine boy" terminated his employment at the police department locker room prior to the time DANIELS left the police department. He was wearing a gray suit which he thought was double breasted and at one time made an attempt to take a photograph of the basement from the center of the ramp; however, was told to step back by officer VAUGHN.

by Special Agents R. NEIL QUIGLEY and JOHN E. DALLMAN:EL

As best he could recall, the "shine boy" remained at that location up until the shooting of OSWALD. He does not know the identity of the present "shine boy" at the police department but believed the "shine boy" that he saw would be remembered by the police officers in the Services Division as he was somewhat of a magician.

A number of people came and went during the time he was standing there prior to the shooting of OSWALD, but there was only one other person on his side in addition to Officer VAUGHN and he did not know this individual's identity. He recognized no one else in the vicinity other than officer VAUGHN and the "shine boy."

While he was standing there, a black unmarked squad car carrying three officers drove up the Main Street ramp. He does not recall this car stopping or anyone in it talking to VAUGHN but as the car came up the ramp, VAUGHN walked almost to the center of the street and stopped vehicles which were travelling west on Main Street. He noticed no vehicles travelling east on Main Street at that time. When he realized that VAUGHN was occupied with stopping the traffic, he made it a point to act as lookout and insure that no one entered the ramp. He saw no one enter the ramp during the time VAUGHN was stopping traffic. He does not recall that VAUGHN at any time asked him to assist him in guarding the entrance.

About two minutes or less before he heard a shot in the basement he observed a man walking west on the south side of Main Street. He did not recall exactly when this man came into his vision, but it was for a very brief period of time. The man was observed to walk up to the ramp entrance and turn left and then proceed on down the ramp directly past and to the right of officer VAUGHN who was facing toward Main Street. At that time VAUGHN was standing directly in the center at the end of the ramp. He could neither recall the man nor officer VAUGHN making any comment at this time. The man never broke his stride and just walked on into the basement. He recalled that this individual was a white male, about 50 years of age, 5'8-9" tall, 150-160 pounds, and was of light complexion. He distinctly recalled that this individual's right hand was in his right hand suit coat pocket and his first impulse was that the man apparently had something in his hand which caused the pocket to bulge, more than it normally would.

His instinct told him at that time that the man was probably carrying a gun but in view of the fact that officer VAUGHN allowed him to enter he did not give it serious thought. This individual had an intent look on his face and was walking fairly fast. He also seemed to recall that he had seen this man at the police department during the time he was a police officer as his face was vaguely familiar and he also seemed to recall that he was partly bald. He was wearing what he thought was a dark brown or dark blue suit but in any event he was sure it was dark in color. He was also wearing a tie and dress shirt but he could not describe the nature of these articles of clothing. He could not recall whether or not this individual was wearing a hat and the idea that the man was bald may have come from the mental picture he had of the unknown individual he had previously seen in the police department. The time that elapsed from when the man walked down the ramp until the time he heard the shot would have, in his mind, been just enough time for that individual to enter the basement and get in position to shoot OSWALD. He therefore, felt sure when he heard the shot that the man he saw walk down the ramp was the man who did the shooting. He immediately looked down the ramp and saw police officers struggling with someone but all he was able to observe of the individual was his right arm which was extended and he felt certain that the color of the suit on the arm was the same as that worn by the man who walked down the ramp.

Immediately after the shooting the only comments made by Officer VAUGHN were to the people in the vicinity when he told them to get back.

DANIELS was exhibited photographs of JACK RUBY, Dallas Police Department #36398, taken November 24, 1963. He advised that the facial features of the individual in the photograph were similar to the man who walked by him and officer VAUGHN as described above. He volunteered the statement that the individual he saw had a light complexion and he was of the opinion that most people of Jewish extraction had dark complexion. He could not point out any specific facial characteristic that would link the photograph with the individual he observed.

He advised that he did not see how Officer VAUGHN could have missed seeing the individual who walked by him down the ramp.

He also felt that if he saw the person who walked by him at the ramp dressed in similar clothing to the individual he observed that he could make an identification of him.

He did not recall seeing any other vehicles than the one police car with the three officers that he observed or any other individuals in addition to the men described above enter or leave the basement during the time he was standing there. The only person he could identify as the city doctor is an older man who was quite tall and worked in the City Hall while he was employed by the police department in 1962. He did not see this individual. He does not know THOMAS CORBET and therefore would not recognize him. He felt certain that the man who entered the basement was not carrying any type of press card or badge of any type. He did not recognize anybody in the vicinity that he associated in his mind with TV or camera crews.

He stated he was not at the Dallas Police Department at any time during the weekend of November 24, 1963. With reference to the individual he had seen at the police department during the time he was a police officer he vaguely recalled that his first thought when the man walked by him at the Main Street Ramp was that he was possibly a local newsman. He therefore seemed to recall that he must have been under the impression on the occasions he saw this man at the police department that he was a newsman, although he had no facts to substantiate this at the time. He could not elaborate on this impression other than that it is common for newsmen to be around the police station, and he often assumed that people who are frequently seen at the police department are newsmen.

He also stated that the photo that was exhibited to him bore a likeness in his mind to the individual he had previously seen at the police department, as well as the individual who walked by him at the Main Street Ramp.

He does not know JACK RUBY and therefore does not know if the man he saw walk down the ramp was JACK RUBY or if the man he had seen at the police department during the time he was a police officer was JACK RUBY.

He knows nothing concerning RUBY's background, personal life or political convictions. He never heard or or saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows nothing concerning him other than what he has read in the papers since the President's assassination.

On Monday, November 25, 1963, Officer VAUGHN called him at his residence during the morning and asked him if he saw anybody walk in the basement at the time he was stopping traffic on Main Street. He told VAUGHN that he had not and the conversation was concluded.

On Friday, November 29, 1963, he was interviewed by Lieutenant REVELLS of the Subversive Activities Section, Dallas Police Department, and Lieutenant CORNWALL, Vice Squad, Dallas Police Department, and furnished substantially the same information that he furnished during this interview. He could not recall anything in addition to what he just stated, or anything that he did not tell the Dallas police officers that he has stated at this time.

Detective W. W. McGEE, Personnel Department, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, advised SA JOHN E. DALLAMN that personnel files there reflect that NAPOLEON J. DANIELS was hired as a patrolman on February 20, 1956. The most current address in the file for DANIELS was 229 Sutter Street, Dallas, residence phone FR 4-6179. DANIELS also apparently worked part time in a real estate business located at 4316 Oakland Street, Dallas. DANIELS worked primarily in the Patrol Division of the Police Department but for a while was assigned to the Juvenile Bureau. He never attained a rank higher than that of patrolman. His file contained a number of complaints concerning his indebtedness, failures to appear in court when summoned, and an assault report on one of his partners. Also located was a letter from Sgt. JAMES P. DAHMAN, of the Patrol Division, indicating that DANIELS had worked for him for two years and three months but did not show any enthusiasm for police work due to a more active interest in his real estate business.

Yet

On November 7, 1962, a complaint was received by the Dallas Police Department concerning a disturbance over a civil matter while DANIELS was on duty. This incident took place at 2514 Merlin Street and apparently DANIELS was collecting rents while in uniform and on duty and had assaulted one of his tenants. An investigation concerning this complaint was initiated by the Dallas Police Department on November 7, 1962, and DANIELS submitted his resignation on the same date and his employment was terminated as of that time.

ROBERT P. DAVIS, Reserve Officer, Dallas Police Department, residence address 318 North Oak Cliff Boulevard, DALLAS, TEX was interviewed and was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to consult an attorney prior to making any statement. He furnished the following information re November 24, 1963:

DAVIS advised he arrived at the basement Assembly Room at the Police and Courts Building at approximately 8:30 a.m. and stayed in this area until 9:00 a.m. Officers present were Lieutenant MERRILL and Sergeant CROY. At this time, there were 10 to 12 police officers in the basement under command of Reserve Captain ARNETT. DAVIS was instructed to search the automobiles in Space 1-16 in the basement and DAVIS and the other 10 or 12 individuals did search this area. In the process, they searched the front and back seats of these vehicles, looking under the front seats and checked to make sure the trunks were closed. In one of the spaces assigned to DAVIS, another unidentified reserve officer found a .38 30/30 rifle in the back seat of one of the vehicles, which rifle was taken to Homicide and identified as one of their rifles and was returned to this vehicle and placed in the locked trunk. All of the individuals making the search of the basement were reserve officers. Also in the basement at this time were Sergeants DEAN and PUTNAM of the Dallas Police Department.

After completion of the search, DAVIS was assigned to the northeast corner of Commerce and Harwood Streets with Reserve Officer HAROLD JACOBS. They were instructed to allow no one to pass down the Commerce Street sidewalk except police officers or press people with proper identification. In the process of performing these duties, DAVIS stated his back was to the entrance of the Commerce Street ramp most of the time. DAVIS stopped traffic to allow the armored truck through and assisted in the backing of the vehicle to the Commerce Street ramp. DAVIS was on this corner when the shooting took place.

An unidentified detective ran out of the ramp after the shooting and told DAVIS, PUTNAM and JACOBS to seal the Harwood Street exit. Upon their arrival on the Harwood Street exit, they observed an unidentified Negro male running toward the exit and apprehended him and took him to the Homicide Section. DAVIS later found out that this unidentified Negro male had walked into the City Hall via the Harwood Street entrance to get a drink of water but became frightened when he heard the shooting and started to run. DAVIS stated this unidentified Negro male worked for a light fixture company during the week and drove a truck for a tire company on Sundays. After the shooting, DAVIS was assigned to the Main Street ramp and stayed at this post from approximately 12:00 to 3:30 p.m. From 6:00 p.m. to 11:30 p.m., he was assigned to sit outside RUBY's cell with Special Agent MYERS of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Reserve Officer D. McDONALD.

DAVIS stated he did not know RUBY, did not work for him nor did he know any other officers who would know him or work for him. He estimated there were 50 to 60 people in the basement other than police officers while he was there but did not know any of them. He had no knowledge of the security measures in effect in the basement on November 24, 1963, but personally observed 6 or 8 officers stationed at the entrance of the Commerce Street ramp. He stated he did not recall seeing any of these unidentified individuals stopped in the basement and asked to display identification. He stated he knew of no unauthorized person that was permitted into the basement or of anyone being allowed into the basement without showing identification. He stated he did not know JACK RUBY and did not see RUBY talking with anyone, nor had he seen him from November 22 to 24, 1963. He stated he had no information concerning any relationship that may have existed between OSWALD and RUBY.

HAROLD L. DAWSON, Auto Theft Bureau, Dallas Police Department, furnished the following additional information to the information he furnished on November 25, 1963:

Tex

To the best of his knowledge, there were about 30 to 40 newspapermen in the basement of the City Hall on November 24, 1963, at the time LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. He stated that Lieutenant V. S. SMART of the Auto Theft Bureau had told him in the AM of November 24, 1963, that he should stand by and assist in the transfer of OSWALD. No one ever gave him any specific instructions regarding the transfer of OSWALD nor did he know what security measures were in effect in the basement.

He stated that he knew JACK RUBY by sight only and that RUBY was a night club operator but he had not seen RUBY in six or seven years. He advised that he did not see RUBY or any person in the basement of the City Hall except officers and newspapermen.

He stated he recalled there were three uniformed officers outside of the passenger elevators leading to the Jail Office and he believed that they were checking identification of all persons they did not know.

Sergeant PATRICK T. DEAN, Patrol Division, Police Department, Dallas, Texas, residence address 2822 Nicholson Drive, Dallas, furnished the following information:

DEAN was in an off-duty status on Friday, November 22, 1963, and Saturday, November 23, 1963. He returned to duty on the 7:00 AM to 3:00 PM shift on November 24, 1963, and was stationed at Central Headquarters. On the morning of November 24, 1963, DEAN had no assignment prior to 9:00 AM and spent the time from 7:00 to 9:00 moving around the police building familiarizing himself with activities in the police building.

At 9:00 AM, DEAN received instructions from his superior officer, Lieutenant R. S. PIERCE of the Patrol Division to contact a group of men and thoroughly search the garage portion of the basement in the Police and Courts Building. At the time he received this assignment no mention was made of the exact time that prisoner LEE HARVEY OSWALD was to be removed from the city jail to the custody of the County Sheriff's Office. DEAN took this group consisting of Sergeant J. A. PUTNAM, and 13 reserve police officers headed by Captain ARNETT of the police reserves. DEAN does not recall the identity of these 13 reserve police officers since they are not regular police officers and he has little contact with them. Included in this group also were Officers A. R. BROCK and L. E. JEZ.

At approximately 9:30 AM, this group began searching the basement area and searched the entire basement, including looking into the approximately 35 to 40 cars that were parked in the garage at that time and also checking the trunk compartment of each car to see that it was securely locked. DEAN instructed this group of officers to check all doors leading into the basement to see that they were locked and if they were not locked, to let Sergeant DEAN know. These officers also checked the area above the air-conditioner and heat ducts located in the basement.

DEAN recalled that before starting the search of the basement he assigned Officer B. G. PATTERSON to stand at the Commerce Street ramp leading to the basement and Officer R. E. VAUGHN to stand at the exit ramp on the Main Street side of the building. Officer R. C. NELSON was stationed at the door entering from the Police and Courts Building into the basement area and Officer A. R. BROCK was stationed at the elevator and instructed to tell the elevator operator not to bring the elevator to the basement floor. A reserve policeman, name not known, was stationed at the southern portion of the basement in an opening from the sub-basement into the garage parking area. There was no one in the sub-basement at this time; however, this officer was instructed not to allow anyone to come up from the sub-basement.

The three porters and two garage parking attendants who were in the basement area at the time the search began were told to leave, and they did leave the basement area.

It is DEAN's best recollection that the search began about 9:30 AM and took approximately 15 minutes. When the search was completed, no one was in the basement area except regular police officers and the reserve officers assigned to this detail.

Sergeant DEAN then instructed all men in the basement not to let anyone except police officers or properly identified pressmen and photographers with their equipment into the basement area. After the search was completed, Officer L. E. JEZ was assigned to assist Officers B. G. PATTERSON in the Commerce Street ramp leading into the basement because a considerable number of persons had congregated on the sidewalk, in front of the ramp entrance. DEAN also sent three of the reserve officers, names not recalled, out to the Commerce Street ramp entrance with instructions to keep all spectators across the street from in front of the ramp entrance.

Shortly after the search was completed, newsmen and photographers began arriving in the basement and setting up their equipment. For a few minutes after they began arriving, Sergeant DEAN moved around the basement area checking for any unauthorized persons. A few minutes after the search was completed, two patrol cars with two officers in each, and with a prisoner in each car came into the basement parking area from the Main Street entrance. The paddy wagon also came into the garage area driven by Officer C. G. LEWIS. DEAN observed that at the time the paddy wagon came down the ramp into the garage area, it was stopped by Sergeant PUTNAM at the bottom of the ramp to check the front seat and inside the wagon and determined they were empty. Sergeant PUTNAM then assigned two of the reserve officers to stand at the bottom of the Main Street ramp. These officers were between Officer VAUGHN, who was at the Main Street entrance, and the jail office door. One reserve officer was then sent to the Commerce and Pearl Expressway to check traffic. The remaining reserve officers were instructed to go back into the assembly room in the basement of the Police and Courts Building for other assignments.

Sometime after the search of the basement area, Officer D. L. PATE came down into the basement and was assigned by DEAN to stand at the bottom of the exit ramp leading to Commerce Street.

It was DEAN's recollection that Officers stationed at the various entrances into the basement area began admitting pressmen, cameramen, and television men with equipment at approximately 9:45 AM and for some time thereafter these people were "milling around" in the basement area. At about 10:30 AM, Assistant Chief of Police BATCHELOR came down into the basement and moved all of the television men and pressmen and cameras out of the jail office and told them they would have to stay out in the parking area in front of the hall leading from the city jail office.

At about 11:15 AM, as DEAN was moving around in the basement area, Lieutenant PIERCE came down and instructed DEAN to get two officers immediately to go with PIERCE. By this time an armored car had arrived and backed into the opening of the Commerce Street ramp. DEAN assigned Sergeants PUTNAM and B. J. MAXEY to go with PIERCE, and these three officers got into an unmarked car and left by way of the Main Street opening on the north side of the building. Prior to leaving, PIERCE had told DEAN to go to the armored car and that he was to ride in the armored car with the prisoner. DEAN went to the rear of the armored car, the door of which was open, and stood with his back to the door of the car, looking down the ramp into the basement area. While standing in this position, he saw Lieutenant PIERCE and Sergeants PUTNAM and MAXEY get into the unmarked car and begin driving through the basement toward the Main Street ramp. He recalled that as this car passed the hallway leading into the jail office, Sergeant PUTNAM had to get out and move the crowd of pressmen and television men back so the car could get through. At the same time two other unmarked cars moved from the basement parking area and onto the Commerce Street ramp immediately behind the armored car. DEAN recognized the drivers of these cars as Homicide Bureau Detectives; however, he does not recall which detectives were in these cars.

About 30 seconds after Lieutenant PIERCE had driven out the Main Street ramp, DEAN heard commotion in the basement and comments, "Here he comes," and "They're bringing him down," and so forth. Just after he heard this commotion and comments, he saw a man dart quickly from the crowd, standing in front of the hall leading to the jail office. He then heard a shot and saw smoke rising above the crowd, apparently from the shot which had just been fired.

DEAN immediately ran down the ramp, jumping over the top of the two cars parked between him and the assembled crowd in the basement area. He did not see the prisoner LEE HARVEY OSWALD at this time or the actual shooting, as his view was obstructed by the crowd. When he got to where the shooting had occurred, other officers including a number of Detectives from the Homicide Bureau were dragging a man into the jail office. At this time, DEAN recognized the man as JACK RUBY, operator of the Carousel Club in Dallas. As he went into the jail office, he saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the jail office receiving emergency treatment. He helped clear the crowd from the area to allow OSWALD to be placed in an ambulance. He then went to the third floor of the Police Building where he ran into Chief of Police CURRY, and CURRY asked him to take Secret Service Agent ~~FOREST V. SORRELS~~ Forest V. Sorrells up to the fifth floor to interview JACK RUBY. Jack

DEAN said he would estimate there were about 60 persons altogether, including newsmen and police officers, in the basement at the time of the shooting of OSWALD; however, there may have been more, as he can only guess as to this number.

DEAN has known JACK RUBY since 1959 as operator of the Carousel Club on Commerce Street in Dallas. At that time, DEAN was Sergeant over a partol in the downtown section of Dallas, and as part of his routine checking of places of entertainment in the district he frequently saw RUBY at the Carousel Club. On occasion, when driving in the area with another officer, he would go up to the Carousel Club usually once or twice a week. In addition, DEAN said he had gone to the club with friends while off duty on four occasions during the time he had known JACK RUBY. RUBY was very friendly towards DEAN and other police officers and frequently when he ran into them on the street, he would invite them to come to his place and see the show. DEAN advised the four times he attended the Carousel Club while off duty, and the occasional contacts with RUBY in checking his place of entertainment, were the only contacts he had had with RUBY since becoming acquainted with him in 1959. He was never employed by RUBY and does not know of any other police officer who ever worked for RUBY at any of his clubs. DEAN advised that JACK RUBY had attempted to become friendly with him; however, he had kept his contacts with RUBY on an impersonal basis.

DEAN advised that since he was off duty on November 22 and 23, 1963, he did not observe RUBY on these dates and he had not observed RUBY on November 24, 1963, prior to the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the basement of the Police Building.

DEAN advised that in 1960, he had received a notice from the Texas Liquor Control Board that RUBY's license to operate the Carousel Club had been suspended for three days for selling alcoholic beverages and on driving past RUBY's place he had seen he was open and had gone to RUBY's place to arrest RUBY for this violation; however, on arrival at the club, he had been told by RUBY that he, RUBY, had already served this three-day suspension. DEAN then checked by telephone with Lieutenant GILMORE of the Vice Squad and was informed that the suspension had been served and, therefore, had not arrested RUBY on this occasion.

DEAN advised he does not know of any unauthorized person or persons who were permitted to enter the basement area of the Police Building on November 24, 1963. He said he does not know of anyone who was permitted to enter the area without showing proper identification.

DEAN is not acquainted with, and had never seen, LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the time he saw him in the city jail office after he had been shot by JACK RUBY. DEAN has no knowledge of any association between RUBY and OSWALD.

DEAN advised that a few minutes after the shooting had occurred, and after he had recognized RUBY as the individual who had shot OSWALD, and after OSWALD had been removed from the police basement by ambulance, he, DEAN, went to Officer R. C. NELSON, who was stationed at the doorway leading from the Police and Courts Building into the basement, and asked NELSON if JACK RUBY had come into the basement area through that door. NELSON had told him that he was positive RUBY had not entered the basement by this means. Later on November 24, 1963, after JACK RUBY had been interviewed by police officers and had stated that he entered the basement through the Main Street ramp, he had gone to Officer R. E. VAUGHN, who had covered that entrance, and VAUGHN had told him that RUBY did not come into the basement through the Main Street ramp entrance.

A few minutes later, while on the fifth floor of the Police Building, and after SORRELS of Secret Service had interviewed JACK RUBY, DEAN asked RUBY how long he had been in the basement prior to the shooting, and RUBY told him he had been in the basement two or three minutes and that he had come into the basement through the Main Street ramp. RUBY told him that a plain police car was coming out the Main Street ramp at the time he came in, and the officer who was stationed at the Main Street ramp had gone to this car to talk to the officer in the car, which RUBY believed was Lieutenant PIERCE. While the officer stationed at the Main Street ramp was talking to the officer in the car, RUBY had then gone into the entrance and down the ramp.

DEAN said he did not contact the two reserve officers who had been stationed at the bottom of the Main Street ramp, as they were not in the area at the time he checked with Officers NELSON and VAUGHN.

DEAN advised he could furnish no additional pertinent information.

CHARLES [illegible] DHORITY

[illegible] HYDRAULICS

Detective CHARLES [illegible] DHORITY of the Dallas Police Department and who resides at 2110 Dally Castle, Dallas, Texas, telephone number DA 1-0828, was interviewed at which time he was advised that he need not make any statement concerning this matter and that any statement he did make could later be used against him in a court of law. He was advised that no threats or promises would be made to him to induce him to make a statement. He was advised of his right to consult an attorney prior to giving any statement.

He advised he is a Detective assigned to the Homicide Section of the Dallas Police Department and was working his regular duty schedule on November 24, 1963. Detective DHORITY stated that at approximately 9:30 AM on November 24, 1963, and under the direction of Captain FRITZ, he and Detective L. C. GRAVES, who is also a Detective with the Dallas Police Department, were directed to go to the fifth floor of the City Hall and bring LEE HARVEY OSWALD to Captain FRITZ's office for purposes of interview. He stated that he and Detective GRAVES immediately brought OSWALD to Captain FRITZ's office where OSWALD was thereafter interrogated by Captain FRITZ, Mr. KELLY of the Secret Service, Mr. SORRELS also of the Secret Service and Mr. HOLMES of the Postal Department. Detective DHORITY advised that he could not be sure of the exact length of time that OSWALD was interviewed but estimated that the interview was completed at approximately 11:10 AM this same day. At the end of the interrogation, Captain FRITZ gave Detective DHORITY the keys to his car and directed him to park the car along the door of the Jail Office which is located on the basement level of City Hall. Immediately thereafter, Detective DHORITY proceeded to the basement and unlocked Captain FRITZ's car and thereafter parked the vehicle in the driveway located a short distance from the basement exit near the Jail Office. Detective DHORITY stated that he could recall a plain black police car that was parked in front of him but was unable to recognize the officers who accompanied that particular car. During his observation, he noticed that the plain black police car was driven up the ramp to the Main Street exit. Detective DHORITY related that as he backed Captain FRITZ's car in front of the Jail Office exit, he was having considerable trouble getting through the news reporters that had jammed the ramp driveway. He stated that he had no idea of the number of newsmen and cameramen in the area at that particular time, but estimated that the number would exceed 50. As he was backing the car up to the exit, Detective DHORITY turned around in the seat of his vehicle so as to avoid running over or hitting any of the reporters in the area. Immediately thereafter, he observed Captain FRITZ departing the Jail door followed by Detective J. R. LEAVELLE who he believed was at that time handcuffed to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that they proceeded to walk with OSWALD toward the car and shortly thereafter Captain FRITZ opened the right rear door of the car so as OSWALD could be placed in the rear seat. Detective DHORITY stated that he could not be sure of the exact time he noticed a man move quickly across the right rear of the car, proceed toward OSWALD and thereafter observed this individual shoot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that he recognized this particular individual as being JACK RUBY, a man whom he had seen a few times during the previous years in Dallas. He stated that shortly after RUBY had shot OSWALD, Detective GRAVES grabbed the pistol from RUBY's hand and a group of individuals immediately congregated in the area blocking his view. After realizing what had happened, Detective DHORITY departed the police car and proceeded to the Jail Office where OSWALD was being taken. Upon his arrival in the Jail Office, Detective DHORITY was directed by Captain FRITZ to return to the ramp area and have the supervisor officer to obtain the names of all individuals in and around the basement area. He stated that he gave this particular message to Captain C. E. TALBERT and thereafter proceeded to Captain FRITZ's car so he could remove it from the ramp driveway. Shortly thereafter, Detective DHORITY observed an ambulance drive into the basement area for purposes of transporting OSWALD to the Parkland Hospital.

Shortly thereafter, exact time he could not recall, he was directed to proceed to the Parkland Hospital where he was to stand by for further orders. He stated he stayed at the Parkland Hospital until LEE HARVEY OSWALD was pronounced dead. After receiving information that OSWALD was dead, he and Detective C. W. BROWN accompanied OSWALD's body to the Morgue where they waited until Dr. EARL ROSE made his preliminary pictures of the body prior to the autopsy. Detective DHORITY advised that he turned over OSWALD's clothing to Dr. EARL ROSE and thereafter returned to the Homicide Detective DHORITY stated that he never personally met JACK RUBY, either socially or in connection with any type of business and for this reason knows very little concerning RUBY's background. He related that JACK RUBY had been pointed out to him on several occasions, but could not recall ever having engaged in any type of conversation with him. He stated that he was aware of the fact that RUBY was a night club owner and had heard through conversation around the police department that he, RUBY, was the owner of the Carousel and the Vegas Club, both described as being local night clubs.

In regard to RUBY's presence at the Police Department prior to the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Detective DHORITY stated that JOHNNY RUTLEDGE, a police reporter, had advised him that RUBY was seen at Police Headquarters prior to the shooting on November 24, 1963. He stated that he had heard this information only in a passing conversation and he could offer no personal knowledge that RUBY may have been in the area prior to the shooting.

In regard to the number and identity of the individuals present in the basement of the City Hall prior to the shooting of OSWALD, Detective DHORITY stated that he observed several newsmen, cameramen and policemen estimating that the number of people would exceed 100. He added that he did not see anyone other than those connected in a official capacity.

In regard to any type of security, Detective DHORITY advised that he was not personally aware of the security measures that were to be taken concerning OSWALD's transfer but was under the impression that only those individuals connected in an official capacity were to be present during the transfer of OSWALD. He knew of no one that was allowed to enter the building other than cameramen, newsmen and police officers assigned to that specific detail.

Detective DHORITY further advised that he is not aware nor has he heard of any information that would associate RUBY with OSWALD in any manner. He could offer no information in regards to who may have talked with RUBY either before OSWALD was shot or after.

Detective DHORITY said that he had made a statement concerning this matter and that it was directed to the Chief of Police of the Dallas Police Department. He advised that the information he had given during this interview was essentially the same information that was set forth in the statement.

Officer D. K. ERWIN, 622 Milky Way, Garland, Texas, advised he had been on the Dallas Police Department for six months.

ERWIN stated he arrived at the Dallas Police Department Headquarters at approximately 9:20 a.m. on November 24, 1963. ERWIN was upstairs with a number of traffic patrol officers and was instructed to go downstairs at approximately 10:45 a.m. ERWIN had to go to the restroom and was approximately two minutes later than the other patrolmen in arriving in the basement of the Municipal Building. When leaving the elevator, he noticed a number of news men, cameramen and other police officers, but could not estimate the number. ERWIN stated that the basement appeared "jammed" with the camera equipment, cameramen, news men and police officers. At approximately 11:00 a.m., he and the other officers assigned to traffic assembled into the parking area opposite the basement doors where the prisoner was to go out. He left for his traffic position and did not know of OSWALD's shooting by RUBY until a citizen came by his corner and told him OSWALD had been shot. Shortly thereafter, the ambulance taking OSWALD to Parkland Hospital came by his corner at approximately 60 miles per hour.

ERWIN stated he did not previously know RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD, had never been in either the Vegas or the Carousel Clubs, and further did not know anyone who had ever worked for RUBY. Further, ERWIN stated that he had not heard any police officers state how RUBY got into the basement of the Municipal Building.

(1) L. H. FOX

LEON LEROY FOX, 554 Summit Ridge Drive, Duncanville, Texas, Patrolman Radio Patrol Division, Dallas Police Department, assigned to the southwest area substation, was contacted at his residence, and was immediately advised of the official identity of interviewing Agents, the nature of the investigation, the fact that he did not have to make any statement, and that any statement made by him could be used against him in court and of right to counsel.

FOX advised that on November 24, 1963, at approximately 9 a.m. he was cruising alone in car #134 in the 2700 block of South Westmoreland, when he received a call on the radio with instructions to telephone 511, office of the Chief of Police. FOX stated he called this number and was instructed to report to the Chief's Office immediately. He then proceeded to the Police and Courts Building, arriving at approximately 9:30 a.m. and remained in the Patrol Office at that building until approximately 10:15 a.m., along with approximately 15 other Patrolmen. FOX stated at about this time a Patrolman who works at 511 received a phone call, after which he instructed the Patrolmen to report to the City Hall basement. FOX said when he reached the basement he was met by his immediate supervisor, Sergeant DON STEELE, who instructed him to get his shotgun from his car which was parked on Main Street, and return to the basement. FOX said when he returned to the basement with his shotgun he was instructed by Sergeant P. T. DEAN to take station at Elm and Harwood and to direct traffic at that intersection as that was the intended route of the armored truck which was to carry OSWALD.

FOX said he left the basement at about 10:45 and took up his position at Elm and Harwood about ten minutes later. At approximately 11:30 a.m. he saw an ambulance enter the Main Street ramp of the City Hall basement followed by a squad car. He stated that approximately five minutes later the squad car exited on Commerce Street, followed by the ambulance and proceeded through his intersection en route to Parkland Memorial Hospital. FOX stated that shortly after the ambulance passed, an accident investigator of the Police Department had stopped his car near the intersection and that since this car was equipped with an outside speaker, he could hear radio traffic from where he was located. He heard a report from the dispatcher's office ordering all men working corners to report to Parkland Hospital, Code 2, which FOX explained is with siren and flashing red light when needed.

FOX said he heard this call approximately ten minutes after the ambulance went through the intersection, and that he then proceeded to Parkland and arrived there five minutes later, at which time he took up a position on the north side of the entrance to Parkland Hospital, where he directed traffic and checked the identification of the people entering the drive to the hospital. FOX said he was instructed to do the above immediately upon arriving by an unidentified Sergeant of the Police Department.

FOX stated that approximately 20 to 25 minutes after he arrived at Parkland, a man came by in a 1960 Chevrolet and stated he was OSWALD's brother. FOX told this man to pull forward approximately 20 feet and talk with the Sergeant stationed at that location. FOX said that this Sergeant and the man claiming to be OSWALD's brother, talked about five minutes, at which time the Sergeant instructed him (FOX) to park the 1960 Chevrolet by the curb and sit in the car with the man. FOX advised that he sat in this car with the man, during which time this man told him he was moving his family and when he had heard his brother had been shot, the two Secret Service men who were accompanying his family, told him to report to Parkland Hospital, and that they would telephone ahead to notify authorities he was coming. FOX said he was in the car with this individual about ten minutes when two men approached him and displayed identification of the Secret Service, at which time they entered the car and talked with the man identifying himself as OSWALD's brother. FOX said the Secret Service Agents identified themselves to this man and asked him if any newsmen would recognize him, to which the man replied that a few newsmen might recognize him. The Secret Service men then advised this man to put on his sunglasses and follow them into the hospital at a distance of about ten feet. FOX said they then got out of the car and proceeded into the hospital, at which time he resumed his position directing traffic and checking identifications. FOX said he was relieved about 1 p.m. at which time he returned to his car and took up his regular position at District 97, in the Oak Cliff District.

FOX advised he did not see the shooting of OSWALD on November 24, 1963, and that he did not know an individual by the name of JACK RUBY. He stated he never worked for RUBY and did not know of any police officers who did. He stated there were approximately 10 to 15 individuals in the basement, which he refers to as the City Hall basement, at the time he was there on the morning of November 24, 1963, but that he is unable to identify any of these people. FOX advised he was never briefed on the security measures to be taken in the basement on the above date, but had heard rumors that the basement had been cleared sometime prior to 10 a.m., November 24, 1963, of all persons but news media personnel and police officers, and that one police officer had been stationed at each ramp entrance to the basement.

FOX said he does not know what procedure was used to identify unknown individuals attempting to enter the basement and he does not know of any unauthorized persons who were permitted entrance to the basement.

FOX was exhibited a photograph of JACK RUBY, taken November 24, 1963, and he advised he does not recall ever having seen this person at any time in the past, and that he does not have any information concerning a relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

Captain J. W. FRITZ, Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed concerning the previous reported information from ROBERT LEE SHORMAN, Long Beach, California, to the effect that he (SHORMAN) met JACK RUBY around Christmas, 1961, was a musician and would spend off hours at RUBY's Carousel Club and did so for approximately four or five weeks. SHORMAN said numerous police officers frequented the bar, but the only officer he knew by name was an older detective, last name FRITZ, whom he saw on one occasion at a table in the club.

Captain FRITZ stated he has never been in the Carousel Club in his life, that he knows of, and that he had never known JACK RUBY prior to RUBY's arrest 11/24/63. Captain FRITZ added that he did not know a ROBERT LEE SHORMAN. Captain FRITZ stated he had never heard of any officer in Dallas named FRITZ, beside himself.

CHARLES GOOLSBY, Detective, Juvenile Bureau, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, home address 2911 Eisenhower, DALLAS, TEX. telephone FR 4-6707, was notified of the Agents' identities, and informed that he did not have to talk to Agents; that anything he said could possibly be used against him in a court of law; and that he had a right to consult an attorney. He related the following:

His usual hours on November 24, 1963, were from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. A short time after he reported for duty Chief STEVENSON instructed all the juvenile officers to stand by. At about 11:00 a.m., Captain MARTIN came in and ordered all of the juvenile officers to the basement. All the juvenile officers went to the basement. The officers who did so were Detectives GOOLSBY, LOWERY, CUTCHSHAW, MILLER and Patrolman HARRISON. After they got off the elevator they walked through the lobby in front of the jail office and were checked through by Patrolman NELSON who was stationed there. NELSON knew them all and they were not required to identify themselves. There were numerous officers and reporters standing around and after a few minutes Captain JONES announced that he did not want anyone to pass except reporters and officers. He told all the reporters to go across the hall into the garage area. A few minutes later Captain JONES ordered the Juvenile Bureau group to move out into the area immediately outside the swinging doors leading to the jail lobby. He described the jail lobby as the corridor leading from the elevators to the swinging door. This hallway has two or three windows for the benefit of people who came to jail with prisoners and across the hallway were a couple of phone booths. GOOLSBY took up a position just outside the swinging doors to this corridor and opposite the door to the jail office that led to the basement parking area.

At about 11:15 a.m., or thereabouts, someone shouted, "Here they come," or something to that effect. Captain FRITZ came through the jail office door and he was followed by LEE HARVEY OSWALD who was between two police officers. Detective LEAVELLE was on OSWALD's right and Detective GRAVES was on his left. Another officer was right behind OSWALD. As they came through the door from the jail office, a group of reporters who were standing along the wall adjacent to the door surged forward. One of these persons had a microphone and came up behind OSWALD and said something to the effect, "What do you have to say for yourself?" At this moment the gun went off. OSWALD at this point was about 8 to 10 feet to GOOLSBY's right. He did not see the shot fired. With the report of the gun a mass of officers grabbed the gunman and pinned him to the floor and he did not see the gunman at all. Lt. McKINNEY immediately instructed GOOLSBY and Detective BEATY to cover the jail lobby and they ran back through the lobby to the point where the elevator and the stairs enter the lobby to seal that point.

Two or three minutes after this, the ambulance left with OSWALD and then GOOLSBY started to go back to his office and Lt. McKINNEY told him to come with him. GOOLSBY and about 7 other officers then proceeded in two police cars to Parkland Hospital. They were stationed in the lobby of the Parkland Hospital until about 3:00 p.m. when they were relieved.

Detective GOOLSBY is not acquainted with JACK RUBY. He has never worked for RUBY in any capacity either part time or full time and knows of no Dallas police officers who have ever worked for him.

GOOLSBY had no idea as to how many people were in the basement area at the time of the shooting but stated it was pretty crowded.

He had no knowledge of any security measures and had received no instructions as to what his duties were to be other than what he was told on the spot. He saw numerous newsmen in the basement who were wearing press cards.

He did not see RUBY before the shooting and did not see or talk to RUBY any time between November 22 and 24, 1963, and had no knowledge of any association or relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

Detective C. A. GREESON, Auto Theft Bureau, Dallas Police Department, furnished the following additional information to information he previously furnished on November 26, 1963.

Detective GREESON advised that he would estimate that there were approximately thirty-five (35) newsmen and TV cameramen in the basement of City Hall at the time LEE HARVEY OSWALD was to be transferred to the Dallas County Jail. He stated that there were a number of bright TV lights from the ramp of the east side of the jail office and he could not see if there were any newsmen up the Commerce Street ramp or the Main Street ramp.

He advised that he knew nothing of the security restrictions that were set up in the basement for the transfer of OSWALD. Lieutenant W. E. SWART of the Auto Theft Bureau had told him and other detectives in Auto Theft to proceed to the basement and assist in the moving of OSWALD but no specific instructions were given. He did not recognize anyone in the basement other than police officers. No one asked him for his identification or did he notice any other officer request anyone to identify themselves.

He believes that he may have met JACK RUBY once three or four years ago on Commerce Street while he was directing traffic but is not sure of this. He knows nothing regarding RUBY's background or of any association of RUBY with OSWALD.

THOMAS R. GREGORY, 502 Golden Meadow Lane, Duncanville, Texas, furnished the following information to SAs MABEY and HUGHES after they had identified themselves as Special Agents of the FBI. GREGORY was advised that he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law, and that he had the right to consult an attorney before making any statement. He then freely and voluntarily furnished the following information:

Prior to 9:00 a.m., November 24, 1963, he and Officer M. J. WAGES were working squad 93 when they received a call to get in touch with 511. He was instructed by Captain TALBERT to report in to the police and courts building which he and officer WAGES did, arriving there approximately 9:30 a.m. They went to the radio patrol office where they stood by with approximately 10-15 other officers, exact length of time unknown.

He heard some of the other officers say that they were to go to the basement and search it. He and the other 10-15 officers proceeded to the basement and when they arrived in the basement they were asked by an unidentified uniformed police officer what they were going to do. They answered that they were there to search the basement and were informed by this officer that the search had already been conducted. They were then told by Sergeant STEELE to get the shotguns from their police cars which they did. Sergeant STEELE told GREGORY to get his squad car and back it down the south ramp or the Commerce Street ramp and park it in one of the driving lanes which was done.

Instructions were given by one of the unidentified supervisors in the area that there were to be 4 officers in each police car most of whom were to carry shotguns. Two unidentified police officers got into the police car with GREGORY and WAGES and they sat in the car for approximately five minutes. Sergeant STEELE and Sergeant DEAN then called the men out of the cars, gathered them in a group behind or to the rear of the TV cameras, and told them that the plans had been changed and the moving of the prisoner was to be done in a different way. All of the officers in this group were assigned to street corners with officer WAGES at Main and Central and Officer GREGORY at Main and Pearl. At the last minute another change was made and officer GREGORY was assigned to Elm and Central and all of the other officers were also changed to Elm Street corners. The officers were told to take their police cars and park them near the corners so that when the armored car carrying the prisoner passed them they were to take their cars and follow the armored car to the county jail. The officers were advised that the armored car in approaching the corners would signal to them by flashing its lights. The officers were instructed when they saw this signal, they were to stop all traffic and clear the intersections. GREGORY went to his corner arriving there a few minutes before 11:00 a.m. and stayed there for approximately 15 or 20 minutes. He was told by an unidentified pedestrian that OSWALD had been shot and before going back and getting into his police car he stopped traffic to allow the ambulance carrying OSWALD, followed by two police cars, to clear his intersection.

Officers GREGORY and WAGES were advised by radio that all corner men were to report to Parkland Hospital which they did arriving approximately 2-3 minutes after receiving the radio call. They went to the emergency door entrance and GREGORY and an unidentified officer helped in moving the crowd back across the street. GREGORY was then stationed several hundred feet from the emergency door with the duty of keeping the crowd back which duty he performed until 1:00 p.m. At 1:00 p.m. he was relieved by several unidentified motorcycle officers. An unidentified Sergeant told GREGORY to find his partner and get back into service. In the process of locating his partner, GREGORY was told by Sergeant DEAN to help stop and check the people that were coming into the front entrance. GREGORY performed this duty for approximately one hour.

From a portable radio in the crowd GREGORY heard that OSWALD had died, located his partner, and went into service in his radio car. GREGORY did not see the shooting of OSWALD nor did he know JACK RUBY. He did not work for JACK RUBY nor did he know of anyother officers who did. He estimated that upon his arrival at the basement there were four to five individuals present other than police officers. He had no knowledge of the security measures in effect in the basement on November 24, but was assigned his duty in the basement. While in the basement he saw two unidentified individuals stopped and asked for identification. He knew of no unauthorized person that was permitted entrance to the basement. He did not know JACK RUBY, did not observe him in the basement, or talking with any individual or see him at any time between November 22 and 24, 1963. He knew of no relationship between OSWALD and RUBY.

WILLIAM JOSEPH HARRISON, 9223 Donny Brook, Dallas, Texas, was advised he did not have to make any statement, any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law, he had a right to talk to an attorney, and of the identities of SAs EDMOND C. HARDIN and ROBERT J. WILKISON.

HARRISON advised as follows:

He is employed as Patrolman by the Dallas, Texas, Police Department, and is currently assigned as Detective in the Juvenile Division, Criminal Investigation Division, Police Headquarters.

On November 24, 1963, he worked the 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. shift and was on duty in the Juvenile Division, Third Floor of the Police Station, on a standby basis. About 11 a.m. he went to the locker room and on his return observed the other detectives in the Juvenile Division going to the basement. They told him to come too. This was approximately 11 a.m. or shortly thereafter.

Upon arrival in the basement the officers stood around in the corridor outside the jail office awaiting instructions. After a few minutes one of the police officers, whose name he does not recall, instructed them to have all the press and television representatives move to along the east wall area of the basement ramp. They did so.

He doesn't know how many press and television representatives were in the basement, but there was quite a large crowd. He didn't see anyone other than police officers, press or television representatives in the basement area.

He has known JACK RUBY as a Dallas night club operator for several years in connection with his employment as a police officer, but never had any personal associations with RUBY.

Prior to the time that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was brought down to the basement, HARRISON looked at the crowd in attendance but did not see anyone suspicious. He did not see JACK RUBY. He was stationed in the basement ramp area at least six or seven minutes prior to the time OSWALD was escorted into that area.

There was an armored car at the Commerce Street entrance to the basement ramp and there were two plain unmarked police cars inside the ramp which were behind the armored car.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to

He was stationed in the center of the ramp in the area where the corridor leading from the jail office meets the ramp. Other officers were along the west side of the ramp. The press and television representatives were on the east wall of the ramp facing the corridor through which OSWALD would pass while being transferred from the City Jail to the vehicle used to transport him. At about that time one or two police cars went out the Main Street exit. He believes Lieutenant PIERCE was in one of the cars. This was about three or four minutes prior to the time OSWALD was escorted out of the jail office.

He said Captain FRITZ came out of the jail office and asked an officer, identity not recalled by HARRISON, if everything was O.K. and received an affirmative answer.

Immediately thereafter OSWALD was escorted out of the jail office door by Detectives GRAVES and LEAVELLE, one of whom was on either side of OSWALD. They walked down the short corridor towards the ramp and the officers who had been stationed along the corridor filled in behind them.

As OSWALD and the officers walked down the corridor towards the ramp, someone in the group of press representatives called for HARRISON and some officers near him to move back. He glanced back over his left shoulder to the crowd behind him, but didn't see anything suspicious and did not see JACK RUBY in the crowd. One or two of the officers near him shifted their positions a little.

While OSWALD was being escorted down the corridor, OSWALD glanced at the crowd behind HARRISON and on HARRISON's left side.

At about that same instant a man whom HARRISON later recognized as JACK RUBY ran past his left side in a crouched-over position. RUBY was about one-half step ahead of him when he first saw RUBY. He observed that RUBY had a gun in his right hand and was extending his right hand in OSWALD's direction. RUBY was moving directly towards OSWALD. OSWALD was only about six feet from HARRISON at the time that RUBY passed by him and RUBY had only about one step to go to reach OSWALD.

At about the same instant that he saw the gun in RUBY's hand he recognized RUBY and immediately started to move towards RUBY. The gun was fired by RUBY almost instantly. At the time the gun went off, HARRISON had his right hand on RUBY's right forearm and was trying to stop RUBY from firing the gun. As HARRISON followed through on his rush toward RUBY, he forced RUBY to the floor. At that same time several other officers also grabbed hold of RUBY. He said Detective GRAVES took the gun out of RUBY's right hand.

HARRISON's attention was centered on RUBY and in trying to get the gun away from RUBY, he didn't see what happened to OSWALD. HARRISON and the other officers took RUBY back into the jail office and handcuffed him. At that time RUBY said "You all know me. I am JACK RUBY." RUBY made that statement several times. After they had taken RUBY back into the jail office, some of the other officers brought OSWALD into the jail office. While in the jail office an officer, whose name he does not recall, asked RUBY why he had shot OSWALD and RUBY replied "I hope I killed the S.O.B." HARRISON, Captain KING, and another officer took RUBY upstairs to the fifth floor.

HARRISON and officers L. D. MONTGOMERY, L. D. MILLER, and DON ARCHER were the officers who had handcuffed RUBY.

HARRISON's attention, while in the jail office, was centered on RUBY and he didn't have anything to do with OSWALD. However, he recalled that when he observed OSWALD in the jail office, he noticed that OSWALD had been shot and appeared to be unconscious.

After arrival on the fifth floor he left RUBY and the other officers and had no further contact with RUBY. He did not hear RUBY make any other statements, other than as previously related.

At the time RUBY was subdued and made the above-quoted remark in the jail office about killing OSWALD, RUBY was perfectly calm. At no time while in HARRISON's presence did RUBY appear to be emotionally excited or upset.

HARRISON never worked for RUBY or at any of RUBY's night clubs. He never heard of any police officers who ever worked for RUBY. He said police officers are prohibited from working off-duty at establishments where alcoholic beverages are served.

HARRISON was not familiar with the security measures in the police station November 24, 1963. However, he did observe that officers were standing at the entrance to the basement ramp area.

He did not know of any unauthorized person permitted to enter the basement or of anyone permitted to enter without showing identification. He did not have any occasion to require anyone to identify themselves.

He did not see RUBY or talk to RUBY between November 22 and November 24, 1963, until he observed RUBY a second or so before RUBY shot OSWALD on November 24, 1963.

HARRISON had no information concerning any relationship between OSWALD and RUBY. He did not know OSWALD.

HARRISON had no other pertinent information concerning this case.

With Hibbs

Patrolman WARREN E. HIBBS, Dallas Police Department, who resides at 2345 Quinto Drive, Dallas, was interviewed at his residence. HIBBS was advised that he was not required to make a statement; that any statement he did make might be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to legal counsel prior to making a statement.

Patrolman HIBBS advised that on November 24, 1963, he was on the day shift with duty hours from 7:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. at the White Oak Sub Station.

At about 9:00 a.m., he was informed by the dispatcher to report to Room 511 at the City Hall. He went to that room and remained in the Sergeant's room until about 10:15 a.m. when he was instructed to go to the basement area with eleven more patrolmen. They proceeded to the basement where a Sergeant, whose name he does not recall, had told them to go. There, the group was instructed by Sergeant PUTNAM to get their shotguns from their patrol cars. He went to his patrol car which was parked on the street around the block in an alley between Commerce and the Central Express Freeway, removed his shotgun and returned to the basement from the Commerce Street entrance. He and the others were instructed to place their shotguns in designated squad cars, in a Captain's unmarked car and in Sergeant PUTNAM's station wagon. He placed his shotgun in the front seat of Sergeant PUTNMAN's station wagon. He was then instructed to take his gun and put it in Patrolman TOLBERT's car located in the basement proper. He did so and returned to his group to obtain further instructions. He was talking to Patrolman TOLBERT and they noticed Sergeant PUTNAM checking a patty wagon coming into the basement from the Main Street entrance. They also checked a detective's car which entered through the same entrance. He does not know or recall who the detectives were and does not recall the driver of the paddy wagon, but is acquainted with him. He stated the driver of the paddy wagon is a very large man. He and TOLBERT were then instructed to take up positions at the bottom of the Main Street ramp. Officer VAUGHN was stationed at the entrance of this ramp. He took this position against the post in the garage proper and TOLBERT was opposite him. They were there about 15 to about 20 minutes during which time no one entered from the Main Street ramp. They were then called by three Sergeants, whose names he does not know, to the garage area proper, and were instructed to work traffic on the street corners involving the route to be taken by the vehicle carrying OSWALD to the County Jail. He recalls that before leaving the basement, Sergeant PUTNMAN, DEAN, and possibly one other Sergeant instructed the reserve police officers to replace them at the bottom of the Main Street ramp. Sergeant DEAN designated which men were to work the street corners and Sergeant PUTNMAN called out to them the particular corner each man was to work. HIBBS was assigned the Elm and Ackard Streets corner. He proceeded there in his squad car, leaving the garage at about 11:00 a.m. He was at this corner when he later learned that OSWALD had been shot.

Officer HIBBS stated that he does not know the identities of individuals in the basement of City Hall when OSWALD was shot other than the names he has mentioned above. He stated that while in the basement he is positive he did not see JACK RUBY. He added that he does not know RUBY, has never worked for him in any of his establishments and does not know of any other police officers who may have worked for RUBY. He added that he has never heard of any connection which may have existed between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

HIBBS advised that when he was in the basement he would estimate that there must have been about 25 newsmen and 40 or 50 police officers. He stated that he gained the impression that thorough security measures were taken in the basement area to keep out unauthorized individuals. He noticed that regular officers or reserve officers were placed at all doors and entrances to the area and noticed that any individuals entering were required to show proper identification. He does not know of any unauthorized individuals who may have entered the area.

HAROLD B. HOLLY, JR., 3429 Antilles, residence phone EM. 9-4584, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He is employed as a General Contractor with offices at his residence. He has been a reserve police officer with the Police Department at Dallas, Texas, for a number of years and is presently a member of the First Platoon, "C" Company.

As concerns his assignments during the week end of November 24, 1963, he was first contacted by Sergeant MAYO, on November 21, 1963, and was told to report to the command post of the police reserves at the Central Police Headquarters on the following day. He stated, however, he had business to conduct on the morning of November 22, 1963, and learned of the President's assassination while at his residence. He immediately put on his uniform and proceeded to Central Police Headquarters, arriving there about an hour after the President's assassination. There was much confusion at the police station and he did not see any reserve officers that he knew there. He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD was in the building at that time. He went to the office of the Burglary & Theft Unit on the third floor and spoke with a Captain SOLOMON, who is the coordinator for the police reserves and is assigned to the police training school. He asked Captain SOLOMON what he could do to assist and was told it was alright for him to help the regular officers keep spectators away from the third floor of the Central Police Headquarters. He then stationed himself in the third floor lobby and checked identification of anyone who attempted to walk down the hall where LEE HARVEY OSWALD was being held. He stated he was not instructed as to what type of identification would be valid, but he assumed that it would consist of some type of official press card. In his own mind, he felt press badges were not proper identification and allowed no one to pass down the hall who merely had a press badge. He made a point to check everyone attempting to walk by him who was not in uniform. He did not know who was in charge of the security detail on the third floor. He worked for about four hours on the third floor until about 6:00 PM and then went to the basement of the Police Department for about thirty minutes to relax. He stated he was too upset as a result of the assassination to eat dinner. He went back to the third floor and stayed there until about 7:30 PM, at which time he left the police station and returned to his home. He did not see JACK RUBY at the police station at any time on that day.

On Saturday, November 23, 963, he returned to the Central Police Headquarters at about 7:00 PM and was assigned by a reserve officer, whose identity he did not know, to direct traffic at the intersection of Commerce and Akard Streets in downtown Dallas. He worked at this assignment for three hours and then returned to his home after signing out at the reserve command post at police headquarters. He did not see JACK RUBY at any time on that day.

On Sunday, November 24, 1963, Sergeant MAYO called his home at about 9:00 AM and told his wife they were going to move LEE HARVEY OSWALD out of the police headquarters at about 2:00 PM and that he should be there before they moved him out. Sergeant MAYO cautioned his wife not to tell anyone of these plans. He left his home sometime after 10:00 AM, on November 24, 1963, and upon arriving at Central Police Headquarters determined that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been shot approximately five to ten minutes before his arrival. He heard a broadcast reflecting this on his car radio shortly before he arrived at the headquarters. He immediately reported to a Lieutenant KRISS, a reserve officer, who was at the ramp entrance on Main Street. Lieutenant KRISS did not make any comments to him concerning the shooting, but directed him to keep traffic moving at that location. He then took a position on the Main Street curb in front of the ramp, and kept vehicles containing spectators moving on Main Street. There were a few other reserve officers in the vicinity, but Lieutenant KRISS was the only one he recognized. After about ten minutes, Lieutenant KRISS told him to report to the command post in the basement and there he received an assignment from a reserve officer he did not know to join a detail being sent to Parkland Memorial Hospital. Upon arriving at Parkland Memorial Hospital, he was assigned to the security detail on the northeast section of the lawn and spent approximately three hours there.. His instructions were to keep spectators away.

After approximately three hours at that location, Captain SOLOMON assigned him to act as security on the portion of the hospital lawn which was in the vicinity of where the Governor of Texas was hospitalized. Sometime during the period he was there, he talked to a reserve officer, whose identity he did not know, and this officer told him that either he saw "the man" come in the basement of the police station, had seen him in the basement of the police station, or had let him come in the police station. This officer told him he did not know JACK RUBY and referred to him when discussing it as "the man" in reference to the man who shot OSWALD. He stated he was unable to recall exactly what this officer said, but it was probably one of the three possibilities he had just mentioned. This reserve officer did not say where he was assigned at the Central Police Headquarters at the time of the shooting. He also recalled this officer told him that "the man' had a press badge hanging from his coat lapel.

He relayed this information to a close personal friend of his, Detective G. P. EVERHART, who is a regular officer assigned to the Burglary & Theft Unit. He believed he told EVERHART this on the following day. Later on the same week, he was instructed to report to Captain SOLOMON, at which time Captain SOLOMON exhibited photographs of reserve officers to him in an effort to identify the reserve officer he spoke with at the hospital. He picked out one of these photographs as possibly being a good likeness of the reserve officer he had spoken with, and recalled Captain SOLOMON saying that this officer was one of the men who was on duty apparently on the Main Street ramp at the time of the shooting. He recalled SOLOMON saying words to the effect that he was the reserve officer assigned there. He, personally, did not know who was on duty at the Main Street ramp at the time of the shooting. He described the officer he had spoken with as a white male, age 35, 5'9", 170 lbs., with an olive complexion. This officer was a patrolman and he could recall no additional descriptive data.

He believed there was a regular officer directing traffic at the intersection of Main and Harwood Streets during the time he was assigned to direct traffic at the Main Street ramp after the shooting.

After reading in the paper that a lie-detector test had been given an officer of the Police Department, he assumed the officer referred to was the reserve officer he identified from photographs exhibited to him by Captain SOLOMON. He has not heard anything from anyone at the Police Department, however, concerning the identity of the officer who allowed JACK RUBY to enter the building, how he might have gotten in, or who the reserve officer he spoke with might have been.

As concerns JACK RUBY, he first met him about two years ago. TOM WATSON, a paint contractor, who is now deceased, arranged with RUBY to paint the front of the Carousel Club. Prior to that time, he had not met RUBY. WATSON and he went to the club on a Saturday morning and RUBY was there; however, they had very little conversation with him. A price had been agreed on for the job but, when RUBY saw how little time it took them to finish it, he became upset and indicated he did not think it was worth that much. Since a price had been agreed at prior to painting the front, RUBY eventually paid them what they had asked.

He has seen RUBY several times when he rode as a partner with Lieutenant EVERHART since that time. EVERHART was working in Special Services then and it was necessary for him to check all the various night clubs in Dallas, including RUBY's clubs. At no time during these checks did he converse with RUBY, however. RUBY never extended any favors to him or Lieutenant EVERHART while he was with him, and he would certainly not accept any favors if they were offered.

He knows nothing concerning the background, personal life, or political convictions of JACK RUBY. He had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and knows of no connection between OSWALD and JACK RUBY.

1 J.R. HOPKINS DALLAS, TEX.

RAY HOPKINS, 8643 Diceman Drive, automotive mechanic, Braniff Air Lines, 7701 Lemmon Avenue, was contacted at his place of employment and immediately advised of the official identity of the interviewing Agents. The nature of the investigation, the fact that he did not have to make any statement, and that any statement made by him could be used in court against him. He was advised of his right to counsel.

HOPKINS advised he is a Sergeant in the Reserve Police force of the Dallas Police Department, Badge # 378C2, and has been a reserve officer for the past nine years. He stated that he reported to Captain C. O. ARNETT of the Reserve Police force on November 24, 1963, at 9:40 AM in the assembly room in the basement of the Police and Courts Building. He stated he arrived late and there were already ten to twelve reserve officers already assembled, and as he walked in, Sgt. DEAN, of the Dallas Police Department, was giving instructions to the group to search all air condition and heating ducts and all pipes and automobiles in the basement of the building for unauthorized individuals and firearms.

HOPKINS stated the search was conducted between 9:45 AM and 10:05 AM, and the only weapon found was a rifle having a lever action which was found in the trunk of a police car parked in the basement, and that this rifle was turned over to the Police Department as it was determined it was the property of the Police Department. HOPKINS said he then stood by for an assignment for approximately fifteen minutes, at which time Lieut. MC COY of the reserve force sent him to the Commerce Street side of the Police and Courts Building to take charge of a detail assigned to keep spectators from the sidewalk immediately outside the Police and Courts Building.

HOPKINS stated he remained outside on Commerce Street until he heard a detective who had rushed up the Commerce Street ramp and yelled, "Seal the building up. Don't let anyone out". HOPKINS said he went to the Main Street door of the Police and Courts Building, where he stood guard until relieved by another officer, at which time he went to the Main Street ramp of the building and helped clear the spectators from this area who had come across the street when they saw the ambulance enter the building. HOPKINS stated he did not hear a shot and only found out later what had actually happened.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

HOPKINS stated he does not know JACK RUBY and had never worked for him and does not know of any police officers who have ever worked for RUBY, with the exception of R. A. COX, a Reserve policeman who he heard had been employed by RUBY at the Vegas Club as a Special Officer about ten years ago. HOPKINS estimated there were approximately thirty individuals other than police officers in the basement of the Police and Courts Building during the time he was there at between 9:45 AM and 10:05 on November 24, 1963. HOPKINS stated he did not recognize any of the individuals who were non-police officers. HOPKINS advised that his understanding of the security measures in the basement were that no one was to come down the Commerce Street or Main Street ramps into the basement unless he was a police officer, that the news media personnel would use the entrance from the Police and Courts Building and would be required to show identification, that all elevators entering upon the basement were to be locked, and that the only door to remain unlocked was the door separating the basement from the jail office.

HOPKINS stated he does not know of any unauthorized person being permitted entrance to the basement or of anyone not being required to show identification. HOPKINS was exhibited a photograph of JACK RUBY taken November 24, 1963, and he stated he had never recalled seeing this individual at any time in the past, and that he does not have any information concerning a relationship between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

JESSE C. HUNT, 520 South Waverly Drive, Dallas, Texas, was telephonically contacted to arrange for an interview relative to any information in his possession concerning the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 24, 1963, at Dallas.

Mr. HUNT volunteered information to the effect that he has no personal information to offer concerning the shooting of OSWALD or of the general conditions and persons in the basement area of City Hall prior to the shooting inasmuch as he had been sent to the County Building to be present there in his capacity as a reserve police officer with the Dallas Police Department. He explained that he was to help direct traffic at the County Building prior to and upon the arrival of OSWALD who was to be transferred to that building from the City Hall. He stated that inasmuch as he was at the County Building when OSWALD was shot, he did not witness the shooting of OSWALD.

(1) J. D. Hutchinson Date December 1, 1963

JERRY D. HUTCHINSON, Badge No. 1778, Patrolman, Vice Section, Special Service Bureau, Dallas Police Department, advised that he was on duty with the Dallas Police Department on the morning of November 24, 1963, having come on duty about 9 a.m. HUTCHINSON stated that at about 10 a.m., November 24, 1963, he and Detective B. H. COMBEST, Badge No. 1148, and Detective R. L. EATY, Badge No. 637, were standing around in the corridor in the basement of the City Hall which houses the Dallas Police Department. HUTCHINSON stated that there were a number of police officers, reservists, and uniformed officers standing in the corridors just outside of the jail office, waiting for the transfer of OSWALD to the Dallas County Jail. Tel

HUTCHINSON stated that he had not been assigned, up until approximately 11 a.m., November 24, 1963, to any particular duty in connection with the transfer of OSWALD. HUTCHINSON stated that he was doing his regular work and he and Detectives COMBEST and EATY were standing in the corridor, and at that time they were told by Captain O. A. JONES of the Dallas Police Department to stand in the hallway corridor, just outside the jail door and along the corridor walls, to keep the corridors clear from the jail door up to the ramp leading to the Commerce Street entrance. HUTCHINSON stated that an armored car had been backed down part of the way on the ramp and his instructions were to keep the hallway clear to the armored car.

HUTCHINSON stated that his exact position was directly across the corridor from the jail office door, and as LEE HARVEY OSWALD was brought from the jail office by Homicide Detectives he noticed that Captain J. W. FRITZ, Chief of the Homicide Bureau, came out and asked if everything was O.K. and someone, whose identity HUTCHINSON does not know, replied that the way was clear. HUTCHINSON stated that Captain FRITZ came out, followed by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who was handcuffed to Detective J. R. LEAVELLE who was on OSWALD's right and accompanied by Detective L. C. GRAVES on OSWALD's left.

HUTCHINSON stated that as the group of detectives and OSWALD took the few steps from the jail door down the corridor and were about to turn the corner at the end of the corridor, HUTCHINSON heard a shot, but did not actually see the shooting of OSWALD. He stated that he saw a scuffle and some officers were subduing a man whom they took into the jail office and he, HUTCHINSON, stayed outside of the jail office door assisting the other officers in keeping the crowd back who were trying to see who the man was. HUTCHINSON stated that after this man was inside of the jail office someone, whose identity HUTCHINSON does not know, came back out and said that it was JACK RUBY whom the officers had subdued. HUTCHINSON stated that he stayed around about half an hour after the shooting until the area was cleared and then went about his regular duties.

Some of the other officers whom HUTCHINSON saw on the scene were Chief CHARLES BATCHELOR, Chief M. W. STEVENSON, Captain C. E. TALBERT, Badge 463, Lt. W. E. WIGGINS, Badge 434, Sgt. J. A. PUTNAM, Badge 904, Sgt. P. T. DEAN, Badge 882, Detective R. C. WAGNER, Badge 1480, Detective J. K. RAMSEY, Badge 1627, and Detective L. D. MILLER, Badge 1236.

HUTCHINSON stated that he has been assigned to the Special Service Bureau of the Dallas Police Department since about August, 1963, and part of his duties include checking the various night clubs for police characters and prostitutes. In connection with his business of checking these clubs, HUTCHINSON stated he has seen RUBY on several occasions, strictly in an official capacity. He stated he first saw RUBY about the first week or two that he started working in the Special Service Bureau in August, 1963, but that he doubted that RUBY would know his name although he speaks to RUBY and RUBY speaks to him on occasion, when HUTCHINSON would go in to check the night clubs.

HUTCHINSON stated he first saw RUBY in his club, the Carousel located on Commerce Street in Dallas. He stated that he had never worked for RUBY, nor did he know any officers who did. He stated he has seen RUBY on one or two other occasions in the Vegas Club which has been operated by RUBY's sister. He stated he recalled that on one occasion he was in the Vegas Club and RUBY passed him and apparently did not recognize him since he did not speak.

HUTCHINSON stated that he estimated that there were approximately 50 to 75 newspaper, radio, TV men, and TV cameramen in the basement of the Dallas Police Department on the morning of November 24, 1963, when OSWALD was shot. He stated that he estimated that there were approximately 100 officers in the basement of the building when OSWALD was shot. This included detectives, uniform policemen, plain clothesmen, and reserve officers.

HUTCHINSON stated that he had no knowledge of the security measures which were to be taken on the morning of November 24, 1963, in the basement of the Police Department, prior to his arrival there on November 24, 1963, since he was not assigned to this. He stated that his only connection with the security measures was his assignment given to him at approximately 11 a.m. by Captain JONES. HUTCHINSON stated that as he and Detectives COMBEST and BRATY were standing outside of the doors leading from the corridor into the main part of the building of the Dallas Police Department, he observed that there was a uniformed and a reserve police officer standing inside of the door leading out to the corridor, and these men were checking the identification of anyone coming into the corridor. He stated that if the person did not have a press pass identification, he noticed that they were referred to Captain C. H. TALBERT to prove their identity for admission to the corridor. He stated that the TV cameramen were already set up when he arrived in the corridor. He stated that due to the two officers checking the passes for identification, he did not know of any unauthorized persons that were permitted entrance to the basement. He stated that he did not see anyone enter who did not show his identification.

HUTCHINSON stated that he did not see JACK RUBY, whom he stated he would have recognized, in the crowd between 10 a.m. and the time of the shooting.

HUTCHINSON stated the last time he saw RUBY was sometime in the latter part of September, 1963, when he was working nights and happened to check the Carousel Club. HUTCHINSON said during his tours of duty in the various clubs around Dallas he has never seen OSWALD, until the time he was brought out of the jail door, and that he had never seen OSWALD with JACK RUBY. HUTCHINSON added that prior to the time of the shooting he had never seen JACK RUBY in the Dallas Police Department.

HUTCHINSON stated that he had no information regarding any connection or relationship between JACK RUBY and OSWALD. He stated that he did not see or talk to RUBY at any time between November 22, 1963, and November 24, 1963.

With regard to any knowledge of RUBY's personal life, he stated that he had no actual knowledge of this. He stated that he had heard remarks from other officers, whose names he does not now recall, who stated that RUBY might possibly be a homosexual, but he had no additional knowledge of this. He stated that RUBY is friendly when the officers go into the club to check it, but that he had never become personally acquainted with him. HUTCHINSON added that this is all of the information that he can recall at this time regarding the events which took place in the Dallas Police Department basement on November 24, 1963.

LESLIE H. JACOBS, 2130 Shea Road, was telephonically contacted to arrange for an interview relative to information he may have in his capacity as a reserve police officer relative to the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 24, 1963, at Dallas.

JACOBS volunteered information to the effect that during the morning of November 24, 1963, he was on duty as a reserve police officer with the Dallas Police Department, and had no information concerning the shooting of OSWALD or of the general conditions existing in the basement area of the City Hall prior to the shooting inasmuch as he was stationed outside the building on Commerce Street, working traffic, and was not in the basement that morning and did not witness the shooting of OSWALD.

1 Date 12-4-63

Patrolman LEONARD E. JEZ, Badge No. 1479, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, attached to Central Station, was advised of Agents identity; that he did not have to talk to Agents; that anything he said could possibly be used against him in a court of law; and that he had a right to consult an attorney. He related the following:

He has been an officer on the Dallas Police Department for about six years and approximately on November 18, 1963, had been transferred from the Vice Squad to the Radio Patrol. He was on the day shift November 24, 1963, his hours being from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

On November 24, 1963, he had been assigned to the third floor of the City Hall by Lieutenant PIERCE. He was ordered by Sergeant PUTNAM to check out the doctor's office in the basement to see that no unauthorized persons were there and to see that the doors were locked. Sergeant PUTNAM also brought in a group of police reserves, names unknown, and all proceeded to search the police garage for unauthorized personnel. The officers, including Patrolman JEZ searched all automobiles parked and looked under each automobile. There were approximately 35 automobiles in the garage.

While on duty on the third floor prior to this latter assignment, Patrolman JEZ' assignment was to keep reporters and TV camermen and TV technicians out of the way of police officials and officers who had to use the corridors.

After searching the police garage, Sergeant STEELE assigned him to go across Commerce Street and to search the building roof tops on the south side of the street opposite the Commerce garage exit. On this assignment, JEZ was accompanied by Sergeant STEELE and a Federal Officer, either a Secret Service Agent or an FBI Agent, whose identity he did not know. They actually went up on the stair wells in the building and the plain clothes men and Sergeant STEELE went out on to the roofs to look for unauthorized people, while he, JEZ, stood by.

After this assignment, at about 10:00 a.m., he was posted by Sergeant DEAN at the Commerce Street exit of the basement. His assignment was to check the credentials of anyone entering the garage through the Commerce Street exit. Newspaper reporters identified themselves with yellow press cards which had their photographs thereon. Federal officers identified themselves with credentials. There were only four or five newsmen that he passed, and who properly identified themselves. He did not recall their identities.

At about 11:00 a.m., Chief BATCHELOR and Captain TALBERT told him to help with the two armored trucks. He did not remember which of these officers actually gave him the order. One of the trucks, which he described as the larger of the two, was backed into the Commerce Street exit and the small one was left on the street. Shortly after this, about 11:15 a.m., Captain TALBERT told him to go help direct traffic on Commerce Street and he proceeded to the corner of Commerce and Harwood, and did so until about 12:30 when he was relieved by two traffic officers whose identities he did not remember. He then proceeded back to the Commerce Street exit ramp.

JEZ stated he did not see the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or hear the shot.

JEZ is acquainted with JACK RUBY because of his assignment to the Vice Squad for about three years and had been in contact with him on numerous occasions during his assignment to the Vice Squad. He advised he had not seen RUBY on November 24, 1963, and last saw him sometime in October, 1963, in connection with his, JEZ' assignment on the Vice Squad.

JEZ has never worked for RUBY, himself, and does not know of any police officers who have ever worked for him either full time or part time in any of RUBY's enterprises.

He, JEZ, is a part-time painting contractor, but has never done any work for RUBY.

Patrolman JEZ stated he did not have the slightest idea how many people were in the basement

Patrolman JEZ said he had no direct knowledge of any over-all security plan or policy for the transfer of OSWALD from the City Jail to the County Jail and only did what he was ordered to do by his supervisors.

JEZ had no information as to any association or relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

WILFORD RAY JONES, residence 4311 Willow Springs Lane, Telephone Number HA 8-3374, was interviewed at his place of employment, Florsheim Shoe Shop, 1416 Main Street, Telephone Number RI 2-5322, and furnished the following information:

Two years ago he was a Dallas city employee working as a shoe shine boy in the Dallas Police Department locker room. Tel

On November 24, 1963, a Sunday, approximately 9:30 AM or 10:00 AM, he left his residence, alone, enroute to view the moving of OSWALD from the City to the County Jail. When leaving his residence he advised his wife he was going to West Dallas since she did not want him going to the Police Department.

He drove west on Main Street and parked his car on the north side of Main Street near the Titche-Goettinger Company Store, Main and Elm Streets.

He then walked to the Police Department Building and approached the Main Street ramp entrance, where he obtained a cigarette from a uniform policeman whom he knows by sight but not by name. He asked the officer, "Have they brought OSWALD?" to which the officer replied he did not know.

He vaguely recalls a vehicle, color and occupant(s) not known, enter or leave the Main Street ramp. There were other persons gathered at the Main Street ramp; however, he cannot recall the number or identities. He does not recall seeing the uniform police officer going into the center of Main Street to block traffic. He does not recall seeing anyone walk in or out of the ramp and does not recall any other police officers, either uniform or plain clothesmen, near the ramp entrance.

JONES spent approximately one minute to one minute and a half at the Main Street ramp and then walked, alone, around the City Hall to the far side of Commerce Street, across from the ramp entrance to the police garage on Commerce Street, where he observed one armored car which was backed into the Commerce Street ramp. He remained across Commerce Street for about 20 minutes and spoke with JESSIE SYKES, the present shoe shine boy at the Police Department locker room. He also spoke with another colored male, whose name and occupation is unknown to him. This colored male is known to him as "HAMBONE."

He noticed a commotion in the Police Department basement, saw the armored car drive out of the ramp, and shortly thereafter saw an ambulance drive out the ramp. He did not hear any shot. After learning a shot had been fired or that a prisoner had escaped, he then ran to the parking lot nearby to avoid gunfire which might have taken place.

He does not recall any police car turning off Harwood onto Commerce just before or immediately after the commotion in the basement of the Police Department.

He then went back to the Main Street ramp, where he saw ex-Police Officer M. J. DANIELS and a number, possibly 15 to 20, of other people, none of whom he could identify. He recalled there were one or maybe more uniform reserve police officers in the area at that time.

After a brief period, he left with JESSIE SYKES, whom he gave a ride home.

He had never heard of or seen JACK RUBY prior to RUBY's shooting of OSWALD. He was exhibited two photographs of JACK RUBY, Dallas Police Department # 36398, dated November 24, 1963, and advised RUBY is not known to him other than from recent newspaper, radio, and TV broadcasts.

On November 24, 1963, he was dressed in a dark blue or black suit, white shirt, and tie, no hat, and had a pair of binoculars around his neck.

He advised LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to him prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

He stated he was interviewed, by Detectives of Dallas Police Department, at the Veterans Administration Hospital, Dallas, Sunday, December 2, 1963, where he was hospitalized for a tonsilectomy, and furnished them the same information as set out above.

He also advised he was not at all sure of the times of his activities on the morning of November 24, 1963.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date Dec. 5, 1963

J. Kasten

Mr. JEROME KASTEN, Reserve Officer, Dallas Police Department, 4611 Columbia Street, was interviewed at his place of employment, Bryan Adams High School, 2101 Milmar, and furnished the following information freely and voluntarily to Special Agents KENNETH P. HUGHES and EDWARD J. MABEY who identified themselves to him as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation:

Dallas Tel

He was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to an attorney prior to making any statement.

Mr. KASTEN advised that at 8:30 a.m. on November 24, 1963, he arrived at the Assembly Room in the basement of the Police and Courts Building where he remained until 9:00 a.m. Sergeant PUTNAM, an unidentified sergeant and a police lieutenant told the individuals in the Assembly Room that they were to search the basement. All of the individuals in the Assembly Room at this time were police reserves. They searched the basement area, checking the automobiles, both front and rear seats, glove compartment and trunks, looking for weapons or unauthorized individuals. A lever action rifle was found in one of these automobiles by an unidentified reserve officer who gave this rifle to KASTEN who, in turn, gave it to a police sergeant. The search took approximately 15 to 30 minutes to complete.

After the search, an unidentified police lieutenant came down the Commerce Street ramp and told an unidentified sergeant that they needed help with traffic control. Mr. KASTEN was assigned to Commerce and Pearl Streets to direct traffic, which he did for approximately 30 minutes or until the nonfunctioning traffic light was repaired.

He returned to the basement area where he was told by the chief of the plans to use the armored car to transport the prisoner and was told to relay this information to the other reserves, which KASTEN did.

Sergeant PUTNAM then assigned KASTEN to crowd control duty across the street from the entrance of the Commerce Street ramp. He was also told that he was to relay to the other officers stationed down the street that the armored vehicle was about to leave the Police and Courts Building. KASTEN advised he heard the shot and thereafter an unidentified sergeant came the head of the Commerce Street ramp and told the other reserves on Commerce Street to seal the building. KASTEN, at this point, had his back to the Commerce Street entrance retaining the crowd across the street from the Commerce Street ramp. KASTEN stayed at this location and helped with the crowd control and directing traffic until 12:15 when he was released from duty and went home.

KASTEN stated he did not see the shooting nor did he know JACK RUBY. He did state, however, that approximately four weeks previous on a Saturday evening he was riding in a police car with an unidentified Dallas police officer when they answered a disturbance at a night spot. The officer riding with KASTEN was believed to have said, "Hi Jack" to an unidentified individual. KASTEN did not know whether this was JACK RUBY.

KASTEN stated he did not work for JACK RUBY nor did he know of any police officers who did. He estimated that there were two individuals in the basement other than police officers when he arrived there. He did not know any of these individuals. KASTEN advised he had no knowledge of any security measures that were in effect in the basement on November 24, 1963. He stated he did not see any individuals stopped or any individuals asked to produce identification. He did observe one or two porters or maintenance men in the basement prior to the search, but these people were removed. He stated he did not observe RUBY talking to anyone in the basement nor had he seen RUBY at any time between November 22 and 24, 1963. He stated he had no knowledge of information of any relationship that may have existed between OSWALD and RUBY.

H. HARRIS
HARRY HARRISS

HARRY M. KRISS, 6906 Merrilee Lane, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at the office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Dallas. He was advised that he was not required to make a statement; that any statement he would make might be used against him in a court of law; and that he had the right to legal counsel before making a statement.

Mr. KRISS advised that he is a reserve officer of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department, having the rank of Lieutenant. He is employed by the Sweet Manufacturing Company, 1100 Commerce Street, Dallas.

KRISS stated that on November 24, 1963, at 9:45 AM, he received a call from Lieutenant McCOY of the Dallas Police Department requesting him to report to duty immediately to assist in working traffic in the general area of the driveway leading to the parking area of the basement of the City Hall. He put on his uniform and reported to the basement of the City Hall at about 10:00 AM. When he arrived there, he noticed that the basement area at the intersection of the ramps and corridor leading from the jail office to the ramps was full of people, mostly newspaper men. The remaining individuals appeared to be all police officers, either regular or reservists. About an hour later, he recalls that there must have been nearly a hundred individuals in the area, mostly newsmen. He could not identify any newsmen and recalls that other than himself, he recognized police officers present as Captains ARNETT, JONES, and KING; and Sergeants DEAN, PUTHAM, and TROY. He does not recall their initials or first names.

He recalls that police officers made a search and check of the entire jail area, including all persons present and all vehicles parked at the parking area. He added that he recalls that they even checked to determine that the trunks of the automobiles were locked. He stated that he is not acquainted with the particular instructions given officers concerning security measures, but he felt that the police were doing their utmost to determine that all individuals present were either police officers or members of the press, and to make sure that no unauthorized individuals entered. He stated that he does not know of any unauthorized persons that may have been permitted to enter the area.

When he arrived in the basement, he stationed himself on the southwest corner of the Commerce ramp, where the corridor connects with this ramp. The corridor led from the jail office door and from double doors which led into the City Hall and to elevators further on. The members of the press were lined up along the wall opposite KRISS, and police officers were scattered about at various locations. KRISS stated that when OSWALD was brought downstairs and through the jail office door out into the corridor, he, KRISS, was unable at first to observe OSWALD and the police officers escorting him, due to the fact the corner of the ramp obstructed his view. He stated that when OSWALD arrived to within two or three steps of the spot where he was shot, he began to be able to observe him and his escort. When OSWALD was shot, he was looking in the general direction of OSWALD, and, due to the bright lights of the cameras KRISS was partially blinded and does not recall seeing RUBY beginning his move to approach OSWALD, but merely saw RUBY's action as a blur and got the impression that he must have been a reporter attempting to get closer for a shot with his camera. He added that he does not recall seeing RUBY in the area prior to the time he shot OSWALD and does not know anyone with whom OSWALD may have spoken beforehand.

KRISS stated that he is not acquainted with RUBY and never knew OSWALD. He added that he has never been employed by RUBY and knows of no other individuals who have been employed by him. He added that he does not know of any possible relationship which may have existed between RUBY and OSWALD.

1 Jack Revel / Jack Karell / J. C. Trebla

Detective JAMES R. LEAVELLE, Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas, Texas Police Department, furnished the following information in addition to that he furnished on November 24, 1963:

On November 24, 1963, at about 11:15 a.m., Captain WILL FRITZ ordered the start of the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD to the Dallas County Sheriff's Office. OSWALD was handcuffed and then handcuffed to his left wrist. Detective L. C. GRAVES had hold of OSWALD's left arm and they proceeded from the third floor of the Dallas Police Building to the basement via the jail elevator. After leaving the elevator they proceeded across the jail office and went through the east door of the jail office. As they left the jail office door the crowd of reporters had pushed forward to about six or seven feet from them. He saw a man who he recognized as someone he knew (and later learned the man was JACK RUBY), out of the corner of his eye and RUBY jumped from the crowd and at the same time bring a gun up. RUBY appeared to take two steps towards OSWALD and when he saw this, he jerked OSWALD back which caused him to spin slightly and RUBY shot OSWALD in the left side of his stomach. At the same time that RUBY fired the shot he grabbed RUBY's left shoulder and pushed him back and down and put himself between RUBY and OSWALD. Other officers subdued RUBY and he helped carry OSWALD back into the jail office.

He first met RUBY about 1951 when RUBY owned the Silver Spur. At that time he worked the area of the Silver Spur and would make routine checks of this place. He was always treated by RUBY with all respect due an officer. He never associated with RUBY on a social level and does not know any of RUBY's close friends. He did not know anything regarding RUBY's background other than being the owner of a Dallas night club or has he ever heard RUBY discuss his political beliefs. He knew RUBY carried a gun in the Silver Spur but this was legal. RUBY never carried a gun on the street to the best of his knowledge.

About six months ago he received an anonymous call that the Vegas Club which was owned by RUBY, was going to be hi-jacked. He and his partner went down to the Vegas Club and stayed about 1½ hours. RUBY came in and asked what was going on but did not seem overly concerned. This hi-jacking never materialized. He has seen RUBY on the street occasionally but it was only a casual meeting and nothing of importance was ever discussed. RUBY has always been very friendly and casual every time they have met. RUBY has invited him to his place for free dinners but he has never accepted. He has never worked for RUBY or does he know of any other police officer who has.

He estimated that at the time he arrived in the basement with OSWALD there were about 150 people in the basement, this including officers and newsmen. He did not recognize anyone in the basement other than police officers with the exception of the before-mentioned facts about RUBY.

He understood that the uniform division had cleared the basement of all unauthorized personnel before they started transferring OSWALD. He did ask Captain FRITZ if the car to be used in transferring OSWALD would be directly in front of the small hallway leading from the jail office. Captain FRITZ said it would be. He did not know or see any police officer identify any individual in the basement as he was not present when these individuals were admitted to the basement.

He never saw RUBY between November 22 and 24, 1963, in fact he believes that the last time he saw RUBY was in October and this was while he was driving by RUBY's Carousel Club, and RUBY was just going in. He does not know of any association between OSWALD and RUBY. He was never present while OSWALD was being interviewed nor was he present while RUBY was being interviewed by the Dallas Police officers. He was instructed on November 25, 1963, to assist in the transfer of RUBY to the Dallas County Jail. On their way down in the jail elevator he said to RUBY, "JACK, in all the years I've known you, you've never deliberately caused any police officer any trouble that I know of and you didn't do us any favor when you shot OSWALD. You've really put the pressure on us." RUBY replied, "That's the last thing in the world I wanted to do. I just wanted to be a damned hero and all I've done is foul things up."

Patrolman CARROLL C. LEWIS, Badge No. 1026, Dallas Police Department, home address, Red Bird Lane, Route 8, Box 331-A, Dallas, telephone AX. 8-2177, was informed of Agents' identities, by the exhibition of credential cards; that he did not have to talk to Agents; that anything he said could possibly be used against him in a court of law, and that he had a right to consult an attorney. He related the following:

He is assigned to the Service Division, of the Dallas Police Department, his usual duty being to drive the patrol wagon. His usual hours on November 24, 1963, were from 8:00 AM to 2:00 PM. At about 8:30 AM, November 24, 1963, Sergeant M. O. ROGERS assigned him to run the city jail elevator. A trusty usually operates this elevator. LEWIS operated the elevator until about 10:00 AM when he was relieved by Patrolman DELVIS TAYLOR in order that he, LEWIS, could make his run to the dog pound. He drove the patrol wagon from its parking area in the basement of City Hall to the dog pound and returned in about twenty minutes and resumed operation of the elevator. When he left, he noticed there were some officers in the basement but did not know what they were doing there, other than he assumed they were performing their assignments, since everybody knew that OSWALD was to be transferred from the City Jail to the County Jail. When he returned from his run to the dog pound, he was stopped at the bottom of the ramp by Sergeant PUTNAM, who went around to the back of the patrol wagon, opened the back doors and looked inside, and then closed the rear doors and locked them from the outside. He then parked the patrol wagon in a stall in the basement and relieved TAYLOR. When he returned, there were a great number of television people, news people and cameramen in the hallway outside the jail office. He also saw several plain-clothes men walking around with shotguns.

Before he made the run to the dog pound, he recalled having taken one prisoner from the jail office to the fifth floor. He also, at about 10:00 AM, took OSWALD from the fifth floor to the third floor, at which time OSWALD was accompanied by some five or six detectives. There was no further activity until he brought OSWALD down.

some two or three minutes before he was shot. Captain FRITZ and four or five plain-clothes men accompanied OSWALD down from the third floor to the basement and they left the elevator and walked around the railing enclosing the jail office. He saw the party go out through the jail office door. He had stepped out of the elevator after the group emerged from the elevator. Almost immediately after the party passed through the door to the jail office leading to the hallway, he heard a shot. He did not see the shooting. He observed a group of officers bring RUBY into the jail office and spread eagle him on the floor. After RUBY was subdued, a group of police officers put RUBY in the elevator and he took them up to the fifth floor jail. He recalled that Captain GLENN KING was one of the officers. Patrolman LEWIS has known JACK RUBY for about nine years, having first become acquainted with him when he, LEWIS, was a patrolman in the area where RUBY's Vegas Club was located. He was assigned to the city jail about eight and one-half years previously and had not seen RUBY since he has been on this latter assignment.

LEWIS has never worked for RUBY in any capacity, part time or full time, nor has he ever done any odd jobs for him and knows of no police officers who have ever worked for RUBY in any capacity whatsoever.

Patrolman LEWIS had no idea as to the number of officers or civilians in the basement, but stated there were a great number of both.

He had no knowledge of any security measures placed in effect by the Police Department for the transfer of OSWALD, except that he had been assigned to run the elevator, rather than the usual practice of allowing a trusty to run it, and that Sergeant PUTNAM had checked his patrol wagon before he was permitted to park it. He had no knowledge of the procedure for people to identify themselves and knew of no unauthorized people being present, either police, news or television people. He did not see or talk to RUBY at any time between November 22 & 24, 1963. He had no information of any association or relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

1 RV Lowery Date 12/3/63

Detective R. V. [illegible], Identity No. 1081, Juvenile Bureau, Criminal Investigation Division, Dallas Police Department, residence 383 West Church, Dallas, was informed of interviewing Agents' identities; that he did not have to talk to Agents; that anything he said could be used against him in a court of law, and that he had a right to consult an attorney. LOWERY related the following: T-1

On November 24, 1963, Chief STEVENSON, Head of the Criminal Intelligence Division, came in the Juvenile Bureau at about 8:30 AM and told everyone present to standby from 9:00 AM. At about 11:10 AM, Captain FRANK MARTIN, Head of the Juvenile Bureau, ordered all officers in the Juvenile Bureau to the basement. They all went down to the basement. The contingent from the Juvenile Bureau consisted of Captain MARTIN; Lieutenant GEORGE BUTLER; Detective W. J. CUTCHSHAW; Detective L. D. MILLER; Detective CHARLES GOOLSBY; Patrolman W. J. HARRISON, and himself, LOWERY. As they passed down the corridor near the entrance to the jail office in the basement, they were checked through by Patrolman NELSON. After standing there for a few moments, Captain JONES called everyone to attention and stated he wanted the press to stand back in an area near the base of the exit ramp near the jail door. This area was a parking space enclosed within a low railing and could be described as an extension of the corridor leading by the jail office door. Captain JONES then told the officers that he wanted them to line both sides of the hallway and ramp and to hold the press back. He, LOWERY, stationed himself at the intersection of the hall to the jail office and the Commerce Street exit ramp, or the southwest corner. He observed a large armored truck which had been backed part way down the Commerce Street exit ramp and saw Lieutenant GEORGE BUTLER through the open doors of the truck cleaning it out. There were six or eight officers, both uniform and plainclothesmen standing around the truck.

He remembered that Detective COMBEST was standing immediately to his, LOWERY's, left, and Detective B. L. BEATY was next to COMBEST. Patrolman W. J. HARRISON was standing diagonally across the corridor from LOWERY in the other line of police officers on the opposite side. This would have been at the northeast corner of where the ramp and corridor to the jail office intersect.

He estimated that there were between sixty and seventy-five Dallas Police Officers in the basement of City Hall and that there were approximately forty to fifty newspaper people, television people and radio people present.

Captain JONES had stated that only police officers and authorized people from the press were to be allowed in the basement. Every one of the police officers who were not personally known were to identify themselves and the people from the newspapers, radio and television were to identify themselves with their press cards. Some of these individuals wore their press cards attached to their lapels and others did so by holding them out in their hands. He, LOWERY, had no personal knowledge of any unauthorized persons being allowed in the basement.

Some three to five minutes before the shooting of OSWALD, he observed a television camera crew pushing a large television camera, mounted on a tripod and dolly, from TV Station WFAB, Channel 5, Fort Worth, come down the corridor past the door to the jail office and, when they saw the steep ramp and the armored car parked at the exit, one of the crew said they couldn't get up that way. They then pushed the camera through a crowd of newsmen on the east side of the ramp area and he did not see exactly where they went to in the basement, but presumed it was somewhere in the garage parking area. He did not see these individuals identify themselves in any way, and one of the men was pushing on the leg of the tripod on the left side and had his head very low and in such a position that he could not see his face; the man on the right side was also pushing with his head down, and a third individual was somewhere behind the camera with his head down between his arms. He did not pay too much attention to this camera crew, but is under the impression there were three individuals pushing the camera.

Also shortly before the shooting, a marked police car left the basement and went up the wrong direction on the Main Street ramp. This police car had its red light flashing and there were two or three officers in the car. He did not remember or could not say positively who these officers were. He could not remember the sequence of events at this point, in that he could not recall whether he saw the television camera before the police car left or vice versa. In any event, shortly afterwards someone shouted, "Here he comes," and LOWERY looked towards the jail office door and saw Lieutenant SWAIN emerge. An instant later, Captain FRITZ came out and he was followed by Detective J. R. LEAVELLE with OSWALD. LEAVELLE was handcuffed by his left arm to OSWALD's right arm. These handcuffs were designed with three cuffs, two of the cuffs were on OSWALD's wrist and one was on LEAVELLE's wrist. Another plain-clothes officer was holding OSWALD by the left arm. He did not remember who this officer was. As OSWALD came through the jail office door, the whole line of newsmen and television people seemed to come forward a step. There were numerous flash bulbs popping and newsmen yelling at OSWALD. Just as OSWALD and LEAVELLE were passing by LOWERY, about a foot or so away, a man lunged forward with a gun in his right hand, stuck the gun in OSWALD's chest, and fired from a distance of about twelve inches. He saw the flash of fire from the pistol. The man only took one step and thrust the gun forward at the same time and fired the shot, practically in one motion. He went down before he could fire another with several others on top of him. He did not know who this individual was until his hat fell off in the melee and then saw it was JACK RUBY, whom he has known for several years. RUBY was disarmed and carried inside the jail office. RUBY came from the group of newsmen diagonally across from LOWERY, from the northeast. As the man lunged toward OSWALD, he yelled something with the expletive, "Son-of-a-Bitch' in it. It could have been, "You dirty Son-of-a-Bitch."

After the shooting, there was considerable confusion and he immediately thought of the television crew who had gone through a few moments before and he went over in the area where he had last seen them. Detective CUTCHSHAW apparently had the same thought, because CUTCHSHAW also went over where they had been and they talked to the television crew, and both of them stated there were only two men pushing the camera. He said he, LOWERY, could not be positive there were three, but thought there were three and CUTCHSHAW also thought there were three men. One of the two television crew said that they didn't know anything about a third man. Lieutenant SWAIN was nearby and LOWERY told him about the television crew and SWAIN instructed him to hold them and get more details. The two men with the camera, which LOWERY described as a long-range camera, then wanted to go to the third floor and LOWERY went with them and stayed with them for about an hour and a half. He reported this to Lieutenant BAKER and was instructed to get the names, addresses and phone numbers of these two television crewmen, which he did, and gave this to Lieutenant BAKER subsequently. He recalled that one of these television people was JOHN ALEXANDER, who was wearing a blue-looking topcoat, and the other was a thin boy, who was wearing a light shirt. He thought it strange that the television crew said there were only two when both he and CUTCHSHAW were under the impression that three men were pushing the camera, and he thought it possible that either RUBY or some other person could have gotten into the area with this truck. He said he did not pay enough attention to the three to definitely state that one of them was RUBY.

Detective LOWERY further stated that prior to the shooting there were three plain, unmarked police cars lined up just off the ramp leading to Commerce Street behind the armored truck. One car had made the turn from the garage up the south ramp and the nose of the second car was just on the ramp and the third car was just behind the second car. All of these cars had drivers. He remembers that all three of the drivers were detectives from the Homicide Bureau and stated that, if his memory served him right, the driver of the first was Detective BECK and the second driver was Detective DHORITY. He did not remember the driver of the third car.

Detective LOWERY has known JACK RUBY for seven or eight years, having met him in connection with his police work. LOWERY has been assigned to the Juvenile Bureau for two years and last saw RUBY about one year previously prior to the shooting of OSWALD.

LOWERY has never been employed by RUBY in any capacity, either full time or part time, and did not know if any Dallas Police Officers had ever been employed by him in any capacity. He stated he did not believe any had because of a police regulation to the effect that no Dallas Police Officer could be employed in any establishment that sold alcoholic beverages.

He did not see RUBY talking to anyone and did not see or talk to RUBY at any time between November 22 and 24, 1963. He said he had absolutely no information as to any association or relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

Deputy Chief of Police, Traffic Division, E. R. LUNDAY was immediately advised of the official identities of Special Agents KENNETH P. HUGHES and EDWARD J. MABEY. He was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to consult an attorney prior to being interviewed. He then furnished the following information: TCI

On November 24, 1963, he was not in the basement of the Police and Courts Building at all. He reported to duty at approximately 9:00 a.m. at the Sheriff's Office at the corner of Houston and Elm Streets. He remained at this position during the morning of November 24, 1963, up to and including the time that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. After hearing that OSWALD had been shot, he assigned five of the reserve officers who were with him on traffic and crowd control to traffic duty near the Police and Courts Building. He did not see the shooting.

He stated he knew RUBY during the years 1955 and 1956 when he, LUNDAY, was assigned to the Special Services Bureau. RUBY, at that time, came into his office, possibly about a liquor violation or a dance hall license. He stated he could not recall which. He stated he may have seen RUBY two or three times since then. He stated he did not work for RUBY nor did he know of any other police officers who did work for him. He stated he had no knowledge of the security measures in effect in the basement on November 24, 1963, as he reported to the corner of Houston and Elm Streets, the spot where his division was expected to encounter the most difficulty. He stated he did not see or talk to RUBY at any time between November 22 and 24, 1963, to the best of his knowledge. He has no information regarding any relationship between OSWALD and RUBY.

FRANK MARTIN

Captain FRANK M. MARTIN, Dallas Police Department, Juvenile Division, was interviewed at his home at 609 Five Mile Parkway. Captain MILLER advised he was regularly assigned to the Juvenile Bureau and works from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.; that on November 24, 1963, he received no specific assignment regarding the security aspects of transporting LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the City Jail to the County Jail. He received no instructions and assumed his duties were to control the crowd of people and newsmen in the basement of the police station. He had received no information regarding the threats on OSWALD's life.

He and the five detectives who were under his supervision went to the basement of the police station at approximately 11:00 a.m. Inasmuch as they had no specific assignments, they positioned themselves to control the crowd. He gave his men no specific assignments. He is unable to recall exactly when he received his instructions to be at the police station for the transfer of OSWALD.

Captain MARTIN advised he was not informed of any change of plans to transport OSWALD by automobile rather than by the armored truck.

According to Captain MARTIN, he knows JACK RUBY by sight, however, he did not see him in the Compound prior to the shooting. He advised that had he seen RUBY he probably would not have put him out as he had received no instructions in this regard. He knew of no unauthorized persons permitted to be in the basement and had no knowledge of whether persons were to identify themselves before entering; however, he left the Compound on one occasion and was stopped at one of the ramp entrances by an auxillary officer regarding his identity. He advised that auxillary officers were stationed at each ramp and that to his knowledge this was the only entrance to the Compound which RUBY could have used. He stated the auxillary police are commanded by Captain SOLOMON.

According to Captain MARTIN, there were numerous persons in the basement, he stated, "it was a T.V. show;" however, he did not know the identity of any persons other than the police officers present.

He advised that the following men were under his supervision at the Compound:

Detective W. T. CUTCHAW
Detective W. J. HARRISON
Detective ROY LOWERY
Detective CHARLIE GOOLSBY
Detective (FNU) MILLER

Captain MARTIN advised he did not observe the actual shooting of OSWALD; however, he was only a few feet from the scene. He advised that he has no information regarding any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

- BILLY JOE MAXEY, Sergeant, Police Department, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his residence at 8912 Freeport Drive, Dallas, home telephone DA 7-8743. He was advised at the outset that he did not have to furnish a statement, that any statement he did furnish could possibly be used against him in court, and of his right to an attorney. He furnished the following information:

He is presently assigned to the Patrol Division of the Dallas Police Department and works out of the Northeast Substation at 8916 Adlora Lane. He was on duty from 7:00 AM to 4:00 PM on November 24, 1963. He was aware that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was to be transported from the Dallas City Jail to the County Jail on the morning of that day. It is his daily routine to visit the Central Police Headquarters at least once during the day, and on the morning of November 24, 1963, he left the Northeast Substation for the ostensibl purpose of delivering some overtime cards to the Central Headquarters. He had not received an assignment to do this.

He arrived at the Central Police Headquarters in Dallas at about 11:00 AM driving an unmarked patrol car. He drove into the basement parking lot from the Main Street entrance and at that time observed members of the Patrol Division being briefed on their traffic assignments as regards the transfer of the prisoner OSWALD. He was wearing his uniform at the time.

He parked at the north end of the basement and walked over to a group of officers that he recognized, which included Sgt. J. A. PUTNAM, Officer P. T. DEAN and Captain TALBERT. When the briefing was concluded, he told Sgt. PUTNAM that he would help in any way he could and was told that everything was in good shape but that he could wait for a while with PUTNAM and DEAN. He had no definite advance knowledge as to where they were taking the prisoner but assumed it was to the County Jail. He waited for a few moments and saw a number of police officers near the jail entrance to the parking lot and also approximately thirty-five to forty individuals who he assumed were newspaper reporters or radio and TV men. At that time he was standing in the northeast section of the garage.

A few moments after that, Lieut. PIERCE entered the garage, driving a black detective car, and PUTNAM waved to him and said,

"Come with us". He walked up to PIERCE and asked if he could assist and was told he should go with them as they were going to escort the armored car. With that he got in the back seat of the car driven by PIERCE and seated himself on the left-hand side of the vehicle. The vehicle then started to leave the garage by the north entrance leading into Main Street, but the area was full of reporters and it became necessary for PUTNAM to get out of the car. PUTNAM, with the assistance of some Dallas reserve police officers, whose identity he did not know, moved the people out of the way and the vehicle was then driven up the ramp to Main Street. During this time he saw no other vehicles in, or leave, the basement garage.

After entering Main Street, the vehicle made a left-hand turn, went down Main to Harwood, went down Harwood to Commerce, and after turning left on Commerce, took a position in front of the armored car which was parked in the ramp at that location, leading from the basement. A few moments after the car had been positioned, he and the other officers observed police officers apparently making an effort to seal the exits of the police headquarters and City Hall building. He in particular noticed that there were reserve officers keeping people from leaving the new City Hall building. They then heard a broadcast over the police radio in their car requesting an ambulance be brought to the City Hall basement. They then moved their car out of the ramp, and the armored car cleared out of the Commerce Street ramp, and a few moments later an ambulance arrived and entered the basement. He and the other officers in the car immediately proceeded to Parkland Hospital and set up security arrangements there where they stayed until it was learned that OSWALD had died.

At no time did he see JACK RUBY during his visit to the Central Police Headquarters on November 24, 1963. He recalled reading in the newspaper and hearing accounts of the incident indicating that RUBY had slipped into the basement from the Main Street ramp. If this were true it must have happened after he and the other officers had driven out of the basement because they saw no one entering the basement from the Main Street ramp while they were driving up it, and it would have been physically impossible for anybody to walk by the car because of the narrowness of the ramp. He recalled as they were leaving the Main Street ramp, Officer R. E. VAUGHN was standing guard at the exit to his right. He also recalled VAUGHN had made sure of his identity visually as he drove down the Main Street ramp when he first arrived at the Central Police Headquarters.

He also recalled when they left, that, in addition to VAUGHN, an ex-police officer by the name of (FNU) DANIELS, a Negro, was standing to his left at the exit of the ramp. He also believed that the head "shine boy", also a Negro, from the Central Police Headquarters, was standing in the vicinity of DANIELS (FNU).

He did not personally require anybody to identify themselves while in the basement, nor did he engage in conversation with anyone other than the aforementioned police officers. He had no personal knowledge of what security precautions had been taken although he certainly felt they were adequate from what he saw in the basement of the garage.

As concerns JACK RUBY, he first met him about two years ago. On that occasion he was with his wife and had visited the Carousel in downtown Dallas for strictly social purposes. He, of course, was dressed in civilian clothes and, as he was leaving the night club, RUBY asked him if he liked the show. He told him that he enjoyed it and RUBY then asked him what business he was in, and he told him he was with the Police Department. He also took his wife to the Vegas Club on one occasion, but RUBY was not present at that time. He personally does not like to be recognized as a police officer when he is nightclubbing and never made it a point to seek RUBY out on the two or three occasions he visited his night clubs. He never had any occasion to visit them while he was on duty or in uniform and doubted very much that RUBY would know who he is at this time.

He never worked for RUBY, nor does he know of anyone presently with the Police Department or in any way connected with the Police Department who has worked for him. The last time he saw RUBY was approximately one month ago at one of his night clubs, and he has not seen him since that time. He did not see RUBY at any time on November 24, 1963. He has heard very little concerning RUBY prior to this time, knows nothing of his background, nor has he heard that he ever carried a gun. After the shooting of OSWALD, he talked to one of the officers in the Special Services Division, whose name he did not know, who told him that RUBY had caused them no trouble. He knows nothing concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had heard no mention of him prior to November 22, 1963. He knows of no relationship between ~~HARVEY~~ RUBY and OSWALD, nor has he heard mention of any such relationship.

BILLY JOE MAXEY, Sergeant, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed in front of his residence 8912 Freeport Drive, and was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised that he had the right to consult an attorney prior to making any statement. He furnished the following information:

MAXEY advised during the previous interview that he gave the information about the ex-police officer DANIELS and the "shine boy" as if he had personally observed these individuals. He wished to clarify this as information he obtained through conversation with Sergeant J. A. PUTNAM and Lieutenant PIERCE. He did not personally observe these individuals at the Main Street ramp the morning of November 24, 1963.

On November 24, 1963, he arrived alone in the Central Police Headquarters building at about 11:00 a.m. and entered through the Main Street ramp entrance in a police department vehicle.

While in the basement garage, he looked over the crowd of reporters and police "real good" and stated positively JACK RUBY was not in the group at the base of the Main Street ramp during the time MAXEY was in the basement. He does not recall seeing anyone in that area wearing a hat.

Just prior to the shooting of OSWALD, MAXEY, Lieutenant PIERCE and Sergeant PUTNAM left via the Main Street ramp in a Dallas police vehicle.

Upon exit from the ramp, he recalled Officer VAUGHN was on the right of the ramp entrance. MAXEY was in the left rear seat of the car and does not recall if VAUGHN stepped into Main Street to block traffic when the car left the building.

He stated he has heard, possibly from Sergeant PUTNAM, that VAUGHN did step into Main Street to block traffic for their exit.

MAXEY recalls a bus stopped across Main Street from the ramp and believes this attracted his attention upon leaving the ramp.

MAXEY does not recall anyone in the car speaking to VAUGHN as they left the ramp.

MAXEY does not recall if there was a police officer handling traffic at the Harwood and Main Street intersection at the time the car he was in made a left turn off of Main Street onto Harwood.

He does not recall the vehicle stopping at any time while exiting from the Main Street ramp onto Main Street. He did not see JACK RUBY at any time during the exiting from the Main Street ramp.

JAMES C. MC CAIN, Sergeant, Dallas Police Reserve, residence 2332 Rosemarie, Mesquite, Texas, advised that on November 24, 1963, Lieut. BARNIE MERRELL called and told him to be at the Central Police Station between 9:00 and 9:30 AM. He advised that he checked in there at approximately 9:15 AM. He stated that a regular police sergeant, whose name he could not recall, instructed him and the other reserves to search all cars in the complete basement area. He stated there were approximately twenty-five or twenty-six reserves, as well as a few regular police officers. He stated they searched the area and the cars and found nothing. He did not see the shooting as he had been assigned to stand on the east side of the armored car at the head of the ramp on the south, or Commerce Street, side.

He stated the armored truck was backed up so close to the wall on the west side of the truck that it was impossible for anyone to go between the truck and the wall. He stated he was given this assignment at approximately 10:15 AM right after they had finished searching the basement area. He advised he did not know RUBY and knew nothing about him other than what he had read in the newspapers after the shooting. He had never worked for RUBY and did not know any reserve or regular police who had to do so.

He stated at the time of the search there were probably five or six newsmen who were already in the basement, but they were already in position when he saw them and did not see who admitted them. He stated that while he was standing beside the armored car or truck there were five or six newsmen who came in, and he referred them to the regular police, who also were stationed by the armored truck. He stated that in each instance the policemen, whose names he does not know, asked for identification, and the people admitted, all had proper identification. He advised that inasmuch as he did not know RUBY, he had not noticed him in the crowd and does not know when or how RUBY obtained entrance to the basement.

Lieut. BEN C. COY, Executive Assistant, Reserve Police, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

On Saturday night, November 23, 1963, MC COY received a telephone call from Captain C. O. ARNETT, Reserve Police, asking him to contact several Reserve Police officers and instruct them to report to the Central Police Station at 9:00 AM on Sunday, November 24, 1963. MC COY contacted seven men on Saturday night. On Sunday morning, at approximately 7:30 AM, he received a call from Captain R. CRUMP, who informed him that fifteen men were needed, that he contacted these additional men and then reported to the Central Police Station at 9:25 AM on November 24, 1963. He reported to a Lieut. MERRELL in the Assembly Room. At that time he was told to take a group of Reserve officers to the basement to search the basement under the supervision of Sgt. DEANE, a regular police officer.

MC COY went down into the basement about 9:30 AM and assisted in conducting a search throughout the basement. After the search was completed, he reported to Captain C. O. ARNETT, who instructed the Reserve officers not to allow any persons in the parking area in the basement. While MC COY was in the basement, newsmen and TV men started coming into the basement. Just prior to the time prisoner LEE HARVEY OSWALD was brought down from the City Jail, MC COY was standing at the corner at the west wall in front of the south ramp. As the commotion started, indicating the prisoner was being brought out of the City Jail office, MC COY looked toward the prisoner and the escorting detectives. He did not see the man who moved toward OSWALD; however, he heard a shot and then saw the man with a gun pushed into OSWALD's stomach.

MC COY is not acquainted with JACK RUBY and does not recall having seen him before the shooting on November 24, 1963.

MC COY estimated there were approximately 150 people in the basement area just prior to the shooting. He has no knowledge of any persons being admitted into the basement without proper identification and observed the officers standing at the entrance to the south ramp and the entrance of the north ramp stop persons and request them to show their identification.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date Dec. 5, 1963

Homer L. McGee

Detective HOMER LEE McGEE, a member of the Dallas Police Department, Badge No. 878, who resides at 350 Sidney, Mesquite, Texas, telephone number BR 9-5276, was interviewed, at which time he was advised that he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. No threats or promises were made to him to induce him to make a statement and he was advised of his right to consult an attorney prior to interview.

Detective McGEE advised he is a detective assigned to the Burglary and Theft Section of the Dallas Police Department and was working his regular duty schedule of 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on the day of November 24, 1963. At approximately 11:15 a.m., exact time he could not recall, on November 24, 1963, he and several other detectives in the immediate area were directed by Lieutenant SWAIN to stand by in the area. He advised that no specific instructions were given out at this time, but that he was under the impression they were standing by to give any assistance to the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the City Jail to the County Jail.

Just prior to the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Lieutenant SWAIN instructed Detective McGEE to go to the basement level of City Hall near the Information Desk to assist in the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in any manner that he was needed. He stated he rode the main public elevator from the 3rd floor with two WBAP-TV cameramen, together with two other detectives whom he identified as Detectives D. G. BRANTLEY and D. L. BURGESS. Upon arrival at the basement area, Detective McGEE saw a large group of cameramen and newsmen congregated in the area of the jail office and estimated that there were approximately 20 individuals. At the time of his observation, he was positive that JACK RUBY was not with any of the cameramen or newsmen in the area and did not observe RUBY at any time prior to the shooting of OSWALD.

Detective McGEE stated he stationed himself in the general area in front of the jail office windows to await the transfer. As he waited in the area, Detective McGEE stated the only other person he noticed that had come into the building from either the Commerce Street or Harwood Street doors was an individual whom he identified as being TOM HOWARD, a local attorney. He stated HOWARD came through the Harwood Street entrance, proceeded to the jail office windows which are located near the exit to the basement parking lot, and appeared as if he was looking for someone. At approximately the same time that HOWARD arrived at the jail office windows, OSWALD was being escorted from the jail elevator into the jail office where he was to be escorted out of the exit doors to the parking area.

Detective McGEE stated he observed HOWARD [redacted] away from the window and started back toward the Harwood Street door. While walking past him, HOWARD waved and stated as best as he could recall, "That's all I wanted to see." Shortly thereafter, Detective McGEE heard a shot that appeared to come from the ramp area of the basement level and then heard someone say, "Oh." He later learned that OSWALD had been shot by JACK RUBY, but as far as having any personal knowledge or seeing the shooting, he did not.

After the shooting had taken place, Detective McGEE proceeded to the vehicle ramp area and gave his assistance to Lieutenant SWAIN in holding back the crowd that was congregated in the area.

Detective McGEE advised that he stayed in the area for a short period of time and then was directed to accompany Lieutenant McKINNEY who is with the Forgery Section, to the Parkland Hospital where he would assist in enforcing the security of the hospital. To the best of his recollection, two other detectives accompanied him and Lieutenant McKINNEY and he identified them as B. L. BEATY and Detective CHAMBERS.

In regard to any unauthorized persons that were permitted to enter the basement during the transfer of OSWALD, Detective McGEE advised that TOM HOWARD, the attorney, was the only individual he had seen other than the newsmen and the policemen assisting. He went on to say that TOM HOWARD is a familiar individual in the area inasmuch as his office is located across the street from the City Hall. He explained that there was nothing unusual concerning the appearance of HOWARD and was under the impression that he only wanted to take a look at OSWALD.

Detective McGEE stated he did not consider himself either a personal friend of RUBY or a business associate and that the only time he had seen him was at his place of business. He described RUBY as being a "back slapper", outwardly friendly and always trying to give the impression that he was the "big man" around town. He added that he had never heard of RUBY being associated with any big hoodlums from any area and was of the opinion that he was just a small night club owner.

Detective McGEE advised he has never discussed any political matters with RUBY and was not aware of RUBY's thinking in regard to any political situations or organizations. He never gained the impression nor had he heard anything concerning RUBY's interests in any political organizations.

Detective McGEE further stated he had not talked to RUBY at any time during the past few months and did not have the opportunity to talk with him since the shooting of OSWALD. He mentioned that he has never worked for RUBY, has never been approached concerning any type of work for RUBY and knows of no one in the police department that may have worked with or for RUBY.

In regard to the security measures, Detective McGEE stated he was not personally aware of any security measures that were put into effect for the transfer of OSWALD, but was under the impression that no other individuals other than those connected officially, would be allowed to be in the basement area.

Detective McGEE further advised he had never been acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and for this reason would not have any idea if there was any type of connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

He related that his personal opinion concerning the relationship between RUBY and OSWALD was purely speculation and that he was quite sure there had never been any information indicating that they had conspired in any manner.

Detective McGEE stated he had furnished a signed statement concerning this matter to the Dallas Police Department and that the information he had just furnished interviewing agents was substantially the same information that was set forth in the signed statement.

DUANE L. MC GRATH, Patrolman, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed at the Dallas Police Academy, 2828 Shore Crest Drive, Dallas, Texas. He was advised that he did not have to furnish a statement, that any statement he did furnish could be used against him in court and of his right to an attorney. He furnished the following information:

He resides at 5005 Gaston Avenue, Apartment 206, Dallas, Texas. He began his employment at the Dallas Police Department during late September, 1963 and was assigned as a patrolman at the Dallas City Jail. He was not at the Central Police Headquarters on November 22, 1963, at anytime and did not report for duty until 10:30 PM on November 23, 1963. When he arrived at work he went directly from the police locker room to the fifth floor jail quarters. He was assigned by Sergeant WARREN, who is next in command to Lieutenant HANCOCK, Platoon Lieutenant at the jail. He was instructed to make sure that no one entered LEE HARVEY OSWALD's cell block unless they were accompanied by either Lieutenant HANCOCK or Sergeant WARREN. At no time on November 23, 1963, was he assigned any other type of security work and had no opportunity to observe the security precautions at the Police Department or to check the identity of any individuals there.

On November 24, 1963, he again reported for work at about 10:15 PM and while changing clothes in the locker room, over-heard a rumor that RUBY had gained entrance to the basement of the Dallas Police Department with a press card. He stated a number of officers were in the locker room at that time and he did not know the identity of the officer who made the comment. He stated the comment was not made in a factual manner, nor did the officer who made the statement, state that he actually saw RUBY in the basement with a press card or specifically mention that any officer had actually seen this occurrence. He emphasized that the comment made in the locker room was more in the form of conjecture on the part of the men there, the subject of OSWALD's murder being a common topic of conversation at that time. He has heard nothing to substantiate this rumor since that time.

After leaving the locker room on the night of November 24, 1963, he was again assigned to guard the cell block on the fifth floor of the City Jail, the person being JACK RUBY at this time rather than LEE HARVEY OSWALD. At no time did he hear any comments made by LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY during the time he was assigned to cell block guard duty there.

At no time on November 23, 1963, did he see JACK RUBY at the Central Police Headquarters. He had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and he had never heard of JACK RUBY prior to the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY. He had no knowledge of any of the security precautions taken during the weekend of November 24, 1963, other than his own specific assignment.

He recalled that he discussed this matter with SA JOSEPH M. MYERS of the FBI on November 24, 1963.

R. E. McKINNEY

Lieutenant ROBERT E. McKINNEY, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed and was immediately advised of the official identity of Special Agent LEO L. ROBERTSON. He was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was further advised that he had the right to consult an attorney prior to making any statement. He then furnished the following information:

He advised he did not have any specific assignment on November 22, 1963, when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. He stated he was assigned to the Forgery Bureau and that he had gone down to the Records Bureau which is located on the basement floor where the jail office is located. This was around 10:00 a.m. and as he was leaving the Records Bureau he glanced out in the corridor and noticed some power leads going out in the corridor. He assumed that these were for the television cameras which were located out at the end of the corridor, but he did not know whether there were any cameras there at that time or not.

Although he had no specific assignment, his immediate superior Captain O. A. JONES, had told him to have the men stay around, as they might be needed when they were ready to move OSWALD. He stated he has known JACK RUBY since about 1953 or 1954 because he was in the Patrol Division at that time and was assigned to South Dallas. He stated at that time JACK RUBY opened the Silver Spur which was located on South Ervay Street. He stated he never knew him well but did know him when he saw him. He advised he knew nothing of the security measures planned for the transfer of OSWALD to the County Jail but did know that no unauthorized person was to be allowed in the area, and he assumed this would include the press and police officers.

He further advised that when he left the basement he came back to the 3rd floor and was on the 3rd floor at the time the shooting took place. He could not remember for sure but stated that at approximately 11:28 or 11:30 a.m. he heard a call for a doctor over the Public Address (P.A.) system. He immediately wondered if OSWALD or a policeman had been shot but stated in any event he knew there would be a rush by the press to the Chief of Police's office which is located on the other end of the floor. He stated he immediately got three other officers to accompany him and he put a block across the corridor leading into the Chief's office. He stated at this time the Chief came out. He told the Chief what he had done, and the Chief told him it was fine and not to let any of the press in until they had found out what happened. He stated immediately after this, he was told to take a squad of men to Parkland Hospital and set up security measures for OSWALD. He stated that eleven detectives and himself got into three automobiles and immediately went to Parkland Hospital where they set up security measures there. He stated he, himself, was on the door leading into the Operating Room. He stated the detectives who accompanied him were mostly men who had been assigned to the corridor at the time of the shooting of OSWALD.

T. D. McMILLON

THOMAS DONALD McMILLON, 4929 Reiger Street, Dallas, Texas, after being advised of the Agents' identities that he did not have to talk to the Agents; that any statements made by him could possibly be used in a court of law against him; and that he had the right to consult an attorney, advised as follows:

He is employed as a Detective, badge 1349, by the Dallas, Texas, Police Department, and is assigned to the Auto Theft Bureau, Criminal Investigation Division and has worked in this capacity approximately 7 years.

On November 24, 1963, he worked at 7:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. shift. About 10:00 a.m., Lieutenant SMART advised all detectives in the Auto Theft Bureau to stand by. About 11:10 a.m., Lieutenant SMART instructed all officers in that section to proceed to the basement of the city hall telling them that they were planning to move OSWALD to the county jail.

After arriving in the basement of the city hall, Lt. SMART advised the detectives that he wanted them to form two lanes on either side of the hall outside the jail office door. McMILLON stated he took a position on the north wall just outside the jail door. He was the second man in line east from the jail door.

In the basement, Captain JONES and Lt. SMART gave instructions to the effect that when the prisoner came out of the jail office, the detectives were to keep a line or barrier around the prisoner until he could be placed in the car for transfer. McMILLON recalled that Detective L. D. MILLER was to his right but he could not recall the officer who was standing to his left. About 11:20 a.m., McMILLON stated he heard someone hollering, "Here he comes." He thought that someone in the press hollered that so that the cameramen would be alerted that OSWALD was about to emerge from the jail office door. Shortly thereafter, Captain FRITZ came out of the jail office door and as he passed in front of McMILLON he said, "Is everything all right?" McMILLON stated he answered, "Yes sir," but did not know if the Captain was talking to him or not. The Captain proceeded toward the basement area. Behind him was OSWALD with Detective LEAVELLE handcuffed to OSWALD's right hand. McMILLON did not recall the name of the detective on OSWALD's left. Another detective, whose name he could not recall followed OSWALD. Just as OSWALD and the detectives passed McMILLON, he turned to his left to follow this group and almost instantaneously saw a man lunge out of the crowd about three feet in front of OSWALD and to OSWALD's left. This man appeared to take one step and he was observed to have a gun in his right hand. This man was in a crouched position and seemed to bring the gun up from below hip level and take a step and move in on OSWALD all in one motion. This man hollered at OSWALD, "You rat S-- of B---, you shot the President," and at the same time fired one shot. McMILLON stated he immediately reached for the gunman's right forearm and about the same time several other officers reached the gunman and all went down onto the floor. There was a struggle on the floor to subdue this man and one of the officers took the gun from the man. This man was hollering during the struggle, "I hope I killed the S-- of B---. I hope I killed the S-- of B---." McMILLON stated that he and the other officers who had subdued this man took him into the jail office. En route the man hollered, "Don't you know who I am? I'm JACK RUBY." McMILLON stated he still had this man by the right forearm all the way into the jail office. There they laid him face down on the floor and handcuffed him behind his back, using McMILLON's handcuffs. McMILLON recalled that detectives ARCHER and R. C. WAGNER, and other detectives whose names he does not recall were handling RUBY in the jail office. He stated they got RUBY on his feet to take him to the jail elevator and at this time he noticed that OSWALD was also laying on his back in the jail office on the floor with other officers around OSWALD. They took RUBY to the jail elevator and to the fifth floor. McMILLON recalled that detectives CLARDY, ARCHER, and Captain KING and possibly others, were in the elevator that took RUBY to the fifth floor. On the fifth floor RUBY was stripped and searched and left dressed only in his shorts. About this time, Mr. SORRELS of the Secret Service office came to the fifth floor to talk to RUBY. RUBY was talking freely and said that he had read in the papers that JACKIE KENNEDY might have to come to Texas to testify and that OSWALD did not deserve a trial for what he had done and that he, RUBY, thought he would save the taxpayers time, trouble, and money. RUBY said that he was not trying to be a hero and that what he did he did on his own as a spur of the moment thing. RUBY said this, meaning his shooting of OSWALD, could not have been more perfect in timing because just at the time he arrived in the police department basement they were bringing OSWALD out of the jail door. SORRELS asked RUBY if he had done this on his own and RUBY again stated that no one else was in on the deal and that it was a spur of the moment action.

Those present while SORRELS was interviewing RUBY were Detectives McMILLON, CLARDY, ARCHER, and possibly some of the jail personnel whose names he did not recall. RUBY was also asked how he got into the basement to which he replied that he had been to the Western Union Office, had walked down Main Street to the down ramp in the police department and proceeded down the east side of this ramp. He, RUBY, entered this ramp at the time a police car was coming out onto the street. This police car was driven by Lt. PIERCE. While going down the ramp an officer, according to RUBY, hollered at him and said something to the effect, "Hold it a minute," or "where are you going there," but RUBY said he did not slow down, ducked his head, and had his hat pulled down and walked on. RUBY said he knew he could act like a reporter. RUBY continued that just as he got to the bottom of the ramp the police were bringing OSWALD out and he, RUBY, jumped out of the crowd and shot OSWALD. McMILLON continued that RUBY also said he was surprised that he, RUBY, only got one shot off and that he thought he could get at least three shots off. RUBY said the police moved faster than he figured.

McMILLON stated that RUBY was asked how he knew OSWALD and had shot OSWALD and not a police officer. RUBY replied that he had been to a press conference on Friday night in the police station show-up room and saw OSWALD there. McMILLON stated that he does not recall that RUBY was asked how he gained admission to this conference, but continued that RUBY said that during this conference District Attorney WADE was being interviewed and made several references to the Fair Play for Cuba and the Free Cuba groups and indicated that they were one and the same group but RUBY claimed that he corrected WADE, telling him (WADE), that these groups were not the same and that they were opposing and conflicting organizations. McMILLON stated that RUBY was not questioned as to how he corrected District Attorney WADE or he, RUBY, had knowledge of these organizations.

Sometime during the interrogation of RUBY, SORRELLS departed and Agent HALL from the FBI arrived. McMILLON stated that he was unable to identify the officers present during any given period while RUBY was being interviewed but stated that all statements he has attributed as being made by RUBY were made in his (McMILLON's) presence.

McMILLON continued that because he, CLARDY and ARCHER were assigned to the Auto Theft Bureau and knew that another police bureau would handle RUBY, they did not attempt to interrogate RUBY but stood by to assist in handling RUBY while he was being interrogated by SORRELLS and HALL. McMILLON stated that Detectives from the Homicide Bureau relieved the aforementioned detectives and himself about 3:30 p.m.

McMILLON stated that he has known RUBY approximately six years and that he first met RUBY at RUBY's Vegas Club that was located on his police beat. During this six year period he has seen RUBY at other clubs and at other times while on police work. McMILLON has never worked for RUBY in any capacity and knows of no police officer who has worked for RUBY. McMILLON continued that he has heard that police officers have been alleged to work for RUBY but that a police department order prohibits police officers from working on their off hours at any establishments which sell liquor. McMILLON said that possibly people thought that police officers worked at these establishments because they may have seen special officers in these places. He explained that the Special Services Division - Vice Squad, Dallas Police Department, has employees known as Special Officers who are assigned to work night clubs, taverns, and other such establishments. These employees are part time city employees but are not part of the Dallas Police Department and they are regulated by the Special Services Division. These Special Officers wear a uniform similar to the Dallas Police Department uniform with the exception of shoulder patches, insignias, and badges. These Special Officers are paid by the City of Dallas and he is of the opinion that the city is reimbursed by the establishments where the Special Officers are assigned.

McMILLON continued that he knew of no overall security measures in effect on November 24, 1963, and handled his assignment as directed by Lt. SMART and Captain JONES. He did observe that uniformed officers were in the basement when he, McMILLON, and other detectives went to the basement and that these uniformed officers were checking people there for proper identification.

He knew of no unauthorized persons being permitted to enter the basement. He observed numerous police officers and press, TV and radio personnel but did not give an estimate of the number of people there. McMILLON stated he last saw RUBY prior to his, RUBY's, shooting OSWALD, on November 24, 1963, about two or three months previously, but he did not recall where he saw RUBY. McMILLON has no knowledge of any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD. McMILLON added that while RUBY was being interviewed by HALL, RUBY told HALL that he, RUBY, had seen an article in a Dallas newspaper by BERNARD WEISMAN that was derogatory to KENNEDY and RUBY wanted HALL to check WEISMAN out. RUBY appeared to be very concerned about this newspaper article and RUBY stated that he had gone to the Post Office to try to find out who WEISMAN was and his address.

McMILLON continued that RUBY was also talking about another police officer, L. C. DOLLINAX, who had been killed in Dallas about a year ago who had been operating in an undercover capacity and the accused killer was "no billed" in court. RUBY said he thought of killing this accused man because he got off without being punished and he, RUBY, thought OSWALD might get off for killing Officer TIPPIT and the President. McMILLON concluded that he did not recall RUBY being questioned in detail concerning the above related incidents.

BARNEY MERRELL

Lieutenant BARNEY MERRELL, Reserve Police Officer, Dallas Police Department, residence 2928 Fondren Drive, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

On Saturday night, November 23, 1963, MERRELL received a call from Captain C. O. ARNETT, Reserve Police, to report to the Central Police Station on the morning of November 24, 1963. ARNETT arrived at the Assembly Room, Central Police Station, at approximately 7:30 AM, November 24, 1963, and remained in the Assembly Room checking in other reserve police officers and instructing them to report to various regular police officers for assignments.

Just prior to the time that prisoner LEE HARVEY OSWALD was brought down on the elevator into the City Jail office, MERRELL moved to a position in the basement where he could look through the swinging doors leading into the corridor in front of the jail office door. All he could see from this position was a large group of individuals, including press men, cameramen and TV personnel and other police officers in the corridor, and the basement area. About this time MERRELL heard a shot; however, he was unable to see what transpired in the basement proper and did not actually see the shooting of OSWALD.

MERRELL had no knowledge of the security arrangements prior to moving OSWALD from the City Jail into the basement to be transported to the County Sheriff's Office.

MERRELL is not acquainted with RUBY and does not recall having seen him prior to the time of the shooting on November 24, 1963. He has never worked for RUBY at any of RUBY's clubs and has no knowledge of any other officers with the exception of RONALD COX, who were so employed. It was his understanding that COX was employed for a time by RUBY at the Vegas Club approximately two years ago.

MERRELL has no knowledge of any unauthorized persons being permitted entrance to the basement area prior to the shooting of OSWALD on November 24, 1963. MERRELL has no information regarding any relationship between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

1 L. D. Miller

Mr. LOUIS D. MILLER, 1231 Revina, Garland, Texas, was advised he did not have to make any statement, any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised of his right to talk to an attorney and the identities of Special Agents ROBERT J. WILKISON and EDMOND C. HARDIN. No threats or promises were made to MILLER.

MILLER advised as follows:

He is employed as a detective in the Dallas Police Department, Criminal Investigation Division, Juvenile Bureau, Police Headquarters. On November 24, 1963, he worked at 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. shift.

A few minutes before the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, on November 24, 1963, he was on duty in the Juvenile Department, Third Floor of the Police Department. Someone said for all officers to go to the basement. He does not know who gave the order. He went to the basement, and upon arrival, stood around in the hall corridor between the elevator and the Jail Office for a few minutes. Detectives CUTCHAW, LOWERY, HARRISON and GOOLSBY of the Juvenile Department were also on duty and all went to the basement with him. Word was passed to the officers to line up along the ramp area and they all did so. He does not know who gave the order. There were a large number of officers on one side of the ramp, exact number not recalled. A large number of press and TV representatives personnel were in the basement, exact number not known to him. Many of the press and TV personnel were along the opposite side of the ramp from the police officers. He was not assigned to the ramp area, but was stationed to the left of the Jail office door.

MILLER was stationed to the left of the Jail Office door for about five minutes before OSWALD was brought through that area to be transferred to the County Jail. Detective CUTCHAW was standing on the other side of the Jail Office doorway which was on the West side and Detective McMILLEN was stationed next to MILLER.

As OSWALD was escorted past, he and Detective McMILLEN started to move along the wall of the Booking Office behind OSWALD and the people. The lights from the TV cameras were very bright in the ramp area. A few seconds later, he saw a blur out of the corner of his eye, and at that instant, the thought ran through his mind that some TV or radio man was running up to OSWALD with a microphone. At about the same time, he heard a shot. As the shot sounded, OSWALD and the escorting police officers seem to fall toward the floor or move a little to their right. At the same time, several officers converged upon that spot and someone must have hit RUBY, since RUBY was propelled in his direction. MILLER was also moving toward the spot of the shooting. He grabbed RUBY by the neck and believes some other officer had a hold of RUBY's arm and was trying to get a pistol away from RUBY, which RUBY was still holding. He did not notice what type of pistol RUBY had, as he did not get a very good look at it. At the same time a large number of officers also converged on RUBY and RUBY was disarmed and taken into the jail office. The entire incident took place in a matter of seconds.

When the officers were sent to the ramp area prior to OSWALD being brought down, there were officers stationed on both sides of the ramp.

He had never previously seen OSWALD except on TV after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He did not personally know JACK RUBY and does not believe he had ever seen him prior to the shooting.

When RUBY shot OSWALD, the escorting officers and OSWALD were approximately three or four steps from him. However, the backs of OSWALD and the officers were to him. He does not recall exactly what he was looking at when the shot sounded.

Police Department regulations do not permit officers to work off duty in a place where alcoholic beverages are served. He never worked for RUBY or in any of RUBY's night club. He does not know of any police officers who ever worked for RUBY.

There were a large number of police officers in the basement earlier prior to the shooting, but he has no idea how many officers were present. He had no reason to check anyone in the basement since the security checks were made at entrances to the basement as far as he knows. However, he was not familiar with the security measures that were in effect. He does not know of any unauthorized persons that were permitted entrance to the basement or of any one permitted to enter without showing identification. He saw no suspicious people in the basement prior to the shooting.

He has no knowledge of any relationship between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MILLER said he had no other pertinent information concerning the shooting of OSWALD.

In addition to information previously given, Detective L. D. MONTGOMERY, Homicide and Robbery Bureau of the Dallas Police Department, advised that he arrived on duty at approximately 8:00 AM and was in the Homicide office up until they got ready to move OSWALD down to the County Jail. He stated that Captain FRITZ, in charge of the Homicide Bureau, instructed him to follow Detective LEAVELLE and Detective GRAVES as they escorted OSWALD from the third floor down to the basement and out to the car, which was to transport him to the County Jail. He advised he did not see the shooting inasmuch as OSWALD and the detectives mentioned were directly in front of him. He stated he saw a blur there and they were struggling in subduing RUBY.

He stated they had known RUBY for several years, casually, inasmuch as when he was in the Patrol Division he used to cover the district where the Vegas Club operated by RUBY is located on Oak Lawn Street. He advised he had not seen RUBY for at least two years prior to the time of the shooting. He stated when they got out of the elevators and came out of the jail office, the officers, as well as newsmen, photographers and TV cameramen, were already there and he did not pay any attention to them and could not say whether or not he knew any of them in the crowd. He stated he was not present when these people were admitted to the basement and does not know what means were taken to identify them. He knew nothing of the security measures taken other than what his immediate assignment was. He had no information concerning any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

RONALD C. NELSON, 1302 Winding Trail, Duncanville, Texas, was interviewed at his residence. He was advised that he was not required to make a statement; that any statement he did make might be used against him in a court of law; and that he had the right to legal advice prior to making a statement.

NELSON advised that he has been a patrolman with the Dallas, Texas, Police Department for nearly four years. He stated that while serving in this capacity on November 24, 1963, he was in the Sergeant's office at the Dallas, Texas, Police Department at about 9:15 to 9:20 AM, when he was instructed by Lieutenant PIERCE to report to Sergeants P. T. DEAN and PUTNAM in the basement of the city hall. Patrolman VAUGHN and two other police officers were given the same instructions and they all four proceeded to the basement area. Sergeant PUTNAM instructed him and another officer to check all persons in both areas of the basement to determine that they were either police officers or members of the press. They were instructed to send away any other individuals who were not authorized to remain. After they filled this assignment, he and the other officer working with him were sent through the double doors into the city hall section of the basement, and he stationed himself at the end of the corridor located about 20 feet from the double doors and just west of the exit door from the jail office. The other officer assigned there with him was a reserve officer whose name he does not know. He was there for just three or four minutes when Sergeant PUTNAM told them to station themselves just behind the first jail office window, where people were coming in regard to jail business such as seeing prisoners, some of them bringing packages and so forth. They were instructed not to let any unauthorized persons through the doors leading into the corridor and ramp area of the basement, where a number of newsmen had already congregated and were waiting for LEE HARVEY OSWALD to be brought from the jail and transported to the County Jail.

While he was stationed here, he checked a number of individuals who approached the jail office window and checked any packages and topcoats they may have been carrying. He let no one through t he door, leading to the ramps, who was not an officer or a member of the press. While there, he recalls that two men came down the City Hall elevator with a television camera, which they requested to be allowed to roll through the door into the corridor leading to the ramps. He called Lieutenant PIERCE and asked him if this could be permitted, whereupon Lieutenant PIERCE talked with one of these men and checked their identification, and then stated to NELSON that they could be allowed to take their camera to the desired location.

NELSON stated that he did not see JACK RUBY shoot OSWALD that morning inasmuch as he could not observe the spot where the shooting occurred from his position. He stated he was at his post until the shooting occurred and that he heard the shot when it was fired. He advised that when he heard the shot, he immediately went through the double doors leading into the area where OSWALD was shot and saw a great number of individuals running about excitedly. In just a short moment, he noticed officers bringing RUBY past him and into the jail office. He heard someone say, "See if he's got a gun," and when he noticed RUBY's left arm was free, he felt RUBY's left hand to make sure he did not have a gun in it. He then returned to his post which he had just left.

NELSON stated that he does not know RUBY and never knew OSWALD. He added that he has never been employed at any of RUBY's establishments and knows of no other police officers who may have been so employed. He further stated that he has never heard anything indicating a relationship which may have existed between RUBY and OSWALD. He stated that he did not see RUBY before the shooting occurred, and has no information concerning RUBY's activities prior to this event or concerning any individual with whom RUBY may have talked prior to shooting OSWALD.

NELSON stated that when he first arrived in the basement area, he would estimate that there were about 20 people in the area, most of whom he believed were newsmen. He does not recall the identities of any police officers and, with the exception of those named by him above, he added that he could not identify any of the newsmen present.

NELSON stated that he is sure that police officers were stationed at all points of entry into the basement area and that the others, as himself, were instructed to make sure that no person would enter the area without being either a police officer or a newsman and that they were to properly identify themselves or be so recognized prior to gaining entrance into the building. NELSON stated that he does not know of any unauthorized person who may have been permitted entrance into the building or without showing identification.

WILLIAM J. NEWMAN, Dallas Reserve Policeman, residence 10923 Cotillion Drive, Garland, Texas, advised that he was called by Sgt. SULLIVAN of the Police Reserve to report to the Central Police Station as soon as he could get there on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963. He stated he arrived there between 9:00 and 9:15 AM and was told to report to Sgt. PUTNAM of the regular Police Department. Sgt. PUTNAM requested that all of the Reserves, approximately 25 in number, assist them in searching all cars and areas in the basement. This was at approximately 9:20 AM when they began, and at about 10:15 AM Sgt. PUTNAM told him to guard the door underneath the ramp coming in to the basement from the Commerce Street side where the armored truck was parked.

He advised the door he was guarding went into the basement, which was the engine room. He stated that no one came in or out of this door while he was stationed there, and he was there from approximately 10:20 until approximately ten or fifteen minutes after the shooting. He advised that he did not see the shooting. He did not know RUBY. He never knew or heard of any officers working for RUBY. He stated at the time he went into the basement there were probably fifteen or twenty people already there other than policemen and that they were newsmen, photographers and TV cameramen. He did not know any of them. He stated these people were already there and he was not in a position to observe any others coming in to the basement, so that he was unable to say what identification they had to show or if they were challenged to show any form of identification.

He estimated that at the time of the actual shooting there were approximately fifty people in there other than the police officers. He knew of no security measures taken other than what his assignment was but did say that he had heard the armored car was going to be a decoy and that OSWALD would be taken to the County Jail in another car. He did not recall who told him this.

As mentioned previously, he was assigned to guard the door leading to the engine room. This door is on the east side of the ramp and back toward the Commerce Street side of the building. It is to be noted that both the Main Street and Commerce Street ramps enter into the basement level on a sharp grade. NEWMAN, from where he was stationed, could see the lower part of the Main Street ramp but was not able to see the top of the ramp where the police officers guarding the Main Street ramp were stationed since he was on the level of the basement floor. He stated at approximately one minute before the actual shooting occurred he saw a man coming down the lower part of the Main Street ramp. From his position he was unable to see the upper part, therefore could not say whether an officer stopped and asked this man for any identification.

He stated from the time he saw the man on the lower part of the ramp, the man had to take just a few steps and he was on the basement floor level. He advised that the various members of the news media which were mentioned previously were all on the basement floor level. Therefore, they were in his line of vision and prevented him from getting an unobstructed view of the man. His obstructed view prevented him from seeing where the man disappeared into the crowd. He advised that he did not know JACK RUBY and had not heard any talk concerning him prior to the shooting. He never heard of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

Captain J. M. SOLOMON, Dallas Police Department, was contacted and was immediately advised of the official identities of Special Agents KENNETH P. HUGHES and EDWARD J. MABEY. He was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to consult an attorney prior to making any statement. In reference to Reserve Police Officer HAROLD B. HOLLY, JR.'s, statement that another reserve officer had told him that he had seen RUBY come down the ramp in the basement, he furnished the following information:

SOLOMON displayed 19 photographs of reserve officers who were stationed at Parkland Hospital. From these photographs, HOLLY picked out an individual who resembled the individual that made the statement to him regarding RUBY's being in the basement. SOLOMON, upon viewing the photograph picked out by HOLLY, made a statement to the effect, "Well, he was there" or something similar to that. The officer's picture that HOLLY picked out was that of W. J. NEWMAN whom SOLOMAN advised was assigned to traffic control at Harry Hines Boulevard at the entrance to Parkland Hospital. SOLOMON was told that NEWMAN was interviewed by Lieutenant JACK REVILL and Lieutenant C. C. WALLACE, both of the Special Services Bureau. JOHNNIE F. NEWTON, 8906 Angleton Street, Dallas, Texas, after being advised of the Agents' identities; that he did not have to talk to the Agents; that any statement he made could possibly be used against him in a court of law, and that he had the right to consult an attorney, advised as follows:

He is employed by the Dallas Police Department as a Police Clerk 6 and is normally assigned to the Northwest Substation. He has been employed by the Dallas Police Department for approximately nineteen months.

On November 24, 1963, the Sergeant at the Northwest Substation told him to report to Lieutenant WIGGINS at the City Jail for assignment. He proceeded to the City Jail where Lieutenant WIGGINS assigned him to the desk duty in the City Jail Office. He worked from 6:30 AM until 2 30 PM. Other employees on duty in the Jail Office with him this shift were Patrolman WILLIE B. SLACK and Clerk JERRY SLOCUM. He was given no special instructions concerning his duties this day, other than that any telephone calls or personal calls received concerning OSWALD should be referred to the Dallas Secret Service Office.

About 10:00 AM, he stepped out of the Jail Office into the basement to call an officer to the telephone. He did not recall this officer's name. At this time, he noticed police officers stationed in the basement and in the hall outside of the Jail Office. He did not recall the identity of these officers. After returning to the Jail Office, he noticed from the windows that open onto the hall outside the office that the police officers stationed there were checking the identification of people entering the basement area.

NEWTON stated that business in the Jail Office was carried on in a normal fashion and that prisoners were being released up to a point of about thirty minutes before OSWALD was brought down for transfer.

NEWTON continued that the Jail Office personnel received no warning or instructions that OSWALD was being removed from the jail until they saw OSWALD being led out of the jail elevator into the Jail Office. He could see people in the hall outside the Jail Office; however, he did not know whether they were police officers or members of the press.

OSWALD was led from the elevator by Captain FRITZ and several other detectives, whose names were not known to NEWTON, through the Jail Office, out the swinging door, to the basement parking area. As this group went through the swinging door, he heard the press hollering something to the effect, "Here he comes." He estimated that this was about 11:15 or 11:20 AM.

NEWTON stated he remained in the office and could not see the activities in the basement, except numerous people whom he assumed were detectives and newspapermen. He saw numerous flash bulbs and heard a noise that he thought was a flash bulb exploding shortly after this group, with OSWALD, went through the swinging door.

Almost immediately, a group of eight to ten police officers brought a man into the Jail Office and laid him on the floor at the east end of the office. They appeared to be trying to subdue this man and he saw that one of the officers had a revolver that he assumed they took from this man. He later learned that this man was JACK RUBY. NEWTON stated he looked around the room and noticed that OSWALD had been returned to the Jail Office also, and was lying on the floor. The handcuffs had been removed from OSWALD and he saw that OSWALD had been shot.

Lieutenant WIGGINS telephoned for an ambulance and called Parkland Hospital to stand by. The ambulance arrived in approximately three minutes and OSWALD was removed to the ambulance on a stretcher. While waiting for the ambulance, the jail doctor rendered aid to OSWALD. NEWTON did not know the doctor's name.

During the few minutes time lapse while waiting for the ambulance to remove OSWALD, detectives removed RUBY to the jail elevator and took him upstairs.

NEWTON advised he did not see the shooting; that he did not know RUBY and had never seen him before, and that he did not have any knowledge of any police officer working for RUBY in any capacity. He stated that he was only in the basement area one time prior to OSWALD being shot and then only for a few moments to call a police officer to the phone, and that he could not estimate the number of police officers or press and television people in that area. He knew of no unauthorized people in the jail basement that day and he has no information that there was any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

D. L. PATE, Patrolman, Second Platoon, Dallas, Texas Police Department, advised that on November 24, 1963, at about 9:00 AM he reported to the office of Police Captain TALBERT, who subsequently gave him the keys to his car with instructions to put it in a position in the basement of the Police Department in order that he could exit without delay when the time arose. PATE stated he followed the instructions of TALBERT and thereafter stayed with the car until about 10:45 AM, when Captain TALBERT instructed PATE to take a position on the ramp leading from the basement area to the Commerce Street exit with instructions to let no unauthorized persons into the area. As PATE recalled, there were two unmarked police cars parked behind an armored truck which was to take LEE HARVEY OSWALD out of the area.

Sometime after 11:00 AM, PATE recalled seeing OSWALD being escorted into the basement; shortly after which he heard a shot. At the time of the shot, PATE stated he was not in a position to see OSWALD or JACK RUBY, whom he subsequently learned was the assailant. PATE stated he started toward the scene where there appeared to be much commotion from his position on the ramp and someone, identity unknown, yelled for him to go back and cover the elevators in the rear of the basement with instructions to let no one out. PATE stated he immediately carried out those instructions.

PATE stated he had known RUBY for about six or seven years, having met RUBY when he operated the Vegas Club, as his, PATE's assignment was covering the North Dallas area in which the Vegas Club was located. He stated he made routine checks of the clubs in his area while on duty. He stated he never associated with RUBY socially, had not been employed by him nor did he know of any officers who worked for RUBY.

PATE stated he did not recall the identity of any specific officers or individuals at the scene of the shooting and that he did not see RUBY prior to the incident. PATE stated he last saw RUBY approximately three months ago.

BOBBY GENE PATTERSON, No. 1553 Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, residence 3463 Caracas Street, Mesquite, Texas, advised that at about 9:30 a.m. on November 24, 1963, he was assigned by Sergeant P. I. DEAN along with Patrolman L. E. JAZ to guard the Commerce Street South Ramp exit from the basement of the Dallas Police Department. His instructions were to let no one into the basement except members of the press and officers with proper identification.

He advised that Officer JAZ was assigned with a group to go across the street on Commerce to assist in searching a building after which time he learned with PATTERSON of their assignment. At about 11:00 a.m., a Lieutenant PIERCE advised that that LEE HARVEY OSWALD would be brought to an armored car and assigned PATTERSON to guard the right side of the armored car as it backed down the ramp. The armored car arrived at about 11:10 a.m. and backed into the opening of the ramp. No unauthorized person entered the basement during this time. PATTERSON advised that he did not see the shooting as he was behind the armored car and his view was obscured from the area where LEE HARVEY OSWALD was brought into the basement. He said he did not hear a shot. A few moments after the armored car was parked in the basement he heard a noise and saw someone jump across the top of one of the police cars parked in the basement.

PATTERSON advised that he did not know JACK RUBY other than having checked RUBY's establishment. He stated that he was not personally acquainted with RUBY but would know him on sight. PATTERSON advised he had never worked for RUBY, as this was against departmental regulations and to his knowledge no officers for the department had ever worked for RUBY.

PATTERSON stated as he recalled there were approximately ten officers blocking off the other entrances into the basement of the Dallas Police Department who were checking persons for proper identification. He advised that many people were turned back whose identities were unknown and who did not have proper identification, however, he does not recall the identities of these individuals. He stated that he does know RUBY on sight and he is certain that RUBY did not gain entrance or attempt to gain entrance at the point he was guarding.

PATTERSON advised that he did not know the officers or newspaper men who were congregated in the basement and could not see the main group, as there were many strange newspaper men and many officers in the area whom he did not know.

PATTERSON said that he had not seen RUBY in the area nor had he talked with RUBY between the periods of November 22, 1963, and November 24, 1963. He said that he has no information whatsoever concerning any relationship between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Lieutenant RIO S. PIERCE, assigned to the Central Station, Dallas Police Department, was advised of the identity of the Agents; that he did not have to make any statement, that any statement made could possibly be used against him in a court of law, and that he had the right to consult an attorney. He advised as follows:

On November 24, 1963, he worked the day shift from 7:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. About 9:00 A.M., Captain C. E. TALBERT, instructed him to call enough uniform officers to the City Hall to assist in the transfer of OSWALD to the County Jail. He called 19 radio patrol officers to the station and placed them under the supervision of Sergeants P. T. DEAN and J. A. PUTNAM.

The following uniform officers were called for this detail and assigned as follows:

ANDERSON, K. K.	Field and Elm Streets
BROCK, A. R.	Basement elevator
BURTON, T. R.	Commerce and Central Streets
ERWIN, D. K.	Commerce and Pearl Streets
FERRIS, M. E.	Lamar and Elm Streets
FOX, L. L.	Harwood and Elm Streets
GREGORY, F. E.	Central and Elm Streets

checked, also other places a person could hide. All civilian employees would be removed from the basement area and the elevator in the new building would be locked at the first floor. About 9:20 or 9:30 A.M., as the officers started to arrive at police station, PIERCE instructed Sergeant P. T. DEAN to take a group of officers to the basement area to carry out these instructions. About 10:15 A.M., Lieutenant PIERCE checked the parking area in the police basement and satisfied himself that the area had been cleared.

Lieutenant PIERCE advised that he then proceeded to the Homicide Bureau for additional instructions. He left Sergeants DEAN and PUTNAM in charge of the uniform officers who in turn assigned the men their specific posts.

Lieutenant PIERCE remained at the Homicide Bureau until about 11:15 A.M. at which time Chief CURRY and Chief STEVENSON instructed him to secure a police car and some uniform officers to escort the armored truck from the Commerce Street ramp to the Court House. Lieutenant PIERCE proceeded to the Police Department basement where he obtained a police car and instructed Sergeants B. J. MAXEY and J. A. PUTNAM to accompany him. When he arrived in the basement which was "jammed" with police officers and press and television people. He estimated that approximately 50 press people were there and a like number of police officers. He stated that he could not identify any of the Press people by name.

After obtaining the police car, Sergeant PUTNAM moved the crowd out of the way so that the car could proceed out the Main Street ramp. Lieutenant PIERCE observed Captain C. O. ARNETT, a reserve police officer and another reserve police officer, unknown to him, stationed at the bottom of this ramp and officer R. E. VAUGHN at the top of this ramp. Lieutenant PIERCE accompanied by Sergeants MAXEY and PUTNAM, proceeded out of the police station in the police car, turning left on Main Street, left on Harwood and proceeded to the Commerce Street police ramp. When they arrived at this position, officers were running to cover all exits of the City Hall and they learned at this time that OSWALD had been shot as he was being transferred.

Lieutenant PIERCE stated that he did not see the shooting or hear the shot fired. He is acquainted with RUBY and has known RUBY for approximately 12 or 13 years. His acquaintance with RUBY was through official police work and he has never worked for RUBY nor does he know any other police officer that has ever worked for RUBY in their spare time or otherwise. He last saw RUBY approximately one year ago and he did not see him on November 24, 1963, the day that OSWALD was shot.

Lieutenant PIERCE advised that he did not have an occasion to personally admit anyone to the building, however, his instructions to his men were that only authorized newsmen with a press pass or other credentials and police officers with proper identification were to be admitted to the building. He has no knowledge of any unauthorized persons being admitted to the basement area.

Lieutenant PIERCE advised he has no knowledge or any information regarding any relationship existing between RUBY and OSWALD.

R.S. PIERCE

Lieutenant RIO S. PIERCE, 3227 South Edgefield, Dallas, Texas, member of the Dallas Police Department, was reinterviewed for more specific details concerning his leaving the Main Street exit of the City Hall basement on November 24, 1963, a few moments before LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. He related the following:

PIERCE related that he was accompanied by Sergeants PUTNAM and MAXEY. As they proceeded up the Main Street ramp, Lieutenant PIERCE observed Captain ARNETT, a reserve police officer, at the bottom of the ramp. He is not positive but believes that another reserve officer was also at the bottom of this ramp leading to Main Street, with Captain ARNETT. Lieutenant PIERCE stated this ramp is very narrow, barely wide enough for passage of automobiles, and it would be a tight squeeze for a man to stand along side while a vehicle was going up this ramp. As he approached the top of the ramp leading to Main Street, he observed police officer VAUGHN standing in the center of the ramp opening and officer VAUGHN had to move for the police car to emerge. Lieutenant PIERCE stated that on either side of this doorway is a high curb that reaches from the building line to the sidewalk and it was necessary for officer VAUGHN to move to the sidewalk so that the police vehicle could proceed. Lieutenant PIERCE observed officer VAUGHN standing in approximately the center of the sidewalk just east of the doorway as he, Lieutenant PIERCE, passed.

Lieutenant PIERCE did not observe officer VAUGHN's movements after turning into Main Street. Lieutenant PIERCE stated he observed two or three persons on either side of this doorway as they drove out of the ramp but he did not recall who they were nor did he pay any particular attention to them and could not recall whether they were actually persons known to him. He explained that he had subsequently been informed that one of these persons was a former Dallas policeman by the name of N. J. DANIELS and another was a bootblack who had formerly operated in the City Hall. He is personally acquainted with DANIELS but said he did not know if he could recognize the bootblack or not. He said that he does not recall who the people were standing by the Main Street ramp when they emerged and could not say whether or not DANIELS was one of these people.

Lieutenant PIERCE subsequently heard during the police investigation as to how RUBY got into the basement; that officer VAUGHN had asked this former policeman, DANIELS, if anyone had gone down the basement while he moved from his post and DANIELS told VAUGHN that no one had. He said that it was strange that DANIELS told VAUGHN that he had seen no one enter and had told others that he had. VAUGHN was subsequently questioned by the Police Department with the polygraph concerning the allegation that RUBY entered the basement through his post. According to Lieutenant PIERCE, VAUGHN was truthful when he said he did not see RUBY or allow him to enter the Police Department basement.

R. A. PRETHER, of 9610 Rustown, Dallas, Texas Reserve Patrolman, was immediately advised of the identity of the interviewing agents. He was advised that he did not have to make any statement and that any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to consult an attorney.

PRETHER stated that he was not in the basement on November 24, 1963, and in fact was no where near the Police and Courts Building, as he was not on duty on that date.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

(1) S. PUTNAM

Sergeant JAMES A. PUTNAM, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, who resides at 2015 Joan Drive, Dallas, Texas, was contacted concerning the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on the morning of November 24, 1963, at the Dallas City Hall. PUTNAM was advised he did not have to make a statement; that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law, and that he could consult an attorney at any time he desired. PUTNAM voluntarily advised as follows:

At 9 a.m. on the morning of November 24, 1963, Sergeant P. T. DEAN, Patrol Division, Dallas Police Department, acting on orders of Lieutenant R. S. PIERCE, Patrol Division, assigned PUTNAM to assist Sergeant DEAN with a search of the basement area of Dallas City Hall. He said that he, Sergeant DEAN, Officer L. E. JEZ, Reserve Captain ARNETT, and several other unknown reserve Police Officers searched the basement area for any unauthorized persons or weapons. He added that their search, which was completed at approximately 9:30 a.m., developed nothing unusual and the entire area was considered safe and secure. He added, however, that during the search several building maintenance employees were asked to leave the basement area, which they did.

Sergeant PUTNAM advised that he and other officers in the basement, from about 9:30 a.m. until approximately 11:20 a.m., were securing the area and checking out any unidentified persons there. He said to his knowledge no unauthorized person was located in the basement during that time.

He related that the following officers were assigned to the positions listed below:

R. C. NELSON - basement entrance from Police and Courts Building;
R. E. VAUGHN - north ramp entrance on Main Street;
B. G. PATTERSON, south ramp exit on Commerce Street;
A. R. BROCK, elevators in basement.

Sergeant PUTNAM advised that at about 11:19 a.m. he received instructions from Sergeant P. T. DEAN to accompany Lieutenant PIERCE in his car which was to lead the armored car, in which OSWALD was to be placed, to the County Jail. Sergeant PUTNAM added that he and Lieutenant PIERCE were accompanied by Sergeant MAXEY.

At approximately 11:20 a.m. Lieutenant PIERCE's car left via the Main Street exit, where Officer R. E. VAUGHN was on duty, turned left on Main Street, then left on Harwood, then left on Commerce to the Commerce Street ramp. Immediately upon arriving there, at about 11:21 a.m. or 11:22 a.m., Detective (FNU) REYNOLDS ran out of the basement shouting that OSWALD had been shot and to "cover off the building." Sergeant PUTNAM said he got out of the car and ran to secure the Harwood Street entrance to City Hall. Moments after securing that entrance, Sergeant PUTNAM saw a Negro, male, running down the hall. Sergeant PUTNAM stepped into the hall, stopped this individual, searched him, and then turned him over to Detective REYNOLDS (same REYNOLDS mentioned above). Sergeant PUTNAM said since he had to return to the Harwood Street entrance, he did not take the time to ask this individual's name or why he was running.

From the time Sergeant PUTNAM departed from the Main Street exit at approximately 11:20 a.m. until shortly after OSWALD was shot, he gave the following precise account of his movements and observations:

Sergeants PUTNAM and MAXEY accompanied Lieutenant PIERCE in PIERCE's car which left the basement area at approximately 11:20 a.m. Lieutenant PIERCE was driving, Sergeant PUTNAM occupied the front seat with PIERCE, and Sergeant MAXEY was in the rear seat behind Lieutenant PIERCE. As the car approached the top of the ramp on Main Street, Officer VAUGHN was the first person seen by Sergeant PUTNAM. There was no other police officer stationed at that point. VAUGHN was directly in front of the ramp at a point near where the sidewalk joins the street. He believes VAUGHN moved slightly to the right (PUTNAM's right) and took one or two steps into the street, then waved PIERCE's car onto Main Street.

Sergeant PUTNAM said as the car approached the top of the ramp he noticed four to six people standing on the sidewalk near the curb, to his left. He indicated he saw this group out of the corner of his eye and did not look directly at anyone in the group. Sergeant PUTNAM was unable to say if JACK RUBY was one of the individuals in that group.

Sergeant PUTNAM stated that the Main Street exit presented no spectator or vehicle traffic problem, since OSWALD was to leave via the Commerce Street exit and spectators at the Commerce Street exit had been moved across the street earlier. He added that pedestrian and vehicle traffic appeared to be light at that time.

He is well acquainted with Officer VAUGHN and knows VAUGHN to be "a forceful officer." Sergeant PUTNAM said he knows VAUGHN well enough to feel certain, in his own mind, that VAUGHN would have stopped RUBY or any unauthorized person attempting to enter the basement.

Sergeant PUTNAM said he is positive no one entered the basement from the Main Street exit as Lieutenant PIERCE's car was going up the ramp at approximately 11:20 a.m. He pointed out that the Main Street Ramp exit is somewhat narrow and anyone walking down the ramp, as a car departed, would most certainly step close to the wall to avoid being hit.

He knew of no other cars that entered or left the basement via the Main Street ramp immediately before or after Lieutenant PIERCE's car departed.

Sergeant PUTNAM stated that he carefully observed each individual in the basement the entire time he was on duty there from 9 a.m. until he left that area at approximately 11:20 a.m. He said on several occasions he asked unknown newsmen to identify themselves, which they did. He added that in his opinion there was no unauthorized person in the basement during that period. He said that he did not see JACK RUBY in the basement just prior to his leaving that area and as Lieutenant PIERCE's car was leaving the basement via the Main Street ramp he saw no one except officer VAUGHN at that exit.

Sergeant PUTNAM advised he does not know JACK RUBY and has never had any contact or association with him. He heard Sergeant DEAN, Sergeant MAXEY and Lieutenant PIERCE comment that they knew RUBY, but in his (PUTNAM's) opinion, RUBY is not a friend or associate of any of the above officers. He understands, as a matter of fact, that none of the three officers liked RUBY. PUTNAM knew of no other Dallas Police Officers who knew RUBY. He also was of the opinion that no officer of the Dallas Police Department would have knowingly let RUBY into the basement area of City Hall on the morning of November 24, 1963.

PUTNAM understands that RUBY claims in a statement that he entered the Main Street entrance to the basement of City Hall on the morning of November 24, 1963, and passed two officers stationed at that entrance, who were talking.

Sergeant PUTNAM stated it is his understanding that it has been established that RUBY was at a Western Union Office near the police station at 11:16 a.m. on November 24, 1963. PUTNAM stated that he, himself, walked from that Western Union Office to the ramp, where OSWALD was shot, on three occasions, using a different entrance to the ramp on each occasion -- namely, Commerce Street entrance, Main Street entrance, and stairway to lobby to ramp. He said, time-wise, RUBY could have reached the ramp via any of the above routes in sufficient time to fire the fatal shot at OSWALD.

Sergeant PUTNAM said that after OSWALD was shot there was some talk that RUBY may have entered the basement by assisting a television cameraman. He added, however, that the last television equipment was moved into the basement area at about 10:50 a.m. by two cameramen known to him by sight but not by name. PUTNAM added that RUBY was not among the crowd at that time or at any time while he was on duty in the basement, to the best of his knowledge.

PUTNAM estimated that at approximately 11:20 a.m. there were about 75 persons in the basement ramp and lobby. He estimated there were some 35 or 40 Police Officers and all others were representatives of the press, radio and television.

He advised he knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD. He stated he did not know OSWALD and never had any contact with him.

PUTNAM voluntarily advised as follows:

He knew of no Negro caught in the basement of the Dallas City Hall climbing over the tops of cars.

He stated that in an interview conducted by Special Agents of the FBI on December 3, 1963, he mentioned that when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot on November 24, 1963, Detective (FNU) REYNOLDS ran from the basement of City Hall shouting that OSWALD had been shot and to "cover off the building." He said he ran to the Harwood Street entrance to City Hall and moments later saw a Negro, male, running down the hall. He stopped this individual, searched him and then turned him over to Detective REYNOLDS (same REYNOLDS mentioned above). PUTNAM did not know whether the above individual was arrested or released.

Mr. JAMES K. RAMSEY was advised that he was being interviewed by Agents of the FBI and he did not have to make a statement. He was advised that any statement during course of this interview could be used against him or in a court of law. He was advised of his right to consult with an attorney before submitting to the interview and no threats or promises were given to Mr. RAMSEY during course of interview.

RAMSEY advised he is a Detective assigned to the Forgery Bureau of the Dallas Police Department and was working his regular duty schedule of 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on the day of November 24, 1963. Detective RAMSEY said he is under the direction of Captain O. A. JONES and on the day of November 24 was asked to standby in the Forgery Bureau which is located on the third floor of City Hall in the Police Department.

Detective RAMSEY stated about 10:30 a.m. he and Detective R. C. WAGNER, who is also in the Forgery Bureau, left the third floor of the Police Department and went down into the basement of City Hall which is located below the level of the street.

Detective RAMSEY stated there had been information circulating among detectives and photographers this day that LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the alleged assassin of President KENNEDY who was confined at the City Jail, was going to be transferred from City police custodyto the custody of the Dallas County Sheriff's Office, located in Dallas. He stated it was obvious at the time that they went to the basement ofe the City Hall that OSWALD had not been transferred at that time.

Mr. RAMSEY stated after arriving in the basement about 10:30 a.m., he went into the area used to park police cars, squad cars and other vehicles in the city hall where there were a group of uniformed police officers stationed with whom he had formerly worked. He stated among these officers he can recall seeing and talking with Officers GERALD L. TOLBERT, D. K. ERWIN, Badge 1849, and MAX FARRIS. He stated there were a number of uniformed officers in the parking area posted at various places; however, he could not recall others than he mentioned above. He stated there were approximately 25 uniformed officers stationed in the general area of the parking area portion of the basement. He stated at this time he would estimate the total number of people in the basement of City Hall near the ramp and parking area as about 75 to 100 people. He stated he could recall seeing Chief STEVENSON, Chief BATCHELOR, Captain MARTIN of the Juvenile Bureau, Captain NICHOLS of the Auto Theft Bureau, and Captain O. A. JONES. He stated these ranking officers were circulating in the area when he observed them. He stated there were numerous people who appeared to be reporters, TV cameramen, and other newspaper reporters in the area, none of whom he knew. However, he stated the total number of people in the basement in the area he observed would be 75 to 100 people.

Detective RAMSEY said after he had talked with officers TOLBERT, ERWIN and FARRIS and others for about 35 minutes, he left the parking area and walked up the ramp toward the Commerce Street exit and ramp with Detective WAGNER and stood at the exit for about 8 minutes or so. He stated while standing at the Commerce Street exit he noticed Chief STEVENSON and Chief BATCHELOR come up the ramp at about the same time. He stated there was a patrolman by the name of TAYLOR also standing at the Commerce Street ramp exit.

He stated he stood at the exit, watched the crowd that was gathered across Commerce Street and said there were hundreds of people standing on the sidewalk across the street from the City Hall.

He stated there were some uniformed officers at the Commerce Street exit who appeared to be guarding the exit; however, he could not recall the number of these officers and does not know who they are.

Mr. RAMSEY said after having stood at the exit for about 8 minutes he and Detective WAGNER then walked down the ramp and as they arrived at the bottom of the ramp, Captain JONES told him and the other officers in the area to line up along the wall and pointed out the area where he wanted the officers to stand.

Detective RAMSEY stated at about this time or shortly before, there was an armored car which was being backed down the Commerce Street exit. The armored car was able to get about one quarter of the way down the ramp and had to stop because the exit was not big enough to allow it to pass.

Detective RAMSEY stated as he recalled there were two plain clothes men who he believed to be detectives who went over to the armored car and opened the back door of the vehicle and apparently were searching the vehicle. He said he could recall hearing a bottle smash to the pavement as one of the officers opened the back door of the armored car.

Detective RAMSEY stated shortly after Captain JONES told him to line up against the wall with the other officers he could recall hearing someone say, "Here he comes," and at that time all the people who were lined up on the sides of the exit ramp closed in and he could hear what he thought was the sound of gunshots.

Detective RAMSEY stated he fought his way through the crowd of reporters and other news people and ran over to the scene where he saw a great amount of confusion and in the area of the confusion he saw Detective CHAMBERS. He stated the group of people was apparently wrestling with someone and RAMSEY stated he grabbed the arm of a person on the floor. He stated he helped hold this person and with some other officers whose names he cannot recall brought this person into the jail office. He stated he came to know this person later as JACK RUBY. While in the course of taking RUBY into the jail office he recalled RUBY saying, "I wanted to save the state some money."

Mr. RAMSEY stated other than the names he had mentioned he could not recall any other people as being down in the basement of City Hall at the time the shot was fired.

Detective RAMSEY stated after helping take RUBY into the jail office he ran back out to the area of the shooting and saw a person lying on the pavement he later came to know as LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said about that time an ambulance arrived along with the city doctor and he helped persons at the scene put OSWALD in the ambulance and a short time after that he and Lieutenant McKINNEY and four other detectives went out to Parkland Memorial Hospital where he hlped maintain security.

Mr. RAMSEY stated prior to the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD he had never seen JACK RUBY and did not know him.

Mr. RAMSEY stated he did not know any police officers who worked for or were friendly with RUBY.

Mr. RAMSEY stated he did not know of any formal security measures that were to be taken in the handling of the transfer of OSWALD from the city jail to the county jail other than the instructions that were given to him by Captain JONES in the basement at which time JONES had told him and otherofficers to line up against the wall.

Mr. RAMSEY stated he does not know of any relationship between OSWALD and RUBY. He stated he did not see RUBY talking to anyone in the basement area and had not seen him before the shooting.

Mr. RAMSEY stated he did not know of any unauthorized persons being in the basement area, or of anyone who was permitted to be in the area without identification.

JERRY RAZ, Officer, upon interview at 517 Hardy, Garland, Texas, advised he reported for duty November 24, 1963, at approximately 9:30 a.m., to station 511 which is the traffic control office. Sergeants P. T. BEAN and PUTNAM were making assignments to the patrol officers blocking every intersection entering on Elm Street. Sergeant PUTNAM was calling off the street numbers and Sergeant BEAN was making the assignments.

At approximately 10:15 a.m., RAZ and approximately ten traffic officers went through the basement of the City Hall and into the parking area. At approximately 11:00 a.m. these officers left and reported to their traffic assignment.

Officer RAZ stated that he did not know what instructions had been assigned the police officers but on going through the basement, he noticed that there were news men, camera men and camera equipment in the basement. RAZ did not see anyone being challenged on entering the basement, but did notice that there was a police officer at each entrance to the basement.

Officer RAZ did not know of OSWALD's shooting until approximately 11:30 a.m., when instructed by police radio to report to Parkland Hospital where he worked traffic on arriving at that place.

Officer RAZ stated that he did not know JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He had heard JACK RUBY's name mentioned in connection with the Vegas Club on Oak Lawn and the Carousel Club, but did not know him and had never been in either club.

RAZ did not know whether or not RUBY knew OSWALD prior to the shooting and has heard no discussion among the Dallas Police Officers as to how RUBY gained entrance to the basement of the Municipal Building.

Detective M. BARON REYNOLDS, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, who resides at 1607 Pat Drive, Dallas, was contacted concerning the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on the morning of November 24, 1963, at the Dallas City Hall. REYNOLDS was advised he did not have to make a statement; that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law, and that he could consult an attorney at any time he desired. REYNOLDS voluntarily advised as follows:

On the morning of November 24, 1963, he was assigned by Lieutenant (FNU) SWAIN, Burglary and Theft Division, Dallas Police Department, to security duty in the lobby of the basement at City Hall, which area is adjacent to the basement ramp where OSWALD was shot and killed. REYNOLDS said he did not arrive at his duty station until approximately 11 a.m. He said to the best of his knowledge all exits to the basement were secure, but added he had no occasion to personally observe the basement ramp or the two exits to the ramp leading to Commerce and Main Streets. He stated that everyone in the lobby where he was assigned was required to properly identify himself and there was no unauthorized person in the lobby, to his knowledge.

He said at approximately 11:20 a.m. that morning he saw OSWALD leave the basement elevator, accompanied by two plain clothesmen. He and others in the lobby were able to see OSWALD as he left the elevator, through windows on one side of the lobby, but no one in the lobby could see OSWALD as he was led on to the basement ramp since the view was blocked shortly after OSWALD left the elevator. He said moments later he heard what sounded like a revolver being fired. He then heard someone yell that OSWALD had been shot, and he immediately proceeded to the Commerce Street side of the basement and instructed a uniformed officer, name unknown, on duty there to block the exit.

REYNOLDS said at the very moment he heard the shot he also heard Dallas Police Detective J. R. LEAVELLE, who was one of the two plain clothesmen escorting OSWALD on to the ramp, yell "You S.O.B." REYNOLDS later heard from unrecalled sources that Dallas Police Officer (FNU) VAUGHN of the Radio Patrol Division was on duty at the time of the shooting at the Main Street entrance to the basement ramp.

He also heard later from unrecalled sources there was a rumor to the effect that shortly before the shooting of OSWALD, JACK RUBY was seen getting out of an unattended Dallas police squad car parked in the basement parking area. He knew nothing further concerning this matter.

REYNOLDS said he did not see the basement ramp area immediately before or after OSWALD was shot and had no idea of the number of persons in the area at that time. He said the basement lobby just off the ramp area is separated by two doors, which were closed, and those in the lobby were unable to see the ramp area. He estimated there were some 20 people in the lobby area, including approximately eight Dallas Police Officers, and some twelve newsmen and photographers.

REYNOLDS never knew JACK RUBY and he never had any contact or association with him. Furthermore, he knew of no Dallas Police Officers who were acquainted with RUBY, and he knew none who worked for RUBY. Furthermore, being on duty in the lobby, REYNOLDS did not see the shooting of OSWALD and he never saw RUBY at any time.

He stated he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

Patrolman WILLIE B. SLACK, Dallas Police Department, who resides at 5605 Sumatra Street, Dallas, was interviewed at his residence. SLACK was advised that he was not required to make a statement; that any statement he did make might be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to legal counsel prior to making a statement.

Patrolman SLACK advised that on November 24, 1963, he was assigned to the City Jail Office from the hours of 6:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. This assignment was given him by Lieutenant WOODROW WIGGINS, Service Division.

Patrolman SLACK advised that he does not know JACK RUBY, has never met him and has never talked with him. He added that he has never been employed by RUBY at any of his establishments and knows of no other police officer who has been so employed.

Patrolman SLACK stated that his duty on November 24, 1963, was to advise the dispatcher when LEE HARVEY OSWALD wa placed in an armored car and removed from the basement area of City Hall to be taken to the County Jail. He stated that during the time he was on duty there, no one but authorized personnel was admitted in the Jail Office. He stated that at about 11:25 to 11:30 a.m. OSWALD was brought down to the Jail Office by elevator and there were two detectives on either side of them. They passed through the office and through the door leading to the corridors, which corridors lead to the ramp where cars entered and left the basement area. He stated that he could see fairly well this area through a 12x12 inch glass in the corridor door. He stated that he followed with his eyes OSWALD and the detectives but did not have a clear view of individuals beyond OSWALD, inasmuch as the detectives behind him cut off his field of vision. He stated he did not notice RUBY walk out and up to OSWALD and did not see the shot which was fired at OSWALD, although he heard same. He stated that immediately following the shot there was a great amount of confusion and from this time on he was concerning with keeping unauthorized personnel out of the Jail Office.

Patrolman SLACK stated that other than the men who walked through the office with OSWALD he cannot identify any other individuals, police officers or newsmen who were present in the basement area at the time of the shooting. He stated that he also has no idea concerning how many individuals were in the area, but he would estimate that the number would exceed 35 or 40 individuals.

Patrolman SLACK stated that he had cleared his office of all individuals between 7:30 and 8:00 a.m. on that date and that guards were placed at the office door and no one was allowed to enter and no one used the elevator, with the exception of OSWALD and the accompaning police officers up until the time of the shooting.

Mr. JERRY D. SLOCUM, 505 W. Melba, Dallas, Texas, was advised he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised of the identities of Special Agents EDMOND C. HARDIN and ROBERT J. WILKISON and that he had a right to talk to an attorney. No threats or promises were made to SLOCUM.

SLOCUM advised as follows:

SLOCUM is employed as a Police Clerk, Service Division, Dallas, Texas, Police Department Jail.

On November 24, 1963, he worked the 6:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. shift in the Booking Office which is his regular duty station. Lieutenant WIGGINS, in charge of the Service Division had previously assigned him to the Booking Office.

During the morning of November 24, 1963. he observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD escorted through the Booking Office. He understood OSWALD was taken to a show-up at that time.

Shortly after 11:00 a.m., the same morning, he observed OSWALD being escorted through the Booking Office by two detectives at the time OSWALD was in the process of being transferred from the Police Department Jail to the Dallas County Jail. One detective was on each side of OSWALD, several other police officers were behind them.

Booking Office. A few seconds later OSWALD was brought into the Booking Office and he observed that OSWALD had been shot. He did not see the shooting of OSWALD.

At the time of the shooting, other police officers working with him and present in the Booking Office were, JOHN NEWTON and WILLIE B. SLACK. The press and TV representatives were excluded from the Booking Office a few minutes prior to the time when OSWALD was brought into the Booking Office prior to being shot.

SLOCUM had nothing to do with the security of the basement area of the Police Department, but understood that all entrances were guarded He believes that there was a police officer standing guard at the Booking Office door.

He believes that a police officer, last name of LEWIS, operated the elevator which brought OSWALD down from upstairs prior to being shot.

SLOCUM stated he does not personally know JACK RUBY and would have not known RUBY if he had not seen him. He never worked in any night clubs operated by RUBY. He does not know any police officer who worked for RUBY and never heard of any officers working for RUBY. He did not see RUBY in the basement area until after the shooting.

SLOCUM is unable to estimate how many police officers, press and TV representatives were in the basement area. He does not know the names of any press or TV representatives that were in the basement area.

SLOCUM does not know of any unauthorized persons that were permitted to enter the basement.

SLOCUM stated he has never heard of any relationship

G. K. Springer I. C.

Patrolman GERALD K. SPRINGER, 12211 Sunland, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed and was immediately advised of the official identity of Special Agent LEO L. ROBERTSON. He was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to consult an attorney prior to making any statement. He then furnished the following information:

He advised that on November 24, 1963, he was in a patrol car in the downtown area. He stated a call came on the radio for any cars who were unassigned to check in the radio. He stated his call number was 111, and when he checked in, he was instructed to come to Central Headquarters and report to the Chief's office for assignment.

He stated that he drove into the Main Street ramp, that Patrolman VAUGEN was on duty along with a couple of reserve policemen, whose names he did not know. He stated he observed 10 or 15 people standing back a few feet from either side of the ramp but they were not trying to go down into the basement. He did not pay much attention to the crowd and did not recognize anyone standing there on the sidewalk. He stated he parked his car near the First Aid Station, which is located on the northeast corner of the basement garage and proceeded to the 3rd floor of the building to the Chief's office. He stated this was at approximately 10:30 a.m. as nearly as he can recall and that when he arrived on the 3rd floor, Patrolman ART HAMMETT advised him to pick up some telegrams and other mail and deliver it to Mrs. TIPPIT, the wife of the slain policeman. T. X

When he left the 3rd floor and started back to his car, he noticed several newsmen, cameras, photographers and other persons there, but he did not pay too much attention to them and did not recognize any of them. He stated there could have been 8 or 10 or possibly more, but he was not thinking about how many were there and could not give a more accurate estimate.

He advised he got in his car, pulled out of the police station, and was in the vicinity of Ervay and Jackson Streets when he received a call on the radio to report back to the Central Police Station. He stated he again drove through the Main Street entrance, was admitted by Patrolman VAUGHN and the same two reserve officers and parked his car in the same place as before in the basement. He stated he went back to the 3rd floor and Patrolman HAMMETT told him to disregard his assignment, that they would take the mail and so forth out to Mrs. TIPPIT later on.

He went back to the basement, contacted Sergeant PUTNAM and asked if there was anything he wanted him to do. Sergeant PUTNAM told him there was nothing for him to do, that all of the men had been assigned so he got back in his car, drove out the Commerce Street exit and left on a burglary investigation.

He stated he was in South Dallas approximately at the intersection of Hatcher and Scyene Streets when he heard on the radio that OSWALD had been shot. He stated he had formerly been on assignment where he worked downtown and made periodic checks in the Carousel Club and other "joints" of that nature, and he knew JACK RUBY when he saw him. He estimated it had been two or three months since he had seen RUBY and he did not see him in the basement or on Main Street the day of the shooting.

He advised he had never heard any information concerning a relationship between RUBY and OSWALD. He further advised he had never worked for RUBY and did not know of any police officers who had, stating it was against departmental regulations for a Dallas police officer to work in an establishment where alcoholic beverages were served.

1 Steele

Sgt. D. E. STEELE, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, residence 1707 Kent Drive, Arlington, Texas, furnished the following information:

On the morning of November 24, 1963, STEELE, who is stationed at the Oak Cliff Substation, reported to the Central Police Station with Reserve Officer HARRISON at about 9.15 AM. STEELE had not been previously instructed to report to the station but had gone to the station relative to disposition of some property belonging to Officer TIPPIT (Deceased).

He was instructed by Lieut. PIERCE to stand by in the patrol office for assignment.

About 9:30 AM, while at the Police Station, Captain TALBERT contacted STEELE and instructed him to get another man and check the buildings and roofs on the south side of Commerce Street across from the City Police Building. STEELE and Officer JEZ checked the roofs of the 2-story buildings and the doorways and other entrances to the buildings; however, they were unable to get on top of the 3-story buildings. After checking these buildings, they went back to the police building and Captain TALBERT told him to take some reserve officers and move the spectators across to the south side of Commerce Street as they were blocking the police ramp and the police building doorway.

STEELE took five reserve officers and moved the spectators as instructed. He then took the reserve officers and stationed them at intersections on the north side of Commerce Street west of the police building and instructed them to move pedestrians to the south side of Commerce Street.

STEELE then went down into the basement and ramp area of the police building and assisted Sgt. DEANE in restricting the newsmen and TV men in the basement area. STEELE estimated there were from sixty to seventy people in the basement at that time, including police officers. To his knowledge, no unauthorized persons were allowed entrance to the basement, and he saw some persons being checked by officers at the entrance as they came into the building.

He assisted Sgt. DEANE and Sgt. PUTNAM in assigning officers traffic corners on Elm Street. TALBERT instructed STEELE to report to the Traffic Command Post at Elm and Houston Street and to secure three traffic men to complete the coverage of all traffic on Elm Street. STEELE was not present in the basement of the Police Building at the time LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. STEELE did not have knowledge of security measures in effect in the Police Building on November 24, 1963, other than his particular assignments.

STEELE has known JACK RUBY for approximately eight years, having become acquainted with him when he worked a district in North Dallas which joined the district wherein was located the Vegas Club operated by JACK RUBY. He had answered several calls to RUBY's place of business and thereafter occasionally ran into RUBY in the Dallas area. He has not seen RUBY in approximately two years. He was never in any of the clubs operated by RUBY except in his official capacity and was not acquainted with RUBY socially although he has been invited to RUBY's place on several occasions.

STEELE has never been employed by RUBY at any of the clubs operated by RUBY, nor does he have knowledge of any other officers who were employed by RUBY. STEELE advised that at one time he answered an assist-officer call to the Vegas Club, and on arrival at the club with another officer they found an unruly customer in the back of the club. As they were attempting to place handcuffs on this individual, RUBY ran into the room with a blackjack and began hitting the man on the head with a blackjack.

STEELE had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD, to his knowledge, and does not have any information regarding any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

(1) I. R. Stephens

Detective IVAN R. STEPHENS, Burglary and Theft Detail, Dallas Police Department, residing at 11306 Staloup, Dallas, Texas, was advised that he did not have to make a statement; that any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law, and that he was entitled to talk with an attorney. He furnished the following information:

STEPHENS was instructed, on the morning of November 24, 1963, which is the day that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot in the Dallas Police Department, to go to the lobby of the basement area of the Dallas Police Department. Lieutenant SWAIN of the Burglary Detail, ordered him and approximately two or three other officers, whose identities he cannot recall at this time, to go to the lobby and "help any way we could." These instructions came just prior to the transfer time of OSWALD. STEPHENS and the other unidentified officers got to the lobby of the basement, and he thought there would be a supervisor there to give him instructions, but there was no supervisor to tell him what to do.

He stood in the lobby in front of the windows through which one can look and see the booking desk of the Sergeant. He had to show his badge on several occasions during the day, but when he arrived in the lobby he does not believe he was required to identify himself.

He estimated that there were 8 or 9 photographers and cameramen in the lobby which is a small area, and the area was quite crowded. He did not try to go on to the ramp area at that time but saw through the windows that OSWALD was being brought out of the elevator and on to the ramp area. Immediately after he heard the pistol shot he went to the swinging doors leading from the lobby area to the ramp area. He saw only turmoil and then realized that the officers were trying to get OSWALD back inside the booking room. He helped keep the crowd back as they returned OSWALD and got RUBY through the door into the booking area.

STEPHENS said he did not know of the entire security taken by the Dallas Police Department or what the overall plan was. He did notice approximately eight or nine photographers and four or five detectives in the lobby area, which area he had been sent to observe. He would estimate there were approximately 35 to 40 persons in the ramp area when OSWALD was brought out to the ramp area.

Detective STEPHENS said that he knew JACK RUBY and knew his name. In approximately 1955 when he was assigned to work in the area which covers the 3400 block of Oak Lawn Street, he went into RUBY's place and talked with RUBY there on two or three occasions. He has been in JACK RUBY's place in downtown Dallas on one occasion. He went in there on this occasion with Officer DELUNEY (phonetic). They stayed in RUBY's place approximately 10 or 15 minutes, and it is his understanding that DELUNEY had put JACK RUBY in jail on one occasion.

STEPHENS stated he had never worked for RUBY in any capacity.

STEPHENS said that it is his opinion that RUBY probably came through one of the ramp entrances and probably flashed some kind of card. He said that he suspects that the officer to whom RUBY displayed the card did not look closely at the card, and in view of the fact that RUBY had been around that area for some time, the officer apparently thought RUBY was one of the newsmen there. He admitted that he had nothing to base this on, but he suspects that is probably the way RUBY got into the basement of the Dallas Police Department on November 24. He did not talk to RUBY or see him between November 22, 1963, and November 24, 1963.

STEPHENS said that he has no information regarding any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

1 U. SUITS Date 12/4/63

DONALD T. SUITS, 233 Sendero, Garland, Texas, advised that he was a Dallas Reserve Policeman who was on duty the day OSWALD was shot in the Central Police Station. He advised that Lieutenant BEN MC COY, Police Reserve Lieutenant, called and told him to report to the Assembly Room in the Central Police Station between 9:00 and 9:15 AM, on November 24, 1963. He stated his assignment was to check the reserve men in as they reported for duty. He recalled there were about twenty-six of them.

He stated that Sergeant DEAN, of the regular Police Department, came in about 9:20 AM and asked the reserves to help "shake" the basement down. He stated that the reserves, as well as regular police officers, checked every car and newsmen in the basement and found everything in order.

SUITS advised he did not see the shooting, as he was standing on the west side of the first car that was parked in the driveway just outside the corridor where they led OSWALD out. He stated he was trying to keep the crowd back on the east side of the driveway at the time the shooting occurred and, therefore, was unable to see it. He stated he looked around immediately after hearing a noise, which he thought was a flash bulb popping at the time, and saw several plain-clothes men struggling with a man whom he later found out was RUBY. He advised he had heard of RUBY, but had never met him and would not have known him had he seen him. He never heard of any reserves or regular police officers who had worked for RUBY.

SUITS estimated there were probably at least 100 people in the basement besides the police officers and he assumed that most of them were newsmen, photographers, and television cameramen. He stated he saw a few people, probably five or six, come down the south ramp where the armored truck was parked prior to the time of the shooting and, in each instance, the officers standing there required them to show identification before they allowed them to pass. He stated that about five or six minutes before the shooting they apparently had stopped everyone from coming in, as he did not see anyone coming down during that interval.

SUITS advised that he did not know any of the security measures, but surmised that they were planning on bringing an armored car into the area, inasmuch as he saw some officers measuring the wall prior to the time they placed the armored truck at the head of the ramp on the Commerce Street side. They had determined they could not get the armored truck down to the entrance of the corridor. He further advised that, inasmuch as he did not know RUBY, he would not have thought anything about it had he seen him there, inasmuch as he did not know any of the newsmen, etc., gathered there. He stated he had not heard any talk or anything of that nature concerning the relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

BILL M. SWAFFORD, Patrolman, Police Department, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He presently resides at 3252 Hillglenn, Dallas, Texas, residence phone BR 9-4641. He has been employed by the Police Department for the past nine and one-half years in the Radio Patrol Division. He is acquainted with a CAROL DEAVERS, who last resided at 5005 San Jacinto, Dallas, Texas, but he has not seen her for about five months. He first met her at the Lassoo Bar in the 200 block of South Akard Street, in Dallas, about six years ago. At that time, he was working in Patrol District 105 and it was part of his duties to check the various bars in the district. She frequented the Lassoo Bar as well as a number of other bars in Dallas and, after seeing her on a number of occasions, became personally acquainted with her. He believed she was about seventeen years old when he first met her. They became very good friends as time went by and he felt that she considered him as an advisor, as she often called him for advice while he was on the job. He never became intimate with her, however.

CAROL very much resented her mother, as her mother had attempted to give her away as a child and, therefore, did not get along with her. On one occasion, CAROL was in some kind of difficulty and asked him to take her to her home. He took her home and on the following day CAROL's mother called the Personnel Department of the police station and complained that her daughter was being shown the affections of a married man. No disciplinary action was taken against him as a result of this call, however.

CAROL entered amateur strip-tease contests at the Theater Lounge, the Colony Club, and the Carousel Club in Dallas and was quite successful, as she was a fairly attractive girl. Later, she asked him if he knew where she could get a job in a strip-tease club, this being several years ago. Knowing JACK RUBY, as a result of having checked his places of business, he asked RUBY for her if she could get a job with him. She eventually was employed by RUBY and did exotic dances at one of RUBY's clubs under the name SUNNY SPAIN. She also worked at the Colony Club for ABE ~~WF~~INSTEIN, he believed.

As concerned JACK RUBY, he met him some years ago through his work on the Police Department. He did not know RUBY at all well but saw him numerous times in the line of duty and on a few occasions when he socially visited RUBY's clubs. He characterized RUBY as being a very temperamental individual, who would not hesitate to loudly scold the employees in his place of business when speaking to a uniformed police officer, causing considerable embarrassment to the officers which, on occasions, included himself. He was disliked by many of his female employees for that reason. He never knew of RUBY to carry a gun and knows nothing concerning his background, personal life, or political convictions. The only favors that RUBY ever did for him was to occasionally buy him a cup of coffee and about three years ago he recalled RUBY buying him a Pizza Pie. He never asked RUBY for anything and it was obvious to him, as well as to his other police officers, that RUBY liked policemen.

He has not seen RUBY for some time and did not recall seeing him after the President's assassination at any time in the Dallas Police Department. He was not a member of the security force at any time during the week end of November 24, 1963, and could furnish no information concerning that matter.

He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and knows of no relationship between RUBY and OSWALD. He does not recall anyone possibly identical with OSWALD in Dallas or, in particular, during his routine patrol duties in the downtown area.

On December 4, 1963, JESSIE WILLIS SYKES, residence 4915 Brasshere, Dallas, Texas, employed as a shoe shine boy in the Dallas Police Department locker room, advised Special Agents JOHN E. DALLMAN and R. NEIL QUIGLEY that on November 24, 1963, he was working at the Police Department locker room and felt that business that morning was very slow and decided to leave the building about 9:30 or 10:00 A.M. He took his camera and located himself across the street from the Commerce Street entrance where he noticed two armored cars being brought up.

He remained across the street from the Commerce Street entrance until after the shooting of OSWALD by JACK RUBY.

He did not at any time that morning, go to the Main Street ramp entrance and he did not see and does not know N. J. DANIELS, the former colored police officer. He is not acquainted with RUBY or OSWALD and knows nothing whatsoever about them except as stated above.

1 LESTER COY TAYLOR Date 12/2/63

LESTER COY TAYLOR, 9420 Fairhope, advised that on November 24, 1963, he was assigned to work in Captain TALBERT's office. He advised that at 11:00 AM, Captain TALBERT told him to go down to the ramp and see if he could be of any assistance. He went down to the ramp and Sergeant PAT DEAN told him to go to the top of the ramp on the Commerce Street side where the armored truck was backed into position. He stated that the truck was against the wall on the west side of the truck, so close that no one could go between the wall and the truck. He stated that the truck was facing south and he was stationed on the east side of the truck. He stated that about five minutes before OSWALD was supposed to be brought out, Patrolman D. L. PATE told him to get to the bottom of the ramp immediately in back of the truck and that no one was to come in or go out. He did not see the shooting. He advised that he had known RUBY since approximately 1959 when he patrolled the district where RUBY's club known as the Vegas was located on Oaklawn. He stated he just knew RUBY when he saw him but had never talked to him. He further advised he had never worked for RUBY and knew of no one who had. He advised at the time he went to the station, he would estimate that there were probably 100 people in the basement consisting of newsmen, T.V. cameramen and Policemen and so forth. He advised he did not know any of the newsmen or cameramen, that he did not pay much attention to what officers were there other than Sergeant DEAN who gave him an assignment and sent him over where the armored truck was located. He advised he did not see any of these people when he came to the basement, therefore, he has no knowledge concerning the identification that they used to be admitted to the basement. He advised that he did not know any details concerning the planning of the security measures that were in effect in the basement on November 24, 1963, but that prior to the time Captain TALBERT had sent him down to the basement, he had been working in the Captain's office and Lieutenant R. S. PIERCE had him calling the dispatcher on the phone and ordering squads to park their cars on the street around City Hall and report to the Captain's office, which is in Room 511. 1 G. L. Tolbert Date 12/2/63

GERALD LEE TOLBERT, Patrolman, Dallas, Texas Police Department, 4346 Birch, advised that he, on 11/24/63, was in a patrol car and was called to the Central Station at approximately 9:40 AM. He stated he went to the Captain's office where he received his instructions and then went to the basement around 10:25 AM. He stated Sergeant PUTNAM told him to put his squad car in line behind one of the other cars. He stated five or six minutes later, he told him to back his car over into the parking area in the basement and stand by his car. He was also told to get three other officers with shotguns to go in the car with him. He stated that about ten minutes later, Sergeant PUTNAM told him and Patrolman HIBBS to take their positions at the bottom of the north ramp which comes in off of Main Street to check all vehicles and make sure that no one other than authorized officers were in any cars that came in. He stated he returned there for approximately ten minutes or near 11:00 AM and that he and the other men were briefed in the northeast part of the basement near the emergency room. He stated that Sergeant PUTNAM gave out the assignments and that Sergeant DEAN wrote them down in his notebook. He said he was told to proceed to the north side of Main Street just west of Harwood, which is the street running immediately west of the City Hall, get his car and proceed to the intersection of Elm and Central Expressway. He stated the Sergeant told him a squad car would precede the armored truck, that the squad car would have flashing red lights on it and that when he saw this squad car approaching, he was to stop all traffic and let the squad car and the truck come through. He did not see the shooting and did not know RUBY. He stated he had heard some of the officers say that RUBY owned the Carousel and the Vegas Club but knew nothing else about him. He stated he had never worked for RUBY, had never seen him to his knowledge and did not know of any other person who had been employed by RUBY. He stated that when he went to the basement there were approximately eight or ten cameramen, television men and newsmen, but that he did not know any of them. He did not know who permitted these people to come into the basement inasmuch as they were there when he arrived. He stated he did not know all the details on the security measures but that he did know the basement had been searched

Detective IRA FREDDIE VAN CLEAVE, a member of the Dallas Police Department, who resides at 226 South Shore Place, Louisville, Texas, telephone KE 9-2613, was interviewed at which time he was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was also advised that he had the right to consult an attorney prior to making any statement. He furnished the following information:

Detective VAN CLEAVE advised he is a detective assigned to the Burglary and Theft Section of the Dallas Police Department and was working his regular duty schedule at 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on the day of November 24, 1963.

At approximately 9:00 a.m. this same date, under the direction of Lieutenant SWAIN, he and several other detectives from the Burglary and Theft Section were directed to stand by in the area for which purpose he believed to be the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the City Jail to the County Jail. He advised that to the best of his knowledge none of the detectives in Burglary had received any instructions concerning the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and were just "hanging around" the office for further instructions.

At approximately 11:00 a.m., exact time he could not recall, Lt. SWAIN entered the Burglary area and told Detective VAN CLEAVE and the other detectives in the area to "ease downstairs" Although he did not receive any specific instructions, Detective VAN CLEAVE interpreted this to mean that he and the other detectives were to proceed to the basement area of City Hall to give assistance in the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Shortly thereafter, he and two other detectives, who he identified as being D. G. BRANTLEY and HOMER McGEE, both of the Burglary Section, proceeded to the public elevator and boarded the elevator that was to take them to the basement level. At the time he boarded the elevator on the 3rd floor, Detective VAN CLEAVE noticed there were either one or two individuals accompanying a large camera to the basement level. He stated the men appeared to be cameramen with a local news media; however, he could not be sure exactly who they were.

Detective VAN CLEAVE advised that upon arrival at the basement level of the City Hall, he observed what appeared to be a solid line of cameramen, newsmen and police officers who were at that time lined on both sides of the hall. He estimated that approximately 50 individuals were standing inside the basement area at the time of his observation. He went on to say that he then proceeded to work his way through the crowd and finally reached the windows of the jail office which is located just inside the exit leading to the parking area on the basement level of City Hall.

Again, Detective VAN CLEVE stated he could not be sure of the exact time, but felt that it was approximately five minutes after he had arrived at the basement that he looked through the jail office window and observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD being escorted from the jail elevator by several detectives. He was not aware of the identity of all the detectives escorting OSWALD; however, he did notice that Lieutenant SWAIN and Captain FRITZ were in front of OSWALD when they departed the elevator. He continued to observe OSWALD being escorted through the jail office and finally out the exit to the ramp-way that leads to the parking area of City Hall. Once OSWALD was taken through the exit, Detective VAN CLEAVE could no longer see what was taking place.

Detective VAN CLEAVE advised that shortly after OSWALD was taken through the exit, he heard what appeared to him as a pistol shot and immediately thereafter observed a lot of commotion in the ramp-way area. He did not realize what had actually happened until he saw some of the detectives and police officers bringing LEE HARVEY OSWALD back into the jail office, and at this time he realized that OSWALD had been shot. After realizing what had happened, Detective VAN CLEAVE proceeded to the middle part of the ramp-way leading into Main Street in order to give assistance in controlling the members of the news media that had congregated in the area. To the best of his knowledge, no one was authorized to leave the immediate area after the shooting of OSWALD, and he stated that he was quite sure that no one left the area by means of the Main Street exit.

Detective VAN CLEAVE advised he stayed in the ramp-way area for a short period of time until he was directed by Captain JONES to accompany Lieutenant McKINNEY to the Parkland Hospital. He said they went to the 3rd floor of the City Hall, gathered some of the detectives that were in the area and thereafter proceeded to Parkland Hospital. He added that he was at the hospital until approximately 4:30 p.m. that day and during the time he was stationed there, he was directed to search all of the news media people that had requested entrance to the hospital. Each newsman that entered the hospital was searched and checked for proper identification prior to gaining entrance. At approximately 4:30 p.m. that day, Detective VAN CLEAVE was relieved and returned to police headquarters.

Detective VAN CLEAVE stated he also did not consider himself a close associate of JACK RUBY and stated he had only met RUBY in his place of business during the past few years. He added that RUBY was somewhat of a "character" and had heard his name mentioned in conversations throughout the police department. He was aware that RUBY was the owner and manager of the Carousel Club but had no idea he owned the Vegas Club.

In regard to RUBY's background, Detective VAN CLEAVE stated RUBY gave the impression he was a friendly individual, but because of his limited contact, was unable to determine the extent of his friendliness. He stated he could recall that RUBY was a complainant a few years ago and was under the impression that it concerned a theft of some sort. He was unable to give the exact circumstances surrounding the complaint and felt that it was a nebulous theft.

Detective VAN CLEAVE advised he knew of no unauthorized individuals that were allowed to enter the basement level of City Hall prior to the shooting of OSWALD and was unable to identify any other individuals other than the officials connected with the transfer. He could not recall any particular measures that were taken in regard to the security of the basement, and stated he personally did not receive instructions concerning the transfer. He related that he did not talk with RUBY any time between November 22 and 24, 1963, and to the best of his recollection he had not talked to RUBY in almost a year.

Detective VAN CLEAVE advised he has never discussed any political matters with RUBY during the previous years and was not aware of RUBY's thinking in regard to political matters. Detective VAN CLEAVE further stated that although he had heard through rumors that RUBY was "a funny individual", he did not have any personal knowledge of this fact. He explained this by saying that rumors had spread throughout the area that RUBY was a "queer." Detective VAN CLEAVE could not elaborate in regard to this matter inasmuch as his information was only hearsay and through rumors.

Detective VAN CLEAVE advised he did not know any connection between OSWALD and RUBY and inasmuch as he did not know OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY, he would definitely have no information of any relationship of OSWALD and RUBY if there were any.

Detective VAN CLEAVE stated he had furnished the Chief of Police of the Dallas Police Department a signed statement regarding his knowledge of the matter and that the information furnished in his signed statement is substantially the same information as furnished to interviewing agents.

1 Date December 2, 1963

ROY EUGENE VAUGHN furnished the following voluntary information, after being advised of the identity of WARREN A. LARSON and RAYMOND M. LESTER, JR. as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He was advised that no threats, promises or duress would be used to induce him to furnish any statement. He was also advised that any information he furnished could be later used in a court of law against him and of his right to an attorney.

VAUGHN, 3231 Loganwood Drive, Dallas, advised he is a patrolman with Dallas Police Department in the Patrol Division. VAUGHN advised that on November 24, 1963, he was riding in Dallas Police Department car number 105 in a routine patrol duty. At approximately 9:00 AM, he received a radio call from the dispatcher to immediately call the station, extension 511, which is the Patrol Office. He immediately called as ordered and was instructed by the dispatcher to return to the station, park his patrol car on the street and report to the Patrol Office. Upon his arrival at the Patrol Office, several other officers were also waiting there. They had a cup of coffee together and approximately five minutes after his arrival, LT. R. E. PIERCE came into the Patrol Office and gave instructions to the men present. He advised the other officers present were B. G. PATTERSON, Patrolman, R. C. NELSON, Patrolman, A. R. BROCK, Patrolman. He advised he does not know the exact assignment given to the other officers but that he was told to report to Sergeant P. T. DEAN, in the basement of the Dallas Police Department Building and tell Sergeant DEAN that when "this thing is over" two patrolmen should be left on duty in the basement and the other two dismissed. He advised he was not told what was going to happen but suspected it was in connection with the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the Dallas City Jail to the Dallas County Jail, as he had heard this was to take place. He immediately reported to Sergeant DEAN and to SERGEANT J. A. PUTNAM, who was also in the basement. At this time there was a considerable amount of television equipment and several people both police and persons dressed in civilian clothing in the basement of the Police Department Building. He advised that Sergeant PUTNAM instructed him to go to the top of the ramp at the Main Street entrance which would be on the north side of the building. His instructions were to admit no person except the press and police officers and that no one without a press pass or official police credentials was to be admitted under any circumstances. VAUGHN advised he reached his station at approximately 9:30 AM. He advised he could not state what instructions were given to the other police officers but he believes that officers E. G. PATTERSON was sent to the Commerce Street entrance to the ramp on the south side of the building. VAUGHN advised the first person who came through the Main Street entrance was a Department of Public Safety Officer, assigned to the License Bureau, but he could not recall his name. He advised he let this person pass upon examining his credentials which bore his picture. Between this time and the time OSWALD was brought out of the police building into the basement of the building, the following persons were either at the Main Street entrance and talked with him or were admitted to the basement area:

(1) Approximately 10:30 AM, a former Dallas Police Department Officer, named M. J. DANIELS, a Negro came to the entrance of the ramp and talked to him for a little while and remained in the vicinity until after the shooting occurred. DANIELS was not permitted entrance to the building.

(2) R. A. WATKINS, Patrolman, driving a patrol car with four juveniles in custody.

(3) The City Doctor, name unknown, who has offices in the Police Building.

(4) Dallas Police Department paddy wagon, driven by Officer LEWIS, an officer who works in the jail on the fourth floor. In connection with this, VAUGHN noted that he stopped the paddy wagon with Officer LEWIS before admitting him and he noticed that when the paddy wagon stopped in the basement, Sergeant PUTMAN searched the back of the paddy wagon.

(5) Officer G. K. SPRINGER, driving a police squad car.

(6) TONMY CORBET, who is known by VAUGHN to be a city-employed mechanic. CORBET was on business and was driving a Dallas Police Department squad car. In connection with CORBET, VAUGHN advised he did not permit CORBET to drive the squad car into the basement, but rather made him park it on the street and then walk to the basement area. He advised CORBET remained in the basement three or four minutes and then left again by the Main Street entrance.

(7) United Press or Associated Press representative who had a press card with his photograph thereon. His name was not recorded.

(8) A newsman, reporter with WFAA Radio or TV, who carried an official card bearing his name and photograph. His name was not recorded.

(9) VAUGHN advised that during this period, two men whose identity he does not know, but who were apparently with a television station, came up the ramp and walked west on Main Street, to an automobile and then returned carrying television or radio equipment. He advised inasmuch as they had come out of the building and he watched them to be certain they were the same persons who had come out, he re-admitted them to the basement area without asking any questions. He advised neither was JACK RUBY.

VAUGHN advised that about 11:00 AM a large crowd of people had gathered at the edge of the ramp on the Main Street side, but none asked for admittance but appeared merely curious as to what was going on. He said that about this time he noticed a group of officers moving around in the basement area and from his vantage point, it appeared they went into the parking area. He stated he did not know what they were doing but assumed they were searching for unauthorized persons concealed in the parking area. VAUGHN stated that shortly after 11:00 AM, a group of people, not police officers, appeared in the basement area but he could not recall who any of them were as he could not recognize them from where he was standing. VAUGHN related about this time, Sergeant DEAN came to where he was standing and advised him "We're going to move OSWALD in an armored car". He said that about this time, he noticed an armored car travelling south on Harwood Street, and this was the only time he saw the armored car on that date. He said about ten minutes later, an unmarked patrol car with red lights in the grill, came up the Main Street ramp, exited from the building and turned on Main Street. This car was occupied by LT. PIERCE, Sergeant MAXEY and Sergeant PUTNAM. He said that about three minutes after that, he heard someone yell "Here he comes" and within a matter of seconds he heard what sounded like a shot. He then heard someone yell "He's shot". Immediately the crowd at the Main Street entrance began moving toward him trying to look into the basement area of the police department and he turned and moved them back. He then drew his gun and faced into the ramp in the event someone tried to leave by that entrance. VAUGHN stated he saw a group of people scuffling and an arm extended, with a gun in the hand but he could not determine to whom the arm and hand belonged from where he was standing.

At about this point, a Detective of the Dallas Police Department ran toward VAUGHN and was immediately grabbed and almost thrown to the ground by a uniformed Dallas Police Department reserve officer, as the reserve officer did not recognize the Detective and thought he was possibly a subject trying to escape. The Detective identified himself to the reserve officer and then came to the Main Street ramp and remained with VAUGHN to help him guard the exit. This Detective's name was BURGESS.

A short time later, Captain C. E. TALBERT came to the Main Street exit and said "No one leaves, and if anyone does, have them to leave their name and address and what they saw." He advised that at abot this time, an ambulance followed by a squad car with red lights blinking, came into the ramp from Main Street and into the basement of the building. He advised the ambulance did not leave the building by that exit but left the building by the Commerce exit. VAUGHN advised that only one man, a "Dallas Morning News" reporter named MILLIGAN, left the Main Street exit after the shooting. He advised he talked to MILLIGAN concerning what he had seen and MILLIGAN told him he had seen nothing as he did not arrive until after the shooting was over. VAUGHN advised Detective BURGESS stayed with him on the ramp for a while and then he, VAUGHN, went into the street to direct traffic as a great number of automobiles were beginning to stop, and cause a terrific traffic jam. He advised that in a short time however, five reserve officers relieved him directing traffic and he returned to his post at the ramp entrance. He advised he did not know the identities of any reserve officers. He said he stayed at the ramp entrance until 12:45 or 12:50 PM, November 24, 1963.

At approximately 12:45 PM, a white male came up to him and told him he was an employee of JACK RUBY and would like to talk to someone about what had happened. He said he had one of the reserve officers take over his post and escorted this individual to the basement of the police building, where he called Captain FRITZ' Office and talked to Detective BOYD. He told Detective BOYD of this person's presence and BOYD immediately came to the basement to talk with him. He advised that he and BOYD searched this individual and then BOYD escorted him upstairs. He said he did not obtain this person's name but it could be obtained from Detective BOYD. VAUGHN advised he then contacted LT. PIERCE in the Patrol Office and was instructed by LT. PIERCE to secure his post, which he did and then returned to patrol duty.

TCV

VAUGHN advised he is positive JACK RUBY did not enter the Main Street entrance to the ramp of the Dallas Police Department between 9:30 AM and 12:45 PM, November 24, 1963. He said he does know JACK RUBY by sight as he met him on official business in 1959 at which time RUBY operated the Vegas Club. He said this contact was in the presence of two other Dallas Police Detectives, names not recalled and was concerning an employee of RUBY, a white waitress, who was reportedly intimate with a Negro musician at the Vegas Club. He advised he does not know any other circumstances of the case. VAUGHN advised that in December, 1961, he stopped RUBY for a minor traffic violation, reprimanded him and turned him loose without giving him a ticket. VAUGHN advised that other than these two occasions, he has never seen RUBY at any place and has never heard or seen anything which might indicate RUBY associated with any Dallas police officer, except on an official basis.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Captain O. A. JONES of the Dallas Police Department advised December 9, 1963, that ROY EUGENE VAUGHN, the officer stationed at the entrance on Main Street side of the Dallas Police Department Basement on November 24, 1963, had been given a polygraph test by Detective PAUL BENTLY of the Dallas Police Department. VAUGHN, according to JONES, was stationed at a post to provide security at the time of the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the Dallas City Jail to the County Jail on November 24, 1963. JONES stated that VAUGHN was asked intensive questions concerning JACK L. RUBY and if he had seen RUBY that day or if he had let RUBY pass or if he knew how RUBY got into the building on that date. JONES stated that the entire test reflected that VAUGHN did not recall seeing RUBY, talking to him or hearing about him in any manner whatsoever on November 24, 1963, until he had shot OSWALD. In other words JONES stated the polygraph test given to VAUGH would not reflect any knowledge on the part of VAUGHN or how RUBY gained entrance to the Police Building on November 24, 1963.

HOMER JOE WAGES, 1639 Barlow, was contacted at his residence at which time he was advised of the nature of the investigation, the official identity of the interviewing agents and the fact that he did not have to make a statement, and that any statement made by him could be used against him in a court of law against him. He was advised of his right to an attorney. DALLAS, 1 1

WAGES stated that on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, at about 9:00 AM, he was patrolling with Officer THOMAS R. GREGORY in the area covered by Squad 93, when he received a radio call from the Dallas Police Dispatcher requesting his patrol unit to report to Station 511. WAGES advised his partner, Patrolman GREGORY, telephoned Station 511 which is the office of the Chief of Police and was told to immediately report to the office of the Chief of Police at the Police and Courts Building. WAGES stated he arrived at the Police and Courts Building at about 9:20 AM in company with GREGORY and remained in the office of the Chief of Police until approximately 9:45 AM, at which time he was told by Captain TALBERT to go to the basement of the Police Building and receive assignments there. WAGES said there were approximately fifteen patrolmen at this time in the Chief's Office. WAGES said that Sergeant DEAN and Sergeant PUTNAM were in the basement giving assignments and he received an assignment to direct traffic at the intersection of Main Street and Central Expressway, which intersection is adjacent to the basement of the Police Building. WAGES stated he was in the basement receiving his assignment for about thirty minutes before taking his position at the intersection. He stated he remained at the intersection until 11:50 AM, when a passing motorist told him that OSWALD had been shot. WAGES said he thought this was a ruse by the Police Department to fool the public but when he actually saw the ambulance emerge from the basement and head for Parkland Hospital, he went to his car radio, switched to Channel 2 and heard Captain TALBERT calling for men to report to Parkland Hospital. He advised he signalled his partner, GREGORY, who was directing traffic at the intersection of Elm Street and Central Expressway, and in company with GREGORY proceeded to the hospital. Upon arriving at the hospital, WAGES stated he found the emergency driveway entrance completely jammed with traffic and he and GREGORY spent the next thirty minutes clearing the entrance.

WAGES stated that it was then approximately 12:30 PM and Sergeant STEELE, his immediate supervisor, told him to accompany him on a tour of the hospital grounds in an attempt to set up maximum security. WAGES stated the area around the hospital was in a state of confusion and no one seemed to know what to do. WAGES advised that after he heard that OSWALD had expired he returned to the Police Station.

WAGES advised that since he was not in the basement at the time OSWALD was shot, he did not see the shooting and did not hear any shots fired. He said he is not acquainted with RUBY and has never seen him personally and has never been employed by him. He said he does not know of any officers on the Police force who were employed by RUBY. He advised that during the time he was in the basement of the Police Building, there were approximately a dozen other individuals present who were not Police Officers and he assumed that they were personnel from the various news media. He stated he did not recognize any of these individuals. He stated he was not briefed on the security measures being taken on November 24, 1963, to remove OSWALD from the Police Department but while in the basement he did see some auxiliary policemen present and noticed that there were two patrolmen assigned to the two ramp entrances to the parking area. He advised he does not know of any unauthorized persons being admitted to the basement or of anyone being permitted to enter without identification.

WAGES advised that he was not acquainted with OSWALD, had never seen him and did not know of any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

WAGES stated that during the time he was in the office of the Chief of Police between 9:20 and 9:45 AM, on November 24, 1963, he overheard Captain TALBERT tell Lieutenant PIERCE to conduct a search of the basement and to check the identity of all persons and to remove all persons not having press credentials or who were Police Officers. WAGES said he does not know what action Lieutenant PIERCE took but he heard PIERCE mention he already had a squad of four men to carry out this order.

R. C. WAGNER, Detective, Dallas, Texas Police Department, advised that upon arriving at work on the morning of November 24, 1963, he was instructed by Lieutenant ROBERT MC KINSEY to stand by for an assignment in connection with the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. WAGNER said Lieutenant MC KINSEY indicated OSWALD was to be taken from the Police Station about 10:00 a.m. WAGNER stated he was returning to the station after a coffee break about 10:00 a.m. and noted that officers and newsmen were gathering in the basement. He stated he joined them and at about 10:50 a.m., Captain O. A. JONES informed the officers that OSWALD was to be moved shortly and for the officers to form a sort of corridor from the exit to the armored car in which OSWALD was to ride. WAGNER stated he would estimate that there were 25 or more officers there most of whom he did not know by name. He stated the place appeared filled with newsmen in addition to policemen. WAGNER stated he took a position in one of the lines a few feet from the armored car which was parked in the ramp facing the Commerce Street exit. He stated they were alerted when OSWALD was being brought into the basement area, but his view was obstructed by a police car sitting behind the armored car. WAGNER stated he heard the shot fired by RUBY but did not actually see the shooting.

WAGNER stated RUBY was unknown to him prior to the shooting.

WAGNER stated he did not know of the overall security measures instituted by police officials, and he was only familiar with the above noted instructions.

WAGNER stated he was dressed in plain clothes on November 24, 1963, and he personally did not request to see the identification of the people in the basement who were WAGNER stated he did not recall seeing the man, later identified as JACK RUBY, prior to the shooting, either inside or outside the basement at the Police Department.

WAGNER advised that he had never seen or heard of JACK RUBY before November 24, 1963. He said that he had never been employed by RUBY and did not know any other officers or former officers of the Dallas Police Department, or any other law enforcement agency, who had ever been employed by JACK RUBY.

WAGNER stated that he knows of no connection or relationship between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Patrolman TRUETT EARL WALTON, 8914 Santa Clara, Dallas, Texas, telephone DA 7-5468, was interviewed at the Dallas Police Department concerning his relationship with JACK RUBY. Officer WALTON furnished the following information:

WALTON went to work for the Dallas Police Department on May 28, 1956, and has been continuously employed since that time. He first met JACK RUBY during the latter part of 1959, and has seen him occasionally since that time. His association with RUBY has been purely social in nature and he has never been an employee of RUBY's. He first met RUBY when he and his wife started going to the Carousel Club during the latter part of 1959. WALTON and his wife continued periodically to go to the Carousel Club from the latter part of 1959 to May, 1962, when WALTON and his wife were divorced. Since May, 1962, on rare occasions, WALTON has taken dates to the Carousel and Vegas Clubs to see the shows.

WALTON knows very little concerning RUBY's personal life and although he has talked to him on numerous occasions he knows nothing concerning RUBY's political beliefs and stated frankly that he did not know RUBY felt strongly concerning any particular political philosophy.

Since RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, WALTON has heard that RUBY is bi-sexual and prefers men to women. WALTON has seen a photograph of OSWALD and stated that he has never seen OSWALD in the company of RUBY, nor has he ever seen OSWALD in the Carousel Club. WALTON stated that numerous policemen are acquainted with RUBY, but he knows of no particular policeman with whom RUBY is particularly close. WALTON last saw RUBY approximately 60 days prior to the time that RUBY shot OSWALD.

At the time of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and the shooting of OSWALD, Officer WALTON was off duty and could furnish no information concerning these two events.

R.A. WATKINS

Patrolman RICHARD ALLEN WATKINS, Patrol Division, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed regarding the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

WATKINS advised that on November 24, 1963, he was working in uniform and at about 9:45 a.m. had brought two juveniles to the Dallas Police Department for questioning. At about 10:35 a.m., all available officers were told to report to the basement of the police station. When WATKINS arrived in the basement, he was told by Sergeant DEAN to go to the top of the south ramp and keep all unauthorized persons out of the Compound. Patrolman WATKINS advised he did not allow anyone to enter the Compound through the south ramp except police officers; that it was his impression that newsmen were to enter the Compound through the main door of the Compound to be checked for identity. WATKINS advised he became involved in an argument at one time with a newsman as the newsman tried to enter the Compound through the south ramp. He stated that two reserve sergeants were stationed at the south ramp when he arrived; however, he did not discuss with them what their instructions had been.

He advised he did not see the shooting of OSWALD; however, he saw the flash from the gun and heard the report. He advised he remained at his post and allowed no one to leave the basement for approximately 40 minutes after the shooting. He stated he did not know how many people were in the basement area other than police officers and that he knew none of the newsmen who were present. He advised he knew of no unauthorized persons who were permitted entrance to the basement.

Officer WATKINS stated he does not know any JACK RUBY nor did he observe RUBY in the area prior to the shooting of OSWALD. He stated he has no knowledge regarding any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

According to WATKINS, television cameras were being put in place in the basement at the time he came to the police station which was at 9:45 a.m.

WATKINS advised that Patrolman RAY VAUGHN was stationed at the north ramp of the Compound.

1 Date December 3, 1963

Lieutenant WOODROW WIGGINS, 319 West Corning, Dallas, was informed of Agents identity; that he did not have to talk to Agents; that any statement he made could possibly be used against him in a court of law; and that he had the right of legal counsel.

Lieutenant WIGGINS is a platoon commander of the Dallas Police Department and as such, is in charge of the City Jail.

He related the following:

On November 24, 1963, he was on duty in the City Jail Office in the basement of the City Hall from 6:30 A.M. to 2:30 P.M. He had no particular assignment outside his legal duties to perform in the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the City Jail to the County Jail.

The usual procedure in transferring a prisoner is for a Dallas County Deputy Sheriff or a Constable to present a warrant for a particular prisoner. These officers then go up to the fifth floor and obtain custody of the prisoner and take them down the elevator and put them in a paddy wagon for transfer. Usually these officers transfer several prisoners at one time.

On November 24, 1963, because of the nature of the crime, OSWALD had been charged with he was not transferred in the usual manner.

When he, WIGGINS, came on duty at 6:30 A.M., he was informed by the police officer on duty at that time that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had telephoned and said that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had received a telephone call to the effect that someone was going to try and kill OSWALD when he was transferred to the County Jail.

Previously he, WIGGINS, had stationed two officers outside OSWALD's cell door at all times except when OSWALD was being interrogated.

In view of the information received from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, WIGGINS decided to replace the jail trusty who usually operates the jail elevator with a patrol officer. He assigned patrolman C. G. LEWIS to operate the jail elevator during the transfer of OSWALD.

Until OSWALD was brought down to the basement just prior to the shooting, he had last observed OSWALD in his cell on the fifth floor at about 6:45 A.M. At approximately 10:00 A.M., WIGGINS received a call from one of his men on the fifth floor, name not recalled, that some men from Homicide were taking OSWALD out on a "tempo". He explained that a tempo was a written request for a prisoner to be taken from his cell to some other room for interview. The person who called him in the basement office was either HENRY ELLISON, the assistant jailer or patrolman BASIL ROBINSON, the desk man on the fifth floor.

Until a short time previous to OSWALD's transfer, WIGGINS was in and out of the jail office in the corridors, halls and other areas in the basement on several occasions in connection with his duties in operating the City Jail. He was also busy with the booking of various prisoners. About 30 minutes prior to OSWALD's transfer, only one booking window was to be used, this one being nearest Harwood Street. He did not know who made this arrangement to use only this window. He explained that various procedures to be used had been discussed in the jail office by police officials and he was cognizant of some of the security precautions being taken but received no particular assignment himself.

About 11:20 A.M., someone from the Homicide Division called him and said they were bringing OSWALD down. He said that this might have been Lieutenant WELLS but he was not sure. Before he could hang up the phone, he saw the lights on the jail elevator indicator showing that the elevator was descending and the party emerged from the elevator with OSWALD. He said that there were five police officers with OSWALD, that being Captain FRITZ, Lieutenant SWAIN, officer LEAVELLE, officer GRAVES and he believes officer MONTGOMERY. All of these officers were in the CID (Criminal Investigative Division) of the Dallas Police Department. Captain FRITZ came out first, and asked if everything was ready. He did not remember whether or not he, WIGGINS, answered Captain FRITZ but knew that everything was in readiness since he, WIGGINS, had been out in the corridors previously. He had seen the armored truck parking on the Commerce ramp and had seen two lines of officers standing almost shoulder to shoulder stretching from the entrance to the jail office to the armored truck, a distance of some 40 feet. WIGGINS was standing by the desk in the jail office when the party emerged from the jail elevator and when Captain FRITZ asked if everything was ready, he, WIGGINS, stepped outside the jail office door and the group of police officers with OSWALD in their midst, were out past him, WIGGINS. They had proceeded some 6 or 7 feet from the jail office door when he, WIGGINS, saw a man lunge toward OSWALD and he heard the report of a gun. OSWALD and the Detectives on either side were in between him, WIGGINS, and the gun man and he did not see the pistol. Several of the officers grabbed this man and one of them grabbed the hand of the man, which contained the pistol and they brought him inside the jail office and disarmed him. It was when this man was being subdued that he recognized him as JACK RUBY who he knew personally. WIGGINS called for a Doctor and an ambulance. OSWALD was also brought into the jail office and the intern, DIEBERDORF came in and tried to give OSWALD first aid but the ambulance came and OSWALD was removed from the jail office and placed in it.

Lieutenant WIGGINS had no additional personnel assigned to him at this time during the transfer of OSWALD and received no assignments or instructions as to anything he should do during the transfer. Lieutenant WIGGINS did not know who was in charge of procedures and arrangements but did say that Chief STEVENSON, Chief BATCHELOR, Captain JONES, Captain TALBERT, Lieutenant PIERCE and Sergeant DEAN and Sergeant PUTNAM were outside the jail office.

Prior to the time OSWALD was brought down in the jail elevator, uniform police officers had searched the basement area, which he presumed was a result of the tip that someone was going to try and kill OSWALD.

Lieutenant WIGGINS stated that he would guess there were some 75 to 100 police officers present in the basement area when OSWALD was shot and that he would estimate there were some 75 to 100 newspaper reporters, television announcers, radio announcers and cameramen in the basement.

Lieutenant WIGGINS had no information as to security measures in effect at the time of the transfer. He knew of no unauthorized persons being present, he did not see RUBY come into the basement and did not see RUBY talking to anyone prior to the shooting or subsequent to the shooting. He had not seen RUBY previously for the last three or four years. Lieutenant WIGGINS did not know the identity of the driver of the armored truck. Shortly after the shooting, some five or ten minutes, Mr. SORRELLS the Secret Service Agent in charge of the Dallas Office of Secret Service, came into the jail office to use the phone so he presumed SORRELLS had been in the basement during this time.

Lieutenant WIGGINS has known JACK RUBY for 12 or 13 years having contacted him on numerous occasions in connection with police matters, he, WIGGINS, having previously been assigned to the Burglary Squad prior to being assigned to the City Jail in 1958. He had also visited the Silver Spur and the Vegas Club, both operated by RUBY in Dallas. While off duty, these visits were for entertainment and on these occasions, he was accompanied by his wife or friends. He had not been in either of these establishments for three or four years.

Lieutenant WIGGINS has never been employed by RUBY in any capacity, in his spare time or for any other reason. He does not know of any police officers who have ever been employed by RUBY. He explained that some 12 or 14 years ago, a police regulation was put into effect that no Dallas police officers were to work in any establishment that sold beer.

Lieutenant WIGGINS knew of no association or relationship between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

1 M. L. Wise

MARVIN L. WISE, 6711 Latta Street, Parkdale, Dallas, Texas, was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents; of the fact that he did not have to make any statement; that any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law; and of his right to consult an attorney before making any statement. No threats or promises were made in order to induce WISE to make a statement.

WISE voluntarily furnished the following information:

He is employed by the Dallas, Texas Police Department, and normally works in police district #71. He was called by phone to station 511, radio patrol headquarters in the police and courts building, arriving at approximately 9:15 or 9:20 a.m., November 24, 1963. He stated in addition to himself, five other officers were present and that these five other officers were taken to the basement by Captain (FNU) TALBERT. He identified two of these officers as ALVIS R. BROCK and Officer R. E. VAUGH. WISE stood by until 10:15 or 10:20 a.m., when he and approximately 10 other officers were told to report to the basement by Lieutenant R. S. PIERCE.

Upon arrival in the basement Captain TALBERT and Sergeant P. T. DEAN told the men to stand by which they did until approximately 11:00 a.m., at which time he was given a traffic assignment at Elm and St. Paul. This assignment was given to him by Sergeant J. A. PUTNAM and Sergeant P. T. DEAN. WISE and his partner, ALVIS BROCK, who had a traffic assignment at Elm and Ervay, proceeded to his assignment in police car #59 and directed traffic until approximately 11:35 a.m.

At this time he received another assignment over his police radio to proceed to Parkland Hospital. This assignment was given to him by the radio dispatcher. He picked up his partner, BROCK (which is customary) and went to the emergency room entrance, arriving at approximately 11:45 a.m. He was assigned to guard the emergency room door and to keep all unauthorized persons out with the exception of press and police personnel. Assignment was given to him by a Sergeant from the Northwest Sub-station, Bachman Lake. He stayed on the emergency door assignment for approximately 30 minutes or until 12:15 p.m., at which time Sergeant STEELE then then assigned him to the roof directly over the operating room that OSWALD was in where he stayed until approximately 3:00 p.m., when Sergeant STEELE relieved him with another officer. STEELE told WISE to report back to his district and he and his partner, BROCK did so, remaining on duty until 3:30 p.m. At that time, Sergeant DOLMAN advised WISE and BROCK to stand by at the police and courts building which they did until 5:00 p.m. WISE himself did not see the shooting. He estimated that at approximately 10:15 a.m., there were approximately 20 to 30 individuals in plain clothes in the basement some of which were police detectives.

He identified one as a Detective RAMSEY assigned to the burglary division. He could not recall the names of the other individuals in plain clothes. He personally saw two police cars stopped as they entered the police basement by police officers and searched. One of these police cars was marked and the other one was unmarked. Officer G. K. SPRINGER was driving the marked police car and a detective, name unknown, was driving the unmarked police car. He personally saw two other persons stopped by the police in the basement and required to identify themselves.

WISE knew that the first five police officers that were with him upon arrival at the police and courts building were to search the basement. He did not see any unauthorized person in the basement or any person who came into the basement without proper identification. He had known RUBY for approximately four years. He had been in the Carousel Club on duty and on call and had been in the Vegas Club socially with his wife. He stated he did not work for RUBY and that he does not know any police officers who did. He did not see RUBY in the basement on November 24, 1963. WISE stated that he had heard but could not verify that RUBY attained access to the basement by helping carry a TV camera from the third floor to the basement with two cameramen. He also heard that RUBY walked off Main Street down the ramp passing a squad car which had two police officers sitting in it. He heard that RUBY had a press card which allowed him entrance. He could not identify the source of any of these rumors. He knew of no relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

GANO EDWARD WORLEY, JR., Reserve Police Officer, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, residence 835 North Ewing Street, Apartment D, furnished the following information:

On the night of November 23, 1963, WORLEY was contacted by Captain C. O. ARNETT, Reserve Police Officer, and instructed to report to the Central Police Station on the morning of November 24, 1963. WORLEY reported to the Central Police Station at about 9:00 AM on November 24, 1963, and he was assigned by regular Police Sgt. TROY to the Information Desk in the basement to send other Reserve officers to the basement parking area when they arrived. At about 9:15 AM, Captain C. O. ARNETT instructed WORLEY to go to the basement parking area where he remained, assisting other Reserve officers until approximately 11:00 AM. About ten or fifteen minutes before the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, WORLEY was instructed to go to the corner of Commerce and Central Expressway to direct traffic.

WORLEY estimated there were thirty to thirty-five persons in the basement at the time he left the basement. WORLEY has no knowledge of the security measures in effect in the basement other than the particular duty assigned to him of directing traffic. While he was in the basement, he never saw anyone admitted without showing proper identification. He recalled seeing a police officer at one entrance to the ramp challenge an individual and request him to show proper identification.

WORLEY is acquainted with JACK RUBY, having met him at the Carousel Club on one occasion over a year ago. He has not seen him since that time and did not observe JACK RUBY in the basement prior to the time WORLEY left at about 11:00 AM on November 24, 1963.

WORLEY has no information regarding any relationship between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Tom Howard

Mr. THOMAS F. HOWARD, Attorney, 1934 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that on November 24, 1963, he received a telephone call, either from someone being held in the City Jail at Dallas, or else someone who was calling for a person being held in the City Jail. He does not remember who called, but he left his office located across the street from the Police and Courts Building, and entered the basement of the Police and Courts Building from the Harwood Street entrance. He walked inside and noticed a detective, whose name he does not know, that was standing facing the entrance where HOWARD entered. The detective was obviously on guard duty to observe people entering that door.

HOWARD walked to the elevator and punched a button so that he could go to the jail. While waiting for the elevator, he turned to the detective and noticed the large crowd of newsmen in the basement garage. HOWARD said to the detective, "Are they fixing to take him out of here?" HOWARD was referring to the removal of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the City Jail, but did not call him by name. HOWARD does not remember whether the detective nodded or answered him in any way.

HOWARD noticed a sudden jostling and shoving among the newsmen outside and then heard a shot. He had not seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD or any police officers apparently escorting OSWALD outside. He did not see JACK L. RUBY anywhere in the crowd. As soon as the shot was fired, he immediately turned around and walked out the Harwood Street entrance and walked up the steps to get outside. He stood on the sidewalk for a few minutes and his partner, Mr. COLEY SULLIVAN, walked across and they talked together a few minutes, then returned to their office across the street. Mr. SULLIVAN told him that OSWALD had been shot. Mr. HOWARD stated that he was inside the building waiting for the elevator less than 30 seconds, and it was probably only five or ten seconds before he heard this shot. During the time he was in there, he said nothing to anyone except the detective mentioned above.

GEORGE THOMAS ~~CHABOT~~, Mechanic, Police Garage, Young Street and Pearl Expressway, residence 5336 Bonita, telephone number TA 4-6040, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He has been employed with the City of Dallas in his present position for 8-9 years. Part of his duties involve the basement garage at the Central Dallas Police Department.

He was at the Central Dallas Police Department basement garage on November 22, 1963, and November 23, 1963, and was not at any time required to identify himself. He moved freely in and out of the garage area. However, he knows the majority of policemen by sight as well as a number of the reserve policemen.

On November 24, 1963, he was duty mechanic in charge at the police garage, Young and Pearl Expressway, and around 10:00 a.m., drove a police car to the Central Police Department Building, parked it about midway in the block east of Main and Harwood Streets intersection on the south side of the street. He walked to the Main Street ramp entrance and spoke with Officer VAUGHN, who was on duty keeping unauthorized individuals out of the basement and then he proceeded down the ramp to the basement.

His purpose in going to the Central Police Department basement was to determine if more than one attendant would be required due to the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD that morning. The attendant on duty that morning in the basement was HAROLD FUQUAY (phonetic), a Negro male whose job it is to handle the parking of the vehicles.

He spoke with Sgt. P. T. DEAN for about two minutes regarding any need for further attendants and was advised no one else would be required. Sgt. DEAN then told him to leave the basement.

He proceeded up the Main Street ramp and held a conversation for over 20 minutes with Officer VAUGHN. The time was probably around 11:00 a.m. when he left and drove the car back to the police garage, Young and Pearl Expressway.

by Special Agents R. NEIL QUIGLEY & JOHN K. DALLMAN:BL Date dictated 12/11/63

While in the basement he also spoke with a reserve policeman who he knows by sight only.

While speaking with Officer VAUGHN he noticed several police vehicles enter the basement after being checked by VAUGHN. VAUGHN also allowed one newspaperman to enter down the ramp after showing proper identification.

VAUGHN was in the immediate area of the ramp entrance at all times and did not at any time walk into the street or even to the sidewalk in front of the ramp.

No vehicles came out of the ramp while he was there talking to VAUGHN.

After he returned to the police garage, Young and Pearl Expressway, he heard on a commercial radio of the shooting of OSWALD. He cannot recall the exact time which elapsed from the time he returned to the garage to the radio broadcast of the shooting.

He returned to the Central Police basement around 3:00 p.m. and worked in the basement until around 6:00 p.m. He remained in the police garage, Young and Pearl Expressway, except for a short trip home for lunch around 12 noon, and that period of time as he returned from lunch until going to the Central Police Building around 3:00 p.m. He does not personally know OSWALD or JACK RUBY. He did not see RUBY while at the Central Police Building on November 22, 1963, through November 24, 1963.

He advised he is a white male, 5'7" tall, blond crew cut hair, and on November 24, 1963, he was wearing gray khaki trousers and a yellow jacket.

RUTH LEE FOSTER, 608 Willow Wood, Lancaster, Texas, was interviewed on the fifth floor of the Dallas Municipal Building. Mrs. FOSTER furnished the following information:

She was on duty November 24, 1963, and went into the basement area during a break which she took from her work. She went down on the freight elevator into the basement and stepped off. She waited approximately 10 to 12 feet from this elevator in the basement and estimated the time was a few minutes before 10:00 AM. She advised that the "grape vine" had indicated that OSWALD would be transferred at approximately 10:00 AM.

Mrs. FOSTER said that the basement had a few cars in it and she saw some police officers searching. She saw some of these officers searching some of the cars that were in the basement. There were five or six colored employees and one white man who was a maintenance man near her.

Shortly after she arrived, one of the police officers, whom she does not know walked up and told this group that they would have to leave the basement area. This officer told them that no one would be allowed in the basement except members of news media and police officers.

This group then got into the elevator and went to the first floor. Mrs. FOSTER went to the door on the Commerce Street side and looked out on Commerce Street. Mrs. FOSTER estimated she was at this location until approximately 10:15 AM and then she returned to her work at the telephone switchboard. She advised that she first heard that OSWALD had been shot while she was at the switchboard on the fifth floor. She advised she does not know JACK RUBY and did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

1 HAROLD R. FUQUA Date 12/10/63

HAROLD R. FUQUA, 4338 Penelope, employed as a parking attendant at the Dallas Police Garage, advised DALLAS TE he had worked for the City of Dallas a total of six years. He stated that the last three years he had been employed as a parking attendant in the Dallas Police Garage. FUQUA furnished the following information:

He was on duty on November 24, 1963, the date that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot in the basement of the Dallas Police Department. At approximately 10:00 AM, on that date, a Captain and a Sergeant, of the Dallas Police Department, whom FUQUA does not know by name, but whom he would recognize on sight, were in the basement. FUQUA, ALFREDIA RIGGS, and the elevator operator named MC KINZIE, and possibly one or two other individuals, were in the basement used for parking automobiles by city employees.

The Captain and Sergeant came over and told FUQUA and the other men that they would have to leave the basement and that no one was going to be allowed to be in the basement, except news reporters and police officers. FUQUA and the approximate four or five men he was with took the elevator to the first floor of the Municipal Building. FUQUA heard the Captain tell the elevator operator that he should not bring the elevator back to the basement any more.

FUQUA informed that before he and the group were sent up on the first floor of the Municipal Building he observed a number of police officers searching the basement area. He advised they searched in, under and on top of cars, and apparently did a thorough job.

FUQUA, along with the other men, after going up on the first floor of the Municipal Building, looked out on the Commerce Street entrance to observe the transfer of OSWALD to the County Jail. This group of men "milled around" on the first floor of the Municipal Building watching out on Commerce Street for approximately thirty or forty minutes. FUQUA became impatient and he and ALFREDIA RIGGS went out of the building on the Main Street side. They went by the ramp leading into the basement from the Main Street side. He saw two officers at the ramp and recalled that while on the first floor of the Municipal Building had seen numerous officers on the Commerce Street side.

There were approximately two or three people whom FUQUA just vaguely recalls on the Main Street side near the ramp. FUQUA recalls that one of these persons asked one of the police officers what was going on down in the basement, and the individual stooped down to look. FUQUA recalls the officer made a statement to the effect that he did not know what was going on, but was at the entrance to keep people from going down into the basement. FUQUA did not see any police cars or any other cars come in or out of the Main Street entrance to the ramp while he was there. FUQUA could not recall what any of the people looked like who were standing outside the entrance to the ramp on the Main Street side of the building.

He estimated he and ALFREDIA RIGGS lingered at the entrance for approximately two or three minutes, and then they went on to the locker room to watch television. There was a man in the locker room at this time who told FUQUA and RIGGS that the transfer of OSWALD probably would not be shown on television at the time he was being transferred and would probably be shown at a later time. He advised this man, whose name he does not know, is a civilian employee in the jail. He stated he knows this man well, but does not know his name.

FUQUA advised he does not know JACK RUBY and did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

FUQUA and RIGGS then left and went into the Records Bureau, which is in the basement of the Police Department at the Harwood Street entrance. Entrance to the Records Bureau was had through the Harwood Street side of the Police & Courts Building. RIGGS and FUQUA were in there at the time of the shooting and were not allowed to leave until they had been "checked." The police officer, whom FUQUA knows as Chief LUMPKIN (phonetic), recognized FUQUA and RIGGS and allowed them to leave shortly after the shooting.

JOSEPH J. KAY, Cab driver #306, City Transportation Company, Dallas, Texas, advised that on November 24, 1963, he was retained by a newsman who is unknown to him, to stand by outside City Hall. KAY advised that he had parked his car on Harwood Street south of Commerce Street; and that he could observe the Commerce Street ramp to the basement of the police department. He advised that he knows JACK RUBY by sight and believes that he would have seen him had he gone into the Commerce Street entrance. He stated that policemen at the ramp entrance did not allow anyone to enter and appeared to be sending newsmen to another entrance.

EDWARD KELLY, porter, employed by the Dallas Public Works Department, and stationed at the Municipal Building and Police and Courts Building, advised that he was on duty on DALLAS TE November 24, 1963. He stated that at approximately 9:30 or 10:00 he was in the basement with a few other city employees. He furnished the following information.

KELLY was told by a Dallas Police Officer, whose name he does not know, to leave the basement area. He had observed an unknown Sergeant of the Police Department tell his patrolmen to have KELLY's group leave the basement. KELLY does not know how many men left the basement, but estimates there were four or five who did. They took the elevator and went to the first floor of the Municipal Building. Before leaving the basement he had observed some police officers searching the basement.

LOUIS McKINZIE also an employee with the Dallas Public Works Department was operating the elevator. When this group got to the first floor of the Municipal Building, KELLY went to a point where he could observe the Commerce Street exit of the ramp from the basement of the Police Department. He was there to observe LEE HARVEY OSWALD being transferred to the County Jail. The first time he knew OSWALD was shot was when an ambulance left the building with OSWALD's body and someone advised him OSWALD had been shot.

KELLY went to another floor of the Municipal Building and worked after they took OSWALD away in the ambulance and he returned to the basement at approximately 2:30 p.m. on November 24, 1963. He stated he does not know JACK RUBY and did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

1 Lewis McKinzie Dallas, Tex

LOUIS MCKINZIE, 3321 Harmon, who is a porter with the Dallas Public Works Department and who is stationed at the Municipal Building and Police and Courts Building, furnished the following information.

McKINZIE stated he was in the basement below the two buildings where he is employed on November 24, 1963, the day that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was killed. At approximately 9:30 a.m. he received orders from a policeman whom he does not know by name, to take the elevator which is located on the Eastend of the basement to the first floor of the Municipal Building. He was told not to return the elevator to the basement under any circumstances. He took this elevator to the first floor and there were approximately five men on the elevator with him. He advised that the officer had told him to take a telephone repairman to the fifth floor and that the man would be ready to return to the basement almost immediately.

McKINZIE took this man to the fifth floor of the telephone office and waited for approximately two minutes. The man then returned and in turn was returned to the basement. After McKINZIE let this man out of the basement, he went to the first floor. He went to the Commerce side of the Municipal Building and watched the spot where the ramp from the Police Basement joins the Commerce Street side. McKINZIE was there to observe the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. At the time he was watching the Commerce Street side of the building, he had the elevator locked up so no one could return to the basement in the elevator.

On two occasions he unlocked the elevator and went to the second floor and returned. On these two occasions, he brought a total of three men from the second floor back to the first floor of the Municipal Building. No one was taken to the basement after the telephone man. There is a stairway leaving from the first floor of the Municipal Building down to the basement; however, this door was locked and a policeman was guarding the door.

As McKINZIE watched the Commerce Street crowd, he saw a commotion and a reporter ran to the first floor of the Municipal Building. The reporter asked for a telephone and McKINZIE overheard him say that OSWALD had been shot. It was at least 30 minutes after this instance before McKINZIE returned to the basement.

McKINZIE advised that he does not know JACK RUBY and he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

1 Date 12/11/63

Mr. EDWARD EUGENE PIERCE, 1726 Michigan Street, Dallas, Texas, advised as follows:

He is employed as a Building and Maintenance employee by the city of Dallas. He works in the Dallas Municipal Building and the Dallas Police Department and Courts Building.

On November 24, 1963, he worked the 7:00 AM - 3:00 PM shift and was the only maintenance employee on duty that day. He was responsible for the maintenance work in both of the two previously mentioned buildings, which are adjacent to each other and connected by corridors. He had no specific assignment on November 24, 1963.

During the course of the morning he was in and out of the Police Department basement area on two or three occasions prior to about 9:00 AM. He was in the maintenance supervisor's office in the sub-basement of the building at about that time. The service elevator is the only elevator that goes to the sub-basement.

About 9:00 AM, he came up on the service elevator to the main Police Department basement area. There were two Negro porters that worked the same date also in the basement area. They were JOHN SERVANCE, head porter, and ALFREIDA RIGGS, a porter, both in the Building and Maintenance Department. In addition, he saw HAROLD FUQUA, employed as basement parking lot attendant, in the basement. FUQUA is in charge of parking cars in the basement area. The elevator operator on the service elevator was named McKENZIE.

He stood around the parking lot area opposite the jail office for about one-half an hour with SERVANCE, RIGGS, and FUQUA. They watched the cameras that were in the basement area. About that time, a uniformed police officer, name unknown, told them that everybody had to leave the basement area. At that time, there were other police officers, possibly 30 in number, checking through all police cars and other vehicles in the basement. The unlocked car trunks were also checked on the vehicles in the basement. He, SERVANCE, RIGGS, and FUQUA, thought they could still stay in the basement and watch the proceedings if they kept out of the way. The four of them then got into the service elevator, but left the door open and continued looking out into the basement. The same police officer then came over and told them that they had to close the elevator door and move the elevator to another floor. The officer commented that they had to get everyone out of the basement area. The four men went to the first floor. He did not go back to the basement area until approximately 1:30 PM the same day.

On November 24, 1963, he had his name plate attached to his clothing. SERVANCE, RIGGS, and FUQUA had their names sewn on their clothing, which is usual procedure for city employees in that department. The four men were in the basement area approximately a half-hour prior to being forced to leave, as previously related. However, the two porters occasionally left the basement area on business during that same period.

One of the women telephone operators, first name RUTH, described as a white female, about 30 years old, was down in the basement area and had to leave the basement area at the same time the four men did. She rode up on the service elevator with them. Earlier, during the same morning, the women telephone operators occasionally came down to the basement to look around for a short period. This was prior to the time that police officers cleared the basement area. He thought there were possibily two or three women telephone operators on duty that day.

The four men stayed on the first floor of the Municipal Building, until after OSWALD was shot. There is a locked gate in the connecting corridor on each floor between the Municipal Building and the Police and Courts Building. There was no one else in the Municipal Building to his knowledge, but they could see there was quite a crowd over in the Police and Courts Building.

He does not know JACK RUBY, and did not see anyone who resembled RUBY's photograph, during the period of November 22 through 24, 1963.

During the period he was in the basement area, the only other persons he saw besides police officers and the previously mentioned individuals, were one or two television cameramen.

After the four men went to the first floor of the Municipal Building, as previously related, he unlocked the door on the Commerce Street side and they stood outside the doorway looking around. There was a uniformed police officer outside the door who told them they could not stand outside the doorway and had to go back in the building. He also saw other policemen along the sidewalk and observed that there was a line of policemen along the sidewalk in front of the entire building.

He further stated he saw police officers on duty at the Commerce Street ramp entrance to the basement.

He changed a lightbulb in the City Jail on November 23, 1963, near OSWALD's cell and saw OSWALD on that occasion. That was the only time that he observed OSWALD. OSWALD was in a cell by himself and there was an empty cell on each side. He observed several police officers on duty in the immediate vicinity of OSWALD's cell at that time.

He had no other pertinent information concerning this matter.

ALFREADIA X RIGGS, 2010 North Pearl Street, Dallas, Texas, who is a porter in the basement of the Municipal Building and the Police and Courts Building, furnished the following information:

RIGGS was in the basement on November 24, 1963, the day LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. He was there with approximately five or six other persons. These persons are all believed to be employed in the two buildings. He stated he was with JOHN O. SERVANCE, head night porter in the basement; LEWIS MC KINZIE, who operates the elevator on the east end of the basement on occasion and who is also a porter; a young man last name KELLY; a man named either PIERCE or PEARSON, who is a maintenance man; a telephone operator, who works on the fifth floor of the Municipal Building, but whose name he does not know; and HAROLD FUGUA.

This group was standing near the elevator located on the east end of the basement and RIGGS was hoping to see LEE HARVEY OSWALD transferred from the City Police Department to the Dallas County Jail.

He observed quite a few police officers searching the basement area. He observed them searching closets, over the rafters and in the various cars in the basement.

While this group was in the basement, waiting, one of the officers came over and told them they would have to leave. They got on the elevator and went to the first floor of the Municipal Building. RIGGS and possibly all the other members of the group stood near the Commerce Street door of the first floor of the Municipal Building to observe when OSWALD was brought out on the Commerce Street ramp of the basement. After two armored cars appeared on the scene, RIGGS decided that they would not get to see OSWALD and therefore he and HAROLD FUGUA decided to go to the Dallas Police Department locker room and watch the transfer on TV.

RIGGS and FUGUA went out the back door of the Municipal Building and went through an alley to Main Street. From Main Street they went to Harwood Street. While going up Main Street to Harwood Street, they passed the Main Street ramp which leads from Main Street down into the basement of the Police Department. RIGGS recalls seeing some people near the ramp but he has only the vaguest recollection of it. He does not recall how many persons there were, either officers or civilians. He does not recall seeing any individual he could identify.

RIGGS and FUGUA went to the basement below the Police Department from the Harwood Street entrance. They went to the Police locker room and were told there by a man who was a civilian employee of the Police Department that he did not believe the transfer would be immediately shown on TV. This man works in the office of the jail of the Police Department and was eating his lunch at the time.

RIGGS and FUGUA then left the locker room and came to the hall by the Records Section which is also near the lobby and exit into the basement area where OSWALD was to be moved. RIGGS actually saw OSWALD only briefly as he was taken from the elevator out into the ramp area. He heard the shot fired by JACK RUBY which killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

In the lobby leading to the ramp area, there are double doors closing off the ramp area from the lobby area. RIGGS does not recall seeing any officers there but stated there could have been officers.

After the shooting, he and FUGUA backed away from the lobby area and stood closer to the Records Section. He did not immediately return to the basement area after he and FUGUA left.

RIGGS stated that he was not challenged between the time he left the locker room and while he was waiting in the area of the Records Section and the lobby, but he said he and FUGUA made no effort to go to the ramp area where he feels sure he would have been challenged. RIGGS pointed out that he has been a porter in the basement for a long period of time and he is sure most of the police officers know him on sight.

JOHN O. SERVANCE, Head Porter at night of the Police & Courts Building and the Municipal Building of Dallas, Texas, who resides at 319 Lancaster Hutchins Road, Lancaster, Texas, furnished the following information:

He was in the basement under the Municipal Building and Police & Courts Building, on November 24, 1963, the day LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. SERVANCE was there with a group of other city employees, including ALFREDIA RIGGS, HAROLD FUQUA, EDWARD KELLY and LOUIS MC KINZIE. They were ordered by policemen to leave the basement and SERVANCE was told to keep the elevator from returning to the basement. LOUIS MC KINZIE was operating the elevator. He took the elevator to the first floor of the Municipal Building and took the four or five men to the first floor on the elevator. When they arrived on the first floor, SERVANCE and most of the other individuals who had been in the basement went to the door on the Commerce Street entrance of the Municipal Building and watched the location where the ramp leads from the basement to Commerce Street. On Commerce Street, there was an armored car parked and there was one armored car backed up to the entrance of the ramp. There was a policeman at the door of the first floor of the Municipal Building who would not allow SERVANCE and the other men to come out; therefore, they remained on the first floor and watched. The only other man SERVANCE recalled being on the first floor with him was a Mr. PEARSON, who is a maintenance employee of the city and a telephone repairman.

SERVANCE first learned that OSWALD had been shot when an ambulance came out of the building taking OSWALD to the hospital. The elevator did not return to the basement, but the elevator operator, LOUIS MC KINZIE, did operate the elevator between the first and top floors of the Municipal Building, since there were workers still in the Municipal Building.

SERVANCE stated he does not know JACK RUBY nor did he know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

HARRY T TASKER, Cab Driver, was interviewed at his place of employment, City Transportation Company, 610 S. Akard Street, Dallas. He advised that on November 24, 1963, he was retained by a newsman to stand by in his cab outside of the Dallas Police Station from 9:40 a.m. to 12:25 p.m. He parked his cab on Main Street across the street from the "in" ramp to the basement of the police station. He advised that while waiting for the newsman, he occasionally walked across the street and talked with the police officer, who was standing at the top of the ramp. He said that the police officer checked the credentials of numerous persons going in and out of the ramp entrance.

TASKER advised that he heard the shot fired in the basement which killed OSWALD; that prior to the shot he had been standing at the "in" ramp entrance for about five minutes. He was shown a photo of JACK RUBY and he advised that he did not observe anyone resembling RUBY enter the basement through the "in" ramp during the period of time which he was standing there. He advised that he probably would have remembered RUBY had he seen him enter during that five minute period.

CARL LINDSEY THOMPSON, Installer, Office Division Plant Superintendent, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Life Building, 311 South Akard, residence 818 South Marlboro, DALLAS, Te telephone number WH 8-3311, furnished the following information:

On November 22, 1963, ALSTON RAMSEY, one of THOMPSON's Tex supervisors, telephoned about 10:00 p.m., and requested THOMPSON to go to the Central Police Department as they needed someone to run the circuits.

He arrived at the Central Police Department around DALLAS Tex 10:30 p.m., and reported to GILES BERRY, Supervisor, Mobile-Telephone Shop. He went to the third floor radio room located in the old City Hall Building. He remained at Central Police Department until approximately 10:00 p.m., November 23, 1963. He is known to most Police Department personnel since he has been employed by Southeastern Bell for 23 years and spends a great deal of time at the City Hall Building. He does not recall being requested to identify himself during the above period.

He arrived back at the Central Police Building at 8:00 a.m., on November 24, 1963, and reported to the telephone company trailer which was parked midway between Commerce Street and Main Street on the east side of Harwood Avenue. This was the command post for the telephone company operation at the Central Police Building. He reported to BERRY and was assigned to help in the installation of additional telephones in the office of the Chief of Police. He also checked the temporary wires which were taped to the floor in the area of the office of the Chief of Police.

At around 10:30 a.m., he rode the elevator to the basement from the third floor where he was required to identify himself by an unknown officer in police uniform, by exhibiting his telephone company identification card. The officer also looked through his tool pouch. A uniformed police sergeant, name unknown, who knew THOMPSON by sight, came up and asked THOMPSON his business in the basement at which time THOMPSON advised he desired to pass through the basement to the freight elevator and then up to the fifth floor of the new City Hall Building to the telephone room. He could not cross through from the old City Hall on the upper floors since all the gates were closed and locked on the connecting hallways.

The Sergeant escorted THOMPSON through the basement to the freight elevator. The Sgt. advised THOMPSON they might have trouble getting the freight elevator to the basement since the Sergeant had ordered the elevator operator not to come to the basement.

After the elevator did come down to the basement, THOMPSON went to the fifth floor to the telephone room where he stayed about five minutes. He then returned to the basement via the freight elevator where the Sergeant was waiting for him. The Sergeant then escorted him to the Commerce Street entrance where THOMPSON left the building.

He then worked around the WBAP-TV trailer, located on the north side of Commerce Street near the ramp entrance; the KRLD trailer, located west of the WBAP trailer on the north side of Commerce; and the WFAA trailer, located on the east side of Harwood near the intersection of Commerce and Harwood. He also went to the third floor of the building during this time after leaving the basement he was required to identify himself approximately a half dozen times.

When the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD took place THOMPSON was in the WBAP trailer viewing the three TV monitors. One set was monit ring the Chief of Police office area, one was monitoring the Commerce Street ramp entrance, and one was monitoring the center basement ramp area. He viewed the shooting of OSWALD by JACK RUBY on TV monitor.

He never returned to the basement of the building; however, he was on the third floor after the shooting. He estimated the security checks tripled after the shooting of OSWALD.

He does not know OSWALD or RUBY and never saw RUBY at any time.

He does not recall any other telephone company employees on duty who would have entered the building on November 24, 1963.

C. H. BEHRENS, Manager, White Plaza Hotel, 1933 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He advised that the White Plaza Hotel is located on the northwest corner at the intersection of Main and Harwood Streets. On November 24, 1963, a number of the staff were at the hotel either watching TV in the basement, or standing in the front of the hotel, in anticipation of the removal of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the City Jail. He pointed out that the Central Police Headquarters in Dallas is located on the southeast corner of the intersection at Main and Harwood Streets. The hotel doorman, HARRY THOMAS, 8932 South Polk Street, Dallas, Ter did not come to work until noon that day and THOMAS advised him that he had witnessed the shooting of OSWALD on TV at his residence. He stated he was fairly certain that JACK ALLEN JACKSON, bellboy and JOHN D. WATERHOUSE, room service boy, were either at the front of the hotel or outside of the building at the time OSWALD was shot.

He stated he is personally acquainted with JACK RUBY and that RUBY had stayed at the hotel for about a six weeks period during 1950. He was not employed by the hotel at that time so he did not personally recall this, nor was he able to find any record of this, the records having been destroyed. The last time he saw JACK RUBY was about three weeks ago in the hotel lobby at which time RUBY handed him a business card from the Carousel Club. RUBY frequently dropped by the hotel lobby and he recalled about a year ago RUBY showed him his fists which were swollen. RUBY told him he had gotten into a brawl at one of his clubs stating, "you know how it is." He was apparently referring to the fact that he had to get rough with some of his unruly customers on occasion.

He personally was not on duty at the time OSWALD was shot.

As concerns JACK RUBY, he knows nothing regarding his personal life, background, or political convictions. He had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY nor what RUBY's motivation might have been in shooting OSWALD.

On December 9, 1963, WILLIE ACREY, 2312½ Forrest Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised that he was working as a bellboy at the White Plaza Hotel, 1933 Main Street, Dallas, on November 24, 1963. During the morning of that day, he did not leave the building and at no time was in a position to observe the activities at the Main Street ramp of the Dallas Police Department. He stated he observed the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on TV in the basement of the hotel.

On December 9, 1963, JOHNNY TOLLIVER, 7707 Robin Road, Dallas, advised he was employed as a bellboy at the White Plaza Hotel, on the morning of November 24, 1963. He stated he did not leave the building to observe the activities at police headquarters and he observed the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on TV in the basement of the hotel.

On December 10, 1963, JOE BERNARD, attendant, Classified Parking Company, Station 28, 2001 North Main Street, advised that he was the only attendant to work at the parking lot located on the northeast corner of the intersection of Main and Harwood Streets. He stated this lot is located directly across from the Dallas City Hall building. He advised that on November 24, 1963, he observed the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on TV and did not arrive at work until noon of that day.

JACK ALLEN JACKSON, 2767 Wilhurt, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

On November 24, 1963, he was employed as a bellboy at the White Plaza Hotel, 1933 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, from 7:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Having learned that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was to be moved from the City Jail on the morning of November 24, 1963, after hearing it on the radio, he made it a point to start watching the City Hall building at about 9:00 a.m. Most of the time he was standing inside the outer entrance of the hotel lobby on Harwood Street from which he could see the Main Street ramp of the Police Station. He was of the opinion as well as were other members of the hotel staff, that because of the large crowd at the Commerce Street ramp, OSWALD would be taken out the Main Street ramp. At about 10:15 a.m., he walked over to the Commerce Street side of the City Hall Building and observed a large crowd of people there. He then returned to the hotel and recalled that shortly before 11:00 a.m., a Mr. AUSTIN and his wife were returning to the hotel. Mr. AUSTIN operates the Bell Tailors near the corner of Elm and Harwood Streets, and he was coming from that direction. He told Mr. AUSTIN that OSWALD was to be moved from the police station that morning. AUSTIN's wife decided to go to her room and he recalled Mr. AUSTIN walking over to the Main Street ramp staying there for a few minutes. He did not know if AUSTIN was there at the time OSWALD was shot.

He recalled that one officer was on guard at the Main Street ramp during this time and described him as being about 6'4" tall. He did not know the identity of this man. Most of the time he watched the ramp he observed the officer standing on the east side of the entrance of the ramp and sometimes leaning against the point where the ramp meets the outside of the building. He did not recall seeing a police officer at the intersection of Main and Harwood Streets at this time.

He also observed a white man wearing a yellow jacket or shirt and khaki trousers talking to the officer at the ramp for about one hour. This man was about 5'6" tall, and he did not believe he was wearing a hat. At no time did he see more than 3 or 4 people standing around the ramp exit and the officer made every effort to keep people away from the head of the ramp. Sometime before he learned that OSWALD had been shot, he recalled that two police cars with uniformed officers in them left the building by way of the Main Street ramp. He also recalled during that time seeing an officer carrying a shotgun come out of the ramp. He also observed the armored cars drive down Harwood to Commerce Street and at about that time a uniformed police officer appeared at the head of the Main Street ramp and engage in conversation with the tall officer there. Shortly after that JOHNNY TOLLIVER, another bellboy there, came up from the basement of the hotel and told him that OSWALD had been shot.

He did not recall seeing an unmarked police car leave the Main Street ramp exit shortly prior to that and at no time did he observe any civilians walk down the ramp. He stated his view of the ramp was probably blocked a number of times while he was observing it by buses and cars driving on Main Street.

He does not know JACK RUBY and never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination. He could not specifically recall seeing anyone walk from the Western Union Office towards the Main Street ramp during the time he was observing it.

He did not observe anyone who looks similar to the photographs he has seen of JACK RUBY, or wearing clothing similar to that which RUBY was wearing when arrested in the vicinity of the Main Street ramp during the time he observed it.

JOHN D WATERHOUSE, 3626 Havana Street, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He advised that he was employed as room service boy at the White Plaza Hotel, 1933 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, on November 24, 1963. At about 11:00 a.m., he left the building with the object of watching the removal of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the city jail. He walked out the Main Street entrance of the hotel and proceeded down Harwood Street to where it intersects with Commerce Street. He saw a large crowd gathered on Commerce Street across from the Commerce Street entrance to the police garage. At that time, he decided to return to the hotel in the belief that because of the large crowd on Commerce Street, they would remove OSWALD by way of the Main Street ramp. By the time he had returned to the Harwood Street entrance of the hotel, he was told by one of the other bellboys that OSWALD had been shot. He waited in front of the hotel until the ambulance apparently bearing OSWALD left the building and watched it drive north on Harwood.

When he first left the hotel, while walking toward Commerce, he stopped at the northwest corner of Main and Harwood Streets for a few minutes. He observed that one policeman who appeared to be quite tall was guarding the Main Street entrance to the police garage. This officer was standing directly at the head of the ramp and was leaning against the east corner where the ramp meets the building wall. He observed a white male who was bare-headed and wearing a yellow jacket or shirt, talking to the police officer. He also observed one or two individuals looking out of the window of the Western Union Building from about the 8th floor. He pointed out that since the City Hall and Municipal Building are set in 2 or 3 yards from the sidewalk, someone looking out of this window would be able to obtain a clear view of the area in front of the Main Street ramp.

He also recalled seeing a uniformed officer carrying a shotgun go down the Main Street ramp while he was standing at the corner, prior to walking over to Commerce Street. He was not certain whether he left the hotel before or after OSWALD was shot but he saw no activity on the Commerce side of the Building which would lead him to believe that the shooting had occurred prior to his arriving there.

He did not recall seeing any vehicles enter or leave the Main Street ramp during the time he was able to observe it, nor did he recall seeing any police vehicles drive down Harwood to Commerce Street while walking down the street.

He does not know JACK RUBY and never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination. He knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD. He did not observe anyone who looks similar to the photographs he has seen of JACK RUBY, or wearing clothing similar to that which RUBY was wearing when arrested in the vicinity of the Main Street ramp during the time he observed it.

S. T. REEDER, Post Office Box 227, Lake Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

On November 24, 1963, he was at the Western Union Building, 2030 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, where he is employed as a maintenance man. He was the only maintenance man on duty at that time. At about 10:00 a.m. he recalled looking out of the window of his office which is located on the 8th floor of the building. He pointed out that from this window a person is able to look directly up the sidewalk on the south side of Main Street. This sidewalk borders the Main Street ramp exit of the police garage. An unobstructed view of the area between the front of the exit and the street is permitted from that point. At about 10:30 a.m., he left his office and eventually left the building in an effort to observe the activities on the Commerce Street side of the City Hall. Police officers were keeping the crowds away from the north side of Commerce Street and he therefore decided to return to the building. Upon returning, he stopped at the Western Union Wire Office on the fourth floor of the building and learned from the man on duty there that a message had just been received from New York City indicating that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been shot in the basement of the Police Headquarters. He then returned to his office on the 8th floor of the building and looked out to the street at which time he observed an ambulance leaving the main street ramp.

During the one or two times that he looked out the window prior to leaving the building, which would have been sometime between 10:00 and 11:00 a.m., he observed one police officer standing directly in front of the Main Street exit between the marble posts that border it. He stated as he recalled the officer was at all times within a few steps of the building. At no time did he see a total of more than 5 or 6 people gathered on either side of the exit. During the time he observed he also saw a police car enter the Main Street ramp but at no time did he see any vehicles come out of the ramp. He was unable to recognize anyone that he personally knew standing in the vicinity of the Main Street ramp.

At this time he was unable to describe the clothing worn by anyone standing near the Main Street ramp other than the police officer. He did not observe any individual walking west on the south side of Main Street during the time he looked out the window.

He does not know JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He had never heard of eitherof them prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY or the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

ROBERT A. AUSTIN, Room 1115, White Plaza Hotel, 1933 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He is the owner of Bell Tailors, located at 2010 Elm Street, Dallas. On the morning of November 24, 1963, at about 11:00 a.m., he and his wife left the store and walked to the Harwood Street entrance of the White Plaza Hotel. Upon arriving at the entrance one of the bellboys advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was to be removed from the City Hall that morning. His wife decided to go to the room and watch TV and he left her and walked over to the vicinity of the Main Street exit of the police garage. This building is located at the southeast corner of the intersection of Harwood and Main Streets and the ramp exit can be observed from the entrance to the White Plaza Hotel.

When he arrived at the Main Street exit, a tall police officer, whose identity he does not know, was standing at the east corner of the exit at the location where the exit meets the north side of the building. There were approximately 4 or 5 people, all of whom he recalled were colored, standing on either side of the exit. The police officer made sure that no one stood directly in front of the exit and he personally was not allowed to walk past the exit and had to remain on the west side. He did not speak to anyone nor did he see the police officer speak to anyone while there. He did not recall if any cars left or entered the ramp. During the time he was there the policeman stayed at his post and at no time walked out into the street.

After observing for a few minutes, he decided to walk back to his room and upon arriving there his wife told him that she had just seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD get shot on TV.

He advised that he does not know JACK RUBY and had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination. He knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

GERALDINE COLEMAN, waitress, Topper No. 8 Cafe, 1010 North Harwood Street, furnished the following information:

She and ROSENA M. HOLLOWAY, resident 1013 South Montreal, worked the 6:00 AM to 2:00 PM shift on November 24, 1963. Both were looking out the cafe window across Main Street, at the Main Street ramp entrance to the police department garage, from shortly after 11:00 AM until after LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. She recalls there was a tall uniformed officer, name unknown, standing in the center of the ramp entrance when she first observed the entrance. She observed a police vehicle, believed to contain two men, exit from the ramp entrance, hesitate briefly, then turn west on Main and then south on Harwood. The police officer at the ramp entrance stepped to the east side of the entrance and possibly a few feet toward Main Street. The officer did not step to the curb or into the street. The men in the car and the policeman at the ramp did not appear to exchange any conversation.

Just a minute or so after the car exited, she observed the policeman at the ramp, face toward the basement interior, draw his gun and "fan" the area as if to cover those in the basement. She noticed a man with a camera rush up from the outside, duck down beside the policeman and apparently take a photograph. She does not know if the man with the camera was in the crowd just outside the ramp entrance prior to the above.

She did not observe anyone go down the ramp; however, when the beforementioned car exited, her view of the ramp entrance was cut off momentarily. She would estimate the group of people near the Main Street ramp entrance to be fifteen or twenty. In the group were several colored people. She did not recognize anyone whose identity is known to her. However, either just before or just after the policeman drew his gun, ROSENA HOLLOWAY stated, "There goes HOWARD HUGHES, the attorney".

She recalls there was a third woman at the window with her. The unknown woman had on a pale green nylon uniform-type dress and she was around 40 years of age. Also the unknown woman burned a hole in the lower part of her dress due to a wall heater immediately under the window of the cafe where all were looking outside.

ROSENA M. HOLLOWAY, 1013 South Montreal, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

She is employed on a full-time basis as a bookkeeper at the Moffitt Bookkeeping Service, 2300 West Clarendon, Dallas. On weekends she works part-time at Topper's #8, a cafe located at the northwest corner of the intersection at Harwood and Main Streets, Dallas.

On Sunday, November 24, 1963, she reported for work at Topper's at 6:00 a.m. She is employed there as a waitress and as best she can recall, she did not observe any activities at the Main Street side of the Dallas Police Headquarters until about 30 minutes before the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. From her position behind the counter she could not observe the ramp entrance to the police basement on Main Street but could merely see some of the crowd which had collected toward the Commerce Street side of the City Hall Building.

She first learned that OSWALD had been shot when newspaper reporters rushed into the cafe to use the pay phone located there.

The first indication she received that something had gone wrong at the police department was when an officer who had been directing traffic at the intersection of Main and Harwood Streets suddenly began to run in the direction of the Main Street ramp. This officer was standing in the middle of the intersection facing east on Main Street just before he ran toward the building. The same officer had eaten lunch at the cafe and as best she can recall, left the cafe and walked to the Main and Harwood intersection about 2 minutes before the shooting. It seemed that he had just about enough time to take his position at the intersection before he ran to the building. She described this officer as being middleaged of average height and heavyset. She does not know is identity.

Upon seeing the officer leave his post at the intersection she left her position behind the lunch counter and rushed to the one window which faces on Main Street, to see what had happened. GERALDINE COLEMAN immediately followed her to the window as well as another woman who was the only customer in the cafe at that time. There was a great deal of confusion and she saw two or three police officers running across the street to the Main Street entrance. She assumed that they had been in their police cars somewhere in the vicinity and upon learning that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been shot they rushed to the police building.

The woman customer was wearing a light green nylon uniform of some type and she burned a large hole near the hemline when she stood too close to the wall heater located below the window. She did not believe that this woman had been looking out on Main Street prior to the time she herself rushed to the window. She could not recall whether or not GERALDINE COLEMAN had been looking out the window at any time prior to that. She did not know the identity of the woman customer but she did recall that she was again in the restaurant last Sunday and apparently worked somewhere in the vicinity.

She has no knowledge of the identity of the police officer guarding the Main Street ramp and does not know any Dallas police officers. She did not recall seeing any police cars drive by the intersection at Main and Harwood Streets prior to the shooting and pointed out that she was busily engaged in waiting on customers most of the morning and had little opportunity to take notice of what was going on outside the restaurant.

After the shooting occurred, she saw attorney TOM HOWARD on the sidewalk in front of the City Hall on Harwood Street. She stated HOWARD has offices located at the southwest corner of the intersection of Harwood and Main Streets. HOWARD is a steady customer of the restaurant and that is how she happens to know his identity. She does not know JACK RUBY and had never heard of him prior to the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of the President and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

Sir:

"I would like to submit the following report concerning the events occurring on November 24, 1963.

"I was stationed on the north side door that exits into the basement from in front of the jail office and just south of the jail door in the basement garage corridor. As Oswald was brought past me he was being led by Captain Fritz and was between two detectives. As they reached the edge of the ramp, I saw a man dressed in a suit and wearing a gray hat dart in front of Oswald and just behind Captain Fritz. I distinctly heard the suspect shout a phrase, the only words I could make out were 'son-of-a-bitch.'

"Before I could move, I saw someone grab his arm and at this time I caught a glimpse of a pistol and heard the report of the shot. Oswald shouted, 'Oh no!,' and collapsed. As I started forward I was cut off by the officers that had dived on the subject and was pushed back. I then assisted in dragging the prisoner to the jail office where he was held on the floor until Detective McMillon could get the handcuffs on the prisoner.

"I asked, 'Who is it?', and the suspect turned his head my way and shouted, 'You know me, I'm Jack Ruby!' We then picked him up, and along with Captain King, Detective Clardy, Detective McMillon, and myself, we took him to the jail elevator and went directly to the fifth floor.

"We then removed his personal property, took off his clothes,

"and stayed with him until 3:30 p.m. when Homicide officers came to the jail and asked us to assist in escorting him to the Homicide Bureau, which we did and then returned to our office, the Auto Theft Bureau.

"This is a statement of facts relating to my activity as a Reserve Officer Sunday, November 24, 1963, to the best of my knowledge and recollection.

1. Approximate time I reported to duty. 9:00 A.M.

2. I reported to Lt. Merrell in Assembly Room.

3. I was assigned to - My first act was to request transportation for five Reserves to the Elm-Houston Area. Request was through Chief Lunday and Lt. Wiggins. A squad transferred these men. Sgt. Dean requested some men to assist in searching the basement. I summoned all the men we had on call in the assembly room at this time (approximately 10 men) and went with Sgt. Dean to the basement. Sgt. Dean and Sgt. Putnam directed the Reserves to other regular officers that were in process of searching the basement. When the search was completed and men assigned to a post, I took a position where the cars would enter the parking area from the ramp.

I remained in this position until Reserve J. C. Hunt took this position. I then took a position at the base of the North ramp where it levels off. I remained at this position until after the shooting. Persons who were at this same position just prior to and at the time of the shooting were: A newsman with a microphone next to the west wall, then myself, then another newsman with a pencil and paper, then Capt. King, then another person to the east of Capt. King. Officer Blackie Harrison along with others I did not know the names of were directly ahead of the group I was with.

DL 44-1639/eah

"After men had been assigned, Police Supervisors were requesting men, if we could spare them, and several were taken to other positions outside the basement. Some Reserve Supervisors who had no particular assignment took these positions that were being vacated.

"I saw Capt. Fritz entering the basement from the jail office, approximately four or five feet behind were the detectives with Oswald. Just as they entered the driveway I saw a man lunge (from beside the TV Camera that was on the east side of the drive where you enter the parking area) toward Oswald. I did not see the gun until after the shooting.

"4. Names of other officers in the same area that I can recollect are: Capt. King, Sgt. Dean & Putnam, Capt. Talbert, Det. Beaty, Harrison, Lt. Wiggins, Officer Slack, Chief Batchelor.
Reserves - Lts. McCoy, Kriss, Suits, Sgt. Croy, J. C. Hunt, H. H. Hatley, R. A. Cox, J. R. Hopkins, G. E. Worley, Kasten.

"Sometime around 11:00 A.M. on November 24, 1963 Captain Frank Martin came into the Juvenile Bureau and asked that Detectives Lowery, Goolsby, Miller, Cutchshaw, Harrison and myself follow him to the City Hall basement. We did so. The basement was crowded with officers, newspaper, radio and television people. We proceeded to the area just outside the basement door that adjoins the parking area. We reported to Captain O.A. Jones who assigned the Detectives where he wanted them.

"Shortly after our arrival an armored car backed partially on to the basement ramp on the Commerce Street side. Chief Batchelor, Sergeant P. T. Dean and myself proceeded to search the armored car. Nothing was found. I instructed officers on the Commerce Street exit not to let anyone in or out of the basement until we advised them otherwise.

"Sergeant Dean and Chief Batchelor then left me with the armored car. Sergeant Dean returned and said his boss told him to ride inside the truck with the prisoner.

"Shortly afterwards an unmarked police car drove on to the ramp from the basement area. This car parked near the jail door entrance on the ramp. I was aware from the excitement of the crowd that Lee Oswald was in sight but could not see anything for the police car between us. Next a shot was heard. I ran down, yelling to the officers not to let anyone out of the basement.

"I was advised by some one that Jack Ruby had shot Oswald.

"In a very short time an ambulance came and removed Oswald.

"Just prior to my taking my position on the armored car, I had looked over the crowd carefully that was gathered near the door. I have known Jack Ruby fr years but did not see him at that time. This observation made approximately ten minutes before the shooting.

"Re: Interview of Reserve Officer,
Patrolman Arthur W. Capps, 258

"On November 30, 1963 Reserve Officer, Patrolman Arthur W. Capps was interviewed by the undersigned officers as to any information he might have concerning the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald not covered in his original report dated November 26, 1963.

"Patrolman Capps stated that at his place of assignment no one was allowed to pass except police officers. Two men in civilian dress were stopped by him as they were walking toward the City Hall. One of these men was identified as a Police Sergeant and the other as a Patrolman assigned to the Accident Prevention Bureau, but he could not identify himself as he had left his identification at home. Before this officer was allowed to pass he was identified as being a Policeman by Officer Patterson. These were the only two people dressed in civilian clothes who were allowed to pass through Police lines at his location.

"Capps further states that he has not been contacted by any federal agency at this time.

"Respectfully submitted.

"On November 24, 1963, at approximately 11:15 A.M. I was standing in the basement of the Police building as part of a security guard. I was standing about five feet from the door of the jail. Mr. Oswald was led by me and I was attempting to keep people away from him. I was standing just behind Mr. Oswald and saw a flash and heard a shot. I saw Mr. Oswald fall and this man was then facing me but he was crouched over. I caught a glimpse of a pistol he had in his right hand. I attempted to get the pistol and grabbed his arm. At that instant someone else grabbed the pistol and several other officers were helping to subdue him.

"We then took the suspect into the jail office and searched him. Some other officers placed him on the jail elevator and I was ordered to go to Parkland Hospital to help the officers there.

"BEFORE ME, A. L. CURTIS a Notary Public in and for said County, State of Texas, on this day personally appeared Kenneth Hudson Croy, Address: 2634 West Illinois, Telephone No.: FE 7-0621.

"Who, after being by me duly sworn, on oath deposes and says: I am a Reserve Police Sergeant with the Dallas Police Reserve. On November 24, 1963 I reported to the Police Assembly Room at approximately 8:35 a.m. to Lieutenant Merrell who was making assignments. I then took over making assignments from him. I wrote the men up on the roster at the time they arrived and made assignments to them until approximately 10:00 a.m. At that time I went to the basement and worked from the basement of the City Hall, assigning reserve officers who were late arriving, and also checking on where my men had been assigned. Prior to Oswald's appearance into the basement of the City Hall I stationed myself at the foot of the north end of the ramp in the basement. I was there for quite some time watching the reporters. Someone had made the remark to watch the reporters, and to move them back against the rail. There were several reporters in front of me. Captain Arnett was standing to the right of me. I was approximately in the middle of the ramp between the wall and the rail. Someone in authority gave instructions to move the press back against the rail. At that time I turned and told two men standing to my left to move back against the rail. One of these men had a motion picture camera, the other was wearing a dark maroon coat with black thread woven into it. He was wearing a brown hat. (My father has a coat something similar to the one the man was wearing that I spoke to) I then turned my attention back to the reporters which were standing in front of me. I believe this man that to to have been Jack Ruby. The man with the motion picture camera got up on the rail. The man with the dark maroon coat stepped back a little. I turned back around and one or two officers came out of the jail office and then Captain Fritz, and then they brought Oswald out. He was handcuffed

"to one of the officers and there was a man on each side of him holding his arm. There was a reporter standing there with a microphone in his hand. The reporters then converged on Oswald. The reporter with the microphone stuck it up in Oswald's face and asked him, 'Do you have any comment?' At this time I observed a blur come from my left side. I was off balance. I saw a man running into the crowd in a crouch. At that moment I reached for this individual and touched his coat tail attempting to stop him. I saw him run right up to Oswald and I heard a shot. At the time I heard the shot, there were several officers who swarmed him and wrestled him to the pavement. I also tried to grab hold of his gun, but there were too many men there for me to be effective. At that point an officer did disarm him and took him out. I didn't get to see the man they were wrestling to the floor because too many officers swarmed him. At this point orders were given to seal the basement. I ran approximately half way up the north ramp and stopped reporters trying to leave the basement. During the interview with Lieutenant Jack Revill and Lieutenant F. I. Cornwall something was mentioned about an automobile leaving the basement via the north ramp to the Main Street. I recall an automobile driving out, but I can't recall the time nor can I recall how many men were in this automobile. I seem to recall this automobile as being a light blue squad car.

"Dear Captain Solomon:

"I reported for duty in the Assembly Room, Sunday, November 24, 1963, at approximately 8:30 AM. I waited in the Assembly Room until I was assigned to help search the basement garage. I searched cars in spaces one through 16 and the two cars beside the outbound ramp. I also crawled behind the air conditioning machinery beside the outbound ramp to make sure no one was there. I was then assigned to the corner of Commerce and Harwood with Reserve Officer Harold Jacobs and was instructed to allow no one to pass down the north sidewalk of Commerce unless they were police officers or had a 'press card.'

"I stopped traffic at this intersection to allow the armored car turn from Harwood on to Commerce. I was standing on the northeast corner of Commerce and Harwood when the shooting took place.

"A few seconds after the shot was fired, a detective ran out and instructed us to seal off all exits. I proceeded to the Harwood exit and there Sgt. Putman and I apprehended a suspect who was running down the hall on the Court's floor of the City Hall. I put my handcuffs on him, took him to the Homicide Bureau and stayed with him for about 30 minutes. Detectives then released the suspect and me and I returned to the Assembly Room.

"Subject: Assignment of Sergeant
Patrick T. Dean On Sunday, November 24, 1963

"Sir:

"On Sunday, November 24, 1963 at approximately 9:00 A.M., I was advised by Lieutenant R. S. Pierce to take a group of men and thoroughly search the garage portion of the basement. This assignment was in preparation and security purposes in the transfer of Harvey Lee Oswald, W/M/24, to the County Jail from the City Jail.

"I then obtained thirteen (13) Reserve Officers from the Detail Room and with the aid of Sergeant J. A. Putnam, Officers L. E. Jez, and A. R. Brock we conducted a systematic search of the basement. The men were advised to check very carefully the cars, trucks, and the overhanging pipes, and air conditioning ducts. Before the search was started at the northern side of the basement, the following men were assigned at these locations:

"B. G. Patterson	Top of ramp on Commerce
"R. E. Vaughn	Top of ramp on Main
"A. R. Brock	Basement Elevators
"R. C. Nelson	Basement Entrance From City Hall
"Reserve Officer	South Portion of Basement At The Engine Room Entrance

"These men were advised to permit no one in the basement other than properly identified pressmen or law enforcement officers, and not to leave these assignments for any reason until relieved, by either myself or Sergeant Putnam.

"The above assignments were later supplemented by the officers as follows:

"L. E. Jez	Top Commerce Street Ramp
"L. C. Taylor	Top Commerce Street Ramp

"In addition numerous reserve officers (names of which I did not retain) were assigned to these locations.

"At approximately 11:00 A.M. an armored car was backed into the Commerce Street Exit to the basement.

"Shortly after, approximately 11:15 A.M., Lieutenant Pierce approached me just outside the Jail Office and advised me to ride in the Armored Car and to give him two (2) officers to go with him in his car. I advised Sergeant Putnam to get an unassigned man (Sergeant Maxey) and go with Lieutenant Pierce.

"I then went to the Armored Car and remained approximately five minutes until I heard the shot and saw the commotion at the bottom of the ramp which was approximately fifty (50) feet from me.

"I immediately ran to the location to assist the officer with the crowd.

"It was then, while the detectives had the suspect on the floor, that I recognized him (the suspect) as Jack Ruby.

"I knew Jack Ruby as the manager of the Carousel Club located in the 1300 block of Commerce. I met him while I was assigned as a sergeant on Zone 100 which includes the location of the Carousel Club.

"At no time during the day had I seen Jack Ruby either in nor around the City Hall. In fact I have not seen him for several months.

"At approximately 12:00 Noon Chief Curry contacted me just outside his office and instructed me to escort Mr. Forrest V. Sorrells, Agent in charge of the locate Secret Service, to the Fifth Floor Jail for Mr. Sorrells to interview Mr. Ruby.

"After Mr. Sorrells interrogated the subject I questioned Ruby as to how he had entered the basement and the length of time he had been there. Ruby then stated to me in the presence of Sorrells that he had entered the basement through the ramp entering on Main Street. He further stated that he would estimate his total time as about three minutes before the detectives brought Oswald into his view, then he immediately shot him (Oswald).

"About 10:30 a.m. on November 24, 1963, I was assigned to go downstairs to help guard the departure of Oswald. I was following a group of fifteen or twenty detectives. I was standing in the doorway by the telephone booths directly across from the jail office windows. Captain Jones was giving instructions to keep an aisle open from the jail office to the ramp. There were a lot of newsmen and cameramen moving in and out. I was flanked by Detective Chambers on my right and Detectives Dawson and Archer on my left.

"About 1125 a.m. when Captain Fritz came out of the jail office, he was followed by two detectives from his bureau who had Oswald between them. We started closing up the rear and there was the sound of a gunshot. I had momentarily lost sight of Oswald and the officers escorting him because other detectives were closing in behind them. I did see a man holding a gun and detectives diving at him attempting to wrest the gun from him and subdue him.

"I jumped toward the man trying to grab the gun but was blocked out by other detectives. I didn't see where the man with the gun came from or see the shot fired.

"Eight or ten detectives wrestled the man to the floor and I heard Captain Talbert yell to block off all exits and en"trances to the basement. I went to the doors leading out of the basement by the information desk and wouldn't let anyone in or out.

"I remained here until Captain Jones sent me to Parkland Hospital with a group of eight other detectives and Lieutenant McKinley to guard exits and entrances to the third floor where Oswald had been taken. I remained on this assignment until relieved at about 3:10 p.m.

Dean, Dallas Police Department, came in and asked all Reserve Officers to help search the parking area in the basement of the City Hall. I personally searched all air conditioning ducts and heating ducts, above all pipes that run just under the ceiling in the basement. I also checked the open space under north ramp. I searched several cars. They all belonged to the City of Dallas.

"I reported to Capt. Arnett, Police Reserve, and Sgt. Dean, Dallas Police Department, where I had searched and found clear. I was ordered to stand by for further assignment. At approximately 10:40 A. "Subject: Murder of Lee Harvey Oswald

"Sir:

"The following information is submitted relevant to my activities in the basement of the Police and Courts Building immediately prior to, at the time of, and immediately following the murder of Lee Harvey Oswald by Jack Ruby, Alias Jack Leon Rubenstein.

"At approximately 10:45 a.m. on November 24, I went to the basement of the Police and Courts Building because of the number of newsmen who were assembled at that location. The newsmen were there because of the impending transfer of Oswald from the City to the County Jail.

"When I went into the parking area and driveway, a large number of newsmen were already there. I spoke briefly with Jack Beers, photographer for the Dallas Morning News who was, at that time, standing on the rail on the eastern side of the driveway. I stayed in the basement talking with newsmen and preventing them from going up the south ramp toward the location where the armored car was parked.

"I talked briefly with Captain O.A. Jones, Captain C.B. Talbert and Captain Arnett of the Police Reserves.

"When the vehicle, driven by Lieutenant R. S. Pierce, was driven from the basement to Main Street, I was on the west side of the driveway near where the ramp to Commerce Street starts up. I was at this location when the vehicle,

"driven by Detective C. N. Dhority, was backed toward Main Street and I was watching this vehicle when I heard the shot. I yelled for the officers on the Commerce Street side to keep people from coming in or leaving and then went over to where Ruby was being held. The persons I remember seeing with Ruby were Officer W. J. Harrison of the Juvenile Bureau and Detective D. R. Archer of the Auto Theft Bureau. I went with these officers inside the Jail Office with Ruby and then up the elevator to the 5th Floor where I left them and returned to the basement. When I returned to the basement, Oswald had already been picked up by the ambulance. I then returned to my office and talked with newsmen who continued to come into the Administrative Office inquiring about the incident which had occurred in the basement.

"Respectfully submitted,

"Sir:

"On Sunday, November 24, at approximately 9:45 A.M., I arrived at the basement of the City Hall and reported to Captain Arnett. They had just completed searching the basement, I had no specific assignment. I was told to stand around and keep my eyes open, to let no-one in the part of the basement where the cars come and leave unless they had a Press Card.

"I noted every car that came into the basement was thoroughly searched by the regular officers.

"At different times I walked up both ramps to observe the crowds that were gathering, and talked to the officers standing at both entrances to the basement.

"I was constantly bothered by reporters, asking questions and wanting information which I did not know.

"I was told rumors were that there were several threats going around, and that was the reason for all the security.

"Prior to Oswald's arrival from the Jail Office we were told to keep the Press against the railing and to keep one side clear, which we did. In a few minutes Oswald came out of the door and had just rounded the corner. I was looking at his face, and in just a fraction of a second later I saw a blur, my thoughts were that some reporter was attacking him (Oswald). I then heard a muffled shot, and heard someone say 'get the Doctor.' I saw Captain Arnett grappling in the crowd and ran to his aid, but saw he was O.K. Then, heard someone holler not to let anyone out, so I ran halfway up the North ramp and stood there. No-one passed.

"I did not know the subject Ruby and had never seen him to the best of my knowledge.

"Respectfully,

"Mr. J. E. Curry
Chief of Police

"Sir:

"I arrived at the City Hall, Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, at approximately 9:25 A. M. I went to the Police Assembly Room in the basement and reported in to Lt. B. C. Merrell, and asked him where Captain Arnett was. Lt. Merrell informed me that Captain Arnett and all of the Reserves who had been there were taken into the basement parking area by Sgt. P. T. Deen to search it.

"I then went to the basement parking area and reported to Captain Arnett who was standing about 15 feet behind two television cameras that were set up in the first two parking stalls, facing the entranceway into the jail hallway. Reserve Officer G. E. Worley was standing beside Captain Arnett. I observed Reserve Lt. D. Texsuits standing at the bottom of the ramp, Tex leading into the parking area. I also noticed Reserve Patrolman W. J. Newman standing at the extreme south end of the parking area. A radio patrol officer was standing in front of the elevators that are on the center east side of the parking area. I asked Captain Arnett what the situation was, and he told me that they had just finished searching the basement under the direction of Sgt. P. T. Deen, and they had been instructed to stay in the basement area and keep people out of the parking area.

"Captain Talbot came by and asked if the air conditioning vents had been checked and Sgt. J. R. Hopkins (Reserve) walked up at this time and said that he had just finished checking them. I stayed with Captain Arnett to help in coordinating the assignments requested of the Reserves.

"Two conferences were held by the regular officers in the parking area, but we were not asked to listen in or not told what was going on. After these conferences, the regular officers left the basement area with shotguns.

"Sgt. Deen requested that we send a man to Commerce and Pearl to work the traffic as a signal light was stuck at this location. I sent Patrolman G. E. Worley to work this.

"A request was made that we send men to the south ramp entrance to move the crowd that had gathered there across the street to the south sidewalk and hold them there. I made several trips to and from the assembly room to get reserves as they reported in to Lt. Merrell to help handle this crowd. I sent Reserve Sgt. Hopkins up to the Commerce Street side to supervise the operation and to keep me informed of the situation there. A request was made that a Reserve Office be placed in the hall in front of the jail office window to help the regular officer there check people out. Reserve Officer A. B. Craig was assigned to this location.

"On several occasions, and from time to time, I observed men in plain clothes coming down the ramps and going into the hall in front of the jail. I assumed that these were press personnel and I did not take any special note, because of the regular officers that were supposed to check everyone out at the top of the ramps.

"Much shuffling of cars took place in the parking area. I observed the paddy wagon come down the north ramp with Patrolman Lewis driving. I saw Sgt. Deen stop him and search the back of the wagon and then permit Lewis to go on into the parking area.

"I observed squad cars being lined up in the north and south sides of the basement parking area. I observed Sgt. Steele and Reserve Patrolman J. H. Harrison leave the basement area in a squad car and drive out the South Ramp. TeK

"I then observed Chief Batchelor get into his car and leave by the South Ramp. I then observed the Armored car being backed into the South Ramp. Some men in plain clothes got into the back, a bottle fell out, and I saw one of the men in plain clothes picking up the glass from the ramp. I observed Sgt. Dean get into the Armored car and then come out. About this time, two men came into the outer jail hall and told the press personnel that they should stand along the north wall of the jail hall and along the east railing of the ramp, so they would all be able to get pictures without bunching up.

"Two plain cars were brought out of the parking area and parked on the ramp headed south. I assisted in getting the cars through the crowd that was blocking the entrance to the parking area. I then moved several people who I assumed were press people away from the west wall of the south ramp over to the "east side, and then stood by the west wall approximately one foot south of the jail hall. I heard a commotion and glanced to my left; I saw two plainclothesmen with a man between them coming toward the ramp; I looked back to my front and right to see what the press people were doing, and I heard what I thought was a flashbulb exploding. I looked back to my left and saw a man with a gun pointed at the midsection of the man the two plainclothesmen had between them.

"I immediately jumped on the man, along with Reserve Captain Arnett and Reserve Sgt. K. H. Croy, and several other men. When the man was subdued, I heard some shout, 'No One Out! No One Out! ' I joined hands with Reserve Patrolman J. D. Brockway and kept the people from going into the jail hall. Captain Arnett and Reserve Sgt. Croy joined us.

"We stayed in this position until the O'Neal ambulance came and they took Oswald off to the hospital. A man in plain clothes then came out and told the press people that they would be admitted to the building proper by press card. We then went inside the building to the assembly room to be assigned where needed.

"Several men were sent to various locations to seal off the building entrances and several were sent to work traffic around the city hall. We were moved from the assembly room so the press could use it and set up our C. P. on the second floor in the Planning Commission room.

"To my knowlege, I had never seen nor met the subject Ruby before I saw him with the gun in his hand at the time of the shooting of Oswald.

"Sir:

"I should like to submit the following report regarding the incident occurring in the basement on November 24, 1963.

"On November 24, 1963, I was assigned to the basement of the City Hall at approximately 11:10 a.m. for the purpose of security in the transferring of Lee Harvey Oswald from the City Jail to the County Jail. I was stationed near the jail office door which exits onto the ramp leading in a northerly direction toward Main Street. Detective L. D. Miller was stationed to my immediate right and I was the second person from the door on the north side of the hallway which leads to the jail office door. I do not know who was on my left.

"At approximately 11:25 a.m. Captain Fritz came out of the jail office door and asked if everything was all right, and I answered, "Yes sir." I do not know if he was speaking directly to me. Two Homicide detectives were holding onto the prisoner escorting him, and I recognized Detective Leavelle on the prisoner's left. Captain Fritz had proceeded past me and the two Homicide detectives with the prisoner had proceeded slightly past me. As the prisoner was even with me, I made a left face which caused me to be walking in a southeasterly direction. Just as I had taken about one or two steps in forming the barrier on the north side of the prisoner, a man jumped from somewhere slightly to my right and in front of me. I heard this man yell, "You rat son-of-a-bitch, you shot the President." I saw the man as he appeared to jump or lunge toward the prisoner. I saw a short barrel revolver and heard one shot. I attempted to grab this man by the right arm and could still see the revolver. But after I had gotten hold of this man's right arm, several more officers were also trying to subdue him. At this point, I was on the floor just outside the jail office and the man said, "I hope I killed the rat son-of-a-bitch." I do not know who took the gun from this man, but Detectives Archer, Chambers, Clardy, Waggoner, and some more officers took this man into the jail office and at the time he was on the floor and I recognized h[illegible] Jack Ruby. We placed my handcuffs on this man and Detectives Archer, and Captain King, and I took this man directly to the floor men's jail, after a preliminary search in the jail office.

"On the fifth floor men's jail we instructed jailers to search this man and strip him leaving him clad in only his shorts. We also instructed the jailers to notify the jail doctor to come and examine this man.

"Detectives Clardy, Archer, and I stayed with this prisoner from 11:25 a.m. until relieved by Homicide detectives at approximately 3:25 p.m. During the time we were with this man, he was interrogated by Mr. Sorrells of Secret Service and Mr. Hall of the F.B.I. He was contacted by an attorney, Mr. Tom Howard, and he was examined by Dr. Bieberdorf when we were relieved by TCY Homicide officers.

"Detectives Clardy, Archer, and I assisted in getting this man from the fifth floor jail to the Homicide and Robbery Bureau.

"Subject: Assignment of Sergeant
James A. Putnam On Sunday, November 24, 1963

"Sir:

"On Sunday, November 24, 1963, at approximately 9:00 A.M., Sergeant Dean advised me he had instructions to search the basement parking area and instructed me to assist him. I was with Sergeant Dean when he assigned the officers at each entrance to the area to be searched. The assignments were as follows:

"R. C. Nelson	Basement Entrance From Police & Courts Building
R. E. Vaughn	North Ramp Entrance on Main Street
B. G. Patterson	South Ramp Exit on Commerce Street
A. R. Brock	Elevators In Basement

Reserve Officer Assigned by Reserve Captain Arnett, Entrance On South Side From Engine Room

"Sergeant Dean instructed the men on these posts to refuse entrance to anyone except properly identified Police Officers and members of the Press.

"After securing the area, Sergeant Dean contacted Reserve Captain Arnett, who provided approximately twelve (12) Reserve Policemen to assist us with the search. Officer L. E. Jex, Sergeant Dean, Reserve Captain Arnett, approximately twelve (12) other Reserve Policemen and I conducted a search of all vehicles and all of the possible hiding places in the basement parking area.

"I assisted Sergeant Dean by remaining in the basement and checking the posts as often as possible and also asking for identification of anyone in the basement that I did not recognize, as Police or Press Personnel.

"Shortly after the search was completed an unmarked police car occupied by two detectives drove into the basement. I checked the inside of their car. Following this car was a police patrol wagon, driven by C. G. Lewis. He stopped the vehicle and I checked the cab and opened the rear doors of the passenger compartment. I then assigned Officer W. E. Hibbs, and Officer G. L. Tolbert to take a position at the bottom of the north ramp and instructed them to look into all vehicles that came into the basement.

"At approximately 10:45 A.M. Sergeant Dean called approximately twelve (12) officers together that had been standing by in the basement and gave them traffic assignments at each intersection that the prisoner was supposed to travel enroute to the County Jail.

"At approximately 11:18 A.M. Sergeant Dean advised me to go with Lieutenant Pierce in his car and to get one man to go with me.

"I asked Sergeant Maxey to come with us and the three of us left the basement by the Main Street ramp, at approximately 11:20 A.M. When we arrived at the top of the ramp I observed Officer R. E. Vaughn standing to my right. I did not see anyone come into the basement as we left.

"We went to the Commerce Street side of the ramp and as we stopped the car, Detective Reynolds ran from the basement beside the armored car and yelled to cover off the Police and Courts Building, Oswald had been shot. I assisted him temporarily and then returned to the Lieutenant Pierce's car.

"SUBJECT: Location of Detective H.B. Reynolds at the time of the shooting of Oswald, November 24, 1963

"Sir:

"Below is submitted report supplied by Detective H.B. Reynolds as regarding his activities on November 24, 1963.

"At 11:00 Lieutenant Swain came into the office and told us, one by one, to start toward ___ Jail Office. Stephens and I, the last two left, and I went to the double doors leading outside into the ramp area. I was there when Oswald was brought out of the elevator. At this time, I noticed that an Attorney Tom Howard was standing in the lobby outside of the Jail office behind the uniformed officer stationed there. As officers escorting Oswald started out into the ramp area, I heard a shot.

"I ran back into the lobby and down the lobby to the Commerce Street exit, and up on the street and ordered an uniformed officer to block the Commerce Street exit to the old City Hall and to not let any one out. I ran to the Hardwood Street exit and ordered an uniformed officer to not let any one out of that exit. I came back to the Commerce Street exit and entered on the first floor of the City Hall to see a Negro running toward the exit on the Main Street. I immediately went after him along with Sgt. Everett and a reserved officer who were "catching up with him at that time. This colored male was handcuffed, and I took possessin of him and took him to the Homicide office where I released him to Detective Baker, and then I took position in front of the Chief's office to stop pressmen from entering into this office.

"SUBJECT: Location of Detective Ivan R. Stephens at the time of the shooting of Oswald, November 24, 1963.

"Sir

"The following is a report submitted by Detective Ivan R. Stephens regarding his activities on November 24, 1963 at the time of the incident at the basement.

"At about 11:15 a.m., November 24, 1963, Lieutenant Swain ordered me to the basement of the City Hall to aid in the transfer of the prisoner, Lee Harvey Oswald to the County Jail. I went to the basement and remained in the lobby in front of the jail office when the Homicide men brought Oswald down on the inside jail elevator and started to the East Jail Door that leads to the parking area. These door_ were open at the time. I was behind the pressmen that were taking pictures through the Cashier's Doors of the jail, and I remained behind these pressmen and photographers in order to keep out any unauthorized persons that might attempt to come in behind the prisoner through the lobby.

"I heard the shot and heard someone cry that the prisoner had been shot. I did not see the scene and was about forty feet from where the prisoner was shot. I saw the detectives carry Oswald inside the jail office and also saw some detectives attempting to carry a man inside of the jail office that was the one someone had said had shot the prisoner. I attempted "to help these men get the prisoner inside the office. As soon as the prisoner was secured, I walked over where Oswald was lying on the floor, and saw a bullet hole in his left side as he was lying on the floor. He appeared to be conscience at the time and city doctor was called and was working on him when the ambulance came for him. I returned to the third floor for further assignment.

"Subject: Security Of Police Parking And Prisoner Loading Area
Sunday, November 24, 1963

"Sir:

"At approximately 9:00 A.M., Sunday, November 24, 1963 I discussed the need for coverage against possible violence around the City Hall with Lieutenant R. S. Pierce. I instructed him to call three squads from their district assignments from the three stations and pull four from Headquarters Station, getting two man squads where possible. The officers were to be in Central Station with their squad cars parked on the street, available for immediate use but dispersed in parking, not later than 9:30 A.M. Out of thirteen squads we obtained a total of nineteen (19) patrolmen. Supervisors at the station for the security were Lieutenant Pierce, Sergeant P.T. Dean, Sergeant Putnam, Sergeant Steele, and I. Lieutenant Wiggins was in the Jail Office.

"Lieutenant Pierce instructed Sergeant Dean to secure all entrances and exits to the parking and prisoner loading area, then clear the basement of all personnel other than police, and reserves. Sergeant Putnam was instructed to assist in the assignment.

"The area in which the prisoner Oswald would be escorted was to be thoroughly searched. Areas searched were the cars parked in the basement, including their trunks, and engine compartments, the tops of all pipes, and air conditioning ducts, the service rooms opening into the basement were to be looked after clearing them of personnel. The building elevators were out off on the first floor so they could not be used to reach the basement and the parking attendants were sent from the basement to the first floor of the City Hall with instructions to remain with the elevators to prevent tampering. The City Hall service elevator is a self-service type but had an operator. This man was instructed that he was not to go below the first floor until notified. The service elevator from the sub basement of the Police and Courts Building exit, into the basement parking area and has no doors to lock so a reserve officer was stationed there.

"The sergeants used a total of seventeen (17) regular and reserve officers to execute the search. The extra officers were held in the sergeant's room at my office and the reserves were retained in the assembly room. These officers were not permitted in the basement to insure no confusion in the systematic search.

"After the area was secured and cleared only officers, reserves, and accredited news press were permitted to re-enter. Identification of the news personnel was made by their press credentials. All civilian employees of the Department were cleared from the basement lobby and instructed to remain at their desk.

"Officer R. C. Nelson and a reserve officer were stationed in the hall leading to the jail service windows. The door from the jail to the lobby remained locked and the public used the first window, set at an angle, to conduct jail business.

"Detective Beaty and Lowery remained with the officers during most of the period the parking and prisoner area was closed off. Everyone conducting business at the jail was scrutinized and they did not appear to have legitimate business, they were conducted from the basement.

"There was little traffic on Main and no one loitering. A large crowd was gathering on Commerce. I had everyone removed from the City Hall side (north) of Commerce to the south side. Sergeant Steele and Reserve Harrison checked the buildings opposite the basement drive for possible snipers.

"The information received from the FBI by Captain Frazier was: two calls from males stated 'one hundred of us will kill Oswald before he gets to the County Jail.' Due to this and the crowds formation I built up my personnel on the Commerce Street side.

"I called Homicide and told Detective Beck of the parking area check and asked if Captain Fritz wanted uniformed officers to proceed and follow the transfer vehicle. He said Captain Fritz was with the prisoner and they would let me know. I prepared three plain and three marked cars to use either type Homicide desired.

"I was contacted by Chief Stevenson and Chief Lumpkin regarding an armored car. I was to back into the drive as far as possible from Commerce. When it arrived two more officers were stationed at the bottom of the Commerce Street ramp with instructions that no one was to pass up or down the ramp after the prisoner passed them. Due to its height, the armored car could only be backed in a short distance.

"Before the arrival of the Armored Car, Chief Lumpkin, Chief Stevenson, and I discussed the route and traffic obstructions. They were reportedly six hundred (600) people around the County Jail. I instructed Sergeant Steele to place a regular officer at each traffic light with his squad car close by. The lead car would flash its lights as they approached and the officer would cut all opposing traffic. After the vehicle passed they were to enter their cars and follow to the County Jail "to assist with any trouble. The entire traffic detail was in the County Jail Area.

"Sergeant Steele contacted Captain Lawrence for additional officers for intersection coverage. As the vehicle cleared the city hall all officers and reserves at the City Hall were to report by a parallel route to the County Jail. I would use Channel Two and tell Sergeant Steele to cut it. He had a motorcycle officer to send to Elm and Field to instruct the officers on the corners to divert all traffic from Elm between Field and Houston. Regular traffic was heavy.

"After the Armored Car arrived we sent a plain car out the Main Street side. This was the lead car and contained Lieutenant Pierce driving, Sergeant Putnam on the right front, and Sergeant B. J. Maxey in the rear.

"A Homicide Detective pulled a plain car on the ramp behind the armored car then another Homicide Detective pulled in behind him and attempted to straighten his car and back up. Several reserve officers and I were attempting to push the news people back to give the vehicle room to manuever. I was pushing several people back at the left front fender when the shot was fired. I assisted the officers in clearing news personnel from the prisoner and officers who were down then ordered that no one was to be permitted out of the basement.

"I checked the parking area several times and saw no unauthorized personnel. I removed a number of people from the first floor and basement lobby, this was a continious check prior to the transfer.

"After the prisoner entered the ambulance and I gathered my personnel from Elm and reported to Parkland Hospital, we secured the hospital.

"Re: Interview of Reserve Officer,
Patrolman Gano E. Worley, 516

"On November 30, 1963 Reserve Officer, Patrolman Gano E. Worley was interviewed by the undersigned officers as to any information he might have concerning the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald which was not covered in his original report dated November 26, 1963.

"Worley stated that he would like to add that at approximately 10:30 a.m. from his position in the first two parking places on the north side of the parking area in the basement he saw a man come down the north ramp and jump over the rail into the the parking area. He described this man as being a white male, 35, 5 feet, 8 inches, 175 pounds, wearing tan khaki trousers, tan khaki shirt, and hip length zip-up light brown jacket. This man was stopped and was identified by one of the officers in the basement as being a maintenance man for the city of Dallas.

"Sir:

"I arrived at the City Hall at 8:30 A. M. and went to the 3rd floor as directed. I was then told to report to the Assembly Room for assignment.. Upon arriving at the Assembly Room, I was assigned by Reserve Sgt. Croy to stand by the Basement Information Desk and direct all reserve officers to report to the Assembly Room for assignment. At approximately 9:15 A. M. Reserve Capt. Arnett moved me to the parking area in the basement. I was to keep any cars from parking in the first two parking places on the North side of parking area. I stood at this post till about ten or fifteen minutes before Lee Harvey Oswald was shot. I was moved from the post by Lt. McCoy and assigned to the corner of Commerce and Central Expressway (Northbound) to help the regular patrolman (Burton) direct traffic and was at this location when the prisoner, Lee Harvey Oswald, was shot. The regular officer (Burton) was sent to Parkland Hospital and I returned to the basement of City Hall. Reserve Lt. McCoy assigned me to the basement entrance (North) to keep the people from blocking the drive to the basement. I stayed at this assignment till 12:00 Noon, at which time I was relieved and went home.

"I had met Jack Rubenstein when working with Squad 105, five or six months ago. I did not see him in any part of the City Hall on November 24, 1963. I probably would not have recognized him if I had seen him, since I had only seen him one time.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Mr. STEVEN M. ALEXANDER, news cameraman, KTAL-TV, Channel 6, Shreveport, Louisiana, furnished the following information:

On November 22, 1963, ALEXANDER was on vacation at Waco, Texas, when he heard the President had been shot at Dallas, Texas. He immediately drove to Dallas, arriving about 3:30 p.m. on the same day. He stayed in Dallas until 6:10 p.m. on November 24, 1963, during which time he was working for NBC, having been hired by Mr. DONALD C. ROBERTS, NBC of Los Angeles, California, to cover the incident.

During this time ALEXANDER did not talk to JACK RUBY. He has no information RUBY knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD, or was associated with OSWALD. There was a rumor going around the basement of the City Hall in Dallas on the afternoon of November 24, 1963, that RUBY's roommate, a bartender of Ruby, or an entertainer at RUBY's night club, had said OSWALD had been in RUBY's club a day or two before November 22, 1963. ALEXANDER does not know who started this rumor and can not furnish the name of any person he heard repeat the rumor. He did not check into the truth of the rumor and does not know if any representative of news media checked into the rumor.

On November 23, 1963, about 6 p.m., the Chief of Police, Dallas, held a press conference at which time he stated LEE OSWALD would be moved from the city jail to the county jail in Dallas the next morning at 10 a.m. The Chief of Police said the news media could cover the transfer and obtain photographs of OSWALD.

The next morning, Sunday, November 24, 1963, ALEXANDER entered City Hall, Dallas, at 7:30 a.m. He immediately went to the basement. He does not recall if he entered the basement by walking down the ramp or if he entered the building on the main floor and took an elevator to the basement. No one asked for his identification and business appeared to be going on as usual in the basement. There were four officers on duty at the Bail Out Desk located in the basement. Two of the employees were uniformed officers and two were in civilian clothing. Several persons were standing at the desk obtaining the release of inmates of the jail. ALEXANDER asked the police lieutenant in charge of the desk about OSWALD and was told OSWALD would not be moved until 10 a.m. There was no other representative of news media in the basement yet.

ALEXANDER stated he walked in various parts of the basement from 7:30 a.m. until the shooting of OSWALD which occurred about 11:30 a.m. He was carrying a camera but wore no identification of any kind. At no time was he asked for identification by any police officer and he doubts that any other newsmen were asked for identification. He noticed several representatives of news media had press cards on their coat lapels but most did not have any identification showing. He knows of no person other than police and representatives of news media who were in the area, except for JACK RUBY and he was not aware RUBY was there until after the shooting of OSWALD. ALEXANDER is of the opinion the police did not ask for identification from persons entering the basement of City Hall and just assumed everyone there was a representative of news media.

During the time between 7:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m., many representatives of news media entered the basement. About 9:30 a.m., a crew of cameramen from KSLD - TV, Dallas, and WBAP - TV, Fort Worth, Texas, manned two live cameras which cameras had been left in the hall way of the basement overnight. The two crews were told by officers to move the cameras and moved eastward to the area of the basement at the entrance of the police garage. There were some 15 to 20 uniformed officers in the area along with about 17 reserve policemen. About half of the reserve policemen were sent outside the building. About 10 a.m., ALEXANDER went outside and observed the police enter and apparently search a red brick building across the street south from the south ramp entrance into the basement. He observed one officer on the roof of this building. ALEXANDER re-entered the basement without being asked for identification. About 9 a.m., ALEXANDER observed several officers searching the area of the basement. The officers were looking in the trunks of cars located in the police garage as well as looking in air conditioning grills in the hall ways. ALEXANDER asked one of the officers the reason for the search and was told the police had received a threat on OSWALD's life. During all of this time no part of the basement was closed off and business appeared to be going on as usual at the Bail Out Desk. ALEXANDER did observe some police officers to move several city employees out of the area of this police garage and to seal off the two elevators in that side of the building.

ALEXANDER observed the following representatives of news media who were known to him in the basement prior to the shooting:

JACK BEERS, Photographer, Dallas Morning News, Dallas, Texas.

GENE BARNES, NBC cameraman, Burbank, California, who was working in conjunction with ALEXANDER, but who did not arrive at the basement of City Hall until about 9:30 a.m.

JAMES R. DAVIDSON, AIE Studios, 2510 Tangley, Houston, Texas, who was working for ABC.

TOM PETTIT, NBC, Burbank, California.

Camera crew of WBAP - TV, Fort Worth, Texas.

Camera crew of KSLD - TV, Dallas, Texas.

ALEXANDER does not know the identities of any of the other numerous representatives of news media who were in the basement. He does not know if any of the above named men have any information which ALEXANDER does not have. ALEXANDER obtained a film which shows OSWALD being shot and this film is the property of his employer, NBC.

About 10 a.m., or later, ALEXANDER observed an armored car attempt to back down the south ramp into the basement, but the car was too wide and parked with just the rear of the armored car protruding into the ramp entrance. Two police cars were parked on the ramp behind the armored car. He observed a group of officers cleaning out the rear part of the armored car during which time the officers dropped a pop bottle and everyone jumped as if shot. Sgt. L. D. PUTNAM of the Dallas Police Department, told the news media representatives they could stand in single file along the south or right wall of the south ramp. ALEXANDER noted representatives of news media were also standing along the north ramp looking into the alcove were OSWALD was to appear. He stated RUBY must have been in this group as the film he took shows RUBY approaching OSWALD from the north side.

About 11 a.m. the camera crew of WBAP - TV found they had the wrong lens and moved a new camera into the basement along the route which OSWALD was to use shortly. This new camera was being set up in the area of the basement at the entrance of the police garage when someone said "Here he comes." ALEXANDER walked westward and observed OSWALD appearing in the small alcove flanked by a police officer on each side. ALEXANDER did not begin taking pictures with his movie camera immediately as his camera has a short wind-up and can only run for a short time without being rewound. He was photographing OSWALD when RUBY evidently came up to OSWALD from the north which happened so fast ALEXANDER did not even observe RUBY although his camera recorded the incident.

ALEXANDER said he has no information that any member of the Dallas Police Department conspired with RUBY to allow OSWALD to be shot. He later overheard one of the police officers, a juvenile officer, talking over the telephone to an unknown person. This officer said over the telephone he had known RUBY 14 years and had once arrested him. This officer was the officer standing immediately behind the officer on OSWALD's left at the time OSWALD was shot. ALEXANDER asked this officer to be interviewed by him and obtained his name. The officer agreed to be interviewed but later said he would have to clear it with the Chief of Police. ALEXANDER gave the officer's name to TOM PETTIT, NBC representative from Burbank, California, but doubts if PETTIT ever interviewed the officer. ALEXANDER does not recall the name of the officer and does not think this officer conspired with RUBY. He mentioned the incident only because the officer would have recognized RUBY if he had seen him and would have known RUBY was not a representative of the press.

ALEXANDER advised that one or two hours after the shooting of OSWALD, he overheard one of RUBY's four attorneys talking to reporters. This attorney, who ALEXANDER described as one of the three normal sized attorneys and not the very short attorney, told reporters that at the time he entered the third floor of City Hall there seemed to be a great deal of excitement in the building. ALEXANDER understood the attorney to say someone had called him and said to get to the jail to bail RUBY out. ALEXANDER thought the attorney may have indicated he arrived at the building almost immediately after the shooting which might mean that he received a telephone call to bail RUBY out before the shooting occurred.

DREW BARNES, Cameraman for National Broadcasting Company, Inc. (NBC) News Staff, Hollywood, California, telephone 845-7000, residing at 12942 Bloomfield Street, Van Nuys, California, telephone CHestview 4-3002, furnished the following information:

He left Los Angeles, California, at 12:20 p.m., November 22, 1963, by American Airlines for Dallas, Texas, and was present on official duties at the Dallas City Hall on November 24, 1963, when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. His plan was to photograph OSWALD as he was brought into the basement by law officers and then to exit the basement, while other NBC cameras picked up camera continuity, and prepare to follow the armored truck, parked in one of the two basement ramps, as it transported OSWALD to the County Jail. He photographed OSWALD as the latter was brought by officers out of the basement elevator doors in the City Hall and was walking some fifteen feet towards a corridor. At that time BARNES exited through a tunnel being used for television cables and other equipment. As he was leaving the building, he heard a shot but continued on to his rented car parked nearby in order to be ready to follow the armored truck. Dallas Police Department officer SPEARS was standing by the rented car and was to serve as driver. He had obtained three days off from duty and had been employed by BARNES to act as driver for BARNES for the first two of those days.

BARNES saw Sergeant PUTNAM, Dallas Police Department, run up to a Police Department Lieutenant stationed at the armored truck and heard him say, "I got me a nigger." Upon seeing a microphone close by he said, "I'm sorry. I have me a Negro." He then explained to the Lieutenant that the Negro had been climbing over the tops of cars in the City Hall basement.

OSWALD was brought out very shortly thereafter and taken in an ambulance to a nearby hospital at a speed approximating ninety miles per hour, with BARNES and SPEARS following closely in the rented car, which had no radio.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

BARNES was the first newsman to arrive at the hospital from the City Hall, although other newsmen were there as they had been stationed previously at the hospital. As BARNES started setting up his equipment, Officer SPEARS came up to him and whispered, "Do you want the name of the guy who shot OSWALD?" BARNES answered, "Sure." SPEARS said, "You'll have to grease his palm." Because of SPEARS' accent, BARNES asked him to repeat what he had said and SPEARS did. So, BARNES asked, "What does he want, $5.00?" SPEARS answered, "You're the newsman - you ought to know." BARNES asked, "How good is your source?" SPEARS answered, "He's only the guy who was handcuffed to him." BARNES understood this to refer to an officer who was handcuffed to OSWALD. BARNES answered, "I'll have to check my office" and just as he was relaying information on the telephone from his "office," his NBC colleagues in WBAP-TV in Fort Worth, Texas, that JACK RUBY had shot OSWALD, SPEARS, who had stood guard for him at the telephone booth, stuck his head in the booth and said, "It's JACK RUBY." BARNES noted that the "Dallas Times-Herald" of November 25, 1963, carried a large front-page photograph of officers escorting OSWALD down a corridor in the City Hall basement and that a detective in a light suit, believed to be JACK LAVEL, appeared to be the only officer handcuffed to OSWALD. BARNES is at a loss to understand how Officer SPEARS knew so quickly who had shot OSWALD or what officer was handcuffed to OSWALD or why he believed that officer would give out any information. BARNES noted that when he telephoned his colleagues as to paying for information as to who shot OSWALD, he was advised that they had learned less than three minutes before from their technicians on the mobile remote truck that it was JACK RUBY; that the technicians had recognized RUBY immediately when his picture was telecast at the very moment OSWALD was shot, and before RUBY's name had been announced over the air.

BARNES has no personal knowledge of any person conspiring to kill OSWALD or the existence of any such conspiracy. He did not know OSWALD or RUBY or know of any connection between them. He did not talk to RUBY at any time.

BARNES heard rumors but cannot pinpoint any source that the man who let RUBY into the Dallas City Hall basement just before OSWALD was shot was in a Dallas Police Department Reserve uniform. BARNES recalled seeing this man on guard duty at elevators in Dallas City Hall basement at some time on the day OSWALD was shot and described him as being in his 60's, having white hair and a slender build. BARNES believes it possible he might have heard this through CLYDE GOODSON or GOERSON, an off-duty Dallas Police Department officer who drove for BARNES on November 26, 27 and 28, 1963.

BARNES said BOB MULHOLLAND, NCB News, Chicago, talked in Dallas to one FAIRY, a narcotics addict now out on bail on a sodomy charge in Dallas. FAIRY said that OSWALD had been under hypnosis from a man doing a mind-reading act at RUBY's "Carousel." FAIRY was said to be a private detective and the owner of an airplane who took young boys on flights just for kicks. MULHOLLAND may be located at Room 1537, Statler Hotel, Dallas, WBAP-TV, Fort Worth, Texas, or through his Chicago headquarters.

Officer HAMMIL or HAMMEL, Dallas Police Department, of the office of the Chief of Police, Dallas, said he knew many Dallas Police Department officers who frequented RUBY's "Carousel" on a "free-loading" basis.

BARNES was told by one BOGARD, salesman for Downtown Lincoln-Mercury dealer, Dallas, that about two weeks prior to the OSWALD shooting, he gave OSWALD a demonstration ride in a Comet automobile, which ride covered about seventeen miles instead of the usual twelve or fourteen blocks. BOGARD said OSWALD drove, accelerating on expressways, decelerating in city traffic, and indicating he knew where he wanted to drive. OSWALD refused to sign any papers, saying he wanted to pay cash for the car, the price of which was $3,500.00, and that he would be back in about ten days to pay cash. He gave BOGARD the name of LEE OSWALD and BOGARD gave him a business card.

BOGARD told BARNES that he returned each weekend to Shreveport, Louisiana, to be with his "ailing" wife.

JACK LAWRENCE, a salesman for the Downtown Lincoln Mercury dealer, who worked there five weeks and was discharged on November 23, 1963, originally advised BARNES on November 27, 1963, that OSWALD had received a demonstration ride from a representative of this car firm and that the Manager and Assistant Manager knew this. LAWRENCE told BARNES he came from West Virginia, had campaigned there for President KENNEDY, had left a wife and two children to come to Dallas about October, 1963, and had been connected with National Aeronautical Space Agency, St. Petersburg, Florida. BARNES said a check with the National Aeronautical Space Agency by NBC revealed no knowledge of LAWRENCE with that agency. LAWRENCE told BARNES he was leaving Dallas on November 29, 1963, for San Diego, California, for a job similar to the one he held with the National Aeronautical Space Agency.

BARNES utilized the two car ramps into City Hall basement on the morning of November 24, 1963, for his entrances and exits. Uniformed police officers were stationed at each ramp and BARNES was required each time to exhibit his press identification. The "tunnel" into the basement, utilized for television cables and equipment, was not known to have any guard protection. It was general press hearsay that many newsmen were going to and from the City Hall on November 24, 1963, without having to show any press identification.

BARNES' wife followed him to Dallas, arriving November 27, 1963, and contacted Officer HAMMIL or HAMMEL of the Dallas Police Department for press credentials. He asked what she had in that regard and she said she had 1960 press credentials issued in Palm Springs, California. HAMMIL or HAMMEL said these credentials were sufficient and would get her any place she wanted to go.

On the morning of November 24, 1963, BARNES was told by a Dallas Police Department Lieutenant, name unknown, that usually prisoners were released from the City Jail to Deputy Sheriffs, the exchange being made in the basement of the City hall in the admissions area but that in OSWALD's case the release would be made on the third or fourth floor of the City Jail. The Lieutenant also told BARNES that at 2:15 A.M. on November 24, 1963, six Deputy Sheriffs from the County Jail had arrived at the City Jail to take custody of OSWALD but had been refused on the grounds that they were not finished with OSWALD.

BARNES said that Dallas Police Department officers seemed willing to talk about RUBY through November 26, 1963, but would not thereafter. Prior to November 26, 1963, several Police Department officers, names unknown to BARNES, told him that RUBY was a homosexual and enjoyed "beating up women." BARNES noted this was a point not known to have been mentioned at any news conferences.

BARNES stated that ROBERT NEIL, NBC, Washington, DC interviewed RUBY's landlady, name unknown, who said that RUBY always had "plenty of women" in his apartment; that he shared this apartment with another man who had lived in this apartment building prior to moving into RUBY's apartment; that RUBY had lived in the apartment building about one year. Tex

A Dallas newspaper man, name unknown to BARNES, told BARNES it appeared to be common knowledge that RUBY was present at a press conference on Friday night, November 22, 1963, in Dallas City Hall.

Within an hour after OSWALD was shot, BARNES heard it rumored that RUBY had $10,000.00 on him when arrested; he subsequently heard from unrecalled Dallas Police Department officers that RUBY had $2,300.00 at the time of his arrest. On November 26, 1963, BARNES heard it rumored that RUBY had just returned from Cuba.

An unknown physician in Dallas advised BARNES that Defense Attorney TOM HOWARD's law partner is WADE, brother of District Attorney HENRY WADE. Tex

LA 44-895

It was rumored in press circles that every Dallas Police Department officer knew that RUBY carried a gun; further, that RUBY, at the time OSWALD was shot, had a press parking pass on the windshield of his car.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Mr. IRA JEFFERSON "Jack" BEERS on interview at his residence, 10913 Joaquin, Dallas, advised that he has been a cameraman for the Dallas News for about fifteen years and worked for the Times Herald for about three years before that. He was present in the basement of the Dallas Police and Courts Building on Sunday, November 24, 1963, at the time JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and he had the opportunity of observing this shooting and of taking a photograph of it. His assignment was to obtain photographs of the transfer of OSWALD from the Dallas Police Jail to the Dallas County Jail. He arrived in the basement of the Police and Courts Building at approximately 9:00 a.m. and stationed himself on a railing in the east side of the drive-through ramp which would place him directly across this ramp from the entrance to the book-in desk of the Dallas City Jail. He was still in this position as the officers came out of the door to the book-in office bringing OSWALD with them to transfer him. He had been looking over the crowd present which he estimated as consisting of approximately fifteen officers and 30-35 members of the press. He was aiming his camera and snapping a picture just as JACK RUBY moved in from his right and stuck his gun against OSWALD to kill him. This is the photograph that was used as a full front page picture in the Dallas News on Monday morning, November 25, 1963.

He was not required to show identification to get into the basement of the Police and Courts Building; however, he was carrying his camera and is personally acquainted with practically all police officials in Dallas, having been associated with Dallas newspapers for at least the last 18 years, and he is sure the officers who saw him in the basement knew who he was and were acquainted with him. He also observed the officers searching the cars parked in the parking area. He saw uniformed officers set up as guards in the parking area and observed uniformed guards at the Main Street entrance to the drive-through ramp and in the vicinity of the armored car which was at the Commerce Street exit to the drive-through ramp.

He is acquainted with RUBY both by name and by sight since about 18 months ago he was assigned as a cameraman with DALE BAYSE, a reporter for the Dallas News, on a story BAYSE was doing on a stripper school being run by JACK RUBY. This was a story for a magazine, and he and BAYSE spent all day at JACK RUBY's Carousel Club for the purpose of obtaining material for this story. That was his only connection with RUBY, and he does not know whether RUBY would remember him or not.

At the time of the shooting, he could observe only the back of JACK RUBY and did not even recognize the person as RUBY until he was told by an officer the identity of the person shooting OSWALD. He thought at the time that RUBY was a detective who had gone berserk.

Mr. BEERS stated that he is sure JACK RUBY was not in the basement of the Police and Courts Building during the greater part of the morning and is sure that he was not there prior to the time a large group of press personnel came out of the building into the drive-through ramp area a few minutes prior to the shooting. He feels sure that had RUBY been there prior to the time of the arrival of the crowd he would have seen and recognized RUBY.

He did not talk to RUBY any time between November 22 and 24, 1963.

He feels that the police officers were taken completely by surprise by RUBY's actions and saw nothing whatever to indicate to him that there was any conspiracy on the part of anyone to permit RUBY to infiltrate the crowd and kill OSWALD.

Mr. BEERS stated he observed the following persons present at the time of the shooting representing press media:

BOB JACKSON, Times Herald; IKE PAPPAS, WNEW, New York City; MIKE SMITH, Associated Press, Los Angeles; JIM ENGLISH, WBAP, Fort Worth; and (FNU) JOHNSON, United Press International.

IRA JEFFERSON "JACK" BEERS, 10813 Joaquin Drive, Dallas, Texas, advised he is a staff photographer for the Dallas Morning News and took the photograph of RUBY just prior to the instant when he fired the fatal shot into OSWALD's body, in the basement of the Dallas Police Department on the morning of November 24, 1963.

BEERS stated that he arrived in the basement of the Municipal Building at approximately 9 a.m., having been assigned this duty by his paper. At the time he arrived there were approximately ten to twelve people in the basement and NBC and CBS television cameras were already in place. These cameras were located directly opposite the double doors through which OSWALD would be brought for loading into the conveyance for transportation to the Dallas County Jail.

BEERS was not challenged by anyone on entering and came into the basement down the steps from Commerce Street. BEERS does not recall that the cameramen or newsmen there at the time had any identification badges or other means of identification which were visible.

BEERS located a spot just to the left of the NBC camera, sitting on the top of two railings. He stated that he had made arrangements with the NBC cameraman to tap him on the leg as OSWALD turned the corner from the corridor to the right toward the loading conveyance, which would permit BEERS to get out of the way of the TV camera which would be panning and following the route of OSWALD.

At approximately 20 minutes to 11 BEERS estimated the crowd had increased to approximately 40 or 50 people, consisting of newsmen, photographers, and cameramen, and he stated that he noticed just behind where the cameras were set up and where he was stationed, there was a line of uniformed Dallas Policemen.

The news reporters were standing in front of BEERS and from BEERS' position on the railing above them he had decided to shoot for one clear photograph of OSWALD's face as he came down the corridor, this shot to be made over the heads of the newsmen present.

Just prior to the time that OSWALD came out of the elevator a police car was backed down the ramp and BEERS noticed that a number of the newspaper reporters were practically pinned against the wall of the ramp by this police vehicle. He also stated that there were two armored BEERS was in position and was training his 65 millimeter lens, 2 1/4 x 2 1/4 Mamayiaflex (Japanese made) camera, looking into the view finder, and focusing on OSWALD as he came through the double doors from the elevator. Inasmuch as his view was limited and he was trying for one clear shot, BEERS did not notice anything until he first saw a hat, and did not know that he had obtained the photograph which was published throughout the nation until he had the shot that he made developed.

BEERS stated that he had not at any time observed JACK RUBY prior to the time that he observed the hat through his view finder and "supposed" that RUBY must have been standing in the second row of those present, which would have been along the wall to the front and right of the TV cameras.

Just prior to the time that RUBY stepped forth and fired the fatal shot, an individual wearing glasses standing on the same side of the basement from which RUBY appeared, extended a microphone in front of OSWALD and for an instant gained OSWALD's attention, inasmuch as he turned his head to the left just prior to returning his gaze to the front, at which time BEERS snapped his photograph as RUBY surged forward and fired.

BEERS recalled that the shot was a dull, muffled explosion, indicating that the gun was very close to OSWALD's body, and BEERS stated that immediately thereafter complete pandemonium existed, and that he rewound his camera and began snapping additional pictures, only to learn later that he had rewound past the next negative.

After the shooting BEERS went back up into the building and was forced to show his press photographer credentials to gain entrance to the building.

BEERS did not know RUBY prior to this shooting, nor did he know OSWALD, other than being present on the previous day, November 23, 1963, when OSWALD had been brought downstairs from the jail to appear before representatives of the press and television, at which time BEERS stated OSWALD had what he would consider a "smirk" on his face. BEERS said that while OSWALD was being brought down the hall for this appearance, he seemed to be searching for a microphone in which to make some statement, inasmuch as he looked at BEERS' camera and then turned and looked along the line of newsmen and photographers and stated "I want an attorney."

BEERS has no idea how RUBY gained access to the basement.

It is noted during prior interview on November 30, 1963, BEERS advised that he was not required to show identification to get into the basement of the Police and Courts Building; however, he was carrying his camera and is personally acquainted with practically all police officials in Dallas, having been associated with Dallas newspapers for at least the last 18 years, and he is sure the officers who saw him in the basement knew who he was and were acquainted with him. Mr. NELSON BENTON, Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) News Bureau, who resides at 3201 St. Charles Avenue, Apartment 301, furnished the following information:

DALLAS, TEXAS

He was in Dallas, Texas covering President KENNEDY'S visit to Texas for the CBS television network. He stated that the first time he saw JACK LEON RUBY was on Friday night, November 22, 1963 between the hours of 8:00 and 10:00 PM and on both occasions he saw RUBY in the hallway on the third floor of the Police and Courts Building.

BENTON said at the time he did not know who RUBY was and actually thought he was probably another news reporter. It was only after RUBY shot and killed OSWALD that he realized who this individual was he had seen on Friday night. BENTON said that he did not talk to RUBY. He stated that things are a little confused in his mind but he believed that on Friday night, November 23, 1963 Chief of Police CURRY was being interviewed by the press in the third floor hallway of the Police and Courts Building and CURRY made some remark to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was a member of a Free Cuba Committee. BENTON heard RUBY remark "There's a difference between Free Cuba and Fair Play for Cuba." BENTON said that now in retrospect, he was somewhat surprised to hear RUBY make a statement like this because he had received the impression from reading newspaper stories, hearing commentators on radio and television and talking to other newsmen, that RUBY is not politically minded.

BENTON stated that on Sunday, November 24, 1963 he interviewed Chief of Police CURRY at about 9:00 AM. This interview with CURRY was conducted in Chief CURRY's office on the third floor of the Police and Courts Building. BENTON said that when he went to the building his identity was checked on the first floor of the building by a plainclothes detective who wrote down BENTON's name. BENTON said he showed this detective a Department of Defense Identification Card which has his photograph, description and fingerprints on it. He then went up to the third floor of the building for his 9:00 AM interview with Chief CURRY and a uniformed police officer noted his press identity card which was fastened in the lapel of his suit coat.

BENTON stated that in connection with the coverage by CBS of the removal of OSWALD from the Police and Courts Building to the County Jail in Dallas, he came down the stairs from the first floor of the Police and Courts Building into the basement of that building approximately five minutes before OSWALD was brought to the basement. BENTON said that as he came off the stairs in the basement he was wearing his press identity card in the lapel of his suit coat and he believes a uniformed officer looked at him to be sure he was a member of the press. BENTON said he walked on through the basement because his duties in connection with the coverage of the move of OSWALD was to be in the KRLD-TV control truck which was parked outside of the building on Commerce Street. BENTON said that when OSWALD was shot by RUBY he was in the truck and did not actually witness the shooting. BENTON said that BOB HUFFAKER, a KRLD news reporter was in the basement with a KRLD microphone and HUFFAKER actually witnessed the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY. BENTON stated that he observed the shooting on one of the monitor screens in the control truck and was assisting other personnel in the truck in selecting the television picture which went out on the CBS network.

With regard to other persons who were actually in the basement at the time of the shooting, BENTON stated that there was one CBS (KRLD) television camera in the basement. The cameraman for this camera was JIM ENGLISH, a KRLD cameraman. With ENGLISH was a floor man whose name BENTON could not recall. He pointed out that this floor man is there to assist the cameraman in moving the camera about and taking care of the television cable which is attached to the camera. BENTON stated that there was another CBS (KRLD) camera out on Commerce Street. BENTON could not recall the name of the cameraman but the floor man for this camera was BEN MOLINAS.

Inside the basement at the time of the shooting of OSWALD was one other KRLD employee. This was GEORGE PHOENIX who is a motion picture cameraman for KRLD and was recording the move of OSWALD on 16 mm. motion picture film. TeV

BENTON said that a few minutes after OSWALD was shot by RUBY he tried to get back into the basement of the Police and Courts Building and by this time security was so tight, Dallas Police Officers refused to let him into the basement. BENTON said it was his impression that security in the basement prior to the time OSWALD was brought to the basement was not as tight as he has seen it in other instances such as defense plants and areas which are restricted to the general public. He said there were both uniformed and plainclothes officers in the basement when he walked through it about five minutes prior to the time OSWALD was brought to the basement and he estimated there were approximately fifty people in the basement at that time, most of them were newsmen and television personnel.

BENTON reiterated he only saw RUBY on two occasions, these being on Friday night, November 22, 1963 between 8:00 and 10:00 PM in the third floor hallway of the Police and Courts Building. He said he heard from some other newsman whose name he never did know that RUBY was in District Attorney HENRY WADE's office during District Attorney WADE's Friday night press conference when WADE outlined the strength of the case against OSWALD.

BENTON said that he had no information and saw no activity which would cause him to believe or form the opinion that any police officer or other official conspired with RUBY in the shooting of OSWALD. Likewise, he heard or saw nothing that would indicate to him thatany police officer or official willfully permitted RUBY to kill OSWALD.

BENTON said he had no knowledge that OSWALD and RUBY may have been acquainted with each other prior to the assassination of the President or the killing of OSWALD by RUBY and based on his knowledge of this matter he was of the firm opinion that RUBY and OSWALD did not know each other.

Gene BLAKE

EUGENE BLAKE advised he is a reporter for the "Los Angeles Times" at Los Angeles, California.

BLAKE stated that the security measures adopted by the Dallas Police Department on Sunday, November 24, 1963, seemed adequate. All entrances had uniformed officers checking on all persons entering. BLAKE himself entered through the Commerce Street ramp and he was stopped by two uniformed officers and he was not allowed to enter until they had checked his identification and compared the photograph thereon against his appearance. Later, when he was inside the building in the basement, he was again challenged by an uniformed officer who came up to him and required that BLAKE again identify himself.

BLAKE did not know of anyone allowed into the building on Sunday without the proper authorization or identification. He has no idea as to how JACK RUBY managed to get in and to get into a position to kill OSWALD.

BLAKE has no information that anyone conspired with JACK RUBY to slay OSWALD and he does not believe that anyone, civilian or police official, assisted in anyway in the slaying of OSWALD.

BLAKE did not see or talk to JACK RUBY, and he knows of no connection between RUBY or OSWALD.

BLAKE said that when the Chief of the Dallas Police Department announced to the news people that OSWALD was to be moved at approximately 10:00 a.m. on November 24, 1963 from the police building to the County Jail, he did not completely believe him.

When he arrived at the police building at about 8:00 a.m. on November 24, 1963, he fully expected to be informed that OSWALD had been moved during the night.

BLAKE at first was with other newsmen in the basement lobby of the police building near the ramp awaiting the arrival of OSWALD. There were uniformed officers stationed in this lobby along with plain-clothes men. When the word came down that OSWALD was on his way down for transportation to the County Jail, the press was ordered from the lobby and to the far side of the ramp. BLAKE found himself a spot behind a car that was parked on the ramp almost opposite the lobby entrance. In front of this car were the press photographers. Television cameramen were just to the right of the car and uniformed officers and plain-clothes men lined the ramp leading up to the armored vehicle which was parked at the Commerce Street exit.

BLAKE could only see the heads of the detectives and of OSWALD coming toward the ramp. Just as they appeared to turn to the right in order to walk up the ramp, a man came from among the press men on OSWALD's left and it was he who shot OSWALD.

ISADORE BLECKMAN, Apartment 101, 6002 North Kenmore, Chicago, was interviewed at his residence. BLECKMAN said he has been employed as a photographer by United Press International (UPI), for a little over a month. BLECKMAN stated that he was sent to Dallas Friday, November 22, 1963, immediately after news of President KENNEDY's death was received.

On Sunday, November 24, 1963, he stated that he went to Dallas, Texas Police Department about 8:00 a.m. His reason, he added, for being at the Police Department, was because of the department's announcement to the press that LEE HARVEY OSWALD would be moved from the Police Department to the County Jail at 10:00 a.m., November 24, 1963. He said he entered the Police Department through the main entrance doors and took an elevator to the third floor of the building where heretofore the press, photographers, etc., had previously been accomodated. As he emerged from the elevator BLECKMAN said he was asked by a uniformed armed policeman to identify himself which he did by exhibiting his press credentials before he was permitted to enter the third floor. He said he remained a little while on the third floor before taking the elevator to the booking room in the basement where he remained until 10 or 15 minutes prior to OSWALD's being brought out of the elvator by police.

About 10 to 15 minutes prior to OSWALD's appearance, he said he and other photographers and newsmen were all asked to vacate the booking room which they did. BLECKMAN said he then took up a position in front of a window in the booking room so he could photograph OSWALD as OSWALD emerged from the elevator. As OSWALD emerged he said he got his photographs and then raced to the far side of the ramp so he could continue to photograph OSWALD as he emerged from the booking room and presumably would be led therefrom to the waiting armored car which would be used to transport him to the county jail. BLECKMAN stated that he was in this position as OSWALD was led out of the booking room and that he had his camera going from that time on.

An individual later identified as JACK RUBY cut through photographers, TV cameramen, etc., a short distance to BLECKMAN's right and proceeded to shoot OSWALD. BLECKMAN said he continued to take action photos throughout. This film which BLECKMAN stated recorded all activity from the time OSWALD emerged from the elevator into the booking room and from that room to where he was shot is presently in the hands of his employer, UPI, in New York City or Washington, D. C.

BLECKMAN stated that between 9:00 and 10:00 a.m., the same morning he proceeded from the booking room to the ramp and left the police department premises and was permitted to do so only after identifying himself. His reason for leaving he told the officer at the Main Street entrance of the ramp that he had to leave to get equipment. On his return he was permitted to re-enter the police department premises by the same route without identifying himself but that he presumed the armed officer on duty recognized him as having left the ramp shortly before. BLECKMAN said he saw no one in the Police Department or in the ramp who was not believed by him to be a member of the department or theworking press. He said he had no knowledge of anyone permitted to gain entry to the police department on Sunday, November 24, 1963, without properly identifying himself, and neither did he have any knowledge or indication that any police officer or official conspired or permitted the unauthorized presence of anyone in the basement.

BLECKMAN said that to his knowledge he had never seen RUBY prior to RUBY's actual shooting of OSWALD although on Friday evening November 22, 1963, when OSWALD was brought to the lineup room of the Police Department, according to various persons (identities unknown) RUBY was alleged to havebeen present and allegedly asked a question of OSWALD. The exhibition of OSWALD in the lineup room was apparently for the convenience of the press and photographers than for any police function according to BLECKMAN.

BLECKMAN stated that at Parkland Memorial Hospital later on Sunday, November 24, 1963, an individual described as in his early thirties, 5'8" tall, 180-200 pounds, sturdy build, blond hair who was either a director of a TV station in Dallas or in charge of a TV crew from a Dallas TV station told him in the presence of HENRY A. KOKOJAN, 9009 Freeport Drive, Dallas, telephone DAvis 8-1043, that an upper window of a building on either Main or Commerce Streets overlooking the police department ramp was open Friday after the President's assassination, all day Saturday and Sunday but that shortly after OSWALD's murder the window was shut. BLECKMAN stated that he could recall being told nothing additional by this individual, but that the above caused speculation among themselves as to whether RUBY had an accomplice or whether others besides RUBY were interested in doing away with OSWALD.

ISADORE BLECKMAN, Apartment 101, 6002 North Kentmore, Chicago, Illinois, on November 30, 1963, advised he was in Dallas, Texas, between November 22 - 24, 1963, as photographer for United Press International. BLECKMAN stated that at Parkland Memorial Hospital, November 24, 1963, a man, who was either a director of a television station in Dallas or connected with a television station in Dallas, told him, in the presence of M. A. KOKAJON, that an upper window of a building on either Main or Commerce Streets overlooking the Police Deparment ramp in Dallas was opened Friday after the Presidential assassination. This window was open all day Saturday and Sunday, but shortly after OSWALD's murder, November 24, 1963, the window was shut. BLECKMAN did not recall being told anything but the above caused speculation as to whether RUBY had an accomplice or whether others besides RUBY were interested in doing away with OSWALD.

The following investigation was conducted by SA's EDMOND C. HARDIN and ROBERT J. WILKINSON at Dallas, Texas: 53 32 31.

M.A. KOKAJON - HENRY A. KOKAJON

Mr. HENRY A. KOKAJON, 9009 Freeport Drive, free-lance photographer, and Mr. IRVIN GANS, NBC Headquarters, Marriott Motel, free-lance photographer, on December 5, 1963, advised as follows: DALLAS, TEX.

They were at Parkland Memorial Hospital, November 24, 1963, with ISADORE BLECKMAN, Chicago, Illinois, after the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. They were with BLECKMAN when JAMES TURNER, WBAP Radio & Television Station, Fort Worth, Texas, employee, said that a window in the Elks Building, Commerce Street, directly across from the Dallas Police Department, had been observed open shortly after the Presidential assassination and intermittently opened and closed until after OSWALD was shot November 24, 1963. This caused considerable speculation among themselves as to whether RUBY had an accomplice or whether others besides RUBY were interested in doing away with OSWALD.

KOKAJON and GANS said that neither of them witnessed the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY or the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. They had no information concerning any relationship between OSWALD and JACK RUBY.

DALLAS, TEX

Mr. FRANK B. TENNANT, Treasurer, and Mrs. HEAVEN WELS, Secretary to the Lodge Secretary, Brotherhood of Protective Order of Elks, Lodge No. 71, 2818 Commerce Street, on December 6, 1963, advised as follows:

The American Flag was hung outside an upper story window on the front of the Elks Lodge Building, which is located directly across the street from the Dallas Police Department, during the period of November 22 - 24, 1963. The window adjacent to the flag was opened and closed on several occasions during this same period. No one else other than Lodge members opened and closed the window and it was only opened and closed in connection with the flag that was hung from the front of the building. They did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

BILL CARROLL, 1624 Trinity View, Irving, Texas, advised that he is employed as a reporter and news director for WRR radio, Dallas. CARROLL stated that on Sunday, November 24, 1963 at approximately 8:30 A.M., he went to the Dallas police station to obtain additional information regarding LEE HARVEY OSWALD and to cover the transfer of OSWALD from the City Jail to the County Jail. He advised that he parked his car approximately one block from the station then went into the Commerce Street entrance of the police station. He was unable to recall if anyone checked his identity as he entered. He took the elevator to the third floor and his credentials were checked as he got off the elevator. He attended a press conference at which time Chief CURRY stated that an armored car was going to be used for OSWALD's transfer as some threats had been made during the night to kill OSWALD. According to CARROLL, he remained on the third floor until about 10:30 A.M. at which time he took the elevator to the basement. As he got off the elevator in the basement, two uniform officers checked his identification card and went so far as to check his photo on the reverse side of the card. He advised that he placed himself near the television cameras which were already set up and when OSWALD was brought in to the basement he saw JACK RUBY shoot OSWALD. He stated that he knew RUBY by sight, however, did not recognize him at the time of the shooting. He did not observe RUBY in or about the police station prior to the shooting.

According to CARROLL, there were approximately 100 reporters and newsmen in the basement when OSWALD was shot; that he was with a reporter by the name of GEOFF EDWARDS who works for KHJ radio, Los Angeles, California.

CARROLL said he saw RUBY on the third floor of the police station on Friday, November 22, 1963, talking with reporters but insisted that he did not see him prior to the shooting of OSWALD on November 24, 1963.

According to CARROLL, the police were checking everyone who entered the basement area of the police station and he had no knowledge of any unauthorized persons being permitted to enter.

CARROLL advised that he has no knowledge regarding

GENE COFFEY advised that he is a Sound Technician employed in the News Section of the National Broadcasting Company located at 3000 West Alameda Street in Burbank, California. T-V

He stated that he arrived at Dallas, Texas, before 5:00 p.m. on Friday, November 22, 1963, having been sent there from Los Angeles. He stated that for about the first hour and a half, he was able to make several trips from the street into the police building and up into the third floor of the police building without being asked for any identification. He did not notice anyone being asked for identification during this period of time. After this first hour and a half, he was challenged by uniformed officers and had to show his identification. The only place he did have to show his identification, however, was on the third floor of the police building.

At about 11:00 p.m. on Friday, the news people were informed that there would be a press conference attended by LEE HARVEY OSWALD held in the auditorium in the basement of the police building. He attended this conference along with all the other news people and he does not recall being stopped entering this conference room and asked to show any identification. He believes that anybody could have attended this press conference.

COFFEY said that his assignment on November 24, 1963 was at the Dallas County Jail and, therefore, he was not in the vicinity of the police building on November 24, 1963.

COFFEY knows of no connection between OSWALD and JACK RUBY and knows of no one who aided or abetted either in committing their crimes. He stated that he never interviewed RUBY and only attended one press conference early Saturday morning, at which OSWALD was present.

JOE CUDDING, Correspondent, Newsweek Magazine, telephonically advised that although he was in Dallas, Texas, at the time that JACK LEON RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he was at his hotel and not at the Police Department and did not witness the shooting.

Mr. CUDDING stated that every time he went to the Police Department starting on the evening of November 22, 1963, he was required to identify himself with his press credentials. He stated even though some of the officers who guarded the different entrances recognized him, they still required him to produce his credentials. He stated he knows of no unauthorized person who was permitted to enter any area of the Police Department, including the basement without showing proper identification.

Mr. CUDDING stated he does not know of any information which would indicate that a police officer or other official conspired with RUBY or willfully permitted the killing. He stated that he did not see or talk to RUBY from November 22, through November 24, 1963, and did not know who RUBY was until after the shooting and the resultant publicity. He stated further that he has no knowledge of any relationship or prior acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD.

JAMES R. DAVIDSON, operator, A.I.E. Studios, 2510 Tangley Road, Houston, Texas, advised that he was in Dallas, Texas, as a motion picture photographer with sound man WARREN FERGUSON, 5406 Windswept, Houston, Texas, as a photo sound free-lance crew operating with reporter BILL LORD of the ABC Staff, New York, in connection with news coverage at the Dallas City Hall on the morning of November 24, 1963, when OSWALD was shot.

He, LORD and WARREN, arrived at the City Hall as a 3-man crew at about 8:30 AM that day. They may have gone up to the press room on the third floor but, if not, went directly to the basement area of the City Hall. They had to exhibit their press credentials on the third floor if they went to the press room, and exhibited their credentials if they entered the basement area. DAVIDSON explained that he had been at the City Hall on a number of occasions since Friday night, November 23, 1963, and that in all instances they had to exhibit their credentials prior to gaining entry to the building.

Shortly after 8:30 AM on November 24, 1963, they set up in the jail office in the basement, intending to photograph OSWALD as he walked from the jail elevator across the jail office out into the ramp area. At about 10:00 AM a police officer directed them and other newsmen in the jail office to vacate this area. He, LORD and FERGUSON left the jail office from a rear door and entered the hallway behind the double doors from the ramp area. LORD went into a public telephone booth in that area and remained in that booth, holding the line open and talking with ABC, New York, until after the shooting of OSWALD. DAVIDSON and FERGUSON took up a position in this hallway behind the double doors where he would be able to photograph through some barred windows to get pictures of OSWALD walking from the jail elevator, across the jail office and out into the ramp area. FERGUSON remained close to him at all times because his sound equipment was electrically connected with DAVIDSON and his camera. They remained in this area watching the jail office area from shortly after 10:00 AM until OSWALD came down on the elevator.

As OSWALD walked from the elevator through the jail office area, he took photographs. When OSWALD was taken through the jail office door into the ramp area, he and FERGUSON went through the jail office door into the ramp area, he and FERGUSON went through the double doors and followed along behind. There were detectives or there were police officers behind OSWALD so that he did not actually see him. Just after he got through the double doors, he heard the shot, following which there was a commotion. His cameraman's instinct told him that OSWALD and the officers would be returning to the jail office, so he immediately turned around and proceeded back down the hall through the double doors where he could photograph action in the jail office. In the commotion his electrical connection with FERGUSON was broken, and FERGUSON was kept in the ramp area for a period of time.

He photographed the jail area as RUBY and OSWALD were brought back into the jail office. RUBY was taken up on the jail elevator and OSWALD taken out on a stretcher from the jail office.

After RUBY had been taken up on the elevator and it appeared OSWALD taken out of the building in an ambulance, FERGUSON came back through the double doors. Then he and FERGUSON went into the jail office, where he shot pictures of the area and briefly interviewed a police lieutenant. Then he and FERGUSON left the jail office area and joined LORD in the hall behind the double doors. The three of them then proceeded to Commerce Street, where he filmed LORD while LORD explained on a news reel the ramp area where it was intended that OSWALD would have been brought out for transfer to the County Jail. They then conducted several short interviews with people who had gathered in the area.

DAVIDSON explained that throughout the time he was in the City Hall basement, his interest was in securing photographs of OSWALD in the jail office area. He did not look down into the ramp area from about 10:00 AM until the time that OSWALD was shot because he did not want to miss a picture. Consequently, he has no impression as to how many newsmen and police officers were in the ramp area at the time OSWALD was shot. DAVIDSON explained that although he had been in the Police Department on a number of occasions from Friday night, November 23, 1963, he has no recollection of ever seeing RUBY in that area, either on the morning of the shooting or prior to that time. The only time he would have seen RUBY was in the jail office after the shooting when the police officers brought him into that area and then took him upstairs.

DAVIDSON advised that on Friday night, November 22, 1963, when OSWALD was first made available to the press for photographing in an assembly room at the City Hall, he took photographs of OSWALD, which photos included other people. He has reviewed these photographs and is unable to identify any individual in these photographs as RUBY.

DAVIDSON explained that he had not been acquainted with either RUBY or OSWALD prior to that time and had no information as to any possible association or connection between these two individuals.

GEOFFREY EDWARDS, 4323 Canterbury Drive, La Mesa, California, advised that he is currently employed as a newsman for KHJ Radio, Los Angeles. He advised that on November 22, 1963, KHJ dispatched him to Dallas to cover the assassination of President KENNEDY. On November 24, 1963, he stated he was one of the many newsmen on the scene at the Dallas, Texas, City Hall when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot.

EDWARDS stated he entered the Dallas City Hall basement through the entrance off of the parking lot approximately fifteen minutes before OSWALD was shot. He advised the entrance is also known as the "Booking Entrance" at the City Hall.

EDWARDS stated he exhibited his press card to a uniformed officer, name and badge number unknown, who was on duty at the entrance. He knows of no unauthorized person or persons permitted to enter the basement without showing appropriate identification.

EDWARDS stated he is of opinion ample arrangements for security had been made, inasmuch as the news media had to enter the basement from the parking lot, identify themselves, and remain in a specified area once in the basement.

EDWARDS stated he has no information that anyone, including police officers or other officials, conspired with RUBY or willingly permitted the killing of OSWALD. He advised he did not talk to RUBY, and the only time he saw RUBY was at the shooting of OSWALD.

EDWARDS advised he has no information regarding any relationship or prior acquaintanceship between RUBY and OSWALD.

EDWARDS stated he interviewed TOM HOWARD, Attorney for RUBY, and HOWARD stated RUBY had entered the basement of Dallas City Hall through the Main Street entrance.

EDWARDS stated he left Dallas, November 26, 1963, and returned to Los Angeles, California.

JAMES DALLAS ENGLISH, cameraman, Station KRLD, Dallas, Texas, residence 4509 Live Oak, Apartment 106, Dallas, furnished the following information:

On November 24, 1963, he was assigned to report to the Dallas Police Department at approximately 8:00 AM. He entered the basement at the Commerce Street ramp between 7:00 AM and 8:00 AM and was not requested to identify himself in any way. The uniformed police officer lieutenant, who knows ENGLISH by sight, directed ENGLISH where the TV camera could be placed. With him at the time were BOB HANKAL, ROLAND GREGORY and "BUCK" TALLEY, all of KRLD. TALLEY and GREGORY left the basement before 9:00 AM and did not return.

He was busy setting up the camera, but did notice several persons being removed from the basement area by the police. Also he noticed several persons being requested to identify themselves. He did not notice anyone known to him to be other than a policeman or press representative in the basement. He would estimate there were 200 persons in the basement area and about 75 to 85 were members of the press.

When OSWALD was brought down, he was busy operating the TV camera and glanced to the right because of some movement which attracted his attention. When his glance was toward the right, he heard a shot and turned back to OSWALD. He did not hear any statement by JACK RUBY or OSWALD at the time.

He did not know RUBY or OSWALD prior to the assassination and the shooting of OSWALD. He did not see RUBY Friday or Saturday night, November 22 and 23, 1963, while at the Police Department. He has no information regarding RUBY and OSWALD's acquaintances or background.

He recalled seeing BOB HUFFICKER (phonetic) and GEORGE PHOENIX, both of KRLD, in the basement prior to and at the time of the shooting.

Mr. ROBERT GENE PINLEY, on interview at his office, Dallas Times Herald, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He was in the basement of the Dallas Police and Courts Building, Main at Harwood Streets, on Sunday, November 24, 1963, at the time JACK RUBY killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He was assigned there by the Dallas Times Herald to cover the news story on the transfer of OSWALD from the Dallas Police Department Jail to the Dallas County Jail. He personally observed the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY. He is not personally acquainted with RUBY, has never worked for him, with him, or had any business dealings with him of any kind.

He has covered the Dallas Police beat in the past and is fairly well acquainted with the various officials of the Dallas Police Department and with a number of the police officers in the department. On the occasion in question, he was not wearing any identification to identify him as a member of the press but was carrying a notebook. He does not recall having been challenged or required to identify himself in order to enter the basement of the Police Building on this occasion; however, it is possible that he was and just does not recall it. He believes that some of the press were required to show identification on the third floor of the Police Building, but he is not certain about the necessity of being identified in order to be in the basement. He estimated that there were approximately 30 press personnel in the basement of the building and 40-50 police officers. He observed officers checking the automobiles in the parking area of the basement prior to the time that OSWALD was brought into the basement, and he heard an officer being assigned to cover the elevators and the First Aid Station in the basement portion of the New Municipal Building.

At the time of the shooting, he had stationed himself in approximately the center of the driveway area that leads from the drive-through ramp into the parking area. This was across the drive-through ramp from the door from which OSWALD was brought to be put into some vehicle for transportation.

He did not see JACK RUBY until approximately one second before RUBY actually shot OSWALD. He was not looking to the right or to the left but was looking into the area from which he expected OSWALD to emerge and merely saw a blur of movement as RUBY came from the crowd and shot OSWALD as OSWALD was being taken to the car. All police personnel present seemed to have been taken completely by surprise, and there was nothing to indicate to him any conspiracy on the part of anyone to allow RUBY into this area in order that he might kill OSWALD.

Some of the security measures taken by the Police Department were that he and a number of the other press personnel were originally in the inside corridors in the basement of the Police and Courts Building, but they were forced to leave there and go into the area of the drive-through ramp and the parking area, and some went into the book-in office. Those who went into the book-in office were requested to leave that area and go into the area of the drive-through ramp and the parking area.

Mr. FENLEY stated that at the time that OSWALD was shot, he thought that one of the plain clothes officers had gone berserk and had done this killing, and it never occurred to him that it was some outsider who had gotten through the guards.

FENLEY stated that he recalls having seen SETH CANTOR, a Washington representative of Scripps-Howard newspapers; JACK BEERS, of the Dallas News; BOB HUFFAKER, of Radio-TV Station KRLD; and a girl named PEGGY who represents Associated Press, and a Canadian reporter, whose name he does not know, present at the time RUBY shot OSWALD.

WARREN FERGUSON, 5406 Windswept, Houston, Texas, advised he was the sound man of the crew of ABC reporter BILL LORD in Dallas, Texas from November 22, 1963 through November 24, 1963.

FERGUSON advised he is unable to state whether other officers or news media representatives were present at the Dallas Police Department when OSWALD was shot. He advised each time he entered the Dallas Police Department he was required to display his ABC identification card. He advised he is not aware of any unauthorized persons being admitted.

FERGUSON advised he is not aware of any conspiracy with RUBY or any indication that any official permitted the killing of OSWALD.

FERGUSON advised he was at the Dallas Police Department during the morning OSWALD was shot, however, was not in the hall where the shooting occurred. He advised he was set up in the booking desk area. He advised from where he was set up he was unable to observe the shooting.

FERGUSON stated he saw RUBY as he was brought into the booking area after the shooting and he has no recollection of having seen RUBY previously. He also stated he has no knowledge indicating RUBY and OSWALD knew each other.

PETE FISHER, photographer for United Press International (UPI), was interviewed at his office in the studios of WWL-TV, 1024 North Rampart Street, NEW ORLEANS, LA and voluntarily furnished the following information:

He was in Dallas covering the visit of President KENNEDY to Dallas and only saw JACK LEON RUBY on one occasion following the assassination of the President. FISHER was in the basement show-up room of the Dallas Police Department late during the evening of Friday, November 22, 1963, or early during the morning hours of Saturday, November 23, 1963, when the Dallas Police Department brought LEE HARVEY OSWALD down to the show-up room.

Approximately five minutes before OSWALD was brought into the show-up room on this occasion, FISHER noted RUBY standing in the show-up room near the entrance to the room which is to the right of the show-up stage as one faces the stage. FISHER did not think this unusual as he had known RUBY for about two years and had previously seen him around Police Department Headquarters.

The Dallas Police brought OSWALD through this entrance and OSWALD passed not more than three feet from RUBY as he was led up on the stage. FISHER pointed out that if RUBY had wanted to shoot OSWALD at that time he could easily have done it because of the fact that he was so close to OSWALD.

On Sunday, November 24, 1963, FISHER was at the Courthouse in Dallas where he planned to take photographs of OSWALD when the latter was brought to the County Jail by Dallas Police Officers. He was not at Police Headquarters when RUBY shot OSWALD in the basement of the Police Headquarters Building. Immediately after he heard that OSWALD had been shot, FISHER rushed to Parkland Hospital where he photographed OSWALD as the latter was brought into the hospital for emergency treatment. At no time during the day of November 24, 1963, was FISHER in or near Police Department Headquarters.

With regard to security at Police Headquarters on the evening of November 22, 1963, FISHER said that uniformed Police Officers were checking credentials of newsmen on the first floor of the Police and Courts Building before newsmen were allowed to take the elevator to the third floor. FISHER said that after arrival at the third floor, all newsmen's credentials were checked again by uniformed Police Officers.

With regard to FISHER's knowledge of RUBY, FISHER said he first met RUBY approximately two years ago when he had a photographic assignment at the Carousel Club operated by RUBY. At that time FISHER was working in Dallas for UPI and was attached to the Dallas Times Herald Newspaper. During the following two years FISHER would see RUBY from time to time at police headquarters and on the streets of Dallas. He said RUBY knew many Dallas Police Officers and often brought coffee to Dallas Police Officers in Police Headquarters when these officers would be working on prolonged investigations where they were working considerable overtime.

FISHER said he had no knowledge nor did he see any activities which would indicate to him that any Dallas Police Officers or City Officials conspired with RUBY in the killing of OSWALD or permitted RUBY to kill OSWALD. He said he had no knowledge that OSWALD and RUBY were acquainted with each other prior to the assassination of the President or at any other time. He stated that he had heard rumors that OSWALD and RUBY knew each other citing as an example the "memory expert" who was interviewed by the press and who claimed he recalled having seen OSWALD in the Carousel Club. FISHER said he discounts all of these rumors, believing none of them. He said he did not think OSWALD was the type of person who would frequent night clubs, but OSWALD could conceivably have been in the Carousel Club as there are only three night clubs in the whole city of Dallas, Texas.

Mr. CURTIS GANS, 7714 Eastern Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised that he is employed as a newsman for the United Press International Office Office (UPI) located at 2523 McKinney Avenue, Dallas.

GANS stated that on November 24, 1963, he traveled to the Police Department with other UPI newsmen by the name of TERRANCE McGARRY, arriving at the police department at approximately 10:00 a.m. GANS stated that he entered the Police Department at the Main Street police car ramp after being questioned by a policeman. GANS stated that he displayed his press card which reflects his identity and the news service he is working for.

GANS stated that he remained in the basement for approximately 20 minutes and then left the building via the Main Street car ramp. He stated that after attempting to interview several people standing on the opposite side of the street from the Police Department, he returned to the basement using the police car ramp entrance. GANS stated that another policeman on duty at this ramp entrance made him display his identification before allowing him to enter. He advised that after entering the basement, he observed a police officer holding McGARRY and he immediately went to McGARRY's assistance and identified him as a member of the UPI staff. He advising that after displaying his card to the policeman, McGARRY was allowed to enter the building.

GANS stated that he again departed the basement, going out the Commerce Street police car ramp exit. After taking several photographs of the crowd, he again entered the basement without showing his identity to the policeman. He advised that he did not go too far from the ramp to take the photographs and the policeman possibly observed his entire activities from the time he left the basement and this is possibly the reason he did not require him to GANS stated that after learning of the shooting while at the Sheriff's Office, he immediately returned to the Police Department and entered the basement from the police car entrance, located on Main Street. He advised to the best of his knowledge, he did not identify himself on this occasion, but due to the excitement, he could have displayed his press card to gain admittance. GANS stated that he remained in the Police Department Building until approximately midnight, November 24, 1963, going between the basement and the third floor. He stated that on several occasions he was stopped by police officers requesting him to display his press card.

GANS stated that outside of McGARRY's being admitted to the basement, he has no knowledge of any other press officials or any other individuals being admitted to the building without showing their identification. He advised that to the best of his knowledge, there were approximately 100 newsmen and police officers in the basement at the the time he departed the building for the Sheriff's Office. He stated that to the best of his knowledge, he did not see RUBY in the building at any time nor does he have anyknowledge of a newsman or police officer assisting RUBY to enter the building. GANS advised that he does not have any knowledge of RUBY's activities any time prior to the shooting of OSWALD, nor does he have any knowledge of anyone being involved with RUBY in the killing of OSWALD.

EDMONDS HADDAD advised he is a news broadcaster at Radio Station KFOL at 5700 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, California.

HADDAD said he arrived in Dallas, Texas, at about 4:00 P.M. on November 22, 1963, and he left Dallas to return to Los Angeles at about 7:00 P.M. on Saturday, November 23, 1963. He was, therefore, back in Los Angeles at the time LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot by JACK RUBY.

HADDAD stated that all the time he was in the police building in Dallas on Friday and Saturday, he was never once asked for any identification.

HADDAD did not interview RUBY and he knew nothing concerning RUBY's associates and does not know of any conspiracy to slay OSWALD.

HADDAD was in attendance in the police basement auditorium when OSWALD was brought in early Saturday morning for his general news interview. HADDAD knew of no conspiracy to assassinate the President and he knows of no connection existing between RUBY and OSWALD.

HADDAD stated that the scene on the third floor of the Police Department building on Friday and Saturday resembled a circus. Whenever the police officials would take OSWALD out of one room and along in the corridor, everyone would press in close to OSWALD to try and take a picture of him and to interview him and to shove microphones into his face. HADDAD said that anyone could have entered the room in the basement of the police building on Saturday morning for OSWALD's general press interview for there was no security set up as far as he could notice and he did not notice anyone being asked to show any identification. HADDAD was of the opinion that OSWALD could easily have been slain on Friday or Saturday for anyone could move freely throughout the building.

HADDAD knows nothing concerning the security measures taken by the police on Sunday, November 24, 1963.

BOB HANKAL

ROBERT LEONARD HANKAL, Floor Director, Production Department, Radio and TV Station KRLD, Herald Square, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He resides at 4233 Travis Street, Apartment 214, Dallas, Texas. Home telephone number LA 8-1434. He was first assigned to handle the television coverage at the City Hall in Dallas, Texas, on November 23, 1963. His duties as floor director are to insure that the cameramen for the TV station are set up in good positions and that there are no obstructions during filming. His memory of the events on November 23 and 24, 1963, is hazy but as he recalled the camera crew for KRLD included Cameraman GENE PASCZALEK, his assistant BEN MOLINA, and himself. They initially were set up on the third floor near the Homicide Bureau and on Saturday afternoon, transferred to the basement of the police headquarters, where JAMES ENGLISH took over as cameraman. Mr. LEIGH WEBB was the director in charge and he gave the assignments.

On November 24, 1963, he was called and told to report to work at 7:00 a.m. He reported to Mr. WEBB who was located at the KRLD sound truck which was parked on Commerce Street outside of the police headquarters. As identification he had been furnished a letter written by Mr. EDDIE BARKER, one of the executives at KRLD on the letterhead stationery of the station. This letter identified him as a member of the camera crew. WEBB told him he should report to the basement where the camera was located and he entered the city hall through the Commerce Street entrance. As he passed the information desk in the lobby a police officer told him to be sure he had identification if he were going to the basement. At that time he had the letter identifying him in his hand. He then took the elevator downstairs and left the elevator with the letter still in his hand. As best he could recall he did not have to show the letter to a reserve police officer standing outside of the elevator and he therefore assumed that the officer had taken for granted that the paper in his hand was his identification. He then went to the camera which was located near the elevator bank in the basement and assisted in moving the camera to the main basement area. The camera was eventually placed on the floor of the garage with the lens protruding between two iron rails and facing directly at the hallway leading from the jail booking desk to the garage. He stayed in that location until LEE HARVEY OSWALD was brought downstairs with the exception of a trip he made to the mens' room. He made sure that he took a police officer with him to the mens' room so that he would have no difficulty in returning to the camera location. He positioned himself on the ramp side of the railing in front of the camera and all the necessary lighting and other arrangements were finished about 10:00 a.m. His primary concern was to see to it that no people obstructed the view of the camera. He had no advance knowledge as to how the prisoner would be transported from the city jail.

A short time later he heard someone say, "He's coming," and considerable shuffling began. He noted that a number of officers locked arms in front of the camera and one of them stepped aside at his request. Either immediately before or after the above incident he recalled that a Dallas police car had driven from the garage basement up the Main Street ramp. He paid very little attention to this and a few moments after that the door opened at the jail office and OSWALD appeared in the custody of police officers. He took a quick look at OSWALD out of curiousity and before he knew it a scuffle began and he heard what he thought was either a backfire or gunshot. His first reaction was that OSWALD had grabbed a police officer's gun. He also recalled seeing a man's back directly in front of him obstructing his view of OSWALD and seemed to recall that immediately preceding that he had observed a blur of movement out of the corner of his eye. It seemed that the individual who he later learned was RUBY was to his right and 8-12 feet away. He heard no shouts of any particular significance to this and could recall no remarks of any significance during the bedlam that occurred after the shooting. During most of this he was busily preoccupied with moving people aside in order to give the camera clear shots of OSWALD's appearance.

Relating to Saturday, November 23, 1963, he saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD briefly as he was being taken to the jail office. His memory concerning these events is hazy but he also recalled acting as floor director in the assembly room when a statement was made by the Chief of Police. He did not recall seeing JACK RUBY at any time prior to the shooting of OSWALD in any of these various locations.

He knew of no one who gained access to the basement of the police department on November 24, 1963, without showing identification other than himself. He did not feel that he had actually identified himself inasmuch as he was merely carrying a letter in his hand and nobody actually asked to read the contents of the letter. He assumed, however, that he had been recognized as being a part of the KRLD camera crew by the officers on duty inasmuch as he was in the police station on Saturday.

He estimated that there were between 40 and 60 members of the press and other news media in the basement of the police department on November 24, 1963.

He had never seen JACK RUBY prior to the shooting of OSWALD and had heard nothing concerning him in regard to his background, personal life or political convictions. He had never heard or seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD before November 22, 1963.

The only other member of the press or news media that he personally knew was present in the police station, other than those previously mentioned, was GEORGE PHOENIX from the KRLD News Department.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 12/3/63

GLADWIN HILL, who resides at 7674 Fairholm Drive, Hollywood, California, telephone OL 2-2646, voluntarily appeared at the Los Angeles FBI Office and advised as follows:

He is a reporter for the New York Times stationed in the Los Angeles Area.

Shortly after noon on November 22, 1963, he departed Los Angeles for Dallas. He arrived Dallas at approximately 4:45 p.m. on November 22, 1963. He arrived at the Dallas Police Department (PD) at approximately 6:30 p.m. November 22, 1963, and remained there until approximately 1:00 a.m., November 23, 1963. HILL advised that OSWALD was being detained by the Dallas PD on the fourth floor and that each time he was interrogated by the police it was necessary to bring him from the fourth floor to the third floor of the Dallas PD through a public corridor. The public corridor was crowded in each instance and at no time was HILL required to show identification, nor did he observe any of the other reporters show identification.

On Saturday, November 23, 1963, he returned to the PD at approximately 9:00 a.m. and remained until 9:30 p.m. that evening. OSWALD was transferred between the third and fourth floor on numerous occasions and again through a crowded public corridor. He was not challenged on November 23, nor did he see anyone question other reporters regarding their identity. HILL stated at this time it occurred to him that it would have been possible and quite easy for anyone who desired to enter the building and kill OSWALD.

Just before he departed the PD at approximately 9:30 p.m. on November 23, Chief of Police CURRY volunteered to a number of the press who were standing around, that OSWALD would be transferred from the PD to County authorities on Sunday morning. The Chief indicated that if the press were at the building - about 10 o'clock Sunday morning they would be on time. HILL also stated he recalled the Chief indicate that the case against OSWALD had developed to such an extent it was no longer necessary to have him available to confront him with new evidence.

HILL returned to the PD at approximately 9:45 Sunday morning November 24, 1963 and immediately upon arrival talked to Chief CURRY. The Chief stated that if he had not told the press Saturday evening that he was going to transport OSWALD at 10 o'clock he would have transferred him earlier to the County Jail. He said the Chief did not indicate in any way that he had been pressured by the press regarding this transfer but that he was merely trying to keep his word. At about 11:00 a.m. HILL together with several other reporters accompanied the Chief and a number of officers from the third floor to the basement by elevator. As he approached the area where OSWALD was to pass through on his way to a van which would take him to the County Jail, HILL was challenged by a police officer and the police officer examined his credentials. HILL stated this is the first time he was compelled to display his credentials. At approximately 11:20 OSWALD appeared through a door leading out to a ramp where the van was located waiting to take him to the County Jail. As OSWALD proceeded through the door, police officers filled in behind him and HILL was unable to observe his movements. HILL heard a shot and immediately realizing what had happened he ran out of the police building through another exit to take up a position by the van. At no time did he see RUBY nor did he see who fired the shot at OSWALD.

HILL stated the security at the police building was "terrible and haphazard". He added it would have been possible for anyone to get in, proceed to the third floor and shoot OSWALD as he was being moved to and from the fourth floor.

HILL stated, Sunday night he returned to the basement area where OSWALD had been shot, where he ran into Attorney TOM HOWARD. He stated HOWARD indicated he was at the PD on behalf of RUBY and he introduced HILL to Attorney FRED BRUNER, a former assistant District Attorney who told HILL that he had represented RUBY in the past in some legal matters.

HILL stated the transfer of RUBY from the police department building to the County Jail was handled in a much different manner and the press was not aware of this transfer until after it had actually taken place. HILL stated he heard from unrecalled sources after OSWALD's death that RUBY owned the Carousel Club and managed the Vegas Club, which was owned by his sister. He also heard talk that RUBY was a homosexual and that RUBY hung around both at the Police Department and City Hall. He also heard from unrecalled sources that RUBY was acquainted with MICKEY COHEN and that COHEN had met his girl friend, CANDY BARR through RUBY.

HILL stated the following individuals were in Dallas covering the assassination and the related events from the Los Angeles area:

GENE BONDS, ABC

TOM PETTIT and TED MANN, NBC

ED HADDAD, KPOL

GENE BLAKE, Los Angeles Times

HILL stated that he knew of no unauthorized persons in police basement; he knows of no one who was permitted in the basement without properly identifying themselves; that he has received no information indicating that anyone conspired with RUBY to kill OSWALD and that he received no information indicating that any police officer or any other official conspired with RUBY or willingly permitted OSWALD's killing. He further stated that he could not recall ever observing RUBY in the police department at any time and that he had no knowledge of any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

Mr. ROBERT S. HUFFAKER, JR., on interview at his residence, 4700 East Side Avenue, Apartment 115, furnished the following information: DALLAS, TEX

He has been in Dallas for only seven months and is employed as a reporter for KRLD. He is not well acquainted in Dallas and prior to the time JACK RUBY shot OSWALD, he was not acquainted with RUBY, and to the best of his recollection had never seen RUBY before.

On the morning of November 24, 1963, he was assigned to get the story on the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the Dallas City Jail to the Dallas County Jail, and he went to the Dallas Police and Courts Building for this purpose. He was required to show identification as a representative of the press in order to get into the basement of the Police Building and to get to the drive-through ramp in the basement where he was standing at the time of the shooting. He arrived at this position approximately thirty minutes prior to the shooting. Since he does not know RUBY, he would not recall whether RUBY was present in the crowd prior to the time he did the shooting or not.

He would estimate the number of people present in the basement of the Police and Courts Building at the time of the shooting as approximately 75 people divided equally between the press and police. He recognized JIM ENGLISH and BOB HINKLE with KRLD-TV camera and TOM PETIT, of NBC, and a French news representative, whose first name is FRANCOIS but whose last name he does not know, as being present at the time of the shooting.

ROBERT H. JACKSON, photographer, "Dallas Times Herald", residence 4030 Sperry, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

On November 24, 1963, he entered the Dallas Police Department about 9:00 or 9:15 AM through the Main Street entrance. He took the elevator to the third floor and went to the Press Room. At that time, he noticed only three or four people on the third floor. About 9:30 or 9:40 AM he rode the elevator to the basement and went to the area usually designated as the Jail Office. He was not required to identify himself and does not recall seeing officers on duty at the entrances through which he passed. He had two 35 millimeter cameras and a flash attachment with his name on it. He has worked at the Dallas Police Department on prior occasions and believes it is possible some of the officers know him by sight. Mr. JACKSON remained in the Jail Office area and actually meant to make his photographs from this area as OSWALD was brought from the jail elevator. However, about 10:30 AM or 11:00 AM, the police officers moved everyone from this area. He walked out onto the ramp in the basement where the TV cameras were set up. At that time, he noted policemen on duty at each end of the ramp. He saw no one entering the building by way of the ramp entrances. He observed no incidents in which unauthorized persons were allowed to enter the basement area and knows of no unauthorized persons who were present in the area. To the best of his ability to estimate, there were probably about 40 persons in the immediate area of the shooting. He took his position on the ramp where he could get a photograph of OSWALD as he was brought from the Jail Office onto the ramp. He was looking at OSWALD's face but was conscious of a person moving to his right and was concerned that this person would move into the field of his vision and interfere with his photograph. He did not actually see JACK RUBY or the gun until the gun had went off. He photographed the scene immediately after the shot was fired.

Mr. JACKSON advised that JACK RUBY had been in the office of the "Dallas Times Herald" during the summer of 1963 with some idea for a news story featuring one of the performers.

at his club. He saw him at that time but is not sure he would have recognized him had he seen him in a crowd. He does not recall having seen RUBY on November 22 or 23, 1963, or prior to the shooting of OSWALD on November 24, 1963. JACKSON remained in the basement for about ten minutes after the shooting and then left by way of the ramp exiting onto Commerce Street. There was a patrolman on duty there but he was not required to identify himself. He does not know whether or not the patrolman recognized him as a member of the local press.

Mr. JACKSON advised he had no information indicating that any person conspired with RUBY to effect the killing of OSWALD or that any police officer or other official willfully permitted the killing.

He has no information of any relationship or prior acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD. He had never known OSWALD or heard of him prior to the shooting of President KENNEDY.

VENSO in the basement of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department on November 24, 1963.

Mr. JAMISON stated that the original film of this sequence would be maintained in WBAP-TV files.

Mr. JAMISON stated that WBAP-TV had two cameramen shooting film in the Dallas, Texas, Police Department on November 23, 1963, and November 24, 1963, and that it was his understanding that copies of all of this film were furnished to the National Broadcasting Company (NBC), New York City, because in actuality, WBAP-TV was working as an agent of NBC. Mr. JAMISON said on November 24, 1963, a film shortage occurred at the Dallas Police Department, and it was necessary for WBAP-TV technicians to erase much of the film shot on November 23, 1963, so that the film could be reused. JAMISON said for this reason his own files, he felt, were incomplete.

Mr. ROWALD L. JENKINS, KBOX Radio Station, 9900 McCree Road, Dallas, Texas, advised as follows:

He has been employed as newsman for KBOX Radio Station for the past two months.

On November 22, 1963, he participated in the coverage of President JOHN F. KENNEDY's tour of Dallas with DAVID KING, UPI, Dallas. He did not witness the assassination of President KENNEDY. He said KING did not witness President KENNEDY's assassination and KING was not in the Dallas Police Department basement when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot, November 24, 1963.

On November 24, 1963, he was just entering the basement area of the Dallas Police Department from the upper floor when OSWALD was shot. He did not witness the shooting of OSWALD. He recalls seeing many policemen and press representatives in the basement area at the time of the OSWALD shooting. Identities of the policemen and news representatives were mainly unknown to him.

He does not personally know JACK RUBY and did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

He arrived at the Dallas Police Department approximately 1:00 P.M., November 22, 1963, subsequent to the assassination, and was at the police station until early Saturday, November 23, 1963. He was present when OSWALD was brought before press, radio and television representatives during the evening of November 22, 1963, to be photographed and interviewed. He recalled there were a large number of press representatives present in addition to a large number of police officers.

After OSWALD was shot, November 24, 1963, he had an opportunity to briefly view JACK RUBY in person and also saw photographs of RUBY in the newspapers and on television. After seeing RUBY on November 24, 1963 and the photographs, he recalled that on the evening of November 22, 1963, between approximately 5:30 to 7:30 P.M., he saw a man believed to be RUBY on the third floor of the police station. RUBY was milling around in the crowd of press representatives and was alone. The third floor of the police station was almost completely filled and was so crowded he could hardly move around. He did not see anyone who did not appear to be a policeman or press representative. He believes he saw RUBY talking to an unknown man near the third floor elevator shaft. He believes RUBY was wearing a light colored top coat and no hat. He did not recall whether RUBY was carrying anything at the time.

About 11:00 P.M., the same date, when OSWALD was made available to the press representatives, he believed he again saw RUBY in the crowd. He believes RUBY was standing on a table where some cameramen were standing and that RUBY had a pad of writing paper in his hand. RUBY was wearing a sport jacket at that time. On both occasions, he thought RUBY was just another press representative but did not recall if RUBY had a press card or other type of identification.

He did not recall anyone checking identification when he entered the room where OSWALD was made available for press representatives on November 22, 1963. He had not left the Police Department during the evening so he did not know if persons entering the Police Department were being checked for identification.

On November 24, 1963, he did observe policemen, both in uniform and in civilian clothing, checking identification of persons entering the Police Department. His identification was checked on several occasions. There were also police guards at the elevator entrances and at various doors leading into the basement area.

He recalled that when he was in the press room on the third floor of the police station during the evening of November 22, 1963, he observed several press cards laying on a table and he reported same to a police officer, name unknown to him.

He does not know of any unauthorized person permitted to enter the police station basement, November 24, 1963, or the police station during the period of November 22 and November 23, 1963. He does not know of any person permitted to enter the police station without showing identification.

He has no information that anyone conspired with RUBY or that any police officer or other official conspired with RUBY or willfully permitted the killing of OSWALD.

He did not talk to RUBY on any occasion or see any one talking to RUBY other than the one man whom he did not know.

He has no knowledge of any relationship or prior acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD.

He said that ~~ROBERT THOMPSON~~ ROBERT THORNTON, employee of WFAA Television, Channel 8, Dallas, told him he was in the Police Department basement when OSWALD was shot.

JENKINS said that SAM PATE then employed as announcer by KBOX Radio Station, was at the press conference November 22, 1963, when OSWALD was brought before the newsmen to be photographed.

He said that ~~JERRY~~ KUNKLE, announcer KBOX Radio Station, was also at the same previously mentioned press conference. He believes THOMPSON, PATE and KUNKLE have all been interviewed concerning their observations. DALLAS 121

Mr. JENKINS said he had no other information concerning this matter.

FRANK BERNARD JOHNSTON, photographer, United Press International, American Statesman Building, Austin, Texas, home address 3011 Whitis, Apartment 205, advised Special Agent M. T. BURK on November 30, 1963, as follows: Austin, Tex

JOHNSTON holds press cards issued by the Austin Police Department and the Texas Department of Public Safety, Austin, Texas. He went to Dallas on November 22, 1963, and after covering an assignment to secure photographs at a rooming house where LEE HARVEY OSWALD lived, he was assigned to cover the third floor of the City Hall in Dallas on the night of November 22, 1963, where OSWALD was being questioned. No one asked him for identification and none was shown by him. He remained on this assignment until after midnight and perhaps as late as 2:00 a.m., November 23, 1963.

Those present during this time were: PETE FISCHER, United Press International photographer, New Orleans, Louisiana; FRED KAUFMAN, photographer, Associated Press, Dallas; an unknown TV cameraman and several reporters, but the names of the papers they represented are not known to JOHNSTON.

JOHNSTON does not know whether there was anyone present on the third floor other than the photographers and reporters and police since he has never worked in Dallas before and knows very few people there.

On November 23, 1963, JOHNSTON returned to the third floor of City Hall, Dallas, between 6:00 a.m. and 7:00 a.m. and relieved WILLIAM RAILEY, United Press International, Bureau Manager of Houston, Texas. During this day there were so many people in and out of the third floor it was impossible to formulate any idea of their identity as to whether they were police, reporters, or curious citizens. OSWALD's mother, wife, and brother were all in and out of the third floor this day. On one occasion on November 23, 1963, OSWALD was brought out of the elevator on the third floor into an interrogation room and JOHNSTON made photographs of him as well as the above mentioned relatives. JOHNSTON cannot recall ever having spoken to JACK RUBY at any time and has never met him officially. He recalls having seen RUBY on the third floor of City Hall during the day of November 23, 1963. JOHNSTON went off duty after 11:00 p.m. on November 23, 1963, after spending all day on the third floor. About 4:30 a.m. November 24, 1963, JOHNSTON relieved PETE FISCHER in the basement of City Hall, Dallas. FISCHER had his rented car parked in the basement of City Hall at that time just opposite the hallway where OSWALD was shot. JOHNSTON recalls asking FISCHER how he happened to get his car into that location and FISCHER replied that he just drove it there and parked it.

JOHNSTON showed no identification to get into the City Hall basement but recalls introducing himself to Lieutenant WIGGINS, Booking Desk, Dallas Police Department basement and told him orally that he was a United Press International photographer JOHNSTON recalls seeing a free-lance photographer, name not known, in the basement of City Hall that morning with a 35 milimeter Nikon-F Camera, described as 24 to 25 years of age, white male, 6' tall, dark hair, 150 to 165 pounds, and slender build. This man said he had been there all night and stood near JOHNSTON waiting for a considerable time.

Others known to have been in the City Hall basement in Dallas on November 24, 1963, are as follows:

1. MIKE SMITH, Associated Press photographer, Los Angeles, California.

2. JACK BIERS, Photographer, Dallas Morning News

3. BOB JACKSON, Photographer, Dallas Times Herald.

4. A man with National Broadcasting Company who had a movie rig, name unknown.

5. Another movie cameraman who had a sound man helping him, names unknown.

6. Unknown United Press International Newsreel Cameraman from Chicago, Illinois.

7. Numerous persons thought to be newspaper reporters.

8. Lieutenant WIGGINS and his staff.

9. JACK RUBY who was not observed in the basement until about the time OSWALD was brought out and RUBY seemed to come up from behind where JOHNSTON was standing, then pushed in front of JOHNSTON as OSWALD approached.

JOHNSTON took three photographs of OSWALD: one when he was about ten feet away; one in which RUBY jumped in front of JOHNSTON and blocked his view of OSWALD; and one was made of Dallas Police Department Detective GRAPPLING with RUBY after the shooting of OSWALD.

Prior to OSWALD being brought out of the elevator in the City Hall basement, a large number of police "made a chain" along the route OSWALD would take from the elevator to a waiting car. Captain WILL FRITZ, Dallas Police Department preceded OSWALD out of the elevator with two other detectives on each side of OSWALD. Someone remarked "Here he comes." After JOHNSTON took his first photograph of OSWALD, he recalls seeing RUBY's immage in his view finder of his camera before he snapped the second photograph and he recalls RUBY remarked "You son of a bitch," then JOHNSTON saw a flash from what he supposed was a gun that sounded like a firecracker. Everyone seemed to freeze for a split second and officers grabbed RUBY.

JOHNSTON did not know RUBY by name until after the shooting but recognized him as the same person he had seen previously on the third floor of City Hall.

JOHNSTON was pushed back six to ten feet after the shooting by the crowd in the hallway, most of whom he took to be police officers. Several officers pulled their guns and one was heard to remark "Don't anybody move." JOHNSTON was not required to identify himself after the shooting and he waited in the basement to get three photographs of OSWALD being carried out on a stretcher. He never observed any security procedures in force at City Hall, Dallas, prior to OSWALD being shot other than the line or chain of police referred to above.

After the shooting on November 24, 1963, JOHNSTON went back to the third floor of City Hall and at that time recalls having to exhibit his press card for admission and again on November 25, 1963, on the third floor of City Hall he was required to exhibit his press card. On this latter occasion he was trying to get photographs of JACK RUBY. Later on November 25, 1963, he went to the basement of City Hall to get a photograph of JACK RUBY and on this occasion no one challenged him and he did not show his press card.

All photographs taken by JOHNSTON were turned over to United Press International in Dallas and he does not have any photographs in his possession. JOHNSTON cannot recall having seen anyone talking to JACK RUBY at any time and has no knowledge of any friendships or other relationships between RUBY and any members of the Dallas Police Department.

Mr. SETH KANTOR, a member of the Washington Press Corps, Scripps-Howard Alliance, 1013 13th Street Northwest, Washington, D.C., stated that he was assigned by his paper to cover the trip to Texas of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He stated he was riding in the special bus which carried the White House correspondents on November 22, 1963. KANTOR related that this bus was several car lengths behind the President's car, but as they were nearing the corner of Elm and Houston Streets in Dallas, he heard three shots. He thought these were shots, but some of the press men thought the first shot was only a backfire of an automobile.

He advised they were then taken in the bus to Market Hall, where originally President KENNEDY had intended to address a meeting there at a luncheon on November 22, 1963. Upon arrival at this Hall, he obtained the service of someone, whom he does not recall, to take him to Parkland Hospital.

Upon arriving at Parkland Hospital, KANTOR went to the emrgency area of the hospital and remained with other newsmen. Shortly before 1:30 p.m., November 22, 1963, the newsmen were notified that MALCOLM KILDUFF, the White House Press Aide, was to make a historical announcement. The newsmen followed KILDUFF out of the emergency area which leads to the west side of Parkland Hospital and to the southwest corner of Parkland Hospital. Upon arrival at the southwest corner of Parkland Hospital, KILDUFF entered the door, went in a small area, and then upstairs to a room where the announcement of the President's assassination was made at 1:30 p.m., November 22, 1963.

Tel

Upon entering the southwest corner of the building, he felt someone tug at his coat, and it was JACK RUBY, whom KANTOR had known in Dallas, Texas, when KANTOR was on the staff of the Dallas Times Herald newspaper. KANTOR related that he filed a story for his paper following this, but he did remember the time that RUBY tugged his coat because it was about two minutes before KILDUFF made the announcement of the President's death. KANTOR states he would place the time at about 1:28 p.m. when RUBY tugged the back of his coat and talked with him.

KANTOR filed a story which he says is fairly complete about the events that afternoon for his paper back in Washington. KANTOR does not know whether or not this has been used, and it is being set forth verbatim:

"Dallas. Nov. 25 - To my utter amazement I watched the man charged with killing President KENNEDY gunned to death by a friend of mine, JACK RUBY.

"It happened less than ten feet from where I was standing in the basement of the Dallas Police Station. LEE HARVEY OSWALD was being led to an armored car in the basement driveway. He was to be transferred to the Dallas County Jail.

"There was heavy police protection for OSWALD. Each of us newsmen had been carefully checked -- we showed our credentials -- before being allowed into the basement driveway area to watch OSWALD get into the transfer van.

"OSWALD was near where I stood. I was looking into his face. He had a scant smile. He was freshly shaved, and his face appeared to beam with cleanliness.

"At this point I heard Vice Squad Detective B. H. COMBEST shout, 'JACK -- you son of a bitch.'

"COMBEST was standing in front of OSWALD. RUBY was lunging past COMBEST like a stocky, five foot - nine inch porpoise, his arms extended, a pistol at the end of it. As the muzzle came to OSWALD's stomach, the gun went off.

"I watched OSWALD's face contort from cleanliness to horror. As his body crumpled, he let out the last sound of his life, a spine-chilling moan.

"The last time I had seen OSWALD's killer, RUBY, was two days earlier. It was at Parkland Memorial Hospital, moments before the news was official that President KENNEDY was dead. I had come to Texas covering the President's trip.

"I felt a tugging at the back of my coat. I turned. RUBY put out his hand. He shook hands numbly, having minutes earlier witnessed the tragic events of the President's assassination.

"'This is horrible,' RUBY said. 'I think I ought to close my place for three days because of this tragedy. What do you think?' His places are downtown strip joint and saloon.

"I agreed that he should shut them temporarily, but I spent no more time talking to him because I was hurrying behind the pale and shaken MALCOLM KILDUFF, the White House press aide, who was on his way to make the historical announcement that the President was dead.

"Before Friday, I had not seen the 52 year old RUBY for nearly two years since leaving Texas to be a reporter in Washington, D. C.

"I saw much of RUBY, whose real last name is RUBENSTEIN, when I lived in Dallas. He was a fellow who usually wore a diamond stickpin and who came to me frequently with an idea for a newspaper story.

"These were weird things, these stories, but unmarried RUBY always has been attracted to unusual people.

"There was a snake charmer he knew -- a suburban Dallas housewife who kept large snakes in crates in her house. Her husband was an accountant. At night, she performed in RUBY's night club stripping off her clothes while a snake coiled around her arms and legs.

"I did another story about the male West Indies limbo dancer whom RUBY brought here as a performer, had taken a liking to and was sponsoring for U. S. citizenship.

"That is the way he was. When he liked you, he wanted to do anything and everything he could to help you. If he didn't like somebody, he would curse them and fight them. He has had a few arrests here because of the passionate ways in which he had expressed his feelings of dislike for people.

"'I came up the hard, tough way in Chicago,' he once told me. 'I have been around real thugs. I can handle myself.'

"But one time I remember him bringing his nephew here 'to educate the kid. A man needs an education to get anywhere decent. I don't like the way I have wound up -- in the girlie-show business. What kind of a life is that for a man?'

"Friday I saw tears brimming in JACK RUBY's eyes when he searched my face for news of the President's condition.

"Yesterday, I spoke to GEORGE SENATOR, who has known RUBY eight years. SENATOR and RUBY have been sharing a four-room house for $125.00 a month since September. SENATOR said that RUBY 'had been grieving' since the President's death. Tel

"RUBY was a non-political man as I knew him, but he was always emotional. How was the emotional man able to walk into the police station basement yesterday morning and murder the un-emotional man charged with killing the President? I couldn't believe my eyes. The precautions taken by the Dallas Police were thorough. They even searched the Tristine elevator shaft leading from OSWALD's upstairs cell to the basement to make sure no assassin had found a hiding place.

"RUBY knew and was known by many Dallas police. He was allowed in, somehow. He was JACK RUBY the kibitzer in the jail basement, just as he had been JACK RUBY the kibitzer at the hospital where President KENNEDY died. He was a familiar face at all kinds of strange events in this city. But yesterday he stopped being the kibitzer."

KANTOR related that he did not actually see RUBY, but he saw RUBY's arm extending forth with a gun toward OSWALD, and the reason he did not see RUBY was in view of the fact that his attention was focused on OSWALD's face at the time of the shooting. When he heard gunfire, he turned his eyes and there were the police grabbing RUBY. In the excitement KANTOR stated he does not remember just who was down in the basement of the building as he was concentrating on his own story.

KANTOR stated that the reason he was at the police station on November 24, 1963, was the fact that the night before, someone with the Press Corps, asked Chief of Police JESSE CURRY, Dallas Police Department, what time the transfer would be made of LEE HARVEY OSWALD to the Dallas County Jail. Chief CURRY replied that if the press was back the next morning, November 24, 1963, by 10:00 AM, it would be early enough. KANTOR stated that he slept late and walked over to the Dallas police station, arriving there about 10:40 AM, November 24, 1963, thinking the transfer had already been made. Upon arrival he went immediately to the basement of the building prior to the time OSWALD was brought down to the basement, and was there, as had been set forth, at the time JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

fw KAUFMAN

FERDINAND KAUFMAN, AKA FERD KAUFMAN, 608 Dowdell Drive, Dallas, Texas, advised as follows:

He is employed as a photographer with the Associated Press with office at Room 353, Dallas News Building, Dallas, Texas. In this capacity he was present during the evening of November 22, 1963, at a show-up in the show-up room of the Dallas Police Department when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was brought in, in order that members of the press might photograph him. He does not recall seeing JACK RUBY present in that group. He does recall seeing MIKE SMITH, an Associated Press photographer from Los Angeles, who was present and who was situated on the other side of the room from KAUFMAN.

KAUFMAN advised that he has no information or knowledge that JACK RUBY was present at a press conference during the evening of November 23, 1963, held by the District Attorney, Dallas, but does recall that later he read in a Dallas newspaper, the name of which he has forgotten, an article stating that RUBY was reportedly present at this press conference and had a camera crew there.

KAUFMAN stated that on November 22, 1963, immediately following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, he, KAUFMAN, proceeded to the City Hall in Dallas to perform his official duties. He recalls that sometime between 4 and 4:30 p.m. on that date he was in a corridor on the 3rd floor of City Hall, and someone called to him by saying "EDDIE." This individual, who then was unknown to KAUFMAN, walked over to him and stated that he had made a mistake; that he thought KAUFMAN was EDDIE BENEDICT, who KAUFMAN knew to be a Dallas free-lance photographer, residing on Lippit Street, to the best of his knowledge. The man introduced himself as JACK RUBY and stated that he was the owner of the Carousel Club. He gave KAUFMAN a business card bearing this club's name and RUBY's name and told KAUFMAN that this card would entitle him to be a guest of his at the Carousel Club, and he invited KAUFMAN to come visit his club.

RUBY then stated, to the best of KAUFMAN's recollection, "I'll be the only Dallas businessman who will have an ad in the morning paper saying that his places of business will be closed for 3 days in memory of the assassination of the President." KAUFMAN stated that he felt that this was most improbable inasmuch as he knew the deadline for placing an ad in the Dallas morning paper was 5 p.m. He talked to RUBY for about three minutes and left inasmuch as he had pressing matters to attend to.

KAUFMAN advised that he did not see RUBY again until after the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that he was not present at the time OSWALD was shot. He further stated that he was not acquainted with OSWALD and has no information indicating or establishing that there was a personal connection between RUBY and OSWALD, but added that he has personally felt since the shooting of OSWALD that OSWALD and RUBY must have known each other and must have conspired in some manner with each other in the assassination of the President.

KAUFMAN further stated that on December 4, 1963, he was contacted by an English reporter, BRIAN PARK, of the London Daily Express, who is presently staying at the Statler Hotel, Dallas, for a few days longer. He had known and had been associated with PARK for a few days at Dallas. PARK stated to him that he had heard a rumor to the effect that JACK RUBY had a display ad in the Dallas Morning News, a Dallas daily newspaper, concerning RUBY's night clubs and at 5 p.m. or a moment before on November 22, 1963, RUBY allegedly called the Display Advertising Department of that newspaper and cancelled his ad and substituted another ad in its place to read that his clubs would be closed due to the assassination of the President.

BRIAN PARK further told KAUFMAN that he had heard that shortly before the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, RUBY appeared at the office of the Dallas News Display Advertising Department located on the second floor front of the building. He allegedly went there to conduct business concerning placing an advertisement in the paper and wished to see the advertising man who usually helped him in this regard. The advertising man was not present and when RUBY was told that he would return at 12:45 p.m., RUBY allegedly waited in the office for him. BRIAN also stated that he had heard that RUBY was present in that office when President KENNEDY was assassinated.

and that the windows from that office afforded a perfect view of the front of the Texas School Book Depository Building located two or three blocks away, from which building OSWALD shot President KENNEDY. BRIAN informed that he desired to get a story concerning this situation and wanted to take pictures from a window of the Dallas News Display Advertising Department office of the Texas School Book Depository Building and surrounding area.

KAUFMAN stated that BRIAN was subsequently refused permission to take such photographs which refusal was made by the manager of the Dallas News Display Advertising Department.

KAUFMAN stated that he felt that BRIAN was of the opinion that RUBY had made it a point to be present in the above described office when President KENNEDY was driven by in order to witness his assassination; that is, to witness the actual shooting on the part of OSWALD. KAUFMAN said he believed BRIAN was also of the opinion that there must have been a personal connection between RUBY and OSWALD and for this reason BRIAN was most anxious to take the photographs described above.

KAUFMAN said he personally feels that there must have been a personal relationship between RUBY and OSWALD but added that he has no concrete evidence other than what he has stated above, and that his feelings are based merely on opinion.

KAUFMAN advised that he does not know the identity of anyone in the advertising room with RUBY at the time he was allegedly there to place an ad in the paper on November 22, 1963. He also stated he knows of no other newsmen who may have talked with RUBY on November 22 or 23, 1963, or to whom RUBY may have given business cards or invited to visit his clubs.

KAUFMAN advised that prior to interview on December 4, 1963, he had just returned from Fort Worth, Texas, where he was present, with other newsmen, at an interview with LEE HARVEY OSWALD's mother. He added that while in Fort Worth he met a Secret Service Agent whose name he believes was PARR, first name unknown. He related to PARR the information which he furnished interviewing FBI Agents.

KAUFMAN advised he cannot recall any other pertinent information concerning this case, but stated that he will immediately advise the Dallas Office in the event any additional information is received by him.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 12/3/63

OTIS H. HOCKER KING, JR., 2826 Hedgerow Street, Dallas, advised that he is a free-lance radio and newspaper reporter who works under the name of KARL KING. KING stated that he had been discharged from his employment at Radio Station KLIF on the night of November 23, 1963; however, on November 22, 1963, he had been in contact with the United Press International (UPI) Office in Dallas and had been told that anything he could "feed" them in connection with the news story concerning the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, they would pay him a fee. With this in mind, he went to the Dallas Police Department on the night of November 23, 1963, arriving about 10:00 PM. He went to the third floor, as he was anticipating that police officers would attempt to move LEE HARVEY OSWALD out of the Dallas City Jail to the Dallas County Jail during the early hours of the morning. Upon his arrival, he was not required to show any credentials or press card at any time by any officer. KING claimed that he is very familiar to most of the detectives of the Dallas Police Department but when asked to name some detectives that he knew personally, he stated he was unable to furnish such names.

KING claimed that he spent the rest of the evening and morning hours roaming around the police department waiting for any possible news developments on November 24, 1963.

At about 9:30 AM, he went to the basement of the Dallas City Hall to check the layout as to where the best vantage point would be. He also made a note that there were two telephone booths near the swinging doors leading out of the basement area of the City Hall into the Dallas Police Department garage. He then made up his mind that he would attempt to obtain a position in one of these telephone booths and "get an open line" to UPI Office in Dallas.

KING claimed that at about 9:45 AM, he returned to the third floor where he saw Chief JESSIE CURRY and asked Chief CURRY if there was any set time for the removal of OSWALD. CURRY replied that he, CURRY, would have to check with Sheriff BILL DECKER to determine if DECKER was ready to receive OSWALD. KING then returned to the basement about 10:00 AM and observed a police sergeant instruct three other uniformed officers to check everyone's press credentials, and that only newsmen would be allowed to stay in the basement and would have to remain on the far or east side of the driveway in the garage. KING looked into the garage and observed two officers at each entrance, the one leading down into the garage from Main Street and the one leading up in the exit onto Commerce Street. KING also observed several officers checking the garage parking area which is located east of the driveway ramps. He observed several officers with shotguns and rifles in the garage area. He also observed Chief CURRY instruct that cars parked near the railing which is located on the east side of the driveway be backed away from the railing. He also heard Chief CURRY instruct two police "paddy wagons" be moved back to make room for the press and for camera equipment. KING then returned to the telephone booths and was able to obtain a line in the first booth just inside the swinging doors. He estimated that he got into this booth at about 10:15 AM.

KING stated that he never had his credentials checked in the basement prior to or after the shooting of OSWALD, however, he did observe officers checking credentials of reporters and cameramen both before and after the shooting. KING kept the line open that he had obtained to the UPI Office from the telephone booth where he was stationed. From this position, KING observed several more officers arrive in the basement and observed the police sergeant positioning them at various places throughout the area. At about 11:00 A.M, he saw a large number, about ten to twenty, of what appeared to be plain-clothes officers arrive. They moved into the area just outside the double doors in the garage area. He observed one Japanese reporter being stopped by police officers four different times, and these officers on each occasion were checking this reporter's press credentials. During this time, he was giving a running account of the proceedings over the telephone to the U I office and described the precautions being taken by the police department as "stringent".

At about 11:20 AM, word came that OSWALD was on his way. He observed OSWALD come out of the jail elevator with Captain WILL FRITZ and another officer and saw them go through door that leads from the jail office into the garage area which is located just east of the swinging doors. He could not see anything further but did hear a shot. He saw OSWALD carried in and immediately after saw JACK RUBY brought through the jail office to the jail elevator.

KING stated he had seen RUBY at the Vegas Club in Dallas on several occasions in the past but had not seen RUBY at the Dallas Police Department on November 22, 23, or 24, 1963. KING stated it was a fact that he had never seen RUBY any time prior to the shooting at the police department. He reiterated that he did not see the actual shooting of OSWALD.

KING estimated that there were approximately 100 newsmen, which could include cameramen, in the basement area at the time of the shooting. The only ones that he could positively identify from past knowledge were MIKE RAYBUN (PH), CURRY CAN, and TERRY MC CARRY (Ph), all from UPI, and BOB JACKSON, photographer for the Dallas 'Times Herald'. Tex

KING stated that he stayed on the telephone for about fifteen minutes after the shooting. He did observe that no one was allowed to enter through the double doors from the garage area unless they were passed by a police officer who was stationed there checking credentials. He did observe two or three persons being taken away. About this time, he heard that Chief CURRY was going to make a statement on the third floor of the building, and he sent MIKE RAYBUN (PH) to the third floor while he kept the line open to UPI. At this point, he called UPI in New York and gave them an audio version of what he had observed and what had happened and then left the telephone booth and went to the third floor by way of the elevator. As he got out of the elevator, he was stopped by a police officer who requested KING display his press card.

KING claimed he knew of no unauthorized personnel in the basement prior to or after the shooting of OSWALD. He further stated he knew nothing of any relationship between OSWALD and RUBY and had no knowledge of any police officers being well acquainted with RUBY. He further stated that he knew of no one who may have conspired with RUBY in the killing of OSWALD.

JERRY LEE KUNKEL, 1818 Stevens Force, telephone WH. 1440, was interviewed at the Dallas FBI Office at which time he furnished the following information:

KUNKEL is employed as a Radio Announcer for Radio Station KBOX and has been so employed since about May, 1963. KUNKEL was not at the Police Department on Sunday, November 24, 1963, when RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD and, consequently, could furnish no information concerning the shooting of OSWALD or security measures maintained by the Dallas Police Department.

KUNKEL met JACK RUBY approximately eighteen months ago while visiting in Dallas. This meeting took place at the Carousel Club where KUNKEL had gone to see the show. KUNKEL has had no contact with RUBY since that time. The last time he saw RUBY was on Friday night, November 22, 1963, or early Saturday morning, November 23, 1963, when he saw RUBY standing on a chair at the Dallas Police Department Show-up Room, where OSWALD was appearing before a local Justice of the Peace and being charged with the assassination of President KENNEDY.

He subsequently saw RUBY in the hallway on the third floor of the Police Department and overheard RUBY ask an unknown local newsman for the number of Radio Station KLIF Newsroom. RUBY wanted this number so he could contact the newsroom as he had sandwiches which he wished to give them.

KUNKEL observed RUBY hand out cards advertising the Carousel Club and handed one of these cards to KUNKEL, although KUNKEL is positive RUBY did not remember him from their previous meeting about eighteen months ago.

KUNKEL could furnish no information indicating any association between OSWALD and RUBY.

WILLIAM EDWARD LORD, News Correspondent for the American Broadcasting Company (ABC), 7 West 66th Street, New York, New York, advised that he was in the basement of the Municipal Building at Dallas, Texas at the time that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot.

Mr. LORD said he entered the basement of the Municipal Building at about 9:00 a.m. by public elevator from the third floor of that building. He said no one asked him to identify himself and he did not observe that anyone was responsible for identifying those persons entering the basement.

Mr. LORD was unable to furnish the names of any unauthorized persons in the basement; however, he said it was his opinion that it would not have been difficult for unauthorized persons to have entered the basement.

Mr. LORD advised that he has no reason to believe that anyone conspired with JACK RUBY in the murder of OSWALD.

Mr. LORD advised that he did not see or talk to JACK RUBY during the period November 22 through November 24, 1963, and he advised that he has no knowledge of any relationship or prior acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD.

TED MANN advised that he is a Sound Technician employed by the National Broadcasting Company working out of the News Department at 3000 West Alameda Street, Burbank, California, telephone 845-7000.

MANN stated that he works as a team with GENE BARNES, a cameraman. They were sent from Los Angeles to Dallas, Texas, and arrived there at about 5:00 p.m. on November 22, 1963. He does not recall being asked for any identification while in the Dallas Police building on Friday or Saturday. They were carrying equipment clearly marked NBC and got to be known by several officers on sight. He believed that anyone carrying sound or camera equipment could have moved throughout the building at will on Friday or Saturday.

On Saturday evening, the Chief of the Dallas Police Department, in reply to an inquiry as to when LEE HARVEY OSWALD would be moved from the City Jail to the County Jail, told the newsmen to be on hand by 10:00 a.m. the following morning.

MANN and BARNES returned to the Dallas Police building at about 9:00 a.m. on Sunday, November 24, 1963. They had hired an off-duty Dallas police officer to drive for them, and they parked their car near the Commerce Street exit ramp from the police building basement. MANN and BARNES were stopped at the entrance to the ramp and they had to show their identification before being allowed into the building. They took up positions in the vicinity of the booking office in the basement of the building. With them were camera crews from CBS and ABC and one still cameraman. MANN said that he and BARNES were able to get pictures of OSWALD as he walked from the elevator until he entered the corridor going out toward the ramp. OSWALD was out of MANN's vision when he was shot. MANN was at that time making his way with BARNES out of the building by another exit so that they could follow the vehicle which was to carry OSWALD to the County Jail. It was not until they had reached the street that they realized that OSWALD had been shot.

MANN believed that the security in the police building on Sunday, November 24, 1963, was good but he has heard from several individuals whom he does not know that JACK RUBY was well known to the Dallas Police officers and that RUBY even had parked his vehicle right next to the Police building. He was also told that RUBY had a press sticker on his vehicle.

MANN does not know of any conspiracy that existed as to the assassination or to the slaying of OSWALD. He knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY although he had heard rumors that OSWALD had lived for awhile in a Dallas YMCA where RUBY worked out. He did not interview either OSWALD or RUBY.

MANN said that he and BARNES had received word that OSWALD, a few weeks prior to the assassination, had talked to an automobile salesman by the name of BOGARDE about buying a car. They determined that BOGARDE was in Shreveport, Louisiana, and they flew there in order to interview him. MANN believes that BOGARDE has been interviewed by the FBI.

BOGARDE told them that OSWALD had taken a demonstration ride in a red Comet over the route followed by the motorcade in which President KENNEDY later rode. BOGARDE was employed as a salesman by the Downtown Lincoln Mercury which is located near the building in which OSWALD was employed in Dallas, Texas. When they talked about financing of the car, the price of which was $3,500.00, OSWALD told BOGARDE that he would not finance it and it would be a cash transaction.

MANN said there was a rumor, unconfirmed, that RUBY had a large amount of money in his possession at the time of his arrest.

John McCullough

JOHN ~~J~~ MC CULLOUGH, Philadelphia Bulletin newspaper reportar, home address 6345 Woodbine Street, Philadelphia, Pa., advised he was in Dallas, Texas, covering the story of the assassination of the President, JOHN F. KENNEDY, from 7:15 p.m., Friday, November 22, 1963, until approximately 7 p.m., Wednesday, November 27, 1963. He said that at all times he was at the Dallas Municipal Building where Dallas, Texas, Police Department is located and in the vicinity of the rooms used by the police department, that he had to use his press card for identification.

He said that on November 24, 1963, he went to Dallas, Texas, Police Department headquarters located on the third floor of the Municipal Building and arrived there around ten o'clock. He had to show his credentials to gain entrance.

Chief of Police CURRY, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, was talking to a number of reporters regarding the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the police department to county authorities. Among the things CURRY mentioned, was that the police department, during Friday night and early Saturday morning, had received several anonymous telephone calls threatening action against OSWALD for having allegedly shot the President. One caller said that they did not want to hurt any police officers, but they would get the SOB. OSWALD.

MC CULLOUGH went to the basement where OSWALD would be leaving the building about 10:30 a.m. He again had to show his credentials when he got off of the elevator. From the elevator he went to the basement garage area, where a vehicle would take OSWALD to the county authorities. He again had to show his credentials when he came into this immediate area. He also said he noticed the police checking police cars in this underbround parking area to see that no one was in the automobiles, and that they were also taking shotguns out of the patrol cars, which are normally kept in them.

An unknown Dallas, Texas, Police Department sergeant was heard by MC CULLOUGH to say these guns had been placed in the police department property room. MC CULLOUGH estimated that there were probably fifty police officers in uniform in the basement area, some armed with 12-gauge shotguns.

He said that a crowd of approximately 100 people were gathered outside the entrance to the basement, where the armored truck would leave the building, when it transported OSWALD away. Shortly after MC CULLOUGH got to the basement, these onlookers were made to go to the other side of the street by the police. The crowd was a well-ordered group, according to MC CULLOUGH.

An unknown police officer told MC CULLOUGH that the armored truck that was being used to transport OSWALD was to keep OSWALD from being shot with a high-powered rifle which could have been used to better advantage if he were being transported in a police sedan or van. MC CULLOUGH said the clearance for the truck was insufficient to allow it to get completely into the building, because of heating ducts protruding from the ceiling. MC CULLOUGH said he and several other reporters attempted to walk over to the truck to examine the inside but were prevented from doing so by a police officer.

A captain of the Dallas, Texas, police department, whose name MC CULLOUGH did not know, briefed the press on the procedure that would be followed at the time OSWALD was being taken through the basement to the armored truck. They were told they could stand along the line of the passageway which OSWALD would take going from the "booking room" and across the basement to the truck. When notice was given that OSWALD was in the basement, the press was not to follow after him, trying to question him or step out in the way of the group. OSWALD was to be brought down from the fourth floor cellblock of the building on a special elevator that carries the prisoners between the fourth floor and the "booking room" in the basement. MC CULLOUGH estimated that it was approximately fifty feet from this elevator to the spot where the truck was located. He said that this briefing took place at approximately 11 a.m.

He said there was a police car unmarked, parked right behind the truck, and shortly after a green police car was parked behind that car. They had both come from the parking area in the garage.

The area of the corridor that OSWALD was to walk through was well lighted as a result of the need for light for television cameras. At 11:20 a.m., Captain J. W. FRITZ, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, came from the booking room a few feet ahead of OSWALD and the two officers guarding him, and surveyed the area as he walked. MC CULLOUGH said at that time he was standing on a railing approximately fifteen feet away from the passageway where OSWALD would pass. At the time OSWALD came out of the booking room on his way to the armored truck, the area from which RUBY came was congested with television cameras, reporters and police. However, MC CULLOUGH noted the movement of an individual, who later was identified as JACK RUBY, moving toward OSWALD as he walked down the passageway between reporters and police officers. MC CULLOUGH estimated that by the time RUBY got to OSWALD, he only had to go five to ten feet to put the gun in OSWALD's stomach. MC CULLOUGH did not see RUBY's right hand until he shoved it into OSWALD's stomach. At no time did MC CULLOUGH see RUBY's face.

MC CULLOUGH said that immediately after the shooting, he heard someone say JACK, you s-- o- a b-----. Shortly after the shooting, Detective COMBAST told MC CULLOUGH that it was he who said this when he recognized RUBY.

Later that evening, MC CULLOUGH went back to his hotel and saw pictures of RUBY on television. He then recalled that on Friday night, November 22, 1963, when he had first got to Dallas, Texas, he was at the third floor of the Municipal Building outside of the police headquarters. At some time around midnight, he stood on a cigarette ash stand to get a better view of the area. As he was getting down from the stand, he bumped a man rather abruptly with his elbow. He turned to apologize to the man and noted that this man was carrying a blue and white box with "Alpacuna" stamped on it. This box was about eight inches by five inches and approximately three inches deep. After MC CULLOUGH had seen RUBY's picture on television, he was certain that this was the individual he had bumped on Friday. He said this individual was wearing at that time a blue top coat and gray pork pie hat which was wool, rather than felt. This was a different hat than RUBY had at the time he shot OSWALD.

Approximately one hour later that night, which was probably early Saturday morning, November 23, 1963, the Dallas, Texas, police department had a press conference at which OSWALD was allowed to be photographed and some questions asked by the press. The conference was held in the "line-up room" of the Dallas, Texas, police department and lasted approximately ten to fifteen minutes. MC CULLOUGH estimated that there were at least 100 people present. He did not see RUBY then, but after RUBY shot OSWALD, Justice of the Peace DAVID L. JOHNSTON, who handled OSWALD's arraignment, told MC CULLOUGH after OSWALD's death, that immediately after this conference, RUBY came up to JOHNSTON, introduced himself and gave JOHNSTON a business card advertising the "Carousel Club" night spot which RUBY owned. MC CULLOUGH said JOHNSTON told him that the dress of RUBY was the same as MC CULLOUGH had noted approximately an hour earlier.

MC CULLOUGH said that on Sunday, November 24, 1963, following the shooting of OSWALD, several reporters, whose identities he did not know, mentioned that on Friday night and early Saturday morning, RUBY had passed out these same business cards with advertising on them concerning the "Carousel" night club. They were gray cards with red printing. The reporters had gotten the cards from RUBY in the Municipal Building around the police department.

MC CULLOUGH, who said he had traveled on campaign trips with former President KENNEDY and also on presidential trips with former president EISENHOWER, said that in his opinion the security maintained by the Dallas, Texas, police department during the weekend of the President's assassination was good, considering the tremendous number of press and television people which were there, and also the great amount of coverage given the story through radio and television. He said he recalls of no instance of any unauthorized individual being around the police department, with the exception of Friday night when he accidentally bumped into JACK RUBY.

MC CULLOUGH said he had no information that anyone had conspired with RUBY to kill OSWALD, or that there had been any indication that any police officer had wilfully allowed the shooting of OSWALD.

MC CULLOUGH also advised that he had no information regarding any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD prior to the time of the killing of OSWALD.

Mr. TERRANCE McGARRY, 3517 Cole Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised that he is a newsman - reporter for United Press International Office (UPI), Dallas, with his business address being 2523 McKinney Avenue.

McGARRY related that on Sunday, November 24, 1963, he arrived in the area of the Police Department at approximately 10:00 a.m. with CURTIS GANS, another newsman for UPI. McGARRY stated that GANS entered the Police Department Building. After parking the automobile, McGARRY related that he remained outside the building near the car exit ramp from the basement on the Commerce Street side of the building. After being there five minutes, a policeman advised that he would have to leave the immediate area of the basement exit and stand across the street. McGARRY stated that instead of crossing the street, he entered the building through the Main Street pedestrian entrance and went down to the basement using the basement stairway.

McGARRY related that at the bottom of the steps he was questioned by a policeman concerning his identity and when failing to have the proper press identification, he was told he would have to leave the building. McGARRY stated at that instance he observed GANS and another UPI newsman by the name of RAYBON, who were standing in a crowd of newsmen nearby. After he had vouched for his identity, the policeman then allowed him to enter the building.

McGARRY stated that KARL KING, another UPI newsman, was stationed in the telephone booth of the building to keep a telephone line open to the UPI Office. He advised after speaking to KING, he made a quick observation of the basement area to look for a spot where he could be and observe OSWALD's departure from the City Jail area.

McGARRY stated that just prior to OSWALD coming out, the police made an announcement that he was on his way and they would have to clear the hallway and the pertinent area of the car ramp. He stated that he immediately moved to a spot in the middle of the car ramp just north of the hallway where they would be bringing OSWALD from the jail. He advised that he believes that he remained in this spot for at least five minutes prior to OSWALD being shot.

McGARRY stated that he does not recall seeing RUBY prior to the shooting nor does he recall anyone coming down the ramp from the Main Street entrance to join the other newsmen.

McGARRY related that when OSWALD came into the basement area, he was able to observe him for a few seconds and then he heard a shot and with the activity and commotion of the policemen, he did not observe the person who shot OSWALD nor did he see OSWALD fall.

McGARRY stated that most of the time he was in the basement area, he was concentrating on OSWALD's departure and does not recall seeing any other newsmen or persons being admitted to the basement area without proper identification.

McGARRY stated that after the shooting of OSWALD, he remained in the building until approximately 4:00 p.m., and at no time was he questioned by a Police Department Officer concerning his identity.

McGARRY advised that he did not see RUBY prior to the shooting, nor is he personally acquainted with RUBY. He also stated that to his knowledge, he has never talked to RUBY, nor did he know of RUBY's activities prior to the shooting. McGARRY advised that he has no information concerning any newsmen or police officers being friends of RUBY. He also stated that he would have no knowledge of any one being involved with RUBY in the killing of OSWALD.

ROBERT HULHOLLAND, NBC News, Chicago, Illinois, who is currently handling news coverage in Dallas, Texas, was interviewed in Room 858 of the Marriott Motor Hotel. He advised that he was not present as a newsman in the Dallas City Hall on November 24, 1963, when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot by JACK RUBY.

Since the time of that shooting, he had worked with GENE BARNES of the NBC News Staff, Los Angeles, California, but in talking with BARNES did not mention that he, HULHOLLAND, had talked in Dallas to a man named FAIRY or FERRIE. He never mentioned to BARNES that this man was a narcotics addict, now out on bail on sodomy charges in Dallas, or that the man had told him OSWALD had been under hypnosis from a man doing a mind reading act at RUBY's Carousel. He did mention to BARNES, however, that FAIRY or FERRIE was supposed to be a private detective and the owner of an airplane.

HULHOLLAND explained that what had actually happened was that he had been in telephonic contact with JOHN COPORAN, News Director of WDSU, New Orleans, Louisiana, three or four days ago. At that time, COPORAN told him that either the FBI or the local police in New Orleans, Louisiana, were supposed to have picked up and questioned a man named FERRIE. FERRIE was questioned because information had been received from an anonymous source that he was the person who had taught OSWALD how to shoot a rifle. Information secured from COPORAN indicated that in the interview of FERRIE by the law enforcement officers, FERRIE had denied knowing OSWALD.

Based on this information secured from COPORAN, HULHOLLAND did some speculating of his own in conversations with other newsmen in the Dallas area since November 24, 1963. He speculated later that if FERRIE was a private detective, then he could logically have sources to secure fictitious documents, including certificates or diplomas.

BILL DeMAR, ventriloquist, who was doing an act at the Carousel Club for JACK RUBY, might have desired some fictitious medical documents to enhance his reputation as a mind reader and might have secured these documents from FERRIE if he knew him. Since DeMAR claimed to be a mind reader, he might logically also be considered a hypnotist and could have hypnotized LEE HARVEY OSWALD to plant in his mind the idea to shoot President KENNEDY.

MULHOLLAND explained that there have been substantial rumors circulating among the press in Dallas to the effect that there was an association between RUBY and OSWALD. Because of these rumors, he himself carried on the further speculation of a possible connection between RUBY, OSWALD, DeMAR, and FERRIE, as he has described above. He advised that this is purely speculation on his part, and that he has received no information in the Dallas area or from JOHN COPORAN in New Orleans, which would support this speculation.

CHARLES K. MURPHY, News Commentator, WBAP-TV, Fort Worth, Texas, advised that he cannot recall if he told THOMAS PETTIT, NBC News Correspondent, that JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN was seen in the office of the Dallas County Attorney on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, after President KENNEDY was assassinated. However, MURPHY said it is possible that he did tell PETTIT this and that his, MURPHY's, information came from JAMES KERR, Dallas Representative for WBAP-TV.

MURPHY said further that KERR has a very reliable source in the Dallas District Attorney's Office and that this information came from this source. MURPHY said he recalls KERR giving him this information on Monday or Tuesday following the assassination of the President and believes it was on Tuesday while they were having lunch together in Dallas. MURPHY said he asked KERR who his source was and KERR did not reveal it.

MURPHY said that KERR has very good contacts in Dallas and very good sources in that town as he is well known in Dallas. MURPHY said he considers KERR's sources to be reliable because KERR has been right on everything he has quoted on.

of CIA [illegible] NORTON WILLIAM NEWMAN, reporter for the "Chicago Daily News", Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, Texas [illegible] JACK RUBY at RUBY's night club.

NEWMAN advised he arrived in Dallas at approximately 7:30 PM, November 22, 1963. He first saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD for some thirty seconds at noon, Saturday, November 23, 1963, at the Dallas Police Headquarters. The only other time he saw OSWALD was on Sunday morning, November 24, when OSWALD was shot and killed in the basement of the Dallas Police Headquarters by JACK RUBY. NEWMAN said he never interviewed OSWALD.

NEWMAN related that on November 24, 1963, he arrived at the Dallas Police Headquarters at approximately 10:30 AM. When he entered police headquarters, he was required to identify himself as a member of the press. He then proceeded to the basement of the building, and he was again required to identify himself. When he arrived in the basement he saw some 100 people gathered. He said about half were uniformed police officers and he presumed the others were plainclothesmen and members of the press, radio and TV. his activi-

NEWMAN stated OSWALD made his appearance in the basement, accompanied by two plainclothesmen, at approximately 11:25 AM. He said that in a split second JACK RUBY dashed out of the crowd and fired at OSWALD. NEWMAN added that he had not noticed RUBY before this incident and everyone's attention was on OSWALD as he made his appearance. NEWMAN stated that he did not get a good look at RUBY as he killed OSWALD and only saw him "out of the corner of his eye". He pointed out that he has not until this date seen RUBY's face because the officers converged on RUBY as soon as he shot OSWALD.

of six guarding the exit to the basement, whose identity was unknown to him, make the comment that he formerly worked for JACK RUBY as a "bouncer" at RUBY's night club.

NEWMAN said he never knew JACK RUBY and has never interviewed him. He advised he learned from LARRY FAINING, editor, "Chicago Daily News", that WILLIAM MOONEY, Assistant City Editor of that newspaper, mentioned that four men were arrested in Chicago, Illinois, on November 2, 1963, for carrying a concealed weapon and he (MOONEY) believed one was named OSWALD. NEWMAN knew nothing further concerning this matter.

NEWMAN advised he heard BOB YOUNG, reporter for "Newsweek" magazine, Chicago, Illinois, who is presently in Dallas, Texas, mentioned that JACK RUBY was in the office of the "Dallas Morning News", Dallas, Texas, immediately before, during and after the President was assassinated and was in a position to observe the scene where the assassination took place.

NEWMAN knew none of RUBY's associates and nothing concerning his activities.

He related that he heard from unrecalled sources that RUBY was in or about the Dallas Police Headquarters some two hours prior to the shooting of OSWALD. He also heard from unrecalled sources that RUBY gained entrance to the basement by helping a TV cameraman move equipment into the basement.

NEWMAN also stated another unrecalled source mentioned he believed JACK RUBY formerly had a roommate in Dallas who was a "Left Winger". NEWMAN said he took this comment to mean that RUBY's former roommate was possibly a member of some subversive organization or one with subversive leanings.

He advised he heard from Lieut. GEORGE BUTLER, of the Dallas Police Department, that JACK RUBY came to Dallas from San Francisco or Chicago in the late 1940's and was involved in an attempt to bribe Sheriff STEVE GUTHRIE, of Dallas. He stated that it is his understanding that the following individuals were involved in this attempted bribe:

One FABRICOLA, also known as "NEEDLENOSE";

One WEINBERG (FNU);

PAUL ROLAND JONES, from St. Louis;

DANNY ARDINO and

He advised that RUBY was a particularly close friend of JONES. He said that the first two individuals, LABRIOLA and WEINBERG, were supposed to have been killed when they returned to Chicago. NEWMAN informed that as a result of this story, which apparently has been rumored around some, some of the people of the news media think that possibly the "Syndicate" hired OSWALD to assassinate President KENNEDY.

He further stated that it is his understanding that when EVA GRANT was at the police station after JACK RUBY's arrest, as she was leaving the police station, she made a remark to the effect that JAC didn't see why "KENNEDY was killed when a man like VALACHI was permitted to live."

OLIVER OAKES, 5514 Monroe Street, Norton Grove, Illinois, was interviewed on December 1, 1963, at his residence. He advised as follows:

He is employed by United Press International (UPI), News Films as a sound engineer. He, PAUL SISCO and ISADORE BLECKMAN, as a UPI team, went to Dallas Friday, November 22, 1963, via plane, arriving Dallas in the evening of that day.

On November 22 and 23, 1963, he entered and left the Dallas police department building several times and on occasion had his press pass inspected by uniformed policemen but added, "they got to know us." Initials "UPI" are on all news gear carried by OAKES and he sometimes entered the building without showing press card with police officers assuming he was a news person based on identification on news gear.

He arrived at Dallas police department at 9:30 a.m., November 24, 1963, and entered the basement of the police department via the Main Street ramp. It had been previously announced by the Chief of Police that if newsmen arrived at the Police Department by 10:00 a.m., that day, this would be early enough to cover OSWALD's transfer to the County Jail.

He was carrying several pieces of equipment and suitcases containing photographic equipment, all bearing initials UPI and cannot recall whether or not he had to show press pass or not. He believes he was possibly permitted to enter by young neatly dressed uniformed officer based on UPI identification on equipment.

OAKES left the police department at 10:40 a.m., that day to cover the news conference being held by the wife of Governor CONNALLY at Parkland Hospital. He was advised of OSWALD's shooting while at the hospital and waited at the hospital a while in an attempt to cover OSWALD's arrival at the hospital but was instructed by SISCO to return to the police department and did not shoot any film of OSWALD at the hospital. Upon returning to the police department, he entered via the Main Street ramp to the basement and had to exhibit press pass to uniformed officer to gain entrance. A second officer approached and also demanded to see press pass.

[illegible] taking word of first officer that he was a newsman.

OAKES stated he believed the Dallas Police Department maintained strict security measures and that any time he was permitted entrance without exhibiting press pass it occurred when his news equipment was clearly marked "UPI." OAKES has no knowledge of unauthorized persons in basement of police department or persons present who did not have proper identification, other than the fact that PAUL SISCO of UPI team, JCK commented during press conference with Chief of Police on November 26, 1963, that JACK RUBY was present at OSWALD's press conference at 1:00 a.m., November 23, 1963.

OAKES has no knowledge of anyone conspiring to kill OSWALD or any police officers or other officials permitting unauthorized persons to be present in the police department during this time. The only time OAKES recalls seeing RUBY is after the shooting of OSWALD when he was in police custody on the third floor of the Dallas Police Department. However, he understands from other newsmen that RUBY was passing out tickets for free drinks at his night club to newsmen present. OAKES did not see RUBY do this nor did he receive a free ticket and knows of no one receiving one.

The only films shot by OAKES were of Mrs. CONNALLY and this was given to SISCO which he forwarded to New York.

Date Nov. 29, 1963

At approximately 12:00 noon on November 24, 1963, JERRY O'LEARY, JR., staff writer for The Washington Evening Star newspaper, telephonically furnished the following information concerning the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK RUBY:

O'LEARY stated that he was in the basement of the Dallas Police Department standing with other news people across from the door where OSWALD was to be brought into the basement area. He went on to state that OSWALD, accompanied by numerous police officers, appeared at the door. When he appeared at the door, he was handcuffed to the officer on his right with another officer holding his left arm.

He advised that at a point where the basement enters the garage area, they stopped for a moment. Off to the right of the prisoner about 30 feet away, an armored car was on the ramp getting ready to leave. In between the armored car and the prisoner was a blue automobile with a man of the Homicide Squad at the wheel. At the moment the prisoner came out, the police officer at the wheel began to back the blue car up, too fast, and he backed up almost to the point of being abreast of the prisoner, and hit the brakes so hard that they screamed.

At that moment a stout man, about 5'6", wearing a brown hat and dark colored suit, stepped out of the column of newspaper men and police officers who were standing in a double row on either side of the path that the car was occupying. In other words, he was facing the prisoner. He walked across the intervening area at a fast pace, but not running, possibly ten feet, and went right up flush with the prisoner. There was a loud explosion, although not as loud as you would think. The sound was muffled possibly by contact of the bodies. He fired one shot which entered what appeared to be the pit of the stomach or slightly to the right. The prisoner's face grimaced with pain and he doubled up, his knees sagging. At that moment the gunman and prisoner were completely swamped by policemen who were right on top of both of them. They were both hauled out in 30 seconds. The man's name was JACK RUBY.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 3, 1963

JEREMIAH O'LEARY, better known as JERRY O'LEARY, reporter for the "Washington Evening Star," 225 Virginia Avenue, Washington, D. C., telephone LI 3-5000, residence 405 Prince Street, Alexandria, Virginia, telephone TE 6-7063, furnished the following information:

He was sent to Dallas to cover the story of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY on November 22, 1963.

At about 9:00 p.m., November 22, 1963, O'LEARY stepped off the elevator on the third floor of the old building, Dallas City Hall, where he observed an individual he now knows to be JACK L. RUBY standing by the elevator giving out cards to the members of the press advertising his night club. RUBY was flashily dressed, including a sport coat and a felt hat and O'LEARY knew immediately he was not a member of the press. He recalls seeing RUBY handing one of his cards to IKE PAPPAS, an out-of-town correspondent. He does not recall where PAPPAS is from.

At this time there were a number of correspondents and representatives of other news media in the city hall and he does not recall anyone asking for his identification as a member of the press.

He observed no one standing guard or checking credentials except that there were two detectives apparently standing guard outside the door to the Homicide and Robbery Division of the Dallas Police Department, keeping out those who were not entitled to admission.

On this night, O'LEARY noted that RUBY appeared to be familiar with the city hall and was what O'LEARY described as a "hanger on."

On November 22, 1963, O'LEARY was at the City Hall in Dallas during a part of the day. He stated occasionally he was requested to show his identification as a member of the press but that there seemed to be no definite organization about the security of the building.

He recalled seeing OSWALD that night about 10:00 p.m. or 11:00 p.m. in the show up room in the basement of the City Hall old building. OSWALD was not behind the screen but was out in the witness area of the show-up room, and when the press crowded around him the police removed OSWALD from the room.

O'LEARY recalled he was not stopped in the entrance to the show-up room or asked for his identification at that time.

On November 23, 1963, word was passed from correspondent to correspondent that they should be back at the police department at 10:00 a.m. the next morning, November 24, 1963.

On November 24, 1963, slightly before 10:00 a.m., O'LEARY went to the Dallas City Hall to observe the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the city hall to the county jail. He did not see any policemen at the Commerce Street door of the city hall but he did see a policeman in uniform standing on the corner of Harwood and Commerce. O'LEARY entered on the first floor level of the old building on the Commerce Street side and was not challenged or asked for identification. He went to the self-service elevator in the center and on the west side of the building and used this elevator to go to the third floor. As soon as he stepped off the elevator on the third floor of the old building, he was challenged by a uniformed officer of the Dallas Police Department and he exhibited his identification as a newspaper correspondent.

About 10:20 a.m., he and 15 or so other representatives of news media gathered in the anteroom of the office of the Chief of Police and heard a few words from Chief JESSE CURRY. CURRY stated to the newsmen who had gathered that he could have moved OSWALD the night before but he did not want to double cross "you people," meaning the representatives of the press. Someone in the group asked CURRY if there had been any threats against OSWALD and Chief CURRY answered in the affirmative saying that threats had been made against OSWALD's life to the effect that OSWALD would not arrive at the county jail alive. O'LEARY recalled that he asked Chief CURRY about security measures being taken and Chief CURRY stated that they were using an armored car. O'LEARY asked him where they had obtained the armored car and Chief CURRY stated it was obtained from a commercial firm in Dallas. CURRY also stated, "We think we have enough men to handle it." Someone in the group asked Chief CURRY how they were going to get OSWALD down to the basement from the jail which is located on the fourth floor. Chief CURRY stated that they would use the elevator.

At about 11:[illegible] a.m., there was a buzz of activity throughout the third floor and O'LEARY sensed that OSWALD was coming out. He then hurried from the Chief's anteroom to the lobby by the elevator on the third floor. There he observed a line of uniformed officers and detectives keeping the reporters who were in considerable number against the west wall of the corridor outside of the entrance to the Homicide and Robbery Division. OSWALD appeared in the corridor under guard and the newsmen were ordered by an officer not to move up against or to try to move up against him. He also told them not to ask questions of OSWALD or to shout at him as he passed through the corridor to the elevator.

A minute or so later OSWALD walked out the door of Homicide with two officers, the name of one being LEAVELLE as O'LEARY recalls, immediately followed by several other officers. He stated that the entire group was preceded by Captain WILL FRITZ, Dallas Police Department and that there were perhaps 12-15 policemen in the hall of the third floor in the corridor of the third floor of city hall as OSWALD was brought out of Homicide and Robbery Division and taken to the elevator which is a special elevator used by prisoners and not the public service elevator. In spite of the instructions not to ask questions, several reporters shouted questions at OSWALD and he made a comment to the group, apparently in response to a question, stating, "Yes, I want to get in touch with the American Civil Liberties..." following which his words were broken off by his being taken inside in the anteroom toward the jail elevator. He was only in the corridor for about a minute and as soon as he went into the anteroom to the jail elevator, O'LEARY and IKE PAPPAS ran down the stairs on the third floor to the basement and waited outside the corridor in the garage area of the basement. O'LEARY recalls that there was no attempt to stop them as they went down, although he recalls he had an identification card as a member of the press on hand. He cannot recall anyone looking at it at any time.

When he arrived in the basement OSWALD had not yet arrived on the jail elevator in the basement. He estimated there were at least 50 policemen in the basement and most of them were in uniform. He estimated there was a policeman every three feet on the route that OSWALD was to travel between the door coming out from behind the booking counter and the ramp where he was to be loaded into a car or an armored car. O'LEARY did not recall seeing anyone who appeared to be other than a member of the press or an officer. He stated that he recalls there was an automobile at the foot of the ramp coming down from the Commerce Street side and that there was an armored car further up toward Commerce Street. He stated that there was a solid double line of officers and press representatives curving from the exit to the door coming from behind the booking counter to the ramp where OSWALD would be loaded.

O'LEARY stated he was standing almost directly in front of the double doors coming out of the public corridor of the basement and to the east side of the automobile ramp. About the time that OSWALD appeared coming through the door into the ramp and garage area the driver of the automobile backed up suddenly and O'LEARY's attention was diverted to this car since he wondered if the driver would stop the car before he rammed the line of people directly behind him toward the Main street side of the ramp.

At this time O'LEARY became vaguely aware of a short fat man moving in a gliding motion from O'LEARY's right starting possibly 8 - 10 feet from O'LEARY and moving across an area possibly a distance of ten feet directly to OSWALD who was between two police officers. This man who as O'LEARY recalls was wearing a brown hat put his entire body up against LEE HARVEY OSWALD's body as in a shoulder block and O'LEARY heard a muffled "bang." He at first thought it might be a flash bulb exploding since there were many photographers in the basement area. He then saw OSWALD's mouth open in pain or astonishment and saw OSWALD clutch his stomach and double over going down with the man who had shot him on top of him immediately followed by a number of officers to the extent that no single body could be distinguished from another.

From that point on O'LEARY stated he could not see the principals and that the entire mass of men appeared to pick up and move into the basement of the city hall. He never did see the face of the assailant but recalls him as a little old man with shaggy hair. He later learned that this assailant was JACK L. RUBY, but recalls he did not recognize RUBY since he did not see his face.

O'LEARY advised that at least one officer preceded OSWALD as he came out of the basement door into the ramp and garage area, that there were two officers at his side, several officers behind him and that the way was apparently almost completely lined with officers. He stated that RUBY approached from the side at a diagonal direction to that being traveled by OSWALD and the officers holding him in custody and that their attention seemed to be focused ahead of them and along the line of people that they were still to come to. He stated that this apparently kept them from seeing RUBY before it was too late.

O'LEARY advised that since the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY, TOM HOWARD, attorney for RUBY, has stated that RUBY has stated that RUBY had been to the Western Union Office on the morning of November 24, 1963, and had wired $25 to a girl in Fortworth. According to HOWARD, RUBY then returned to the Main Street side of the ramp under the Dallas city hall where two officers were on guard.

These officers were apparently keeping unauthorized individuals from entering the basement area via the ramp. According to HOWARD, Officer R. E. VAUGHN walked to a police car which was about to enter the ramp and then while VAUGHN was busy at the police car, RUBY walked down the ramp unchallenged. He had apparently been standing talking to VAUGHN before the police car appeared.

O'LEARY advised that he recalls that SETH KANTOR of United Press International (UPI), Washington Bureau and TONY RIPLEY of the Detroit "NEWS" were in the basement of the courthouse. He also recalled that BOB JACKSON and JOE BEERS of either the Dallas "News" or the Dallas "Times Herald" made pictures of the shooting and TV cameras from NBC and CBS filmed the murder while NBC was broadcasting it simultaneously. CBS broadcast it at a later time according to O'LEARY.

O'LEARY stated that he does not recall where IKE PAPPAS is from although he represents a radio network. He met him while in Dallas and he was sure PAPPAS was not from Dallas as PAPPAS had rented a car while in Dallas.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 6, 1963

JEREMIAH O'LEARY, JR., Washington Evening Star, Washington, D. C., advised that following the President's assassination, he had been assigned to proceed to Dallas, Texas, and cover events concerning same. In this regard, he stated he was present in Dallas on November 24, 1963, and was a witness to the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by night club owner JACK LEON RUBY. He related the following events which took place on the day of the murder, November 24, 1963:

He recalled that on the evening of November 23, 1963, a rumor had circulated among the press that the Dallas Chief of Police might transfer OSWALD from the Dallas Municipal Building to the County Jail on the following day without advising the press. In view of this, he proceeded to the Dallas Municipal Building on the morning of November 24, 1963, arriving at 10 a.m. He entered the building from the Commerce Street side, where a police officer was stationed. He was alone and this officer gave him an inquiring look, so he exhibited his press identification card. The officer gave a cursory look at same and permitted him to enter. He then proceeded directly to the third floor, where the Dallas Police Department Homicide Division is located and where OSWALD had been interrogated subsequent to his arrest. Upon leaving the elevator, he noted an officer stationed at this location who nodded recognition, apparently from the previous day, and permitted him access to the floor. At this time, there were approximately fifteen or twenty press and television representatives in the hallway, none of whom he recognized other than IKE PAPPAS, a representative from a radio station. He had met PAPPAS on the previous day and does not know what radio station he represents, but feels that it is probably a local Dallas station.

At 10:15 a.m., the Chief of Police emerged from his office and announced that OSWALD would be moved to the County Jail very shortly. The Chief commented that he could have moved OSWALD on the previous night, but had decided not to because this would be double-crossing the press. Reporters asked the Chief whether any threats had been made against OSWALD's life. He replied in the affirmative, but refused to discuss the nature or the source of these threats. In reply to questions concerning protective measures, the Chief said that a commercial armored car would be used to transport OSWALD to the County Jail. The Chief explained that OSWALD would be taken from the Homicide Squad Room to a non-public elevator located approximately twenty paces from this room. He would then be taken directly to the basement where the armored car was waiting to transport him.

O'LEARY stated that at this point, he and PAPPAS determined that they could remain on the third floor to observe OSWALD's exit from the Homicide Squad Room and would have sufficient time to quickly descend the stairs to the basement, arriving there before OSWALD would in the elevator. He and PAPPAS then had arranged to use the latter's car in order to follow the police and OSWALD to the County Jail.

At approximately 11:15 a.m., Captain FRITZ, head of the Homicide Division, Dallas Police Department, emerged from his office with OSWALD, who was flanked by two other detectives, one of whom was handcuffed to OSWALD. At this point, the press representatives were lined up on one side of the corridor leading to the elevator and the police on the other. All of the representatives began shouting unintelligible questions to OSWALD, who was quickly taken to the elevator. O'LEARY could only hear one comment that OSWALD made to the press, which was, "Yes, I want to see the American Civil Liberties Union." He and PAPPAS immediately took the stairway to the basement where a large contingent of police, television and press representatives awaited. He noted that they did not encounter any police officers guarding the stairway or its entrance to the garage. The elevator where OSWALD was to arrive from the third floor was located in a separate security room. Outside of this room there was a twenty foot wide channel leading to the armored car, with police and press representatives milling about freely on both sides. O'LEARY, upon crossing from one side to the other of this corridor, exhibited his press identification very quickly to an officer and was waved on.

At approximately 11:19 a.m., OSWALD emerged from the security room, flanked by the previously mentioned officers, paused briefly and then proceeded toward an unmarked police car which had been placed in the garage for the purpose of transporting OSWALD to the garage entrance where the armored car was waiting, due to the fact that it was too large to gain access to the garage.

O'LEARY stated that at this moment, the police car was backed further into the garage toward OSWALD and the operator accelerated the motor, causing considerable noise and confusion. He noted that he, as well as other individuals present, including OSWALD, had momentarily focused their attention upon this car. From the corner of his eye, he noted an individual emerge from the crowd about five yards to his side. This individual, subsequently identified as JACK RUBY, quickly ran up to OSWALD and appeared to throw his body directly against OSWALD, at which time the shot was fired, OSWALD's face first registered surprise and then pain as he collapsed on top of JACK RUBY. At this point, a complete state of bedlam existed, with officers drawing their weapons and shouting to seal off the building and permit no one to leave.

O'LEARY stated that he immediately detached himself from the crowd and took a public elevator up to the third floor in search of a telephone. He noticed that the Chief of Police was in his office preparing correspondence and apparently was unaware of the recent events. He quickly informed the Chief of the shooting and proceeded to the telephone to call his paper.

O'LEARY stated that in his opinion, the Dallas Police Department was very relaxed in their security precautions, based upon the fact that they appeared to be accepting any identification from the press representatives and in his own case, he was permitted access to various areas, apparently from previous recognition. He stated that he does not personally know of any unauthorized person who was permitted to enter the basement area, but due to the number of people and disorganization, it was possible there were some. Due to his concentration on events which were taking place at that time, he can recall recognizing only one other press representative in the basement and that was TONY RIPLEY, who he believed to be with a Detroit paper.

O'LEARY stated that he had no information which would indicate that any person, police officer or Dallas government official conspired with RUBY in committing this murder.

On the contrary, he believes that RUBY committed this act on the spur of the moment. He based this on the fact that he had observed RUBY on the previous day, November 23, 1963, present in the Municipal Building when OSWALD was being taken to and from the Homicide Division for questioning. At such times, RUBY was in close proximity to OSWALD and would have had ample opportunity to shoot him at that time. O'LEARY stated that in addition, several days subsequent to the murder, he had occasion to talk with TOM HOWARD, Defense Attorney for RUBY. HOWARD informed him that RUBY had arrived at the Municipal Building only moments before OSWALD emerged into the garage. O'LEARY noted that only very few top police officials knew the exact time when OSWALD was to be transported and that if RUBY had arrived a few minutes later, OSWALD would not have been present. HOWARD also informed that RUBY had entered the Municipal Building from the Main Street entrance, directly past two police officers who were conversing and who did not challenge him.

O'LEARY stated that he had not personally conversed with JACK RUBY, but had observed him on various occasions prior to the shooting, circulating among the various press representatives, passing out his business card and inviting them to visit his night club.

O'LEARY stated that he has no information indicating any prior relationship or acquaintance between OSWALD and RUBY.

O'LEARY stated that he had no knowledge of any unauthorized persons being present in the garage at the time of the shooting, nor has he received information concerning any relationship or prior acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD.

O'LEARY advised that prior to his departure from Dallas, Texas, on November 30, 1963, he had been in contact with FBI Agents on several occasions and furnished considerable information concerning the events of November 24, 1963, as well as other matters relating to the Presidential assassination, which he had obtained both prior and subsequent to that date.

[redacted] PAPPAS, a News Reporter for Radio Station WNEW, 565 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, advised that he was in the basement of the Municipal Building at Dallas, Texas at the time that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was killed. He said he entered the basement by a public stairway and that no one asked him to identify himself before being allowed to enter the basement. He said he was wearing his press card on his coat and it may have been obvious to anyone that he was a newsman. He stated, however, that he did not observe anyone who appeared to be responsible for identifying those persons entering the basement from the stairway.

Mr. PAPPAS was unable to furnish the names of any unauthorized persons in the basement at the time that OSWALD was killed; however, he stated it appeared to him that it would have been possible for unauthorized persons to have entered the basement.

He stated that he has no information to indicate that any person conspired with JACK RUBY in the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. PAPPAS said that prior to to killing of OSWALD, he had seen JACK RUBY in the basement of the Dallas Municipal Building. He explained this by stating that on Friday night, November 22, 1963, he attended a conference held by District Attorney HENRY WADE in the basement of the Municipal Building at which time OSWALD was brought into the room with the newsmen. At the close of this conference and while still in the basement, an unknown man came up to PAPPAS and gave him a business card of the Carousel Club. PAPPAS later identified this man as JACK RUBY. PAPPAS was also able to recall that a few moments after receiving this business card, he, PAPPAS, was holding a telephone and was attempting to get the attention of District Attorney WADE. RUBY noticed PAPPAS' plight and touched WADE and told him that PAPPAS wished to speak to him. There was no apparent recognition between

SAM PATE

SAMUEL MACK PATE, news reporter for KBOX Radio Station, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his home at 310 Beautycrest, Dallas, Texas, concerning his presence as a newsman at the Police Department, Dallas, at the time of the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. PATE stated that he was not at the Police Department when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot; that he was home at the time and heard about the shooting on the radio. Consequently, he knew nothing of the security precautions taken by the Dallas Police Department in connection with OSWALD's transfer from the Police Department to the County Jail.

PATE advised he has known RUBY for several years, but only as a casual acquaintance. He has never heard RUBY express any political opinions, never discussed anything concerning politics with him and had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to his arrest for the assassination of President KENNEDY. He does not know of any possible contact between OSWALD and RUBY. PATE states he did see RUBY at the Assembly Room of the Dallas Police Department about midnight, Friday, November 22, 1963 at a press conference held by HENRY WADE. PATE said RUBY appeared to be only an interested observer at this conference and he heard RUBY make no statements in the Assembly Room. After the conference, PATE and JERRY KUNKEL, who is also a report for KBOX Radio Station, talked with RUBY in the hall outside the Assembly Room. The conversation at this time was primarily about RUBY's night club business. PATE recalls nothing specific about the conversation concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY. He recalls that RUBY did not seem particularly disturbed by the event. He also remembers that RUBY asked for the "hot line" of KLIF and was given the number which he wrote on a business card or a piece of paper. He did not say why he wanted the number. During this conversation, which lasted less than five minutes, RUBY was introduced to JERRY KUNKEL by PATE. RUBY then invited KUNKEL to the Carousel Club and gave him a business card. RUBY was still standing in the hall outside the Assembly Room when PATE and KUNKEL left the area.

PATE states he quit his job with KBOX at 6:00 P.M., Saturday, November 23, 1963 due to a budget cut and has no other information concerning this case.

FRANCOIS PELOU, representative of the France Presse News Agency, Washington, D. C., who resides at 128 Bank Street, New York, New York, was interviewed in the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, Texas. PELOU stated he arrived in Dallas at 8:30 p.m., November 22, 1963, and that same evening he saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD for the first time in the assembly room, Dallas Police Headquarters, where a conference was being held for the press. He did not interview OSWALD on that occasion.

PELOU believes he first saw JACK RUBY on Saturday afternoon, November 23, 1963, at Dallas Police Headquarters where RUBY was passing out sandwiches to members of the press. PELOU said he did not talk to RUBY on that occasion, nor did he see RUBY talk to anyone else.

PELOU related that on Sunday, November 24, 1963, he arrived at Dallas Police Headquarters at approximately 8 a.m. and shortly thereafter he went to the basement of the building to arrange a telephone line to his office in New York City. From approximately 8 a.m. until 10:30 a.m. of the same morning PELOU was either in the basement or on the first floor of the Dallas Police Headquarters. He related that at 10:30 a.m. he went to the basement of the building and remained there until approximately 11:30 a.m. when OSWALD made his appearance with Dallas Police Officers. A man who was identified as JACK RUBY immediately slipped from the crowd in the basement and shot OSWALD. PELOU said RUBY moved forward and fired the shot at OSWALD so quickly that, in his opinion, no one could possibly have prevented the incident.

PELOU advised that when he first entered the Dallas Police Headquarters on the morning of November 24, 1963, he was requested to identify himself as a member of the press and on several occasions from approximately 8 a.m. until 10:30 a.m. on that date, while inside Dallas Police Headquarters, his identification was sought by members of the Dallas Police Department. He said that while in the Dallas Police Headquarters on that date he particularly noticed extremely adequate security measures at each entrance to the building as well as within the building itself. He knew of no unauthorized person who was permitted to enter the basement, and he knew of no one permitted to enter the building, including the basement, without showing proper identification.

PELOU further stated he had no knowledge of anyone conspiring with JACK RUBY and he saw no one talking with RUBY at any time. PELOU also advised he had no knowledge of any relationship or prior acquaintance between JACK RUBY and OSWALD. He added that he did not know RUBY or OSWALD and he never had the opportunity to interview either.

PELOU advised that on Monday, November 25, 1963, he and other members of the press interviewed a Mr. HOWARD, RUBY's attorney, who commented that he had just seen RUBY and RUBY had been crying and was brooding when he left him. According to PELOU, HOWARD related that RUBY's comment to the press was that he (RUBY) saw OSWALD for the first time in the assembly room at Dallas Police Headquarters on Friday night, November 22, 1963, which was the same day "he (OSWALD) killed our President."

PELOU estimated the crowd in the basement at the time OSWALD was brought out and subsequently shot by RUBY as easily fifty persons. He advised MILT SOSIN (phonetic), a Miami, Florida newspaperman; IKE PAPPAS (phonetic), a New York City Radio Station representative; and BILL or BOB NEWMAN (phonetic), a Chicago, Illinois, newspaperman, were present in the basement at the time of the shooting. He could not name any of the others present; however, he recalls that representatives of other news media were there. Also, he recalls a short, stocky Reserve Police Captain, name unknown, who was near the ramp entrance where RUBY allegedly entered, approximately 10 minutes prior to the shooting.

Date 12/2/63

W. THOMAS PETTIT, National Broadcasting Company (NBC) Correspondent, was interviewed at NBC offices, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, November 30, 1963. He is generally known by the name TOM PETTIT. He resides at 20805 Tiara Street, Wood Land Hills, Los Angeles, California. He furnished the following information:

He was in the basement of the Dallas Municipal Building when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot on November 24, 1963. He was broadcasting "live" over the NBC TV network at the time of the shooting.

He had arrived at Dallas, Texas, November 22, 1963, about 4:55 p.m. He immediately went to WBAP TV station in Fort Worth, Texas. From 8:00 p.m., November 22, 1963, until 2:00 or 3:00 a.m., November 23, 1963, he remained principally at Dallas Police Headquarters.

The following day, November 23, 1963, he was also in and around Dallas Police Department Headquarters in connection with his duties as a news correspondent for NBC.

On the morning of November 24, 1963, PETTIT arrived at the Dallas Municipal Building, where the Dallas Police Department is located, at about 9:00 a.m. Someone believed to be a news correspondent or a newspaperman on that morning told him that the basement of this building had been thoroughly searched by Dallas Police Department officers. He did not observe any police officers searching the basement on that morning.

PETTIT had been informally advised that OSWALD would not be transferred from the Dallas Police Department jail to the county jail before 10:00 a.m. During that morning, he was in and out of the basement several times prior to the shooting. He could not recall how many times he had gone in and out.

He had not been issued any special press credentials by the Dallas Police Department, and he was not required to wear any identification.

On 11/30/63 at New York File # NY 44-974

by SAS GERALD V. CASWELL and JAMES J. ROGERS/aog 480 Date dictated 12/2/63

This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside your agency. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to

He noticed two uniformed Dallas Police Department officers stationed on the ramp leading to the basement which PETTIT used to go in and out of the basement. He also had noticed a uniformed Dallas police officer, believed to be a Sergeant, sitting on a motorcycle in front of the armored car which was parked at the top of the ramp. He did not know if this officer had been there all morning nor could he state at what time the armored car was placed on the ramp. He had been informed that the armored car could not back down into the basement because of a low hanging air-conditioning duct on the ramp.

PETTIT cannot recall if he was required to show his identification the first time he entered the basement through this ramp on that morning. He does recall that sometimes these two officers on the ramp did require him to show his identification and sometimes they did not. His credentials were never very thoroughly examined by these officers.

He did observe an unknown number of other uniformed Dallas police officers armed with riot guns in the basement garage itself. He had also observed one uniformed officer walk down the ramp which led to the basement from the other side of the building shortly before the shooting occurred. This officer appeared to be armed with a riot gun.

PETTIT does not know of any unauthorized persons who were permitted to enter the basement on the morning of November 24, 1963, nor does he know of any authorized persons who were permitted to enter without exhibiting identification. However, PETTIT was of the opinion that if some unauthorized person wanted to enter the basement he could have done so without too much difficulty.

PETTIT furnished the names of the following persons whom he can recall were authorized and legitimately in the basement at the time OSWALD was shot:

1. JOHN MC CULLOUGH, Reporter for the "Philadelphia Evening Bulletin", Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

2. JIMMY TURNER, Reporter for WBAP TV, Fort Worth, Texas.

3. HOMER (LAST NAME UNKNOWN) (LNU), Technician for WBAP TV, Fort Worth, who was working behind the "live" TV camera.

4. Unknown film cameraman who claimed to work for a Shreveport, Louisiana, TV station and whose name can be secured from DON ROBERTS, NBC, Los Angeles, California.

5. Unknown reporter for a New York City radio station who was equipped with a microphone and tape recorder. PETTIT described him as "the loudmouthed radioman from New York" and indicated that he was white, male, about 30 years of age, 6' tall, 200 pounds, husky build, wearing light coat. This man was standing on PETTIT's left at the time of the shooting and had just prior to the shooting thrust his microphone toward OSWALD and asked OSWALD a question which PETTIT believed was "Why did you shoot the President or Did you shoot the President".

6. ROBERT HUFFAKER, Newsman for KRLD TV, Dallas, Texas.

7. GENE BARNES, NBC News Cameraman, who took movies of OSWALD coming out of the elevator, just prior to the time that OSWALD entered the corridor where he was shot. BARNES may have left the basement just prior to the shooting. He can be located through NBC, Los Angeles, California.

8. Captain WILL FRITZ of the Dallas Police Department, who was in plain-clothes and who seemed to remain around in the basement for several minutes after the shooting occurred. PETTIT believed that FRITZ had remained in the basement after the shooting unnecessarily and did not appear to be doing anything in particular after OSWALD was shot. He observed that FRITZ had walked out into the corridor in the basement where OSWALD was shot shortly before OSWALD appeared and was followed by another plain-clothes Dallas Police Captain.

9. Unknown Captain of Dallas Police Department who was in plain-clothes and who preceded OSWALD several feet behind Captain WILL FRITZ.

10. (FIRST NAME UNKNOWN) (FNU) LAVELLE, Detective for the Dallas Police Department.

11. P. T. DEAN, Patrolman of the Dallas Police Department, who immediately after the shooting of OSWALD in a TV interview said he knew the person who shot OSWALD and would have rejected him from the basement if he had observed him in the basement.

12. Deputy Chief STEVENSON, Head of the Criminal Investigations Division of the Dallas Police Department. Just prior to the time that OSWALD was brought out, PETTIT was standing on one side of the corridor through which OSWALD was to be brought out, and STEVENSON told him to move to the other side of the corridor. PETTIT requested STEVENSON to allow him to stand where he was, but STEVENSON told him to move to the other side of the corridor which PETTIT did.

13. Unknown Detective of the Dallas Police Department, who was about 27 - 28 years old, white, male, close-cropped hair, and who was the first man on the left in the large photograph which appeared on the front page of the "Dallas Morning News", issue of November 25, 1963. PETTIT believed this detective was the person who remarked during an interview shortly after the shooting that he thought OSWALD's assailant had come out of the basement garage and over the railing into the area where he shot OSWALD.

14. Police Chief JESSE CURRY who, according to PETTIT, was in the basement shortly before the shooting and might have been there at the time of the shooting.

15. Several uniformed officers of the Dallas Police Department who were armed with riot guns and who were in the basement garage itself.

PETTIT had no information that any person, a police officer or other official, either conspired with JACK LEON RUBY or willfully permitted the killing of OSWALD.

PETTIT cited the following three facts which caused him to speculate that a conspiracy existed to kill OSWALD:

1. Almost simultaneously with the shooting, a blue car, which had been parked on the ramp immediately behind the armored car, backed rapidly down the ramp and came to a stop with a screeching of brakes at the bottom of the ramp. PETTIT believed that this was a police car, but he is not sure, and he does not know who was driving this car. He did not observe anyone at any time enter or leave this car.

2. Information which was brought to his attention that RUBY was seen in the office of the County District Attorney on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, after the President was shot. PETTIT indicated he was not at liberty to say who gave him this information. However, he indicated that it came from employees of WBAP-TV, Dallas, and he suggested that CHARLES MURPHY and JAMES KERR, Reporters for WBAP TV, Dallas, be contacted for any further details concerning this fact.

3. Dallas Police Officer P. T. DEAN, who said immediately after the shooting that he knew OSWALD's assailant, although he did not disclose his name at that time, and would have rejected him from the basement if he had observed him in the basement.

PETTIT did not see or talk to RUBY on November 22, 23, or 24, 1963. He had no recollection of ever seeing RUBY prior to the shooting of OSWALD. He did not see RUBY prior to the time of the shooting, although there was only one man between PETTIT and RUBY at the time the shot was fired. This man, standing to PETTIT's left, was a New York reporter who had pushed his way in and was carrying a microphone and a tape recorder. He is believed to work for a New York radio station and was the man who thrust the microphone toward OSWALD just prior to the shooting.

PETTIT was broadcasting on "live" TV when OSWALD emerged through the door into the basement corridor. He was looking directly at OSWALD, and he believed thiswas why he did not observe RUBY prior to the shooting.

PETTIT heard the shot and saw OSWALD immediately bend over in a crouching position and grasp his mid-section and at the same time say "Oh!"

PETTIT then stated over the TV network that OSWALD had been shot. He immediately observed all police officers in the basement draw their guns and several detectives pulled RUBY off of OSWALD and took both OSWALD and RUBY out of the corridor within a very short time. He believed that they removed OSWALD first.

PETTIT then began walking around the basement, placing his microphone in front of any police officer who was willing to talk.

About ten minutes later, he observed OSWALD lying on a stretcher being placed into an ambulance which had entered the building from a ramp on the other side. The ambulance had to wait two or three minutes until someone removed the armored car from the top of the ramp.

PETTIT does not know RUBY or OSWALD nor does he know of any connection between the two.

On December 4, 1963 LAURENS PIERCE, 115 Rosemary Road, Montgomery, Alabama, furnished the following information to Special Agent SPENCER H. ROBB:

He was in Dallas, Texas, to cover the President's talk for CBS-TV and was working under the direction of CBS News Reporter NELSON BENTON. On November 24, 1963 he was assigned to cover the transfer of OSWALD, through photography, from the upper floor of the Police Department. At first he and BENTON had planned to use a sound rig, however, since it was so crowded they decided that a silent camera would be better therefore he departed the upper floor of the building by elevator to the basement prior to the removal of OSWALD. When he walked out into the driveway area of the basement, he was encountered by a uniform policeman who told him that no unauthorized persons were allowed in that area but then he, PIERCE, exhibited his press card and stated that he was merely going through the area to go to his car which was parked outside and he was permitted to pass without further challenge. He walked up the driveway from the basement in which the armored car which was to be used in the transfer of OSWALD was parked and proceeded to his car and exchanged his sound rig for his silent camera. As he started to return to the basement to return to the upper floor, two policemen ran from the basement shouting "Don't let anyone out the doors" and ran to the outside doors of the Police Department. Sensing some form of trouble, he followed these officers and did not observe any of the activities in the basement of the Police Department when OSWALD was shot and killed by RUBY.

He is not acquainted with all of the news media representatives who were covering the area in the basement of the Police Department when he came through. He saw no one there whom he knew to be an unauthorized person. He has no idea whatever that anyone conspired with RUBY in the killing of OSWALD nor does he have any indication that any police officer or other official conspired with RUBY or wilfully permitted the killing of OSWALD.

He knows definitely that he did not talk to RUBY at any time from November 22 through 24, 1963, however, upon thinking back over the various times when he was around the Police Department during this period, he feels rather certain that he did see RUBY although he could not recall the date nor exact location where he saw him.

He has no knowledge whatever of any relationship or prior acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 12/10/63

ROY A. PRYOR, 7716 Majova Drive, Dallas, Texas, who is employed as printer by the "Dallas Times Herald," Dallas Square, advised as follows:

He stated that he has known JACK L. RUBY since 1950 and that during 1950 or 1951 he was employed by RUBY as a saxophone player in a band at the Silver Spur in Dallas which club was operated by RUBY. He also worked from time to time as emcee and did some comedy work from time to time during the approximate one and one-half years he worked for RUBY. Other members of the band during this time were CLAY ALLEN, guitar player, presently employed at Dewey's Longhorn Ranch, Dallas; JIMMY BELKIN, fiddle player, present address unknown; GEORGE MC COY, steel guitar player, presently employed at Dewey's Longhorn Ranch, Dallas; and GENE CRAB, drummer, present address unknown.

PRYOR stated that he was away from Dallas from 1957 until 1960 and had no contact with RUBY during this period and since returning to Dallas, he has seen RUBY only eight or ten times. He stated that he does not recall hearing RUBY express any opinion concerning politics and never knew RUBY to carry a pistol. He stated that he considered RUBY to be a volatile and unpredictable person who was quick to become angry and just as quick to apologize for losing his temper. He stated he recalls only one occasion where RUBY resorted to violence as a result of his quick temper, that being sometime in 1951 at the Silver Spur when RUBY became angry at PRYOR and called him an uncomplimentary name. PRYOR asked him to apologize and when RUBY repeated the name PRYOR hit RUBY whereupon RUBY then stated he was sorry for losing his temper but almost in the same breath RUBY hit PRYOR in the eye with his fist.

PRYOR stated that he has never seen RUBY with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and does not know OSWALD. He added that he has never heard anything indicating that RUBY and OSWALD knew each other.

PRYOR advised that the last time he talked with RUBY was about 4:00 AM on November 24, 1963, when RUBY came to the composing room of the "Times Herald" in regards to an advertisement he was placing or had placed in the newspaper reflecting that his places of business would be closed for about three days. RUBY came over to him and talked with him ten or fifteen minutes at the beginning of which time RUBY stated, referring to the newspaper advertisement, "I got a scoop on em". RUBY also stated that he had been to City Hall where he had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in a police lineup. He added that OSWALD was "a little weasel of a guy". RUBY gave PRYOR the definite impression that that was the first time that RUBY had ever seen OSWALD. He made no further mention of OSWALD until a few minutes later when he stated that he had been to a press conference given by HENRY WADE, the District Attorney, for the Press. He did not state exactly how he was able to be present at this press conference but this fact was not surprising to PRYOR who knew that RUBY was well known among the press and law enforcement officers. He stated that at one point when WADE was talking on the phone over long distance, WADE mentioned that OSWALD was associated with some sort of Cuban freedom committee whereupon RUBY corrected WADE and told him the correct name of the Cuban committee OSWALD was allegedly a member of. RUBY stated that he corrected WADE because he realized that the committee named by WADE was an anti-Cuban committee whereupon OSWALD's committee was pro-Cuban.

PRYOR stated that he recalls that sometime during his conversation with RUBY, the latter stated that he was close enough to OSWALD to touch him. This statement was made when RUBY mentioned that he had seen OSWALD at the lineup either before or after RUBY first mentioned having been to the lineup.

PRYOR stated that he considers RUBY to be impulsive, unpredictable, highly emotional but added that he did not feel that RUBY would ever have committed murder under any circumstances and was shocked to learn that RUBY killed OSWALD.

HENRY MICHAEL [illegible], 8015 Westchester, Apartment 6, Dallas, Texas, a newsman for United Press International related the following:

On November 24, 1963, he went to the basement of the building housing the Dallas Police Department at about 7:00 AM. There were about three newsmen already there at this time. He sat in the Jail Office waiting for LEE HARVEY OSWALD to be transferred from the City Jail to the Dallas County Jail. He occasionally went to the third floor during the waiting period to ascertain any new developments. When he first entered the basement, he was not asked to exhibit any credentials by anyone but, on numerous occasions during the day, he was asked to show his credentials to both uniformed and plain-clothes police officers. His credentials were also checked on one occasion on the third floor by a police officer.

About twenty minutes before LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot, he went upstairs to the third floor and while he was there suddenly everyone went downstairs. He said he did not recall hearing any announcement, but all of a sudden everyone seemed to know it was time to transfer OSWALD. As he came down in the elevator, he was checked by police officers standing in the little hallway in front of the windows in the Jail Booking Office. His credentials were examined at this point and he continued on through this hall or lobby and took up a position in the basement. Since he is of rather short stature, he stood on a railing around the parking area just in front of the swinging door leading to the hallways of the Jail Office. He saw OSWALD being brought from the Jail Office into the basement.

With regard to the actual shooting, he stated he recalled seeing a moving blur to his right and heard the shot, but everything happened so quickly he did not even see the man who had shot OSWALD, because this man was almost instantaneously surrounded by police officers, who bore him to the ground.

November 24, 1963, was the first time he had been in the Dallas Police Department or the City Hall. He was not aware of any announced or security procedures of the Police Department, but does know he was required to identify himself on several occasions, which he did by use of his press card. He has no personal knowledge of any unauthorized persons being permitted in the basement, assuming that everyone was checked as he was by the Police Department.

He had no knowledge that anybody in the Police Department or elsewhere conspired with RUBY to shoot OSWALD. RABUN had never seen RUBY at any time and particularly between November 22 - 24, 1963, and had no knowledge of any association or relationship between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

RABUN is not acquainted with RUBY and has never been in the Carousel Club or the Vegas Club. He stated there was such a mob of people in the basement that it would be difficult for him to give any estimate as to the number who were there, but did state it was very crowded and it was necessary for the Police Department to hold the newsmen back since there were so many of them.

WILLIAM RAILEY, Manager, United Press International, Press Building, 8100 Rusk Avenue, Houston, Texas, advised SA EDWARD D. STORK that on November 22, 1963, he was in his office at Houston, when he learned of the assassination of President KENNEDY. He said that he immediately proceeded to Dallas, Texas, via the airlines, arriving there around 3:00 P. M. Central time the same date.

RAILEY advised that at that time suspect OSWALD was being held on the third floor of Dallas Police Jail; and that he had to display his Texas State Press Card, to officers at the entrance to the Police Department, before he was allowed to enter the building. Further, that on reaching the third floor of the building, he was again requested to display his press card to two officers before he was permitted to go in the hall where members of the news media were congregated.

RAILEY said that he is in possession of numerous "press cards" issued by various news organizations and anyone of which is usually sufficient for identification to police authorities, but the Dallas officers were concerned mainly with the card issued by the State of Texas, and that anyone not having this card was not permitted into the building. He cited one case of a newsman (unidentified) who did not have a Texas State Press Card who was denied entrance to the Police Department when it was "quite obvious that the person was a newsman". He said that this person was "loaded down" with photographic equipment and was displaying all sorts of press cards, but lacking the aforementioned card was denied entrance.

RAILEY said that, in his estimation, the security measures of the Dallas Police Department, were as "tight" as he had ever encountered.

RAILEY said that as of 12:10 A. M., November 24, 1963, security measures were extended to all entrance ways to the basement of the Dallas Police Department, where OSWALD was to be taken out for removal to the County Jail. RAILEY thinking that the Police Department would remove OSWALD prior to the announced hour, positioned himself in the basement at midnight and remained there until approximately 6:00 A. M., November 24, 1963, at which time he was relieved by his associate, FRANK JOHNSON, Photographer, UPI, American Stationary Building, Austin, Texas.

RAILEY advised that he then returned to his hotel to sleep, since he had been awake some seventeen straight hours. On awakening at noon he learned that OSWALD had been killed. RAILEY then returned to the basement of the Dallas Police Department, gaining entrance via the ramp, and was again "checked out" by Officers.

RAILEY stated that he has never known RUBY or OSWALD, and did not recall seeing RUBY at the Dallas Police Department at any time. Further, that he has never interviewed RUBY or OSWALD; knows of no possible connection between RUBY or OSWALD, or of any relationship between RUBY and the Dallas Police Department.

RAILEY advised that the only persons that he could recall seeing at the Police Department, on November 22, 23 or 24, 1963, were FRANK JOHNSON (previously mentioned) JACK BEERS, Dallas Morning News and BOB JOHNSON, Dallas Times Herald.

Fred T. Finestine. Date

FREDERICK RHEINSTEIN, Producer-Director, NBC News, Burbank, California, was interviewed at his residence, 4149 Crisp Canyon Road, Sherman Oaks, California.

RHEINSTEIN advised he was Producer-Director of an NBC news crew in Dallas following the assassination of President KENNEDY.

RHEINSTEIN advised that at the time LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot in the basement of the Police Building, he was at the County Jail directing the activities of the crew in the basement there preparing for OSWALD's contemplated appearance there. However, he had been in the basement of the Police Building approximately 25 minutes prior to OSWALD's appearance.

He stated he did not notice JACK RUBY when he was in the basement of the Police Building, but he had seen RUBY at least four times in the Police Building on Saturday, the day prior to OSWALD's being shot. He advised he did not personally know RUBY, but had noticed him hanging around making a pest of himself and he and his crew members began referring to him as "our creepy friend". He said he thought he was just a police character with lots of "clout". By clout he said he meant lots of influence or pull and knew the right kind of people.

RHEINSTEIN said he heard an unconfirmed rumor that on Saturday when efforts were being made to get District Attorney TOM WADE to make a statement, it was RUBY who went into WADE's office and got him out.

He advised he had not spoken to RUBY nor could he recall anyone speaking to him.

RHEINSTEIN stated that at no time while at the Police Building was he required to identify himself or was he refused admittance to any part of the building until after OSWALD was shot. He said he did not believe that any of his crew members had been challenged either.

He said on the Sunday morning at the Police basement, he was not challenged for identification either when he arrived or when he left. He said he did not know of any unauthorized people being admitted at anytime, but felt sure unauthorized people could enter because of the laxity of security and the general confusion of the time.

RHEINSTEIN stated WBAP Dallas, Texas would have a seven to ten minute tape of the scene in the Police basement taken prior to OSWALD's arrival. He also stated he had a three man crew assisting him present in the basement approximately 25 minutes prior to OSWALD's appearance, but he does not have their names. He stated the camera man was named HERMAN (LNU), who was employed at WBAP, Dallas; the reporter was named PETIT (LNU) and the film man was from Shreveport, Louisiana where he was employed as a free lance at some radio station.

Tom W Ripley

[redacted] (no middle name) RIPLEY, 414 West Harrison, Royal Oak, Michigan, was interviewed at his residence.

He stated he is a reporter for "The Detroit News", a daily Detroit publication, which is located at 615 West Lafayette, Detroit, Michigan. He has been employed as a reporter for this publication since November, 1956. He stated he arrived at Dallas, Texas, at 7:30 PM, on November 22, 1963, having been sent to cover the assassination of President KENNEDY. He said he did not know the identity of President KENNEDY's assassinator at the time he left Detroit. He said his assignment was to cover the investigation to develop the assassinator of President KENNEDY.

He advised that en route to Dallas, Texas, from Detroit, he changed planes at Atlanta, Georgia, and on this plane he met JOE CUMMINGS or CUMMINO, who represented the Newsweek Magazine and who is stationed in Atlanta. He said he also met one STEWART LOORY of the New York Herald Tribune", New York, New York. He said he is not certain if either CUMMINGS or LOORY were at the scene of the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Tel

RIPLEY said he was actually present in the basement of the Dallas Municipal Building (DMB), which houses the Dallas Police Department and other city offices. He said he assumed, but does not know of his own personal knowledge, that everyone present in the basement of the DMB was either a representative of the news media, police officer or other law enforcement agency of the State of Texas.

He said that the only other individual that may have been present in the basement of the DMB was one TOM HOWARD, who is now the defense attorney from Dallas for JACK RUBY. He said he could not now recall who stated this, but it might have been one GERALD O'LEARY, reporter, "Washington Star," Washington, D.C. He stated HOWARD's office is located across the street from the DMB.

He advised that at about 9:45 AM, on November 24, 1963, he was proceeding to the DMB, arriving at the corner of the DMB, which is closest to the Statler Hilton Hotel, where he was staying. He said one of the cross streets was Commerce Street. He stated as he arrived at this corner, he was immediately challenged by an officer of the Dallas Police Department, identity unknown. He advised he immediately displayed his press card to this officer and was allowed to proceed.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

He reported he then entered the DMB, Commerce Street, entrance, and as soon as he entered he was again asked to identify himself by officers of the Dallas Police Department. He stated he again identified himself by showing his press card and proceeded to the third floor of the DMB, which is the main office of the Dallas Police Department. He stated he then found out that OSWALD had not as yet been transferred to the Dallas County Jail. He said that he then left the DMB via the same way that he had entered. He stated he then walked to the entrance of the ramp leading to the basement of the DMB, where the armored car was parked, and was hesitant at first about entering the basement via the ramp, thinking that the Police Department did not want newsmen in the basement. He said he noticed that two or three individuals entered the basement via the ramp, identities unknown, but presumed by RIPLEY to be newsmen, and he decided to enter the basement. He said he also noticed a cable running down the ramp, which he was sure was a television cable, and immediately thought that there was news coverage of this event. He said he then proceeded down this ramp into the basement and, thereafter, was never challenged as to his identity until after the shooting of OSWALD.

He said there was no specific stations for reporters to stand, but he, as well as others, were told by the Dallas Police Department to keep out of the way. He stated as a result, most reporters positioned themselves along the walls of the basement.

He said there were no security instructions or procedures outlined to the reporters as far as he knows. He reiterated that neither he, nor as far as he knows anyone else, was required to identify himself in the basement of the DMB.

He said he was about twenty feet away from the actual spot where OSWALD was shot. He stated that the assailant of OSWALD was not clearly seen by him and all he recalled is a "blur" of someone moving into the vicinity of where OSWALD was at the time of the shooting.

Within five minutes after the shooting of OSWALD, RIPLEY said he was approached by a plainclothesman of the Dallas Police Department and was asked to identify himself. He said he again displayed his press credential, which was examined minutely by this plainclothesman. He said that he then immediately left the basement and went to the third floor, which was the office of the Dallas Police Department and, thereafter, left the building.

He said he has no knowledge whatsoever of anyone entering the basement without identification.

He said he had no knowledge whatsoever, either by direct knowledge or hearsay, of any conspiracy between any individual and RUBY regarding the shooting.

He said he has no indication that there was any conspiracy between RUBY or any police officer of the Dallas Police Department or any other individual that would allow or permit RUBY to perform the killing.

He said he never officially interviewed or spoke to JACK RUBY and cannot recall seeing RUBY prior to the OSWALD shooting. He said he only noticed him and knew his identity after he had been apprehended by the Dallas Police Department, which was after RUBY shot OSWALD.

He said he had no personal knowledge that there was any connection between JACK RUBY and OSWALD. He did state that on November 24, 1963, there was a television interview with BILL DE MAR, a ventriloquist and master of ceremonies at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas. He also conducted a "memory act" at the Carousel Club. During this interview, it was alleged that DE MAR had seen OSWALD at the Carousel Club.

On November 26, 1963, according to RIPLEY, JOYCE EGGERTON, a reporter for the "London Sunday Observer," London, England, who was staying at the Statler Hilton Hotel, suggested to RIPLEY that they interview DE MAR. He said he believed that EGGERTON's office was located in either Washington, D.C., or New York City. Tel

As a result, on November 26, 1963, he and EGGERTON interviewed DE MAR at the Carousel Club. DE MAR stated, as a result of this interview, that he had seen OSWALD at the club on a week night several weeks prior to the shooting. He said DE MAR reported that he was doing his "memory act" and claimed that OSWALD was part of the audience participation in this act. He said DE MAR was from Evansville, Indiana. RIPLEY advised he was not enthusiastic nor did he pursue to any great extent this interview of DE MAR because he had been convinced in his own mind that DE MAR had not seen OSWALD at the Carousel Club. The only reason RIPLEY could offer for this opinion was from his experience in the newspaper business. He did state that DX NAR seemed to be sincere, but for the above reasons it appeared that he might be seeking publicity.

RIPLEY advised that the following are the only individuals he knows by name to have actually been in the basement of the DMN at the time of the OSWALD shooting:

JOHN MC CULLOUGH
Reporter
"Philadelphia Bulletin"
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

PEGGY SIMPSON
Associated Press
Dallas, Texas

FRANCOIS PELOU
Reporter
France Press
believed stationed at Washington, D.C.

TOM PETIT
NBC-TV
believed to be stationed in New York City

RIPLEY advised from overall observation the security offered by the Dallas Police Department was rather "relaxed" and offered this observation in comparing other important affairs which he covered with the security taken by other police departments. He based this mostly on the fact he, RIPLEY, was allowed down the ramp without being challenged, even though he was previously challenged elsewhere.

WARREN E. RITCHEY, Engineer, WBAP-TV, Fort Worth, Texas, advised that his home address is 1600 Grantland Circle, Fort Worth, Texas, phone 335-7000 and 819-1911. RITCHEY advised he has worked for WBAP-TV for thirteen years. He furnished the following information:

RITCHEY advised that on Sunday, November 24, 1963, he was the WBAP-TV cameraman stationed on the outside camera on the Commerce Street side of the Dallas Police Department. [illegible] RITCHEY said further he had his camera set on top of a mobile unit and the mobile unit was parked next to the curb, facing east, about twenty-five feet from the ramp entrance to the basement of the Police Department.

RITCHEY said he and his crew set up at this point between 7:30 and 8:00 AM. RITCHEY said no person helped him set up his camera; however, he recalled seeing a person, whom he now knows to be JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN, walking on the sidewalk on the Commerce Street side of the Police Department at about 9:00 AM. He said he did not see anyone with this person; that this man was alone and that, actually, he did not pay any attention to the individual at the time.

RITCHEY said he does recall RUBY at one time, exact time not recalled, but before the shooting of OSWALD, walking up to the television truck and talking to someone in the truck on which his camera was located.

RITCHEY advised that JOHN SMITH and I. N. WALKER were the two other WBAP-TV employees in the television truck at the time [illegible]. His actions [illegible] to concerning this matter.

DONALD C. ROBERTS, furnished the following information:

He is West Coast Editor, Huntley-Brinkley Report, National Broadcasting Company (NBC), Inc., Burbank, California, 91503; area code 213; Telephone Nos. 845-7000 and 849-3911. He resides at 8110 Ventura Canyon Avenue, Van Nuys, California, Telephone No. ST 5-2202.

ROBERTS was on duty at the NBC affiliate, WBAP-TV station, Fort Worth, Texas on November 24, 1963 when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot by JACK RUBY in the basement of the City Hall, Dallas, Texas. NBC had employed STEVEN L. ALEXANDER, 1163 Dudley Drive, Shreveport, Louisiana on a temporary basis to aid in camera coverage of events in Dallas and ALEXANDER is believed to have been present in the basement when OSWALD was shot.

ROBERTS left Los Angeles November 22, 1963 at 12:20 p.m. via American Airlines to assume duties at WBAP-TV at Fort Worth, Texas. He, therefore, is not personally cognizant of security measures in effect in Dallas; has no personal knowledge of any officer or other person conspiring to kill OSWALD or of unauthorized persons being in the Dallas City Jail area. He has not seen or talked to RUBY at any time and knows of no personal relationship existing between OSWALD and RUBY.

The technicians, identity not known to ROBERTS, on the WBAP mobile remote unit instantly recognized RUBY on TV transmission immediately after OSWALD was shot and so advised ROBERTS by telephone before RUBY's name was announced over the air.

Technicians told ROBERTS that RUBY had been present at the WBAP mobile remote unit at Dallas City Hall, about two hours before OSWALD was shot, helping the WBAP-TV crew move cables and equipment and getting acquainted. His actions at that time were such as to indicate a desire to become known to the visiting news media personnel.

LEROY ROLLINS, 305 Canna Drive, Montgomery, Alabama, furnished the following information on 12/6/63 to SA SPENCER M. ROBB:

He is a Sound Technician under contact to CBS TV and works almost exclusively with CBS Photographer LAURENS PIERCE. On the morning of November 24, 1963 he was with PIERCE and CBS Reporter NELSON BENTON in the office of Chief of Police CURRY at the Dallas Police Department where this team planned to cover the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD to the County Jail. BENTON and PIERCE decided that since CBS had live cameras covering both the upstairs and basement areas, they would themselves not cover the transfer with sound equipment; therefore, he and PIERCE left the office of the Chief of Police to go to PIERCE's car and get rid of the sound equipment.

They proceeded by elevator to the basement of the Police Department Building and immediately after walking through the doors to the driveway and parking area of the basement, they were stopped by a police officer and requested to produce identification. They then proceeded to PIERCE's car where they put away the sound equipment and PIERCE obtained his silent camera equipment and started back to the area through which the armored car would come with OSWALD with plans to cover this armored car as it departed from the police building. He, himself, remained at the car to pick up some film and before PIERCE had a chance to get to the building he heard police officers who were running from the basement area yelling "Lock the doors and don't let anyone out."

ROLLINS knows of no unauthorized persons who were permitted in the basement of the Dallas Police Department that morning and, in view of the elaborate security precautions being enforced by numerous police officers in the basement, cannot imagine how any person could get into the basement without identification.

He knows of no indication that anyone conspired with RUBY in the killing of OSWALD and has no indication whatever that any police officers or other individual conspired with RUBY or permitted this killing.

He has no recollection of having seen RUBY in the vicinity of the Dallas Police Department from November 22 to 24, 1963 or at any other time.

He has no knowledge of any relationship or prior acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD.

JULIA SCOTT, 431 Avenue M, Dallas, Tex advised that she has been employed for the past 15 years as a crime reporter for the Dallas Express, a Negro newspaper and also as announcer for KNOK Radio Station, Dallas.

According to SCOTT, she went to the Dallas Police Department about 10:00 A.M. on November 24, 1963; that her main purpose there was to obtain a police photo of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She stated that she parked her car in the front of the police station and was checked as to her identity by police officers when she got out of the car. She had to show her press card again as she entered the police station as two officers were at the main door. She took the elevator to the third floor and her press card was again checked by an officer as she got off the elevator. While on the third floor, she observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD sitting in Captain FRITZ's office. Sometime later, he was brought out en route to the basement of the police station. As OSWALD was brought past where she was standing, several reporters asked him questions which were as follows:

Q: "Did you shoot the President?"
A: "I didn't shoot anybody."
Q: "Don't you want to say something?"
A: "Talk to the civil liberties."

SCOTT stated she then followed the group of reporters on the elevator to the basement of the police station and was approximately 15 feet from OSWALD when he was shot. She did not see who fired the shot as there were many persons in front of her.

SCOTT advised that she did not see JACK RUBY prior to the shooting, however, would have known that he should not have been in the basement had she seen him as she knew him by sight and knew that he was not a police officer or newsman. She advised that she has seen JACK RUBY at the Dallas police station on previous occasions, however, did not see him there during the several days prior to the shooting of OSWALD.

According to SCOTT, the police officers at the scene appeared well organized and that no unauthorized person could have entered the basement unless he was allowed entrance

SCOTT stated that she was the only Negro reporter at the scene and her identity was possibly checked more for that reason. She said that there were approximately 40 newsmen in the basement of the police station; that she knew of no unauthorized persons being present.

SCOTT advised that she knows of no relationship between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

JULIA SCOTT made available her press card which she said was issued to her by the Dallas Police Department. The press card is described as follows: Yellow in color with red letters "press pass". In black lettering, "Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas". "Issued to Julius Scott representing the Dallas Express as a reporter". The card is signed by Chief of Police. ROBERT WILLIAM SHARP, correspondent, ABC Network, [illegible] West 66th Street, New York City, was interviewed at Room 601 of the Statler-Hilton Hotel at which time he furnished the following information:

He arrived at Dallas, Texas from New York City on November 22, 1963, at 7:30 P.M. and from 8:00 P.M. to 2:00 A.M., November 23, 1963, he was at the Dallas Police Department.

He was present at the Assembly Room of the Dallas Police Department when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was brought into the Assembly Room for around two minutes for a brief picture taking session at midnight.

He was at the Dallas Police Department Saturday morning and afternoon, November 23, 1963. One time on Saturday morning while on the third floor of the Police Department, he was requested to identify himself. Friday evening there were approximately 150 people in the Assembly Room and no identification was requested of anyone of his knowledge.

On the morning of November 24, 1963, he was at the Dallas County Sheriff's Office with Sheriff BILL DECKER awaiting the arrival of OSWALD from the Dallas Police Department. He did not go to the Dallas Police Department the morning of November 24, 1963.

He did not know JACK RUBY prior to the shooting of OSWALD and does not recall seeing him at any time prior to the shooting of OSWALD. He has never interviewed RUBY. He has no knowledge of any connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

He understands from talking to various newsmen and through his ABC relationship, that the following persons were present at the Dallas Police Department on the morning of the OSWALD slaying:

He resides at 3437 Potomac Street, Dallas, Texas. On Saturday, November 23, 1963, he went to the Central Police Headquarters at Dallas for the first time since the assassination of the President. He went to the offices of the Criminal Investigation Division on the third floor and spent about 30 minutes in that vicinity attempting to determine what was going on. As he entered the third floor after leaving the elevator which had taken them to the main floor, a uniformed officer checked his credentials which included a press card and a letter from the station manager setting forth his employment there. He was checked as he entered the building on the main floor. A TV crew for WFAA TV news was in the building on Saturday, he believed, but his station had no TV crew at the Police Department on November 24, 1963.

He was not at the Central Police Headquarters on Sunday, November 24, 1963, at any time. It was not until he had left church services on that day that he heard that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been shot and he immediately went to his office where he stayed most of the day. The only employee of WFAA who was in the basement at the time of the shooting to his knowledge was ROBERT THORNTON of WFAA Radio News.

He does not know JACK RUBY or anything concerning his background, personal life, or political convictions. He had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of the President.

On December 3, 1963, Mr. CAREY COHLMIA, Director of Promotions, Radio-TV Station WFAA, told him that he had heard a fantastic story that was being put out by former Dallas Sheriff, STEVE GUTHRIE, concerning a step-by-step plan that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had formulated regarding the assassination of the President and method of escape. He stated that COHLMIA apparently did not take the story seriously and he paid little attention to it himself.

PEGGY SIMPSON, employee of Associated Press at Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at her home at 2411 West Mistletoe Avenue, San Antonio, Texas. She advised that she entered the basement of the Dallas City Hall about 20 minutes before the shooting of OSWALD. She said she came from the 3rd floor and entered at the same entrance that OSWALD entered. Two policemen stopped her at the entrance, and one questioned her press badge which she had on her dress. This press badge was the type that did not have her name shown thereon. The second policeman said that it was all right for her to enter as he had seen her there on previous days. She remembered that she arrived before the armored car did and that there was some confusion when the armored car was cleaned and some coke bottles rolled down the ramp and made considerable noise which scared the individuals present, as they thought shots might be involved.

She said that she took up a position which resulted in her being about 15 feet from the shooting and that when OSWALD and the two policemen turned the corner just at the time of the shooting, she briefly saw OSWALD's face, but did not see anything thereafter. She pointed out that press people located further up the ramp undoubtedly had a better view of the actual shooting. It was her impression that the two officers were facing toward the direction of the corridor which they were entering and therefore did not see RUBY's approach. She said, however, she was not in a position to see RUBY.

SIMPSON continued that she had no prior acquaintance with RUBY or OSWALD, and to the best of her knowledge, had never seen RUBY either before or at the time of the shooting. She also said she did not observe RUBY talking with anyone prior to the shooting.

She said that she had heard reporters for the Dallas Times Herald speculate that TONY ZOPPI, Amusement Editor of the Dallas News, may have permitted RUBY to enter the basement of the City Hall in an innocent manner. She said that subsequently she, in her press position, had interviewed ZOPPI who claimed that he had not seen RUBY for a period of five days before the shooting. He did say, however, that he had seen RUBY approximately once a week for the past ten years. In this connection, she said

DAVID FLINT "MIKE" SMITH, 8321 Chandler Street, Burbank, Calif., advised that he is employed as a photographer for Associated Press in Los Angeles and that his office is located in the Los Angeles Times Building, 202 West 1st Street, Los Angeles, California. Mr. SMITH advised that approximately one hour after hearing of the President's assassination in Dallas, Texas on November 22, 1963 he and the Photographing Editor, RICHARD STROBEL, left Los Angeles for Dallas, Texas.

He advised that on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, all of the news media people had congregated in the Dallas Police Department Building. He advised that he picked a place in the basement about one-third of the way from the door from which LEE HARVEY OSWALD would emerge and approximately two-thirds from where the armored truck was parked. He advised that OSWALD was to emerge from a door where the police have a booking office and would have to walk about eight feet to a driveway. Mr. SMITH stated that he could observe and photograph OSWALD from his vantage point as he walked to the armored truck. At the last moment, however, the Dallas Police Department brought two unmarked cars from the parking space below this area and parked them directly behind the armored truck. SMITH got pushed back from where he wanted to be and he advised that as he tried to maneuver around the back of the second car to gain a vantage point he heard someone say, "Here he comes". Mr. SMITH advised that because of the small hallway from which OSWALD emerged, he could not see him. He stated that almost immediately, about three seconds, after hearing the comment, "Here he comes", SMITH stated that he heard a shot. He looked over the heads of people in front of him and saw the top of OSWALD's head as OSWALD was falling backwards between two detectives. Immediately he observed Dallas Police Officers pounce on a man, who he later determined was JACK RUBY.

Mr. SMITH advised that he was present in the Dallas Police Building during Friday evening, November 22, 1963 and at various times on Saturday, November 23, 1963

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

He advised that the third floor hallway at the Police Department on Friday evening was mass confusion caused by the number of news media people present. He believes that the first time his press identification card was checked was on Saturday afternoon when he emerged from the elevator on the third floor of the Dallas Police Department Building. Mr. SMITH advised that on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, there was an unusual number of uniformed Dallas Police Officers evident around the halls of the Police Department Building.

He stated that just before OSWALD emerged from the small booking office into the garage, the Dallas Police made the press representatives stand along the east side of the building. He advised that at least 15 detectives appeared at this point along with at least one uniformed captain, one uniformed lieutenant and a uniformed sergeant. The police personnel lined up on the west wall opposite from the press for what Mr. SMITH believes was the purpose of observing the press and OSWALD as he walked to the armored car.

SMITH said he has heard rumors that the Dallas Police Department decided to place OSWALD in the second vehicle behind the armored truck and to lay him crosswise on the back seat with two detectives sitting on the back seat in front of him, rather than to place OSWALD in the armored truck. He understood they felt in this way, they would throw anyone off the track who had any ulterior motives as such a person would believe OSWALD was being transported in the armored truck preceeding the two cars.

Mr. SMITH advised that when he entered the Dallas Police Department on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, prior to the shooting of OSWALD, his press identification card was checked by a Dallas Officer and his photograph compared with his appearance. He advised that when he got out of the elevator on the third floor of the building, his identification and photograph were again checked by an officer. He stated that one of the men from the press got off the elevator with him. SMITH did not know his name. The man apparently was without identification. The officer checking the press identification cards immediately referred this man to a Dallas Police Sergeant.

Mr. SMITH determined that the best place for photographing OSWALD would be in the basement of the Dallas Police Department. He left the third floor and went to the basement of the building where his identification and photograph were again checked by a Dallas Police Officer.

He advised that he knows of no unauthorized people who were present in the basement of the Dallas Police Department on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, or anyone who was in the building without proper identification.

He advised that he possesses no information that anyone conspired with JACK RUBY in the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He further advised that he has no information that anyone in an official capacity with the Dallas Police Department or anyone acting under the cover of law conspired with RUBY in connection with the shooting of OSWALD.

He stated that he did not see or talk with JACK RUBY on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963 prior to the shooting of OSWALD. He advised that he does not know JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and possesses no information concerning any connection between these two men.

Mr. SMITH advised that after the shooting of OSWALD and the identity of JACK RUBY was made available to the news people, he recalled that he had possibly seen JACK RUBY at a news conference in the Show Up Room of the Dallas Police Department Building sometime between 9:00 and 9:30 p.m. on November 23, 1963. He advised that he believes this conference was brought about by the pressure brought upon the Dallas Police Department by the late arriving news media people and that OSWALD was brought into the Show Up Room for about three minutes for the purpose of photographs and questions.

He further advised that he heard from one of the newsmen in Dallas, whom he believes was FERD KAUFMAN, Associated Press, Dallas, Texas, that JACK RUBY was present on Saturday evening, November 23, 1963 when District Attorney HENRY WADE held a press conference. He recalls that District Attorney WADE made a comment during the Sunday night press conference that RUBY had asked him a question during the conference of Saturday night and was present in the room with the press.

Mr. SMITH further advised that FERD KAUFMAN advised him that he had received a business card from JACK RUBY and that RUBY had invited him to visit his club. Mr. SMITH does not know where KAUFMAN met RUBY. He assumed it was somewhere around Dallas Police Department on Friday or Saturday, November 22 or 23, 1963. He advised that he is also under the impression that other news media people who had had an occasion to talk to JACK RUBY during November 22 or 23, 1963 had also received such invitations from RUBY and his business card.

John A. Smith

JOHN A. SMITH, Remote Video Operator for WBAP-TV, advised that his home address is 22 Shadowbrook, Hurst, Texas. SMITH advised he has been employed by this company since 1945.

SMITH furnished the following information:

He advised he was the Remote Video Operator for the mobile unit of WBAP-TV on November 24, 1963, at Dallas, Texas. SMITH said the crew set up between 7:30 and 8:00 AM, on November 24th. He said that WARREN RITCHEY was the cameraman located on top of the truck and that I. N. WALKER was the remote audioman located in the truck with him, SMITH.

SMITH said that a man he now knows as JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN was first noticed by him at about 8:00 AM, on November 24, 1963, at which time this person was standing on the sidewalk on the Commerce Street side of the Dallas Police Department. SMITH explained that he, SMITH, was in and out of the mobile unit several times and that the mobile unit was parked facing east on Commerce about twenty-five feet from the ramp leading to the basement of the Dallas Police Department. SMITH said at the time he observed RUBY he did not pay particular attention to this person and, actually, had the impression of someone "just killing time" and very nonchalant.

SMITH said that, as best he can recall, about ten minutes after first seeing RUBY on the sidewalk on the side of the Police Department, or about 8:10 AM, this person walked over to the truck and asked, "Have they brought OSWALD down yet?" SMITH said he answered, "No." SMITH said after RUBY asked this question he walked away from the truck. SMITH said RUBY did not seem interested other than just "passing time." SMITH said he recalls RUBY had on a grey hat and a greyish topcoat.

SMITH said he recalls he next saw RUBY at about 10:00 AM, at which time he saw him on the sidewalk on the Commerce Street side of the Police Department next to the ramp leading to the basement of the Police Department. SMITH said he never saw RUBY talking to anyone at any time and he

MILT SOSIN, 4044 Meridian Avenue, Miami Beach, a reporter for the "Miami Daily News," was interviewed by telephone at his request, and he furnished the following information:

On November 24, 1963, he was in Dallas, Texas, following the events subsequent to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. During the morning of November 24, 1963, he was on the third floor of the Dallas Municipal Building, and with other reporters, proceeded to the basement of this building to observe the transfer of prisoner LEE HARVEY OSWALD. SOSIN stood seven or eight feet to the left of the television cameras, so that he could have an unobstructed view of the armored car in which OSWALD was to leave the building. As OSWALD, with accompanying officers, approached the television cameras, SOSIN observed a figure dash out from the right side of the cameras. This figure ran to OSWALD and shot him, and SOSIN later learned this individual was JACK RUBY.

SOSIN said that in the basement of the municipal building, numerous police officers were stationed, and they represented several organizations, such as the Dallas Police Department, Sheriff's Office, Texas Rangers, and United States Secret Service. As members of the press entered the basement, their credentials were carefully examined by these officers. Members of the press identified themselves with press cards, Department of Defense cards, or other identifying cards. He said the officers particularly examined the photographs on these cards, and closely observed the individuals carrying the cards. It was his opinion that the security in the basement was very good, and he noted that his Department of Defense card was examined several times by different officers.

SOSIN, being a stranger in Dallas, was not acquainted with everyone present, and had no way of knowing who was authorized to be in the basement, and who was unauthorized.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

It was his understanding that only police officers and members of the press were authorized to be in the basement, and he pointed out that several persons were excluded or removed from the basement by police officers. SOSIN never talked with RUBY, and has no knowledge of any possible conspiracy between RUBY and any police officer.

SOSIN said that as a matter of hearsay, it appeared that practically everyone in the Dallas Police Department knew RUBY, and were so used to seeing him at the police station that he was accepted as a belonger or "part of the scenery."

SOSIN said he had no actual facts one way or another as to a possible association between OSWALD and RUBY. He added that it was his understanding from "general talk" in Dallas that RUBY was practically berserk as a result of President KENNEDY's death.

SIM STANDARD

JAMES H. STANDARD, reporter, Oklahoma Publishing Company, advised he traveled to Dallas, Texas, at approximately 12:00 noon, November 22, 1963, to cover the assassination of President KENNEDY for his newspaper. He stated on November 22 and 23, 1963, he spent his time talking to witnesses concerning the assassination and attempting to locate other eye witnesses and photographs of the assassination.

STANDARD advised during this period of time he did not see JACK RUBY at any time in the Dallas Police Department or that vicinity. He stated some of the reporters, names unrecalled, had mentioned RUBY was present at the District Attorney's conference regarding OSWALD and the assassination and had asked the District Attorney a question concerning OSWALD and the assassination. He stated he could not verify this information because he was not present himself at the District Attorney's press conference.

STANDARD stated he was present in the Dallas Police Department basement alleyway on the morning of November 24, 1963, when OSWALD was to be transported to the Dallas County Jail. He advised he gained entrance to the alleyway through the door from the Police Department Identification Section adjacent to the jail elevator door from which OSWALD was removed. He stated as he entered the door to the alleyway he was confronted by two policemen requesting he exhibit press credentials. He informed these policemen he had no press card and exhibited a credit card and a group insurance card which identified him as an employee of the Oklahoma Publishing Company. He said one of the policemen did not want to permit him to pass; however, the other officer agreed to pass him only after a complete search of his person. STANDARD was of the opinion the security measures set up at the Dallas Police Department were very rigid and he knew of no one present in the basement alleyway who had not exhibited credentials to gain entrance.

STANDARD stated he saw no one present in the alleyway who was not connected with law enforcement or news media.

STANDARD advised as the police brought OSWALD from the jail elevator toward an armored car and a police cruiser parked in the alleyway, he saw an unknown person, later identified as JACK RUBY, burst from the crowd toward OSWALD who was being escorted by numerous policemen. He heard one policeman, identity unknown, shout "You son of a bitch," and an instant later a shot was fired by this individual and OSWALD fell to the floor. He stated almost instantaneously, a large group of policemen pounced on this person and subdued him. STANDARD stated there was considerable turmoil at this time and he was unable to recall any statements made by RUBY, policemen or newsmen present.

STANDARD advised he neither heard nor saw anything at this time or at a later date to indicate anyone had conspired with RUBY in any way to shoot OSWALD.

STANDARD advised he had never interviewed RUBY and further he had no information whatsoever to reflect any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

STANDARD advised he departed from Dallas, Texas, on the afternoon of November 25, 1963, and that during the early afternoon of November 25, 1963, he had again been thoroughly checked by an officer of the Dallas Police Department to establish his connection with the Oklahoma Publishing Company.

Robert Thornton

JAMES ROBERT THORNTON, newsman, WFAA Radio, Dallas, who resides at 7819 Milstone Drive, Dallas, advised he arrived at the City Hall, Dallas, on November 24, 1963, shortly before 10:00 A.M. He carried a portable tape recorder and planned to cover events there when and if LEE HARVEY OSWALD was transferred from the City Jail to the Dallas County Jail. He said he had learned from press reports several hours earlier that he might be transferred that morning.

Another newsman, one CHURCH IRWIN, also of WFAA, was stationed at the Dallas County Jail in order to work with him in covering that event. Tex.

That morning he entered the building through the first floor and took an elevator to the basement, entering same without exhibiting his press pass, no inquiry being made of same. He explained that he is at the City Hall almost daily and is well-known to all the police officers there. He walked around a few minutes and then walked out of the building to the Main Street entrance of the police department garage. There he entered the garage by the Main Street ramp. A police officer, name unknown, asked for his press pass and he exhibited same. His pass was issued by Chief of Police J. E. CURRY in July, 1961, and bears number 259. He then walked through the garage and back to the entrance to the corridor through which it was expected OSWALD would walk. Soon an unidentified Dallas Police Department detective required all newsmen with the exception of two network television men to move to the East side of the ramp in the garage. He took his position about five feet from the numerous television cameras and was there when he heard a shot fired which he later found out was a shot fired by JACK RUBY which killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

So far as he knows the two television network men were the only newsmen allowed in the basement corridor at the time OSWALD was brought out of the City Jail. He identified those two men as TOM PETTIT of New York (NBC representative) and BOB HUFFAKER of KRLD, Dallas, who was serving for CBS.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

He advised he had not see JACK RUBY in the basement, garage or City Hall prior to the shooting. He is not personally acquainted with JACK RUBY. He does not know how RUBY gained access to the area. He noticed there was an armored car on the ramp and two police cars had been brought to the south ramp. It appeared the police were taking considerable security precautions because he saw several officers asking some of the other newsmen for their press passes. He did not observe anyone in the area where OSWALD was shot other than police officers and newsmen. He remembers, however, there was either a utility man or electrician who appeared for the purpose of doing some kind of work and was checked out by the police after which the electrician or utility man proceeded with his task in that vicinity. He could not tell that person's identity but presumed he was some kind of a building employee. He said all of the news representatives were required to exhibit their passes before they were allowed to leave the City Hall basement after the shooting had occurred. He said the police, therefore, undoubtedly learned if any unauthorized persons were there at that time. He has not heard any other individuals give any explanation as to how JACK RUBY came to be there.

He has no information that would indicate any individual has conspired with JACK RUBY concerning the shooting of OSWALD. He has no knowledge that RUBY talked to any other individuals there prior to the shooting and he only saw RUBY for the first time just momentarily before the shot was fired. He has no information that would indicate any police officer has been closely associated with RUBY or allowed RUBY permission to be in the area. He has no knowledge of any relationship or prior acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD.

HOMER J. VENSO, 1812 Junius, advised he had been employed for the past ten years as an engineer for WBAP-TV, Fort Worth, Texas. He stated his main duties consisted of operating a sound camera. He stated that on November 23, 1963, he operated a sound camera for WBAP-TV on the Third Floor of the City Hall at Dallas, Texas, in the general area of the office of the Chief of Police. He stated that on November 24, 1963, he operated WBAP-TV camera number 2 in the basement of the Dallas City Hall. He stated his assignment was to obtain film of the removal of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the Dallas Police Department to the Dallas County Jail. He stated he set up his camera, facing west, aiming directly into a hall leading to elevators. This hall intersects at right angles, a broader hall or area-way which ran from Main Street on the north to VENSO's right to Commerce Street on the south, which was on VENSO's left. He stated there was a lot of confusion in the basement because there were many members of the press and police department present. He stated he had been admitted to the area on showing his press pass and had no reason to believe anyone was present who was not supposed to be there.

VENSO stated that while taking pictures of OSWALD leaving the City Hall, he observed the scene through a five inch viewer which he said was like a tiny television screen on top of the camera. He stated that he was concentrating on taking the picture and did not actually notice anyone on the screen except OSWALD until a man, wearing a light colored hat, jumped in front of OSWALD and fired a shot at OSWALD's mid-section with what VENSO assumed was a pistol. VENSO said he learned later this man's name was JACK RUBY but stated he had never seen him before to his recollection, on November 24, 1963, either on the Third Floor of the City Hall or in the basement. He stated that because RUBY appeared first on the right-hand side of the screen, then he must have gained entrance to the elevator area from the Main Street or north side of the building. VENSO said he had not observed RUBY in conversation with anyone.

VENSO said he had not taken any test shots prior to the shooting sequence as such because he had been shooting film continuously in the basement for an hour or two before the shooting activity occurred.

VENSO stated he had reviewed this film later and noted that RUBY first appeared on the right side of the screen, then disappeared briefly and reappeared with his back to the camera when the shot was fired. VENSO stated this disappearance of RUBY from the screen resulted in VENSO's receiving orders from the sound truck outside the building to change to a broader lens so that OSWALD would appear more clearly on the screen. This change caused RUBY to disappear briefly from the screen.

VENSO said all of the film he shot was furnished to the National Broadcasting Company and that all of his orders on how and what to shoot were given to him by an NBC official from New York, named FRED RHINESTINE (PH) who was in the sound truck watching all proceedings on a viewer.

VENSO said he had no reason to believe there had been any breech of security on the part of the Dallas Police Department in wilfully allowing JACK RUBY to enter the basement.

Date November 30, 1963

A filmed sequence, shot on 16 mm. film, was reviewed in the projection room of WBAP-TV in the presence of JOHN [illegible] Engineer, WBAP-TV who operated the projector.

This film was reportedly shot by cameraman number two of WBAP-TV manned by HOMER [illegible] WBAP-TV cameraman, showing the scene in the basement of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department just prior to and during the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. This film sequence lasts approximately 60 seconds.

In the beginning of the sequence, the head of a man wearing a light colored felt hat, appears on the right side of the film. His left profile is clearly visible for a few seconds. Several other individuals, apparently policemen and representatives of news media, appear in the film but none of them apparently engaged in conversation or seem to be with the man in the light colored hat.

All eyes seem to be looking toward an entrance hall from which LEE HARVEY OSWALD was then lead by Dallas detectives. When OSWALD appeared, the man in the light colored hat, later identified as JACK RUBY, disappeared briefly from the film and then the back of his head appears directly in front of OSWALD as he apparently leaped at OSWALD, and the sound of an explosion is heard.

This scene is described in a running commentary by TOM PETTIT, announcer, National Broadcasting Company, who appears on the film.

THAYER WALDO, News Reporter, Fort Worth Star Telegram, advised his residence was Apartment 524, 200 Burnett Street, Fort Worth. He stated he had been employed by the Star Telegram for approximately one year. He stated that he was sent to Dallas, Texas at approximately 9:40 a.m. on November 22, 1963 to cover the arrival of President JOHN F. KENNEDY at Love Field and at the Dallas Trade Mart. He stated he attended the breakfast given for the Presidential party in Fort Worth, Texas that same morning prior to going to Dallas, and at this breakfast was given a large tag identifying him as a newspaper reporter. He stated he hung this tag on his lapel and used it as identification for the next three days.

He stated that while at the Dallas Trade Mart on the morning of November 22, 1963, he learned President KENNEDY had been shot and proceeded at once to Parkland Hospital. He stated that after remaining at Parkland for approximately thirty minutes, he received an assignment from his newspaper to go to the Dallas Police Department headquarters and cover that building in the event that any suspects in the shooting were taken into custody. He said he drove his personally owned automobile from Parkland Hospital to the Police Department and went at once to the third floor where the Homicide Division is located. He said he went up on the elevator to the third floor wearing his press tag and no one questioned him or asked for further identification. He stated he remained on the third floor for several hours and sometime that evening, attended a press conference in a large assembly room in the basement of the same building. He said at this press conference, Chief of Police JESSE CURRY addressed the members of the press assembled there and LEE H. OSWALD was shown to the reporters for three or four minutes then taken out. WALDO said that during this Friday night press conference, there were no security checks by the Police Department or anyone else as far as attendance was concerned. He stated he noticed several outsiders there, specifically, two building janitors and several teenagers. The doors of the assembly room were not closed and it seemed to him that anyone could have wandered in. WALDO said he did not see JACK RUBY at this press conference but heard later from several people, whom he could not recall specifically at the moment, that RUBY had been at the conference.

WALDO said he slept the night of November 22, 1963 at the Statler Hilton Hotel and returned to the third floor at the Dallas Police headquarters on the morning of November 23, 1963. He said he went to the third floor on the elevator still wearing his press tag, and no one questioned him. He said he remained for several hours on the third floor and saw an individual whom he learned later was JACK RUBY handing out cards advertising the Club Vegas. WALDO said these cards entitled members of the press to come to the Club Vegas for free drinks. WALDO said he was given one of these cards by RUBY and does not know what he did with it as he cannot now find it. He said most of the individuals receiving the cards were so busy and preoccupied with news gathering that they threw the cards on the floor.

WALDO said that sometime during the evening of November 23, 1963, Chief JESSE CURRY made the announcement to members of the press that OSWALD would be moved from Dallas Police headquarters to the Dallas County Jail by 10 a.m., November 24, 1963. WALDO said he was in the back of the crowd when this announcement was made and at first, understood CURRY 's announcement to be that OSWALD would be moved at 10 a.m. the next day and was surprised that the Chief would name a specific time for moving such a controversial-type of prisoner. However, WALDO said he was later informed by several members of the press who were standing closer to CURRY that CURRY 's exact statement was OSWALD would be moved by 10 a.m. the next day.

On hearing that, WALDO said he at once assumed that the Police intended to transfer OSWALD surreptitiously sometime during the night of November 23, 1963 or the early morning hours of November 24, 1963.

After CURRY 's announcement, WALDO went to the Statler Hilton Hotel and stayed the night. At about 7 a.m. or 7:30 a.m., November 24, 1963, WALDO telephoned the Homicide Division of the Dallas Police Department and spoke with a sergeant whose name WALDO does not recall. WALDO identified himself over the telephone by name and by newspaper and asked the sergeant if OSWALD had been moved. WALDO said the sergeant said, "No, he would be moved in 1½ or 2 hours." WALDO said he was surprised to hear that OSWALD was still held in custody at the Police Department and walked over to Police headquarters at about 10 a.m. that morning. He stated that between 10 a.m. and 11 a.m., he was standing with a group of newspapermen on Commerce Street at the end of the corridor or ramp which runs beneath the Dallas Police Department from Commerce Street on the south to Main Street on the north. He said that GEORGE BUTLER, who is a lieutenant or captain in the Dallas Homicide Division, came to the Commerce Street end of the ramp and called out to the group of reporters, "Come in." WALDO said he and the other reporters entered the ramp at which time a uniformed officer checked their credentials.

WALDO said he noticed that in the ramp, three Police cars were parked in a straight line one behind each other facing toward Commerce Street. He said the ramp was so narrow that it was necessary to squeeze between the ramp or corridor aisles in order to get to an area in the corridor where a hallway intersected the ramp at right angles from the west. WALDO said that this hallway connected the ramp with an elevator from the jail upstairs and it was WALDO's understanding that OSWALD would be brought down in the elevator and out to the ramp through the hallway.

WALDO stated that he and an American Broadcasting Company (ABC) reporter stood behind the third car in the ramp and back of this car was just to the south of the hallway entrance. WALDO believes the ABC man is named DUNCAN, but does not know whether it is his first name or last name. He said this man was a regular employee of WFAA radio station in Dallas. This man held in his hand a long hooded microphone which was connected by a cord with a tape recorder.

WALDO said that when the Dallas detectives escorted LEE OSWALD out of the hallway leading to the elevator and into the ramp, it was necessary for them to walk within a few feet of the rear end of the parked Police car where WALDO was standing with the ABC man. WALDO said as they passed, the ABC man pushed the microphone out in front of OSWALD's face and asked, "Do you have anything to say?". OSWALD turned his eyes toward the microphone and just then WALDO said a man in a hat made one long lunging step from WALDO's right to the front of OSWALD, shoved out his hand so that it was pressed almost against OSWALD's body, and there was a white flash and an explosion. WALDO said he never saw the gun but knew at once what had happened because he was standing so close. WALDO said that he did not recognize JACK RUBY as the assailant at that time and did not get a good look at him at that time because detectives leaped forward to overpower the assailant and there was a lot of confusion while he was dragged from the ramp area.

WALDO said that he had seen the television pictures of the shooting later and felt that he recognized RUBY as the man from the Club Vegas whom he had observed on the third floor at the Dallas Police Station on the night of November 23, 1963.

After the shooting, WALDO said that no members of the press were allowed to leave until they identified themselves and for the rest of the day on the third floor, strict security was maintained by the Dallas Police Department and reporters and everyone on the third floor was required to show identification every time they entered the floor through the elevator or came up the stairs.

WALDO stated he did not recall seeing RUBY while on the third floor on the night of November 23, 1963 talk to anyone except when handing out his cards. WALDO said he had no knowledge whatsoever of any prior relationship between JACK RUBY and LEE H. OSWALD.

IRA H. WALKER, JR., Remote Audio Operator, WBAP-TV, advised that his home address is 6913 Hightower. WALKER stated he has been employed at WBAP-TV since 1948.

WALKER furnished the following information:

WALKER advised that a person now known to him as JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN was first noticed by him, WALKER, on the morning of November 24, 1963, at which time WALKER was on the remote mobile unit for WBAP-TV, along with JOHN SMITH and WARREN RITCHEY. WALKER advised that their mobile unit was set up on the Commerce Street side of the Dallas Police Department, facing east, and located about twenty-five feet from the ramp leading to the basement of the Dallas Police Department.

WALKER said that on the morning of November 24, 1963, that the first time he recalled seeing JACK RUBY was shortly after the mobile unit was set up, which would have been between 7:30 and 8:00 AM. WALKER said he first saw RUBY shortly after the armored truck was backed into the basement of the Police Department. WALKER said he does not recall what time this would have been; however, at that time, RUBY came to the window of the truck and asked, "Has he come down yet?" WALKER said he answered, "No."

WALKER said that a short time later, time not recalled, RUBY again came to the window and asked the same question, at which time WALKER said he again answered, "No."

WALKER said he did not see RUBY on the sidewalk on Commerce Street at any time and, actually, never saw RUBY other than the two times when he came to the window, as mentioned above.

WALKER advised he had no further information concerning this matter.

LOY WOOD, Field Producer, CBS News, Southern Bureau, residence, 2729 Jefferson Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised that the only CBS personnel that he knew anything about being in the basement of the Dallas Police Department, on November 24, 1963, was NELSON BENTON.

Mr. WOOD stated that he, at the time of the shooting, was in the studios of KLRD-TV, the Dallas CBS affiliate. He stated he learned later that BENTON, the Bureau Manager for CBS News, Southern Bureau, was in the KLRD-TV remote truck parked on the street just outside the City Hall. BENTON had told WOOD that upon observing the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on the TV monitor in the truck that BENTON had immediately gone down into the basement of City Hall where the shooting had occurred. Mr. WOOD stated BENTON is presently in New Orleans, where he resides at 3201 St. Charles Avenue.

Mr. WOOD stated that possibly there was a CBS film crew in the basement at the time of the shooting and, if so, it would have consisted of Cameraman LAURENS PIERCE and Soundman LEROY ROLLINS. Mr. WOOD stated PIERCE and ROLLINS are both residing at the Holiday Inn, Dallas, at the present time, but that their home residences are in Montgomery, Alabama.

Mr. WOOD was interviewed at the Holiday Inn, North Central Expressway, Dallas, where he is presently residing in Room 143.

An article entitled "Officer Says He Saw Ruby" (no date line) on page one of The Dallas Times Herald, Sunday edition, December 8, 1963, read as follows:

"A Dallas police officer said Saturday that he saw self-appointed executioner Jack Ruby come through the Main Street entrance of the City Hall basement minutes before he fired a fatal, point-blank shot into the body of Lee Harvey Oswald.

"The officer, stationed near the armored car at the Commerce Street exit from the basement, told The Times Herald:

'Jack Ruby, Oswald's assassin, came from the north (Main Street) entrance down the ramp. There were many police officers and press representatives in the area.

'Ruby jumped out of the crowd as Oswald passed and fired one shot point-blank at Oswald.'"

The name of the "police officer" was not contained in the newspaper article.

On December 8, 1963, SA GASTON C. THOMPSON contacted (telephonically) JAMES LEHRER Dallas Times Herald reporter who covers the "Federal beat" in Dallas, Texas, and ascertained the reporter who prepared the above article was DARWIN PAYNE (WH 6-5892) and the "police officer" referred to in the article was Sergeant PATRICK T. Date December 10, 1963

Sergeant PATRICK T. DEAN, Dallas Police Department, residence 2822 Nicholson Drive, furnished the following information:

On December 7, 1963, at approximately 1:30 P.M., DEAN received a telephone call at his residence from a person identifying himself as DARWIN PAYNE, representative of the "Dallas Times Herald" newspaper. Mr. PAYNE stated his reason for calling was to verify statements made by DEAN to the radio and television news media on November 24, 1963, shortly after the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the basement of the Dallas Police Building. PAYNE then asked several questions pertaining to that interview on November 24, 1963. The questions asked by Mr. PAYNE seemed to be verbatim of the interview on November 24, 1963.

To the best of DEAN's recollection, the questions asked were as follows:

"Were you at the armored car when the shot was fired?"
DEAN answered yes to this question.

"Did you see the person that fired the shot at the time it was fired?"
DEAN answered no to this question.

"Did you see the person that fired the shot shortly after it was fired?"
DEAN answered yes to this question.

"Where? Was he inside the jail office and on the floor at that time?"
Answer - "Yes, he was on the floor and being restrained and handcuffed by several plain clothed officers."

"Did you recognize the subject at that time as a person you knew by sight?"
Answer - Yes.

"Did you or had you seen this person prior to this time in or around the City Hall?"

Answer - No.

"And you didn't see this person enter from the Main Street ramp?"
Answer - definitely not.

The next question asked by PAYNE was, "Did you see anything at the time of the shooting?"

DEAN assumed by this question that he meant a flash from the gun fired and he asked him if this was what he meant and PAYNE said yes, whereupon, DEAN told him that he saw smoke from the blast and that he ran immediately to the scene to control the crowd.

DEAN said this terminated the questioning by Mr. PAYNE and DEAN inquired of PAYNE as to the reason for him calling as all of the information he asked about was old news. PAYNE then stated to DEAN that he was just verifying the results of the previous interview and that he did not really know what the "Dallas Times Herald" planned to do with the information. DEAN reiterated to PAYNE that he had not seen RUBY at any time before the shooting in or around the City Hall.

On Sunday, December 8, 1963, when DEAN arrived home, he noticed an article appearing in the "Dallas Times Herald" relative to an officer seeing JACK RUBY enter the police building prior to the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. After reading the article, DEAN reached the conclusion that this article possibly had evolved from the telephone conversation with Mr. DARWIN PAYNE on the previous day.

DEAN contacted a friend at the "Dallas Times Herald" to ascertain the identity of the reporter preparing the article appearing in the paper on December 8, 1963. He learned that DARWIN PAYNE had been on duty on December 7, 1963 and recognized PAYNE as being the name of the person who had called him.

DEAN called PAYNE at his residence and discussed the article with him and PAYNE stated he had not written the article but had only contacted DEAN to verify a previous interview.

DEAN advised the statement in this article that he had seen JACK RUBY enter the basement of the police building was false; that he had not seen RUBY enter the police building and he had not stated to anyone that he had seen RUBY enter the building prior to the shooting of OSWALD.

Ben Stevens

BEN F. STEVENS, 2806 Anchor Drive, Mesquite, Texas, employed as rewrite man, Dallas Times Herald newspaper, Herald Square, Dallas, furnished the following information:

On December 7, 1963, while on duty at the Times Herald building, STEVENS and reporter DARWIN PAYNE were furnished notes made by reporter DAVID HUGHES following interviews with persons in the vicinity of the Police Building after the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 24, 1963. A portion of these notes pertained to the interview with Sergeant PATRICK T. DEAN of the Dallas Police Department. Reporter DARWIN PAYNE contacted Sergeant DEAN by telephone on December 7, 1963, and read the notes made by HUGHES to determine if the notes were accurate and correct. Thereafter, reporter PAYNE turned the notes over to STEVENS who prepared an article for the Sunday edition of the Dallas Times Herald newspaper. This article appeared on the front page of the Dallas Times Herald on December 8, 1963, under the caption, "Officer Says He Saw RUBY."

STEVENS referred to the article and advised that a portion of the article was taken verbatim from the notes prepared by reporter David Hughes. He said it was his assumption after reviewing the notes that Sergeant DEAN of the Police Department had indicated he had seen JACK RUBY come through the Main Street entrance of the City Hall basement minutes before the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. STEVENS said this paragraph was his interpretation of the notes of reporter HUGHES and there was no other information available to him at the time he prepared this article.

STEVENS is not acquainted with JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any association between RUBY and OSWALD.

STEVENS was not present at the Police Building at the time of the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 24, 1963, and can furnish no pertinent information concerning this shooting or activity at the Police Department prior to the shooting.

Dr. Hughes

DAVID J. HUGHES, JR., 2948 Binkley, University Park, Texas, employed as a reporter for the Dallas Times Herald newspaper, Herald Square, Dallas, furnished the following information:

HUGHES was in his office at the Dallas Times Herald Building on November 22 and 23, 1963.

On November 24, 1963, HUGHES was at his residence and saw the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the basement of the Police Building on television. He immediately went to his office at the Times Herald building and was then assigned to go to the Police Building, which he did, arriving about one hour after the shooting occurred. His assignment was to obtain crowd reaction from persons in the vicinity of the building where the shooting took place.

HUGHES first went to the north ramp entrance to the basement located on Main Street and there talked to police officer R. E. VAUGHN who was stationed at that entrance. VAUGHN stated he had been on duty at that ramp entrance for about two and a half hours prior to the shooting. VAUGHN told HUGHES no one was admitted but police officers and press representatives and said everyone who was admitted was required to show proper identification. VAUGHN said even the police paddy wagon had been searched before being allowed to enter the basement of the Police Building. VAUGHN said he heard someone say "Here he comes", and then he heard the shot fired in the basement. He then saw three police officers wrestling for the gun. VAUGHN indicated to HUGHES he had his back to the basement area until he had heard the shot fired. VAUGHN mentioned that prior to the shooting, police had screened everyone entering the building and officers had been stationed at all entrances to the building and at the elevator.

After talking to Officer VAUGHN, HUGHES talked to several other persons at the Main Street entrance to the Police Building and none recalled JACK RUBY going into the building or furnished any information pertinent to the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

HUGHES then went to the Commerce Street ramp entrance. Sergeant PATRICK T. DEAN was at this entrance and at the time HUGHES arrived, DEAN was talking to another reporter, name not recalled. HUGHES overheard some of the conversation between DEAN and the other reporter and also questioned DEAN himself, taking detailed notes of the conversation. During this conversation, DEAN said he was standing by the armored car when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot. DEAN said he heard someone shout, "They're bringing him out" and upon hearing this, he focused his attention on the door. DEAN said he did not see the gun but heard the shot and saw smoke from the gun. DEAN said police officers surrounding OSWALD prevented him, DEAN, from seeing much else. DEAN intimated or said something to the effect that RUBY must have come into the basement from the north entrance down the ramp. DEAN did not say he saw RUBY come down the north ramp. DEAN said RUBY jumped out from the crowd as OSWALD passed and fired one shot point blank at OSWALD. DEAN said that following the shooting he, DEAN, ran from the armored car to the site of the shooting to assist in the arrest. When he got there, officers had RUBY on the floor handcuffing him. DEAN then went to OSWALD who was lying on the floor and assisted in placing OSWALD in the ambulance.

HUGHES said he returned to the Times Herald building after questioning persons seeing the shooting and had immediately typed up his notes, using as nearly as possible verbatim statements as made to him by Officers VAUGHN and DEAN.

On December 7, 1963, HUGHES was asked by the City Editor if he still had his notes covering the interviews on November 24, 1963, and he informed the editor that his notes were still available.

HUGHES referred to the article appearing in the Dallas Times Herald newspaper dated December 8, 1963, captioned "Officer Says He Saw Ruby." He said paragraphs three and four of this article appeared to have been taken verbatim from the notes he typed following the interview with Sergeant PATRICK T. DEAN on November 24, 1963. He referred to paragraph one of this article which states that "A Dallas police officer said Saturday he saw self-appointed executioner JACK RUBY come through the side entrance of the City Hall basement minutes before he fired a fatal point blank shot at LEE HARVEY OSWALD." HUGHES stated this paragraph was not taken from the notes prepared by him since the officer did not tell him he had seen JACK RUBY come through the Main Street entrance. HUGHES said this paragraph may have been the interpretation of his notes by rewrite man BEN STEVENS of the Dallas Times Herald or from other information available to STEVENS. HUGHES made available a copy of the notes relative to interviews of Officers R. E. VAUGHN and PATRICK T. DEAN typed by him upon his return to the Times Herald building on November 24, 1963.

HUGHES advised he is not acquainted with JACK RUBY nor is he acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 8, 1963

DARWIN PAYNE, 610 Elsinore Street, Apartment #203, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

PAYNE is a reporter for the Dallas "Times Herald" newspaper.

On December 7, 1963, PAYNE received an assignment to review notes of "Times Herald" reporter DAVID HUGHES relative to a conversation with Sergeant PATRICK T. DEAN, Dallas Police Department made on November 24, 1963. It was PAYNE's understanding that the notes made by reporter DAVID HUGHES were made on the day of the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, possibly at the Dallas police building. He assumed these notes were made by reporter HUGHES immediately after the shooting in the basement of the police building. He has not talked to HUGHES concerning these notes.

On December 7, 1963, at approximately 3:00 p.m., PAYNE contacted Sergeant P. T. DEAN by telephone at DEAN's residence and read to DEAN from the notes of HUGHES the statements reportedly made by DEAN on the day of the shooting. He believes these statements from the notes of HUGHES were direct quotes of Sergeant DEAN at the time he was interviewed by HUGHES. He told DEAN that he had the quotes made by HUGHES and he wanted to clarify the notes and determine if they were accurate statements. After reading the notes to DEAN, DEAN indicated to him that the notes were accurate as read. As he read each quote from the notes, DEAN assented to the accuracy of these quotes. During the conversation DEAN inquired as to the reason for checking the notes and PAYNE told DEAN he merely wanted to check them for accuracy.

After reading the notes to DEAN over the telephone and verifying the accuracy of the statements contained in the notes, PAYNE furnished the notes to re-write man BEN STEVENS, Dallas "Times Herald" and STEVENS prepared a story for the Sunday issue of the Dallas "Times Herald."

PAYNE referred to the article appearing on the front page of the Dallas "Times Herald", December 8, 1963, captioned, "Officer Says He Saw Ruby" and stated it was his impression that paragraphs 3 and 4 appearing in quotes were taken verbatim from quotes of Sergeant PATRICK DEAN appearing in the notes of reporter DAVID HUGHES. There was additional information in his notes; however, he is not certain that these notes state that Sergeant DEAN actually saw JACK RUBY come through the Main Street entrance of City Hall basement minutes before he fired a fatal shot into the body of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He believed the information appearing in paragraph one of this article may have been paraphrased from another quote of DEAN appearing in the notes of HUGHES.

PAYNE advised he received a telephone call from Sergeant P. T. DEAN on the morning of December 8, 1963, and DEAN denied making the statement which appeared in the Sunday issue of the Dallas "TIMES HERALD."

PAYNE advised he was at the Dallas Police Department on Saturday, November 23, 1963, from approximately 6:00 p.m. until 2:15 a.m. on November 24, 1963. He spent most of this time in the hallway on the third floor of the police building. He was in the hallway at approximately 8:00 p.m. when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was brought from the Homicide Bureau through the hallway and into the elevator on the third floor. PAYNE arrived at the police building and entered through the Harwood Street entrance, and at that time he was not required to show his credentials to anyone before entering the elevator. He then took the elevator to the third floor and was checked by no one on leaving the elevator. He recalled that he observed three high school boys from Colorado in the group of reporters, one of whom exhibited his press card from his high school newspaper while interviewing an officer.

PAYNE did not to his knowledge observe JACK RUBY in the police building during the time he was there on November 23, 1963. PAYNE was not in the police building at any time on November 24, 1963, prior to the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

PAYNE does not know JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

PAYNE advised he has no knowledge of persons including police officers or other police officials who may have conspired with RUBY in the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Dear Sir:

What I am about to tell you may not be important but after hearing Rubinstein or Jack Ruby had many Friends in Los Angeles and Beverly Hills I started thinking about what happened here recently.

The people involved I do not know. I never saw them before. One is a Red haired woman and a man I believe to be Ruby, came out of the Bel Air Hotel, and across the street was a car with a man sitting watching. About 2 minutes after the man and woman left in seperate cars The car across the street went thru a Boulevard stop and sped away at excessive speed. I had already obtained the license number of it. I tried to follow him but he disappeared. Two nites later a well dressed woman came to the back door of my home about 9 P. M. and I answered the bell, she was carrying a small square package she asked me if I knew if there was a lady by the name of Esther living in the area. I told her I didn't know She thanked me and left but she kept trying to look into my house through the partly open door. The morning before the president was killed a lady came to our station and said there was a man either asleep or sick in a car at the corner of Bellagio and Stone Canyon I told her I would investigat immediately I told my chief I would look into it, And he said "Wait, I'll call the Los Angeles Police first which he did and I left to investigate.

As I truned the corner from stone canyon into Bellagio I saw a man in a continental pass a large sum of money to another man who was parked on the other side of the street I jumped out of my car and went over to them and said to them I was sent here to investigate a man down -

The man in the continental said There is no one sick here and when I turned to the other man he was already in the car and sped away. I got his number and it was the same car I had checked across the street from the hotel. The Bel Air hotel is one and a half miles from Beverly hills. I am a patrolman with the Bel Air Patrol. . And should you feel there is any worth to this I will be happy to talk to any one you wish to send to see me.

I have both License numbers and could show you the area this took place. I would like very much to see and picture of Ruby dressed up. This

II. SECURITY AFFORDED LEE HARVEY OSWALD BY DALLAS, TEXAS, POLICE DEPARTMENT

This category, essentially completed, includes eye witness accounts of police officers having responsibility, of news media representatives, RUBY's association with Dallas police officers, his own version of how he managed to evade security precautions, allegations of active assistance or conspiracy with RUBY by police or others, failure of officers to execute individual responsibilities.

III. PERSONAL HISTORY, ACTIVITIES, ASSOCIATIONS AND ARREST RECORD OF JACK LEON RUBY

Subdivisions include vital statistic information, interviews with RUBY re background, interviews with relatives, friends, employees, associates and acquaintances; military service; business affiliation; neighborhood investigation; travel of RUBY outside Dallas; movements during period 11/22-24/63; union activities; and subversive affiliations.

IV. RESULTS OF SEARCHES OF THE PERSON, AUTOMOBILE, AND RESIDENCE OF RUBY.

This heading is of little consequence to auxiliary offices since results of interviews with persons whose names, telephone numbers, etc., were found in his possession should be categorized under one of the subdivisions of item III above, normally.

V. ALLEGATIONS OF ASSOCIATION BETWEEN RUBY AND OSWALD

This section would include only positive allegations that RUBY and OSWALD knew each other, have been together, communicated, etc., or investigation to disprove previous allegations of such.

In submitting FD-302's and inserts, all offices are requested to staple a 3x5 card to each FD-302 or insert showing the principal category and subdivision to which the material relates. This would include the word "administrative" if the information should logically go in that section of a report. Such 3x5 cards should include a brief synopsis of the information included. (Administrative pages should include the words, "COVER PAGE," at the bottom).

All offices are requested to immediately review result of interviews heretofore conducted in their respective divisions for names of individuals mentioned as relatives, friends, associates, etc., and proceed promptly to interview those not heretofore interviewed. All interviews, unless common sense indicates such is not logical, should include the specific questions as to any subversive affiliations of RUBY; any association between RUBY and OSWALD; any knowledge of a conspiracy on the part of any other person with RUBY to kill OSWALD; knowledge of close connections between RUBY and Dallas police officers; and knowledge of travel of RUBY, both in the United States and foreign countries. Wherever possible, dates, places and means by which information can be verified should be established.

With reference to FD-302's and inserts being prepared by auxiliary offices, it is requested holes be punched in same in order that they will be ready for immediate assembling after review by the Dallas Office.

BACKGROUND

Enclosed as requested by New Haven are two Autostat copies of a page from the Communist Party Nominating Petition Book, bearing the name EARLE RUBY, 60 Eaton Street. It is noted that these copies are the most legible that could be obtained due to the poor condition of the Petition Book itself.

The only other name appearing on this page is also not completely legible but appears to be one PETER O'[illegible]SSLER, 160 Howard Avenue (city not listed).

FREDERICK J. HOFFMAN, Attorney at Law, 921 Lafayette Life Building, Lafayette, Indiana, advised that he formerly practiced law in Chicago, Illinois, and in either 1949 or 1950 he represented the owners of the Woods Theater building in leasing space for a night group to a man with the last name RUBENSTEIN, first name not recalled by HOFFMAN. On hearing of the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK RUBENSTEIN he thought possibly JACK RUBENSTEIN to be identical with the man he knew in Chicago. However, after viewing RUBENSTEIN's photograph and obtaining further information concerning him he now knows that the RUBENSTEIN he knew in Chicago is not identical with JACK RUBENSTEIN. The following points are being brought to your attention subsequent to a review of rerep in the event these items have not to date been resolved during the investigation.

[redacted] Chicago, (who requested his identity be protected) said he has known subject for many years, has had infrequent contacts with him since 1946 and recalls subject making trips to Hot Springs, Arkansas, with the Dallas Chief of Police. Schulman did not recall when these trips were made and does not know if these trips were with the present chief of police. Determine the nature and degree of relationship between Ruby and Chief of Police Curry as well as former chiefs of police. Determine if Ruby made such trips with Curry or other police officials and the purpose for which the trips were made.

[redacted] (protect identity), former [redacted] Las Vegas, advised subject is acquainted with William Rice, a pit boss at the Tropicana Hotel. Interview Rice concerning his association with the subject.

RE: JACK L. RUBY, AKA.

Sam Barbee, August DeAngelo and Meyer R. Panitz, all Las Vegas, should be reinterviewed concerning their allegations that subject employed off-duty Dallas policemen. These individuals should be pinned down as to dates and identities of Dallas police officers employed by the subject. In the future be certain that whenever allegations are made that subject employed off-duty Dallas policemen, the persons making these allegations be thoroughly and completely interviewed for all information in their possession to include the identities of the officers so employed.

Travis Kirk, San Francisco, advised that he had practiced law for 23 years in Dallas, was very well acquainted with the district attorney's office, the police department, and sheriff's office and was employed in the district attorney's office for six years and who admitted he developed quite an animosity toward the police department, particularly Captain Fritz, should be reinterviewed. Kirk alleged that Captain Fritz and subject were very close friends and that subject was allowed a complete run of the police station, particularly the Homicide and Inspector's Bureau. Kirk also alleged [redacted] had several prostitutes working for him. Kirk should be thoroughly reinterviewed. He should be specifically asked dates, times, places and events from which he has obtained his allegations and they should be fully resolved.

Richard J. Potter of Dallas furnished information that while attending an opening of a motel in Athens, Texas, and while entering the Old Spanish Trace Dining Room of this motel, a waitress presumably the hostess told Potter she used to work for the subject during which time she was living with a detective of the Dallas Police who told her the subject was a "shady character." Identify and interview this waitress - hostess for all information in her possession and also identify and interview the detective with whom she allegedly was living.

Curtis LaVerne Crafard, Bellaire, Michigan, a one-time carnival worker and former employee of the subject, alleged subject was in the company of a girl named Gloria who is known to Margie, last name unknown, a waitress at the Carousel during the early morning hours of 11/21/63. Identify these individuals and interview concerning association with subject and all information in their possession relative to subject.

RE: JACK L. RUBY, AKA.

It is noted Harold Odell Tennant, Los Angeles, advised he was introduced to the subject in October or November, 1961, by Detective John Toney, Dallas Police Department. Interview Detective Toney concerning association with subject. In this regard your attention is directed to Bureau airtel to Dallas 12/9/63 instructing that a detective, whose first name was believed to be Tommy, be identified and interviewed concerning this detective's contacting Don Tabon and suggesting he drop a complaint against the subject as a result of an attack by the subject at the Adolphus Hotel in early February, 1963. The possibility exists Detective John Toney is identical with Tommy.

Rerep SA Eugene J. McKinney dated 12/1/63 at Chicago. Paul Sisco, an employee of the News Film Department of UPI, stated he retained a Yellow Cab to stand-by outside the Main Street entrance to the police department for expedite transport of film. Sisco was of the opinion the cab number may have been 932. The cab according to Sisco stood by from about 9:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. on 11/24/63. Attempt to identify the driver of this cab as the possibility exists he may be acquainted with subject and in fact might have observed the subject enter the police department and be able to furnish pertinent information in this regard.

All phases of this investigation must be completely and thoroughly explored. Bear in mind the heretofore-mentioned items are not all inclusive.

TO: MR. TOLSON

FROM: A. H. BELMONT

DATE: December 17, 1963

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY
Jack Ruby

I called Inspector Bailey in Dallas and advised him that the Director has appointed him to be liaison with the President's Commission which is considering our reports of the Assassination of President Kennedy and the killing of Lee Harvey Oswald. Mr. J. Lee Rankin, Counsel for the Commission, has been so advised and will communicate any requests or information from the Commission to Mr. Bailey unless, of course, he makes direct contact with the Director.

Inspector Bailey was instructed to return to Washington D. C. today in order that he will be immediately available for contact by Mr. Rankin. Bailey will advise us of his plane reservations when he makes them this afternoon.

I called ASAC Schmidt in New York in the absence of Assistant Director Malone and advised him that the Bureau is making available to Mr. Rankin our direct telephone line between our New York Office and the Bureau for any telephone calls he may wish to make from New York to the Bureau or from New York to anyone Washington, D. C. Schmidt was told to be sure the switchboard New York receives such requests from Mr. Rankin. I also alerted Mr. Mohr to this here in Washington to be sure the switchboard here will accept such requests.

Inasmuch as Mr. Rankin has expressed the feeling that the Commission may wish to view the television film showing the shooting of Oswald in the police basement and the film showing the shooting of President Kennedy, I checked and ascertained that we have both of these films here at the Bureau. We are making a list of such other film on these subject matters that have been turned in to us and we will maintain this film in readiness for any request from the Commission to show it to them.

TO : Mr. Rosen

DATE: 12/13/63

FROM : J. L. Handley

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA IS - R - CUBA

On 12/9 and 12/10/63 SA Richard D. Hogge conducted a review of U. S. Secret Service files as they relate to the assassination of President Kennedy, captioned individual and other related matters; for example, the Jack Leon Ruby Civil Rights investigation and security aspects of the Oswald case.

The procedure followed was to initially review the Secret Service "Documentation Log Books" which contain "Documentation Sheets" in numerical sequence (similar to our serialization). A total of 417 such sheets were reviewed. These sheets contain a very brief summary of information (similar to our abstracts) which can be found in the Secret Service files. Based on a review of these sheets, 93 seemingly pertinent items were noted and subsequently checked against the actual file. Of the 93 items 28 were selected for duplication by the Secret Service and were obtained on 12/11/63.

It is pointed out Secret Service is receiving an extremely heavy volume of information pertaining to the assassination of the President from all over the United States and because of its limited facilities much of this information has not been filed and available for review.

Set out below is the identity of the documents obtained from Secret Service including the pertinent Secret Service documentation number so that any specific item can be located at a later date if desired.

The above items have been reviewed by SA Rogge and have been furnished to the responsible Bureau Supervisors for additional analysis and handling where necessary. Any items received which contain new and pertinent data will be brought to your attention by separate memorandum.

Secret Service is of the opinion its files on this matter should be in a fairly up-to-date condition in the immediate future. Contact will be maintained with Secret Service and when appropriate, its files will be again reviewed for pertinent data which will be brought to the attention of responsible personnel.

1. Recipients of this memorandum who develop new and pertinent data as a result of an analysis of the above received information are instructed to bring this information to the attention of the Director by separate memorandum.

2. SA Rogge will maintain contact with Secret Service to determine when its files are available for review. He will again review this material and bring any pertinent items to the attention of responsible personnel.

DIRECT BUSINESS DEALINGS WITH RUBY, HOWEVER HAD BEEN IN CONTACT WITH RUBY ON A FRIENDLY BASIS ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS AND CONSIDERED HIM TO BE AN "ACQUAINTANCE" UNQUOTE, RATHER THAN A FRIEND. HE DESCRIBED RUBY AS BEING A PHYSICAL FITNESS BUG, A DAPPER DRESSER, AND A LADIES MAN. HE STATED RUBY IN HIS ESTIMATION WAS CAPABLE OF DOING ANYTHING TO ACCOMPLISH WHAT HE SET OUT TO DO, INCLUDING SHOOTING OSWALD OR THE PRESIDENT. STATED HE WAS ALSO ACQUAINTED WITH HYMIE RUBENSTEIN, A.K.A. BROTHER OF JACK RUBY. STATED JACK RUBY MUST HAVE BEEN PAYING OFF THE POLICE DEPARTMENT IN DALLAS, TEXAS, OTHERWISE HE COULD NOT HAVE OPERATED THE BUSINESSES AND BEEN PERMITTED TO PUT ON THE QUOTE "RAW SHOWS" UNQUOTE THAT HE DID. SAID HE BASED THIS ON HIS OWN ACTIVITIES IN HAVING HAD TO PAY OFF IN ORDER TO OPERATE IN DALLAS.

JONES STATED HE SAW RUBY ABOUT TEN DAYS PRIOR TO THE ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT IN DALLAS, TEXAS. SAW RUBY AT RUBY'S CLUB, /CARROUSEL/, AND ASKED RUBY HOW HE WAS GETTING ALONG. RUBY SAID HE WAS NOT DOING ANY GOOD AND SAID QUOTE "HIS COMPETITORS HAVE BECOME HIS ENEMIES" UNQUOTE. HE ASKED RUBY IF HE COULD HELP, AND RUBY REPLIED THAT HE GOT HIMSELF INTO THE SITUATION, AND SAID HE HAD TO GET HIMSELF OUT. SOME PROBLEM IN THE NIGHTCLUB BUSINESS. Police Department

JONES STATED HE HAS KNOWN CAPTAIN FRITZ, DPD, FOR THIRTY YEARS, AND POLICE CHIEF CURRY FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS. SAID DID NOT BELIEVE CURRY HAS ABILITY OR STABILITY TO DO THE JOB, THAT IF CAPTAIN FRITZ HAD BEEN HANDLING THE OSWALD ARREST WITH COMPLETE AUTHORITY, OSWALD WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN KILLED. SAID HE DOES NOT KNOW HOW RUBY WAS ALLOWED TO BE IN THE POLICE DEPARTMENT AND REITERATED OPINION RUBY MUST HAVE BEEN PAYING OFF SOMEONE IN THE PD. STATED HE DID NOT KNOW OF ANY OF RUBY/S ACTIVITIES, OTHER THAN THOSE IN THE DALLAS AREA. SAID HE NEVER HEARD OF OSWALD PRIOR TO ASSASSINATION AND HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF ANY RELATIONSHIP WHATSOEVER BETWEEN RUBY AND OSWALD.

JONES STATED HE COULD FIND OUT WHAT JACK RUBY/S MOTIVE OR REASON WAS FOR KILLING OSWALD, AND IF THERE WAS ANY EXISTING PRIOR RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN OSWALD AND RUBY IF HE WENT TO DALLAS. FURTHER STATED HE COULD FIND OUT IF THERE WAS ANY CONNECTION BETWEEN JACK RUBY AND THE DALLAS PD IN REGARD TO THE ASSASSINATION. JONES OFFERED TO GO TO DALLAS, ACCOMPANIED BY HIS WIFE UNDER ROUTINE CONDITIONS AS HE HAS IN THE PAST, AND WITHIN A WEEK OR TEN DAYS OBTAIN THE ABOVE MENTIONED INFORMATION, IF HE WAS PERMITTED TO CONTACT RUBY. STATED THERE WERE SOME FRIENDS OF HIS IN THE DALLAS PD,

THE NAMES OF WHOM HE DID NOT CARE TO DIVULGE AT THIS PARTICULAR TIME, AS WELL AS OTHER ACQUAINTANCES IN DALLAS AREA HE WOULD CONTACT. HE WOULD BE WILLING TO MAKE THIS TRIP TO DALLAS AND FURNISH INFORMATION TO ONE SPECIFIC NAMED INDIVIDUAL TO BE CONTACTED BY HIM IN DALLAS OFFICE OF FBI, TO WHOM HE WOULD REPORT, PROVIDED HIS EXPENSES WOULD BE PAID FOR THIS TRIP. HE FURTHER STATED HE COULD NOT GUARANTEE RESULTS BUT IT WAS HIS HONEST OPINION HE COULD GET THE ANSWERES TO THESE AND OTHER QUESTIONS, DUE TO HIS CONNECTIONS AND ACQUAINTANCES IN THE DALLAS AREA. SAID THAT IF FBI WAS AGREEABLE FOR HIM TO MAKE SUCH A TRIP, IT WOULD HAVE TO BE ON A HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL BASIS, AND NO ONE OTHER THAN HIS CONTACT NAMED BY THE FBI WOULD KNOW THE PURPOSE OF HIS TRIP, AND THAT HE WAS FURNISHING OR ATTEMPTING TO FURNISH INFORMATION TO THE FBI. STATED THAT UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHOULD HIS WIFE BE CONTACTED REGARDING THE PROPOSED TRIP AND HIS OFFER AS SHE WAS AWARE OF HIS ACTIVITIES ON A VERY LIMITED BASIS AND THAT SHOULD SHE FIND OUT ABOUT HIS ACTIVITIES THROUGH THE FBI OR SOURCES, HE WOULD NOT COOPERATE ANY FURTHER. SAID HIS REASON OR MOTIVE FOR COOPERATING OR OFFERING TO OBTAIN THIS INFORMATION WAS THAT HE WAS PATRIOTIC IN HIS OWN WAY AND HE LOVED THIS COUNTRY, AND WAS WILLING TO HELP THE FBI IF HE COULD. HE CLAIMED HE HAD NO ULTERIOR MOTIVE.

JOSEPH GOULDEN, news reporter, "Philadelphia Inquirer," advised that he was the only reporter from the "Philadelphia Inquirer" to be in Dallas and write anything regarding the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. He stated he was in Dallas from about 9:00 a.m., Tuesday, December 3, 1963, until the late evening of December 7, 1963.

Mr. GOULDEN said that prior to coming to work for the "Inquirer" in Philadelphia in 1961, he had for three years been a news reporter covering the Sheriff's Office and Police Department in Dallas for the "Dallas News." As a result, he stated he has many contacts in the law enforcement field and news media in the Dallas area.

Mr. GOULDEN said that he had obtained the information that JACK LEON RUBY had gotten into the basement of the Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963, from a law enforcement officer in Dallas whom he declined to identify. He said that the officer told him that he had obtained this information from RUBY himself and GOULDEN said that he believed the word of the officer to be unimpeachable; however, GOULDEN did not, of course, know whether or not RUBY had been speaking the truth when he told the officer that he had gotten into the building by carrying TV camera equipment on the morning of the shooting of OSWALD.

Mr. GOULDEN stated that he would attempt to contact the unnamed officer by telephone to see if he would consent to having his name revealed.

Later in the evening of December 9, 1963, Mr. GOULDEN telephonically advised that he had been unable to contact the officer by telephone but that he would attempt to do so again late in the evening of December 10, 1963.

Mr. GOULDEN also advised that the identity of the cameraman who allowed RUBY to carry in his camera equipment to the basement of the Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963, when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was to be transferred from the custody of the Police Department to the Sheriff's Office in Dallas, was JACK RENFRO, who was employed by WBAP-TV of Fort Worth, Texas. He stated that the immediate superior of RENFRO is JAMES KERR, and they both are normally working in the city of Dallas. GOULDEN said that while he was in Dallas he questioned RENFRO regarding the information that RENFRO had allowed RUBY to obtain entrance to the basement of the Police Department by carrying RENFRO's equipment. RENFRO told GOULDEN that he did not know how RUBY got into the building and refused to discuss the matter further.

GILBERT CASTANEDA, an employee of Bonanza Airlines, San Diego, California, was shown photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK L. RUBY. CASTANEDA stated that he was a passenger on Trans Texas Airlines Flight 290 on October 3, 1963, from Laredo, Texas, to San Antonio, Texas. He recalled his seat companion on the flight was a Navy Chief Petty Officer who was enroute to San Antonio to make connections with another airline. He could not recall the name of his seat companion; however, he was sure that it was not OSWALD or RUBY. After studying the photographs of OSWALD and RUBY, CASTANEDA advised that he could not recall either of them as being passengers on Trans Texas Airlines Flight 290, October 3, 1963.

TELEPHONE CALL FROM CUBA

[redacted] American Telephone and Telegraph Company, 32 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York, on 12/13/63, advised SA JAMES M. ANDERSON that a review of their records from 11/23/63 to 11/27/63 failed to disclose a record of any telephone call from Cuba to anyone named RUBENSTEIN in the United States through the New York Long Lines Office.

The only call from Cuba which they located in their records was a collect call placed at 8:15 a.m., 11/24/63, from telephone number 3782, Mantanazas, Cuba - person to person - from Dr. RUBIN - son to Dr. RUBIN - son at Peoria, Illinois, telephone 674-8733. This call was put through at 7:00 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, and lasted for 19 minutes.

The spelling, Dr. RUBIN - sons, is taken from the telephone toll ticket written out by the operator handling the above call.

Chicago teletype to the Bureau, Dallas and Miami, dated 11/28/63, 9:30 a.m., reflects that a telephone call was received by Dr. RUBEN G. FONT, Peoria, Illinois, from his father, Dr. RUBEN G. FONT, who was calling from Mantanazas, Cuba, and the call was concluded at 6:25 p.m., Central Standard Time, 11/24/63.

NY 44-974

The information obtained from the American Telephone and Telegraph Company is confidential and can only be made public upon the issuance of a subpoena duces tecum.

No inserts are being forwarded by the New York Office, UAC by Dallas.

WILLIAMS stated HAROLD GIBBONS, a National Teamsters Union representative, was also in the group and was very close to RUBENSTEIN. WILLIAMS doubted RUBENSTEIN was identical with subject but desired to furnish info concerning this possibility to the FBI.

Requested interview of HAROLD GIBBONS was not conducted by WFO, as stated in WFO teletype 11/28/63, since investigation determined that no passport had been issued to subject.

RE: Cincinnati airtel dated 12-3-63.

POSSIBLE ACTIVITY BY RUBY IN FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE
FPCC

Referenced Cincinnati airtel is concerned with an anonymous communication postmarked Cincinnati, 12-2-63, by which the writer encircled the picture of a man whom the writer believed bears a "striking resemblance to Jack Ruby" among a group of persons affiliated with FPCC, who were picketing the UN Building in April, 1961.

The New York Office by airtel dated 12-6-63, transmitted to Dallas two blown up photos taken 4-13-61, which corresponded with the photo received from the anonymous correspondent. The individual whose picture was encircled by the anonymous correspondent bears no resemblance to RUBY in the opinion of Agents in the Dallas Office who have observed photos of RUBY taken 11-24-63, following his arrest.

The photos transmitted by the New York Office are being returned to New York with the request sources familiar with activities of FPCC be contacted in an effort to positively identify the individual in question. In the event he is identified with some person other than RUBY, the New York Office should follow through in connection with any security-type investigation which is warranted, since the photos would be of no further interest in the RUBY case.

RE: JACK LEON RUBY;
LEE HARVEY OSWALD -
VICTIM (Deceased)

H. R. NIEMAN, JR., retired U. S. Naval Admiral, Executive Director, Texas State Building Commission, Austin, Texas, home address 4008 Falcones Drive, advised on December 4, 1963, the following:

NIEMAN in the early 1950s was Commanding Officer of the Naval Air Station in Dallas, Texas. He recalls that a young Naval officer, CHARLES LEON NAGLE, during 1961 was found in an unconscious state at the foot of some stairs leading from the Colonial Club, a night spot in Dallas, Texas. NAGLE was hospitalized and NIEMAN conducted an investigation.

The assassination of President KENNEDY and subsequent murder by JACK RUBY caused NIEMAN to recall the incident. He believes that RUBY was working as/or Manager of the Colonial Club at the time of above incident and that this club's present name is the Carousel Club.

NAGLE is presently Commander, U. S. Navy, assigned Office of the Comptroller of the Navy, Washington, D.C.

RE: Bureau airtel dated 12-12-63.

RE: ALLEGATION THAT JACK LEON RUBY AND OFFICER J.D. TIPPIT WERE ACQUAINTED

A summary of information in the file pertinent to this allegation is as follows:

On 11-28-63, Mrs. STELLA COFFMAN, 13121 Twin Oaks, Mesquite, Texas, stated that JACK RUBY knew numerous officers of the Dallas PD, including Officer TIPPIT who was killed by LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She stated that Officer TIPPIT patroled the area of the Silver Spur at 1717 S. Erway, Dallas, and made numerous visits to the club. She stated he was a close friend of RUBY.

On 12-12-63, Mrs. COFFMAN was shown a photo of J. D. TIPPIT and she stated he is not the person she had in mind when she previously advised she knew Officer TIPPIT who was shot by OSWALD and was not the person she had in mind when she stated Officer TIPPIT was a close friend of RUBY. She could not recall ever having previously seen J.D. TIPPIT.

On 12-9-63, Cpt. W. R. WESTBROOK, Personnel Division, Dallas PD, advised that a check of information in the personnel records of J. D. TIPPIT failed to reveal any information indicating that Officer J.D. TIPPIT was acquainted with RUBY.

On 12-10-63, Sergeant C. B. OWENS, Oak Cliff Station, Dallas Police Department advised that Officer J. D. TIPPIT has worked under his supervision practically ever since the latter began working at the Dallas Police Department. To his knowledge, Officer TIPPIT has never been assigned to an area which includes the known residence addresses and business addresses of RUBY. Sgt. OWENS was almost positive Officer TIPPIT did not know RUBY. He is certain he had no opportunity to frequent the Silver Spur at 1717 S. Ervay while employed by the Dallas PD.

On 12-16-63, Detective GAYLE M. TIPPIT, Special Services Bureau, Dallas PD, advised he first met RUBY soon after starting work for the Dallas Police Department in 1950. At that time RUBY was operating the Silver Spur at 1717 S. Ervay and it was necessary for Detective TIPPIT to check this night club periodically in the discharge of his duties. He also at a later date checked the establishments at the Vegas Club and the Carousel Club operated by RUBY. These were his only contacts with RUBY. He stated that he ran orderly establishments and would not allow any disorderly conduct. He was friendly and helpful to the patroling officers and requested no favors of them.

It is also noted that on 11-24-63, RUBY advised that he was not personally acquainted with J.D. TIPPIT.

The above information indicates that RUBY is acquainted with GAYLE M. TIPPIT, Detective, Special Services

DL 44-1639

Bureau, Dallas Police Department, but is not acquainted with J. D. TIPPIT.

Rebuairtel to Dallas, 12/13/63, offering investigative suggestions based on review of report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS, Dallas, 12/6/63.

In response to the points raised by the Bureau the following comments are offered on each of the items in question:

1. Re allegation by ELI SCHULMAN that RUBY made trips to Hot Springs, Arkansas, with Dallas Chief of Police:

Dallas Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY, and CARL HANSSON, predecessor of CURRY, were interviewed and denied allegation. Bureau refer Cover Page D, report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS, Dallas, 12/11/63.

2. Re WILLIAM RICE:

Bureau refer to page 466, report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS, Dallas, 12/14/63. RICE denied knowledge of RUBY.

3. Re BILL JENKINS, JOHN L. GEORGE, JR. and DICK MC GRUDER, reported associates of RUBY:

Bureau refer pages 404-406, report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS, Dallas, 12/14/63, for information re JENKINS and GEORGE. Dallas will interview MC GRUDER.

4. Re suggested reinterviews with SAM BARBEE, AUGUST DE ANGELO and MEYER R. PANITZ.

Las Vegas has been instructed to reinterview above persons in line with observations offered by Bureau.

5. Re TRAVIS KIRK.

San Francisco has been instructed to reinterview KIRK in accordance with Bureau's views.

6. Waitress at Old Spanish Trace Dining Room has been identified as JOY EVERETT. In interview, EVERETT stated met RUBY on one occasion through GEORGE SENATOR and disclaimed any knowledge of RUBY background or activities. Denied she had ever lived with a detective of Dallas Police Department. Bureau refer to page 150, report of SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS, 12/6/63.

7. Active investigation being conducted in an effort to identify "GLORIA". Waitress referred to as "MARGIE" has been identified as MARGIE NORMAN ETHIER, but latter unable to provide identity of "GLORIA".

8. Re Dallas Police Department Detective JOHN TONEY.

TONEY interviewed 12/12/63, and advised arrested RUBY in February, 1963, on basis of complaint made by DON TABON following assault of TABON by RUBY at Burgundy Room, Adolphus Hotel. Acknowledged subsequent contact with TABON, but denied suggestion that TABON drop charges. Stated in call, advised TABON charge could only be filed as simple assault as RUBY used fists and not weapon. TABON requested charge be filed and TONEY filed same.

TONEY admitted has known RUBY since 1952, but denied ever worked for him. Stated was off duty and out of city weekend of 11/23,24/63.

Also forwarded with reflect was a video tape copy of the shooting of Oswald and a small black film box containing a short 16 mm black and white film of the above shooting. The small container had no markings of any kind and while it appears to have been taken by a newsreel or television cameraman, with a 16 mm camera, the Bureau is unable to establish the source. As a further means of identification, all of the above were carried by the Captain on Braniff Airlines Flight #119 arriving at Washington, D. C., National Airport 7:30 p. m. 11-21-63.

The Bureau desires to maintain a record of the source of all film maintained in this matter. Accordingly, you should determine the source of the above described 16 mm film and immediately advise the Bureau.

All information available in Chicago indices concerning subject and his family has previously been reported. A further review of Chicago files reflects information concerning Earl Products Company which is set forth herein.

In April, 1956, Chicago Park District Police Officer ELY BLUMENTHAL advised the Chicago Division that he was attempting to arrange the purchase of some obscene color film from HORRIS KLEINERMAN, Ideal Photo Supply Company, New York City, New York. BLUMENTHAL indicated that Earl Products Company of Chicago was to arrange for this purchase. Subsequent investigation reflected that Earl Products Company, Chicago, was owned or operated by one E. R. RUBY. In June, 1956, investigation at Chicago was discontinued inasmuch as no obscene films had been shipped by KLEINERMAN nor had any films been received by Earl Products Company.

There is no further identifying data in the Chicago file on which a determination can be made concerning E. R. RUBY or the Earl Products Company as to whether they are identical with EARL RUBY and the firm operated by him.

On 4/2/52 SA WILSON B. WADDY conducted a surveillance of [redacted] who on that evening attended a meeting at the home of [redacted] Chicago, Illinois. License numbers of all cars parked in the vicinity of the [redacted] residence were obtained, and one of these cars was listed to Earl Products, 701 North Sangamon Street, Chicago, on a 1950 Plymouth.

It should be noted that there is no indication in this file that the occupant of this particular car was attending the meeting mentioned above. It should be further noted that the address [redacted] is in the immediate vicinity of several of the former residence addresses of the RUBENSTEIN family, and particularly those residences of EARL RUBY.

It is not felt that the above information is pertinent to this investigation but is being furnished in order that the Bureau and the Dallas Division have all the information available from the Chicago Division files.

The surveillance, mentioned above, on [redacted] was conducted in connection with the CP-USA COMFUDS, IS - C investigation being conducted in Chicago during that period.

Dear Mr. Gray:

Your letter of December 7th, with enclosure, has been received, and I want to thank you for giving me the benefit of your observations and comments.

As you may know, President Johnson instructed the FBI to conduct a full investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy and the murder of Lee Harvey Oswald. In this regard, I can assure you that every ramification of this matter has been carefully considered.

Sincerely yours,
J. Edgar Hoover

Dec.7,1963.

Honorable J. Edgar Hoover,
Chief of F.B.I.

Dear sir: First, I wish to join the many who heard and were inspired by your magnificent American address.

I.t, who am I? Just as an American citizens, born and lived my long life in America; former newspaper reporter, on the Times and Examiner thirty year, had my own public relations business until retireme twenty years ago.

Why do I write you? Because I have a theory (possibly wrong) about Rubenstein of Dallas. It is likely that members of your staff have included the one I will state, and rejected it. However, I am sending you the first page of a Moscow publication, Literatura Gazette, for which I have been subscribing for about ten years. In 1956 I wrote for the L.A. Times, a number of articles critical of much in Russia which the paper had revealed. It became less free with their exposures of grafters, bunglers, etc., and I wrote no more but continued to take the paper, principally that it helped me in my study of Russian.

REC-86 44-24015-769

The Theory.

You will find on the front page ~~of the number~~ I enclose, the date being Nov.30,1963, a map of a section of Dallas where the President was assassinated. Two places showing the type of emphasis they gave to this are the places where Oswald lived, and where Ruby lived. They are in the same the psychology is clear; they wished to convey to their readers the idea that they were acquaintances. The line under the map states that material for it was obtained from the foreign press. I do not not know whether any other paper or magazine gave it the emphasis we note.

1 ENCLOSURE ENCLOSURE ATTACHED 8 DEC 1963 (over)

My hunch about Ruby is purely out of thin air. Several factors, however, lead me to picturr an alternative to his being "temporarily insane".

The possibility of Ruby knowing Oswald before the tragedy suggests itself, the circumstance which I entertain on this being that Oswald, needing money to go back to Russia for additionnl book material, needed a good deal of money for that Mexican trip. Ruby, if he knew Oswald in that time before the shooting, could have been shown what Oswalds wrote and thought a paying book might result. Unexpectedly, Oswald failed in Mexico and had to come back, owing Ruby money.

Of course, all this was legitimate. However, after Oswald was arrested as the sniper, would not the police or some agency ask him about the Mexican venture, and as it was innocent, he might not hesitate to tell about the loan from Ruby. Naturally, if Oswald had done this after the murder, and Ruby, if he make the loan, would realize what a ruinous thing if he were to be associated even in this way with the criminal. So the theory is that Ruby shot Oswand to keep him from mentioning that Ruby's former interest in him.

If the above is a fact there is strong reason for making it public. It would disprove what Pravda and other propagandists are spreading around the world, namely, the suspicion that Ruby figured in the tragedy or that there's more to this than the lone-wolf act of Oswald. I believe the Inquiry would score heavily if should discover this was the reason Ruby shot Oswald. Sincerely,

John A. Gray

ГОД РАБОТЫ

Редакци дневь

Прошел [illegible] со дня посещения руководителями партии и правительства Выставки произведений московских художников в Манеже, положившего начало со[illegible]ям в идейно-творческой жизни страны, значение которых для дальнейшего развития всей нашей художественной культуры, для нашей борьбы за идейную чистоту и высокое художественное мастерство советского искусства, за его тесную связь с жизнью народа, поистине трудно переоценить.

Кардинальные, принципиальные вопросы развития всего нашего искусства всесторонне обсуждались во время встреч партийных и государственных деятелей с представителями творческой интеллигенции на Ленинских горах и в Кремле, на июньском Пленуме ЦК КПСС. Партия, неуклонно проводя в жизнь ленинский курс в области искусства, дала отпор попыткам протащить фальшивую «теорию» мирного сосуществования идеологий, утвердить «право на существование» в нашей стране антинародного и антигуманного модернистского искусства и с этих позиций подвергла критике отдельных художников. Она призвала мастеров искусства и литературы создавать произведения, глубоко и ярко отражающие жизнь народа, его труд и борьбу, произведения большой художественной силы.

Как и следовало ожидать, буржуазная пропаганда ответила на эти мероприятия нашей партии потоком клеветы. Враждебная нам печать капиталистических стран полна была злобной болтовни о «заморозках», о подавлении «свободы творчества», о «возврате к методам культа личности» и пр. и пр. Наш отпор буржуазным влияниям в искусстве она хотела бы истолковать как «ущемление» самого искусства, уже в который раз безуспешно главному, и насущному в жизни народа. «Хочу написать книгу,— отвечал на литературную анкету «Правды» белорусский прозаик Иван Мележ, — в полном смысле народную, прославляющую народ, его подвиг, проникнутую великим уважением к нему». Это стремление движет и Михаилом Шолоховым, который заканчивает первую книгу романа о Великой Отечественной войне «Они сражались за Родину», и Константином Фединым, завершающим вторую книгу романа «Костер» и Леонидом Соболевым, продолжающим работу над романом о судьбах русского флота, и многими, многими другими писателями разных поколений.

Лучшие произведения последнего времени, нашедшие путь к широкому читателю, проникнуты созидательным духом XX и XXII съездов партии. Его ощущаешь и в смелости, масштабности постановки социальных и моральных проблем («Правда и кривда» М. Стельмаха, «Материнское поле» Ч. Айтматова, «На диком бреге...» Б. Полевого, «Иду на грозу» Д. Гранина, «Утоление жажды» Ю. Трифонова, «Иди, сержант!» Н. Грибачева, «Кровь и пепел» Ю. Марцинкявичюса, «После ненастья» В. Лациса), и в глубине постижения истории («Отец и сын» Г. Маркова, «Чудесное мгновение» А. Кешокова, «Солдатами не рождаются» К. Симонова, «Сыновья уходят в бой» А. Адамовича), и в изображении поэзии мирного созидания («Тронка» О. Гончара, «Сормово 27» Б. Худайназарова). Долг перед народом зовет художника к освоению не изведанных искусством пластов жизни, к постановке животрепещущих проблем, к новаторским поискам художественных средств, наилучшим образом выражающих новое содержание.

Подлинное, а не формальное многообразие видишь в сегодняшней литературе, сравнивая, например, темпераментную боевую «Романтику» Назыма Хикмета с философски изобразительной «густотой» леоновской прозы в повести «Evgenia Ivanovna», акварельно-лирическую пластику «Дыма отечества» К. Паустовского с сурово трагедийным «Эхом войны» А. Калинина.

На страницах нашей прозы социально значимее стал конфликт, отчетливее и крупнее черты подлинного героя современности — активного борца за коммунизм. Более открыто и страстно проявляются партийный, гражданский темперамент писателей, их борьба за человечность, за истинно коммунистический гуманизм.

Огромное значение имели проведенные партией мероприятия для дальнейшего укрепления единства, консолидации всех сил советской литературы и искусства, для улучшения творческой атмосферы.

Правда, нельзя не заметить, что и до сих пор некоторых литературных спорам, ведущимся на страницах наших газет и журналов, явно не хватает деловитости, подлинной заинтересованности в успехах общего дела. К спорам по принципиальным вопросам, бывает, примешиваются соображения вкуса, личных пристрастий, а то и остатки групповых настроений.

Нет-нет, да и появится еще диссонирующее с общим жизнеутверждающим пафосом нашей литературы произведение, написанное в мрачных, унылых тонах, с героями заурядными, малоинтересными, ущерб[illegible]ron», как правил[illegible] суждают о добре и неправде, но н[illegible] делают для утверж[illegible] правды.

Несомненно, ли[illegible] листического реал[illegible] тематических от[illegible] крайне важно, чт[illegible] хорошо знал, зач[illegible] го он пишет, чтоб[illegible] шение к герою[illegible] определенным, яс[illegible]

Да, отдельные[illegible] ли попытки в сво[illegible] ях «воздвигнуть»[illegible] фликт, но народ[illegible] произведений, поп[illegible] дел в них правд[illegible] ном наша литера[illegible] вально, с позиции[illegible] единства борьбы[illegible] рассматривать вс[illegible] ности поколений[illegible] свежих произвед[illegible] му можно наз[illegible] А. ДВА ФИЛЬМА В МЕСЯЦ

Картины для детей и юношества

— Меняется профиль Киностудии имени А. М. Горького, — сообщил нашему корреспонденту директор этой студии Г. И. Бритиков. — Центральная киностудия по производству детских и юношеских фильмов имени А. М. Горького — вот наше новое название.

В плане студии на 1964 год кинопроизведения для детей и юношества занимают главенствующее место. Среди них — экранизация «Дальних стран» А. Гайдара (режиссер М. Федорова), сказка «Морозко» в постановке А. Роу. Старейший «детский» режиссер В. Эйсымонт приступил к работе над «Приключениями Толи Клюквина» по рассказам Н. Носова, режиссеры-дипломанты ВГИКа Ю. Швырев и Б. Григорьев ставят фильм «Один из нас» по повести В. Рослякова.

Не нужно думать, что теперь наша студия станет целиком «малышковой». Мы по-прежнему будем обращаться к историко-революционным темам и кинорассказам о жизни замечательных людей. Собираемся серьезно заняться и приключенческим жанром.

Художественное руководство у нас будет осуществлять художественно-педагогический совет с участием писателей, журналистов, педагогов.

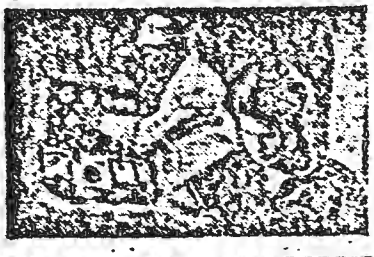
Студия увеличивает свою производственную мощность: нам передают Ялтинскую киностудию, в Москве мы собираемся построить новый съемочный павильон на 1 000—1 500 квадратных метров.

К 1967 году нам предстоит выпускать более двадцати фильмов в год. Это значит, что одновременно в производстве будет примерно тридцать фильмов.

Максим Танк: «ЭТА ЯРМАРКА — СОБЫТИЕ»

Три дня продолжалась в столице Белоруссии Всесоюзная оптовая книжная ярмарка. Восемьдесят торговых организаций 15-ти союзных республик были представлены в Минске. Более 13 тысяч экземпляров книг демонстрировалось на ярмарке. Заключено около восьмисот сделок на сумму 1 800 000 рублей.

— Поэты и прозаики Белоруссии приняли живейшее участие в этой традиционной ярмарке, — сказал нам по телефону известный белорусский поэт Максим Танк. — Большая группа наших писателей встречалась здесь с читателями. Микола Аврамчик, Янка Брыль, Геннадий Бураккин, Анатоль Вялюгин, Нил Гилевич, Микола Ткачев и я выступили на большом литературном вечере, организованном для торговых работников, приехавших в Минск продавать и покупать книгу. Ярмарка — важное событие в нашей литературной жизни. И это понятно: книга — постоянный представитель писателя в каждой республике.



Мы публикуем сегодня кадры из нового документального фильма «Звездный путь», посвященного замечательным полетам в космос Валерия Быковского и Валентины Терешковой.

На днях в редакции «Литературной газеты» состоялся просмотр этого четвертого «космического» фильма. У нас в гостях были сценарист Евг. Рабчинов, режиссер-постановщик Дм. Боголепов, главный оператор Д. Гасюк, оператор В. Афанасьев, директор фильма Н. Макаров. Аудитория тепло встретила новый фильм.

Детские книги Югославии — в Москве

В небольшом, украшенном флагами Советского Союза и Югославии зале Дома детской книги в Москве, на улице Горького, вдоль стен вытянулись полки. На них — пестрые, яркие, веселые обложки книг для югославских ребят. Из экспозицию этой совершенно необыкновенной выставки. Ее открытие совпало с большим праздником югославского народа — Днем Республики и 20-й годовщиной второй сессии Антифашистского веча народного освобождения Юго-

ДНИ ДАГЕСТАНСКОЙ ПОЭЗИИ

Вчера в Большом зале Библиотеки имени В. И. Ленина состоялся торжественный вечер, посвященный открытию дней дагестанской поэзии в Москве.

Далеко за пределами городов и аулов Дагестана известны стихи

...дет.

Разумеется, год — слишком небольшой срок, чтобы уже сейчас можно было подводить итоги той работы, которую проделали под руководством партии наши творческие организации. Всякому ясно, что произведения литературы и искусства, особенно крупных форм, создаются не в один присест. И тем не менее сегодня со всей уверенностью и определенностью можно судить о том, сколь солидательной по своему характеру, благотворной для искусства и литературы социалистического реализма явилась партийная критика, прозвучавшая в дни встреч и на июньском Пленуме.

«Литературная газета» уже писала недавно в своем «Редакционном дневнике» (см. №№ 138, 141) о тех положительных сдвигах, которые произошли в нашей литературной критике, в драматургии. То же самое можно сказать и о всех других областях современной литературы.

СЕГОДНЯШНЯЯ новь в литературе и искусстве — это результат исторических изменений в нашей жизни, рожденных XX съездом партии. Это результат ленинского курса партии в области литературы и искусства.

Если посмотреть, над чем работают сегодня советские писатели, что ими уже сделано, опубликовано за последние месяцы, то даже самый пристрастный обозреватель не может не отметить пристального интереса подавляющего большинства наших писателей к

...чения всех ...
...мо от их политических взглядов и убеждений — вот что нужно ...предотвращения военной угрозы. Этот страстный призыв звучит с трибуны Форума мира, происходящего сейчас в Варшаве. Различны судьбы людей, собравшихся здесь, по-разному складывались их жизненные пути, по-разному пришли многие из них в ряды борцов за мир. Но все они глубоко сознают свою ответственность за судьбы человечества, готовы не щадить сил, чтобы избавить народы от страха перед термоядерной войной.

Вот они сидят в этом зале... Восьмидесятилетний Вильгельм Эльфес из Западной Германии. Он был когда-то одним из сторонников Аденауэра, полицей-президентом города Крефельда, принадлежал к числу активных деятелей христианско-демократического союза. Но с какой молодой страстностью он говорит сегодня, что во имя мира готов бороться и действовать.

Недалеко от него сидит совсем юная женщина с большими грустными глазами. Это Рула Ламбракис, вдова героя Греции, депутата парламента Григориоса Ламбракиса, убитого греческими неофашистами в Салониках только за то, что он верил в сохранение мира и боролся за него. Их сыну, мальчику, который никогда больше не увидит отца, год и десять месяцев.

— Я не занимаюсь ни политикой, ни литературой, — говорит мне Рула Ламбракис в перерыве между заседаниями, и волнение сжимает горло, когда слушаешь ее. — Я простая женщина, которая охвачена горем, женщина, потерявшая мужа и отца своего ребенка. Как чудовищно, что его убили! Ведь он не совершил никакого преступления. Посвятил жизнь борьбе за мир... Меня поддерживает в моем горе вера, что кровь мужа пролита не даром, ведь только подлинный мир прекратит страдания миллионов людей.

Доктор Юсуф Дадо — индиец. Жизнь в Южно-Африканской Республике и уехал оттуда из-за расовых преследований. В этом полицейском государстве преследуют не только негров, но и индийцев.

— Тысячи людей, — рассказывает он, — брошены в тюрьмы Южной Африки. Сейчас в Претории происходит крупный судебный процесс над десятью видными деятелями национально-освободительного движения. Им грозит смерть. Среди них такие борцы, как Нельсон Мандела, который уже отбыл пятилетний срок тюремного заключения, как Мохаммед Катрада. И наша борьба за их освобождение тесно сливается с борьбой за мир, за счастье всех людей.

...Первый день сессии Всемирного Совета Мира, день пленарных заседаний, был насыщен до предела. Его голос, записанный на пленку, прозвучал в зале, и казалось, что его слова об ответственности ученых за судьбы мира произнесены сегодня.

«Катерина Измайлова» — в Риге и Лондоне

В последние десять дней известный советский композитор Дмитрий Шостакович совершил полет по маршруту Москва — Лондон — Рига — Москва — Лондон. Причиной этого авиапутешествия композитора явилось то обстоятельство, что его оперу «Катерина Измайлова» одновременно готовили коллективы Латвийского государственного театра оперы и балета в Риге и лондонского оперного театра Ковент Гарден.

Вчера мы соединились по телефону с Лондоном. Вот что рассказал нам Дмитрий Дмитриевич Шостакович:

— Действительно, последние дни я, пожалуй, слишком много летал... В середине ноября я прибыл в Лондон, чтобы поработать с коллективом театра Ковент Гарден над подготовкой премьеры «Катерины Измайловой». Только мы, как говорится, включились в ритм, приспела пора лететь в Ригу. Премьера в Риге состоялась 23 ноября. Это был мой первый опыт творческого сотрудничества с талантливым, нет, с замечательным коллективом Латвийского оперного театра, который, по моему убеждению, является одним из лучших оперных коллективов страны. Я не хотел бы сейчас заниматься анализом премьеры (это, наверно, меньше всего полагается делать автору) но римский спектакль мне представляется удачным.

В Лондоне премьера состоится 2 декабря. И поэтому мне пришлось из Риги лететь сюда. Вместе с дирижером мистером Дауном, опытными певцами, хорошим оркестром мы работаем много и дружно. Мне, плохо знающему английский язык, все же здесь на очень трудно. Во-первых, потому, что язык музыкантов понятен без переводчиков. Во-вторых, мистер Даун немного говорит по-русски. Но самым главным является заинтересованность дирижера, певцов, музыкантов, так что мы отлично понимаем друг друга.

Постановка «Катерины Измайловой» в Лондоне на английском языке не является чем-то исключительным. Англичане любят нашу отечественную музыку. Помнится, в прошлом году в Эдинбурге я слушал «Хованщину» на английском языке, и это был интересный спектакль. Будем надеяться, что и наша премьера удовлетворит требования зрителей. Мне не хочется сейчас называть артистов, музыкантов (всему свое время, и этим, вероятно, займется английская пресса). Я хочу лишь отметить одно обстоятельство — опера оформлена с большим вкусом, в подлинно русском стиле.

Итак, скоро лондонская премьера. Говорят, что жители британской столицы проявляют к ней большой интерес. Я, право, плохо осведомлен об этом, ибо очень занят репетициями...

БИБЛИОТЕЧКА «ИЗБРАННАЯ ЛИРИКА»

Кто из читателей не охотится за хорошими стихами? Спрос на стихи бурно растет. Читатель, особенно молодой, ищет новые книги поэтов, большие и маленькие, богато оформленные и дешевые, для чтения, так сказать, на ходу.

— В начале нового года издательство «Молодая гвардия» начинает выпуск новой библиотечки «Избранная лирика», — сообщил нам главный редактор издательства В. Осипов. — Дважды в месяц, двадцать четыре раза в год читатель будет получать маленькие, объемом в полпечатного листа, дешевые книжки. Каждый выпуск познакомит читателей с избранными лирическими произведениями одного советского поэта. Библиотечку откроет Николай Тихонов. Затем будут изданы книжки стихов Ольги Берггольц, Гафура Гулама, Мусы Джалиля, Расула Гамзатова, Василия Кудашева, Николая Заболоцкого, Дмитро Павлычко, Роберта Рождественского, Константина Симонова, Ярослава Смеляшова, Александра Твардовского, Николая Ушакова, Сергея Наровчатова и других поэтов.

Подписчики библиотечки «Избранная лирика» любителей стихов ... любимым поэтам.

Дела и заботы кинематографистов

Кинематографисты Москвы, Ленинграда, представители всех республиканских киностудий собрались вчера на открытие VII пленума оргкомитета Союза работников кинематографии СССР.

На повестке дня — важнейшие идейные и творческие вопросы, которые стоят сегодня перед деятелями советского кино. С докладом «О развитии и задачах советского киноискусства в свете решений июньского Пленума ЦК КПСС» выступил председатель оргкомитета Союза работников кинематографии СССР И. Пырьев. Докладчик охарактеризовал современное состояние кинематографических дел и призвал товарищей по искусству неуклонно повышать идейность и художественное мастерство своих произведений, создавать в разных жанрах яркие, убедительные, масштабные по мысли кинокартины о нашем времени.

С докладом «Кино как средство идейно-воспитательной и учебной работы в школе и вузе» выступил кинорежиссер С. Герасимов.

Затем начались прения. VII пленум кинематографистов продолжается. В его работе принимает участие председатель Государственного комитета Совета Министров СССР по кинематографии А. Романов.

Перстень Шаляпина, медаль Мичурина...

Случалось ли вам слышать о коллекциях коллекций? Именно об этом на днях в Центральном Доме литераторов шел разговор.

Хранитель Литературного музея Тамбова Николай Алексеевич Никифоров рассказывал московским литераторам историю создания своей коллекции, ныне переданной им родному городу.

За многие годы Николай Алексеевич собрал богатейшую коллекцию, в которую входит около 50 разновидностей небольших коллекций: картины и уникальные книги, автографы, ручки и кисти поэтов и художников, редкие игрушки, фарфор. Есть здесь даже собрание компасов — М. Горького, Новикова-Прибоя и других; коллекция печаток Дениса Давыдова, Софьи Ковалевской, Ромена Роллана.

А все началось с обыкновенной открытки еще во время учебы в школе. С той поры собирательство стало любимым занятием Никифорова. Каждый экспонат коллекции связан с какой-либо историей. О некоторых из них и говорил Н. А. Никифоров. Его рассказ о находках и поисках, о радостях и огорчениях собирателя увлек присутствующих. История перстня Шаляпина, положившего начало коллекции о знаменитом певце: медали Мичурина, полученной им в Тулоне в 1911 году; «мечтанной» коллекции «дяди Саши» — столяра, который, сам того не подозревая, собрал великолепную коллекцию инструментов из златоустовской стали, — это небольшие новеллы, так же как и рассказы о «фарфоровой чашке», «Доме бабушки» и другие.

— Народ — лучший наследник, — сказал Н. А. Никифоров. — Если хочешь, чтобы собранное тобой сохранилось навечно, — нет более надежного хозяина, чем народ: я стал богаче после того, как передал свою коллекцию государству

В ТАМАНИ БУДЕТ ПАМЯТНИК

В 1964 году, как известно, исполняется 150 лет со дня рождения М. Ю. Лермонтова. По инициативе комсомольцев совхоза «Южный» молодежь станицы Тамань решила своими силами восстановить дом, в котором в 1837 году жил Лермонтов, установить мемориальную доску и создать музей поэта. На берегу моря будет воздвигнут памятник М. Ю. Лермонтову, имя поэта будет присвоено домашней библиотеке.

ДОМ, В КОТОРОМ МЫ

Мы много строим не в стремительном беге сегодняшнего дня мы думаем о том, что завтра техника шагнет еще дальше, каждый следующий дом должен быть совершеннее того, что построен сегодня.

Каким он будет, дом завтрашнего дня?

Поиск ведется не только на ватмане, он переходит на строительные площадки, воплощается в бетоне, стекле, пластике, металле. Так возникают экспериментальные кварталы, своеобразные «полигоны» будущего.

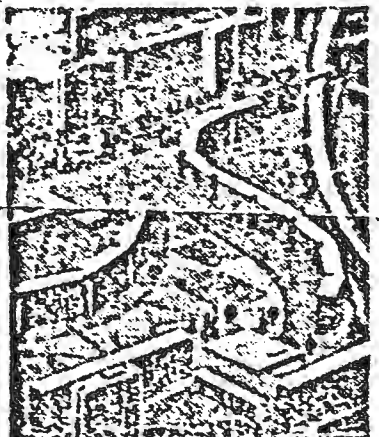
Каким должен быть наш дом, скажем, в 1967 году? Об этом можно узнать, знакомясь с проектом экспериментального жилого района в юго-западной части Москвы. На 215 гектарах земли будут жить 45 тысяч человек. Проект разработан Московским институтом типового и экспериментального проектирования совместно с Центральным научно-исследовательским институтом экспериментального проектирования жилища. Перечень институтов, помогавших созданию проекта, был бы слишком длинен. Ведь рядом с архитекторами и инженерами здесь работали ученые, экономисты, философы, врачи, педагоги, скульпторы, художники.

Строиться район будет уже в 1964 году.

Что же ожидает там новоселов? Об этом рассказал нашему корреспонденту Г. Долматовской главный архитектор Московского института типового и экспериментального проектирования Я. Дюбек.

КВАДРАТУРА «СЕМЕННОГО КРУГА» равняется 12 квадратным метрам, помноженным на число членов семьи. Почему двенадцати? ..

Новый жилой район полностью встанет в строй к 1970 году, а норма жилья к этому времени будет у нас 12 квадратных метров на человека. Квартиры должны строиться так, чтобы у каждого члена семьи была отдельная комната.



Дома поворачиваются к солнцу.

Дома будут разные — и в 5, и в 9, и в 16, и даже в 22 этажа. И квартиры в них будут разные. Планировка? Планировку многих квартир в известной мере вы сможете менять сами, в зависимости от обстоятельств. Перегородки из звуконепроницаемых материалов дадут возможность «раздвинуть» стены, если у вас собрались гости, или, предположим, разделить детскую, если у вас растут мальчик и девочка. Днем стена убирается, и у детей — комната для игр.

Проект рождался в спорах, и это естественно. Как закономерно и то, что сейчас, когда проект уже утвержден, спор продолжается. Несомненно, время будет вносить в него свои коррективы даже на строительной площадке.

Какой, скажем, должна быть кухня в этом завтрашнем доме? Не соединить ли ее со столовой, чтобы хозяйке не бегать с тарелками через всю квартиру? Может быть, убрать плиту и мойку в нишу, которая закроется после того, как обед приготовлен? Такие «мелочи быта» немаловажны.

А какую квартиру предоставить одиноким, пожилым и малосемейным людям? Наверное, дома для них должны быть обеспечены особым обслуживанием. Видимо, тут неудобны длинные коридоры, и потому квартиры расположатся по вертикали. Именно одиноким и малосемейным предназначаются 22-этажные дома, которые начнут строиться в будущем году.

БЮРО ДОБРЫХ УСЛУГ, или назовите это как-нибудь иначе, — словом, бюро не бюро, а один человек, диспетчер, расположится на первом этаже вашего дома. В его распоряжении несколько комнат. В одной — пылесосы, полотеры, посуда напрокат, в другой — белье, предназначенное в прачечную. А может быть, мелкие вещи вы предпочитаете стирать сами? Но как портит квартиру веревка, протянутая в ванной или даже на кухне! Вам удастся избежать этого: в специальном помещении разместится миниатюрная «прачечная».

У вас сегодня много гостей? Совсем не обязательно загромождать квартиру десятками стульев или сервизом на «24 персоны». Ведь в доме есть клубное помещение, то самое, где вчера ваш сосед показывал фильм, отснятый летом. А тарелки, чашки — в том же бюро проката.

Предусмотрена еще одна комната — мастерская, где можно наточить коньки или просто «поиграть» рубанком.

Но ведь район огромный! Далеко ли от вашего дома культурные и торговые центры? Проектом предусмотрено, что радиус так называемого первичного обслуживания (домовая кухня, бюро добрых услуг и т. д.) не должен превышать 100 метров, предприятия «повседневного» обслуживания (продуктовый магазин, кинотеатр, химчистка) будут находиться не далее как в 350 метрах, а в масштабах всего района, где осуществляется «периодическое» обслуживание (универсальный торговый центр, дворец культуры и т. д.), этот радиус будет не более 1200 метров.

ПРАВИЛА УЛИЧНОГО ДВИЖЕНИЯ вам не удастся нарушить хотя бы потому, что пешеход не встретится с автомобилем, так как проезжая часть улицы нигде не идет параллельно пешеходной. А там, где они все-таки, казалось бы, должны пересечься, машинам придется уступить и уйти под землю.

И точно известно: метро, станция которого расположится рядом с торговым и общественным центром, начнет действовать уже очень скор

переезда.

Платону Воронько — 50 лет

Видному украинскому поэту Платону Воронько исполняется 50 лет. Секретариат правления Союза писателей СССР направил юбиляру приветствие, в котором тепло поздравил поэта и пожелал ему крепкого здоровья, плодотворной работы, большого личного счастья.

«Литературная газета» также горячо поздравляет Платона Воронько с 50-летием и от души желает ему здоровья, счастья, новых творческих успехов.

СОЛДАТ, ПОЭТ, ГРАЖДАНИН

Дорогой мой Платон Воронько! Друг по студенческой молодости, собрат по оружию слова, прими от меня, от всех нас — твоих московских друзей-товарищей — братский, скрепленный единством сердец и дел привет и поздравление!

Тебе стукнуло 50.

А помнишь ли годы, под крышей нашего Литературного института имени А. М. Горького на Тверском бульваре? Помнишь ли, как трудились мы на подшефном химзаводе, выпуская сатирическую страницу — «Разъединститут»? Помнишь ли ты [illegible] слышится его победоносная поступь, где звучат голоса людей поля и цеха, где неутомимо бьется сердце большого, светлого и песенного поэта — твое сердце, Платон!

ЭКСПЕРИМЕНТ ДОЛЖНЫ ПРОДОЛЖИТЬ жители нового района. Действительно, порой бывает так, что в прекрасные дома въезжает старый быт. Нет, это не любимый бабушкин шкаф или комод, а мещанское стремление к замкнутости в своей «крепости», к жизни в своем маленьком мирке. Для создания нового, социалистического уклада нашего быта здесь предусмотрены все условия, и борьба за этот быт прежде всего — дело самих обитателей района. Иначе в нашем эксперименте мы добьемся лишь строительного и чисто эстетического эффекта.

А он, несомненно, будет очень эффектен, этот жилой район. Разноэтажные дома, дома, где учтен график движения солнца, не затеняющие друг друга, превосходная освещенность вечером, гармоничное соединение архитектуры и пейзажа — все это создаст своеобразную строительную симфонию. Экспериментальный квартал поможет нам отобрать лучшее, и это лучшее сделают типовым, массовым.

Авторам проекта важно знать мнение тех, для кого они создают его. Еще есть о чем спорить, что предлагать. Предлагайте! Спорьте!

Завтра исполняется год со дня посещения руководителями партии и правительства Выставки произведений московских художников в Манеже, год с того дня, когда была дана мудрая и справедливая партийная оценка положению дел в советском изобразительном искусстве.

Вооруженные «прекрасным и сильным оружием» искусства, наши живописцы, графики, скульпторы вдохновенно работают для блага народа. Минувший год — год напряженного труда, неутомимых поисков, талантливых свершений.

Наш корреспондент Г. Анисимов побывал в мастерских ряда художников и познакомился с их новыми работами.

Через полгода Сергею Тимофеевичу Коненкову исполнится девяносто лет.

За свою долгую творческую жизнь этот крупнейший советский скульптор создал великое множество прекрасных произведений, вошедших в сокровищницу советского и мирового искусства.

Его большой труд в 1957 году был по достоинству увенчан Ленинской премией, он народный художник СССР, действительный член Академии художеств СССР. Человек, лично видевший и знавший Л. Н. Толстого, А. М. Горького, И. П. Павлова, С. В. Рахманинова, Ф. И. Шаляпина, он создал целую серию портретов выдающихся людей двадцатого столетия.

Война родила не только доблестных солдат, но и мужественных поэтов. И нас всех обрадовал твой мужественный, сильный и неповторимый поэтический голос, нас и сейчас радует он своей искренностью, силой и самобытностью.

Я горжусь тем, что есть у меня друг, чьи песни шагали в партизанских войсках. Ковпака. Я радуюсь тому, что у меня есть собеседник-почитатель по поэзии, чьи стихи не только на украинском, но и на моем родном языке звучат от Черного моря. Я с хорошей завистью думаю о том, что есть на земле советской такой разносторонний, полный сил и гражданственности поэт-трибун, воспитанный Коммунистической партией и сознательно служащий народу.

Дорогой Платон, мы, москвичи, твои поэты и твои верные друзья, поздравляем тебя, поэта, гражданина, с юбилейной датой — пятидесятилетием. Желаем твоих новых книг, где будет наше время, где

И тут же вровень с поездом дорожным
И ветер — влагу дыма паровозного —
В лицо мне ощутил на губах.
На шоссе грузовиков колонна
(Мелькали солдатские спины, арбузы насон)
Пугливо, осторожно проносилась.
Сидим меж масок, ласковых лучей
И жесткостью огня порохового,
Припрятанного в гильзах до поры.
Нет карт у нас. И нет проводников.
Пути на Черный лес никто не знает.
Смотрю вокруг. Кого-нибудь бы встретить.
Хоть пастушка бы!.. И... явилась ты
В своем уже знакомом, легком ситце
И с косами тяжелыми. Не косы
Темней... Знать, нужно так: война!..
Лица не вижу: узкую руку,
И вежную, и сильную, не забу
Приставив, ты осматривала поле.
К тебе метнулся: — Слушай, дорогая!
И синью глаз ко мне ты обернулась:
— Уже и «дорогая»?.. Ты ошибся.
— Нисколько! Каждой девушке приятно
Сердечные слова от парня слышать.
Ты улыбалась. Но — еще мгновенье...
Я на лице твоем прочел тревогу.
— Фашистов тут сегодня, как песку!
Идемте, проведу до Черелесья.
— До Черелесья? Нам туда не надо, —
Хотел немного спутать я маршрут.
— Вы зря хитрить пытаетесь. Я знаю,
Что надо вам идти на Украину.
И вихрем — в поле. Все мы — за тобою.
Вот повернулась, косами махнула,
И снова, снова ты в своем наряде,
Ведешь ты нас не круче яна, и волне...

О ПЯТИЛЕТКЕ

В МАРТЕ 1939 года состоялся XVIII съезд Всесоюзной Коммунистической партии (большевиков). В прениях по докладу о третьем пятилетнем плане развития народного хозяйства СССР с большой, содержательной, далеко устремленной вперед речью выступил Н. А. Вознесенский. К сожалению, ни на съезде, ни после него на эту речь почти не обратили внимания. Да и как можно было это сделать, когда в выступлении Вознесенского содержались мысли, которых еще не высказывал Сталин...

Как непосредственный руководитель всех плановых работ, изучивший значение каждого показателя в обсуждавшемся съездом плане, Вознесенский кратко развернул программу третьей пятилетки, придав особое значение развитию новых экономических районов страны. Это была смелая, инициативная постановка вопроса, предпринятая без благословения Сталина.

Несколько месяцев ждал Вознесенский, что скажет Сталин по поводу поставленного на XVIII съезде партии вопроса о разработке генерального хо-

ДНЕВНИК БОЛЕЛЬЩИКА

ПОБЕДНЫЙ ВЕНЕЦ

Александр ЛАЦИС

ВОТ и кончился футбольный сезон. Необычайно длинный, нескладный, какой-то долгоиграющий, он в общем оказался симпатичным, этот минувший футбольный сезон. Все было — большие волнения, неожиданные поражения, заслуженные победы.

Спервоначалу раздавались крамольные голоса: «Вот в Бразилии — система. Вот в Италии — техника. Нет у нас системы, нет у нас техники, нет нападения, нет вратаря...».

Федерация футбола дрогнула и по случаю предстоявшего матча с Финляндией (у страха глаза велики!) приостановила футбольный сезон недели на две. Потом выяснилось, что мы играем в футбол никого не хуже, и пришел черед итальянских футбольных обозревателей вопрошать себя: где наша техника, где сыгранность, нет у нас команды... Итальянская федерация заподозрилась, приостановила календарные игры на две недели, но оказалось, что это лекарство не всем помогает.

Почему мы сегодня вспоминаем о минувших превратностях судьбы? Чтобы заранее, в спокойной обстановке, пока нервы не напряглись, повторить фразу, сказанную одной няней из детского сада: «Надоели эти стенания и нытики». Не только няня, любой ребенок понимает, что чередование побед и поражений в спорте неизбежно. Все дело в том, чтобы найти правильное чередование. Оказывается, надо выигрывать все ответственные встречи, а неответственные, тренировочные, товарищеские можно изредка и проиграть. Не следует такие случайности драматизировать, не следует причитать, увидев после первого же тренировочного поражения являться в многочасовые заседания с всеобщим стенанием, переходящим в оргвыводы. Надо проявлять больше терпимости и благородства.

Кстати, самая сильная сторона нашего нового чемпиона — это, вероятно говоря, поражения. А говоря подробнее и яснее — москвичей динамовцев отличает несгибаемая, неколебимая стойкость духа. Характер настоящего чемпиона — и правило это относится не только и не столько к футболу — непременно таков, что поражения на него не влияют, после поражения он играет как ни в чем не бывало, только еще собраннее, еще сильнее.

Московское «Динамо» ставит свои встречи фундаментально, как Ботвинник, капитально, как Смыслов, надежно, непробиваемо, как Петросян. Почему же Петросян болеет не за «Динамо», а за «Спартак»?.. Может быть, потому, что «Спартак» на футбольном поле позволяет себе ту романтику приключений, от которой трезво удерживается Петросян за шахматной доской? Это команда порывистая, хитроумная, головоломная, способная создавать чудеса на ровном месте, выигрывать, казалось бы, проигранный матч. Все победы «Спартака» нажиты удивительной смесью вдохновения и везения.

В этом сезоне московское «Динамо» было — не в первый, в десятый раз — самой сильной командой. «Спартак» — тоже не в первый раз — командой самой загадочной. Но если бы в футболе, как в шахматах, вручался приз за самую красивую игру, этот приз, думается нам, получила бы команда, занявшая третье место. Динамовцы Минска — команда, мыслящая комбинационно, играющая в быстром темпе и не теряющая при этом ни техничности, ни точности, ни остроты. Они показали игру, о которой у них все получалось. Да против кого! Против такой «вязкой» команды, против которой у другие команд игра «не идет». Защиту московских динамовцев минчане проткнули с той внешней легкостью, с какой проткнул бы...

Правда, в тот день в воротах москвичей не было Яшина. Второго Яшина нет в воротах московского «Динамо», нет пока что и в других командах, да скорее всего никогда и не будет. Только плохие вратари похожи друг на друга. Все хорошие вратари — неповторимы. Будущий Яшин будет так же не похож на нынешнего, как нынешний не похож на замечательного вратаря довоенных лет спартаковца Жмельникова.

Когда о победителях пишут только ласково, а все кислые слова достаются проигравшим, и только им, — тогда может возникнуть убеждение, что «победителей не судят». А раз так, значит, пораскинь умом, добивайся победы любой ценой. Руководители куйбышевской команды «Крылья Советов» вот какой удумали «ключик» к трудному противнику. Чтобы погасить преимущество минчан в скорости и технике, чтобы сбить темп, поле перед игрой, происходившей в сухую, ясную погоду, обильно залили водой. По лужам особенно не разбегаешься... Если это «ключик», тогда что же называется отмычкой? Об этом «мокром маневре» уже писали в газетах. Еще идут гневные письма читателей. Тем временем найденные в луже два очка красуются в итоговой турнирной таблице. Теперь «Крылья» стоят рядом с ленинградским «Динамо». При равенстве очков решает разность забитых и пропущенных мячей. На этом основании «Крылья» остаются в высшей группе, а ленинградцы должны будут перейти во вторую подгруппу.

Думается, что если Федерация футбола решит вопрос не с позиции той арифметики, которая «победителей не судит», а по существу, с позиции советской морали, спортивной честности, — это будет памятным на годы уроком любителям закулисных околоспортивных комбинаций.

Ленинградские «Динамо» после первого круга всеми считалось командой обреченной. Но [illegible] сезона [illegible] настоящий спор.

СССР поручили Госплану СССР разработать генеральный план развития народного хозяйства СССР, рассчитанный на 15 лет, исходя из основной экономической задачи, поставленной XVIII съездом партии, — перегнать главные капиталистические страны в производстве на душу населения чугуна, стали, топлива, электроэнергии, машин и других средств производства и предметов потребления.

В тот же день — день двадцатилетия ленинского декрета о создании Государственной общеплановой комиссии — Михаил Иванович Калинин, по поручению Президиума Верховного Совета СССР, вручил большой группе работников Госплана СССР ордена и медали за успешное планирование народного хозяйства страны. Н. А. Вознесенский был награжден орденом Ленина.

...Государственная плановая комиссия собралась на заседание для обсуждения вопроса о работе над генеральным хозяйственным планом. Н. А. Вознесенский вошел в зал заседаний необычно радостный, веселый. Маленькие, с лукавинкой карие глаза и все его лицо по-детски сияли радостной улыбкой. Его широкоплечая коренастая фигура выглядела еще крепче, сильнее и бодрее, чем обычно.

Зал затих, когда Вознесенский начал говорить.

— Надо открыть нашему народу, народу-творцу, революционную перспективу созидания коммунизма, — говорил он. — Это еще больше воодушевит его на великие свершения во имя самой справедливой, самой счастливой жизни на нашей планете. Сейчас перед нашей страной стоят грандиозные проблемы, которые не могли быть поставлены раньше. Решение этих проблем далеко выходит за рамки третьей пятилетки.

Возьмите вопрос о строительстве Куйбышевского гидроузла. Разве решение проблемы этого строительства может быть уложено в рамки одной пятилетки? Куйбышевский гидроузел — это крупный промышленно-экономический комплекс, включающий в себя на базе использования дешевой электроэнергии строительство химических заводов, создание алюминиевой промышленности, строительство предприятий по производству строительных материалов на местном сырье, решение проблемы ирригации Заволжья, улучшение речного судоходства и рыбного хозяйства...

...Вознесенский ... том, какие перспективы ...роются для развития ...ого хозяйства Восточной Сибири, когда мы укротим буйную Ангару, несущую бесполезно свои воды в Ледовитый океан. Ангарский гидроузел будет мощным народнохозяйственным комплексом как по количеству вырабатываемой электроэнергии, так и по условиям развития различных отраслей промышленности, включая производство алюминия, химических продуктов, бумаги, целлюлозы, цветных и редких металлов, развитие добычи золота.

— Генеральный план развития народного хозяйства СССР, воплощенный в жизнь, явится вершиной, поднявшись на которую, мы увидим приближение коммунистического общества, и решением задачи — перегнать экономически главные капиталистические страны, поставленной XVIII съездом нашей партии...

Невозможно забыть это выступление, пронизанное пафосом строительства коммунизма. Разумеется, я пытаюсь передать смысл лишь отдельных частей этого выступления.

...1949 год. По фальшивому обвинению Вознесенский отстранен от работы в Госплане. Мучительно медленно тянулись дни «безработного» Вознесенского, жившего натура которого просто требовала горячей работы. Вспоминая это тяжелое для него и для его семьи время, супруга Николая Алексеевича М. А. Вознесенская рассказывает: «Снятый со всех работ, муж сидел дома один. Он буквально высох и все ждал дела. «Я бы на любую работу пошел, я люблю работать», — твердил он мне неоднократно».

— Он не переставал верить Сталину, — вспоминает далее М. А. Вознесенская. — Надеясь на Сталина, муж звонил Поскребышеву, прося прислать фельдъегеря. И с фельдъегерем посылал заранее подготовленную записку, в которой просил дать ему работу, заверяя Сталина в своей преданности ему, Сталину, и в своей честности. Такие записки посылал он Сталину несколько раз. Но ответа так и не дождался.

Вознесенский и не подозревал, что затеянная Берия проверка секретных документов в Госплане — очередная провокация, направленная в первую очередь против него. Проверкой, взбудоражившей весь аппарат Госплана и выбившей его из нормальной рабочей колеи, была «установлена потеря» некоторых секретных бумаг.

По указанию Берия было немедленно состряпано провокационное судебное дело, в результате ... отдела кадров ...

Уверенный в своей невиновности — бумаг секретных он никогда не терял, расхлябанности в аппарате не допускал, — Вознесенский пришел на заседание военной коллегии суда бодрый. Собрав всю силу воли, уверенный в своей невиновности, Вознесенский на первом заседании суда вскрыл всю надуманность предъявленного ему обвинения и разоблачил его явно провокационный характер. Ознакомившись с речью, произнесенной Вознесенским на суде, Берия понял, что из затеянной провокации ничего не выйдет. Слишком белыми и натянутыми были нитки, чтобы упрятать Вознесенского за решетку, чего Берия страстно желал. Он приказал не вызывать больше Вознесенского на дальнейшие заседания суда, а осталь... обвиняемых судить.

Впоследствии все осужденные товарищи были полностью реабилитированы и восстановлены в правах членов партии.

Сам же Вознесенский и в «суда» продолжал работать над книгой «Политическая экономия коммунизма», которую начал писать еще в Кремле.

— Если мне не удалось вернуться в «коммунистическое завтра» при помощи генерального плана, — делился он мыслями с женой, — я попытаюсь заглянуть в него при помощи науки, опираясь на Маркса—Энгельса—Ленина, на исторические решения нашей партии.

— Я купила ему в Москве портативную пишущую машинку, — вспоминает М. А. Вознесенская, — и он начал печатать сам. Так он и жил. Печатал, печатал. Часто вставал и ходил по комнате, формулируя свои теоретические выводы. Работал над рукописью долго и упорно.

Наконец, когда муж закончил печатание 822 страниц книги, он, помню, встал из-за стола, на котором стояла пишущая машинка, и сказал, обращаясь ко мне: «Вот мое кредо коммуниста и ученого», и подал мне отпечатанную рукопись книги...

К сожалению, мы ничего не можем сказать о содержании этой книги. Во время вскоре последовавшего ареста Николая Алексеевича она была конфискована вместе с другими рукописями, и судьба ее неизвестна до сих пор. Но по самому названию и объему (822 страницы) можно судить, насколько значительны были проблемы, поставленные в этом труде, и как далеко вперед пытался заглянуть Николай Алексеевич. Только человек, обладающий необычайной силой воли, крупный честный коммунист-ученый мог в таких условиях ... об экономической ...

Memorandum

TO: Mr. Belmont

DATE: December 11, 1963

FROM: A. Rosen

SUBJECT: JACK L. RUBY, AKA.
LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA - VICTIM
CIVIL RIGHTS

Steve Guthrie, former Sheriff of Dallas County, Texas, has advised our Dallas Office that he understands that either the Mayor or City Manager of Dallas had ordered the Police Chief to move Oswald from the city jail before the television cameras. Guthrie stated that either Mayor Earle Gabeil or City Manager Elgin Crull, acting under pressure from television and news media, had issued instructions to Police Chief Curry to move Oswald from the city jail at a time when the television cameras could afford coverage.

Guthrie further stated that because he was acting under orders Chief Curry will not be removed from his position by city officials and this is also the reason why Curry has remained silent about his "putting on the show."

Dallas Office has advised Guthrie does not have a reputation of being accurate and reliable in his statements. It is to be noted, however, that Captain Fritz of the Dallas Police Department, who was in charge of the investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy, was in the process of questioning Oswald when he was told by Chief Curry it was time to move him to the county jail.

ACTION:

Although the information received from Guthrie may be unreliable, Dallas Office is being instructed to resolve the matter thoroughly by interview Chief Curry, Mayor Gabell and City Manager Crull. If possible, these interv will be conducted simultaneously by Dallas Agents.

SUBJECT: SAM BRODY; JOE TONAHILL
ATTORNEYS FOR JACK L. RUBY

Dallas teletype 12/10/63 indicated that Brody, Tonahill and Melvin Belli are attorneys who will represent Jack L. Ruby. Memorandum Mr. Losen to Mr. Belmont dated 12/11/63 set forth information in our files concerning Melvin Belli.

We have not investigated Sam Brody, Los Angeles attorney. Our files show that he is associated with the Los Angeles, California, office of Belli, Ashe and Gerry. In connection with the Meyer Harris "Mickey" Cohen investigation in 1958, we received information that Brody was with Mickey Cohen when he, Cohen, was arrested at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, by the Philadelphia Police Department in the latter part of October, 1958. Brody's room was searched at that time by the police although he was not arrested. As a result of the publicity involved, a confidential source of the Los Angeles Office advised that he had learned that Brody's father-in-law, who is well acquainted with the Loodlum element in Detroit, Michigan, had informed Cohen that Brody would no longer represent him. The confidential source further advised that Brody's father-in-law (not identified) had called Brody at Philadelphia and told him to leave early and not to travel with Cohen. Brody is alleged to have stated that he would no longer represent Cohen in any legal matter. (92-3156-123)

In August, 1958, another Los Angeles informant advised that Sam Brody had become connected with Cohen in connection with Cohen's trial for assaulting a Federal officer. The case in question concerned Cohen's assault on Howard Chappell (not further identified). The source advised that during the month of August, 1958, in connection with this trial Brody had gone to the Department of Justice, Washington, D. C., allegedly to consult with unknown persons. As a result of this, Brody stated the case would be retried because of the identity of the persons involved.

This same informant advised in December, 1958, that Sam Brody was dropping his connections with Cohen because of the unfavorable publicity that such association was bringing him and indicated that Cohen was indebted to Brody for approximately $8,000 for legal services. (92-3156-195)

Memorandum to Mr. Rosen
Re: Sam Brody, Et Al.

In 1945 the Bureau conducted an applicant-type investigation at the request of the Department of Justice concerning Joe Halbert Tonahill. At that time he was under consideration for the position of attorney with the Department. No derogatory information was developed during the course of this investigation. (77-31910)

In 1950 John Crooks, Commander of the American Legion for the 16th District of the State of Texas, advised that Joe Tonahill, attorney in Jasper, Texas, had made a statement in a meeting of the executive committee of the American Legion that he had in his possession evidence in the form of over 100 affidavits certifying to various types of misconduct by members of the executive committee. Tonahill gave two examples by stating that one affidavit accused a district commander of being seen coming out of a disorderly house in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, during the 1949 national convention. A second example was an affidavit to the effect that one district commander had issued an insufficient funds check.

Crooks indicated that one "Bill" Cummins had been dismissed director of the youth activities of the American Legion for the State of Texas. Tonahill threatened the departmental commander of the American Legion of Texas with exposure of the entire 100 affidavits unless Mr. Cummins was reinstated. Crooks further indicated that he felt even though Joe Tonahill, who acted as spokesman for the group in favor of reinstating Cummins, was a good American he was under the influence of one Vincent Terrell [redacted] (94-1-16998-918)

In July, 1961, the Bureau received information that Joe H. Tonahill was a subscriber to "Athletic Publications, Inc., also known as the Minneapolis Line," which publication was subject of interstate gambling activities and wire service investigation. The Houston Division advised that Tonahill was a practicing attorney in Jasper, Texas, who is considered to be highly successful and a respected attorney primarily engaged in negligence cases and as of that time city attorney in Jasper, Texas. It was indicated that he had little criminal practice but was regarded as the leading attorney in the town. Tonahill reportedly was previously associated in practice with now U. S. District Judge Joe J. Fisher. Both are still close friends and jointly own an airplane. (162-6-70)

TO: Mr. Rosen

DATE: December 13, 1963

FROM: J. R. Malley

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY
NOVEMBER 22, 1963
DALLAS, TEXAS

Reference is made to teletype dated 12-12-63, to all SACs captioned, "Lee Harvey Oswald, IS-R," also bearing the caption, "Jack L. Ruby, aka, Lee Harvey Oswald, aka - Victim, Civil Rights." The last two paragraphs of this teletype deal with complaints being received alleging that some group or person other than Oswald not connected with Oswald planned or executed the assassination.

Based on the instructions set forth in referenced teletype, the Dallas Office advised that they had at this time approximately 200 pages for a portion of the report dealing with such miscellaneous allegations and, in view of the new instructions, Dallas desired information as to the procedure which could be followed without duplicating the work that had already been completed. After discussion of this matter with SAC Shanklin, he was advised to combine all of these allegations into one report, to make certain that no other material was included and to submit the report under the Assassination of the President caption and that, upon receipt of this report at the Bureau, a copy of same could then be disseminated to Secret Service. Such procedure would comply with the Bureau's desires for proper disseminatio

SAC Shanklin was advised that he should make certain that once he has gotten rid of this backlog of this type of allegations he should then completely follow the Bureau's instructions contained in the teletype concerning new allegations received.

The writer, a "small business man" has an idea that Ruby "suppressed" Oswald in order to silence him, knowing that Oswald was not the assassin or, at least, not the only one. While the police believed Oswald to be the guilty party, the actual assassin "saved his skin."

PAUL R. JONES TELEPHONED BIRMINGHAM OFFICE AFTER INTERVIEW THIS DATE AND REQUESTED TO TALK TO SAS RALPH N. BUTLER AND J. RICHARD MILLER. JONES STATED HE HAD BEEN THINKING ABOUT THE CASE SINCE THE INTERVIEW AND HAD MADE PHONE CALLS TO ATTORNEYS BURT BARR, DALLAS, TEXAS, JOHN ROGGE, NEW YORK, NEW YORK AND GEORGE CALLAHAN, CHICAGO TO ADVISE THEM HE HAD BEEN INTERVIEWED BY THE FBI IN THE OSWALD CASE RE JACK RUBY. HIS ATTORNEYS STATED HE DID NOT HAVE ANYTHING TO WORRY ABOUT AND TO FORGET THE MATTER. HE SAID PURPOSE IN MAKING CALLS WAS TO ALERT THEM HE HAD BEEN TALKED TO BY FBI. BARR ADVISED JONES THAT RUBY WOULD BE RELEASED ON BOND IN NEXT DAY OR SO AND BARR HAD RECEIVED THIS INFORMATION FROM HOWARD, RUBY'S ATTORNEY. JONES VOLUNTEERED TO GO TO DALLAS AND ATTEMPT TO OBTAIN INFORMATION THROUGH HIS SOURCES AND JACK RUBY AND SISTER EVA GRANT AS TO REASON RUBY KILLED OSWALD. HE SAID HE WAS VERY CLOSE TO EVA GRANT AND JACK RUBY. EVA GRANT TRUSTS HIM IMPLICITY BECAUSE HE WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR GETTING RUBY TO COME TO DALLAS AND JACK RUBY TRUSTS HIM BECAUSE HE GOT EVA OUT OF A DEAL WITH A PHONY CHIROPRACTOR. CONTRACTS BY HIM IN DALLAS WOULD BE AS RESULT OF ROUTINE VISIT TO DALLAS AND HE WOULD EXPECT TO BE PAID EXPENSES INCURRED AS RESULT OF TRIP. AGAIN MENTIONED HE HAS PREJURY CASE PENDING IN U. S. DISTRICT COURT, SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, AND DOES NOT WANT TO SERVE TIME AGAIN. MADE ANOTHER PROPOSAL THAT HE BE ARRESTED BY FBI AND DUE TO PUBLICITY RESULTING FROM ARREST HE BELIEVED IF ANYONE WAS CONNECTED WITH RUBY IN THE KILLING THEY WOULD CONTACT HIM. IF THIS PROPOSAL ADOPTED IT WOULD RUIN HIM FOR LIFE AND HE WOULD EXPECT TO BE TAKEN CARE OF. JONES ADVISED HE IS WILLING TO TALK TO FBI OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON TO MAKE ANY ARRANGEMENTS THEY DESIRE BE HIS GOING TO DALLAS. BIRMINGHAM DOES NOT HAVE COMPLETE BACKGROUND RE JONES TO EVALUATE PROPOSALS AND DALLAS, OFFICE OF ORIGIN, WILL EVALUATE AND MAKE RECOMMENDATION.

NOTE: Information available indicates Ruby entered basement Dallas PD via Main Street ramp guarded by Officer Vaughn. Vaughn positive Ruby did not enter Main Street ramp. Vaughn given polygraph test by Dallas PD and results do not reflect knowledge on part of Vaughn of how Ruby gained entrance. Ex-Officer Daniels was standing and talking with Officer Vaughn and noted on one occasion Officer Vaughn went to almost center of street to direct traffic for squad car departing basement at which time he, Daniels, acted as lookout. About 2 minutes prior to [illegible] before Daniels heard shot and while he and Vaughn were standing talking to each other, Daniels observed a man proceed down ramp directly past and to right of Officer Vaughn. Daniels' first impression was that this individual was probably carrying a gun, however, in view of fact Vaughn allowed him to enter, he did not give it serious thought. Daniels does not see how Officer Vaughn could have missed seeing this individual who walked by him down the ramp. Possibility exists Daniels may have allowed Ruby to enter basement. This point must be resolved. Daniels identified photo of Ruby as appearing similar to individual going down ramp.

For information of Washington Field Office Lt. George Butler, Dallas Police Department, heard a rumor that subject had gone to Mexico at approximately the same time as the victim. [redacted] at Dallas, advised he had no record of subject applying in Dallas for a tourist card to Mexico. [redacted] informed there are numerous consulates in Texas and subject could have simply applied for a tourist card at the borders.

The Dallas Office requested contact with the Mexican Embassy, Washington, D. C., to ascertain if any record could be located of subject attempting to go to Mexico from approximately September 25, 1963, to October 3, 1963. On 12/17/63 Mr. Thomas Ehrlich, Legal Advisers Office, Department of State, granted approval for contact with the Mexican Embassy, Washington, D. C.

ADMINISTRATIVE DATA:

For the information of the Bureau, complainant ROLAND NEELY WRIGHT escaped from a local motel in Las Cruces, New Mexico, where he was in custody of Deputies HAROLD MOORE and OSCAR L. DE FOOR of the Jefferson County, Alabama Sheriff's office, being transported from Edinburg, Texas, to Jefferson County, Alabama. Deputies MOORE and DE FOOR advised that they, together with complainant WRIGHT, had been in Juarez, Mexico, the previous evening, where they had been doing some drinking. The deputies advised that they were enroute to Los Angeles, California to pick up another prisoner, and were taking WRIGHT along with them.

After talking with representatives of the Dona Ana County Sheriff's office at Las Cruces, New Mexico, who had taken WRIGHT into custody after his escape, the Alabama deputies decided to leave WRIGHT in the Dona Ana County Jail, pending their return from Los Angeles, enroute to Alabama, at which time they would again pick him up and return him to Jefferson County, Alabama. Deputy MOORE advised that WRIGHT was a highly unstable individual who believed that everyone was trying to hurt or kill him. Deputy OSCAR L. DE FOOR advised that WRIGHT would in all probability be committed to the Alabama State Mental Hospital on his return to Alabama. Deputy DE FOOR produced Alabama Warrant No. 50996, charging WRIGHT with assault with intent to murder, and indicating that bond had been set at $2500. In addition to the information set forth hereinafter, WRIGHT further advised that he had done considerable work for the FBI in connection with investigating the Communist Party and that he had recently been forced to fire a warning shot over the heads of a group of Communists who were chasing him. He indicated further that he intended to personally telephonically contact the Attorney General of the United States or Director J. EDGAR HOOVER of the FBI concerning the information he had relative to the killing of the person who assassinated President KENNEDY.

Character: CIVIL RIGHTS

Synopsis:

ROLAND NEELY WRIGHT, escapee from Jefferson County, Alabama Sheriff's Deputies in Las Cruces, New Mexico, while being transported, telephonically contacted FBI office, Albuquerque, and stated had information concerning the killing of the individual who assassinated President KENNEDY. On interview WRIGHT, who appeared to be highly excited and emotionally disturbed, unable to furnish specific or concrete information. Stated he felt killing of victim an instant case may have been work of Anti-Defamation League. Stated individual who killed victim "might have been" paid gunman of Anti-Defamation League and that victim probably in some kind of trouble with Anti-Defamation League. WRIGHT had no definite or specific information, but merely thought there was a possibility.

DETAILS:

ROLAND NEELY WRIGHT, who escaped from Jefferson County, Alabama Sheriff's deputies in Las Cruces, New Mexico, on December 10, 1963, while being transported as a prisoner, telephonically contacted the Albuquerque office of the FBI from Las Cruces, New Mexico, stating that he had information concerning the killing of the individual who had assassinated President KENNEDY. WRIGHT was apprehended by Dona Ana County, New Mexico Sheriff's office deputies in Las Cruces. Contact with the Alabama Sheriff's deputies determined that they were transporting WRIGHT to Jefferson County, Alabama, from Edinburg, Texas, where he had been apprehended. The Alabama authorities had Warrant No. [illegible], charging WRIGHT with assault with intent to murder and indicating that bond was set at

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

$2500. Deputy Sheriff HAROLD MOORE advised that WRIGHT was highly unstable mentally and emotionally and that WRIGHT thought that everyone was trying to kill or hurt him and was entirely unreliable. Deputy Sheriff OSCAR L. DE FOOR of the Jefferson County, Alabama Sheriff's office, advised that WRIGHT would likely be committed to the Alabama State Mental Hospital on return to Alabama. DE FOOR stated that they were currently enroute to California to pick up another prisoner prior to returning to Alabama. WRIGHT was left in the Dona Ana County Jail at Las Cruces, New Mexico, to be picked up by the above deputies on their return trip to Alabama.

On interview relative to information he had concerning the killing of victim in instant case, WRIGHT stated that he believed that the killing was likely arranged by the Anti-Defamation League. He was very vague and non-specific as to the basis for this belief and furnished an incoherent story to the effect that he had at one time in Alabama made a statement in jest concerning the Jews. He stated that thereafter on three or four occasions efforts were made to abduct him at gunpoint, but that he had escaped in each instance.

WRIGHT stated that he thinks that the Anti-Defamation League may have a "hatchet organization" which is "rubbing out certain parties" and that the man who killed the President was probably in some kind of trouble with the Anti-Defamation League and was probably trying to leave the country. He stated that the man who killed victim in this case might have been a paid gunman of the Anti-Defamation League, posing as a businessman who had been doing this type of thing "all along." WRIGHT did not know the name of either subject or victim in this case, had no definite or specific information, but merely thought that the above was a possibility.

Mr. Lyndon B. Johnson
President, The United States of America
Washington, D. C.

Mr. Johnson:

As a highly outraged and incensed citizen, I insist that you see to it that the bodies of the deceased offspring of the late John F. Kennedy be removed IMMEDIATELY from Arlington National Cemetary.

I understand that Arlington was created by Congress specifically for the burial of persons who had, at some time, served in the Armed Forces of the United States. Obviously, the children referred to never qualified.

I have also written a letter to Attorney General Kennedy on this matter, as I understand it is his duty to prosecute all those who violate federal law. I shall expect to be notified by one of you upon the removal of the subject coffins and contents.

Frankly, I would gladly withdraw this objection and demand if you would guarantee to inter ALL Kennedys there by the end of next week. Otherwise, I shall have to insist upon all or nothing at all.

Very truly yours,

Marvin Dale Gardner

N.B. I may have used an incorrect form. What with the past three years, I suspect that "Your humble subject" is now the proper form. Am I correct?

Mr. Robert Kennedy
Attorney General, The United States of America
Washington, D. C.

Mr. Kennedy:

I am writing to you because I understand that it is your duty, and the reison d'etre of your office, to see that the laws of the United States of America are followed.

I also understand that Arlington National Cemetary was established by an Act of Congress - a law, if you will - as a cemetary for the interment of persons who at some time have served in the Armed Forces of the United States of America.

Accordingly, I insist that you immediately order the removal of the bodies of the children of your deceased brother, John F. Kennedy, from their recent burial sites in Arlington National Cemetary. I also insist that you immediately institute proceedings against all persons who caused this burial to take place.

Millions of decent people have been repeatedly incensed at the high-handed manner in which you Kennedys have been trampling on morality, honor, and our Constitution, laws, and traditions. This is too damn much, and you have no grounds on which to ignore or deny my demands.

This may come as a shock to you, but your family didn't quite make it to royal status, hard as you tried. Nor did Jack make it to Godhood, much as he thought he did. Since there is no matter of royal lineage, nor of divine issue, and since the United States of America and all its traditions was NOT started some one hundred and eighty-seven (187) years ago solely for the future glorification of the Kennedy line, get them out. I don't care what you do with them - toss them into the ocean if you cannot think of anything else, but get them off public property, and keep them off.

Since you are given to personal vendettas, I will help you a bit by referring you to Mr. W. Colby of the local office of the F. B. I. He knows where and how to get in touch with me. You will have lots of material, for I am writing letters to many people on this subject.

Sincerely,

Marvin Dale Gardner

Ruby Posed as TV Cameraman's Helper to Get at Oswald

BY JOSEPH C. GOULDEN
Inquirer Reporter

DALLAS, Dec. 7.—Jack Ruby became an equipment-carrying flunky for a television crew to get into the jail basement where he killed accused Presidential assassin Lee H. Oswald.

An unimpeachable law enforcement source says Ruby relied on a close friendship with a local TV cameraman to gain a spot on the crew.

PASSED GUARDS

Laden with heavy electronic equipment, he walked unimpeded past police whose security cordon around the basement was somewhat less than tight.

A pistol in his overcoat pocket, the strip-tease club operator waited patiently until detectives brought Oswald through the basement the morning of Nov. 24 for transfer to the county jail, a mile away.

Then with a single pistol shot Ruby mortally wounded Oswald, silencing forever the man who had the answers to America's crime of the century.

Ruby's ruse is one of several previously overlooked facets of the slaying of President Kennedy noted by an Inquirer reporter in Dallas this week.

Others included:

—The discovery that the U. S. Communist Party wrote Castro-sympathizer Oswald a letter thanking him "for your photographic contributions to the Communist Party." Photo materials and a negative of a blank selective service system card were found among Oswald's effects.

—The revelation that the Federal Bureau of Investigation tried to recruit Oswald as an undercover informant in Castro groups two months before Mr. Kennedy's death.

—Statements from residents who saw Oswald with a rifle in a window of the Texas School Book Depository Building 15 minutes before the shots killed Mr. Kennedy and wounded Texas Gov. John Connally.

—Indications of bitter rivalry and lack of cooperation among officers working on the case — both between themselves and with the county district attorney, Henry Wade, and Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr. The implied villain is the FBI.

The story of the Oswald slay-ing, as pieced together from authoritative law enforcement sources, is at sharp variance with the version offered publicly by Ruby's lawyer, Tom Howard.

Ruby's story, as relayed by Howard, is that he sneaked through officers guarding the jail basement at Dalas City Hall and fired the shot before anyone could stop him.

An investigator who has interrogated Ruby says Howard's version "just isn't true."

SPORADIC CHECK

Ruby came to the jail about 9:45 A. M. Nov. 24, 15 minutes before the time Police Chief Jesse Curry had set to transfer Oswald in full view of TV cameras and waiting newsmen.

Police were making a sporadic and inefficient check of newsmen's credentials — supposedly the only outsiders allowed in the basement.

Ruby had wandered freely through the police station the previous two nights, even attending, and asking questions at, one of Wade's press conferences.

OFFERS TO HELP

With more serious things on his mind now, Ruby took no chances of being barred at the gate. He approached a cameraman for a Dallas area television station who is a frequenter of his strip tease joint, the downtown Carousel Club.

"How about getting me in there?" Ruby asked the cameraman, who was unloading equipment. "I can help you with some of that gear."

The cameraman agreed, and Ruby carried several satchels of TV equipment. He then mingled with the mass of newsmen and policemen in the basement until Oswald came out.

The name of the cameraman is known to law enforcement agencies here. And presumably the episode will be made public in a report on Ruby now being drafted by a special panel of police investigators.

REFUSES DISCUSSION

The cameraman, however, denied helping Ruby. "I don't know anything about it," he said, and would not discuss the matter further.

Dallas police are handling the matter gingerly. Curry and Capt. Will Fritz, homicide division head, have been roasted in the national and foreign press for "Keystone Kop bungling" on the transfer.

If police are able to prove, therefore, that an unsuspecting newsman helped Ruby get into the basement, they expect much of the criticism to halt.

CLOSELY GUARDED

Newsmen have not been able to ask Ruby how he entered the basement. Sheriff Bill Decker has him under heavy guard in the county jail; his only visitors, save for Howard and investigators, have been relatives and business associates.

The fact Oswald had done photographic chores for the Communist Party was revealed by Assistant District Attorney William F. Alexander, Wade's chief prosecutor.

The letter, Alexander said, was among perhaps six found in Oswald's room in Oak Cliff, which he occupied under a false name.

Alexander said the letter gave no indication of what type of photographic work Oswald had performed.

Several expensive cameras and rolls of film were found in the room by sheriff's detectives and turned over to the FBI.

The most vital piece of material, however, was the negative for a blank draft card.

A Federal intelligence source —not involved in the murder investigation—said such a negative "would be invaluable" to anyone involved in espionage work.

FORGERY POSSIBLE

"With a printing plate made from such a negative, you could run off blank draft cards by the hundreds," the intelligence agent said.

"A draft card is considered sufficient documentation for issuance of a tourist card into Mexico, for example, or for obtaining a job or a driver's license.

"Also, if an alien got into the country — say from Cuba — and wanted to assume a false undercover identity, a draft card would be the first thing he sought."

Oswald had worked for a photographic firm in Dallas earlier this year. This was after a visit to the Soviet Union during which he sought to renounce his U. S. citizenship.

INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN

Alexander said one of the letters — three pages in length — gave Oswald detailed instructions on how to set up a "Fair Play for Cuba Committee." This was on Communist Party stationery and was signed by the same man who had thanked Oswald for the photographic help.

The FBI has not released the text of the letters, nor would local agents discuss them.

During interrogation after Mr. Kennedy's assassination Oswald steadfastly denied that he was a Communist. Instead, he said, he was a Marxist.

Other materials were found in Oswald's quarters in suburban Irving, where his wife and two children lived with Mrs. Ruth Paine, who had befriended them. These included:

—Seven metal file boxes with names of Castro sympathizers.

—Batches of leaflets with the legend: "Hands Off Cuba." These bore the imprint of the "Fair Play for Cuba Committee."

—A catalogue of books and pamphlets on socialism and Communism.

The FBI attempt to recruit Oswald as an informant, an informed law enforcement source said, was made in September, just after he had moved to Dallas from New Orleans.

Oswald's mother said an "agent named Hosty" came to the Irving house and talked to the young man at length in his car.

An FBI agent named Joseph Hosty handles investigations of subversives for the Dallas field office.

The source said he did not know if the FBI succeeded in hiring Oswald; and the Federal agency would not discuss the matter.

THOUGHT IT 'FUNNY'

Mrs. Oswald, however, said her son "thought the whole thing was prettty funny."

Mrs. Oswald also said the FBI questioned Lee in 1961, just after he returned from Russia, and again last summer, when he was arrested for pro-Castro activities in New Orleans.

Investigators previously said Oswald built a "cave" of boxes in which he hid from view in a fifth-floor window of the book warehouse, and was not clearly visible from the street.

This is contradicted however, by at least two residents who told deputy sheriffs immediately after the shooting they had spotted a man there earlier.

'WAS TAKING AIM'

One of the men—whose name is being withheld by The Inquirer at the request of officers — said he glanced at the building several minutes before the Presidential calvacade rolled by.

"He was sitting up there and looking down, apparently waiting for the same thing I was—the President," the man said. He noticed nothing unusual, then casually looked up again as Mr. Kennedy's car approached.

In stunned, frozen horror, the man said: "He was taking aim with a high-powered rifle. I was looking at the time he fired the shots. He did not seem to be in any hurry."

'MAN IN WINDOW'

A couple was standing at an intersection across from the building, 15 minutes before the parade. The man remarked to his wife that he hoped no incidents would mar the President's visit, that the Secret Service was protecting him. He looked at the building and saw a man.

"He was holding in his arms what appeared to be a high-powered rifle," the man said. "He was holding it at parade rest."

"Looks like the Secret Service is really on the job," the man said, pointing to the rifleman. His nearsighted wife could not see him.

A quarter of an hour later the couple was among hundreds of sidewalk viewers who heard the fatal shots from the building.

Melvin M. Belli - Summary
Attorney
San Francisco, California

The 1959 San Francisco City Directory reflects that Melvin M. (Joy T.) Belli resides at 1228 Montgomery, Apartment 8.

The 1958 San Francisco City Directory listed Belli as a lawyer with office at 240 Stockton Street and his wife was listed as "Joy T." Belli and his residence was given as 1228 Montgomery, Apartment 8.

The current (September, 1959) San Francisco Telephone Directory lists Melvin M. Belli of the law firm of Belli, Ashe and Gerry as having offices at 723 Montgomery Street, San Francisco.

The 1960 Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory lists Melvin M. Belli, attorney, San Francisco, California, born 1907, admitted to Bar 1933, member of the American Bar Association and having graduated from the University of California with B.A. and LL.B. degrees.

The "San Francisco Examiner" newspaper, a newspaper published daily at San Francisco, issue of May 4, 1956, revealed Melvin Belli, attorney and writer, married on May 3, 1956, a former air line hostess, Jogy Turner, in San Francisco. Melvin Belli, according to the article, formerly was married to Betty Bellantine and divorced in 1951, having four children. He married Toni Nichols, a former stenographer, and they were divorced in March, 1955.

The "San Francisco Examiner" issue of May 1, 1959, had an item with reference to separate maintenance suits filed by Joy Belli against Melvin Belli and Melvin Belli against his wife, Joy Belli.

The "San Francisco Examiner" had a copy of a press release in its files dated January 9, 1959, at San Francisco issued by "Belli Seminar Foundation, 240 Stockton Street, San Francisco, California," for release January 12, 1959. According to the release, as part of a nation-wide series that has been widely acclaimed, the San Francisco Lawyers Club would sponsor a Belli Seminar Foundation lecture by internationally famed San

San Francisco attorney Melvin M. Belli on January 17th at the St. Francis Hotel (San Francisco). The release stated Mr. Belli would discuss trial and substantive law, criminal and civil law, trial and tort trends, procedures, voir dire, and opening statements through final argument and appeal. According to the release, Belli would also discuss modern damages, medical problems and would show autopsy film. The release described "The Belli Seminar Foundation" as a charitable organization for the perpetuity of postgraduate legal education lectures and that Belli lectures were free to law students and medical students, doctors, judges, and professors. The release states further as follows:

"Belli, called 'The King of Torts,' was recently elected chairman of the Board of Directors of the International Academy of Trial lawyers at a meeting held at Coronado. He is past Dean of that organization and past President of the National Association of Claimants Compensation Attorneys.

"Particularly noted for being a pioneer in the use of demonstrative evidence, Belli is equally regarded as an author of numerous books, which includes 'Modern Trials,' 'Ready for the Plaintiff,' 'Modern Damages,' 'The Adequate Award' and 'Trial and Tort Trends.' His latest book, 'Life and Law in Japan,' deals with the famed case which developed international legal and political interests."

"Time" magazine (published by Time, Inc., 540 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago 11, Illinois) issue of January 26, 1959, page 23, has an article about Melvin M. Belli under the caption "The Law" and subtitled "Plaintiff's Counsel." The article described Belli as a recognized, if not the revered, leader in the phenomenal field of U. S. law - personal injury. It is set forth that Belli's most noteworthy contribution to tort trials is the use of "demonstrative evidence." It set forth that Belli would take his skeleton named "Elmer" into the court room and show the jury by expert's testimony exactly where the plaintiff broke a bone. A photograph of Belli with the skeleton appeared with the article.

The "Time" article mentioned some of Belli's cases. Among those included were one for victims of the defective polio vaccine distributed by California Cutter Laboratories in 1955 and one for relatives of victims of the nation's worst air crash - the collision of two airplanes over Grand Canyon on June 30, 1956. It also mentioned that Belli had pending in Louisiana a case against two cigarette manufacturers and that it had been filed on behalf of a woman whose husband died of lung cancer. The last subheading of the article is captioned,

"Shyster or Savant." The article mentioned under this heading that most legal observers agree that too many personal injuries were not adequately compensated in the courts. Many of these same observers now believe that Belli has led the trend too far in the opposite direction and, moreover, they deviate from Belli's techniques. The article quoted Belli as stating, "I am regarded as either shyster or savant. There is no middle road for me."

Belli was described in the "Time" article as fifty-one years of age, twice married, twice divorced.

The "San Francisco Examiner" issue of April 1, 1959, had an item listing Melvin Belli as representing the host in a $50,000 suit against a local night club (San Francisco) performer who billed herself as "the one and only 'Diamond Lil'."

The "Saturday Evening Post" (published by the Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania) issue of April 11, 1959, contained an article captioned "Melvin's Legal Highjinks" by Milton Silverman, beginning on page 18. In the first part of that article is set forth information about Melvin M. Belli, flamboyant San Francisco attorney, nationally known for his suits against doctors for medical malpractice.

Lloyd Bell, Undersheriff, Clark County, Las Vegas, Nevada, stated on April 15, 1959, that Mickey Cohen and two other individuals arrived in Las Vegas on April 13, 1959, from Los Angeles, California, by automobile. He stated that they were accompanied by an individual giving the name of "Bel" Belli, an attorney from San Francisco. They appeared at the Clark County Sheriff's Office where Cohen was required to register as an ex-felon. Mr. Belli stated at that time Cohen was in Las Vegas temporarily upon legal business and also to discuss a golf tournament to be held at Wilbur Clark's Desert Inn hotel golf course.

The "San Francisco Examiner" issue of April 23, 1959, sets forth, under the caption "Belli Plans Play for Stripper in Dope Case," information that San Francisco attorney Melvin Belli planned yesterday to would champion the cause of Las Vegas stripper Candy Barr, a comely girl friend of gambler Mickey Cohen, convicted on narcotics charges. The item stated that Belli, reached by telephone in Las Vegas, said, "This is a gross miscarriage of justice. I have definitely taken my case and we're going to the U. S. Supreme Court with it."

The article stated that Cohen had made the arrangements for Belli to defend Miss Barr. Cohen was quoted, "I made connections for Candy. I am not paying the bill. But I okayed the credit on it. She'll pay him when she's able."

According to the article, Belli insisted, "This has nothing to do with Cohen. I agreed to take her case after talking with her Friday and Saturday." The news item further set forth that Belli said, "She is caught right in the middle of a political deal. She doesn't use narcotics or sell it and she was deliberately framed by narcotics agents." According to a news article, a jury in Dallas, Texas, convicted Miss Barr of possession of marijuana last year. Her fifteen-year prison sentence was upheld in January by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

The "San Francisco Chronicle," a daily newspaper published at San Francisco, issue of July 6, 1959, captioned "Belli Asked Limit for Lawyers Fees." It stated that Melvin Belli, San Francisco attorney, had recommended to Governor Edmund G. Brown (Governor of California) for regulation of lawyers' fees in personal injury cases rather than creation of a California Automobile Accident Commission. Belli, a specialist in personal injury cases, was quoted, "Lawyers charge too much. Fees in personal injury cases such as automobile accidents should not go over forty per cent. I charge one-third. Some charge as much as fifty per cent."

"San Francisco Examiner" issue of August 24, 1959, contained an article captioned "Mickey Slated for Belli Seminar." The article is dated Miami, August 23rd, and stated that Mickey Cohen arrived in Miami on August 23rd and, after questioning by Miami detectives, he was permitted to go to a Miami Beach hotel where he was scheduled to address a trial seminar. The seminar was to be put on by attorney Melvin Belli, San Francisco trial lawyer, who defended Cohen last week on a charge of assaulting the chief of the Federal Narcotics Bureau in Los Angeles. The news item stated the seminar held in conjunction with the University of Miami Law School attracted attorneys across the nation. A seminar spokesman said the meeting was not connected with the giant American Bar Association convention starting there on Monday.

In the "San Francisco Examiner" issue of August 25, 1959, it was set forth in an article that Melvin Belli, top trial lawyer from San Francisco, had introduced Mickey Cohen as Professor O'Brien at the American Bar Association convention in Miami Beach. The article stated that Cohen, as Professor O'Brien, lectured to the unsuspecting lawyers as a "professor" on income tax. The article stated the Association did not think it was funny and an Association spokesman said that it was obviously an attempt to use the American Bar Association for a private promotion, according to the news item. The news article quoted Belli as follows: "If they can't appreciate that part of the program, then the whole Bar Association has lost its sense of humor." Belli was further quoted that he was sorry Cohen had appeared before the convention.

The "San Francisco Examiner" on August 25, 1957, had an article captioned "Belli Sees Fair Trial for Girard." The item had a dateline of Tokyo, August 24th, and by-line of "By Melvin Belli, Special to the Examiner." The article was about the trial of the people of Japan against Specialist, Third Class, William S. Girard.

The "San Francisco Examiner" issue of August 26, 1957, had an article by Belli with reference to the Girard trial. This item has a dateline of Maebashi, Japan, August 26th.

Also, the "San Francisco Examiner" of September 10, 1957, had an article by Belli datelined Tokyo, September 9th, with reference to Japan's civil suit customs.

The "San Francisco Examiner" issues of October 20, 21, 22, 27, 28 and 29, 1959, contained items mentioning Melvin Belli as attorney for Beverly Aadland, teen-aged protege of the late Errol Flynn, movie actor who died at Vancouver, British Columbia, in October, 1959.

The "San Francisco Examiner" of November 17, 1957, had an article that a Yuba City (California) peach farmer bequeathed a $300,000 estate to three San Francisco lawyers with a provision that it be used to "educate people in the process of democracy." The article set forth that the estate was bequeathed to attorneys George Andersen, Norman Leonard and Richard Gladstein who had often defended members of the Communist Party. According to the article, attorney Melvin Belli declared he would contest the will on behalf of the dead man's widow, son and daughter.

The "San Francisco Examiner" of December 8, 1957, datelined Marysville (California) contained an article that attorney Melvin Belli had filed action for the son and daughter of a person by the name of Long. The news item set forth that according to the action Andersen induced the father "through fraud and under influence" to will all but $13,000 of the estate to Andersen and his law partners, Norman Leonard and Richard Gladstein.

The "San Francisco Chronicl[illegible]ssue of October 9, 1956, had an item that attorney Melvi[illegible] Belli was charged in the Municipal Court (San Frmcisco) [illegible]h failing to pay $176.00 in overtime wages to two secreta[illegible]es. The "San Francisco Chronicle" of October 20, 1956, had an article on the same matter. This article stated that a couple of former secretaries had hailed Melvin Belli into court on charges he failed to pay their overtime for the last two weeks they worked for him. The charge was described as a misdemeanor.

San Francisco, California, Police Department arrest record cards Nos. A28035 and A28036 reflect that Melvin Belli of 1228 Montgomery Street was arrested on the morning of September 19, 1956, on warrants issued on complaints of two individuals charging violation of 216(a) of the Labor Code. He was released immediately on $100.00 bond in each of the two cases. The records of Municipal Court, Department No. 11, San Francisco, reflects that Belli was acquitted of these charges in each case for violation of 216(a) of the Labor Code on December 13, 1956. The action numbers in the Municipal Court are 9327 and 9329.

The "San Francisco Chronicle" issue of March 15, 1955, had an item captioned "Belli Joins Battle to Save Chessman's New Manuscript." The article read that attorney Melvin Belli catapulted himself into the Caryl Chessman case yesterday with charges that confiscation of the condemned convict-author's latest book is an attempt at thought control worse than the treatment of prisoners in the Dark Ages. The article stated that Belli, well-known trial lawyer had offered his services without fee to Chessman's Sacramento (California) counsel, Rosalie Asher, who accepted his association in the case. It was further set forth that attorney Asher was scheduled to appear before Judge Michael J. Roche of the Federal District Court at San Francisco to argue an injunction to prevent the destruction of Chessman's newest manuscript. It further mentioned that this was another phase of Chessman's six-year battle to escape San Quentin's gas chamber.

"San Francisco Examiner" of May 10, 1955, in an item captioned "Chessman's Book Suit" set forth that attorney Melvin Belli, on behalf of Miss Asher, had filed suit in Marin County (California) Superior Court, asking the court to order Warden Harley O. Teets, Director of Correction (California) Richard McGee and others to release Chessman's latest book, "Trial and Ordeal," to attorney Asher.

"Life" magazine (published by Time, Inc., 540 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago 11, Illinois) in an issue of October 18, 1954, beginning on page 71, contains an article by Robert Wallace captioned "The King of Torts." The subheading reads "Melvin Belli's court room props and his pyrotechnical oratory have reaped big awards for his clients and himself while revoluting the practice of personal injury law."

On March 9, 1951, the name of Melvin Belli, San Francisco, appeared along with other names on the letterhead of the Lawyers Against Test Oaths for the Bar, P.O. Box 2225, San Francisco 26, and 1614 North Argyle, LosAngeles 28, which appealed to members of the Bar to oppose California Senate Bill SB 1066, which would impose upon every member of the California Bar and every candidate for admission the Requirement that a test or loyalty oath be taken as a condition to practicing law.

The "Daily People's World" newspaper issue of September 22, 1949, contains an article, "Bay Area Notables Protest Communist trial."

"San Francisco, Sept. 21

"A group of prominent Bay Area residents, headed by Attorney Vincent Hallinan, protested theprosecution of the 12 Communist leaders to Alben Barkley during the vice president's visit here.....

"The group wrote Barkley that they wanted to see him 'for the purpose of protesting the actions of the United States government in prosecuting persons for the expressions of opinions.'

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY

With regard to Mr. DeLoach's memorandum dated 12-16-63 captioned "Warren Commission; Assassination of the President," the Director instructed that we assemble the background reports on which our summary which was sent to the Commission was based.

We have begun assembling this material and it has been determined that there have been 152 reports in captioned cases submitted by 52 field offices, totaling approximately 6,200 pages. Four of these reports were submitted by the Dallas Office in the Oswald case which totaled 2,500 pages and three in the Ruby case, totaling approximately 1,575 pages.

The summary which we prepared and delivered to the Department 12-5-63 and which ultimately went to the Commission, was based primarily upon the contents of the four reports from Dallas in the Oswald case and one report in the Ruby case, totaling 833 pages. These reports and all other reports prepared by other offices dated prior to 12-5-63 are being assembled and will be sent to the Commission on 12-18-63.

We are also assembling for subsequent delivery to the Commission the reports which are dated 12-5-63 and subsequent thereto.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

My memo 12-17-63 advised that we were assembling reports in the Oswald, Ruby and Assassination cases to be sent to the Commission today. These reports are dated prior to 12-5-63 or are the ones on which the summary which previously went to the Commission was based.

Attached is a list of the reports which are being furnished to the Commission. The reports are being forwarded to Inspector Malley separately. A copy of this list for delivery to the Commission will be attached to the reports.

Attention is directed to the fact that 3 of these reports are classified. This classification is based upon information obtained from an anonymous source and important security informants both of which could be jeopardized if this information is made public, therefore, they have been classified. Other reports which were classified by the field have been reviewed and declassified where it appeared that our informants could not reasonably be identified and also where investigation subsequent to the assassination has secured correspondence of Oswald with the Communist Party and Fair Play for Cuba Committee from representatives of those organizations. It was felt that although we previously had obtained such data from anonymous sources and informants classification at this time is not warranted.

Attention is also directed to the fact that at some places in these reports persons interviewed have requested that their names be maintained in confidence. It is believed that the attention of Mr. Rankin should be directed to these requests and that he should be informed that their names were included because of the importance of this matter but he should honor their request wherever possible.

It is also suggested that Mr. Rankin's attention be directed to the fact that Jack Leon Ruby is presently held on the charge of murder by the State of Texas and data contained in these reports could conceivably have a bearing on the legal action.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that Inspector Malley deliver the reports referred to in the attached list to Mr. Rankin of the Commission.

The "Washington Post" date lined Sunday, December 1, 1963, Page E4, contains an article relative to victim Oswald by Staff Reporters Laurence Stern and Alfred E. Lewis.

The article relates "Security precautions by Dallas Police were at best token. One newsman getting off the elevator in the basement was told by a policeman, there to check credentials 'I know you, go ahead.' The reporter said he had never seen the officer before. Then he vouched for a fellow reporter to save him the time getting out press credentials. 'O.K.' The officer said, 'If he's ok with you, fine.'"

Within three days of receipt of this communication interview Staff Reporters Stern and Lewis for all information in their possession that newsmen and anyone else were allowed in the basement of the Dallas Police Department without properly identifying themselves as being with the press or police. Ascertain identities of these individuals and set forth leads for interview by teletype. This is one of most important phases of over-all investigation in this case. Furnish Dallas 25 copies of FD-302.

ReBuairtel to New Orleans, dated December 5, 1963.

The Bureau's attention is directed to Bureau letter to New Orleans, dated November 6, 1963, captioned, "JAMES WADE MYERS, UFAC - WORTHLESS CHECKS," forwarding to this office the Identification Record on MYERS, bearing FBI # 974 127 D, showing that MYERS was wanted for one of the offenses enumerated in the Unlawful Flight Statute.

It is further pointed out that JAMES WADE MYERS, an inmate of the Jackson County Jail, Pascagoula, Miss., was interviewed on November 26, 1963, by a Special Agent of this office and advised that he was being held on charges of obtaining goods by false pretense and escape. MYERS claimed that he was discharged by the U. S. Air Force, Bergstrom Air Force Base in March, 1961, and thereafter sent to Dallas, Texas, where he worked at the Capri Theater as head usher for a few weeks. He said the man who owned a tie and shirt shop next to the Capri Theater, whose name he could not recall, told him he could help him get a better job. This man took him to the Carrousel Club and introduced him to JACK RUBY as a friend. Two or three days later, RUBY hired him as a maintenance man and general handy man. MYERS said that he lived at the club and became well acquainted with RUBY and that he stayed in this job for six or seven month. MYERS furnished information concerning RUBY from his contact with him during this period as well as information concerning some of RUBY's associates.

The Director has asked for a memorandum on Melvin M. Belli, who, according to newspaper releases of this date, will represent Jack Ruby who will soon be tried for the slaying of accused Presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald. Belli, according to the news releases, will be ready by the scheduled trial date of 2/3/63 and has indicated that defense counsel will plead Ruby not guilty by reason of insanity.

There is attached a memorandum dated 3/13/63 which contains pertinent information in Bureau files concerning Belli. See 105-49865-19

The only pertinent additional information subsequent to the 3/13/63 memorandum is contained in the file of [redacted] a Los Angeles attorney who is active in the Communist Party in Los Angeles, California. [redacted] was subpoenaed before a House Committee on Un-American Activities public hearing in Los Angeles on 7/2/63 and immediately requested continuance, stating that she was not represented by counsel as her attorney, Melvin Belli, was unable to attend the hearings at that time. In an appearance before the House Committee on Un-American Activities in Washington, D. C., on 8/6/63 [redacted] invoked the Fifth Amendment in answer to Cuba travel and Communist Party membership.

Enclosed are the original and one verifax copy of an Editorial which appeared in the "Dallas Times Herald, 11-26-63, and of the reprint by this newspaper of an Editorial which appeared in the "New York Times" issue of 11-25-63.

It is observed the "New York Times" is critical of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department for its failure to adequately protect OSWALD and publicity attendant to OSWALD's transfer from Dallas City Jail to Dallas County Jail, as well as of alleged statements of the Chief of Police (JESSE E. CURRY, NA) and District Attorney (HENRY WADE, former SA, FBI), which in effect pronounced OSWALD guilty before trial. It is admitted Dallas authorities were "abetted and encouraged" by newspapers, radio and TV.

The "Dallas Times Herald" editorial in turn, takes the position the press must share the blame with the police. Chief of Police CURRY's actions are defended to the extent that they were "motivative by the best of intentions",

Spiral of Hate

Reprinted from The New York Times, Monday, Nov. 25, 1963

THE SHAME all America must bear for the spirit of madness and hate that struck down President Kennedy is multiplied by the monstrous murder of his accused assassin while being transferred from one jail in Dallas to another.

The primary guilt of this ugly new stain on the integrity of our system of order and respect for individual rights is that of the Dallas police force and the rest of its law-enforcement machinery. But none of us can escape a share of the fault for the spiral of unreason and violence that has now found expression in the death by gunfire of our martyred President and the man being held for trial as his killer.

The Dallas authorities, abetted and encouraged by the newspaper, TV and radio press, trampled on every principle of justice in their handling of Lee H. Oswald. It is their sworn duty to protect every prisoner, as well as the community, and to afford each accused person full opportunity for his defense before a properly constituted court. The heinousness of the crime Oswald was alleged to have committed made it doubly important that there be no cloud over the establishment of his guilt.

Yet—before any indictment had been returned or any evidence presented and in the face of continued denials by the prisoner—the chief of police and the district attorney pronounced Oswald guilty. "Basically, the case is closed," the chief declared. The prosecutor informed reporters that he would demand the death penalty and was confident "I'll get it."

Highly-Advertised Transfer

After two days of such pre-findings of guilt, in the electrically emotional atmosphere of a city angered by the President's assassination and not too many decades removed from the vigilante tradition of the old frontier, the jail transfer was made at high noon and with the widest possible advance announcement. Television and newsreel cameras were set in place and many onlookers assembled to witness every step of the transfer—and its tragic miscarriage.

It was an outrageous breach of police responsibility—no matter what the demands of reporters and cameramen may have been—to move Oswald in public under circumstances in which he could so easily have been the victim of attack. The police had even warned hospital officials to stand by against the possibility of an attempt on Oswald's life.

Now there can never be a trial that will determine Oswald's guilt or innocence by the standards of impartial justice that are one of the proudest adornments of our democracy. Whatever judgment is made will fall short of the tests John F. Kennedy himself would have demanded. "Our nation," he declared at the time he dispatched federal troops to the University of Mississippi to guard the legal rights of one Negro student a year ago, "is founded on the principle that observance of the law is the eternal safeguard of liberty and defiance of the law is the surest road to tyranny."

The best monument all Americans can build to his memory is the enshrinement of that principle in our day-to-day conduct. Hate and violence are the enemies of law, and never more so than when any of us decides to become his own dispenser of retribution in defiance of law.

We're All Victims

JOHN KENNEDY was an honest man, not so much as tinged with hypocrisy. He wanted to become President and he went about being elected with determination and enthusiasm. He relished the heavy burdens of the job. As we watched him work at it we often thought that, yes, the character and intelligence of a single man can come to grips with the senseless sprawl of history.

A murderer claims but one victim. An assassin claims us all. President Kennedy, in Dallas, was the target in the sights of his rifle. This nation—all of us—were targets too. An assassin's mindless crime seeks to kill a government—a nation—by killing its chief.

President Kennedy has died. Each of us bears a deep wound. There is no more to say now, for sorrow is by natural personal. Each of us will find his own way to live with it.

Elements of Blame

THE PRESS and the police must share the blame for the shooting of Lee Oswald. And in saying this, The Times Herald recognizes the fact that its reporters and photographers were present, eager to cover the event of the moving of the accused assassin of President Kennedy.

The press has certain privileges because it represents the eyes and ears of everyone. Sometimes it should be allowed where others are shut out. But it must recognize those times when press freedom endangers a greater public responsibility. Such an occasion as the movement of the President's assassin was one of those times when police officials would have been justified in excluding the press or any other non-officially connected person, complaints notwithstanding. It could well have been accomplished, even had the press been present, with secrecy or with a pool arrangement or through some other means which restricted the number of those on the scene.

Here we sympathize with the intentions of Dallas police chief Jesse Curry. Chief Curry is rapidly becoming the national scapegoat for the miscalculation which allowed the killing of Oswald to happen. (Note the New York Times editorial reproduced on this page.)

Chief Curry has been a good chief for the Dallas Police Department, a dedicated, able career man. He is still a good chief. His actions Sunday were almost certainly motivated by the best of intentions. He has shown the greatest consideration for the press in his previous years, he was attempting to accommodate the press in announcing the time of Oswald's transfer. This time his consideration reached a tragic extreme.

Of course there is also the thought that the members of the police force guarding Oswald were themselves at fault in overlooking the possibility of disaster in the person of Jack Ruby. Ruby was well known to most Dallas policemen in the station, he had been a frequenter of the station for years and he was much in evidence from the time Oswald was arrested and taken there to jail. If he was present also at the transfer of Oswald and was allowed, or tolerated, without any official reason except prior recognition and a feeling that "we know him," then the blame is heavy upon those officers.

These are elements of blame which both the press and the police must recognize and, in the future, take into consideration.

The lesson came hard.

NANCY ELAINE PERRIN was given polygraph examination, 12/5/63, Oakland, California, by SA DAVID E. TODD, with SA WILLIAM N. KIDWELL, JR. present. PERRIN, who is a white female 27 years of age, stated she attempted suicide in 1956, following which she voluntarily committed self to psychiatric ward at North Hampton State Hospital, Massachusetts. She claimed to have been discharged after ten days' observation. PERRIN has suffered from chorea (St. Vitus Dance) since age of eight and is extremely nervous type individual. She stated she is currently under physician's care for low blood pressure, taking methedrine, and had taken ten milligrams on date of polygraph examination.

Results of examination were inconclusive due to the past medical history, emotional instability and use of drugs by PERRIN prior to examination, but examiner was of the opinion she suffers delusions of grandeur and that her story concerning the meetings regarding arms for Cuba is untrue. These conclusions were based upon the emotional responses on the polygraph and upon discrepancies in her story.

PCI further advised that within a day or two after CUSUMANO returned to St. Louis following his trip to Dallas that he met with CUSUMANO and learned from CUSUMANO that CUSUMANO and all of the other individuals mentioned above had been arrested at a motel in Dallas, Texas, by the Dallas Police Department shortly after CUSUMANO had arrived in Dallas. PCI stated at least one conversation with CUSUMANO immediately following CUSUMANO's return to St. Louis from Dallas was at CUSUMANO's residence on Nina Place in St. Louis and that JOE SIMON and his girl friend NANCY were also present. PCI recalled the name EDDIE MARX being mentioned by CUSUMANO and SIMON and that CUSUMANO and JOE SIMON were referring to each other in jest as "EDDIE." In this regard PCI explained that he knows CUSUMANO has had the habit of longstanding of using the name of an actual person that he knows when some reason exists for CUSUMANO to use a phony name. He further stated that he had learned from conversations with CUSUMANO prior to CUSUMANO's going to Dallas, Texas, that CUSUMANO was then acquainted with one EDDIE MARX who was actually residing in St. Louis at that time. PCI stated, however, that he personally is not acquainted with EDDIE MARX and has never seen him to his knowledge.

PCI claimed that he has no knowledge that the name EDDIE MARK or MARX might have been used by any of the above individuals in Dallas, Texas, and that during his contact with CUSUMANO and JOE SIMON immediately following their return to St. Louis from Dallas, he heard no comments made regarding JACK RUBY or their handling guns for Cuba.

PCI further advised that he does not know the current whereabouts of JOE SIMON or JAMES EGGERT. He stated, however, that he is aware that CUSUMANO is currently incarcerated at the Missouri State Penitentiary, Jefferson City, Missouri.

Regarding JOE SIMON, PCI stated that JOE SIMON is an individual easily remembered in view of his personality and his good looks and is generally regarded by those who know him as a "ladies' man".

Synopsis: DOLORES RHOADS and husband, RICHARD, visited aunt and uncle, MARY LOU and JAMES WOODARD, at Islamorada, Florida, about June 1958. Mr. and Mrs. RHOADS spent one night in motel operated by "JACK and ISABEL" (LNU). RICHARD RHOADS and JAMES WOODARD "got drunk one night" and WOODARD said he and "JACK" would "run" some guns to Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. RHOADS were accompanied to Florida by mother of DOLORES RHOADS, MARY THOMPSON, who saw RUBY's picture on television and thought same resembled "JACK" (LNU), who was in Islamorada, Florida, about June 1958. DOLORES THOMPSON (now divorced from RHOADS) unable to recall last name of "JACK" but stated it was not RUBY. Efforts to locate JAMES WOODARD unsuccessful; however, relatives describe him as irresponsible, unreliable and prone to make up stories. Relatives also describe MARY THOMPSON as prone to make up stories and "in need of psychiatric treatment".

NANCY ELAINE PERRIN, former employee of RUBY, claimed she and husband, ROBERT (deceased), attended three meetings in late 1961 at unknown apartment in Dallas, Texas, of group arranging to "run" guns to Cuba, and that RUBY attended two such meetings. Investigation failed to substantiate allegation of PERRIN, who admitted she attempted suicide in 1956, following which she voluntarily committed herself to psychiatric ward. Acquaintances describe PERRIN as "psychopathic liar".

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Mrs. MARY THOMPSON, 1165 Dupont, Kalamazoo, Michigan, advised as follows:

On About May 30, 1958, she traveled to Islamorada, Florida, accompanied by her daughter and son-in-law, DOLORES and RICHARD RHOADS. They visited her brother and sister-in-law, JAMES and MARY LOU "BUTCH" WOODARD, who resided in a cottage, address not known, which was located behind the cottage of TED WILLIAMS, well-known professional baseball player. While there, they met JACK and ISABEL (last name unknown), acquaintances of the WOODARDs. There was not sufficient room in the WOODARD cottage and JACK and ISABEL suggested that DOLORES and RICHARD spend the night at their home. The offer was accepted and it was determined that JACK and ISABEL lived in a small motel situated on a white coral pier, which was reached by crossing an old bridge.

On the following day, MARY LOU WOODARD told Mrs. THOMPSON that she better get DOLORES out of JACK's house, because JACK might try to rape her. MARY LOU said that JACK was originally from Chicago, Illinois, and reportedly had killed a couple of men. He later ran a drinking place in Dallas, Texas, where he became acquainted with JAMES WOODARD, who was a member of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department for a short time about 1954. There had been a knifing in JACK's place and Mrs. THOMPSON obtained the impression that this knifing occurred only a short time prior to her visit in Florida. MARY LOU indicated that JACK and ISABEL had been in Florida a short time only and she said that JACK and ISABEL were not married. She said that JACK's real first name was LEON, but he always went by the name of JACK.

MARY LOU said that JACK had a truck full of guns and inferred that JACK was going to smuggle them to the Cubans. Mrs. THOMPSON stated that she got the impression that these were supplies of guns hidden in the marshes that were being collected by the Indians in the area to be sold to the Cubans. This was at the time of the revolution in Cuba.

Mrs. THOMPSON stated that JACK appeared to be hiding from something and she saw him only at night. ISABEL claims that she had her furs stored in the trunk of her car.

Mrs. THOMPSON stayed at Islamorada one week only and she persuaded Mr. and Mrs. WOODARD to leave Islamorada on the same day that she left that area. She has not seen JACK or ISABEL since that time.

Mrs. THOMPSON observed JACK RUBY's photograph on television on Sunday, November 24, 1963, and she believes that RUBY is identical with the JACK (last name unknown) she observed at Islamorada, Florida, in 1958.

Mrs. THOMPSON advised that JAMES WOODARD is divorced from MARY LOU and his present whereabouts is not known to Mrs. THOMPSON, but can be determined from his sister, Mrs. CUBERT (NORA) VOILES, 2112 Needham Drive, Knoxville, Tennessee. DOLORES THOMPSON's marriage to RICHARD RHOADS was annulled in the summer of 1958 and RICHARD RHOADS' whereabouts is not known to Mrs. THOMPSON.

Mrs. THOMPSON described JACK (last name unknown) as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	35
Height	5'9"
Weight	175 - 180 pounds
Build	Stocky
Complexion	Ruddy, rough
Hair	Full head of dark brown hair, graying slightly at the temples
Nationality	Appeared to be Irish
Characteristic	Very nervous

Mrs. THOMPSON described ISABEL (last name unknown) as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Female
Age	35 - 40
Height	5'7"
Hair	Blond, graying
Weight	155 pounds
Build	Stocky
Characteristics	Wore glasses, cheaply dressed.

Mrs. MARY THOMPSON stated that JACK was driving a gray car, bearing Texas license plates.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 3, 1963

Miss DOLORES THOMPSON, 218 East Walnut, Apartment 2, Kalamazoo, Michigan, advised as follows:

DOLORES and her husband, RICHARD RHOADS, accompanied her mother to Islamorada, Florida, on about June 1, 1958, to visit her aunt and uncle, MARY LOU and JAMES WOODARD, who lived on a court, which was directly behind the cottage of TED WILLIAMS, well known professional ballplayer.

DOLORES and RICHARD spent the first night in a small two-unit motel operated by JACK and ISABEL (last name unknown), who were acquaintances of JAMES WOODARD. DOLORES was told that JACK and ISABEL were originally from Chicago, Illinois, and she was led to believe that he was part of the "syndicate". JAMES WOODARD had previously known JACK in Texas and JACK and ISABEL had been in Islamorada, Florida, for two weeks only. JACK and ISABEL definitely appeared to be in hiding. They appeared to be accustomed to a higher standard of living than that which they had at that time and she recalled that JACK had an expensive ring, containing diamonds, on one of his little fingers and his hands appeared to be soft and not to have been used in manual labor.

RICHARD RHOADS and JAMES WOODARD got drunk one night and WOODARD said that he and JACK would run some guns to Cuba. JAMES WOODARD had a shotgun, a rifle and possibly one hand gun. He said that JACK had a lot more guns than he did. DOLORES stated that she did not see any guns in JACK's possession. She stated that he had several boxes and trunks in his garage and ISABEL claimed they contained her furs, which had been ruined by mold, due to the high humidity in the area.

DOLORES stated that JACK and ISABEL lived about a mile from the WOODARDS. Their motel was of white stucco, on a white coral pier. She has not seen JACK or ISABEL since leaving Islamorada, Florida, in June, 1958.

DOLORES THOMPSON stated that the AP photograph of JACK RUBY, which appeared in the November 25, 1963, issue of the "Kalamazoo Gazette", daily newspaper, resembles JACK (last name unknown), she met in Islamorada, Florida, in June, 1958, except JACK had a full head of dark wavy hair and dark complexioned. DOLORES cannot recall JACK's last name, but said it was not RUBY.

The San Antonio Office has advised that Sheriff CONRADO HEIN, Zapata, Texas, has advised JAMES WOODARD has not been in Zapata; that he has an outstanding warrant for WOODARD's arrest.

On December 5, 1963, WALLACE SHANLEY, Assistant Customs Enforcement Supervisor, Miami, Florida, advised SA ROBERT K. LEWIS that JAMES E. WOODARD is well known to his office but his present whereabouts is not known.

On December 3, 1963, PAUL A. WOODARD, 732 Altura Court, Pomona, California, advised SA WILLIAM LEE SCRUGGS that he is a brother of JAMES WOODARD, but has not seen him since 1953 or 1954. He stated "JAMES is such a liar" that he does not believe anything he says and that "JAMES would lie when the truth would suit him better."

LOUIS ROUS, #16 Ideal Motel, Tampa, Florida, advised SAs ONNIE K. WALKER and LIONEL E. BELLANGER, he is the uncle of JAMES WOODARD, that he knows nothing of WOODARD's activities or any connection of WOODARD with Cuban matters. He stated he considers WOODARD a "drifter and irresponsible," and that WOODARD is known as a "black sheep of his mother's family" and an "inveterate liar and gross exaggerator.

CARL C. WOODARD, 243 North Snow Prairie Road, Route #5, Coldwater, Michigan, advised SAs JAMES F. CAMPBELL and CLARE F. CARTER on December 4, 1963, he has not seen his brother, JAMES E. WOODARD, in some 10 years since JAMES stole his car and machine tools. He pointed out he has a strong "enmity" for his brother and would attack him on sight. He said he had never known JAMES WOODARD to reside in Dallas, Texas, and he has never heard JAMES had ever worked as a policeman.

Files of the Knoxville Office reflect JAMES WOODARD, FBI # 255 317 A, has been the subject of previous FBI investigation. An official of the U. S. Customs, Miami, Florida, stated WOODARD should be considered armed and dangerous as he carries a weapon and has a violent temper with drinking.

When interviewed by Special Agents of the Knoxville Office in September, 1963, WOODARD in a somewhat rambling and incoherent manner, alleged he had participated in an invasion of Cuba prior to the CASTRO regime; that he had participated in the Bay of Pigs invasion and has furnished ammunition and dynamite to both CASTRO and Cuban exile forces.

On October 8, 1963, WOODARD was questioned concerning certain dynamite found at his residence in South Dade County, Florida, which dynamite had been stolen from a construction company. He claimed such dynamite was stored at his residence by Cubans to be used by Cuban exile forces against the CASTRO regime.

ED ROUSE, 21[illegible] Woodlawn Avenue, advised he is the brother-in-law of JAMES HOWARD. He stated he last saw JAMES on the afternoon of November 25, 19[illegible], at which time JAMES stated he was moving to Mascot, Tennessee, that date as he had a job in the mine. ROUSE stated he has no idea of JAMES' present whereabouts and stated that JAMES has told so many lies in the past that he was probably lying when he said he had a job at Mascot, Tennessee.

Mr. ROUSE stated he has been acquainted with his wife's sister, MAPI THOMPSON, Kalamazoo, Michigan, for many years. He stated she often makes up stories and that he "Wouldn't believe her on a stack of Bibles".

Mr. ROUSE stated that JAMES HOWARD is a ne'er-do-well who constantly wanders around the country and never lives any where for very long. He stated there was no way to tell where JAMES might have gone on November 25, 1963, but expressed the opinion that JAMES would probably contact some of his relatives in the near future for a handout.

Mrs. ED (WILLA MAE) ROUSE, 2111 Woodbine Avenue, advised she is the sister of JAMES WOODARD and of Mrs. MARY THOMPSON, Kalamazoo, Michigan. She stated she had last seen JAMES on the afternoon of November 25, 1963, at Knoxville, Tennessee, at which time he stated he was moving from Knoxville to Mascot, Tennessee, that day since he had a job in the mine at Mascot. Mrs. ROUSE stated that JAMES was prone to make up stories about almost anything and stated she had no information as to whether or not he actually had a job at Mascot. She stated none of JAMES' relatives at Knoxville had heard anything from him since November 25, 1963, when he moved from the furnished house he was renting at 5302 Marguerite, Knoxville, and stated she had no idea of his present whereabouts.

Mrs. ROUSE stated that her sister, Mrs. MARY THOMPSON, Kalamazoo, Michigan, is, in her opinion, unreliable and is prone to make up stories. She stated she has felt for some years that Mrs. THOMPSON is in need of psychiatric treatment.

Mrs. ROUSE stated that on Sunday, November 24, 1963, JAMES watched television with her while the re-runs of the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD were being shown. She stated that she knew JAMES had spent considerable time in Texas in the past so she asked him if he had ever met OSWALD or JACK RUBY and JAMES stated he had not met either of them. Mrs. ROUSE stated that JAMES likes to be the center of attention and stated she was convinced that if JAMES had ever met OSWALD or RUBY he would have claimed he had known them.

NANCY ELAINE PERRIN, 6 Harder Road, Hayward, California, also known as Julie Ann Cody, Mrs. Robert Perrin, was interviewed and advised she worked for RUBY in his night club, Carousel, as a bartender and waitress in July - August, 1961. Following her discharge from RUBY's club in 1961, PERRIN claims she and her husband ROBERT (deceased) attended four meetings at an unknown apartment in Dallas of a group arranging to run guns to CASTRO in Cuba. PERRIN states RUBY was present at three of these meetings. PERRIN stated a United States Army Colonel (name not remembered) was in charge of meetings where they discussed Enfield rifles from Mexico and sending them by plane and boat to Cuba. PERRIN said she made her husband pull out of the operation and does not know if any guns were ever received or run to Cuba.

PERRIN states she could find the building where the meetings were held if she was in Dallas.

PERRIN stated that "BUDDY KING" was a Master of Ceremonies and comic entertainer in RUBY's club and a close friend of RUBY. PERRIN feels KING would know about RUBY's operations. PERRIN states she saw "syndicate men" from Chicago and St. Louis in RUBY's night club, and she entertained them as hostess and observed money payments made to RUBY. The only name PERRIN could remember was "EDDY MARK" from St. Louis.

PERRIN claims Dallas police officers frequented RUBY's club where he gave them free drinks. PERRIN states a CY VICTORSON, Dallas attorney, was retained by her in connection with an arrest for prostitution. PERRIN also states Detective PAUL RAYBURN, Dallas Police Department, Juvenile Division, was her boy friend whom she met at RUBY's club. PERRIN said RAYBURN would vouch for her.

PERRIN admits to call girl operations in New Orleans and Boston where she has arrest record for prostitution.

LEONARD SHIVES, father-in-law of JAMES WOODARD, was interviewed December 4, 1963, by SA LEOPOLDO E. ARMIJO and stated he does not know WOODARD's whereabouts since WOODARD departed Knoxville, Sunday, December 1, 1963. A woman called his home from Knoxville asking if WOODARD was there, stating she was WOODARD's neighbor and was concerned about their baby. Monday, December 2, 1963, SHIVES's son, SIDNEY, received a long distance collect call, however, SIDNEY was not home. Mr. SHIVES suspects this call was from WOODARD as he usually calls collect and talks to SIDNEY. SHIVES stated he does not know WOODARD's associates or his background and could not identify a photograph of JACK RUBY. WOODARD has been married to his, SHIVES's daughter, BONNIE, two years and SHIVES states that WOODARD was previously married, however, he does not know the name of his former wife. SHIVES is certain that WOODARD and BONNIE will call in the next few days and he will obtain their address and furnished it immediately.

NANCY ELAINE PERRIN was interviewed at the Oakland Resident Agency. She advised that she was born at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, September 9, 1936, under the name BARBARA JEAN ZELIMAN, but had been known as NANCY ELAINE MATHEWS since she had been adopted by a family named MATHEWS.

She stated she married CHARLES GLENN WILSON in 1953, whom she divorced in 1955. In 1956 she attempted suicide by swallowing a massive dose of asprin, after which she voluntarily committed herself to the Psychiatric Ward, North Hampton, Massachusetts, State Hospital, but was discharged after ten days observation. She stated she married LOUIS R. MUSACHIO in 1957, but separated from him after eight months inasmuch as he was confined during most of that period to the psychiatric wards of several Air Force hospitals. She stated she divorced MUSACHIO by Mexican divorce at Juarez, Mexico, in 1959 and married ROBERT PERRIN (now deceased) the next day at Juarez. From Juarez she and her husband moved to Colorado Springs and later to Denver, Colorado, arriving at Denver in approximately 1960. She stated at this time she began work as a prostitute.

During this period of time she met and acted as "hostess" for men who she described as belonging to the "Syndicate." By "Syndicate," she stated she meant the Italian "Mafia" organization headed by VITO GENOVESE of Italy and that she had learned this from entertaining these "Syndicate" men, one of whom she stated was known as "YOUNG PIGGY" MANCHESTER (PH). She described him as a "Syndicate" man from New York who was then hiding out in Denver. She said she did not know names of other "Syndicate" men she had entertained.

She said that in the latter part of 1960 she moved to Boston, Massachusetts, and later to New Hampshire, where she was employed lobbying for bills for the liquor industry and working with the Labor Committee of the New Hampshire State Legislature and she stated that it was her job to persuade legislators to vote for certain bills. She said at this time her husband, ROBERT, left her and that in looking for him she got information that he might have gone to Dallas, so she made a long distance telephone call from Boston to Dallas sometime in 1961 and that she spoke with Dallas Police Officer J. D. TIPPIT, the officer who was killed by OSWALD. She said that she then proceeded to Dallas by bus and after arriving in Dallas contacted the Police Department since she had only $4 in her pocket. She said she arrived in Dallas in May or June of 1961 and the officers that she contacted were PAUL RAYBURN of the Juvenile Bureau and a detective named HOUSE. She stated they obtained a place for her to live, the address of which she does not recall, but that it was near Highland Park and that she lived there about a month, later moving to Oak Street. Subsequently her husband was located in South Bend, Indiana, and he came to Dallas and they had a reconciliation.

She stated she did not recall specifically how she first came to work for JACK RUBY. At first she said she thought one of the Dallas police officers had got her the job and then stated she believes she had answered an advertisement in the newspapers, that she went to the Carousel Club one afternoon, that no one was there, but that she was told to return that evening, that she did come back and spoke to JACK RUBY and that he hired her as a bartender at the Carousel Club and that she started working there the same night behind the bar. She stated she served only beer and setups, but that some customers kept a bottle of liquor there and in some cases they had bottles for special friends.

She said she worked for RUBY for five weeks and denied that she engaged in prostitution at that time. She said she did not like RUBY and that he had treated her badly and that she quit the job after a quarrel and fight with RUBY. She said RUBY pushed her against the cash register and threatened to throw her down the stairs. She stated that he had a bad temper and that she had known that on several occasions he threw people bodily out of the club. She said after she left RUBY she worked for T. J. JEFFRIES as a hostess in his night club and dining room located outside the Dallas city limits for about six weeks. She said she also worked at a bar named the "Theater Lounge" and for a short time at a bar known as "Red's Place." She stated that she was forced to quit her job with T. J. JEFFRIES because she became ill with a kidney stone.

Sometime following the termination of her employment with RUBY, and she states she cannot be sure if it was while she was working for JEFFRIES or if it was while she was ill, that one "DICK C.," a bartender at the University Club, who was one of her contacts and would arrange prostitution dates for her, arranged for her and her husband to meet with an Army Colonel in connection with taking Cuban refugees from Cuba to Miami. She said that "DICK C." (she qualified by saying she was almost certain it was DICK C." and would almost swear to this) took her and her husband to meet this Colonel at his apartment, address unknown. She said the Colonel was in an Army uniform and that they went to his apartment to discuss this proposition. At this time it was proposed that her husband pilot a boat to Cuba and pick up Cuban refugees and return them to Miami. She thought it was an old Coast Guard cutter and that her husband was to receive $20,000 for this. She said she only vaguely recalled the Colonel. He was about 40 to 50 years old, short, and bald, but that she was confused in her mind as to his appearance and that she would not know him if she saw him again. She said that all that was settled at this meeting was that they indicated they were interested and agreed to attend the next meeting. She said during the conversation some reference was made to Enfield rifles, but that she was not clear at that time what this meant.

She reiterated that she was not working for RUBY at the time this meeting occurred.

With regard to the second meeting she said she could not recall when it occurred timewise, but was probably within the following ten days, that it was at the same place at about 7:30 p.m. or 8 p.m. She said she and her husband went and that about eight to twelve people were there and JACK RUBY walked in. Persons present, she said, were herself, her husband, "DICK C.," the Colonel, a big pugnacious person who looked like an ex-fighter named PETE, an elderly woman, and three or four others were there. She said at this meeting there was a discussion as to how to get the refugees into Miami, what bay in Cuba to pick them up at, and there was also mention of military equipment and

Enfield rifles which were going to be delivered to CASTRO. She said when she heard this she did not want any part of it, since she was loyal to the United States and opposed to communism, and at this point RUBY made a speech, banging on the table, getting red in the face, but she could not recall exactly what he said. She said she was under the impression that RUBY was furnishing the money but that it was not his money. She said that at this meeting she quarreled with RUBY over this point, but nevertheless agreed to attend one more meeting with regard to getting the refugees out of Cuba.

She said the third meeting happened about two days later and at this time only six or seven people were present; the Colonel, herself, her husband, the elderly woman, RUBY, and one or two persons who were not at the prior meeting. She said RUBY only stayed fifteen to twenty minutes. They discussed the fact that the Colonel had the rifles and military equipment and at that point she said she wanted nothing more to do with it and she and her husband left. She said she attended no more meetings and that she was dead sure she had been to only these three meetings.

She said that this third meeting happened about two days after an individual known as NICK, supposedly from Chicago, came into the Carousel Club, where she was working and contacted RUBY and that she had been caught by RUBY listening at the key-hole and that this was what caused the quarrel resulting in her discharge at the club. (This is in conflict with her prior statement that all meetings occurred after she resigned from the Carousel Club.)

She stated she knew nothing more concerning the plans for getting the arms to Cuba or the Cuban refugee matter.

She said that during her employment at the Carousel Club one day "PIGGY" MARCHESE, whom she had known in Denver, walked into the club to see RUBY. She described him as a big, fat, sloppy fellow. She said that during her association with him in Denver he had taught her how to deal and signal in card games and that while he was in Dallas he set up a card game at one of the "top" hotels on Commerce Street with two businessmen and another call girl named HELEN and that she was paid $800 for this and that the two businessmen lost substantial money. She said the agreement was that she get 15 per cent of the take. She said "PIGGY" MARCHESE remained in Dallas three to four days. She refused to name the two businessmen with whom she played cards, but said they were two Dallas executives, one a manufacturer of ready-to-wear and the other an executive of a steel manufacturing company. She also stated that "PIGGY" suggested that she leave Dallas and go to Las Vegas and obtain a job with LOU BRINDISI, a dealer at the Silver Slipper in Las Vegas, and she exhibited a calling card of BRINDISI.

She stated that while residing in Dallas she was arrested twice for prostitution, but the charges were reduced to vagrancy. She also stated she had been arrested in Denver in 1960 for carrying a concealed weapon and received a $25 fine, and in Boston, in 1960 or 1961, for prostitution, receiving a $200 fine.

She has previously furnished information concerning EDDY MARKS. She said he is the owner or the brother of the owner of the Little Nero Club, de Boliver, East St. Louis, and the owner of a race horse stable. She described him as a white, male, 40 years of age, 5'9", medium build, dark complexion, black hair and Italian appearance. She states she has no information concerning OSWALD, had never seen OSWALD or met him and never heard RUBY mention OSWALD. She also states that entertainer [redacted] knew RUBY, that she thinks KING had "something on RUBY," but she could not elaborate on this.

She claimed also acquaintance with Mrs. JACQUELINE KENNEDY prior to her marriage and claimed she knew and had danced with Senator EDWARD KENNEDY during his attendance at Harvard.

NANCY ELAINE PERRIN, 6 Harder Road, Hayward, California, upon reinterview, furnished signed statement as follows:

"December 3, 1963
Hayward, California

"I, NANCY ELAINE PERRIN, voluntarily furnish the following statement to RICHARD G. ALLEN and PHILIP NOTTINGHAM, who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I was born in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, on 9/9/36, as BARBARA JEAN ZIEDMAN and adopted at age 8 months by LAWRENCE MATHEWS and HELEN MATHEWS. I was known as NANCY ELAINE MATHEWS. I lived in Dallas in 1961 when I was married to ROBERT PERRIN. I worked in the Carousel for JACK RUBY as a waitress and bartender during July and possibly in August 1961. Sometime between August and November 1961 my husband ROBERT PERRIN came home and said how would you like to make some big money by attending a meeting tonight? I said sure. I am almost ninety-nine per cent sure that a contact of mine at the University Club that I can remember only as DICK; his last name begins C; his home phone was possibly TA 4-0856; DICK took my husband and me and another girl hustler for DICK, to this first meeting. It was a meeting for introduction purposes only. The next meeting just my husband and I went alone in our car. This meeting left no doubt about the purpose of the gathering; for the expressed reason of taking Enfield rifles to Cuba for CASTRO, hop over to another bar and bring back refugees to Florida. JACK RUBY attended this second meeting. The apartment the meeting was held in was owned by a Colonel or Lt/Col. either in the Army or Air Force. I do not remember his name. The apartment was located within the city and county of Dallas. It was a multiple two story building. I remember shrubbery at the entrance lighted by flood lights. It had a small rise or slope of land leading to the entrance. I do not remember the color. I only saw it at night. I feel certain I would know the apartment if I saw it.

"I, NANCY E. PERRIN, have read Page I, II and III of this statement and I do certify that to the best of my knowledge this is a true and correct statement.

"Signed NANCY E. PERRIN

In addition to the information contained in the above statement, PERRIN furnished two telephone numbers from her address book, which she said are numbers in Dallas. She cannot remember who they belong to and said they might be legitimate businessmen and have no connection with RUBY or they could be numbers of persons who could shed some light on RUBY's activities. These numbers are DI 8-1715 and TA 7-1226.

PERRIN said her deceased husband, ROBERT PERRIN, was also known as JACK STARR in his auto thrill show, "Jack Starr's Spills and Chills." He also worked for Sitton's Auto Center, 1620 East Main, Grand Prairie, Texas, telephone AN 2-1631, which NANCY PERRIN believes is an automobile business now.

NANCY PERRIN advised DICK, last name beginning with C, home phone TA 4-0856, is a bartender at the University Club on Commerce Street, Dallas. She said DICK C. was her contact in "call girl operation" and was the one who took her and her husband to the Cuban gunrunning meeting the first time, and DICK C was present at second meeting when RUBY also attended.

NANCY PERRIN, who also resided at 4903 Junius, Dallas, Texas, had a Dallas Public Library card, expiration date September 15, 1964, with reference P. T. RAYBURN, 6235 Saratoga, Dallas. RAYBURN is a Dallas police officer and has telephone number TA 7-6538. PERRIN said she also had lived on Live Oak in Dallas, exact address not now recalled.

Mr. CY VICTORSON, 3614 Channing, was interviewed at his office, Suite 330, Fidelity Union Tower, at which time he furnished the following information:

VICTORSON is an Attorney at Law and represented NANCY ELAINE PERRIN when she was arrested for vagrancy in August, 1961. VICTORSON did not know PERRIN on a social basis, but described her as being an habitual liar, who found it very difficult to tell the truth. PERRIN was continually telling wild tales concerning her exploits or concerning the exploits of others. These stories were so ridiculous that no one could possibly believe them.

VICTORSON, during the past several years, has represented JACK RUBY in several civil matters and, as his attorney, became quite well acquainted with RUBY, although he knew nothing concerning RUBY's personal life or political beliefs. VICTORSON felt RUBY was the type of person who had intents, likes and dislikes, and felt it possible that he could have shot OSWALD for patriotic reasons.

VICTORSON knows of RUBY having no Cuban connections, with the exception of his friendship with an American by the name of MC WILLY, who operated a gambling establishment in Havana, Cuba, prior to the time FIDEL CASTRO ran all the American gamblers out of Cuba. On one occasion during 1959 or 1960, RUBY made a trip to Cuba to visit MC WILLY.

VICTORSON knows of no U. S. Army Colonel or, for that matter, anyone connected with the U. S. Army who was associated with JACK RUBY in any manner.

PAUL T. RAYBURN, 6329 Saratoga Circle, was interviewed at the Dallas Police Department, at which time he furnished the following information:

RAYBURN is a detective on the Dallas Police Department presently assigned to the Juvenile Division. Sometime during the Summer of 1961, he became acquainted with NANCY ELAINE PERRIN who, at that time, was employed as a waitress at the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas. RAYBURN became well acquainted with PERRIN and knew her on a close personal basis. RAYBURN described PERRIN as being a "psychopathic liar," who got great delight out of telling wild tales. RAYBURN believed that PERRIN actually believed these stories herself after she had told them several times.

During RAYBURN's acquaintanceship with PERRIN, she was arrested by the Dallas Police Department as a suspected prostitute and charged with vagrancy. He has not seen nor heard from PERRIN for approximately eighteen months.

RAYBURN has known JACK RUBY for approximately ten years but knows nothing about his business or personal affairs. His only contact with RUBY has been periodic contacts at the Carousel Club, on the streets of Dallas, or at the Dallas Police Department, where RUBY was a frequent visitor. RAYBURN could furnish no information whatever indicating there was or had been any association between OSWALD and RUBY.

DAVE CHERRY, manager of the Music Box, 2538 Cedar Springs, telephone RI 1-1182, home telephone AD 1-0182, was interviewed regarding the statement furnished by NANCY ELANE PERRIN. CHERRY advised that DICK CHERRY, referred to in PERRIN's statement, was undoubtedly referring to him, CHERRY, as his former telephone number was TA 4-0856. NANCY PERRIN appeared at the University Club, 1415½ Commerce, on two occasions. The first time, PERRIN had several drinks and stated she was waiting for a friend who was a member of the club. PERRIN left without the friend and did not pay her bill. Several nights later PERRIN was at the club with her husband, ROBERT PERRIN (or PARREN), who was also known as ROBERT STARR, came to the club, had an argument with NANCY and took her from the club. As PERRIN was leaving the club, the manager of the club told NANCY and her husband that they were barred from the University Club and could not return. CHERRY advised that he would go by the Casba Club on McKinney Avenue after the University Club was closed and on numerous occasions saw NANCY at the club and believed she was hustling dates. CHERRY further advised he received a telephone call at the University Club from NANCY, date not recalled, and NANCY stated she was leaving for New Orleans, Louisiana, and was going to work for the Playboy Club there. CHERRY stated that he did not know anyone by the name of EDDIE MARK or MARX or PIGGY MARCHESE; neither did he know an Army colonel that was supposed to have been running guns into Cuba.

In reference to T. J. JEFFERIES, CHERRY stated that he was a Captain at the Century Room, Adolphus Hotel, and later worked in several private clubs in the Dallas area. JEFFERIES dropped several hot checks in the Dallas area and left town, and CHERRY could furnish no information as to his whereabouts.

CHERRY stated that he believed NANCY PERRIN to be mentally deranged and was incoherent in her speech. PERRIN is described as a white female, 25, 5 feet 5 inches, slender build, brown hair, wild eyed, partly crossed, and talked with a lisp.

Mrs. ANN BENSON, 4311 Ross Avenue, Dallas, telephone TA 7-1226, advised SA J. CALVIN RICE on December 17, 1963, that she does not know JACK RUBY, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, or NANCY ELAINE PERRIN. She stated she occasionally receives phone calls for one ANN BENSON, who apparently is a model, but she knows nothing about her.

Mrs. J. D. JOHNSON, 7314 Bennington, Dallas, advised SA J. CALVIN RICE on December 17, 1963, that she purchased the property at the above address from ANN BENSON and that her father is BEN BENSON, 6639 Joyce Way, Dallas, EM 1-7680..

Mrs. BEN BENSON, 6639 Joyce Way, Dallas, advised SA J. CALVIN RICE on December 17, 1963, that her daughter is now Mrs. GERALD CHARLES SEGAL, residing at 504 Pelham Road, Apartment D 6, New Rochelle, New York, telephone BE 5-5812. She stated she, Mrs. BEN BENSON, does not know JACK RUBY, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, or NANCY ELAINE PERRIN. She stated just after JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, her daughter, Mrs. SEGAL, called long distance and wanted to know what was going on in Dallas and stated she did not know JACK RUBY personally but through her former employment at the Century Room in the Adolphus Hotel, she knew that JACK RUBY was a "big bag of wind." Mrs. BEN BENSON stated she does not know if her daughter ANN BENSON, now Mrs. GERALD CHARLES SEGAL, knows NANCY ELAINE PERRIN.

Mr. LOUIS BRINDISI, 4301 El Conlon Way, Las Vegas, Nevada, advised that he knows nobody in the Denver area who uses the nickname "PIGGY" MARCHISI or MARCHESE. He said he knows of no one by the name of "Young" ANTHONY MARCHESE.

BRINDISI said that he attended high school in the 1940s with a man names RUDY MARCHESE, who, at that time, lived on Osage Street in Denver.

BRANDISI further advised that some time ago he was contacted by a MIKE MARCHESE who resides at 3926 Shoshone Street, Denver, Colorado. He said MIKE MARCHESE borrowed a small amount of money from him at that time. He said that neither of the above individuals were known as "Piggy" or "Young Anthony" insofar as he knows.

BRINDISI said that he has never heard of anyone known as NANCY ELAINE PERRIN.

BRINDISI said he is now employed as a "boxman" and dealer at the Silver Palace Casino, Las Vegas, and that he was formerly employed as a casino manager at the Silver Slipper Casino.

The following investigation was conducted in the area of St. Louis, Missouri, in an effort to identify EDDIE MARK, an alleged "syndicate man" from St. Louis.

Lieutenant FRED HURST, Intelligence Squad, St. Louis Police Department, St. Louis, Missouri, advised SA PATRICK W. BRADLEY on December 2, 1963, that EDDIE MARK was unknown to the Intelligence Squad. On December 3, 1963, Detective ROBERT WATTS, Intelligence Squad, St. Louis County Police Department, Clayton, Missouri, advised SA BRADLEY that EDDIE MARK was unknown to that squad.

From a review of directories for the City of St. Louis and St. Louis, County, Missouri, information was derived concerning the following persons named EDDIE MARK or similar names:

EDWARD R. MARK (wife VIRGINIA), 9336 White Avenue, Brentwood, Missouri, an electrician at Kiel Auditorium, St. Louis;

EDWARD MARK (wife Virginia), 1836 Russell, a stage hand at Kiel Auditorium, St. Louis;

EDWARD M. MARK, 9336 White Avenue, Brentwood, Missouri, a student;

EDWIN A. MARKS (wife CHARLOTTE L.), 11927 Barkman Drive, Creve Coeur, Missouri, an accountant with Massie, Fudemberg and Goldberg;

EDGAR H. MARKS (wife MABEL), 10327 Driver Avenue, Overland, Missouri, an employee of Chevrolet Motor Company;

EDDIE MARK (wife THELMA J.), 5052 Minerva Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri.

EDWARD RINEHART MARK, 9336 White Avenue, Brentwood, Missouri, advised SA HARRY C. JUNG, on December 3, 1963, that he has been employed as an electrician by the City of St. Louis at Kiel Auditorium in St. Louis for twelve years. He stated he is not acquainted with JACK RUBY and has not been in Dallas, Texas, since approximately eleven years ago when he passed through there on a motor trip. At the time of this interview it was ascertained that MARK is a white male; born September 20, 1916, at Webster Groves, Missouri; 6' 3½"; 225 pounds; brown eyes; brown hair. He said the only other EDDIE or EDWARD MARK he knows is his 21 year old son, EDWARD MICHAEL MARK, who has been in the U. S. Navy, stationed in San Diego, California, since September, 1963, and was previously a student at the Missouri School of Mines, Rolla, Missouri.

With regard to the EDWARD MARK, whose address was given as 1836 Russell, St. Louis, inquiry was made at that address on December 3, 1963, by SA GEORGE M. PEET, at which time Mrs. Z. H. MARKHAM, of that address, advised that she is related to EDWARD MARK, who was formerly of that address, but who now resides at 9336 White Avenue, Brentwood, Missouri.

EDWIN ALLEN MARKS, 11927 Barkman Drive, Creve Coeur, Missouri, advised SA JACK J. FISHER, on December 3, 1963, that he is an accountant employed by Massie, Fudemberg and Goldberg, 1015 Locust, St. Louis, Missouri. MARKS stated he has never been in Dallas, Texas, and does not know JACK LEON RUBY. It was ascertained at the time of this interview that MARKS was born in Buffalo, New York, is 32 years of age, 5' 6½", 124 pounds.

EDGAR HAROLD MARK, 10327 Driver Avenue, Overland, Missouri, was contacted on December 3, 1963, by SA JACK J. FISHER, and MARK advised he has been employed by the Chevrolet Motor Company, St. Louis, for the past fourteen years. He stated he was last in Dallas, Texas, in 1930, when he passed through that city, and that he does not know JACK L. RUBY or never heard of him uhtil recent news reports. It was ascertained at the time of this interview that EDGAR HAROLD MARK was born August 11, 1908, Kansas City, Missouri, is 6' 4", 205 pounds, has gray hair and brown eyes (wears glasses).

Inquiry regarding EDDIE MARK was made on December 3, 1963, at 5052 Minerva, St. Louis, Missouri, by SA GEORGE M. PEET, who contacted Mrs. EDDIE (THELMA) MARKS, residing at that address. Mrs. MARKS stated that she has been married to her husband for seven years, during which time they have resided in St. Louis, and during which time neither she nor her husband have ever been in Texas. Mrs. MARKS stated that her husband is employed by the Checker Cab Company, St. Louis. Mrs. MARKS, who is of the negro race, described her husband as being a negro male, 31 years of age, 5' 10½", 190 pounds, black hair, brown eyes, and a medium complexion.

A check of credit records at the Commercial Credit Rating Company, St. Louis, Missouri, on December 3, 1963, by IC MARION H. EBERT, disclosed a record of an additional person, EDWARD F. MARK, age 30 in 1961, wife MARY. The credit record showed this person's residence, as of October, 1961, at 4250 Lindell and previous residence at Jackson Heights, New York. His employer as of October, 1961, was shown as WILLIAM CARTER, no address shown.

On December 3, 1963, SA WALTER C. JOHNSON contacted Mrs. EVELYN BIGHAM, manager, Linwood Apartments, 4250 Lindell Boulevard, St. Louis, Missouri, who advised that her records show one EDWARD F. MARK rented a furnished apartment there from November 3, 1961, to November 10, 1961. Mrs. BIGHAM recalled that MARK was from New York City, or somewhere in the East, and was employed as a salesman for the WILLIAM CARTER Knitwear Company of St. Louis. She stated MARK returned to New York City after residing there very briefly, and she was later contacted by him with a request to send his clothing to 96 Chandlier, Arlington, Massachusetts.

Mr. ROBERT L. WHITE, William Carter Knitwear Company, 915 Olive Street, St. Louis, Missouri, advised SA WALTER C. JOHNSON, on December 3, 1963, that EDWARD F. MARK, who was personally known to WHITE, had been hired by this company in New York City as a sales trainee and was sent to St. Louis for a period of only two weeks, following which he was called back to company headquarters in New York City for a sales meeting in November, 1961, and after which MARK terminated his employment with the company without returning to St. Louis. WHITE stated his records indicate MARK was originally from Arlington, Massachusetts, and was in the St. Louis area for only two weeks time. The last known address for MARK was 96 Chandler, Arlington 74, Massachusetts.

A check of arrest records of the St. Louis Police Department, St. Louis, Missouri, on December 3, 1963, by IC MARION H. EBERT, disclosed a record for one EDWARD MARKS, a white male, age 26 in 1939, whose address was given as 4718 St. Louis Avenue in 1939. The records showed that the most recent arrest of this person was on January 5, 1939, for gambling, and that he was discharged. The record included other arrests for gambling, all prior to 1939, and the charge was dismissed in each instance.

On December 3, 1963, SA WALTER C. JOHNSON contacted Mrs. J. L. MALONE, 4718 St. Louis Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri, who advised she purchased the property at this address twelve years ago, and no one by the name of EDWARD MARK has resided there since she purchased the property. Mrs. MALONE stated that when she bought this property there were only a few people of the white race in the neighborhood, but no people of the white race have resided in the neighborhood for several years.

AT ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI:

Polk's "St. Louis City Directory" for 1963 lists no Little Nero Club or Little Reno Club in St. Louis, Missouri. Polk's "St. Louis City Directory" for 1961 lists no Little Nero Club but lists a Little Reno Cocktail Lounge (WILLIAM C. SCHULTE), 329 DeBaliviere Avenue. The 1961 directory also lists WILLIAM SCHULTE, (wife JANE), 6014 Schulte Avenue, operator of the Little Reno Cocktail Lounge. The 1963 city directory lists WILLIAM C. SCHULTE (wife JANE C.) at 5751a Westminster Place and shows him to be a sales representative for Missouri Musical Instrument Distributors.

Records of the Commercial Credit Rating Company, checked on December 6, 1963, by IC MARION H. EBERT, disclosed a record of one WILLIAM C. SCHULTE, wife JANE, whose addresses were listed as follows:

4418a Clarence, September, 1954;
5512 Maffitt, January, 1956;
6014 Schulte, May, 1961;
5016 Washington, September, 1961.

SCHULTE's employments were shown as follows in the credit record:

Laclede Cab Company, September, 1954;
Club Burley, musician, January, 1960;
Little Nero Club, owner, September, 1961.

The credit records showed that SCHULTE was sued October 25, 1962, by WILLIAM S. and JEWEL GARNER for rent, $85.00, and was sued in June, 1962, by RICHARD and GLORIA WILLIAMS for $185.00.

Records of Dun and Bradstreet, checked on December 6, 1963, by IC EBERT, disclosed a record of Little Nero Cocktail Lounge, 329 DeBaliviere, St. Louis, Missouri, which in August, 1961, was shown to have been owned by WILLIAM SCHULTE. A credit report dated June 15, 1961, showed an estimate as to the cost of merchandise in the amount of $1,200.00 and an estimate as to the cost of fixtures and equipment in the amount of $7,000.00. This latter report indicated that this club featured entertainment on certain nights of the week; that the operation was formerly known as Little Reno and was owned by a Mrs. PATRICIA NOVACK.

Mr. JOHN QUINN, Excise Commissioner for the City of St. Louis, advised SA EDWARD M. MORELAND on December 6, 1963, that a check by him of the indices of liquor licenses issued in the City of St. Louis showed no record of any person named EDDIE MARK, MARKS, or MARX. With regard to the Little Nero Club, 329 DeValiviere Avenue, Mr. QUINN advised that the licensee there was WILLIAM C. SCHULTE from March 1, 1961, to August 31, 1962. SCHULTE was described in the record as a white male, born September 22, 1926, in Missouri, and residing at 6016 Washington Avenue. Mr. QUINN advised that the liquor license at this address had previously been held by a PATRICIA NOVACK, who operated in the name of the Little Reno Club, but the name was changed to Little Nero by SCHULTE. Mr. QUINN also advised that the present licensee at 329 DeBaliviere is Mrs. GRACE PICCIONE, 6951 Delmar, who is also the owner and operator of the Apollo Theater on DeBaliviere Avenue.

A check of the records of the St. Louis Police Department on December 6, 1963, by IC MARION H. EBERT disclosed a record of one WILLIAM CHESTER SCHULTE who was born September 22, 1926, at St. Louis, Missouri, and whose address as of 1962 was 6016 Washington Avenue. The arrest record of this person included the following:

April 20, 1962 - Suspicion of re-filling a whiskey bottle - $200.00 and costs;

July 5, 1962 - Fugitive, St. Louis County, bogus checks - delivered;

October 11, 1961 - Peace disturbance - $150.00 and costs;

The record also included 25 traffic charges against SCHULTE.

On December 7, 1963, SA ALBERT J. RUSHING, JR., contacted Mr. ANGELO CARITONI, Missouri Musical Instrument Distributors, Inc., 5837 Chippewa, who advised that WILLIAM C. SCHULTE was formerly employed as a salesman by this firm, and his last known residence address was 3513 West Place.

Mrs. GRACE PICCIONE, nee VIVIANO, 6951 Delmar, University City, St. Louis County, Missouri, advised that she is the owner and operator of the Apollo Art Theater, 327 DeBaliviere Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri. She advised that she also owns other business property on DeBaliviere Avenue, including the premises at 329 DeBaliviere Avenue. She recalled that she leased the premises at 329 DeBaliviere Avenue to WILLIAM C. SCHULTE from 1960 to 1962, and that SCHULTE owned and operated the Little Nero Cocktail Lounge at that address during that period of time.

Mrs. PICCIONE recalled that prior to leasing the premises to SCHULTE, she had leased the premises at 329 DeBaliviere Avenue to HERMAN NOVACK, who owned and operated the Little Reno Club at that address. SCHULTE changed the name to the Little Nero Club when he commenced operation of his business there. At the present time, Mrs. PICCIONE advised she, herself, operates a small lounge known as Flicks and Pub at 329 DeBaliviere Avenue, and that she operates this as an adjunct to the Apollo Art Theater and primarily for the convenience and use of the clientele who patronize the Apollo Art Theater.

Mrs. PICCIONE stated she could not recall ever having known or heard of a person named EDDIE MARK or MARKS, and had no information to the effect that such a person had ever had any connection with the Little Nero Club. She said that she, herself, has two brothers, PETER VIVIANO, a St. Louis attorney, and FRANK VIVIANO, a St. Louis realtor.

Mrs. JANE CAROLYN SCHULTE, nee FUCHS, also known as Mrs. WILLIAM CHESTER SCHULTE, 3513 West Place, St. Louis County, Missouri, advised that her husband SCHULTE owned and operated the Little Nero Club at 329 DeBaliviere Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri, from March, 1961 until about July 1, 1962. Mrs. SCHULTE advised that her husband has no brothers or sisters and never to her knowledge had any interest in any race horse stable. Mrs. SCHULTE stated that she, herself, participated actively with her husband in the operation of the Little Nero Club and that no one else had any financial interest in the club or participated in its management and operation.

Mrs. SCHULTE stated that she could think of no one who she had ever known or of whom she had ever heard using the name EDDIE MARK or MARKS. She also stated that so far as she could recall she never knew or heard of any person named NANCY ELAINE PERRIN.

WILLIAM CHESTER SCHULTE, 3513 West Place, St. Louis County, Missouri, furnished the following information:

SCHULTE has never been known by any other name. He is basically a musician by trade, being a drummer, but has often been unable to obtain employment in that profession or make a satisfactory living from it and has, therefore, engaged in other occupations from time to time. From March, 1961, to July 1, 1962, SCHULTE was the owner and operator of the Little Nero Club, a cocktail lounge located at 329 DeBaliviere Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri. He leased the premises at this address from Mrs. GRACE PICCIONE, who also owns and operates the Apollo Art Theater at 327 DeBaliviere Avenue, and who owns also other business property in the same block.

The premises at 329 DeBaliviere Avenue had, some months prior to the leasing of these premises by SCHULTE, been leased by HERMAN NOVACK who operated a cocktail lounge there known as the Little Reno Club. SCHULTE changed the name to the Little Nero Club after he commenced the operation. He actually leased the premises from Mrs. PICCIONE beginning in about December, 1960, but did not commence his business operation until about March, 1961, when the premises had been re-decorated. The business was terminated by SCHULTE at the end of June or about July 1, 1962, because he went broke in the business. SCHULTE had no associates other than his wife in the ownership and operation of the Little Nero Club.

SCHULTE has never had any brothers or sisters and has never had any interest, direct or indirect, in any race horse stable. During the time SCHULTE operated the Little Nero Club, he also was employed a portion of the time as a drummer at the Tic Toc Club on DeBaliviere Avenue. For some months after SCHULTE discontinued the business as the Little Nero Club, the premises remained closed until Mrs. GRACE PICCIONE, the owner of the premises, re-opened it as a lounge under the name Flicks and Pub under which name it is currently being operated.

SCHULTE stated he has never known of anyone using the name EDDIE MARK or MARKS. He stated he has never been in Dallas, Texas, in his life. He was shown a photograph of JACK LEON RUBY and stated he has never been acquainted or had any contact with RUBY, to his knowledge. He stated he cannot recall that he has ever known or heard of a person named NANCY ELAINE PERRIN.

SCHULTE at the present time owns and operates a tow truck and obtains towing business at various repair shops, service stations, and automobile dealers in the St. Louis area. In addition, he plays the drums at night at the Stardust Club located on DeBaliviere Avenue in St. Louis. He resides with his wife and two children. SCHULTE stated that he has been arrested on various occasions for traffic violations, and that he has not otherwise been convicted of any offense except in 1962 when he was placed on two years probation by the United States District Court, St. Louis, on a charge which involved the re-filling of a liquor bottle by SCHULTE at the Little Nero Club. SCHULTE stated that he is on Federal probation at the present time in connection with that charge.

At the time of this interview with SCHULTE, it was ascertained that he is a white male, born September 22, 1926, at St. Louis, Missouri, 5' 6", 140 pounds, medium complexion, dark brown, graying hair, brown eyes, wears glasses; parents ELMER and MARIE SCHULTE, nee Doyle, both deceased.

Mr. ROBERT LENZINI, U. S. Probation Officer, St. Louis, Missouri, advised that WILLIAM CHESTER SCHULTE, Federal Bureau of Investigation Number 156147E, is under Mr. LENZINI's supervision as the result of SCHULTE having been placed on probation on September 21, 1962 by the U. S. District Court, St. Louis, Missouri.

Mr. LENZINI explained that on September 21, 1962, on a plea of guilty, SCHULTE was sentenced by the U. S. District Court to pay $100.00 fine and costs on Count 1, and to pay $100.00 fine and costs and to serve two years on probation on Count 2 of an indictment which charged violation of alcohol tax laws. The first count of the indictment involved the alleged refilling by SCHULTE of a liquor bottle and the second count involved the alleged purchase by SCHULTE from a retail establishment of a bottle of liquor for the purpose of resale of same. The violations in these two counts were alleged to have occurred in April, 1962, in connection with SCHULTE's operation at that time of a cocktail lounge known as the Little Nero Club.

Mr. LENZINI advised that the file of the U. S. Probation Office reflects that SCHULTE operated a small bar known as the Little Nero Club from March 8, 1960 to June 30, 1962 when SCHULTE went broke. The probation file reflects that SCHULTE was born in St. Louis, Missouri, and was an only child; that St. Louis has always been his home. Mr. LENZINI advised that the probation file pertaining to SCHULTE makes no reference of any kind to any person named EDDIE MARK or MARKS and that the file reflects no associations or connections of SCHULTE in Dallas, Texas. Mr. LENZINI described SCHULTE's probation record as being generally satisfactory.

HENRY LEM BROTHERTON, 4318 Kushla, Dallas, Texas, who is employed as a public relations specialist, Hexter Title and Abstract Company, advised SAS JAMES E. GARRIS and JOHN E. DALLMAN when interviewed on 12/14/63, that he was a Special Agent of the FBI during the years 1950-1953.

On December 16, 1963, ALLAN MADDOX, Postal Inspector's Office, 207 South Houston Street, Dallas, Texas, advised SA JOHN E. DALLMAN that he was unable to locate any forwarding address for NORWOOD BALLOW at the following addresses:

(1) 4926 West Lover's Lane;

(2) 6727 Robin;

(3) 4568 Roland.

On 11/25/63, Mrs. EVA [illegible] GRANT, Dallas, Texas, sister of JACK LEON RUBY furnished information concerning RUBY's reaction to the newspaper advertisement sponsored by BERNARD WEISMANN re President KENNEDY. She also advised that on Saturday, 11/23/63, RUBY "bummed around with" a LARRY (LNU) and during that morning he and LARRY drove out to the North Central Expressway in Dallas where there was a large billboard sign to the effect, "Impeach EARL WARREN," or some similar phraseology. She stated this sign had been situated there for some period of time and that it had constantly bothered and annoyed RUBY.

During the search of RUBY's personal effects after his arrest, a piece of paper with the notation "BOX 1756" was located. ORGANIZATION

On 12/14/63, JOHN CROWSEN, Postal Inspector's Office, U. S. Post Office Department, Dallas, Texas, confidentially advised that Box 1757 was listed to the Texas Committee to Impeach EARL WARREN. He advised this box was rented on 1/16/61 by MARY ELLEN SHIELDS, 8701 Hillcrest Road, Dallas, Texas.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOSEPH M. MYERS on December 11, 1963, at Fort Worth, Texas:

RICHARD B. WALKER, Attorney, Room 1707, First National Bank Building, advised that he would not mind furnishing information concerning why RUBY called him, [redacted]. WALKER stated that he had a close friend (female), whom he did not wish to identify, who got pregnant a couple months ago by an unknown jet pilot. WALKER stated that he wanted to help this girl out of her trouble and while it was not against his moral principles, it might be technically a violation of the state law to help secure an abortion for the girl. This, he stated, was his reason for reluctance in discussing the matter. He stated that he has a friend, ROBERT KAPLAN, who is employed by Dr. DANIEL GEVINSON, at the 21 Square, Turtle Creek Drive, Dallas, and who lives at the Westchester House, 554 South Summit, Fort Worth, and WALKER called KAPLAN regarding finding someone to assist the girl in the abortion. WALKER related that KAPLAN gave WALKER the name of JACK RUBY, owner of the Carousel Club in Dallas. WALKER stated that he either called RUBY or KAPLAN had RUBY call WALKER and RUBY told WALKER that he knew a girl, name not known now to WALKER, who had an abortion, and this girl could furnish the name of a nurse who would do the job.

TEXAS

WALKER stated that, in the meantime, the pregnant girl talked to a friend of hers who had married a doctor and there was some question about going through with the abortion.

WALKER stated that on a Sunday, about October 20, 1963, he drove the pregnant girl to Dallas to the apartment of the girl who was to contact the nurse. He stayed outside of this apartment and later, a short time later, the girl returned and said that the nurse could not be contacted by phone and she was to return in a couple of hours. WALKER stated that he did not remember the address of the woman in Dallas but it was near Marsalis Park and only about five or six blocks from where he understood JACK RUBY's apartment was located. WALKER stated that he had previously called RUBY prior to driving to Dallas and RUBY had invited him to come by his apartment for a drink, however, he and the pregnant girl did not go.

COVER PAGE

A couple of hours after the initial visit to the girl's apartment in Dallas, WALKER stated that his friend, the pregnant girl called her girl friend married to the doctor in Dallas and after a long phone conversation the pregnant girl got hysterical and he drove her back to Fort Worth. WALKER stated the abortion was not performed and subsequently, KAPLAN called WALKER wanting to know what happened. WALKER stated that he told KAPLAN that the girl did not want to go through with the abortion and he was not having anymore to do with it.

WALKER stated that he believes that KAPLAN might know RUBY through both of them being Jewish and both are bachelors. He did not know how closely associated RUBY and KAPLAN were.

WALKER stated that he did not know RUBY, personally, had never been to any of his clubs and that he estimated that he only talked to RUBY on three occasions on the phone. WALKER added that he did not know what connection RUBY had with the Dallas girl who had the abortion, whether she was a former employee or just how he knew her.

W. H. MILLER, manager, Gun Shop, Sporting Goods Department, Titche-Goettinger Company, Main and Elm Streets, advised the only record of guns purchased in 1951 is a ledger maintained by the Gun Shop. MILLER checked the ledger but there was no entry of a .38 Colt Snub Nose purchased anytime in 1951 or 1952 by anyone named ED or by anyone with a similar name or "E" initial.

MILLER advised there are several incomplete entries and one page missing from the 1951-52 ledger. He added that it is his understanding that during 1951-52 the employees in the Sporting Goods Department made entries in the ledger which was loosely kept at that time. MILLER was not here during 1951-52.

MILLER also advised that purchasers of firearms are not required to register them in the State of Texas.

Mr. MARVIN JONES, attorney, 1714 Life Building, Dallas, Texas, informed that on November 25, 1963, he had occasion to be at the Dallas County Sheriff's Department and while there talked to a Mr. (FNU) SHIELDS, a deputy sheriff who handles bonds for the sheriff's department.

Mr. JONES said that SHIELDS related that on November 24, 1963, at approximately 5:00 AM, the Dallas County Sheriff's Office either sent or offered to send a squad car to the Dallas Police Department for the purpose of transferring LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the city jail to the Dallas County Jail.

According to JONES, SHIELDS said that the police department was not ready to move OSWALD and refused the offer. JONES stated that SHIELDS alleged that Chief JESSE CURRY apparently did not want to move OSWALD because some arrangements had been made for television coverage.

O. HOWARD SHIELDS, Deputy Sheriff Dallas County Sheriff's Office residence, 3145 Nutting Drive, DALLAS, TEXAS furnished the following information:

He knows nothing regarding an offer of the Dallas County Sheriff's Office to move LEE HARVEY OSWALD at 5:00 AM, on November 24, 1963. He advised his duty hours on November 23 & 24, 1963, were from 8:30 AM to Noon, on the 23rd, and he was not working at all on the 24th. He advised Deputy Sheriff C. C. MC COY was on duty from midnight to 8:00 AM. on November 24, 1963.

He further advised that the general policy on the handling of felony prisoners is that the Constable Office handles the transportation of the prisoners to the County Jail from the City Jail.

He advised he had no information other than what he had read in the paper regarding an alleged offer by the Sheriff to move OSWALD from the City Jail to the County Jail.

WELCOME EUGENE BARNETT, Patrolman, Traffic Division, Police Department, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He is more commonly known as GENE BARNETT and resides at 6018 Merger, Dallas, TEXAS residence phone EV 1-0726. He has been a member of the Dallas Police Department since 1956 and for the first 2½ years was assigned to the Patrol Division. For the last four years he has directed traffic at the intersection of Commerce and Akard Streets in downtown Dallas. He first met JACK RUBY, while assigned to the Patrol Division during his training period at the Vegas Club in the Oak Lawn section of Dallas. He stated this was during the course of routine police checks of the club. He has never been in the Vegas Club while off duty. He worked for a period of about five months sometime after his training period in the same section and saw RUBY a number of times during that period. He was assigned to his downtown post before RUBY opened the Carousel Club and one month he would work the 7:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. shift and the next month the 3:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. shift. He checked the Carousel Club while working on the late shift about once a month as he did the Theater Lounge and the Colony Club. He would only stay in these establishments for a period of 5-10 minutes and would attempt to become familiar with the entertainers who appeared there. He did this so that he could answer questions people would ask him about what entertainment there was in the heart of downtown Dallas.

He has been to the Carousel Club while off duty on one occasion and he was with his wife at the time. He recalled that RUBY was in the club that night and did not let him pay for anything. He also recalled that RUBY would occasionally buy him a cup of coffee but he could recall no other favors he had received from him. He did recall that one Christmas a downtown liquor store owner gave him a pint of whiskey stating that one of the downtown club operators had paid for it. He felt that it was probably RUBY who had purchased the whiskey for him.

He never worked for JACK RUBY and knows of no police officer who has ever worked for RUBY. He never knew RUBY to carry a gun but figured that he did as do most of the business people on his beat.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

As concerns RUBY's personal life, he did not believe that he had any close friends. He could recall no specific romantic interests in RUBY's life and if RUBY loved anybody or anything it was his dogs. He volunteered the information that he had heard rumors that RUBY was a homosexual. He could recall no one who specifically mentioned this. He did recall, however, that RUBY would often walk with his entertainers past his intersection and introduce them to him. He always seemed to have an active interest in the women he was with and the men he saw RUBY with were always quite manly in appearance. He recalled that a stripper named JADA was the last girl that RUBY introduced him to. He pointed out that all of his contacts with RUBY or his friends that he met were at the intersection of Commerce and Akard with the exception of his above mentioned visits to the club.

As concerns RUBY's emotions, he recalled that he (RUBY) was so mad at JADA as a result of some difficulty he had with her that he said he felt he would have choked her if she was there at the time he was talking about it. RUBY was highly emotional whenever he discussed the articles concerning the club in the newspapers. He stated whenever an article or advertisement would appear in the papers RUBY would usually bring it to his attention when walking by the intersection. He stated RUBY was always trying to outdo the WEINSTEIN brothers who run the Theater Lounge and the Colony Club. He even said to him at one time in reference to that, that "I'm going to show those Jews." He also recalled that RUBY often made lewd comments concerning women.

He knows nothing concerning RUBY's background and he never discussed politics with him. He stated the conversations always seemed to center around RUBY's business. He has no idea of what RUBY's political convictions were or any organizations or groups he might have been affiliated with.

The last time he saw RUBY was on about November 20, 1963 or November 21, 1963, sometime between 9:30 and 10:00 p.m. He seemed to recall RUBY would walk by his intersection almost every day at one time or another for the past four years.

He stated he has not heard from or seen RUBY since that time. He advised that he has no idea as to why his name would be on the visitor's list at the county jail other than that RUBY likes policemen in general and saw the men who work the downtown intersections almost everyday.

He stated a BUCK NEWSOM told him on December 9, 1963 that JACK RUBY had sent him a postcard and told him to say hello to him and "CATFISH." He was referring to "CATFISH" HANSEN who works the intersection of Main and Akard Streets. NEWSOM said that RUBY wanted him to thank them for remembering him. This is apparently in reference to the fact that about a week after RUBY was arrested he saw the former bar tender at the Carousel Club and asked him how JACK was. This bar tender left the Carousel Club about six months ago and he believes he now works at the Vegas Club. He does not know his name. He stated he has no intention of visiting RUBY and stressed the fact that his relationship with him is strictly based on his downtown traffic assignment.

On November 22, 1963, at the time of the President's assassination he was part of the security detail at Elm and Houston Streets. He stated he had already been interviewed by Agents of the FBI concerning this inasmuch as he was at the sight of the assassination. He was not assigned to the security detail at the Central Police Headquarters on November 22, 1963 or November 23, 1963. He worked the downtown intersection of Commerce and Akard Streets on November 23, 1963, from 4:00 p.m. to 12 midnight. On Sunday, November 24, 1963, he did not work and at no time was at the Central Police Headquarters. He had no knowledge of the security precautions taken after the President's assassination.

He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination and from photographs he has viewed of him did not recall seeing OSWALD in downtown Dallas. He knows of no connection between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

HARRY T. TASKER, cab driver, was recontacted at his place of employment, City Transportation Company, 610 South Akard Street, Dallas, Texas, to determine if he recalled a uniformed officer of the Dallas Police Department stop traffic so that a police car could leave the Main Street ramp on November 24, 1963. After being furnished the information concerning the police car, TASKER furnished the following additional information:

TASKER recalled that he had been standing at the Main Street ramp for about 5 minutes prior to hearing the gunshot in the basement. TASKER now recalls a police car coming out of the Main Street ramp and the uniformed officer at the ramp walked almost to the middle of Main Street to stop the traffic so that the police car could make a left turn on to Main Street. TASKER could not recall the officers talking with the occupants of this car nor could he recall the number of occupants in the car or a description of the car, although he indicated that he was under the impression that it was a police car similar to the one used in connection with traffic investigations.

TASKER could not recall whether the police car left the Main Street ramp prior to or after the shooting. However, he assumes that the car left the ramp prior to the shooting because the police officer on duty at the Main Street ramp drew his gun and ordered everyone to the other side of the street after the shot was fired. Since TASKER was standing near the ramp where the officer was assigned he now concludes that the police car must have left the ramp prior to the shooting. TASKER indicated that he does not recall anyone entering the ramp who resembled RUBY enter the basement through the Main Street ramp during the period of time when he was standing near the ramp section

JAMES (NMN) KERR, NBC, Dallas Bureau Chief for WBAP-TV News, Fort Worth, Texas, residence 3213 Cornell Avenue, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his office, the Press Room, Dallas County Court House, at which time he furnished the following information:

He advised he was not at the Central Police Department, Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963. On November 23, 1963, he arrived at the Central Police Department at approximately 8:45 AM and stayed about ten hours. Ten hours were spent on the third floor between the Press Room and the office of the Chief of Police. When he arrived on the third floor on November 23, 1963, he was wearing a press badge reflecting he was a member of the press, covering the visit of President KENNEDY. The uniformed patrolman on guard at the third floor elevator recognized him as an a local representative of WBAPTV and allowed him to pass by. He was later required to show his press card by another officer. He does not recall seeing anyone at the Police Department who to his knowledge was not a member of the press or of law enforcement.

On November 24, 1963, he was at the Dallas County Sheriff's Office awaiting the arrival of LEE HARVEY OSWALD up to the time of OSWALD's being shot by JACK RUBY. He is acquainted with JACK RENFRO, who is a fellow newsman employed by Channel 11 TV, Dallas, Texas. He does not know where RENFRO was on the morning of November 24, 1963, and does not recall RENFRO being in the Dallas County Sheriff's Office. KERR is not acquainted with RUBY and has never allowed RUBY or anyone else to use his press card. He has no knowledge of RENFRO ever having furnished RUBY or anyone else a press card.

He recalls on Sunday afternoon, November 24, 1963, Captain GLENN KING, Dallas Police Department, requested that he identify the personnel from Channel 5 who were at the Police Department on Sunday morning. Captain KING inquired because of the rumor RUBY gained entrance by assisting two cameramen with their equipment. KERR, who does not work with the live film crews but only gets news for Channel 5, could only identify (First Name Unknown) TANKERSLEY as one of the cameramen. TANKERSLEY had advised KERR previously, Sunday afternoon, that PHYLLIS F. (Mrs. SAMUEL DAVID) RUBY, 11616 Jamestown Road, Dallas, Texas, advised telephonically, that she has no knowledge of JACK RUBY ever trying to adopt a child. She was interviewed with reference to information which had been received from HAL COLLINS, LaJolla, California, to the effect that in early 1950 JACK RUBY had tried to adopt a child.

She advised that when she and her husband first came to Dallas, Texas from Chicago, Illinois, JACK RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club and the Vegas Club in Dallas and he, at that time, was managing a small Negro boy whose professional name was "LITTLE DADDY NELSON".

NELSON at that time was four or five years old and lived in Dallas with a Negro man believed to have been his father.

Mrs. RUBY said she did not know whether or not JACK RUBY had NELSON under contract. She advised that she had heard that on one occasion, JACK RUBY had taken LITTLE DADDY NELSON to Chicago where he performed at a night club for a short time. They then returned to Dallas, Texas. She said LITTLE DADDY NELSON played the drums and was a dancer. She said she did not know whether or not JACK RUBY ever tried to adopt this child. She said JACK RUBY managed NELSON's career for a period of from three to five years.

MATTIE (Mrs. COLUMBUS) NELSON, 2635 Forrest Avenue, telephone HA-8-7147, was interviewed with reference to information from HAL COLLINS, La Jolla, California, to the effect that in early 1950, JACK RUBY had tried to adopt a child. She was interviewed in the presence of her husband, COLUMBUS NELSON. She related the following:

Her son, BEN ESTES NELSON, stage name "LITTLE DADDY" NELSON, was born September 28, 1947, at Franklin, Texas. When about two and one-half or three years old, Mr. and Mrs. NELSON discovered that "LITTLE DADDY" had learned to dance and do jigs and was very talented. He also learned to keep time with sticks and spoons, etc. When he was about five years old, he appeared on some amateur programs which she could not remember and came to the attention of JACK RUBY, who was then operating the Silver Spur night club in Dallas. "LITTLE DADDY" was then put under contract by JACK RUBY and appeared in night clubs in Dallas, including the Silver Spur, Vegas Club and Bob Wills' Ranch House. This would have been about 1951 or 1952. JACK RUBY was so impressed with "LITTLE DADDY" that he took him to Chicago, his parents accompanying "LITTLE DADDY" and JACK RUBY got him dates in some night clubs in the Chicago area and "LITTLE DADDY" appeared on one television program in Chicago. This was about 1953 or 1954. RUBY had the child on a contract and acted as his manager and got a percentage of his earnings during the time that the child was performing. "LITTLE DADDY" last entertained for JACK RUBY about eight or nine years ago which would have been 1954 or 1955.

They have had no contact with RUBY for eight or nine years except on one occasion in November, 1962, when JACK RUBY telephoned and asked them if they needed anything and stated that if they ever did need anything, just let him know.

Mrs. NELSON was unacquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD by name or photograph as being anyone known to her as being a friend or associate of JACK RUBY. She EARL RUBY, 29925 Woodlawn Drive, Southfield, Michigan, advised he has returned to Chicago to be with his brothers and sisters over the Thanksgiving holiday. He is presently at the family residence, 1044 Loyola Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, where he intends to remain until Sunday, December 1, 1963.

He advised that he had been interviewed by Detroit Agents on the 26th of November, 1963, and had advised them to the best of his knowledge of his brother's background. Places of residence and occupation at Chicago, from the time of his birth until he left for Dallas in about 1947.

He stated that he had discussed with his sisters, MARION RUBENSTEIN and ANN, the subjects covered at their interview with FBI Agents on the afternoon of November 27, 1963, and felt that they were substantially correct in all places of residence and occupations covered in by their brother JACK. ILL.

Regarding an allegation that JACK possibly had a metal plate in his head from some unknown injury, he stated that this was absolutely untrue and that JACK enjoyed good health to the best of his knowledge and belief.

He stated that his mother at one time was a patient at the Elgin State Hospital, Elgin, Illinois, where she was being treated for a mental disorder. He stated that he was reluctant to talk about this, but that this mental condition was brought on by the menopause, a thyroid condition, and was possibly the result of her brooding over the death of her last born child, which occurred several years prior to her hospitalization. He stated her stay in Elgin Hospital was short and that she returned home to the family and lived from about 1938 until her death in about 1942, when she died from a thrombosis coronary condition.

He stated that he himself had been a patient in the Veterans Hospital in Chicago, Illinois, located on the near north side near the lake, about three years ago, which would be about 1960. He said this hospitalization was the result of his mental depression about the failure of his business and general financial decline. He stated this mental condition manifested itself with a desire to do away with himself and an urge to "run away from things." He said that he was a patient at this hospital for approximately four weeks. At this time, he advised that even though he had been a patient, he had never heard or considered that his brother JACK was in any way subject to mental illness or depression. Speaking of JACK, he stated that he had the usual childhood diseases, but suffered no serious illnesses or injuries. He reiterated that his brother JACK had never been connected in any way with a tavern or night club in the Chicago area, and that his only connection in this field had come about following JACK's move to Dallas, Texas. He said that he himself had at one time been engaged in the tavern business for about two months in about 1950, when he took over a small neighborhood tavern at Madison and California, in Chicago, Illinois. He said that he took this business over from an individual named BERNIE FELD, whose present whereabouts are completely unknown to him. He said he closed this business after "a couple of months" as he could not "make a go of it."

EARL RUBY was specifically asked regarding his residence in New Haven, Connecticut, in 1940. He stated that he had never been in New Haven, Connecticut, in his life, and that at about that period he was engaged in the dry cleaning business on Cicero Avenue in Chicago, Illinois.

On December 4, 1963, HARRY BOSHES, 50th On The Lake Motel, Chicago, Illinois, furnished information that he had operated the French Casino on North Clark Street in Chicago until about 1949. During this time the French Casino was a strip joint and he denied knowing or employing JACK RUBY at the French Casino, in any capacity whatsoever. He denied knowing RUBY to frequent the French Casino and in addition stated, "RUBY was a nothing, if he had been anybody on the north side I'd have known him."

BOSHES said that Mc Govern's Liberty Inn on North Clark Street in Chicago has been open since prohibition days and has changed hands a number of times. BOSHES said that Mc Govern's Liberty Inn has always been a strip joint and he has never known it to have been a bookie joint. He said that Mc Govern's Liberty Inn at one time was owned by one JACK RUBIN, who was last known to be in the Miami, Florida area, however, he does not know what type of business RUBIN may be in at this time. He furnished the opinion that some individuals may be confusing JACK RUBIN with JACK RUBY. He said that through television and newspaper photographs he is positive that the JACK RUBIN he knows is not the same individual as JACK RUBY. ILL.

BOSHES was unable to furnish any additional information, however, he stated that if any pertinent information comes to his attention he will immediately notify the FBI in Chicago.

MRS. HARRY RUBINSTEIN BERNADINE RUBINSTEIN

On December 9, 1963, BERNADINE COLEMAN, 65 West Maple Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, advised SA DONALD D. DENNY as follows:

Her former husband, HARRY RUBENSTEIN, not related to JACK RUBY, had formerly operated a bar and night club in the Olympic Hotel, 1015 North Clark Street, Chicago. The Olympic Hotel is geographically situated about one block from Delaware Street and State Street, the former location of the Torch Club. This club was torn down several years ago. The owner and operator of the club was one EDDIE STORCH (phonetic) who moved out of Chicago to an unknown address. This individual, EDDIE STORCH, vaguely resembles pictures she had seen in the newspapers of JACK RUBY but STORCH was much older than JACK RUBY. There was never any other Storch Club in Chicago to the best of her recollection. ILL

BERNADINE COLEMAN added that she is acquainted with almost all of the night club operators in the near north side of Chicago and felt certain JACK RUBY never operated a bar or night club in Chicago.

It was previously reported that the Torch Club was located on the northwest corner of Walton Street and Clark Street.

On December 9, 1963, it was ascertained from personal observation by SA DENNY that Walton Street ends on the east side of Clark Street and therefore there is no northwest corner of Clark and Walton Streets. On the northeast corner of Walton Street and Clark Street is situated the Newberry Library and across the street from that is Washington Square, a park, commonly referred to as "Bughouse Square" which is often frequented by habitues of Chicago's north Clark Street "Skid Row".

MARTIN FIELD was interviewed at the Sands Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada and provided the following information.

FIELD stated that he was born in the Newberry and Maxwell Street area of Chicago, Illinois, 54 years ago. He said that his name at birth was MARTIN SCHWARTZ, however, he legally changed his name to FIELD many years ago. He said that JACK RUBY was also born and raised in this neighborhood and when they were very young he became acquainted with RUBY as a neighborhood boy. He said shortly after World War I his, FIELD's, family moved away from this particular neighborhood to the west side of Chicago.

FIELD stated that he became a boxer in the Chicago area and later worked for the Park District there and would occasionally run into RUBY at various places around Chicago. He said to the best of his knowledge RUBY left Chicago about fifteen years ago and went to Dallas. FIELD said about eight or nine years ago, he left Chicago to come to Las Vegas, Nevada, and on the way out to Las Vegas went through Dallas and stopped and visited RUBY at a club he then operated. FIELD said he could not recall the name of the club but believes that RUBY had an apartment above the club at that time. He said he merely had a short visit and a drink with RUBY, and has not seen him since that time.

FIELD stated that to his knowledge of RUBY, he would describe him as a nervous type of individual and a person who was "shaky", meaning that he was always jumping around with fast jerky movements. He said to his knowledge RUBY did not associate with fanatics or the Communistic element. He said in his opinion RUBY is the type who was trying to gain publicity and a degree of fame by his action of shooting OSWALD. He said he believes that he was also trying to gain a reputation as a "tough guy".

FIELD stated to his knowledge RUBY has never been in Las Vegas, Nevada. He said that it is entirely possible that RUBY could have been in Las Vegas at some time and he never knew anything about it. He said that he and RUBY were not such friends that RUBY would have looked him up had he come to Las Vegas. In fact, he does not know if RUBY was aware he worked here. He said that he could suggest no one in Las Vegas who might know RUBY who could furnish any information regarding him.

FIELD advised that he resides at 2647 Karen Court, Apartment 2[illegible], Las Vegas, Nevada, telephone 385-1923.

JAMES TROY IVEY, 1306 Bowie, Garland, Texas, was interviewed in view of the fact that a Carousel Club card bearing his name was found in the possession of JACK RUBY at the time of his arrest. IVEY furnished the following information:

During 1952, he was employed as a route man for a cigarette vending company and in that capacity serviced the Silver Spur Club operated by JACK RUBY. He occasionally saw JACK RUBY when he serviced the cigarette machines; however, he had no association with RUBY other than RUBY being one of his customers. He saw RUBY occasionally until about 1957 when RUBY moved to the Vegas Club which was off of IVEY's route. During 1958, IVEY was appointed a Deputy Sheriff, Dallas County, and since that time he has seen RUBY two or three times in the Sheriff's Office. He did not talk to RUBY on these occasions. About the middle of October, 1963, RUBY and one of the girl entertainers at his club were in the Sheriff's Office. This girl had complained that RUBY had threatened to "burn her clothes" or something like that and RUBY and this girl were discussing this matter with Justice of the Peace Judge RICHBERG. IVEY stated he did not follow this matter but is of the opinion it was probably settled by the Judge at that time.

As RUBY was leaving the building, he spoke to IVEY and asked IVEY if he had seen the show at the Carousel Club and told IVEY that he would sent him a pass to the show.

IVEY continued that about two weeks later he came into the Sheriff's Office and saw RUBY talking to the office girl. When RUBY saw IVEY, he asked IVEY to sign the pass for the Carousel Club which IVEY signed as J. T. IVEY. RUBY said he would mail the card to him later. IVEY said he never did receive this card and thought nothing more about it.

IVEY stated he has only a speaking acquaintance with RUBY and certainly does not consider RUBY to be a personal friend. He knows nothing concerning RUBY's associates, business dealings or any relations or connections RUBY might have with the Dallas Police Department. IVEY does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information as to whether there was ever any association between RUBY and OSWALD.

Mr. SCHUMAN stated that he is the brother of SOLLIE SCHUMAN, who died in San Francisco, in 1958. He stated he came to San Francisco in the late 1930s from Chicago where he and his brother were well-known prize fighters.

He advised that he was slightly acquainted with JACK RUBENSTEIN in Chicago during the 1920s. He explained that he knew RUBENSTEIN by the nick-name "SPARKY" and they lived in the same neighborhood in Chicago. He stated he recalls that RUBENSTEIN's father, JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN, known by his friends as "PAPA JOE", was employed as a carpenter. Mr. SCHUMAN stated that he has never seen "SPARKY" in San Francisco and he doubts that his deceased brother, "SOLLIE", has ever seen him in this city. Mr. SCHUMAN advised that he heard through a certain friend and associate in San Francisco that the JACK RUBY who killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD was identical with JACK RUBENSTEIN, also known as "SPARKY". He advised that he would not have recognized "SPARKY" from his photographs, which have appeared in San Francisco newspapers and on national television. He advised that he knows nothing concerning "SPARKY's" political attitude or his adult background.

HENRY SEGEL, 3738 Pine Grove Avenue, Apartment 201, Chicago, Illinois, was contacted at his employment in the United States Postal Substation at 227 West Ontario, where SEGEL is employed as a Postal Carrier.

SEGEL advised that he is well acquainted with JACK RUBY due to the fact that years ago, he, SEGEL was a close friend of MARTIN GIMPEL, who was a close friend of RUBY. He recalls that RUBY grew up in the neighborhood of the west side of Chicago and was well known to many people there by the nickname of "SPARKY".

SEGEL advised that in 1949 and again in 1950, he and GIMPEL visited RUBY in Dallas, Texas, where RUBY at that time was operating the Silver Spur. GIMPEL died in September of 1962 and following that SEGEL went to Dallas to tell RUBY about GIMPEL's death. He lived with RUBY for approximately a week to ten days but spent part of this time.

SEGEL advised that due to the fact that RUBY grew up under hard financial circumstances during the Depression days, he was always hard up for money and as a result "scratched for money all his life." To the knowledge of SEGEL, RUBY never had any kind of a salaried job in his life. He purchased football tickets and scalped them and SEGEL also recalls that RUBY sold little plaster busts of President FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT. SEGEL recalls RUBY as being a very good street fighter and a man who was very successful with women.

SEGEL also knew RUBY as being a "very, very emotional man and also was very moody and sentimental". SEGEL stated that RUBY could go very quickly from depression to happiness and vice versa. He was a dog lover and very loyal to his friends. SEGEL feels that RUBY's act in killing OSWALD was "his way of expressing a patriotic gesture" and that RUBY "went crazy" about what he felt was a terrible thing and did this on the

Mr. CARL O. SLOAN, 4926 West Quincy, CHICAGO, ILL. advised that some thirty years ago he went under the name of VINCE "SNEAKY" KELLY. He has known JACK RUBY as "SPARKY" for at least 25 years having known him from the old West Roosevelt Road neighborhood of Chicago, where their respective families resided. He stated those were the days when this part of Chicago was a "tough" area and a man had to be able to take care of himself. "SPARKY" was able to take care of himself, but was not known to SLOAN to be a violent or aggressive type of person.

SLOAN advised that he was not closely associated with RUBY; however, he recalls RUBY was well liked by those who knew him and made his living in those days, the middle 30's, by "scalping tickets"and "hustling" whatever commodity he could sell at the time. He advised he has not seen "SPARKY" since World War II and has no personal knowledge of his activities since that time.

SLOAN continued that he has no knowledge of "SPARKY" being in trouble with the law, stating that he was no thief and was not a "tough guy" or a "punk." SLOAN emphatically stated that he and "SPARKY" were never involved in a rape charge in Chicago, adding that "SPARKY" was not the type of individual, as he recalls him, who would commit such an act. He further stated that "SPARKY" was not the type of individual who would commit any act of violence, and it was a great shock to him, SLOAN, when he learned that "SPARKY" was the person who shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD because he could not imagine him committing such an act.

YARAS claims he knew RUBY as "SPARKY" who was a young hustler and fight fan from Division and Damen Street area, 30 years ago. YARAS recalls "SPARKY's" last activity in Chicago was selling salt and pepper shakers with a brother. YARAS claims "SPARKY" knew LENNY PATRICK "like he knows him" but was "positively on his own and not outfit connected." YARAS further described "SPARKY" as a "romeo" who was most successful in picking up girls. YARAS advised he had a brother, SAM YARAS, who was connected with a machinery business in Dallas, Texas, and who was acquainted with JACK RUBY. However, according to YARAS, SAM died seven years ago. YARAS stated he and his brother had a "split" in 1945 and as a result he has not been in Dallas since that time. YARAS emphatically denied having any relationship whatever with JACK RUBY, business or otherwise, subsequent to RUBY's departure from Chicago approximately 14 years ago.

Lieutenant GEORGE C. ARNETT, whose name was furnished on November 25, 1963, by REAGAN TURMAN, prize fighter, Los Angeles, California, as friend of JACK RUBY, furnished the following information:

Lieutenant ARNETT advised that he resides at 3918 Fortuna Lane, Dallas, Texas, is presently stationed at the Northwest Area Substation of the Dallas Police Department and has been a member of this department continuously since 1955.

ARNETT advised that he first met JACK RUBY in 1953 when ARNETT was an agent of the Liquor Control Board in Dallas under the following circumstances:

ARNETT and his wife, together with another agent and his wife went to the Vegas Club, operated by RUBY. While there, one of the dancers deliberately indecently exposed herself and as a result, ARNETT reported this matter which resulted in three weeks suspension against RUBY relative to the operation of that club. ARNETT stated that since that time, he has been to one or more of RUBY's establishments on a more or less regular basis and since 1955 he regularly visited the Vegas Club which was on his beat. Occasionally he did continue to go there with his wife and friends. He stated that he had occasion to feel that RUBY always attempted to operate his club legally and to the best of his ability and insisted that his employees and customers obeyed the laws. ARNETT gave as an example the fact that occasionally after the curfew relative to drinking intoxicating liquors in public, RUBY would use a flashlight to play over the tables and customers in the darkened area of the club to make sure that no one had alcoholic beverages in sight and was not violating the consuming law relative to consuming liquor after hours.

Lieutenant ARNETT stated that he never associated with RUBY on a social basis but felt that he did become very well acquainted with him as an individual, although he never discussed politics with RUBY. He stated that RUBY was an unpredictable type of person who would do anything to help a friend in need and who would also be quick to lose his temper and not against anyone who he felt did him wrong.

Lieutenant ARNETT stated that RUBY was well known among the members of the Dallas Police Department and was rather friendly with them. He added that by the nature of RUBY's occupation, he felt it necessary to know as many people as possible and to be on good terms with the law enforcement agencies and members of the press. He added that he does not recall to what extent RUBY may have known police officer J. D. TIPPIT (deceased) but added that he does not believe he was more friendly with TIPPIT than the average police officer. ARNETT advised that he feels that RUBY may have been motivated in his shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by the fact OSWALD had shot TIPPIT but he also feels that RUBY would have resented the murder of other Dallas police officers as much.

ARNETT stated he last saw RUBY on November 15, 1963, this being at the Vegas Club. He spoke with RUBY only briefly and does not recall that the conversation was concerning anything unusual.

Lieutenant ARNETT advised he did not know OSWALD and was not present when OSWALD was shot by RUBY. He added that he does not know of any relationship which may have existed between RUBY and OSWALD and knows nothing concerning the manner in which RUBY gained access to the basement area of the Dallas Police Department prior to shooting OSWALD. He also does not know of anyone who may have conspired with RUBY in this connection.

Lieutenant ARNETT stated that he has no additional pertinent information concerning this case.

JOHN D. BAILEY, 815 North Ewing, Dallas, Texas, residence phone WH 2-0277, furnished the following information:

He advised he is presently employed as a salesman for Employers Casualty Life Insurance Company, Young and Akard Streets, Dallas. He stated he has known JACK RUBY for about ten years and first met him while he was a member of the Dallas Police Reserve. He stated he occasionally rode with officers who checked the Vegas Club which was operated by RUBY and RUBY came to know him on sight. RUBY never extended any favors to him nor the officers he was with. He stated about six weeks ago he saw JACK RUBY in downtown Dallas and told him that he had a date the following weekend and thought of going to his club. At that time, RUBY said he would be glad to give him a pass card to the Carousel Club and took his name and address, and eventually sent him a card. He stated he did not use the card and the only reason he could think of that RUBY listed "City Hall" next to his name was that RUBY apparently thought he was still connected with the police reserve.

He found RUBY to be an easy-going individual but knew nothing concerning his background, personal life, or political convictions. He knew of none of RUBY's friends and has no idea as to why RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He never heard of OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

BARKER stated that he is employed as doorman at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel and through his position, met JACK RUBY a year or so ago and has seen RUBY in the lobby of this hotel on several occasions since then. He stated his acquaintance with RUBY is based entirely upon a business relationship explaining that RUBY on several occasions, while at the hotel, gave him several blank temporary pass cards to his place of business and requested BARKER to give same to guests of the hotel.

BARKER stated that about October 15, 1963, RUBY gave him a permanent pass card to the Carousel Club but he has not used same and has not been to this club or to any other club operated by RUBY.

BARKER advised that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and received no information indicating a relationship between OSWALD and RUBY. He stated that he has no information as to the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY or as to anyone who may have assisted RUBY in entering the basement of the Dallas Police Department prior to shooting OSWALD. CLAUDE EDWARD BATES, 221 W. Page, Dallas, Texas, was advised that his name and telephone number was found among property secured from RUBY's car and was asked for an explanation.

Mr. BATES advised that the only reason he could imagine that RUBY would have his name and telephone number would be that about May, 1961, he bought two lots from JACK RUBY and one of his sisters, (name not recalled), who lived in Chicago. These lots were located about four miles out of Grapevine, Texas, near the Grapevine Lake.

During the course of this transaction, he had personal or telephone contact with RUBY not more than five or six times. RUBY was only a casual business acquaintance and he did not know him well enough to supply additional pertinent information concerning his activities, associates or background. Mr. BATES had never known OSWALD and had no information to indicate a connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JACK B. PEDEN on December 13, 1963:

MARGUERITE ARMSTRONG, 2409 Maple, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed for the purpose of ascertaining how her name and the address, 2417 Maple, were found in search of JACK RUBY's car.

She informed that she has lived at 2409 Maple all her life. She stated that the property at 2417 Maple has been for sale for a period of approximately two years. She advised that it is possible that JACK RUBY was considering buying that property and had in mind to buy her home which, she pointed out, is very old, in connection with his attempt to purchase property at 2417 Maple. She stated that there have been numerous real estate men who have had that property up for sale and she does not know the man who last had it for sale. She said that he had his for sale sign in front of the property until approximately one week ago.

MARGUERITE ARMSTRONG advised that she does not know JACK RUBY personally and to her knowledge has never seen him. She also said that she does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On December 14, 1963, Mr. OLEN ALEXANDER, who resides at 9963 Nixon, telephone FL 1-3630, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed as to how his name, with telephone number EM 8-8304 was found in the car of JACK RUBY when it was searched. Mr. ALEXANDER said that the telephone number EM 8-8304 is an office phone which he has occasion to use from time to time in his real estate business. He advised that he is in the real estate business in Dallas, and that he met JACK RUBY approximately October 23, 1963. Mr. ALEXANDER said that he cannot definitely give the date, but it was at approximately that time.

ALEXANDER advised as follows:

He has a building at 2417 Maple which every night club operator in Dallas wants. (It is noted that the address 2417 Maple was also written among some of RUBY's things, along with the name of MARGUERITE ARMSTRONG.) JACK RUBY contacted ALEXANDER about the property at 2417 Maple and indicated that he was interested in buying this property. RUBY indicated a real desire to purchase the building, which is priced at $75,000, but apparently did not have sufficient funds for this. ALEXANDER said that RUBY said something to the effect that he would "see some of my friends," but that he was not recontacted by RUBY about the property.

On the occasion when RUBY contacted ALEXANDER, ALEXANDER made an appointment with him and showed him the building. On this same occasion RUBY told ALEXANDER to come to his Carousel Club at any time he wanted, free of charge, and bring his wife. ALEXANDER said that he never took RUBY up on this offer and has not seen him since that time.

ALEXANDER said that so far as he knows he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and certainly knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

A search of the Dallas telephone criss-cross directory as conducted by SA JOHN B. PEDEN on December 13, 1963, reflects that the telephone number WH 8-7101 is listed to the Admiral Alloy Steel Corporation, 2802 Rector.

It is noted that that phone number appeared among RUBY's things obtained as result of search of RUBY's car.

On December 14, 1963, JOHN H. BRECHT, 6810 Airline, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed regarding the telephone number EM 1-4174 which appeared in JACK RUBY's possessions, found in search of his car.

MR. BRECHT said he formerly lived at 3129 Westminster, and that at both addresses he had the telephone number EM 1-4174. He stated, however, that he is unable to advise how his phone number came into the possession of RUBY. Mr. BRECHT said that to his knowledge he has never seen JACK RUBY, and has no recollection of ever having any contact of any kind with him.

He also stated that he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On December 13, 1963, Mr. LEE A. BEDFORD, 1005 Chippendale, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed as to how the telephone number DA 1-2746 was found during a search of JACK RUBY's car.

Mr. BEDFORD advised that the phone number DA 1-2746 is for the Casa Linda Catering Service, at 10800 Garland Road. He advised that the only contact he ever had with JACK RUBY was approximately five or six years ago.

BEDFORD furnished the following information:

At the one time he saw JACK RUBY, approximately five or six years ago, RUBY had a little colored boy with whom, whom BEDFORD believed was called "LITTLE DADDY." RUBY was promoting this boy and felt that the boy had talent. On the occasion when BEDFORD met RUBY, RUBY had the boy at a private party at the Casa Linda Lodge where the boy sang some songs. At that particular time RUBY invited BEDFORD to come as a guest to his night club, which BEDFORD believes was the Silver Spur. BEDFORD never attended the night club and has had no additional contact with RUBY.

BEDFORD also said he knows of no relationship between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

BONNIE H. BELL, whose name appears on a Carousel Club pass card, advised as follows:

Mrs. BELL stated that she has been employed as a nurse for several years by Doctor COLEMAN JACOBSON with office in the Doctors Building, Dallas. She stated that for several years she has seen RUBY from time to time who came to Doctor JACOBSON as a patient. She advised that she went to the Vegas Club four or five times during this period and talked briefly with RUBY two or three times while there as a customer. She went to the Carousel Club several months ago but did not see RUBY at that time. She stated that about October 15, 1963, RUBY, while visiting Doctor JACOBSON, took her name and promised to send her a permanent pass to the Carousel Club which she did not receive.

Mrs. BELL stated that she knew RUBY only through business associations and at times, she visited his clubs as related above and never discussed politics with him and that she feels she did not become well enough acquainted with him to estimate his character, personality or disposition. She added that she is not acquainted with RUBY's associates or background.

Mrs. BELL stated that she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information indicating any relationship which may have existed between OSWALD and RUBY and further that she has no information concerning the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY or of any conspiracy or assistance which may have helped RUBY gain access to the basement area of the Dallas Police Department prior to shooting OSWALD. Mrs. BELL stated she last saw RUBY on about October 15, 1963, when he was at Doctor JACOBSON's office.

BOB BENTON, 3140 Kendale, bellman, Sheraton-Dallas Hotel, was advised that investigation had established he was issued Carousel Club Pass Card #146. BENTON furnished the following information concerning his knowledge of JACK RUBY:

He has known JACK RUBY since about 1950, during which time he was employed as a bell boy at the Stoneleigh Hotel, 2927 Maple Avenue, and was also a part-time drummer at the Silver Spur nightclub and would perform every Sunday evening in a jam session at that club. He stated he would see RUBY occasionally in the hotel lobby or on the street. He last saw RUBY about a month ago when RUBY appeared at the Sheraton-Dallas and gave out free passes to the Carousel Club to the bell hops. He stated he did not know RUBY personally, did not frequent RUBY's clubs and had no knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the assassination of the President or the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD other than what he had read in the newspapers. He stated he did not know of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD or of any conspiracy on the part of any person with RUBY to kill OSWALD.

DOUGLAS E. BERGMAN, Attorney, 1512 Mercantile Building, was contacted at his office and advised that his name was mentioned on a list which appeared to comprise members of one of JACK RUBY's clubs. BERGMAN furnished the following information:

He has known RUBY for the past ten to twelve years and, in fact, represented RUBY in a case involving RUBY's beer license at the Silver Spur nightclub in the early 1950s. He has since been in RUBY's clubs once or twice since then and has occasionally met RUBY on the street. He has no personal knowledge of RUBY's activities but through his past association with RUBY, feels that RUBY was a great booster of President ROOSEVELT and thought that the United States had been very good to him. He also recalled that RUBY was "hot-headed" and even acted as his own bouncer in his nightclubs. The only connection he could think of between RUBY and the Dallas Police Department was the fact that during the times he had been in RUBY's clubs he was aware that there were some uniformed patrol officers present but that he did not know any of these officers. He believed RUBY fostered friendship with the police because of RUBY's line of business. BERGMAN stated he had never heard of OSWALD prior to the assassination of the President and did not have any knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the murder of OSWALD other than what was published fact.

He was formerly employed at the Baker Hotel as a bell man and has known RUBY for the past ten years as a local nightclub owner. He has been employed at the Sheraton-Dallas as a bell boy for about four months. He first saw RUBY on November 19, 1963, at Sol's Turf Bar, 1515 Commerce Street, at which time he drank a beer and talked with RUBY who was drinking a 7-Up. He later saw RUBY that night at the Carousel Club at about 10:00 p.m. He does not recall the conversation he had with RUBY but believed he asked RUBY how his business was going.

BLACK stated he did not consider RUBY a personal friend and did not know of any of RUBY's activities other than as operator of several Dallas nightclubs. He had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD before the assassination of the President and had no personal knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the assassination of the President or the murder of OSWALD and knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD. He advised he did not know of any close association between RUBY and the Dallas police force or any travels of RUBY in the United States of to any other country.

BONDS stated that he is unable to further elaborate upon information furnished during interview of November 25, 1963. BONDS stated that he is unable to identify any of the Police Officers who frequented the Vegas Club operated at that time by JACK RUBY, in Dallas, Texas. He further stated that he cannot identify any of the Police Officers who occasionally worked for RUBY on a part time basis during their off duty hours. He elaborated that the nature of jobs performed on occasion by these off duty Police Officers consisted of helping to paint and refurbish the Vegas Club and "running errands" for RUBY and acting as part time bouncers. BONDS concluded that the majority of the Police Officers so involved were Patrolmen and a few Detectives. None were of officer rank.

He has known RUBY for about ten years and would see RUBY about once every two or three months during this time. He would see RUBY in the White Plaza Hotel where he was employed as a bell man for seven years and has seen RUBY at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel during the past five years. He recalls that he has been to the Vegas Club on one occasion and also to the Carousel Club one time. Both of these visits were due to the fact he received a free pass from RUBY. He stated it was common practice for RUBY to furnish waitresses, bell hops and the like with free passes to his clubs. The last time he saw RUBY was about six weeks prior to the shooting when RUBY came to the Sheraton-Dallas and gave out free pass cards to the Carousel Club to the bell hops. He stated he knew nothing about RUBY outside of the fact RUBY was a nightclub owner, and he had no personal information of RUBY's activities or of the circumstances surrounding the assassination of the President or of the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the shootings and did not know of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

JOCK BRENNAN, 6050 Burgundy, Dallas, was advised that his name appears in an address book secured from JACK RUBY's property and he was asked for an explanation of why his name was in RUBY's possession. Mr. BRENNAN advised that he is employed in the Advertising Section of the "Dallas Times Herald" and in this capacity, has known JACK RUBY for approximately five or six years. His acquaintance with RUBY was restricted primarily to the frequent visits RUBY would pay to the Advertising Section of the "Dallas Times Herald" to place advertisements for his night clubs. He believes he was possibly in the Sovereign Club on one or two occasions. It is his opinion that Mr. RUBY recorded his name in his address book because of the contacts made in reference to advertising.

He did not have sufficient contact with him to develop pertinent background information or information concerning his activities and associates. Mr. BRENNAN had never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and has no information indicating a connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

RAY BRONDO, 3023 Larry Drive, Dallas, Texas, advised he has been very casually acquainted with JACK RUBY for about the past 8 or 9 years, first becoming acquainted with him when he operated the Silver Spur. He saw RUBY around this establishment on several occasions, saw him around the Vegas Club in the middle and late 1950's on several occasions, and has also seen him on the streets around Dallas. He has not seen RUBY for at least the past two years and he never frequented the Carousel Club.

BRONDO advised that in about 1953 he worked at Sue's Used Car Lot in the 3400 block of Live Oak in Dallas, but did not ever recall seeing RUBY at this establishment.

BRONDO advised he was only very casually acquainted with RUBY and has no idea as to what prompted RUBY to shoot OSWALD. He was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows of no association between RUBY and OSWALD or any information indicating that any other persons were involved with OSWALD in the shooting of the President or with RUBY in the shooting of OSWALD.

HARVEY M. CAMPBELL, SR., 4833 Gaston, Apartment B, was advised of the identity of the interviewers as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Mr. CAMPBELL furnished the following information:

In the fall of 1963, Mr. CAMPBELL in company with the sister of Mr. CAMPBELL's son's wife, ERNESTINE WHITE HANDS of Fort Worth, Texas, and JODRAN HANDS, also of Fort Worth, took a trip by automobile to Monterrey, Mexico. They entered Mexico via automobile, a 1956 Cadillac, at Laredo, Texas, and subsequently stayed at the Rio Motel, Monterrey, Mexico, for a period of two or three days.

On the return trip they entered the United States through Roma, Texas, and subsequently re-entered Mexico at Laredo, Texas, staying at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, at one of the better motels in Nuevo Laredo. They subsequently re-entered the United States on a Sunday at Laredo, Texas, where their luggage was searched by Customs Agents. Customs Agents had also checked their luggage the day before at Roma, Texas.

Mr. CAMPBELL stated that during his entire trip he did not observe anyone whom he recalls resembling LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mr. CAMPBELL furnished the address of ERNESTINE WHITE HANDS as Plantation Road, Fort Worth, Texas. He stated that he did not know the address of JODRAN HANDS, however, she resides in Fort Worth, Texas, and her address is known to ERNESTINE WHITE HANDS. Mr. CAMPBELL stated that JODRAN HANDS may be identical with BRANS HANE, however, he was not sure of this.

Mr. CAMPBELL stated that he has been acquainted with GEORGE SENATOR, former roommate of JACK RUBY, since the summer of 1963 when Mr. CAMPBELL met SENATOR at the Smuggler Bar, 4844 Gaston, Dallas, Texas. Mr. CAMPBELL subsequently associated with SENATOR from time to time having invited SENATOR during the latter part of the summer of 1963 to a patio party at Mr. CAMPBELL's apartment house.

Mr. CAMPBELL stated that the barber at Chet's Barber Shop, located next door to the Smuggler Bar, is also an acquaintance of GEORGE SENATOR.

Mr. CAMPBELL met JACK RUBY on one occasion at the Carousel, a night spot owned by JACK RUBY, at which time RUBY gave Mr. CAMPBELL a pass for the Las Vegas Club, a night spot which is also owned by JACK RUBY. This meeting took place approximately three or four months ago, shortly after CAMPBELL met GEORGE SENATOR. SENATOR, however, did not introduce CAMPBELL to RUBY, but RUBY introduced himself when he came to the table at which CAMPBELL was sitting. On this occasion, CAMPBELL had spent approximately $100 on champagne for the girls at the Carousel who had joined SENATOR and CAMPBELL at their table.

CAMPBELL stated that GEORGE SENATOR worked on Friday and Saturday nights for JACK RUBY at the Carousel taking in tickets at the door.

CAMPBELL subsequently went to the Carousel in the company of CHESTER, the barber, at which time GEORGE SENATOR was on the door and refused to allow CAMPBELL and CHESTER to come in without paying. On this occasion two striptease dancers sat at their table. CAMPBELL recalled that on this occasion the two girls were making remarks regarding how hard it was to work for JACK RUBY and how mean and hateful he was.

On another occasion, Mr. CAMPBELL went to the Carousel with DON LEASURE, who is presently the owner of The After Glow Bar, located at 3212 Knox, Dallas, Texas. CAMPBELL had become acquainted with LEASURE through having met him at the Smuggler Bar where LEASURE's girlfriend was working behind the bar. LEASURE subsequently married this girl.

CAMPBELL stated that through his having gone to the Carousel, he became acquainted with one of the girls who worked there as a striptease dancer named ALICE. ALICE furnished Mr. CAMPBELL with her telephone number and Mr. CAMPBELL subsequently gave ALICE's telephone number to DON LEASURE; however, LEASURE later denied to CAMPBELL that CAMPBELL had given him the telephone number. Mr. CAMPBELL stated that DON LEASURE and GEORGE SENATOR hung out at the Smuggler Bar. The last time CAMPBELL saw GEORGE SENATOR was approximately a week before the assassination of President JOHN KENNEDY when CAMPBELL saw GEORGE SENATOR at The After Glow, owned by DON LEASURE. This was on the same night that DON LEASURE got married to his present wife.

Mr. CAMPBELL stated he never at any time observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD, to his knowledge. He stated he never at any time observed OSWALD at JACK RUBY's Carousel Club, or in RUBY's, SENATOR's or LEASURE's company.

Mr. CAMPBELL advised that he was born January 13, 1892, at Dallas, Texas, and is a retired Linotype Operater of the Dallas News, having worked at the Dallas News for 50 years.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 12, 1963

CHESTER LEROY RUFF, 108 North Bowser, Richardson, Texas, was interviewed in the vicinity of his barber shop, 4340 Gaston, Dallas, Texas, in a Bureau automobile, at which time RUFF was advised of the identity of the interviewers as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. RUFF furnished the following information: Born 5-18-31 AT Dubuque, Iowa

RUFF was employed previously as a barber at the Hilton Hotel, Dallas, Texas. While so employed, he became acquainted with JACK RUBY as a customer. He also became acquainted with JACK RUBY's roommate, GEORGE SENATOR, as a customer at the Hilton Hotel Barber Shop.

RUBY invited RUFF to come to his Carousel Club. As a result of his having met with RUBY, RUFF considers his acquaintance with RUBY very casual, however, he became better acquainted with GEORGE SENATOR, whom he did see from time to time working on the door collecting tickets at the Carousel Club. Occasionally, when RUFF went to the Carousel Club, GEORGE SENATOR would let him in the club free of charge.

RUFF estimated his acquaintance with SENATOR to be of approximately three years' duration, having commenced shortly after RUFF came to Dallas, Texas, to live.

SENATOR had advised RUFF that he shared an apartment with JACK RUBY, however, SENATOR stated that he moved out of RUBY's apartment because RUBY was "so sloppy." SENATOR continued to live next door to JACK RUBY in another apartment with another roommate, and when this roommate got married and moved out, SENATOR moved back into RUBY's apartment. RUFF believes that SENATOR's work at the Carousel Club was limited mainly to week ends and SENATOR is employed fulltime as Sales Manager for the Texas Post Card and Novelty Company (Dextor Printing Company) with offices at 3616A Cedar, Spring, Texas.

RUFF stated that JACK RUBY has come out to have a hair cut at RUFF's present shop on one occasion; however,

RUFF was busy at the time and RUBY did not wait around. On one occasion RUFF met RUBY's sister when he was introduced to her by GEORGE SENATOR at which time RUBY's sister was collecting tickets at the door of the Carousel Club. RUFF received the impression that RUBY's sister was a partner of RUBY's at the Carousel Club. Approximately a year ago, GEORGE SENATOR advised RUFF that JACK RUBY also operated the Vegas Club in Dallas, Texas.

RUFF informed that SENATOR had told him that JACK RUBY usually dated younger women, whom he became acquainted with through the operation of the Carousel. On occasion GEORGE SENATOR got girls to work for RUBY at the Carousel from other night spots in Dallas. GEORGE SENATOR told RUFF that JACK RUBY had a very explosive temper and as a result had a large turnover in personnel at his clubs. On one occasion when RUFF was present at the Carousel, JACK RUBY got extremely angry with JADA, who is an exotic dancer at the Carousel, and they had a violent argument in RUFF's presence concerning the amount of money that RUBY was paying JADA. SENATOR on another occasion informed RUFF that he put up with JACK RUBY because RUBY treated him well, giving him money when he was broke, and in view of his having SENATOR to move into his apartment following the marriage of SENATOR's former roommate.

The last time that RUFF saw GEORGE SENATOR was on Wednesday, December 4, 1963. RUFF also recalled that SENATOR was in to see RUFF at RUFF's barber shop the day before LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot and killed. This was the day after President KENNEDY had been assassinated. On this occasion SENATOR commented that JACK RUBY was taking the assassination of President KENNEDY very hard and that SENATOR had never seen JACK so upset with anything before. SENATOR also commented that JACK RUBY was going to church that morning. SENATOR commented RUBY's going to church was very unusual and he had never known JACK to go to church before. SENATOR, also, on this occasion commented that JACK RUBY was angry because the other clubs in Dallas had not closed up because of the assassination of President KENNEDY. RUFF stated that this conversation was of interest to RUFF because it had taken place before LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot.

RUFF advised that JACK RUBY is a well-known figure in Dallas and he is well known to be a temperamental type of individual. RUFF pointed out that BILL DOWNEY, TEXAS who is a casual acquaintance of JACK RUBY's, has indicated that RUBY always treated him nice until one time RUBY observed DOWNEY trying to get into the Carousel Club without paying. Following this, RUBY changed his attitude toward DOWNEY and has not been friendly with DOWNEY since. RUFF stated this is an example of RUBY's holding grudges over a long period of time. RUFF noted that BILL DOWNEY is a Sales Representative of the St. Louis Music Supply Company, 822 North Marsalis, Apartment 215, Dallas, Texas.

RUFF stated that at no time during his acquaintance with GEORGE SENATOR and JACK RUBY had he observed SENATOR or RUBY in the company of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he knows of no association or acquaintance between OSWALD, SENATOR or RUBY.

Following is a description of RUFF as obtained through observation and interview:

SAM CAMPISI, co-owner, Egyptian Restaurant, 5610 Mockingbird Lane, residence 6510 Lange Circle, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He has known JACK RUBY for approximately ten years. He said he is acquainted with RUBY through seeing him at various sporting events; through visiting his clubs, and through RUBY eating at the Egyptian Restaurant. He said the last time he saw RUBY was the Thursday before Thanksgiving on which date RUBY had dinner at the Egyptian Restaurant.

CAMPISI said he always considered RUBY to be a very impulsive individual. He said RUBY did not stand for any disorderliness in his club and on more than one occasion has witnessed RUBY put individuals out of his club for being boisterous or loud.

CAMPISI said he always considered RUBY to be a publicity seeker and an individual who would go to any extremes to gain same. He said he feels, in connection with RUBY's shooting of OSWALD, that RUBY thought he would be stopped by someone in the basement of the Police Department before he shot OSWALD. He said that he felt that RUBY hoped to gain fame for himself and his clubs through perhaps perpetrating an attack which would have been stopped before he could carry it out.

CAMPISI said he has always liked RUBY personally, but considered him to be "crazy".

CAMPISI advised he is not acquainted with any of RUBY's associates or acquaintances. He said he does not know if RUBY was acquainted with OSWALD.

CAMPISI further advised he has sent a Christmas card to RUBY at the Dallas County Jail within the past several days.

Mr. NORMAN CARTER, 13937 Bea Street, Dallas, Texas, advised as follows:

He is employed as manager for Midway Liquor Company, Dallas. He has known JACK RUBY since approximately 1949 but has never had any close association with RUBY. When he first met RUBY, he operated the Theatre Lounge, a burlesque club, at Dallas. RUBY at that time operated a dancehall. RUBY contacted him in an effort to obtain information and advice so that he, RUBY, could convert his dancehall which was possibly the Silver Spur Club into a burlesque club. He gave RUBY the desired information and subsequently had occasional contact with RUBY.

He and his wife last visited RUBY's Carousel Club about two weeks prior to November 24, 1963, but did not see RUBY as he was not there that night. In recent years, he has seen RUBY approximately every six months, usually chance meetings. He has not seen RUBY for the past few months.

He does not know of any close friends, either male or female of RUBY. He said that every one in RUBY's type of business is usually well acquainted with many people but very frequently not intimately acquainted with anyone. He does not know anyone who could furnish information concerning RUBY's recent activities or concerning RUBY's activities during the period of November 22 to 24, 1963.

He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

He has never known RUBY to carry a gun.

He has no information concerning the shooting of OSWALD.

Mr. JAMES A. CARSON, 3800 Wilbarger Street, Fort Worth, Texas, stated he was a city fireman for 14 years and two years ago received a disability retirement. At the present time he works for his wife. She owns the Poly-Dairy Queen Shop at 2800 Vaughn in Fort Worth. CARSON stated he is 42 years of age and has been active in the Young Democrats organization for many years. He stated that a political enemy, OSCAR MAUZY, who is a Dallas labor attorney, for several years has represented ABE WEINSTEIN. CARSON stated that he believes that WEINSTEIN and JACK RUBY are possibly related but has no definite information in regard to this relationship. He had no definite information to offer on the case, but it was his theory that WEINSTEIN was possibly tied up with the Cosa Nostra and that they had something to do with the assassination of the President. CARSON was unable to give any definite information on which he based his theory.

CARSON stated he had never seen OSWALD. He stated in about June, 1963, he went to the night club operated by JACK RUBY, which is known as the Carousel. On that occasion he saw RUBY and talked to him briefly. He stated this is the only time he has ever seen RUBY, and he does not actually know him.

Miss INGRID CARTER, 5420 Lewis, Dallas, Texas, was advised that RUBY's records reflected she had been issued Carousel Club pass card number 104 and she was asked for available information concerning his activities and background. Miss CARTER advised that she is employed at the Merchants State Bank in Dallas and RUBY was frequently in the bank on business. A few weeks ago, he gave her a pass card to the Carousel Club. She has never been to the Carousel Club and had no intention of utilizing the pass but simply accepted it as a courtesy to a bank customer.

She advised that she does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information to indicate a connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

JAMES H. CASH was interviewed at 1066 West Mockingbird Lane, Dallas, Texas, and was immediately advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents; of the fact that he did not have to furnish any information; that any information he furnished could be used against him in a court of law; and of his right to consult an attorney.

Mr. CASH was advised that the telephone number ME 1-1700 was found among the personal possessions of JACK RUBY. Mr. CASH stated that ME 1-1700 is his business phone number and furnished the following information in regard thereto:

He has known JACK RUBY since approximately 1960, not as a personal friend, but through his membership at the Sovereign Club. This membership was solicited by mail and he and M. K. MARTIN took out a membership. He did state that RUBY called him in 1961 when he was having money problems with the Sovereigh Club. RUBY at that time wanted to borrow money. This money was not loaned to RUBY. CASH did say that he had prepaid his membership dues of approximately $160 but stated that many of the other members of the Sovereign Club have done the same. He has not seen RUBY since the early part of this year. He did see many people who RUBY told him were policemen in his club but he could not identify these individuals.

CASH recalls that RUBY used to brag to him of the members of the Sovereign Club, especially about a top vice-president of the First National Bank who was supposedly a member of the club at this time.

Mr. CASH knew of no connection between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

BOBBY J. CHAPMAN, residence 1103 Cordova, Dallas, Texas, owner Chapman Motors, 4415 Ross Avenue, Dallas, interviewed on basis of an item secured from JACK RUBY's property in connection with a search of his car, furnished the following information:

CHAPMAN has known JACK RUBY about ten or twelve years. He first met him while RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club on South Ervay Street in Dallas. Subsequently CHAPMAN was in the night club business in Dallas for a period of five years and had numerous contacts with RUBY during that time. He has also visited the Vegas Club and the Carousel Club, Dallas, on numerous occasions during the time RUBY operated these clubs. CHAPMAN always considered JACK RUBY to be a nice person who ran his clubs on an orderly basis. JACK RUBY usually acted as his own bouncer both at the Vegas and Carousel Clubs and on occasion CHAPMAN has seen him throw people out of his clubs when they misbehaved. It was CHAPMAN's impression that RUBY never tried to cause trouble but would quickly meet any that came up. He was quick tempered particularly when someone misbehaved at his club, however, he has never known RUBY to be involved in any fights outside of the clubs.

RUBY was well known to a number of Dallas policemen and on a number of occasions when CHAPMAN would be at RUBY's clubs he would observe a policeman or a detective in the club, however, he does not know of any particular officer who was friendly to or associated with RUBY.

CHAPMAN has no knowledge of any activities of RUBY other than the operation of the Vegas and Carousel Clubs. To CHAPMAN's knowledge, RUBY has no connections outside of Dallas and he has never known him to travel other than possibly a short trip to Chicago where members of his family presently reside.

CHAPMAN was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He never saw OSWALD or an individual similar in appearance to OSWALD at the Vegas or Carousel Clubs during the times CHAPMAN frequented these clubs. CHAPMAN has no knowledge of any association between RUBY and OSWALD.

He is employed as disc jockey at KLIF Radio Station.

He had known JACK RUBY casually for the approximate past two years as a local night club owner and has not personally associated with RUBY.

He said he occasionally saw RUBY at McLean Hair Experts by BRUCE McLEAN. He understands RUBY has received hair treatments at that establishment for the approximate past four or five years. TEXAS

He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no information indicating any possible relationship between RUBY and OSWALD, or concerning the shooting of OSWALD.

Approximately one month ago, RUBY appeared at the radio station and had him sign his signature on a pass card for the Carousel Club. RUBY took the card and said he would later return it to him after it was completed, but did not do so.

RAY S. CLAIBORNE, 9971 Mixon Drive, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

CLAIBORNE, who owns and operates the AAA Auto Racing Agency, Dallas, Texas, advised that from approximately August, 1951 to October, 1961, he was in the employ of Nichols Enterprises, Inc., which has property holdings in Dallas. In the late 1950's, when RUBY opened up the Carousel Club on Commerce Street, RUBY became a tenant of Nichols Enterprises, Inc., at 1312 Commerce Street. CLAIBORNE stated he handled the rent collections from RUBY for Nichols Enterprises and, through these business dealings, he became acquainted with RUBY on a business basis. He recalled that RUBY was often behind in his rent and was also slow in making his payments. The last time CLAIBORNE saw RUBY was in early 1963 when RUBY came to see CLAIBORNE, who was then in the employ of the Climatic Air of Dallas, Inc. RUBY at that time was seeking to renew the lease for the property at the Carousel Club. Nichols Enterprises had advised RUBY that they were considering not renewing his lease, as they had another prospective tenant for that location. RUBY had come to see CLAIBORNE in an effort to have him intervene with Nichols Enterprises so that he, RUBY, could renew his lease. CLAIBORNE stated he told RUBY he, CLAIBORNE, was no longer associated with the company, and that RUBY would have to settle this matter with somebody at Nichols Enterprises.

CLAIBORNE stated he did not know RUBY on a social basis; he had no information pertaining to any of UBY's friends or associates, nor did he know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and he further advised he had no knowledge of any association or acquaintance between OSWALD and RUBY.

JOSEPH CODY, Detective, Dallas Police Department, advised that he has known JACK RUBY for twelve or thirteen years. CODY stated that he went to work for the Dallas Police Department in 1950 and was assigned to the Patrol Division, which covered South Ervay Street, where JACK RUBY was operating the Silver Spur. CODY stated he saw RUBY around his place of business on several occasions.

CODY stated he was in the Korean War and was assigned in the Counter Intelligence Corps. He stated that while on that assignment he had been assigned in Dallas part of the time and, during that time, had gone into the Silver Spur, The Carousel, and the Vegas Clubs, on several occasions. He stated that RUBY liked any kind of officer and always wanted to be in a position of helping them. CODY advised he recalled one incident in particular when three individuals had jumped on two officers in Ruby's place, at which time RUBY got into the fight and gave a good account of himself. He stated RUBY is an unusually good "rough-and-tumble fighter" and he believed RUBY could have whipped all three of these characters, inasmuch as he is very strong and also fast with it.

CODY stated that after World War II was over and he returned to the Police Department in Dallas he saw RUBY occasionally on official business. He mentioned that about three years ago RUBY had a sign stolen from the front of the Carousel Club, which was valued at approximately $100.00. CODY stated at that time he was in the Theft Bureau and had gone over there in his official capacity. CODY also stated that, approximately one month before RUBY shot OSWALD, RUBY had called and asked him to come by the Carousel. CODY stated he did not know the nature of the call until he arrived there, but found out RUBY wanted his advice on where he could locate a new safe which he was planning on purchasing to put in the Carousel. CODY stated RUBY had said he wanted to put it where it wouldn't be noticeable and yet it could easily be heard in the event burglars tried to get into it. CODY stated he told RUBY, "You might as well put it out in the middle of the dance floor," and added that there wasn't anyplace where RUBY could have located it to get the results he desired.

CODY also stated that he, CODY, had been a hockey player and he goes out to Fair Park and skates occasionally. He stated that RUBY prides himself on his fighting prowess and tries to stay in pretty good shape and that RUBY also goes out and skates. CODY stated he had never gone out with RUBY socially and had never made previous arrangements to go skating with RUBY, but he estimated there had been at least a half dozen times in the last two or three years that RUBY had arrived at Fair Park while he, CODY, had been skating. CODY stated that on these occasions they had skated together; that RUBY was not in the pro class, but he was a much better skater than average. CODY stated he was sure RUBY did consider him a friend and added RUBY liked to be in a position of having police officers for friends, although RUBY never asked or expected anything from policemen to CODY's knowledge. CODY further advised he had heard RUBY carried a gun and imagined it was true, although he had never personally seen a gun on RUBY. He was sure that RUBY carries large amounts of money with him, especially late at night when he closed down his "joints" and stated, in view of this, he had no doubt about RUBY carrying a gun at times.

CODY also advised he had not been in Dallas the day that RUBY shot OSWALD. CODY advised he had a pilot's license and while flying had some trouble with the plane and, while flying low, had hit a high wire with the wing of the plane and had been forced down on Lake Bistineau near Shreveport, Louisiana. CODY stated he did not know that RUBY had killed OSWALD until he had heard it on the radio Sunday night, November 24, 1963. CODY stated he had really been surprised when he heard RUBY had shot OSWALD, as he never figured RUBY was the type who would do anything of that nature, although he apparently liked to fight. CODY stated he was high-tempered and would get worked up to a fighting pitch over nothing.

CODY did not know anything about the plans for security at the time OSWALD was supposed to be moved from the City to the County Jail. He never worked for RUBY and does not know any other person who did.

FRANK COKER, 4039-A North Central Expressway, Dallas, Texas, employee in the Ad Department of the Dallas "Morning News", advised he has been acquainted with JACK RUBY for about the past three or four years in that RUBY brought ads to the newspaper. In some instances RUBY brought in ads after the newspaper deadline in which instance these ads would be brought to COKER's attention as he had to approve them.

About three weeks before the assassination of President KENNEDY when RUBY was at the newspaper to place an ad, he told COKER he was giving him a Carousel Club pass. COKER has never visited the Carousel Club and had no occasion to use the pass. He has visited at the Vegas Club on several occasions at which time he might see RUBY and say hello to him. His association with RUBY was primarily involved with RUBY's placing ads with the newspaper and he has no idea as to what prompted RUBY to shoot OSWALD.

He knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD and knew of no individuals involved with either RUBY or OSWALD in connection with the shootings.

WILLARD P. DeLACY, 5010 Cedar Springs, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

Mr. DeLACY owns and publishes the magazine, "Prevue of Dallas," a visitors' guide, setting forth the activities in Dallas. He has operated this magazine for approximately four years. Prior to that he was associated with a similar magazine known as, "This Month in Dallas," with which he was associated from approximately 1949 to 1956. DeLACY, while operating the magazine, "This Month in Dallas," met JACK RUBY in the early 1950's when RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Lounge. Periodically RUBY would request DeLACY to carry gossip items pertaining to his club which in turn would encourage business at the Silver Spur Lounge. DeLACY described RUBY as a person who liked publicity and liked to play the roll of a "big shot" and was a typical "huckster."

DeLACY stated that he last saw RUBY on November 19, 1963, at approximately 1:00 p.m., at the Holiday Inn Motel. On that afternoon, DeLACY was at a luncheon and he received a call from RUBY. RUBY wanted to see him in connection with a publicity angle on a twist board that RUBY wanted to produce. DeLACY asked RUBY to come out to the Holiday Inn Motel to see him which RUBY did. At that time, RUBY brought with him a $50 cashier's check for payment for an ad which was run in the November issue of the "Prevue of Dallas" magazine describing the New Carousel Club. DeLACY stated that they discussed the promotion of the twist board and he, DeLACY, advised RUBY that he wanted no part of the operation as the twist is dead and the twist board could not possibly be a good promotional article at this time.

At the time of the shooting of OSWALD in the basement of the Dallas Police Department, DeLACY was at home and did see the shooting on television. When he learned that RUBY had shot OSWALD, he immediately went down to his photo lab to look through his pictures as he knew there would probably be great demand for any photographs of RUBY. DeLACY found a photograph he had taken of RUBY in a group at the opening of the University Club, Dallas, Texas, in late September. DeLACY recalled that on the evening of the opening of the University Club he and his wife attended the affair. During the evening,

JACK RUBY and one of his entertainers whose stage name is JADA, appeared at the University Club, between shows at the Carousel Club. Since most of the tables were filled at the University Club, DeLACY suggested to RUBY when he saw him, that RUBY join DeLACY and his wife at their table and at that time DeLACY met JADA for the first time. Later that evening, a group of people were standing together, including JACK RUBY and JADA, and somebody mentioned, "Take a picture of us." DeLACY did take the picture.

On the late afternoon of November 24, 1963, the day of the shooting of OSWALD, DeLACY found the photograph and was immediately made offers on the photograph by representatives of "Life," "Saturday Evening Post," and a French magazine company. Representatives of these firms got into bidding for the photograph and DeLACY sold the photograph to LAWRENCE SCHILLER, 1055 Alskog Street, Sun Valley, California, a photographer for the "Saturday Evening Post."

DeLACY stated that on November 24, 1963, while at the Kincaid Photo Studios in Dallas, which is a gathering place for photographers who want expeditious and outstanding photography work done in the development of film, he and many other photographers and pressmen were discussing the whereabouts of JIMMY RHODES. Representatives of "Time," "Life," "Saturday Evening Post," and other pictorial magazines all were in agreement that if RHODES could be located he would be a source for many photographs pertaining to JACK RUBY and the Carousel Club as RHODES for many years had been in the employ and had been the photographer for RUBY and often took pictures of new acts and the entertainers at the Carousel Club.

On November 27, 1963, while at the Press Club, Dallas, DeLACY heard that "Life" magazine had located RHODES and probably had bought all of RHODES' pictures. On approximately December 4, 1963, RHODES met SHELL HERSHORN of the "Life" magazine Bureau, Dallas, Texas. At that time HERSHORN told DeLACY that "Life" magazine had paid RHODES $5,000 for his entire album of photographs pertaining to JACK RUBY and the Carousel Club. According to HERSHORN, very few of the pictures are the type that can be used by "Life" magazine as most of them border on obscenity and could be classified as lewd. According to DeLACY, who advises he has not himself seen the photographs, some of them are risque shots of RUBY with some of his entertainers.

DeLACY did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew nothing about any acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD.

Date December 17, 1963

SHELDON (SHELL) HERSHORN, 2825 Lover's Lane, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

Mr. SHELL HERSHORN is a free-lance photographer represented by Black Star Publishing Company, 450 Park South, New York City. He is also the Southwest Region Photographic Correspondent for "Life" magazine and works out of the Miami Regional Bureau of "Life" magazine.

On about Monday, November 25, 1963, HERSHORN was at the Kincaid Photographic Studio, Dallas. The general discussion among other photographers also there was that if JIMMY RHODES, a former employee of JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club, could be located, he would be the source of many photographs of RUBY and of activities at the Carousel Club. HERSHORN, who has known RHODES for many years, attempted to locate RHODES at RHODES' photographic studio on Cedar Springs Avenue in Dallas. HERSHORN learned that RHODES was out of town and probably at the home of his parents in Sulphur Springs, Texas. HERSHORN stated that since the "Life" magazine deadline could not be met, he decided against any contact with RHODES regarding any pictures pertaining to RUBY.

On either November 25 or 26, 1963, HERSHORN received a phone call from "Time-Life" representative ROSE GRAHAM, Houston, Texas, wherein HERSHORN was advised that the New York Office of "Time-Life" wanted pictures of RUBY. HERSHORN advised GRAHAM of RHODES and also told her that RHODES could be located at Sulphur Springs, Texas. Shortly thereafter, HERSHORN received a telephone call from RHODES who was at Sulphur Springs, Texas, wherein RHODES advised HERSHORN that he had numerous pictures of RUBY and of entertainers taken at the Carousel Club. HERSHORN and MAYNARD PARKER, "Life" staff representative, New York Office, drove to Sulphur Springs, Texas, and met with RHODES. RHODES displayed to them a folder of contact sheets containing numerous photographs, mainly of strippers from the Carousel Club and also one contact sheet depicting RUBY interviewing a prospective employee in his office. The one contact sheet on an 8x10 sheet containing 12 separate pictures in sequence showed RUBY and the prospective employee in RUBY's office. This is the only sheet of photographs that was sent to the New York Office of "Life" magazine. The remaining photographs of

by Special Agent JAMES S. WEIR:EL Date dictated 12/17/63

strippers are in the possession of HERSHORN at Dallas.

HERSHORN stated definitely that the above 12 shots of RUBY and the employee contain nothing that could be construed as being lewd or pornographic. He stated that the photographs would be the type that "Life", if they chose, could run in their magazine. In addition to the above contact sheet, RHODES also furnished HERSHORN and PARKER approximately 15 to 20 sheets with 12 photographs per sheet, showing strippers. HERSHORN described these photographs as studio-posed publicity shots that would be similar to photographs that might be displayed in a magazine such as "Playboy". He also advised that they would be photographs that would be used by clubs such as the Carousel Club to be posted at the entrance of the club advising patrons of the current entertainers engaged at the club.

Upon viewing the above described photographs, PARKER and HERSHORN committed "Life" magazine to the fee of $200 for the photographs with the stipulation that an additional fee, not determined, would be paid to RHODES in the event that "Life" used any of the above pictures in their magazine. The $200 promised to RHODES is considered a holding fee which is a normal means of transacting business in the free-lance photographic trade.

HERSHORN was emphatic that the $200 was all that was promised to RHODES and he stated definitely that RHODES did not receive any sum similar to $5,000. HERSHORN stated that none of the photographs in the possession of RHODES could be considered pornographic nor was RUBY shown in any lewd or compromising photograph.

HERSHORN has received two or three phone calls within the last week from RHODES wherein RHODES has advised HERSHORN that he as yet has not received the $200 from "Life" magazine.

HERSHORN advised that he does not know RUBY and that he has never been in the Carousel Club. He stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he has no knowledge of any association or acquaintanceship between OSWALD and RUBY.

EDWARD T. DICKER, 3514 Welborn, Telephone LA 1-5179, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed in that the name "EDDIE DICKER" was found in a book which was the property of JACK RUBY. DICKER advised that he served in the Texas House of Representatives during 1951-52 and during that time he received a telephone call from JACK RUBY concerning his business license. DICKER stated he was not interested in this matter but RUBY came to see him nevertheless. DICKER discussed this matter with RUBY but told RUBY he was unable to do anything for him and DICKER stated he did not recall the details or circumstances concerning this conversation but he is of the opinion it was about a license of some type. Shortly thereafter, RUBY came to his office one day and presented him with Sovereign Club membership card #171 bearing the name E. T. DICKER indicating that he was a lifetime charter member. This card was sealed in plastic and bore a signature of E. T. DICKER; however, DICKER stated that he did not sign this card and the signature was not his.

Since first meeting RUBY he has seen RUBY approximately a dozen times in various restaurants and he stated that RUBY is the type of man who will always stop at someone's table and speak to them once he has met them. DICKER continued that he has never had any business dealings with RUBY, does not know his close associates, has no idea of RUBY's activities or anything concerning RUBY. He stated he last saw RUBY sometime during the summer of 1963 at the Cabana Motel in Dallas. DICKER stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no information as to whether JACK RUBY and OSWALD were associated in any manner.

KENNETH L. DOWE, 1008 Beechwood, Apartment #1001, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He is a radio announcer for radio station KLIF, Dallas, and works under the name KEN DOWE. He has been in Dallas for about six weeks and after the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD he recalled that an individual who stopped by the radio station on a couple of occasions was JACK RUBY. He also recalled that on November 23, 1963, he received three telephone calls on the KLIF "Hot Line" which is phone number RI 7-9319. He stated on the first call an individual requested to know if he had any information as to when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was going to be transferred. On the second call the same individual inquired as to whether any of the KLIF newsmen were at the City Hall. This individual then asked him if he knew who he was and when he said he did not, the individual identified himself as JACK RUBY. On the third call, RUBY, who he now realized had made the first two calls, told him that he would call the radio station if he learned anything newsworthy as he was going to personally go to the City Hall. As best he could recall these three calls were made between 2:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m., on November 23, 1963. He knows nothing concerning RUBY's background, personal life, or political convictions and does not know why he shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He never heard of OSWALD prior to President KENNEDY's assassination and knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

He stated that CHUCK DUNAWAY was formerly an announcer for KLIF and now resides at 1438 Oates Drive in Dallas and is employed by Abnack Record Company in Dallas.

JEROME P. DOYLE, 5409 Lewis, Apartment #2, Dallas, Texas, residence phone TA 1-0529, furnished the following information: B APPRO 1896

He is sometimes known as GERRY DOYLE and is presently employed with the Dallas "Times Herald," on special assignment. He was not at the Dallas City Hall building during the weekend of November 24, 1963, as he suffered a heart attack upon learning of the President's assassination.

He is 67 years of age and has been in the newspaper business since the 1930's. He worked for Associated Press (AP) in Chicago, Illinois, and covered police news. He never heard of JACK RUBY during the time he was located in Chicago and added that he was very familiar with the names of individuals connected with the criminal element there. The last time he saw RUBY was at a Trade Fair recently held in Dallas and RUBY was somehow connected with the manufacture of a "twist board." He did not know the identity of the individual RUBY was with. He believed this was during late October of this year and at that time RUBY asked him if he would like to have a membership in his Carousel Club. He told him he was not interested but later received a membership card through the mail from RUBY.

He has been in Dallas for the last three years and most of the time has been connected with the Dallas "Times Herald," being on special assignment with the AP. He has seen RUBY on a number of occasions at the "Times Herald" and RUBY was constantly hounding him for any publicity angle possible regarding his clubs. The only thing he knew about RUBY's background was that he had mentioned that he was from Chicago. He knew nothing concerning RUBY's political convictions, personal life, or who his close associates might be. He had not heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination, had no idea as to why RUBY shot OSWALD and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD. He stated he made every effort to avoid RUBY whenever he was in his presence.

MICHAEL P. DOYLE, District Manager, Waukesha Sales, 2635 Manana Drive, was found to be identical to a person named MICKEY DOYLE, which name was found in a book which was the property of JACK RUBY. DALLAS TEXAS

Mr. DOYLE was contacted at his office, at which time he advised he has known JACK RUBY since about 1955 and became acquainted with him at the Vegas Club. DOYLE stated that, although he was on a first-name basis with RUBY, he knows nothing of a personal nature concerning him and only attended his club when entertaining customers from out of town.

DOYLE stated he never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of the President and has no knowledge of the murder of OSWALD by RUBY, other than what he has read in the newspapers and has seen on television.

DOYLE stated the last time he saw RUBY was on the evening of October 12, 1963, in the Century Room of the Adolphus Hotel when he talked with RUBY for about an hour between 8:00 PM and 10:00 PM. DOYLE recalls this date as it was the week end of the Texas - Oklahoma Football Game.

CHARLES R. DUNAWAY, 1438 Oates Drive, Dallas, Texas, residence phone DA 1-9118, furnished the following information:

He stated he has lived in Dallas for two or three months and formerly worked as an announcer for radio station KLIF under the name CHUCK DUNAWAY. He stated while he was employed by KLIF about two weeks ago, an individual who identified himself as JACK RUBY came to the radio station and passed out membership cards to the Carousel Club in Dallas. He had seen this individual in the radio station on a number of occasions dating back to late September of this year and he apparently knew most of the newsmen there. He went to the club on one occasion about two weeks ago and chatted with JACK RUBY very briefly while there.

He knows nothing concerning RUBY's background, personal life or political convictions and does not know any of his close friends or associates. He has no idea as to why RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mr. JAMES LINDSEY EMERY, 3 Richardson Heights Village, Dallas, Texas, whose name J. L. EMERY appeared in a book which was the property of JACK RUBY, advised as follows:

He is a real estate operator and part owner of an apartment house located in the 4700 block of Homer Street, Dallas, where RUBY rented an apartment for approximately one year prior to about one and one-half years ago. He has only seen and talked to RUBY on three or four occasions, all during the period when RUBY rented the apartment.

He never had any close personal associations with RUBY. He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no information concerning any possible relationship between RUBY and OSWALD. He had no information concerning the shooting of OSWALD.

EDWARD FEIN, tailor, Room 302, 1521 Commerce, Dallas, Texas, was advised that RUBY's records indicated he had been issued Carousel Club pass card no. 143 and he was asked for details concerning his acquaintance with RUBY. Mr. FEIN advised that RUBY brought some trousers to his place of business to be altered about November 9, 1963, to the best of his recollection, and he has never returned for the trousers. Prior to that, he was contacted only on one or two occasions by RUBY, in each instance RUBY came to his place of business for tailer work. RUBY gave him the pass card on one of these occasions.

FEIN has never been to the Carousel Club and has had no opportunity to learn anything concerning Mr. RUBY's background, personal live, activities or associates. He does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information to indicate a connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

HUGH FOWLER, owner, Hugh Fowler Entertainment Agency, 2533 McKinney Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised his name and telephone number, RI 7-7895, might very well have been located in JACK RUBY's property in a search of RUBY's car. FOWLER explained that his entertainment agency books a number of bands throughout the country and books various entertainment acts for club entertainment. He has never booked any entertainers for RUBY in the various clubs he has operated including the Carousel Club, but he is aware that RUBY has been in the entertainment business in Dallas for a number of years. He has not personally seen RUBY for at least four years but has been contacted by RUBY in connection with the entertainment business about four or five times during the past four years. About ten days to two weeks previously, RUBY called him indicating he was short of talent and would be interested in FOWLER's taking over his account. FOWLER explained that his agency was not capable of handling that business.

FOWLER advised he was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD, and knew of no individuals involved with OSWALD or RUBY in the shootings in Dallas, Texas.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES P. GLOMEK in connection with items secured from RUBY's property in the search of his car:

On December 12, 1963, Miss SARAH BLAIR, Office Manager, Gaston Cafeterias, Inc., 3607 Gaston, advised that she was not acquainted with JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew of no association between these two people and knew of no other individuals possibly involved with them in the shootings.

She advised that telephone number TA 4-5820, Room 214, Miss BLAIR M. BLAIR, undoubtedly referred to her as she is the only BLAIR working in Room 214 with has this telephone number. She did not recall ever receiving a telephone call from JACK RUBY. She explained, however, that he might have recorded that information and called her for any number of reasons, such as catering or to secure any information about any of the Gaston Cafeterias. She receives numerous such telephone calls on a daily basis.

MONSIEUR FROMAGE, 4015 Cedar Springs, Dallas, Texas, telephone LI 8-9453, advised he operates a business of "dinners by appointment" and is not acquainted with JACK RUBY. He knew of no association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no other individuals as possibly involved with these two men in the shootings.

He explained that his only contact with RUBY was about six weeks ago. At that time a young woman named LINDA ZUMWALT (PH) stopped by FROMAGE's office. RUBY was giving her a ride downtown and stopped by to pick her up. At the time he picked her up, he came in the office and picked up one of FROMAGE's business cards.

Mrs. JANET M. GARY, 4064 Beechwood, Dallas, Texas, telephone number FL 2-5043, whose name and telephone number and employment were listed as "JANET M. GARY, RI 7-8921, Oil Well Supply Company, 2001 N. Lamar" in a book which was the property of JACK RUBY and who is believed either to be a member or a temporary member of one of JACK RUBY's clubs, was contacted at which time she furnished the following information:

Approximately three or four years ago, exact date she could not recall, she joined this Sovereign Club which she described as being a private social club in Dallas. The Sovereign Club is no longer in existence to the best of her knowledge and is believed to be known as the Carousel Club at the present time. She could not recall the exact circumstances surrounding her membership with the Sovereign Club, but could recall joining the club strictly for the entertainment. Mrs. GARY stated that to the best of her knowledge JACK RUBY was not associated with the Sovereign Club when it was first opened in Dallas but later was introduced to JACK RUBY as a person who was then running the club. She estimated her visits to the Sovereign Club around four times and could recall talking to RUBY only on one occasion, exact date again she could not recall. During this particular conversation, she could recall JACK RUBY introducing himself as being the owner and manager and the conversation that followed was strictly concerning the entertainment that was at the Sovereign Club that particular evening.

Mrs. GARY advised that she does not consider herself a close friend of JACK RUBY and related that he was just a individual that she had met during her visits to the Sovereign Club. The only other contact she had with JACK RUBY was approximately three years ago when she received a Christmas card from RUBY. She was of the opinion that RUBY had sent several cards and especially to those individuals that were either permanent or temporary members of the Sovereign Club.

Mrs. GARY explained that telephone number RI 7-8921 and the notation, Oil Well Supply Company, 2001 N. Lamar, is her place of employment and was of the opinion that RUBY had possibly obtained this information when she became a member of the Sovereign Club. She advised that she has never had any personal contact with any of RUBY's relatives and could offer no information concerning RUBY's background or his friends and associates.

Mrs. GARY further advised that the first time she heard the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD, was either in the local newspapers or television and she knew of no connection whatsoever between RUBY and OSWALD. She was unable to furnish any information as to why RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 24, 1963 and could not realize why he had done such a thing. She knows of no one who has conspired with RUBY to kill LEE HARVEY OSWALD and could offer no information in regard to this matter.

OLIVER GATES, JR., 13436 Redfern, Dallas, Texas, who is captain of bellboys at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, was interviewed because he was believed to own Carousel Club pass card no. 106. GATES furnished the following information:

He has been acquainted with JACK RUBY for a period of approximately two years. RUBY often comes to the hotel "glad-handing", giving out cards to his club, and attempting to get persons to come to his club. He has approached GATES on numerous occasions and asked him to send patrons to the club.

GATES has never even had so much as a cup of coffee with JACK RUBY. RUBY contacted GATES strictly to promote his business and GATES said he "meets those kind of guys all the time."

At the time RUBY gave GATES a card he also gave L. D. HENDERSON, TEXAS bellhop at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, a membership card. GATES advised, however, that he is sure HENDERSON does not know RUBY any better and probably not as well as he, GATES, knows him.

GATES has been to the Carousel Club only three or four times, approximately. The only thing he received was free admission. He paid the regular price for his food and drinks.

GATES, to his knowledge, has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

W. R. GILLILAND, Manager, Doubleday Book Store, 1511 Commerce, Dallas, Texas, whose name was found in JACK RUBY's car when the car was searched, furnished the following information:

He has known JACK RUBY for many years. He estimated that he first knew who RUBY was approximately eight years ago. RUBY has in the past stopped in the book store managed by Mr. GILLILAND and purchased books. GILLILAND formerly went to the Vegas Club on occasion when it first began operation, but has not been to that club for some time.

From time to time GILLILAND has gone to the Carousel Club and he became better acquainted with RUBY through these activities. He last went to the Carousel Club approximately four months ago with his wife.

GILLILAND thinks that one of the main reasons RUBY likes him is because GILLILAND is educated and speaks good English and, in RUBY's opinion, has a fairly high status in the world. By this he meant that if he were making his same salary as a common laborer or waiter or some other job, he does not think RUBY would spend much time with him. He said RUBY likes to associate with persons whom he considers educated and with a high status in life. GILLILAND has a good education.

RUBY has never been in GILLILAND's home and about the only contact GILLILAND has with RUBY is when RUBY stops by the store on occasion or very infrequently GILLILAND goes to the Carousel Club. GILLILAND thinks that RUBY is possibly doing things to boost his ego.

Approximately six weeks ago, JACK RUBY stopped GILLILAND on the street and said "Say, you're a good guy. I want to give you a lifetime pass to my club." This was approximately November 1, 1963. RUBY got GILLILAND's complete name, address, and telephone number. GILLILAND feels sure this is how the FBI obtained his name. GILLILAND advised that to his knowledge he never received a pass card.

GILLILAND advised that he has read in the local papers stories which he believes indicate that RUBY may possibly be homosexual. GILLILAND has never received the impression that RUBY is a homosexual and he believes that RUBY is not homosexual.

GILLILAND advised that to his knowledge he never saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no reason to believe there was any connection between JACK RUBY and OSWALD prior to the shooting of OSWALD.

RALPH GISMONT, 1020 Beechview, Dallas, Texas, telephone 7-4373, who is an attorney in Dallas, Texas, was interviewed as to how it could be verified that JACK RUBY was in the office of MAX RUDBERG on November 21, 1963.

Mr. GISMONT advised he was in the office of MAX RUDBERG, AA Bonding Service, on November 21, 1963. He checked receipt number 373 which he had received from the company and which is dated November 21, 1963. Mr. GISMONT said this is the way he is sure it was on November 21, 1963, when he was in RUDBERG's office.

Mr. GISMONT informed that he was introduced to JACK RUBY on that date in RUDBERG's office. He said that the time was between approximately 11 a.m. and 12 noon. GISMONT stated that on that occasion RUBY gave MAX RUDBERG and GISMONT a pass to his Carousel Club and then took the passes back so that he, RUBY, could have the passes laminated.

GISMONT said that this is the only occasion he ever talked with RUBY and he does not know of any connection between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

NORMA GOLDSOBEL, 3411 Hildalgo Drive, telephone number FL 2-3103, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed in that her name was found in the search of RUBY's personal effects. GOLDSOBEL advised she is an area representative for Lenel Perfume Company and as such contacts numerous individuals throughout the Dallas area. She also displays this perfume line at various fashion and model shows. She recalled about a year ago displaying her products at the Adolphus Hotel and after this showing she crossed the street to the Nichols Garage to obtain her car. While standing there a man walked up and spoke to her. She turned to this man and asked who he was in that she did not recognize him. He introduced himself as JACK RUBY and they talked for the few moments it took the garage attendant to obtain her automobile. She did not recall giving her name to RUBY. She suggested that possibly one of the garage attendants may have told RUBY who she was in that she has parked her car in this garage on numerous occasions and she is possibly known to the employees there.

GOLDSOBEL stated that she has never had any association with JACK RUBY, does not know his associates or any of his activities, has no idea what connections he might have with the police department, why he shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, or anything about RUBY. She stated this is the one and only time she ever recalls talking to JACK RUBY. She also stated that she did not know OSWALD and had never heard of him until she had read about him in the papers.

During 1962, she became acquainted with an entertainment group known as the Flickers. This group had appeared at Monroe several times and consisted of RAYE SNYDER, RITA TANNER, CAL and DICK (Last Names Unknown).

On October 15, 1962, the Flickers opened a two week engagement at Pat Morgan's Club, Dallas, Texas. During this two week period she spent three or four days visiting with the Flickers and stayed with RITA TANNER at the Alamo Plaza Motel. This was her first and only trip to Dallas.

On the occasion of RITA TANNER's birthday she was invited to a party at an apartment in Dallas. She went at the invitation of the Flickers and does not know who gave the party or in whose apartment it was held. There were a number of people and all of them strangers to her except for the Flickers.

A man introduced to her as JACK RUBY came to the party and appeared to be well acquainted with those present. RUBY engaged her in conversation, learned her name, and when she told him she was not then employed, he asked her to work for him as a hostess at the Caroussel Club in Dallas. She refused the offer. Her conversation with RUBY was casual and she did not give RUBY any further thought, however, upon her return to West Monroe, RUBY telephoned her three or four times and again offered her a job at his club each of which offer she refused. The last phone call she received from RUBY was just prior to New Years 1962, at which time RUBY invited her to be his guest at a New Year's Eve Party to be held at some club other than the Caroussel or at some motel in which RUBY said he had an interest. She is not sure where the party was to have been held. She refused this offer and has had no further contact with RUBY since that time.

She knows nothing of RUBY except he claimed to own the Caroussel Club. She does not know any of his friends and associates and never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD until November 22, 1963, the day President JOHN F. KENNEDY was assassinated.

She does not know where the Flickers are at the present time but has heard that they have broken up their act. She does not know how they could be reached except SNYDER originally came from Birmingham, Alabama, and RITA TANNER came from Biloxi, Mississippi.

GARNETT CLAUD HALLMARK, advised he is the manager of the Allright Parking, 701 Wilson Building, Dallas, Texas telephone number RI 8-5943.

HALLMARK said he recalled an incident which had been referred to by THOMAS RAYMOND BROWN, when BROWN was interviewed by the FBI concerning some phone calls which were made by JACK RUBY on November 23, 1963, from Nichols Brothers Parking Garage at 1320 Commerce, Dallas, Texas.

HALLMARK said he was at the above garage during the afternoon of November 23, 1963, and he recalled that at about 2:50 p.m., JACK RUBY drove into the garage in RUBY's 1960 white Oldsmobile. He said RUBY asked permission to use the telephone and said, "CLAUD, I am acting like a reporter."

While dialing a number, RUBY asked, "Is the Colony Club going to be open today?" (November 23, 1963). HALLMARK said he replied, "I do not know." RUBY then said they would not have the nerve to open after they have seen his ad.

HALLMARK said RUBY then got his number and in his conversation with some party, unknown to HALLMARK, RUBY said, "Hell, well my places the Carousel and Vegas will be closed."

HALLMARK said RUBY dialed a second number and asked for a reporter whose name was "WES WISE." RUBY determined this person was not in and remarked, "oh, this is Ken." Then RUBY related to KEN that his places would be closed and his conversation switched to some remarks concerning the transfer of OSWALD. TEXAS

Mr. HALLMARK said he got the impression that OSWALD's transfer was to take place that afternoon, Saturday, November 23, 1963. He said that RUBY told KEN, "they have started strewing the flowers at the scene of the assassination."

and possibly the transfer (possibly OSWALD's), will be delayed. HALLMARK said he did not know what KEN told RUBY, but JACK RUBY made a remark during the conversation, "You know I'll be there." RUBY then ended his telephone conversation and told HALLMARK thanks for the the use of phone and asked for change for a $10.00 bill.

HALLMARK said RUBY walked East on Commerce and returned about two minutes later and stood in front of the Nichols Bros. office at 1320 Commerce where he acted as if he wanted to talk, but did not say anything. Finally, he did say, "I'll see you Claud." Then RUBY got into the car and drove East on Commerce. Mr. HALLMARK said this occurred at 3:05 p.m. and he was sure about the time because he had a schedule that would require him to leave at 3:15 p.m. to go to 1920 Elm.

HALLMARK said that during this time THOMAS RAYMOND BROWN, his employee, was in and out of the office while RUBY was making his telephone calls. He said that he believed BROWN went out for coffee while he and RUBY were talking and BROWN had to go in and out of the office to give customers their parking ticket.

HALLMARK related that he had known JACK RUBY for over three years and has had many business dealings with him, because customers in RUBY's clubs parked in the Nichols Bros. Garage and for sometime RUBY had a contract to pay the parking fees when his customers used the parking facilities.

HALLMARK said he would consider RUBY "rather a pre-occupied person, who was very intent." He said RUBY was either "for or against you." He produced a letter which he has received from RUBY since RUBY has been incarcerated at Dallas, Texas, which he said the FBI might use for any purpose it might service in any investigation they are conducting. He requested that this letter be returned to him when the FBI completed the use of it.

This letter is described as follows:

It was postmarked 4:30 p.m., December 8, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, and addressed to "Claude % Allright Parking, 1320 Commerce, Dallas. Manager."

It contains the following note written on two pieces of blank white paper, approximately 4x6 inches:

"County Jail
12/7/63

"Dear Claude

"I can just feel you are for me, and want you all to know that I think of you often. Tell Ben, that even though he is in bad shape physically, look at me I'm in good shape, but what good is that going to do me now.

"Say hello to Mac, and all the boys.

"Sincerely _____

/s/ Jack Ruby"

Mr. HALLMARK said he has not discussed the telephone conversation with anyone except THOMAS BROWN, his employee, who was present when RUBY came in to use the phone on November 23, 1963. He said he did not know of any possible connection or relationship between OSWALD and RUBY and said RUBY had never mentioned the name "Oswald" to him at any time. He stated that RUBY never mentioned OSWALD's name even when he remarked to the person he called on the phone that it was terrible that the President had been killed.

He said he never saw RUBY mistreat anyone in either of his clubs. He said he had visited the Vegas Club once or twice in late 1956 or early 1957 and had also been in the Carousel Club about four or five times since that time and he then went with friends or acquaintances who visited the club out of "curiosity".

Mr. HALLMARK said he did not know any of RUBY's close frieds or associates. He said he recalled RUBY was apparently friently with the Master of Ceremonies, who performed at his clubs. He said the Master of Ceremonies name was WALLY WESTON. He said he also knows one other entertainer by name and she is KATHY KAY, who came from England.

HALLMARK said he feels sure RUBY was hard to work for because he demanded perfection and was strict in his operation of the clubs. He said he seriously believed that RUBY would never allow the entertainers to solicit dates in the clubs. He said RUBY once told him he would not "mess" with the girls himself. Mr. HALLMARK advised he recalled some waitresses whose identity he did not know were fired when they reported to work at the clubs while under the influence of alcohol and he heard from an unrecalled source that some of RUBY's employees claimed RUBY beat them out of their pay.

HALLMARK could not identify any of these persons by name. He advised he has witnessed RUBY when he called patrons down for using vulgar or profane language, but he never saw him fight or attack anyone.

HALLMARK said that RUBY had discussed the fact with him about a year ago that some of his employees who were fired might give him some trouble, so he had obtained a pistol. Mr. HALLMARK said he never saw this gun, but RUBY had told him if he ever needed a gun he was welcome to use the gun he had.

HALLMARK examined a photo of OSWALD which was made at New Orleans, Louisiana, and bore number 112723 and which was dated August 9, 1963, and said he did not know anyone resembling the photo as ever having been in either of RUBY's clubs. He said of course since the assassination of the President, he has seen this person on TV and in the newspapers.

HALLMARK identified "BEN" as BEN AUSTIN, the manager of the Nichols Garage and "MAC" as MAC JONES, a NEGRO colored parking attendant about 60 years old, who works at the Nichols Bros. Garage. It is noted that the above names were mentioned in the letter which Mr. HALLMARK received from JACK RUBY and which was furnished the Dallas Office.

Mr. JACK HAMMOND, Manager, Deluxe Diner #1, 315 South Ervay, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed and immediately advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents; of that fact that he did not have to make any statement; that any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law; and of his right to consult an attorney. He furnished the following information:

For approximately two months prior to the date the President was assassinated, LEE HARVEY OSWALD would come into the diner and order french fries. HAMMOND stated that he recognized OSWALD from the newspaper pictures that he had seen. He also stated that he knows JACK RUBY on sight and that he never saw RUBY and OSWALD together at his diner. In fact, he stated, to his knowledge RUBY has never been in his diner. He knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD or of any conspiracy between RUBY and any other individual to kill OSWALD. He knew nothing of RUBY's travels; had never been in RUBY's clubs; knew of no close connection between RUBY and any police officer; or the names of any organizations to which RUBY belonged.

JIM BUCK HUGGINS, 10006 Avon, Dallas, TEXAS, was advised that his name appeared in a list of names found in a book which was the property of JACK RUBY and was asked for an explanation of how his name happened to be in RUBY's property. Mr. HUGGINS advised that approximately two years ago he was a member of a private club known as the Sovereign Club which was operated by JACK RUBY. He met Mr. RUBY on several occasions at the club but did not become well enough acquainted with him to secure information concerning his activities, associates and/or background. He met some of the performers at the club but does not immediately recall their names. He has never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information to indicate a connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

1 BOBBY HIRSCH Date December 12, 1963

BORN 4/19/37

ROBERT SEYMOUR HIRSCH, 2915 Gary Street, advised that he has been employed for the past year as a salesman for the Jourdan Mobile Homes, 8401 East 40 Highway, Kansas City, Missouri. HIRSCH advised that he had called the WHB Radio Station and spoke with the announcer on the Night Beat Program concerning his views about JACK RUBY and the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. E.L.P. OKLA TEXAS

HIRSCH advised after consulting records that he lived in Dallas, Texas, late in 1958, and off and on for short periods before and after that. He had met ABE WEINSTEIN operator of two night clubs featuring striptease dancers LEE LANDERS through the employment of his wife, ELIZABETH ANN HIRSCH, as a stripper. She was a stripper at the Theater Lounge. HIRSCH said he had met JACK RUBY when in the Carousel Club on one or two occasions. MRS. ROBERT SEYMOUR HIRSCH

HIRSCH advised that he had been married and divorced and had run from job to job, including an enlistment in the United States Air Force prior to meeting ELIZABETH ANN. He had voluntarily committed himself to the mental hospital at Terrell, Texas because he thought that something might be wrong with him emotionally or mentally because of his changing from wife to wife and job to job. While at this hospital, he met ELIZABETH ANN LANDERS, who had been committed by her mother as an incorrigible, a nymphomaniac. He married ELIZABETH in June, 1958 and a divorce was granted in December, 1958. Soon after the marriage he lived with ELIZABETH at Mexico, Missouri, the home of his aunt, Mrs. ETHEL ZIMMERSHIED. They were there only a few months before returning to Dallas, when ELIZABETH ANN got a job as a stripper with ABE WEINSTEIN. He was employed during this time for a company which is now out of business, known as Pylon, a plastic company. ELIZABETH enjoyed that work, had insisted upon it and in fact had requested his permission to work as a prostitute out of the Theater Lounge. Prostitution out of the strip clubs in Dallas was prevalent. TEXAS D.C.

His ex-wife, ELIZABETH, told him that when he questioned her about working in such an establishment while only 18 years of age, WEINSTEIN would take care of everything and had otherwise specifically stated that WEINSTEIN made payoffs to the Dallas Police Department detectives. It was his suposition from things told to him by ELIZABETH that since a striptease operation was illegal and only three existed in Dallas, two owned by WEINSTEIN and one owned by JACK RUBY, that each owner made payoffs to the Police Department. He stated that he has no direct knowledge, cannot identify any police officers and did not witness any payoffs.

HIRSCH has theorized that JACK RUBY killed OSWALD in order to prevent OSWALD from talking. He advised that his chain of thought developed from the supposition of payoffs to the Police Department, whereby RUBY would have a close connection with the police and his belief that communists were connected with WEINSTEIN and RUBY. In explanation of this, HIRSCH advised that while at the Theater Lounge, where his wife worked, that two or three other ~~patrons~~ had talked to him and he felt from things that they said that they had communist tendencies. He could not recall anything specifically other than one of them admitted to being a member of the Communist Party. He had observed that these men knew ABE WEINSTEIN and he recalled that they had also mentioned being at the Carousel Club.

HIRSCH stated that he had no further information concerning RUBY and did not know any of his associates other than WEINSTEIN. He did not know any of RUBY's employees or contacts with the Police Department. He advised that he did not know the present whereabouts of his ex-wife, ELIZABETH ANN, except that her mother, by the same name, can be contacted through telephone number BLackburn 3-0363, Irving, Texas.

On December 6, 1963, Chief JIMMY KITCHEN, Identification Records, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, advised SA R. NEIL QUIGLEY that the only information available concerning ROBERT SEYMOUR HIRSCH was Wanted Notice No. 11670, from the Randolph County Sheriff's Office, Randolph County, Texas, dated May 21, 1960, reflecting that HIRSCH was wanted for theft. Also, a wanted notice appearing in an FBI Bulletin indicating that on June 9, 1961, HIRSCH was wanted for passing bogus checks. KITCHEN did not know whether or not HIRSCH had been arrested for either of the above-described offenses.

On the same date, Miss PAT SIWIECK, Records Clerk, Dallas Police Department, advised SA R. NEIL QUIGLEY that records there concerning ROBERT SEYMOUR HIRSCH, 11716 Strand, Dallas, reflect he was arrested on May 12, 1961, for failure to have an operator's license. His date of birth was reflected as April 19, 1937. He was also charged with having an expired state vehicle sticker, running a stop sign, and investigation of vagrancy. This incident was recorded under Arrest Numbers 61-55757 through 55761. No disposition was noted.

On the same date, Miss BIRDI SUE BELCHER, Merchants Retail Credit Association, 2112 Jackson Street, advised SA JOHN E. DALLMAN that a ROBERT S. HIRSCH, Box 37, Whitney, Texas, has been known to the Credit Bureau since February 24, 1956. At that time, he was stationed with the Air Force at Ardmore, Oklahoma, and was eighteen years old. The file indicates he was known to the Credit Bureau at Whitney, Texas, as BOBBY WOODSIDE and had resided there for five years. His mother was widowed and had married a WOODSIDE. Fort Worth, Texas, credit authorities inquired concerning him on October 29, 1956. Two divorce suits were noted in the file. In 1960, he lived at 3018 Klondike in Dallas and was employed by General Electric Air Conditioning. His wife's name was listed as JUDITH. The file indicated his trade was satisfactory; however, a number of past-due accounts were noted. No additional background information concerning him was located in the file.

On 12/6/63, Doctor R. C. ROWELL, Staff Physician, Terrell State Hospital, Terrell, Texas, confidentially advised SA JOHN E. DALLMAN that ROBERT SEYMOUR HIRSCH was admitted to the Terrell State Hospital on 3/4/58, for a 90-day period. He was released, however, on 5/24/58, when it was determined he was not mentally ill. He was diagnosed as a socio-pathic personality, which means he was unable to comprehend and conform to social realities. Individuals of this type are prone to go against society and get in trouble. This type of disturbance is typical of the average criminal. The file indicates that HIRSCH was admitted from Hill County, Texas, under County Court Docket No. 6896. He stated that he doubted HIRSCH had voluntarily committed himself to the hospital, in view of the fact that a commitment order had been received from Hill County authorities. His address was indicated at the time as being in care of his stepfather, Mr. BILL WOODSIDE, Box 37, Whitney, Texas.

Doctor ROWELL stated he was unable to determine from a review of HIRSCH's records as to whether or not he would be prone to having fantasies or telling lies.

Date 12/5/63

BILL WOODSIDE, Publisher, Lake Whitney Views, an advertising and promotional publication published at Whitney, Texas, advised that he is the stepfather of ROBERT SEYMOUR HIRSCH, age 26, who presently resides at and is employed by Jourdan Mobil Homes, Highway 40 East, Kansas City, Missouri.

WOODSIDE advised that HIRSCH had served in the U. S. Air Force from approximately 1955 through 1956, but after his release from the Air Force, suffered a head injury in connection with a swimming accident at Pensacola, Florida, in the Spring of 1957. He advised that HIRSCH was hospitalized for a considerable period of time after this and received extensive medical treatment. He stated that HIRSCH was emotionally unstable to a limited extent prior to this accident and this condition was aggravated, in his opinion, after the accident. He stated that HIRSCH was admitted to the State Mental Hospital at Terrell, Texas, on a three-month voluntary commitment in the Fall of 1957. He advised that after his release, HIRSCH had held several jobs, all of which were of a sales nature. He described HIRSCH's condition as being one that was an "emotional problem," rather than a mental problem. He stated that HIRSCH had been married approximately five times and had spent several months in jail in 1960 at Moverly, Missouri, in connection with passing bad checks. He stated that this was the only trouble in which HIRSCH had been involved of a serious nature, to his knowledge.

WOODSIDE advised that HIRSCH had lived in Dallas, Texas, on several occasions for short periods between 1957 and 1960, but advised that during that period and subsequently he had had infrequent contact with HIRSCH and that he had absolutely no information indicating that HIRSCH was acquainted with RUBY or with any of RUBY's associates in Dallas.

The following investigation was conducted by SA TOM E. CHAPOTON at Dallas, Texas, in connection with an allegation by PAUL ROTHERMEL, Dallas, Texas, that about 6-7 years ago, JACK RUBY attended a funeral at Kennedy, Texas, of DALLAS HUSKEY, an underworld figure who is supposed to have killed two people 17 or 18 years ago and was defended by a Chicago attorney.

On December 13, 1963, R. V. HUSKY, 7208 Bennington Street, Dallas, advised his brother, DALLAS HUSKY, was buried at Kennedy, Texas, during January, 1954. He stated that he did not know JACK RUBY and had no idea whether or not RUBY attended this funeral. He stated as far as he knows, his brother was not acquainted with RUBY. He suggested that his brother's widow, Mrs. HELEN HUSKY be contacted in that she would certainly know DALLAS HUSKY's friends and acquaintances.

On December 16, 1963, Mrs. HELEN HUSKY, 4415 Emerson Street, Dallas, telephone LA 6-7386, advised that her husband, DALLAS HASKELL HUSKY died on January 5, 1954, and was buried at Kennedy, Texas, on January 7, 1954. She stated that many people attended this funeral, some whom she did not know, but she is almost positive that an individual such as JACK RUBY was not there. She stated that she had never seen JACK RUBY and had never heard of him prior to his newspaper publicity. She further stated that if RUBY had been at this funeral he is the type of person, according to what she has read, who would make his presence known to one and all.

She related that her husband was an oil man and rancher and loved to gamble, but was definitely not in the gambling business. She stated that he was involved in a murder trial about 17 years ago in which he pled self-defense and was acquitted. He was represented in this matter by CARL JOHNSON, an attorney from San Antonio, Texas. He did not have anyone represent him from outside the state of Texas, much less Chicago.

Mrs. HUSKY continued that she had worked with her husband in many of his business activities and knew his friends, associates and people with whom he had dealings and she is positive that he did not know or have any business dealings with RUBY. She concluded that she could furnish no information concerning JACK RUBY in that she did not know this individual.

HARRY LEE JACKSON, 2536 Romine, Dallas, Texas, residence telephone HA 1-4594, furnished the following information:

He is a professional musician and plays the organ and the piano. During about 1961 he played with bands led by a ROBERT MOSS and a JOE JOHNSON at the Vegas Club in Dallas. He was hired through the band and met JACK RUBY during the course of his work there. He conversed with RUBY occasionally but learned nothing concerning his background, personal life or political convictions.

The last time he saw JACK RUBY, as best he could recall, was on a Sunday night one week prior to November 24, 1963. He was at the Empire Room, 1710 Hall Street, a night club. While sitting at the bar he saw RUBY, shook his hand, and conversed with him briefly. RUBY told him to drop by his Carousel Club if he had the opportunity. RUBY knew many people in Dallas, particularly entertainers and public officials. He could think of no one who was a close personal friend of RUBY.

He has no idea why RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY. He never heard of OSWALD prior to the President's assassination.

ALBERT S. JACOBS, Salesman, Fink Paint Company, 2605 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, advised he has been acquainted with JACK RUBY in a business relationship only since 1959 or 1960 when RUBY opened the Sovereign Club. He last saw RUBY about two weeks before the assassination of President KENNEDY when RUBY came in the store and bought some paint. At that time RUBY told him he was giving JACOBS a pass card to the Carousel Club and that his Carousel Club pass card number would be 169. He promised to send this card, sealed in plastic, to JACOBS in the mail, but JACOBS has not as yet received it. JACOBS has been contacted by RUBY about 12 or 15 times since the remodeling of the Sovereign Club but all of these contacts have been business in nature relating to supplies for the Sovereign Club and later the Carousel Club. RUBY was always "looking for the best price" and in some instances secured the brand name or identifying data regarding merchandise at the Fink Paint Company and thereafter purchased this material elsewhere at the wholesale price.

JACOBS has never visited the Carousel Club and is not socially acquainted with RUBY. He knew of no association between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and RUBY and possessed no information indicating that any other individuals might be involved with RUBY or OSWALD in the shootings in which these two men were recently involved.

Mrs. NORMAN KANTOR (JEANENE) KANTOR, 13937 Bee Street, Dallas, TEXAS, volunteered the following information:

She has known JACK RUBY for ten years, having met him through her husband, who was part owner of the Theater Lounge, where she was employed as a waitress. RUBY at that time contacted Mr. KANTOR to request him to assist him in converting RUBY's Silver Spur Club to make it into a strip-show place of amusement. After that, she saw RUBY two or three times a year, either as a customer at RUBY's place of business or when RUBY would visit the Theater Lounge. She did not associate with RUBY socially and has no information concerning his close friends and associates. She last talked with RUBY about one and one-half or two months ago at the Carousel Club. She was at this club about one week before the assassination of President KENNEDY and noticed that RUBY was not present. She did not learn where he was on that occasion.

She has never discussed politics with RUBY and has never heard him discuss President KENNEDY. She considers RUBY to be a friendly, helpful individual although very emotional and nervous. She has never known him to resort to violence but considers him to be hot tempered.

She does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY or of the shooting of OSWALD on the part of RUBY. She has no information indicating any connection between RUBY and OSWALD or of RUBY's gaining entrance to the basement area of the City Hall prior to shooting OSWALD.

ROBERT KAPLAN, Westchester House, 554 South Summit, advised that he first became acquainted with JACK RUBY the latter part of August or early part of September, 1963. KAPLAN stated that the way he became acquainted with RUBY was through KAPLAN being employed at a new apartment house on Turtle Creek, Dallas. KAPLAN stated that RUBY called him and also left a card at KAPLAN's office that had the name on it JACK RUBY, Carousel Club. KAPLAN stated that he thought RUBY was some type of musical agent and he never did bother to call him back.

KAPLAN stated that a short time later, RUBY called him on the telephone and introduced himself telling KAPLAN that he would like to obtain an apartment at this Turtle Creek address, 21 Turtle Creek Square. KAPLAN stated that RUBY also told him that he, KAPLAN, should drop by the Carousel Club when he was downtown in Dallas, as RUBY knew a lot of people and would like for KAPLAN to meet them.

KAPLAN stated that subsequently RUBY did make a deposit of $50.00 on an apartment at the Turtle Creek address, however, KAPLAN learned of the nature of RUBY's business at the Carousel Club where RUBY employed strippers and KAPLAN stated that he decided to give RUBY his deposit back which he delivered personally to RUBY at the Carousel Club.

KAPLAN stated that he did go to the Carousel Club some time in the latter part of September, 1963, on a Sunday, and had several beers. He stated that RUBY was very friendly and kept inviting him back to the club at any time. KAPLAN stated he believed that RUBY was trying to be friendly and as he looked back on the contact by RUBY now, he felt that the reason for RUBY's friendliness was that he had some motive such as promoting RUBY's business.

KAPLAN stated that sometime in early November, 1963, a personal friend of his, an attorney in Fort Worth, named RICHARD D. WALKER, called KAPLAN and told him that he had a young lady, a good friend of WALKER, who was in difficulty as she was pregnant 5 or 6 weeks. WALKER wanted to know if KAPLAN could help him out in locating someone who could take care of the girl. KAPLAN stated that he did not know exactly what WALKER meant as to whether he was seeking an abortion or was looking for a place for the girl to stay to have this baby. KAPLAN stated that he then recalled that RUBY told him he had many contacts and KAPLAN called JACK RUBY and gave RUBY WALKER's unlisted telephone number, in Fort Worth. KAPLAN stated that the first time he called RUBY regarding this, RUBY told him that he did not think he could help him out because he did not know anyone that could help him, however, about a week later, RUBY did call KAPLAN back and told him that he might know someone who could help this girl. KAPLAN stated that he also gave WALKER RUBY's telephone number and as far as he was concerned, at this point, he had no further connection between RUBY and WALKER and the girl. He stated he did not know the results of what happened with this girl.

KAPLAN added that he may have been at the Carousel Club on two or three occasions possibly once or twice in the evening but that he had never been to the Vegas Club. He stated that he knew RUBY owned the Vegas Club and understood that RUBY's sister, name unknown, ran it for him. He stated also that RUBY had told him that he knew quite a few officers on the Dallas Police Department and some Liquor Control men and that RUBY was very proud of the fact that he was doing so well at the Carousel Club.

KAPLAN added that after viewing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD he had never seen OSWALD with RUBY nor had he seen OSWALD in the Carousel Club.

J. B. KINGSBURY, 102 South Akard, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed in that he was listed by RUBY as a person to be given visiting privileges at the Dallas County Jail. KINGSBURY advised that he has been in the Dallas area since 1931 and is known as "The Necktie King." He stated that he has sold ties from "one end of Dallas to the other" and is acquainted with people from the lowest strata to the biggest executives. He stated that in connection with his business activities, he stopped in the Vegas Club one day, had a beer and while there met JACK RUBY. Since that time he has seen RUBY in numerous places and has spoken to him. He does not consider RUBY to be a personal friend, but merely an acquaintance of longstanding. He further stated that he has had tie shops at various downtown Dallas locations throughout the years and RUBY has patronized his place of business.

KINGSBURY stated that GEORGE SENATOR is a personal friend of his and SENATOR stopped in KINGSBURY's shop after RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. They were discussing this matter and SENATOR told KINGSBURY that he, SENATOR, was RUBY's roommate. KINGSBURY told SENATOR that even though he did not know RUBY well, but having known him for such a long time, he would like for SENATOR to tell RUBY that if he could be of any help sending cigarettes or anything else along this line to feel free to call on him. KINGSBURY stated he thought no more about his offer until he received a short letter from RUBY thanking him for the thoughts expressed through SENATOR. RUBY also said that it would be nice to talk to someone from the neighborhood and had asked the Sheriff's Office to put KINGSBURY's name on the visiting list.

KINGSBURY explained what RUBY meant by the neighborhood is that the Carousel Club is located on Commerce Street across from the Adolphus Hotel and his tie shop is located across from the Adolphus Hotel on Akard Street.

KINGSBURY continued that he has not visited RUBY and since the wide publicity in this matter, he does not know whether he will or not. He continued that after RUBY opened the Sovereign Club which was not successful, RUBY opened the club to the public and changed the name to the Carousel Club.

RUBY had cards advertising the Carousel Club printed up and passed them out all over town. RUBY stopped in KINGSBURY's tie shop one day and left about 100 of these cards and asked KINGSBURY to pass them out to customers. KINGSBURY stated that he always tried to help people out who were having a tough time recalling that he had been on the bottom himself before and any help that anyone could give was always appreciated.

KINGSBURY stated that the only person whom he knew who was acquainted with RUBY in a close manner would be GEORGE SENATOR. He has never had any business dealings with RUBY and has no knowledge of RUBY's activities. He does not know why RUBY killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD, has no idea that anyone conspired with RUBY, does not know the whereabouts of RUBY on November 22 - 24, 1963. The last time he saw RUBY was about the first part of October, 1963, when RUBY was in his shop and made a purchase. He has known JACK RUBY for approximately the past year or so, by sight only, as a local night club owner and not on a name calling basis. Approximately one month ago, RUBY was at KLIF Radio Station and passed out business cards to the Carousel Club to some of the employees and said he would subsequently send pass cards to the club. KUMPF never received a pass card.

He had no personal associations with RUBY and did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He had no information concerning any possible relationship between RUBY and OSWALD or concerning the shooting of OSWALD.

DON ELWOOD LEASURE was interviewed at The After Glow, at which time LEASURE was advised of the identity of the interviewers as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He was advised that he did not have to make a statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised of his right to consult an attorney.

LEASURE was asked whether he was acquainted in any way with JACK RUBY or GEORGE SENATOR, whereupon he advised that in 1955 when LEASURE came to Dallas he met JACK RUBY at RUBY's club, the Carousel, in Dallas. LEASURE further advised that he met GEORGE SENATOR at the Smuggler Bar located at 4840 Gaston. LEASURE stated that his acquaintance with JACK RUBY has been very casual and he has not had occasion to go to the Carousel or the Vegas Clubs very often. He noted that his current employee, JUNE RIPSKY, was formerly employed as a dancer by JACK RUBY approximately four or five years ago. LEASURE advised that Mrs. RIPSKY was recently interviewed by FBI Agents concerning her employment by RUBY.

TEXAS

LEASURE stated that he did not know and never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and he never observed OSWALD prior to seeing his picture in the Dallas press following the assassination of President KENNEDY. LEASURE never observed JACK RUBY or GEORGE SENATOR in the company of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at any location at any time.

LEASURE furnished the names of the following persons whom he claimed are acquainted with JACK RUBY:

JIM BARNETT,
Operator of the Joker Restaurant,
6102 East Mockingbird Lane,
Dallas, Texas;

MILTON JOSEPH,
Wholesale Jeweler,
National Bankers Life Building,
Dallas, Texas;

TONY ZOPPI,
News Columnist,
Dallas Morning News,
Dallas, Texas.

LEASURE stated that he had heard a rumor to the effect that MILTON JOSEPH was a homosexual. LEASURE, also, heard a rumor to the effect that JACK RUBY was a homosexual; however, LEASURE denied any knowledge regarding homosexual activities on the part of RUBY and MILTON JOSEPH.

LEASURE claimed that he has not seen JACK RUBY since 1956 and would not know him today if he saw him, although he has heard great many things, especially since the death of LEE HARVEY OSWALD relative to JACK RUBY and his activities.

LEASURE stated that he, LEASURE, was arrested by Federal authorities at San Antonio, Texas, on May 5, 1961, in connection with having pulled a gun on an airline hostess. For this offense he was sentenced to one year imprisonment, serving this time in county jails at San Antonio and Austin, Texas, as well as Federal Correctional Institution at Texarkana, Texas, and Segoville, Texas.

Following is a description of LEASURE as obtained through observation and interview:

RICHARD B. LERER, 5814 Falls Road, Dallas, Texas, who is connected with A-Tex Laboratories at 180 Oak Lawn at Irving, was interviewed in view of the fact that his name was found in a book, property of JACK RUBY.

Mr. LERER stated that approximately three years ago he was a member of the Sovereign Club which was operated by JACK RUBY. He stated that his membership there was for a period of approximately one year. He said that he only knows who JACK RUBY is but admitted that RUBY might know him by name since RUBY made a definite effort to remember names of club members.

LERER stated that he had never had any social association of any kind with RUBY and stated that he believes he has not seen RUBY more than two or three times in the past three years.

He informed that to his knowledge he has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and said that he knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

The San Diego Division advised on December 10, 1963, that HOWARD LEE GIBSON, JR., Corporal, U. S. Marine Corps, serial number 1916424, Camp Pendleton, California, advised that his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD LERRO, 4077 Huckleberry Circle, Dallas, Texas, telephone FR 1-1802, had told GIBSON in a telephone conversation that they knew JACK RUBY very well socially and had contact with him in connection with a household and restaurant employment agency, 101-A Lamar, Dallas, Texas, operated by Mrs. LERRO.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs KENNETH P. HUGHES and EDWARD J. MABEY:

AT DALLAS, TEXAS:

On December 12, 1963, Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD LERRO 4077 Huckleberry Circle, advised that some nine years previously when they first arrived in Dallas, they were looking for office space. They looked at the office next to JACK RUBY's club, the Silver Spur, on South Ervay. RUBY, at that time, took them out, showed them around the town and took them to his club. They both advised that they have been in the Carousel Club once since the first meeting and estimated that time to be in October, 1963. They had met RUBY with an unidentified female at the Dallas Fair and he invited them back to his club. The only other contact that the LERROs had with RUBY were meetings on the street when they greeted each other. Mrs. LERRO stated that she never supplied RUBY with any employees from her employment agency.

Mr. EARL LIPSCOMB, 3561 Marquet, Dallas, telephone number EM 1-7989, whose card appeared in RUBY's property, was contacted at his place of employment, Earl Lipscomb Associates, 3605 Inwood Road, Dallas, at which he furnished the following information:

He advised that he met JACK RUBY on only one occasion and this was sometime this past year, exact date he could not recall, at which time he visited the Carousel Club with a friend of his whom he identified as being E. G. BYERS, who is a Field Engineer at Houston, Texas. Mr. LIPSCOMB stated that he and his friend, BYERS, had stopped at the Carousel Club this one occasion inasmuch as they had heard the entertainment was very good. He explained that this was the one and only time he had visited the Carousel Club and was the first and only time he had met JACK RUBY. He could vaguely recall that particular evening when they visited the Carousel Club and believed that they were attempting to locate some Dixieland music. Upon arrival at the Carousel Club, they realized that there was no Dixieland music and had only stayed for a few minutes. Upon their departure from the Carousel Club, he, Mr. LIPSCOMB, introduced himself to JACK RUBY and asked Mr. RUBY if he knew of any place in Dallas where they might be able to listen to some Dixieland music. JACK RUBY was unable to furnish a place where they could listen to Dixieland music and referred them to his other club, Vegas Club, and suggested that they may like to visit the club that evening.

Mr. LIPSCOMB further advised that upon his departure from the Carousel Club, he gave JACK RUBY a business card with his name, employment and address on it and believed this was the way that this card got in RUBY's possession.

Mr. LIPSCOMB stated that he could offer no information pertaining to associates, friends or any background information in regard to JACK RUBY. He knows of no association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the reported assassin of President KENNEDY. Mr. LIPSCOMB was exhibited a photograph of OSWALD, at which time, he advised that he had never met this individual and had only seen the picture in the local newspapers. He advised he knew of no connection whatsoever between OSWALD and RUBY.

Just prior to the completion of the interview, Mr. LIPSCOMB advised that he had received information to the effect that a dentist and his son, who reside somewhere in Oak Cliff, are sporting enthusiasts and in connection with this, had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD at a rifle range during the past few months. The information he received indicated that the dentist's son, name unknown, had actually looked at LEE HARVEY OSWALD's rifle at one time when they were visiting the rifle range. Mr. LIPSCOMB stated that a Mr. THORNTON MCKEEY, telephone number WH 8-3701, would be able to furnish the identity of both the dentist and his son for information in regard to this matter. He could offer no further information concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated that the information received in connection with this was strictly "second-hand" and was offering it for whatever it was worth. TEXAS

Mr. LIPSCOMB was unable to offer any information as to why JACK RUBY had shot OSWALD and did not possess any information regarding either the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of OSWALD other than what was pointed out in the local newspapers.

Mr. EARL LIPSCOMB was of the opinion that E. G. BYERS could offer no more information other than that which he, LIPSCOMB, related to the interviewing agent, inasmuch as this was the first visit to the Carousel Club by Mr. BYERS.

Mrs. ANNE LISTAK, previously referred to as HISTAK, was contacted at 321 Washington Street, Dallas, Texas, inasmuch as her name was found in connection with the search of JACK RUBY's car.

Mrs. LISTAK advised that on Monday, November 18, 1963, she contacted JACK RUBY regarding obtaining a job at the Carousel Club. On the night of the 18th she went to the Carousel Club and had an interview with RUBY, but after seeing the club she was not interested in working there. She could furnish no additional information regarding RUBY inasmuch as this was her only contact with him.

She stated that she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

ALBERT LITCH, Jeweler, 3309 Oak Lawn, Dallas, Texas, advised he could well understand how one of his business cards might be found in the automobile of JACK RUBY. The business card should read ALBERT LITCH, not ALBERT HITCH.

He has known RUBY very casually for about the past ten years as a customer who has brought watches to him for repair, when he, LITCH, had a jewelry store downtown in the general vicinity of the Carousel Club. He since moved out to Oak Lawn and about a month ago saw RUBY on the street in the vicinity of the Vegas Club. He said hello to RUBY and gave him one of his business cards and has not seen RUBY since that time.

LITCH advised that he was acquainted with RUBY in only the casual contacts regarding repair of watches. He was not acquainted with OSWALD, knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY and knows of no association between OSWALD and any other persons regarding the assassination of the President or the association between RUBY and any other individuals regarding the shooting of OSWALD.

Regarding his watch repair for RUBY he advised that he repaired several different watches on different occasions but it appeared obvious to him that these watches were watches being personally worn by RUBY. RUBY never offered any watches for sale to him and never indicated to him that he had a substantial amount of property such as watches, jewelry, or other items for sale.

Mr. ALFRED LURIE, 10216 Plumber, Dallas, Texas, Sales Manager, KLIF Radio Station, who according to records of JACK RUBY, had Carousel Club pass card number 222, advised as follows:

He has known JACK RUBY very casually for approximately the past two years through business of contacts in Dallas and last saw RUBY approximately two weeks prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. Approximately early November, 1963, RUBY was at the radio station and passed out business cards to the Carousel Club to station employees. RUBY said he would send pass cards to the Carousel Club to the employees, but never received a pass card.

He said that on August 4, 1963, he traveled from Dallas to New York City, New York on American Airlines Flight number 186, departing Dallas at 4:45 P.M. He observed JACK RUBY on the same flight and talked to RUBY for a few minutes. He does not believe that RUBY had recognized him and RUBY was quite pleased that he recognized RUBY. RUBY said he was going to New York City to see BARNEY ROSS, former world champion boxer and it was LAURIE's impression that RUBY was a personal friend of ROSS. He said RUBY also mentioned he was going to see a union official in New York City in connection with a problem he was having involving the entertainment at his night club. Further details of this problem were not mentioned by RUBY.

Mr. LURIE said he had no personal associations with RUBY and did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He had no information concerning any possible relationship between RUBY and OSWALD or concerning the shooting of OSWALD.

Mrs. W. A. MARQUIS, 925 South Waterview, Dallas, Texas, advised that her husband, W. A. MARQUIS, died approximately three years ago. She stated that her husband was a member of the Sovereign Club.

Mrs. MARQUIS advised that she and her husband first got to know JACK RUBY in approximately June of 1959. At that time Mr. and Mrs. MARQUIS were managing the Continental House Apartments, Dallas. In June, 1959 RUBY moved to the Continental House and was still living there in May, 1961 when Mr. and Mrs. MARQUIS terminated their employment as apartment managers at the Continental House.

Mrs. MARQUIS recalled that RUBY was always a gentleman and was friendly to them at all times while he was a tenant at the Continental House. She stated that the last time she saw RUBY was approximately a year to 1½ years ago when she, Mrs. MARQUIS, attended a show at the Carousel Club.

Mrs. MARQUIS did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and she advised she had no knowledge of any association or acquaintanceship between RUBY and OSWALD.

Mr. MARTIN was advised that the telephone number ME 1-1700 was found among the personal possessions of JACK RUBY. MARTIN stated that ME 1-1700 is his business phone number and furnished the following information in regard thereto:

He has known JACK RUBY since 1961. RUBY at this time owned the Sovereign Club, Dallas, which club was later changed to the Carousel Club. MARTIN became a member of this club after receiving a letter soliciting membership. He stated that he believes that the membership was taken out in the company name and advised that the only other member of the firm who would have any knowledge of this would be Mr. JAMES R. CASH. He has not seen RUBY for approximately 1½ to 2 years or since the time that the club had been turned into a strip club. He estimated that he attended the Sovereign Club approximately half dozen times. MARTIN stated that there is no one with the exception of Mr. CASH in the corporation that was in Jayco International, the then name of their corporation.

Mr. MARTIN knew of no connection between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

RUSSELL DOUGLAS MATTHEWS, 2207 Greenbriar Street, Irving, Texas advised he had known JACK RUBY for approximately twelve years. He stated he cannot recall how he met RUBY but believed it was through RUBY's operation of the Vegas Club. MATTHEWS stated he was only a "passing acquaintance" of RUBY. He added all the time he has known RUBY he has never had any discussions with him other than just to "pass the time of day".

MATTHEWS stated he had never heard of RUBY being involved in any type or form of gambling activity in the Dallas area and that he had never heard RUBY discuss anything concerning politics, business, etc. He had never heard RUBY make any statements concerning his, RUBY, political affiliations, dislikes or likes.

MATTHEWS stated that he had been in Havana, Cuba, from July, 1958 until January, 1959; later returned to Cuba about the middle of 1959 until about November, 1960. During these trips he was working in the gambling casinos at the Hotel Deauville. MATTHEWS stated that during his residence in Cuba, he had never seen RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that he had never heard of RUBY or OSWALD being in Cuba during these periods.

MATTHEWS advised he had no information that RUBY was involved with anyone else in the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated he had never heard of OSWALD until OSWALD was arrested for the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and he had no information of any connection between OSWALD and RUBY or between RUBY and any police officers.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES E. GARRIS:

On December 14, 1963, Miss JOAN McCLURE, 6223 Bordeaux, Apartment 106, Dallas, TEXAS advised that she dates BILL WILLIS, a TEXAS drummer at JACK RUBY's night club. She stated she has been to RUBY's club on a few occasions while waiting on WILLIS to finish work, and has met RUBY. She stated, however, she knows nothing about RUBY and could furnish no information concerning RUBY's character, reputation, associates, or loyalty to the United States. Furthermore, she said she did not know any of RUBY's friends or acquaintances. She did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

Miss McCLURE advised she has called RUBY's club several times and left her name and telephone number for BILL WILLIS to call her. She said RUBY answered on several occasions and she believes this explains her name and telephone number in his possession.

WILLIAM H. McKINNEY, 3217 Ramsey, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed in that a business card bearing McKINNEY's name was found in RUBY's automobile. McKINNEY advised that he is Service Manager for National Car Rental Company, Inc., and has an office in the Nichols Garage at 1320 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, which is located on the first floor under the Carousel Club. He has known JACK RUBY since about 1958. He met RUBY at the Nichols Garage and at other parking garages operated by the company. He knows RUBY as a customer and considers him a speaking acquaintance. McKINNEY was of the opinion that he had been to the Carousel Club two or three times during the past five years. McKINNEY related that his office has a second floor storeroom which is located directly behind the Carousel Club and JACK RUBY contacted him several months ago attempting to obtain this second floor storeroom space so that he, RUBY, could enlarge his Carousel Club. McKINNEY recalled that he told RUBY that National Car Rental had plans to vacate this area and he would attempt to obtain more information for RUBY. RUBY requested McKINNEY's telephone number and McKINNEY gave RUBY a business card.

It was pointed out to McKINNEY that a National Car rental business card with McKINNEY's name was found in RUBY's car. This card reflected a notation on the reverse side, "75-1078712, Carousel; 75-0949491 - Vegas." McKINNEY stated he had no idea what these numbers meant and stated that he did not place them on the card that he had given to RUBY.

McKINNEY stated he did not consider RUBY a personal friend in any sense of the word and had no idea who RUBY's close associates were or any details of RUBY's activities or business dealings. He did not recall when he last saw RUBY but was of the opinion it was probably when RUBY contacted him about obtaining the additional space. He did not know why RUBY killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information that RUBY conspired with anyone or that RUBY had any connections with the police. He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated he could furnish no information as to whether or not RUBY and OSWALD were associated.

Patrolman HARRY OLSEN, 325 North Ewing Street, Dallas, TEXAS, was interviewed in Room 222, Methodist Hospital, Dallas, where he is recuperating from injuries received in an automobile accident. OLSEN furnished the following information:

He has been employed by the Dallas Police Department during the past five and one-half years. He has known JACK RUBY for two years and has been in RUBY's Carousel Club on several occasions and has talked with RUBY a number of times. He stated that he is a close friend of KAY COLEMAN, former employee of RUBY at this Carousel Club. He advised that he has never liked RUBY, mainly because RUBY has objected to his associating regularly with Miss COLEMAN and for taking up so much of Miss COLEMAN's time.

He last saw RUBY at about 1:30 AM on either November 23 or 24, 1963, when he and Miss COLEMAN were sitting in his automobile on a parking lot at the corner of Jackson and Field Streets, Dallas, when RUBY drove by in his car, recognized them and stopped and talked with them for about ten minutes. RUBY did not state where he came from or where he was going on that occasion. RUBY was traveling west on Jackson Street and was alone at the time. He recalls that they all mentioned the assassination of President KENNEDY but RUBY said nothing to indicate he had ever seen or known OSWALD and did not appear to be any more upset over the tragedy than the average individual.

He has never known RUBY to carry a gun on his person but recalls that several months ago, when a burglar was suspected of being in the Carousel Club, the police were called and he noticed RUBY carrying a gun in his hand inside the club. He suggested to RUBY that he should put his gun away and leave the matter to the police.

OLSEN stated that he has never been employed by RUBY and knows of no other police officer who may have been employed by him. He has never heard RUBY speak about politics or mention any strong like or dislike for President KENNEDY. He considers RUBY to be quick-tempered and unpredictable but would never have considered him to be capable of committing murder.

IRVING L. OPPENBERG, owner, Faststrength Corporation, Room 112, 14827 Ventura Boulevard, Sherman Oaks, California, residence address 4760 Keater, Apartment 10, Sherman Oaks, CALIF. advised that he is engaged in Cosmetic Manufacturing Business. He stated he departed Los Angeles for Dallas on a business trip via American Airlines, November 17, 1963, and returned to Los Angeles November 20, 1963. While in Dallas, he went to the Carousel Club and was greeted at his table by JACK RUBY, owner. They had a short discussion about the club and OPPENBERG's residence, exchanged cards, and RUBY asked OPPENBERG to say hello to his friend, CHUCK LANDIS, owner, Key Largo Club in Hollywood. OPPENBERG did not call LANDIS, and had never heard of RUBY prior to this trip, and had no conversations with him other than stated above.

THOMAS STEWART PALMER, 2728 West Davis, Dallas, Texas, Apartment 125, in addition to the information given on November 24, 1963, advised that he was the local representative of the AGVA, having taken over from ALTON SHARP, of the same organization, who had left Dallas first for St. Louis and had then been transferred to Chicago. (ALTON SHARP's stage name is JACK CONRAD BROWN). St. Louis, Mo. Chicago, Ill.

PALMER stated that WILLIAM DONNELY is the husband of the sister of PALMER's wife. DONNELY lives in Las Vegas, Nevada and is an engineer on a railroad believed to be the Southern Pacific and his run is made between Las Vegas, Nevada and Los Angeles, California.

PALMER stated that on November 25, 1963, the day after JACK RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD and after PALMER had furnished information to the local Dallas FBI Office, that he called WILLIAM DONNELY in Las Vegas. PALMER's purpose in calling DONNELY was to have the information which PALMER possessed in the possession of at least one additional person, in event the information turned out to be significant.

PALMER further stated that when his secretary, Mrs. HUGHES, who is a cousin of BROWN, received the call from ALTON SHARP that PALMER was not sure in his mind whether or not the information could have some significance in relation to RUBY's shooting of OSWALD or whether it related to JACK RUBY's business at the Carousel Club.

From PALMER's experience, he stated that RUBY was "always striving to impress people" and in this connection would frequently bypass the local AGVA Office and ALTON SHARP in Chicago and had, on occasion, contacted JOEY ADAMS, the National President in New York City, on some matter that could have been handled locally.

PALMER explained, however, that on the possibility that the information might have been of value to the FBI investigation, he had immediately furnished it to the FBI and stated he did not want to furnish it to any local authority.

PALMER also stated that from his dealing with RUBY as the AGVA representative he knew that RUBY had the feeling that he was being discriminated against and, for that reason, would probably have contacted Chicago direct.

PALMER concluded that in the recent shake-ups in the AGVA, BROWN had been relieved of his duties in Chicago and IRVING MAZZEI, West Coast AGVA Representative, had also been "eased" out. In view of the AGVA shake-up and RUBY's known nature, PALMER stated that he was of the opinion that the previously referred to message undoubtedly referred to RUBY's desire to deal with "higher ups" and thereby impress people more.

Mr. BILL EARL PETTY, 9445A Lake North Circle, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

PETTY operates the Club La Cabana at 4508 Travis. He has been in the club business for approximately five years and, on this basis, he got to know JACK RUBY. PETTY last saw RUBY on November 4, 1963.

PETTY advised that he is the Vice President of the Lounge, Club & Restaurant Association. Last year, the Association sponsored a dance and many of its members were given tickets to sell for the dance. One such person was JACK RUBY. On November 4, 1963, PETTY went to see RUBY, as RUBY had failed to turn in what he had collected for the Association dance in 1962.

PETTY stated he had no close association with RUBY and, thus, had no information pertaining to RUBY's friends, associates, or personal activities. PETTY stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor did he have any knowledge of any acquaintance between OSWALD and RUBY.

KATHLEEN C ROOT, residence 1911 Moser Street, Telephone Number TA 7-1569, employed by Dr. ISRAEL S PERLSTEIN, National Bankers Life Building, Texas, furnished the following information in connection with "Kathleen, c/o Dr. Perlstein, TA 1569" being in the possession of JACK RUBY:

She and Dr. PERLSTEIN visited the Carousel Club two or three months ago at which time she met JACK RUBY, who was at the club door welcoming patrons.

On November 21, 1963, between 3:00 PM and 3:30 PM, while awaiting a bus on Commerce Street, she again saw JACK RUBY. RUBY told her, "With your looks, you should be in show business." RUBY asked her for a dinner date and she declined. He then asked for her phone number and wrote it down on a piece of newspaper. She had no other contact with RUBY.

She does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and does not know of any connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

Miss MARIAN DURELLE SALLAD, 2511 Turtle Creek Blvd. Apartment 302, Dallas, Telephone Number LA 1-0004, whose name appeared as "DORRELL, Telephone Number LA 1-9879, in JACK RUBY's papers, as furnished by BRYAN POWELL, was interviewed, at which time she advised that her previous telephone number was LA 1-9879.

She advised that she would not consider herself a personal acquaintance of JACK RUBY and only knew him as the owner of the Carousel, which she described as being a local night club in Dallas, Texas.

It was sometime in May or June of 1963, exact date she could not recall, that her girl friend, BARBARA HIGGINBOTHAM, who now resides at 514 East Main Street, Denison, Texas, with her mother, Mrs. LINSEY, took her to the Carousel Club and had subsequently met JACK RUBY. She stated that she had visited the Carousel Club approximately three times in her lifetime and the last time was approximately three months ago.

Her visits to the Carousel were strictly that of a customer and she stated that she enjoyed the entertainment at the Carousel. She could not recall anything unusual during her visits to the Carousel and stated that her conversations with RUBY were very brief.

Miss SALLAD advised that her girl friend, BARBARA HIGGINBOTHAM, had previously lived with her at the above-described address and may have known RUBY a little bit better than she did. In connection with this, Miss SALLAD stated that this may have been the reason that her name and old telephone number had appeared in RUBY's papers. Although she could not recall giving RUBY her name or telephone number, she stated that it could have been possible that either she or BARBARA had given the number to him during one of their visits at the Carousel Club. Again, Miss SALLAD stated that she did not know the association between RUBY and her girl friend BARBARA and believed it was nothing more than a casual acquaintance.

SAMUEL C. SMITH, 5311 Morningside Street, Dallas, TEXAS whose name, with his place of employment, Dallas Times-Herald, appeared in a list of items obtained from JACK RUBY's property taken from his automobile following his arrest by the Dallas Police Department, furnished the following information:

SMITH advised he is employed in the Advertising Department of the Dallas Times-Herald, and in this capacity he has known JACK RUBY for two and one-half years inasmuch as RUBY has come to him regularly about once each week for assistance in placing advertisements concerning RUBY's places of business. SMITH added that he has been to the Carousel Club on several occasions but has never had social contacts with RUBY. He last saw and talked with RUBY about 4:00 or 4:30 PM on November 21, 1963, when RUBY was at the Dallas Times-Herald Building in connection with advertisements. He noticed nothing out of the ordinary in RUBY's demeanor or conversation.

SMITH stated that he has never discussed politics with RUBY and has no information concerning RUBY's activities or whereabouts following the assassination of President KENNEDY. He stated he has no information indicating a connection between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD or concerning the shooting of OSWALD on the part of RUBY. He knows of no conspiracy which may have existed between RUBY and others in connection with the shooting and in connection with RUBY's gaining entrance to the basement area of City Hall prior to the shooting. He has never seen RUBY carrying a gun but several months ago he recalls making a remark to RUBY that he should be afraid to carry so much cash on his person, as was his practice, whereupon RUBY replied that he was not worried about anyone taking this money, which remark made SMITH assume that RUBY did carry a gun for his protection while carrying large sums of money.

SMITH stated that the only close associates of RUBY he knows of are Mr. and Mrs. WALLY WESTON. He stated that WESTON is a comedian and Mrs. WESTON is a dancer using the theatrical name of SHERRY ANGEL. She worked for RUBY as well as her husband until about August 1963.

, GAYLE M. TIPPIT, Detective, Special Services Bureau, Dallas Police Department, home address 10831 Cotillion, DALLAS, TEXAS advised that he first began working for the Dallas Police Department in 1950, and soon thereafter he met JACK RUBY, who was at that time operating the Silver Spur Night Club at 1717 S. Ervay. He was assigned to this area and it was his duty to periodically check the Silver Spur which was a combination dance hall and beer tavern. During this period of time he became very well acquainted with JACK RUBY and determined that he ran an orderly establishment and would not allow any disturbances or disorderly conduct. He acted as his own bouncer and would forcibly expell anyone who caused trouble at the club. He was very friendly and helpful to the patroling officers and requested no special favors of the officers.

In subsequent years, Mr. TIPPIT had occasion to contact RUBY while he was operating the Vegas Club and the Carousel Club, although his contacts in recent years have been infrequent. He personally has no knowledge of any illegal activities on the part of RUBY, such as gambling, narcotics, or prostitution.

Detective TIPPIT advised that he had not known LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and had no information indicating a connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

Detective TIPPIT stated that on November 24, 1963, he was on duty on the second floor of the Municipal Building at the time OSWALD was slain by RUBY. He was in the office of the Special Services Bureau and had no opportunity to see what was going on in the basement. He did not see RUBY on that date. He was not aware of the security plans concerning the transfer of OSWALD to the County Jail, but did note that he had to identify himself to Patrolmen on duty on the third floor when he had occasion to go to that floor on the morning of November 24, 1963.

TODD advised that he is in the oil business, has offices in the Adolphus Tower, and his home telephone number DA 8-2635. He is of the opinion that he first was introduced to JACK RUBY in the Vegas Club about 10 or 12 years ago. He stated the Vegas Club is nextdoor to the B & B Restaurant on Oak Lawn Street, which restaurant TODD frequents. He also stated that he is of the opinion that he has been in the Vegas Club no more than two, possibly three times and has been to the Carousel Club on one or two occasions. He has seen JACK RUBY in the B & B Restaurant often, and around the Dallas area has spoekn to RUBY but has had no more than a casual conversation. He stated that RUBY is a very friendly type fellow and any time he sees anyone he recognizes in the slightest manner, he will engage them in a conversation. He stated his acquaintance with RUBY is very limited, he has never had any social connections with RUBY and has no idea of RUBY's activities, whohis associates are, or any of his business dealings. He does not know if RUBY has any connections with the police, why he killed OSWALD or where RUBY was on November 22, 23, or 24, 1963. He could not remember when he last saw RUBY but is of the opinion it was sometime ago. TODD stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, had never heard of him until the news accounts and had no idea whether or not RUBY or OSWALD were connected in any manner.

Dr. HERMAN ULEVITCH, 915 St. Joseph Street, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed regarding his name being listed on property found in RUBY's car, listed as follows:

On October 28, 1963, Dr. ULEVITCH was advised by his answering service about 7:30 p.m. that he had been called by a Mr. RUBY and Mr. RUBY desired him to return the call. Dr. ULEVITCH stated he called one of the numbers left by RUBY which was answered at the Carousel Club and he was advised that RUBY had gone home and for him to call him there. Dr. ULEVITCH said he tried to call RUBY, but was unable to reach him. Later that evening, Dr. ULEVITCH called RUBY at his home and RUBY advised him that his sister, EVA GRANT, had been advised to have an operation and that one of his, RUBY's, friends had suggested that he call Dr. ULEVITCH and arrange to have his sister re-examined. Dr. ULEVITCH continued that he hade an appointment for October 29, 1963, and Mrs. GRANT and JACK RUBY came to his office at 3:00 p.m. RUBY waited while Mrs. GRANT was examined by Dr. ULEVITCH and after the examination, Dr. ULEVITCH talked to both RUBY and Mrs. GRANT and explained the need for the operation.

Dr. ULEVITCH stated he visited the Gaston Hospital on November 6, 1963, and November 9, 1963, while Mrs. GRANT was recovering from the operation. Dr. L. B. ARONOFF, who has offices in the Medical Tower was Mrs. GRANT's doctor.

While Dr. ULEVITCH was talking to Mrs. GRANT on November 9, 1963, she received a telephone call from JACK RUBY inquiring about her condition.

Dr. ULEVITCH continued that he did not see RUBY again until November 11, 1963, when RUBY came to his office suffering a bad cold. Dr. ULEVITCH gave RUBY a prescription and x-rayed RUBY's chest, a routine matter.

NORMA WHARTON, 517 E. Conner Street, advised she met JACK RUBY in December, 1962, at the Cassa Del Sol, Fort Worth, Texas, where she was employed as a hostess. She advised she was going with a man, BERT NELSON, who owned a wig shop on N. Mockingbird Street in Dallas, exact address unknown, but who has business phone EM 3-6235 and home phone FL 2-3774, who knew RUBY and introduced her to him. She advised that her girl friend JOY McAFE, 4801 Susan Lee Lane, Richland Hills Section and she were approached by RUBY to work for him at his Carousel Club, however, they were not interested.

She advised that her girlfriend JOY had some dates with GEORGE SENATOR, who is employed by RUBY and they had been to RUBY's apartment on a few occasions during which time RUBY tried to get her and JOY to work for him. She stated RUBY learned that she owed $25 on her rent and lent her the money which was repaid and that she did not earn any money by working for him. She said that RUBY was never intimate with her or JOY and always conducted himself in a gentleman-like manner. She said she had the impression that RUBY did not like people from the way he talked to them, however, she did not know him well enough to furnish any information on his backgound.

WHARTON advised that RUBY had never mentioned politics in front of her nor expressed any political views whatsoever.

She stated that she had never seen nor heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY. She was unable to furnish any further information in the matter.

BUSTER WHITE, San Bar Courts, 202 Kleburg Place, Corpus Christi, TEXAS advised as follows:

He has earned his livelihood as an electric guitar player since 1946. In 1947 he was residing at Dallas, Texas and began playing at the Silver Spur, 1717 South Ervay Street which was at that time managed by JACK L. RUBY. WHITE played intermittently at the Silver Spur in "combos" during the next year and a half and was casually acquainted with RUBY as manager of this place. He then moved to Corpus Christi in 1949 where he has resided since. In 1951 he and his wife went to Dallas on a honeymoon trip and visited the Silver Spur to dine and dance. On that occasion he had a short conversation with RUBY. Since that time he has neither seen RUBY nor had any communication from or to him. WHITE has lived at his present address since January, 1963 and had no idea how this address would have been in RUBY's possession. WHITE did not know OSWALD and knew of no connection whatsoever between him and RUBY. WHITE advised he knew of no underworld or hoodlum associates of RUBY's and knew very little about his personal life.

BUSINESS ACQUAINTANCES

At Dallas, Texas:

The following investigation was conducted by SA R. NEIL QUIGLEY regarding items secured from JACK RUBY, furnished in connection with the search of his car:

MARK D. SULLIVAN, RI 1-1891 (Adolphus Towers)

On December 13, 1963, MARK D. SULLIVAN, Jack Norton Production, Inc., Room 620, Adolphus Towers, residence 4540 Bestway, DALLAS, TEXAS advised he has known RUBY for about two years since both deal in the entertainment field. His only dealing with RUBY was in July, 1963, when he arranged to have RUBY's Carousel Club strip act put on at the Adolphus Hotel for the Junior Bar Association Convention. Also, he parks his automobile at Nichol Brothers Parking Garage, which is next door to the Carousel Club, and occasionally saw RUBY when parking or picking up his car. He knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD and is not acquainted with OSWALD.

JERRY P. ROSE, Rose Insurance Company Agency, 1900 North Akard, Dallas, Texas, RI 1-6423

On December 13, 1963, JERRY PAUL ROSE, Rose Insurance Agency, 1900 North Akard, DALLAS, TEXAS residence 1307 North Plymouth advised his firm writes all insurance for Mr. ST. CHARLES of the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, who is a partner in the Texas Postcard and Novelty Company, where GEORGE SENATOR works. SENATOR is RUBY's roommate and asked ROSE around April 8, 1963, to see RUBY regarding car insurance since RUBY had had a car accident February 28, 1963. ROSE talked with RUBY at the Carousel Club around April 8, 1963; a few days later visited him at the Carousel to advise the company had turned down RUBY's policy due to his occupation as a night club operator.

He is not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of a connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOHN E. DALLMAN at Dallas, Texas:

A piece of paper with the name NIELA MELA MOORE, TEXAS HA 1-7251 or TA 4-4967 was located in the search of JACK RUBY's car.

TEXAS

On December 12, 1963, GLADYS DAVIDSON, 3101½ San Jacinto telephone TA 4-4967, advised that her daughter, MELBA JOYCE MOORE, resides at Box 40B, Route 4, Crockett, Texas. She is married to BOBBIE BRADFORD, a teacher. The phone number TA 4-4967 is that of another relative. She stated MELBA was a part-time professional singer and about three years ago sang at one of RUBY's clubs one night for about two hours. She had answered an ad in the newspaper and her appearance there was in the form of a tryout. Her daughter did not know JACK RUBY and she, personally, did not know why RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD or of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

A piece of paper with the name JEAN MASON, 1502 Richi, BL 4-7209, was found in the search of JACK RUBY's car. TEXAS

DALLAS, TEXAS

On December 12, 1963, Mrs. MICHAEL FLORES, 2310 Marvel Drive advised she and her daughter, JEAN MASON, formerly resided at 1502 Ritchie. She stated her daughter no longer resides in Dallas and, due to the fact that her former husband had been in difficulty with the law, she moved out of town. She stated she preferred not to furnish her daughter's address or married name; however, she would have her daughter call the FBI Office the next time she is in Dallas. She stated her daughter did not know JACK RUBY other than having met him at the Carousel Club on the night she worked there. She, personally, does not know JACK RUBY or why he shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows of no connection between the two.

A business card from Phil's Texaco Station, Clarendon and Ewing, Dallas, with the name LEO NAVARRO, WH 6-8232, was located in the search of RUBY's car:

DL 44-1639

LEO NAVARRO

On December 13, 1963, LEO O. NAVARRO, Navarro's Garage, 815 Denley Drive, advised he does not know JACK RUBY and knows nothing about him. He stated that possibly PHIL MORALLI, who runs Phil's Service Station, which is nearby, had referred a customer to him by writing his name and phone number on the back of his business card.

On December 13, 1963, PHIL P. MORALLI, Phil's Service Station, 800 East Clarendon, telephone WH. 3-8298, advised that about two or three years ago an individual driving a 1954 Oldsmobile had a breakdown in front of his gas station. He serviced the car and, during the course of conversation, this individual, who he described as being "very tight," told him he was the owner of the Vegas Club. A few times after this individual stopped by his station for gasoline and service and he recalled referring him to LEO NAVARRO's garage, in the event he needed any major repairs. He did not recall this individual saying he ever went to NAVARRO's, however. Shortly thereafter, this individual stopped trading with him and he distinctly recalled he did not have a Texaco Credit Card. He paid for his purchases with cash and usually displayed large sums of money. When he learned of OSWALD's murder, he realized that this individual was JACK RUBY. He knows nothing concerning RUBY and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD and has no idea as to why RUBY shot OSWALD.

The following investigation was conducted by SA EDMOND C. HARDIN at Dallas, Texas:

On December 15, 1963, ELNORA PITTS, 1316 East Jefferson Street, Dallas, telephone number WH 2-5461, advised that she is identical to the "ELINOR, WH 2-5461" which name and telephone number was secured from JACK RUBY's property in connection with a search of his person following his arrest on November 24, 1963. Miss PITTS added that she was previously interviewed on November 27, 1963, by SA JACK A. FRENCH and has no additional information to furnish concerning this case.

On December 13, 1963, Mrs. JOE GARCIA, also known as SHERRI LINN, SHERRY LINN, 1938 Las Cruces Street, Dallas, telephone number EX 1-3932, advised that she is identical to the "SHERRY EX 1-3932" whose name and phone number were secured from JACK RUBY's property in connection with a search of his car following his arrest on November 24, 1963. Mrs. GARCIA stated that she was previously interviewed on November 30, 1963, by SA CHARLES BROWN and added that she has no additional information to furnish relative to this case.

On December 13, 1963, LINDA ZUMWALT, 6435 Vanderbilt Street, Dallas, telephone number TA 3-6014, whose name and phone number were obtained from JACK RUBY's property in connection with a search of his car following his arrest on November 24, 1963, advised as follows:

Miss ZUMWALT advised that she is presently a student and is also employed part time as a saleswoman in a downtown gift shop. She stated she noticed an advertisement on November 14, 1963, in a local newspaper by JACK RUBY for employment in the field of dancing. She answered this advertisement by appearing in person at the Carousel Club on the same day and then learned from RUBY the nature of the dancing involved, namely stripping, and since she realized that this was not the type of dancing employment she desired, she declined to accept the employment. She stated that this was the only occasion she ever had to meet JACK RUBY and has no other information concerning him, his activities, travels or associates.

Miss ZUMWALT stated she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, has no information concerning any possibly relationship between OSWALD and RUBY nor concerning the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY.

On December 15, 1963, EMMA SHIP, Route 6, Box 66, Forest Lane, Dallas, TEXAS, telephone number CH 7-7243, whose name and phone number appeared among items obtained from RUBY's property in connection with a search of his car following his arrest on November 24, 1963, advised as follows:

Miss SHIP advised that on about November 14, 1963, she noticed an advertisement in a local newspaper relative to employment in the field of dancing, which advertisement was placed by RUBY, Carousel Club. She stated she telephoned RUBY on that day inquiring as to the nature of the employment and when RUBY told her it would involve exotic dancing, she told him she was not interested in such employment. She advised that this was her only contact with RUBY and that she has never seen him and has no additional personal information concerning him.

Miss SHIP advised that she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information concerning any possible connection between OSWALD and RUBY or concerning the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY. She added she has received no information concerning how RUBY gained access to the basement of the Dallas Police Department before shooting OSWALD.

The following individuals, all employees of the Merchants State Bank, 5217 Ross Avenue, Dallas, advised that they have known JACK RUBY from one to two years, only as a customer in their bank; that on about November 15, 1963, RUBY took their names and addresses and promised to mail them each a pass card to his Carousel Club, which card was not received. They further stated that they did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and have no information concerning any relationship which may have existed between OSWALD and RUBY or concerning the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY:

The following interviews were conducted by SA PAUL L. SCOTT based on items secured from JACK RUBY's property in connection with a search of his car:

On December 14, 1963, C. J. ASHBROOK, residence 8839 Beckley View, Dallas, Texas, employed as bellman Sheraton-Dallas Hotel, Dallas, advised he has seen JACK RUBY on two occasions during the past year when RUBY came to the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel and passed out courtesy cards for the Carousel Club to the bellmen at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel. RUBY requested the bellmen to refer hotel patrons interested in attending "strip shows" to the Carousel Club. ASHBROOK has had no other contact with JACK RUBY and has no knowledge of his activities or associates. ASHBROOK did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any connection between OSWALD and JACK RUBY.

On December 14, 1963, BARBARA ANN CHAPMAN, Apartment 115, 2817 Shelby, Dallas, Texas, telephone LA 1-4583, advised she has known JACK RUBY since about 1958. CHAPMAN used to go to the Vegas Club occasionally and she became acquainted with RUBY at the Vegas Club. She has known him since that time as operator of the Vegas Club in Dallas. RUBY has invited her to the Carousel Club, however, she has never been to this club. She last saw JACK RUBY about two or three months ago at the Pago Club, a private club on McKinney Boulevard in Dallas. At that time, RUBY bought her a drink and again invited her to come to the Carousel Club. At the time she met JACK RUBY at the Pago Club, CHAPMAN was employed by Contract Interiors, Inc., and she recalls giving RUBY her business card during this contact.

CHAPMAN has no knowledge of activities of RUBY other than his operation of the Vegas and Carousel Clubs and she has no knowledge of RUBY's associates. She has heard that RUBY had a bad temper and did on occasion become involved in fights, however, she has no personal knowledge of this.

CHAPMAN did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any association between RUBY and OSWALD.

On December 13, 1963, ARCHIE ESQUIVEL, 305 North Carroll, Dallas, Texas, advised that in the first week of November, 1963, he noticed an ad in the Dallas newspaper calling for male and female entertainers. He called the number in the ad and was connected with the Pappy Dolson Agency. He was referred by the Dolson Agency to another phone number which was the Vegas Club, Dallas. He called this number and talked to JACK RUBY on the telephone. ESQUIVEL and a partner, MARIA SOZA, have a dance routine and after explaining this to RUBY, RUBY stated he could not use a dance act and stated he was interested in strip tease performers. TEXAS

ESQUIVEL has had no other contact with JACK RUBY, has never seen him personally and has no knowledge of his activities or associates.

ESQUIVEL did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

DONNA AARON, 10355 Fern Drive, Dallas, Texas, telephone DA 1-6977, was interviewed at which time she was advised that the name DONNA CARSON, DA 1-6977 had been found on a sheet of paper which JACK RUBY had furnished to BRYAN POWELL of Graphic Studios, Inc., Dallas, Texas. She advised that there is no DONNA CARSON at the residence but that the name undoubtedly referred to her.

P. APPROX. 1946

She explained that about two or three months ago she was waiting for a bus downtown near her residence when RUBY came by, picked her up, and drove her downtown where she wanted to go. RUBY indicated that he ran an establishment where she could probably work as a waitress and gave her his card for the Carousel Club telling her that if she were interested she should drop by. About a week later she dropped by the Carousel Club but when she found out the type of establishment it was and the fact thatliquor was sold, she told RUBY she was not interested in working there as a waitress. She explained that she is only 17 years old and knew it would be against the law for her to work at the Carousel Club which was the reason for her refusing this employment. She only stayed very briefly at the Carousel Club and left. These were the only two occasions that she was in contact with RUBY.

She knew of no association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no individuals involved with either RUBY or OSWALD in the shootings.

MR & MRS HARVEY DAVIS BOSTICK, 617 Cheyenne Road, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed as an employee for the S & R, Incorporated, doing business as the Carousel Club during 1961 and 1962. BOSTICK advised that he and his wife, NORMAN JEAN, stage name "MARGO," BOSTIC came to Dallas about May, 1961, looking for employment and they obtained jobs at JACK RUBY's Carousel Club. He worked as a bartender and doorman and his wife worked as cashier and part-time dancer. They worked for RUBY until about December, 1961. BOSTICK and his wife went on the road where his wife danced at other clubs. They returned to Dallas about December, 1962, and again worked for RUBY until March, 1963. On this occasion he worked at the Vegas Club as a doorman and on occasions when needed at the Carousel Club. His wife worked as a part-time dancer. About March, 1963, BOSTICK and his wife again went on the road returning to Dallas during the early part of November, 1963. On November 16, 1963, his wife, "MARGO" went to the Carousel Club to visit with employees working there and while there she talked to RUBY a few minutes. On November 17, 1963, RUBY sent a telegram to her at 617 Cheyenne Road, Dallas, in which he asked her to call him at home. On November 17, 1963, she called RUBY at about 1:30 p.m. and RUBY invited BOSTICK and his wife to come down to the Carousel Club and be his guests, telling them that they were always welcome. RUBY did not offer them work at this time. This is the last time they saw or talked to JACK RUBY.

BOSTICK stated the only close associates of RUBY known to him were GEORGE SENATOR, RUBY's roommate, and RALPH PAUL. TEXAS He did not have any information concerning RUBY's business dealings or whether or not RUBY had any connections with any police officers. BOSTICK was of the opinion that if RUBY did have any connections with the police department they were very poor because RUBY often complained of having to pay parking tickets. He did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no idea whether there were any associations or connections between RUBY and OSWALD.

NORMA JEAN BOSTICK, Nee SMITH, stage name "MARGO," 617 Cheyenne Road, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed as a former employee of the Carousel Club. She related that she and her husband, HARVEY BOSTICK, have worked for JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club during the period May - December, 1961 and December 1962 to March, 1963. She worked as a cashier, hostess, stage light operator and part-time dancer. Her husband worked as a bartender-doorman. She stated that they left Dallas about March, 1963 and went on the road. Thereafter they returned to Dallas during the early part of November, 1963. She stated that on November 16, 1963, she went to the Carousel Club to visit with the employees there and talked to JACK RUBY for a few moments. On November 17, 1963, she received a telegram from JACK RUBY at her residence which asked her to call him at home. On November 17, 1963, she called RUBY about 1:00 or 2:00 p.m. and RUBY asked her and her husband, HARVEY, to come down to the Carousel Club to visit and renew acquaintances. This was the last time she talked to JACK RUBY.

She stated that JACK RUBY did not talk too much about his part while she was working there but had mentioned very vaguely that he had worked in Chicago prior to coming to Dallas and while in Chicago had "helped organize unions in Chicago," but she did not elaborate. The only close associates of RUBY that she knows are RALPH PAUL and GEORGE SENATOR. She has no knowledge of any of RUBY's business activities or any connections, if any, he might have had with police officers. She related that there was one police officer she knew whom RUBY did not like. This was a red-headed officer on the Vice Squad who was continually checking the club in an effort to file some law violation so that the club could be closed. She continued that she had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no idea as to whether RUBY and OSWALD were acquainted.

On December 15, 1963, the following investigation was conducted by SAs JOSEPH G. PEOGS and ALVIN E. ZIMMERMAN to determine the identity of GLORIA BRADY, also known as Mrs. E. C. BRADY, 5612 South Lamar Street, Dallas, telephone number TA 7-3531, who was reported to be a former employee of JACK RUBY. This name was also secured from RUBY's property in connection with the search of his address book.

Mrs. T.H. DAVIS, 5015 Lindsley, Dallas, advised that GLORIA BRADY and her parents lived with her until approximately one year ago at which timt they left to go to California and she has not heard from them since. She stated that GLORIA BRADY was a youngster 14-15 years old, who played the guitar and sang western songs; that she was in contact with most of the nightclub owners in Dallas; and had performed at one of RUBY's nightclubs on one or more occasions. Mrs. DAVIS advised that GLORIA's mother's name was RUBY BRADY and her father's name was E. C. BRADY.

On December 15, 1963, the following investigation was conducted by SAs PEOGS and ZIMMERMAN to determine the identity of one "BURNEY LANE", whose name was secured from RUBY's property in connection with the search of his car:

ANDREW ARMSTRONG, Manager, Carousel Club, Dallas, advised that BURNEY LANE was an amateur dancer who had auditioned and performed at the Carousel Club for RUBY for approximately one week. She left without giving notice during March, 1963, and they have not heard from her since.

WARREN (RUSTY) BROWN, 2300 Avalon Street, advised that he is a musician and has a Dixieland type band. He said that in either 1953 or 1954, exact dates not recalled, his band played at the Club Vegas in Dallas. He said when the band was first hired that he believes a JOE BONDS was the owner and at a later date JACK RUBY had an interest in the club. BROWN said his band played at the Club Vegas on two different occasions in either 1953 or 1954 and that he played the club for a period of probably about nine months all together at that time. BROWN said he knew very little about RUBY, but does recall that he did not like this person at the time because RUBY had a very bad temper and wanted to fight. He said he recalls RUBY would make "scenes" at the club and would get mad very easily.

BROWN said he did not know any of RUBY's associates other than JOE BONDS. He said further that he has not been employed by RUBY or in a RUBY club since the above-mentioned time and has had no dealings with RUBY since that time.

Mrs. JUANITA BUCHANNON, owner, ElDorado Lounge, 1010 North Haskell, voluntarily advised on December 17, 1963, as follows. DALLAS, TEXAS

She had formerly worked as a bookkeeper for JACK RUBY for three or four months, commencing around November 1961, at the time RUBY was closing out the Sovereign Club. Her name at the time of her employment was JUANITA SPARKS and she knew very little concerning RUBY's activities before or during that time and she knew of no connection whatever between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

JOHNNY COLA, 2140 Siesta Drive, DALLAS, TEXAS who was reported to be a close associate of RUBY furnished the following information:

During 1948, COLA was employed as a musician by JOE BONDS at the Sky Club in Dallas. Through BONDS, COLA met JACK RUBY who at that time was operating the Silver Spur Club in Dallas. Subsequent to his employment at the Sky Club, COLA later worked as a musician at the Colony Club on Commerce Street in Dallas, which is located next door to the Carousel Club. From about 1948 to 1956, COLA knew RUBY on a close personal basis. Subsequent to 1956, he has seen him only infrequently and has not associated with him socially.

COLA was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at which time he advised that OSWALD was unknown to him and he knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY. COLA knew of no policemen with whom RUBY was particularly close, however, he pointed out that RUBY at least had a speaking acquaintance with most of the policemen in the Dallas Police Department. COLA knows of no particularly strong political belief on the part of JACK RUBY but considered him to be a loyal American and knows of no subversive activities on the part of RUBY.

COLA could furnish no information concerning the reason for RUBY shooting OSWALD but pointed out that RUBY was a highly emotional individual and could have convinced himself that it was the thing to do.

On December 10, 1963, KAY HELEN COLEMAN, nee HARVEY, stage name KATHY KAY, currently appearing at the Kings Club, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, advised SAs DAVID W. MC CLUGAGE and GLENN E. SILVEY that she was formerly employed by JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club in Dallas and that for more than one year she has dated Police Officer HARRY OLSEN, Dallas Police Department, on a regular basis. She stated that OLSEN did not like RUBY and seldom came to the Carousel Club. His dislike stemmed from RUBY's refusal to grant time off to her. She also advised that she and OLSEN were together at the time a playback of the shooting of OSWALD appeared on television and OLSEN made no comment indicating any connection between RUBY and members of the Dallas Police Department.

JAMES DOTSON, Aka., "Pig, the Baseman" of 1136 Fletcher, Apartment 3, Dallas, Texas, was immediately advised of the identity of the interviewing agent, that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. DOTSON was advised of his right to an attorney.

DOTSON furnished the following information:

The paper on RUBY's person showing $10 draw in his name on November 20, 1963, was a payment made on that date to the members of the band called the "Blazers." He stated that he has known RUBY for approximately 10 years and that he had played at RUBY's Silver Spur Club from eight to ten yearsprevious. He stated that he has also played with JOE JOHNSON and his band at the Vegas Club and then with the "Blazers" at the Vegas. He stated that he terminated his employment at the Vegas last Tuesday or the 10th of December. He last saw RUBY on the Sunday, one week prior to the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He had no personal relationship with RUBY, but was strictly an employee of RUBY and his sister, EVA GRANT. He knew of no relationship that existed between RUBY and OSWALD or of any subversive organization that RUBY belonged to. He knew of no conspiracy between any other individual and RUBY to kill OSWALD. He knew of no close relationship that existed between the Police Department and RUBY, but stated that he has seen the Police in the club while they were making their rounds. He knew nothing about RUBY's travels, except that RUBY was from Chicago. He is the same JAMES DOTSON who formerly resided at 4819 Silvers.

CHARLES DOUGLAS LEWING, 3624 York, DALLAS, TEXAS advised his name with the address 3690 Greenleaf and the date, February 24, 1961, very logically would appear among the papers in the possession of JACK RUBY indicating former employment by RUBY since he did work for RUBY in the past.

He explained that for about 3 or 4 months, either beginning or ending in Feburary of 1961, he worked as the clean-up man at the Carousel Club. He usually came to work at about 8:00 in the morning and worked until he finished cleaning up, keeping track of hours worked. RUBY was not around the club too often while he performed this work, but he did see RUBY on several occasions. He never got to know RUBY well enough to have any impressions as to his behavior or habits, although he did hear from some other employees, names not recalled, that RUBY was a quick-tempered man and hard to work for. He quit this job because the pay was low and because he was frequently late in getting paid.

He was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY, and knew of no information indicating any involvement by other individuals in the shootings by OSWALD and RUBY.

DEWEY F. GROOM, 2631 Fonville, DALLAS, TEXAS was interviewed at the Longhorn Ranch Club, 216 Cornith. GROOM was reported to have been formerly employed by RUBY. GROOM furnished the following information:

GROOM first worked for and became acquainted with RUBY during 1949 when GROOM's band played for RUBY at the Silver Spur Club. He continued his association with RUBY for about five years, after which GROOM went into business for himself. During the period from 1949 to about 1954, GROOM was closely associated with RUBY and knew him on a close personal basis. Subsequent to 1954, GROOM saw RUBY very infrequently and at the most two or three times a year.

GROOM was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and indicated that OSWALD was unknown to him and he knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY. GROOM could recall no police officer with whom RUBY was particularly close, however, he pointed out that RUBY knew many officers since he made it a point to cultivate their friendship. GROOM had never discussed politics with RUBY and did not feel that RUBY had any strong political beliefs. RUBY did greatly admire men who were in highly-placed positions. GROOM knew of no subversive activities on the part of RUBY and considered RUBY a loyal American citizen. GROOM was not surprised when he heard that RUBY had shot OSWALD since RUBY is a highly emotional individual who has very intense likes and dislikes.

GROOM last saw RUBY approximately three or four weeks prior to the time he shot OSWALD and as indicated above, knows very little concerning RUBY's personal life since 1953 or 1954.

ISAIAH HOWARD HAYNES, 2114 Holland, Grand Prairie, Texas, and 1917 Galveston, Grand Prairie, Texas, telephone AN 2-4855, was interviewed as an employee of S & R Incorporated, doing business as the Carousel Club during 1961-62. HAYNES advised that he is employed as a houseman-porter-chauffeur for LLOYD B. SANDS, 3821 Windsor Avenue, telephone LA 6-8166, and had had this job for the past 9 years.

HAYNES stated he has worked for JACK RUBY at various clubs owned by RUBY since 1947. He usually works at these clubs as a porter-handyman and has worked at the Silver SPur Club, Vegas Club and Carousel Club. He works at the Sands residence during the day and usually does what maintenance and clean-up work necessary at the various clubs owned by RUBY, between the hours of 4:00 and 7:00 p.m. He receives his instructions as to what is to be done at these clubs from either JACK RUBY or EVA GRANT by telephone.

HAYNES stated that when he is working around these clubs there is seldom anyone else there and he has not been around the clubs at night for approximately 7-8 years.

He stated that he considers JACK RUBY a very nice man to work for and stated that he does not know anything about RUBY's personal life, associates, or business dealings. He did not know if RUBY had any personal connections with the Dallas Police Department. He stated that RUBY had a revolver that he carried in a money sack when he, RUBY, was carrying the receipts from the clubs which were placed in the same sack with the gun. HAYNES continued that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never seen OSWALD in any of the clubs and did not know whether or not RUBY ever had any association with OSWALD.

BONNIE LOUISE NETHCOAT KELLY, 3500 Armstrong, Highland Park, was interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1213½ Commerce Street, Dallas, where she is employed as a cocktail waitress.

KELLY advised she was hired by JACK RUBY in March, 1963, as she answered an "ad" in the newspaper. She stated that RUBY was good to her; that he advanced her money on occasion, and appeared to be genuinely concerned regarding her welfare and the welfare of her children. She stated she never dated him and he never asked her to do so. She heard him make a statement at one time that the girls in the club probably would not go out with him if he asked them.

KELLY stated that everyone at the Carousel Club knows that the Master of Ceremonies, BILL DE MAR, lied when he said he had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the Carousel Club. She said that if OSWALD had ever been at the club one of the waitresses would have remembered him; also, that from the Master of Ceremonies' position on the stage, one cannot see into the audience, due to the lighting arrangements in the club.

KELLY was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and she advised she had never seen him at the Carousel Club or associating with JACK RUBY.

KELLY advised she knows none of the policemen by name with whom JACK was friendly by name; that JACK liked all policemen and many of them came to the club.

WANDA JOYCE KILLAM, also known as Davis, 1351 Galloway Avenue, Dallas, Texas furnished the following information:

She has known JACK RUBY for about 15 years through her patronizing of the clubs in the Dallas area. In July, 1963, she went to work for RUBY at the Carousel Club as a waitress and/or cigarette girl. RUBY asked her to leave about one month ago, when her husband HANK KILLAM continued to come to the club while she was on duty and RUBY felt it was interfering with her work. She went back to work at the Carousel Club about one week ago, after her husband left town.

She likes JACK RUBY and feels he is a wonderful employer even if he is very temperamental. She last saw RUBY about one month ago. She does not know of any trips made by RUBY and has never seen RUBY with a gun.

She does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no information regarding any connection between RUBY and OSWALD. However, JOHN CARTER, a close friend of her husband's, lives at the rooming house where OSWALD resided. CARTER has never been at the Carousel Club, to her knowledge, and is not acquainted with RUBY.

The only Dallas policemen she has ever seen at the Carousel, to her knowledge, were two uniformed patrolmen and one uniformed sergeant, all of whom appeared to be on business at the time.

She advised that she and her husband formerly operated the Bridgeport Club at 1352 Dell Oak Road in Dallas and have been in the nightclub business since 1955. She stated that the only reason she could think of that the name DOVEY and the phone number EX 1-1594 were located in JACK RUBY's possession was because in early November, JACK RUBY called her on the telephone. He stated at that time his sister, EVA GRANT, was going in the hospital and asked her if she would assist in selling tickets at the Vegas Club and oversee the operation there in EVA's absence. She stated she worked at the club for one night as a favor to EVA GRANT and has not seen or heard from RUBY since that time.

She advised that she has known JACK RUBY since about 1955 as a fellow nightclub operator but knows nothing concerning his background, personal life, or political convictions. She has no idea as to why he shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY. She never heard of OSWALD prior to the President's assassination. She was aware that RUBY had many acquaintances among politicians and members of the police force in Dallas but she knew of no particular friends whom he had.

SYLVESTER MARTIN, 3008 Thomas Avenue, Dallas, Texas, who was reported to be a former employee of RUBY was interviewed at the Pago Club, 4527 Cole Street, at which time he furnished the following information:

MARTIN formerly played in the band led by JOE JOHNSON at the Vegas Club in Dallas for JACK RUBY. During the time he played for JOE JOHNSON, which covered a period of about two and one-half years, he knew JACK RUBY on an employer-employee basis. MARTIN played at the Vegas Club until about November 1, 1963, when RUBY and JOHNSON had a falling out and JOHNSON left the Vegas Club.

MARTIN could furnish no information concerning RUBY's personal life pointing out that RUBY spent the majority of his time at the Carousel Club and RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, managed the Vegas Club.

MARTIN was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at which time he advised that OSWALD was unknown to him. He stated that he knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY. MARTIN knew of no policeman with whom RUBY was particularly close. He pointed out that numerous uniformed policemen usually stopped at the Vegas Club and had coffee but none stood out as being particularly friendly.

ROBERT MOSS, 1526 Caldwell, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

MOSS, who is a musician, advised he first met JACK RUBY in the late 1940's or early 1950's, when JACK RUBY operated the Silver Spur Lounge in Dallas. MOSS advised he played in a band at the Silver Spur and Vegas Club, which were operated by RUBY, for approximately eight years until 1954, when he terminated his employment. MOSS advised he has never worked for RUBY since 1954.

MOSS advised that in October or early November, 1963, he went to see JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club regarding playing in a band at the Vegas Club, which is operated by RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT. He recalled that RUBY told him his sister was thinking of giving up the Vegas Club. At that time, October, 1963, MOSS was playing in a band at the Red Jacket Club, 2922 Maple Street, Dallas. MOSS advised that after conferring with RUBY he, MOSS, decided not to play at the Vegas Club, as he felt he had a better deal at the Red Jacket.

MOSS described RUBY as a good-hearted fellow, who was easy to work for, and who treated his employees well. MOSS stated RUBY was the type of person who always tried to keep in touch with persons he knew as, in his instance, RUBY probably felt it advantageous to keep in touch with MOSS, in the event he might need him for a musical engagement. MOSS advised he had no information regarding RUBY's personal activities, other associates, or any of his close friends. MOSS did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor did he have any information or knowledge of any association between OSWALD and RUBY.

MOSS advised he returned to Dallas in August from Kansas City, where he had been playing night club engagements for the past five or six years and, thus, had been out of touch with RUBY during that period.

I Date 12/12/63

WILLIAM KARL "PAT" O'DONNELL, JR., 11009 Myrtice, DALLAS, TENN. was contacted at his residence and immediately advised of the official identity of the interviewing Agents. He was advised of the fact that he did not have to make any statement, but that any statement he did make could be used against him in court. He was advised of his right to consult an attorney.

O'DONNELL furnished the following information concerning his association with JACK RUBY:

He has known RUBY since late 1947 or early 1948, as he was employed by him at this time at the Silver Spur night club on South Ervay Street in Dallas as a singer. He was employed by RUBY intermittently until 1951 when he served in the Armed Forces from 1951 through 1953. His next association with RUBY was in 1956 when he was employed intermittently as doorman and also in 1959 when RUBY opened the Carousel and he and JIMMY RHODES, a photographer from Sulphur Springs, Texas, helped RUBY set up the show at the Carousel and trained the girls. He recalls that at this time owners of other night clubs in Dallas were putting pressure on RUBY to prevent him from opening the Carousel which would be in competition with them, and that RUBY was forced to seek his Mastersof Ceremonies from locations other than Dallas. He also helped RUBY by furnishing performers and other people for his show at the Carousel.

He considers RUBY a sincerely humane person but also emotionally unstable but considered RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, more unstable than RUBY. O'DONNELL furnished the following instances concerning RUBY's behavior:

In 1959, O'DONNELL's wife was in a hospital in a serious condition and RUBY voluntarily donated blood and gave O'DONNELL $100.00 to help defray hospital expenses. RUBY also gave O'DONNELL $100.00 in 1957 when O'DONNELL travelled to the National Disc Jockey Convention in Nashville, Tennessee. Both of these gifts were entirely unsolicited by O'DONNELL.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

O'DONNELL furnished the following information concerning what he considers RUBY's "unreasonable side":

In 1957 or 1958, an unidentified man pulled a pistol on RUBY in the Vegas Club as RUBY was standing behind the bar. RUBY kept his pistol on a shelf underneath the bar and this pistol was within easy reach at this time. Instead of reaching for the pistol, RUBY jumped over the bar, slapped the pistol from the man's hand and almost beat the man to death with his fists, put the gun back in the man's pocket and then threw him out. Approximately three months after this, also in the Vegas Club, a man approximately 6'3", weighing about 230 pounds, was having an argument with a woman and he slapped her. JACK RUBY beat this man to the floor and then threw him out the door. He then told him "if you are that kind of man, crawl away". He then made this individual crawl down the street. On another occasion, O'DONNELL stated that RUBY threw him out of the Carousel Club approximately two or three months after it opened. O'DONNELL explained that he advised RUBY that the whole scheme of the stage was ruined because RUBY changed the lighting without consulting anyone. RUBY then told him to get out of his club and never to come back. Several days later, RUBY called O'DONNELL and asked him why he had not been around. When O'DONNELL told RUBY that he had thrown him out a few days before, RUBY said "you know I didn't mean that".

O'DONNELL stated he is still employed intermittently by RUBY as a doorman which job consists of taking the cover charge from customers as they enter the Carousel Club and arranging for a waiter. Since RUBY has been incarcerated, ANDY ANDREWS, a colored boy hired by RUBY as a bartender three or four years ago, is managing the Carousel Club. NEGRO TEXAS

O'DONNELL continued that he believes RUBY to be too emotional an individual to be able to plan anything in advance as he does not believe RUBY could concentrate on any one topic for more than five minutes. He stated he does not know of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD and failed to identify a photograph of OSWALD as anyone he has ever seen in or around the Carousel Club. He stated he had not seen JACK RUBY for approximately one and one-half months prior to the shooting of OSWALD. He stated he knew that RUBY carried a gun when he would be carrying the night's receipts with him after closing the club. He carried this gun in a zipper coin bag and usually left it in the coin bag during the evening when he was at the club. As to RUBY's entering the basement of the Police and Courts Building on November 24, 1963, O'DONNELL stated he believes that he himself could have walked into the basement that morning because of the fact that he believes anyone who knows anyone on the police force could have gotten into the basement. He stated that RUBY is on speaking terms with about 700 out of the 1200 men on the police force and was not at all surprised to learn of RUBY's admittance to the basement.

O'DONNELL stated that his father, WILLIAM EARL O'DONNELL, SR., known as "COWBOY", is running for the post of State Representative in Dallas, Texas, and that his grandfather, WILLIAM EMITT O'DONNELL, was a U. S. Marshal at Shreveport, Louisiana. TEXAS

O'DONNELL stated that as long as he has known JACK RUBY he has never heard of any affiliation of RUBY's to any group of men or organization but he added that it is impossible in the type of business in which RUBY is engaged not to associate in some degree with so-called "syndicate" men, gamblers, pimps or the like. He stated that BOB LAWRENCE, who came from Las Vegas a few years ago and tried to set up a club of his own in Dallas, Texas, was a syndicate man and that he and RUBY were in almost constant conflict. LAWRENCE finally left the Dallas area after an unsuccessful attempt to engage in business in the Dallas area. NEVADA / TEXAS

O'DONNELL stated that Sergeant FRAZIER of the Vice Squad, Dallas Police Department, frequents the Carousel Club and also Lieutenant ROY of the Burglary and Theft Division and that on almost any night of the week there are several uniformed officers both on and off duty who drop by the club and drink coffee in the back and watch a free show. TEXAS

O'DONNELL stated it is customary when known police officers, other performers or waiters from other clubs drop in to admit them without a cover charge and to buy them a round of drinks. He stated this is the custom in both the Vegas and Carousel Clubs. O'DONNELL stated he is unable to furnish other names of police officers frequenting these clubs as he knows them only by sight.

O'DONNELL stated he is a licensed talent manager for the American Federation of Musicians, license number 3683, and helps RUBY out at his club because of business connections.

WILLIAM EARL "PAT" O'DONNELL, JR., has advised that Sergeant (FNU) FRAZIER of the Vice Squad, and Lieutenant (FNU) ROY of the Burglary and Theft Division, Dallas Police Department, had frequented the Carousel Club in the past.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOHN E. DALLMAN:

On December 13, 1963, Detective BUCK NORRIS, Vice Squad, Special Services Division, Dallas Police Department, advised there is no Sergeant FRAZIER on the Vice Squad and there has been no officer by the name of FRAZIER on that squad during the six years he has been assigned there. He stated there are no Sergeants assigned to the Vice Squad and the men assigned there are either detectives or hold the rank of lieutenant or above. He stated the only FRAZIER he knows of on the police department at the present is a Captain WILLIAM FRAZIER assigned to the Radio Patrol Division. He stated he personally knows nothing concerning JACK RUBY's background, personal life, or political convictions. He stated he never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD. He knows of no police officers who were particular friends of JACK RUBY as RUBY was known by most men assigned to the Special Services Division on the downtown traffic details.

On December 13, 1963, Detective J. W. BEHRINGER, Burglary and Theft Detail, Dallas Police Department, advised there is no one presently assigned there with the last name ROY and there is no lieutenant assigned there with the first name of ROY. He has been assigned to the Burglary and Theft Detail for a number of years and knows of no one there who was a particular friend of JACK RUBY. He personally knows nothing concerning the background, personal life or political convictions of JACK RUBY. He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

MARGARET MARY ORNDORFF, 1407 Annex, Dallas, Texas, whose name and address appear in RUBY's property, was interviewed at her place of employment, L & H Cafe, 4202 Ross, Dallas, at which time she furnished the following information:

Approximately three or four weeks ago, exact date she could not recall, she was fired from her job as waitress at the Eatwell Restaurant, Main Street, Dallas. The same day that she was fired from this job, she was talking briefly with a local policeman whom she had never seen before, and during the conversation had mentioned the fact that she was recently unemployed and was at that time looking for a job. She could recall engaging in a brief conversation with the policeman and he had advised her that she might inquire at the Carousel in efforts to obtain a job as a cocktail waitress. Miss ORNDORFF felt that the uniformed policeman had just mentioned it as a suggestion and was quite sure that he was not attempting to direct girls to the Carousel for any particular reason. She stated that he, the policeman, had mentioned that he had visited the Carousel on his days off and knew that the owner was in need of cocktail waitresses.

She went on to say that she thereafter called the Carousel and spoke to an individual who identified himself as Mr. RUBY. After advising him of her situation concerning a job, RUBY told her to come to the Carousel for an interview and that he could possibly arrange some type of a waitress job for her. Again she could not recall the date, but stated that she did talk to RUBY for a brief period and later decided not to accept a job at the Carousel even though RUBY had offered her a job. She said that this was the only contact she had had with either RUBY or the Carousel and has never contacted RUBY again for any reason whatsoever. She was unable to furnish any background information concerning RUBY, and stated that she has no idea as to why RUBY may have shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shown to Miss ORNDORFF, at which time she advised that she had never seen this individual before and has never heard the name other than in the papers. She was not aware of any connection that RUBY may have had with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

DALLAS, TEXAS

Mr. RAY PARROTT, 1210 Glenwich Lane, who is reported to be a former employee of RUBY furnished the following information:

PARROTT is a musician who has played in various night clubs in the Dallas area since the late 1940's. He first met JACK RUBY during 1952 or 1953 when he went to work for him as a musician at the Silver Spur Club. PARROTT worked at the Silver Spur for approximately two or three years and later worked intermittently at the Sovereign Club for RUBY in Dallas.

PARROTT knew RUBY on casually and did not associate with him on a social basis. PARROTT was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at which time he advised that OSWALD was unknown to him.

PARROTT recalls that numerous uniformed policemen were in and out of the Silver Spur and Sovereign Clubs each evening but he could not recall any policeman with whom RUBY was particularly close.

PARROTT had never discussed politics with RUBY and did not know whether or not he had any particularly strong political beliefs, however, PARROTT did consider RUBY a loyal American and knew of no subversive activities on RUBY's part.

Mr. & Mrs. EDWARD J. PULLMAN, 5458 Anita, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed since the name MARY RAY was found in connection with the search of JACK RUBY's car. It is noted that Mr. PULLMAN's wife sometimes uses the name of MARY RAY. Mr. PULLMAN advised that his wife worked for JACK RUBY in approximately June to August, 1963. He stated that she worked as a hostess in the Carousel Club by helping JACK RUBY seat customers, and assisted him in other ways.

Mr. PULLMAN informed that he personally is an "idea" man and an inventor but said that he got into the habit of going to the Carousel Club at approximately 10:30 or 11 p.m. and waiting for his wife who would get off work after 1 a.m.

He said that as a result of his going to the Carousel Club so often he became quite friendly with JACK RUBY himself. He referred to RUBY as a "kookie guy" and said he meant by this that RUBY was erratic and highly emotional. He further said that RUBY thrives on trouble and often referred to himself as a "hungry operator."

He stated that oftentimes while he was at the club there were numerous police officers who came into the club, but advised that he saw no indication that any of them were receiving any payoff or obtaining anything of value other than free coffee, and the fact that they were not required to pay a cover charge if they saw part or all of the floor show.

Mr. PULLMAN said that JACK RUBY made an effort to run a clean place. He stated that RUBY did not allow profanity and would throw a person out of the place if he became too drunk or abusive. Mr. PULLMAN said that so far as he knew, JACK RUBY carried a gun only when he carried large sums of money.

PULLMAN stated that he got the impression that RUBY was beginning to make a profit in his business at about the time that PULLMAN's wife began working there.

PULLMAN informed that his wife discontinued working for RUBY in approximately August, exact date not recalled, 1963. He said that this was done mainly because RUBY allowed practically every employee he had to "go into the cash register", and that his wife became somewhat discouraged when there would be questions raised as to the amount of money in the cash register. He said that there were never any accusations by RUBY of his wife, but that was one of the main reasons she discontinued working there.

PULLMAN informed that he was at the Texas Products Show in Dallas sometime between November 1 and November 10, 1963, and saw JACK RUBY. He advised that RUBY was very upset at some of the literature Mr. H. L. HUNT was passing out at his exhibit at this show. RUBY had picked up some of this literature and came to PULLMAN and was very upset about it. He stated that RUBY told him he was going to send some of the literature to President KENNEDY and also to the FBI so that the authorities would know the nature of the literature put out by HUNT.

Mr. PULLMAN informed that he believed the reason JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD is that RUBY is a highly emotional person and was probably very upset at the time he shot OSWALD.

PULLMAN advised that at one time in either July or August, 1963, JACK RUBY went to New York City. He advised it is his understanding RUBY went there to contact the American Guild of Variety Artists about the use of amateurs by other night club operators. PULLMAN said that while RUBY was gone he, PULLMAN, worked at the club and in effect ran the club for JACK RUBY. He advised that RUBY was gone approximately four or five days.

PULLMAN stated that he is sure his wife has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD, to her knowledge, and has no information about OSWALD. He further stated that he had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD, to his knowledge, and had no information indicating that RUBY was acquainted with OSWALD.

VALGENE SCAGGS, 6619 East King, Tulsa, Oklahoma, furnished the following information:

He formerly operated a night club at Tulsa and in connection with his work as a master of ceremonies (MC) he has used the name of GINO SCAGGS. He formerly was assigned non-published Tulsa telephone number TEmple 8-1263. TEXA

He is acquainted with JACK RUBY and met him under circumstances as set in hereinafter.

In approximately April, 1962, SCAGGS opened the "House of Blue Lights" night club at 1616 North Sheridan, Tulsa, Oklahoma. SCAGGS went to Dallas to obtain a night club act and while there met RUBY through PAPPY DOLESON, booking agent with the Jack Cole Booking Agency, Interurban Building, Dallas, Texas.

DOLESON showed SCAGGS the acts then showing at the Colony Night Club and the Theater Lounge and thereafter took him to meet JACK RUBY. SCAGGS liked one of the acts which was playing at RUBY's night club and as a result, SCAGGS booked a girl from Nassau in the Bahamas named ROSELDA HENDERSON, aka "Teacup." RUBY stated he would let "Teacup" go in about a week, or as soon as he obtained a replacement. OKLA DA. T. TEXAS

"Teacup" thereafter came to Tulsa and opened SCAGGS' club. Before she arrived, SCAGGS sent RUBY a confirming telegram setting forth the opening date, the number of acts, and the salary for "Teacup." RUBY had called SCAGGS and requested that a confirmation telegram be sent.

SCAGGS talked with RUBY on one other occasion by telephone and that was when RUBY called to find out if SCAGGS was going to hold "Teacup" over and if SCAGGS was going to hold out RUBY's commission of ten percent. RUBY asked SCAGGS to send the commission to him, however, SCAGGS did not do this and paid "Teacup" in full. "Teacup" after completing the engagement went back to Dallas to work for RUBY.

On December 12, 1963, LEO L. ROBERTSON, SA, conducted the following investigation:

J. M. KITCHING, Identification Officer in the Identification Division of the Dallas County Sheriff's Office, advised that they had no record of any kind for GEORGE SENATOR.

PAT SIWEC of the Dallas Police Department Records Bureau, checked their file and found that GEORGE SENATOR had arrest # 61-88755. This record reflected that he was a white male, born September 4, 1913, and gave his residence address as 4917 Live Oak Street, Dallas, Texas. He was arrested in the 4800 Block of Bryan Street by Patrolmen M. T. CHRISTOPHER, Badge #670 (now deceased), and R. B. BROOKS, Badge # 1511. This arrest occurred at 10:50 PM, September 12, 1961. He was charged with drunk and disorderly. The records also reflected that he had deposited a cash bond of $10 and then forfeited the bond.

Lieutenant W. F. DYSON, of the Special Service Bureau, was unable to find any record in their files. He also checked the Intelligence files of that bureau, where they keep rumors and things of that nature concerning homosexuals and other abnormal people, and was unable to find any record of SENATOR there.

Lieutenant K. P. KNIGHT of the Identification Bureau of the Dallas Police Department, advised that they had no record of SENATOR.

In 1951, he was employed for seven months as a band leader by JACK RUBY at the Silver Spur. He and RUBY did not get along well during his employment. He has only seen RUBY occasionally on the streets of Dallas, since 1951. The last time he saw RUBY was November 15, 1963, at about 4:00 PM, in the afternoon, at the Merchants State Bank in Dallas. He is definite regarding the above time and place since he, STRAIGHT, was in the bank signing papers regarding the purchase of an automobile.

He stated RUBY always had a short temper and acted on impulse frequently. He was not particularly surprised when he heard RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He does not know of any political organization or other club or association that RUBY was associated with.

He does not know OSWALD and does not know of any relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

JAMES MICHAEL HOLLAND, 3921 Rawlins Street, Dallas, Texas, was contacted inasmuch as his name and his wife's name, MARGO HOLLAND, were found in connection with the search of JACK RUBY's car.

HOLLAND advised that he met JACK RUBY approximately four years ago at the YMCA Club in Dallas, and further knew of him as RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, lives next door to him (HOLLAND). He advised that he had no close association with RUBY; that he did not want to associate with him as he thought RUBY to be odd. He stated that he last saw JACK RUBY approximately one month ago while he and his wife were at the Vegas Club.

He said that he has never had any discussions regarding politics with RUBY and he knows nothing of RUBY's political affiliations. He said that it was his belief that RUBY shot OSWALD merely to attract attention to himself as he always enjoyed being the center of attention.

HOLLAND stated that he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has never seen OSWALD. He knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD. He said that he knows of no police officers with whom RUBY was particularly friendly.

HOLLAND adivsed that his wife, MARGO, had never had any connection with JACK RUBY, and could furnish no information regarding him.

Miss JUDY SMALLEY, secretary to Doctor GEORGE T. [illegible]HIRES, University of Texas, Southwestern Medical School, 5323 Harry Hines Boulevard, who resides at 1019 North Winnetka Street, Dallas, Texas, advised as follows:

In approximately October, 1962, she and PAT WALLACE, who has since married, married name unknown, moved into Apartment 108 at 223 South Ewing Street, Dallas, Texas. Miss WALLACE was married in August, 1963, and on September 1, 1963, Miss SMALLEY moved to her current address.

From approximately October, 1962, until Miss SMALLEY moved on September 1, 1963, JACK RUBY occupied an apartment, number unknown, in the building at 223 South Ewing.

She said during the first few months she resided at the Ewing Street address she saw RUBY occasionally and outside of exchanging greetings, had no conversations with him.

Several months after moving to this address, date unrecalled, Miss SMALLEY's cousin was visiting her in Dallas. While Miss SMALLEY and her cousin were in their apartment one evening about 9:00 or 10:00 p.m., RUBY knocked on the door. When Miss SMALLEY answered, RUBY said he merely wanted to introduce himself to her cousin. Miss SMALLEY said neither she nor her cousin appreciated RUBY being in their apartment that time of night or at any time, and Miss SMALLEY tactfully ended their brief conversation, and RUBY left. She said RUBY was a gentleman and made no suggestions or advances whatsoever on this occasion or at any time she knew him.

During her residence at Ewing Street, she frequently saw RUBY around the apartment building and more frequently sunning himself at the apartment swimming pool, especially when women were at the pool. She added that often times, RUBY would walk his dogs and she believed he "used" his dogs to start conversations with others.

On one occasion, not long after Miss SMALLEY and her former roommate moved to the Ewing Street apartments, date unrecalled, RUBY requested Miss SMALLEY and her roommate to keep his dogs for him over the weekend, which they did. RUBY did not indicate to them where he was going or what he would be doing that particular weekend.

Miss SMALLEY said neither she nor her former roommate had any other association or conversations with RUBY except an occasional greeting when they passed each other.

Miss SMALLEY did not know if RUBY had a roommate. She said he was alone on most every occasion she saw him. She added that several times, however, she did see RUBY in the company of another male tenant, name unknown, who resided in the same apartment building.

She related that RUBY seemed to be a lonesome person. She said that on many occasions RUBY would approach other women in the building or at the poolside and start a conversation. She knew of no one well acquainted with RUBY. She also said she knew of nothing that would reflect adversely against his character, reputation or associations and she never had any reason to question his loyalty to the United States.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was exhibited to Miss SMALLEY, and she advised she had never seen OSWALD around the apartment building at 223 South Ewing Street. She knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

ALLEN stated that in the late 1950's he joined a private club, the name of which he cannot recall, at the location of what is now the Carousel Club. He stated he attended the private club on approximately one to three occasions. He then learned the private club had been opened to the public and, upon learning this, he terminated his membership in the club. He stated the private club was disbanded and the Carousel Club was activated. ALLEN is of the opinion that RUBY probably had a complete membership list of the members of the private club and maintained this list, which accounted for his name being in the possession of RUBY.

ALLEN advised he did not know RUBY personally, nor did he have any information pertaining to any of RUBY's associates, personal acquaintances, or personal activities. He stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor did he have any knowledge of any acquaintance between OSWALD and RUBY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOHN E. DALLMAN:

AT DALLAS, TEXAS:

The names NORWOOD BALLEW and MAXWOOD BALLOW were located in a list of names of individuals who were apparently members of one of RUBY's clubs in Dallas.

A review of current Dallas telephone directory reflects a listing for NORWOOD BALLOW, 4926 West Lover's Lane, Dallas, telephone FL 7-6553. There is also a listing for NORWOOD BALLOW at 6727 Robin, telephone FL 2-4145.

The current city directory for Dallas contains a listing for R. NORWOOD BALLOW, 6727 Robin Road, and indicates the Twin Tree Inn is located at that address.

A public source of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company advised on December 16, 1963, that telephone numbers FL 7-6553 and FL 2-4145 are not in service. There is no current listing for NORWOOD BALLOW or the Twin Tree Inn in Dallas.

On December 16, 1963, BIRDIE SUE BELCHER, Merchants Retail Credit Association, Dallas, advised that the only current information concerning NORWOOD BALLOW is that during November, 1963, he was residing at 4568 Roland, Dallas, Texas. She stated that this was apparently the address of a DOAK G. STOWE. She advised the phone number there was LA 8-5555.

On the same date, an effort was made to locate BALLOW or STOWE at 4568 Roland; however, inquiry there reflected that STOWE could be located through the Doak - Stowe & Company, 620 Decorative Center, Dallas.

On the same date, ELIZABETH SAGE, Doak-Stowe & Company, 620 Decorative Center, Dallas, advised that Mr. D. G. STOWE was presently vacationing in Mexico. She stated that NORWOOD BALLOW after selling his residence and business in Dallas had lived with Mr. STOWE for a short period of time. She stated that he then left the city and she has no idea where he is presently located or who might know of his whereabouts.

On December 7, 1963, JIMMY LACOUME, 609 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, advised SAs ALVIN ZIMMERMAN and JOSEPH G. PEGGS that NICK TURMAN is a brother of BUDDY TURMAN and to his knowledge, NICK has never been associated with JACK RUBY. TEXAS

On December 9, 1963, ANDREW ARMSTRONG, Manager, Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street, Dallas, advised that NICK TURMAN had never worked for JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club to his knowledge.

The following investigation was conducted on December 16, 1963, by SA's ALVIN ZIMMERMAN and JOSEPH G. PEGGS in an attempt to locate BETTY GUNNER, 6923 Choctaw, inasmuch as her name and address were found in connection with the search of RUBY's car. TEXAS

Mrs. WILMA E. HUGHES, American Guild of Variety Artists, advised her records reflected no reference to a BETTY GUNNER.

Dallas city directory and telephone directories were checked with negative results.

Investigation reflects no such street address as 6923 Choctaw in Fort Worth-Dallas area.

ANDREW ARMSTRONG and DIANA HUNTER, both employees of Carousel Club, advised that they know no one by the name of BETTY GUNNER, BETTY TURNER or any name sounding similar.

Investigation conducted on December 15, 1963, to determine the identity of B. J. CLARK, whose name was found in the property belonging to JACK RUBY, reflects this person to be identical with R. J. CLARK, Personnel Manager, Adolphus Hotel. CLARK has been previously interviewed regarding this matter. TEXAS

LEROY COHEN, Assistant Vice President of Peterite, and Director of Purchases for Geiss of America, 6424 North Western Avenue, advised that Geiss of America is the importing branch of three companies which operate from 6424 North Western Avenue, Chicago, under the same president. Peterite is the manufacturing branch, Geiss the importing branch and General Camera Stores, Incorporated, is the retail outlet of this organization.

COHEN advised that Geiss of America introduced the Minifon recording equipment into this country. He advised it was a German import. He stated this product was sold to various dealers and sub-distributors throughout the United States. Geiss, however, was responsible for the warranty on the machine. He stated that Geiss had released the product to ITT about a year ago as they were having difficulties with the machine and they no longer desired to handle it.

COHEN advised a buyer could have bought a Minifon from a number of different places; from a dealer, sub-distributer, or from mail order (Allied). He stated, however, that the Registration-Warranty card which went with these machines was returned to Geiss if it was filled out by the buyer. He advised these were stored somewhere on the premises and that he would initiate a search to find them.

COHEN further advised he would attempt to locate the list of dealers and service agents who handled the Minifon. COHEN stated he would search his records, both sales and service under the name JACK LEON RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN and notify the Chicago FBI Office immediately if anything regarding RUBY or RUBENSTEIN was uncovered.

COHEN advised that service work was done on the Minifon at Geiss and also a number of other service agents. He advised that service records at Geiss were kept by machine serial number.

COHEN provided four pieces of literature on the Minifon and advised he felt the Model B-55 was the model in production. ~~between July, 1966, and May, 1963.~~

Following investigation conducted by SA JAMES C. KENNEDY

The following investigation was conducted to identify "Margie - RI 2-2855" found in the list of names in JACK RUBY's Carousel Club.

RI 2-2855 is the telephoned listed to Jeane Manufacturing Company, 105 N. Record, Dallas, Texas.

At the Jeane Manufacturing Co., it was ascertained that MARGIE CRAIG had formerly been employed as a power machine operator. Her address was furnished as Route 3, Seagoville, Texas.

Mrs. M.A. "Margie" CRAIG, telephone AT 6-2929, advised she had never been employed by RUBY at any club, that she did not know JACK RUBY and, further, she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and further, she had never ever been a guest in any of RUBY's clubs.

He is the Sales Manager of Texas Industries, Dallas, Texas. About three or four years ago he went to the Sovereign Club which was run by JACK RUBY with three of his associates R. LEON MARSHALL, WILLIAM C. GREEN, and WILLIAM S. NICHOLS. He did not recall how they happened to go to the club but remembered that they paid a nominal membership fee and met the operator of the club at that time. He stated he did not recall seeing the operator since that time but that he later learned that this individual was JACK RUBY. He knows nothing concerning RUBY's background, personal life or political convictions, and knows of no connection between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He had never heard of OSWALD prior to the President's assassination. He knows of no friends of JACK RUBY.

GARRETT, 6331 Desco Drive, Dallas, TEXAS telephone number EM 1-0014, whose name, telephone number and address appeared as "GARRETT, VIRGIL F., LA 6-7755, 3024 Knox Street", was found in a book that was the property of JACK RUBY. Mr. GARRETT was contacted at his place of employment, Traditional Services, Inc., 3119 North Haskell, Dallas, at which time he furnished the following information:

He advised that a few years ago sometime around 1960, exact date he could not recall, his company, Traditional Services, Inc., which was then located at 3024 Knox Street, Dallas, had attempted to make arrangements with JACK RUBY strictly in the line of business. He explained this by saying that Traditional Services, Inc., is a company that deals primarily with the cleaning of upholstery and rugs and for this reason some of the authorities had contacted RUBY in efforts to establish some type of contract for cleaning the upholstery and rugs in RUBY's night clubs. He stated that this if the usual practice and could recall having contacted several clubs in the Dallas area for the same purpose. Mr. GARRETT stated that his company never actually established this contract with JACK RUBY but at the time they were attempting to negotiate this business, several of the company's names were submitted to RUBY as possibly members of the Sovereign Club, which he explained is no longer in existence. Although his name was submitted as a possible member of the Sovereign Club, Mr. GARRETT explained that he never became a member and could never recall having met JACK RUBY.

Mr. GARRETT advised that he is not and has never been associated with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and could offer no information whatsoever concerning either individual. He knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY and was unable to relate any information as to why RUBY may have killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mr. GARRETT stated that the only information he possessed concerning any of RUBY's background was that which he had either read in local newspapers or heard on the television.

Mr. GARRETT explained that his former business address was 3024 Knox Street, telephone number LA 6-7755 and was under the impression that RUBY had obtained his name, telephone number and employment while at this address.

The following investigation was conducted at Dallas, Texas, by SA KENNETH P. HUGHES:

The following names appeared in a book and believed to be members of one of JACK RUBY's club:

CARRIE P. HOLMES — 2525 Turtle Creek Boulevard Apartment 201, Dallas, TEXAS

BERTHA HOLMES — " "

They formerly resided at 5508 Richmond Avenue, Dallas, Texas.

Both of the above bought a membership to the Sovereign Club at the opening of the club and attended, expecting to receive a dinner. After arriving at the club and discovering that no dinner was to be served and that the club in general was much cheaper looking than what they thought, they left and never returned. Neither knew RUBY or of any subversive organization he may have belonged to or of any connection between RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD. They did not know of any connection between RUBY and the Police Department or of any of RUBY's travels.

BERTHA HOLMES called RUBY twice after her initial visit to the Soverign Club in an attempt to get back the $140.00 membership fee that she and her sister had paid with negative results.

JACK MITCHELL, 4822 Wright Road, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised he has been an insurance salesman for the Southwestern Life Insurance Company of New Orleans, Louisiana, for about three years, working primarily in the New Orleans area only. He advised that due to a heart condition he works only half days and does practically no traveling at all. He advised he would have no contact with anyone in Dallas, Texas, as far as selling is concerned but he has gone to Dallas on company business, explaining the company conducts schools for the salesmen, at which time they are all brought to Dallas for a short while. He advised in 1962, he attended sessions in Dallas in March, September and October, that he would have been there for no other reason and has not been there since.

Mr. MITCHELL advised he has never known anyone by the name of ROBERT WEAVER or JOE SEVEREIGN in New Orleans, Louisiana, Dallas, Texas, or elsewhere, nor does he know JACK RUBY except by recent publicity. He advised he has a large number of his personal cards which he hands out indiscriminately and further gives the cards to others to pass out, hoping to create business. He stated he had discussed the RUBY situation with other salesmen since it was thought that RUBY's bar in Dallas was one frequented by salesmen while in Dallas, but no conclusion was reached and therefore he does not believe he has ever been in the place. He advised he had no logical suggestion as to how RUBY could have obtained a business card of his since it could have come from anywhere and the names written thereon mean nothing whatsoever to him and certainly neither of these men have ever been customers of Mr. MITCHELL.

Mr. MITCHELL advised he has no knowledge of any connection between JACK LEON RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD and does not know either of these persons.

JEAN PIERCE, Apartment 218, Kingston Apartments, 909 North Graham Street, Odessa, Texas, advised that she worked for the Coliseum at San Angelo, Texas, from October 8 to November 1, 1961. She stated that during this time she did business with a lot of booking agencies in Dallas. She said she wanted to get work in Dallas and went to Dallas shortly after the first of November, 1961 and contacted ED RUBIN of the Associated Booking Corporation, Dallas. RUBIN said he knew a place where she could go to work and took her to a dinner club, the name of which she could not recall, but believes it was the Chalet Club in Dallas. There RUBIN introduced her to a man by the name of JACK and JACK and his wife hired her. She said ED RUBIN would know the identity of this JACK. She stated at this point that she had seen pictures of JACK RUBY in the newspaper and could not identify the photographs of RUBY as being identical to the JACK she met at the dinner club.

She said she went to work at the club as a dart board operator. She said that she had to dress in real short shorts and black hose and worked from 4 00 P.M. to midnight. She said that she worked three days only and terminated the job because she did not like the way she had to dress. She said that also the boss acted very strangely and very suspiciously and she did not know what was going on but did not like the activities.

JEAN PIERCE said that she does not recall ever meeting JACK RUBY, has no knowledge of any background activities of RUBY and no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

HORACE T. SCOTT, 3228 Obannon, Dallas, advised that he has never known JACK RUBY. He recalled that approximately four or five years ago a friend, HAROLD TENNANT, brought EVA GRANT to a party at his home at Midlothian, Texas. That is the only time he can recall ever having seen Mrs. GRANT. He recalled that TENNANT worked for Mrs. GRANT at the Vegas Club for a short period of time.

Mr. SCOTT advised that he could furnish absolutely no information concerning the background, activities or associates of either JACK RUBY or EVA GRANT.

By letter dated November 26, 1963, Mrs. SHARON TEFFT, Rural Route Number 1, Schoolcraft, Michigan, forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice, Washington, D. C., a photograph of then Senator JOHN F. KENNEDY admist a crowd of people, number of whom are bearing campaign placards. One of the placards bore a photograph of Senator KENNEDY (later President KENNEDY) and along side the photograph in vertical letters appeared the name "RUBY".

Mrs. TEFFT advised she found this picture in the 1960 yearbook edition of Universal Standard Encyclopedia, which photograph apparently was taken by "Wide World".

Mrs. TEFFT advised she did not know of any connection between the "RUBY" referred to above and JACK RUBY, the person who killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD; however, she was forwarding the picture for "if there was the slightest chance of helping to solve this case it would certainly be worth the effort of this letter".

CAMPAIGN PHOTO OF "SENATOR" JOHN F. KENNEDY taken November 2, 1960, San Jose, California with placard bearing name "RUBY".

Joan Gladstone, Library Assistant, Wide World Photos, 50 Rockefeller Plaza, on December 6, 1963, located a negative of a photograph taken at San Jose, California, November 2, 1960. She indicated this photograph was taken by an Associated Press staff photographer, whose identity she did not know. She furnished an eleven inch by 14 inch print of this photograph.

It is noted the photograph depicts President John F. Kennedy amidst a crowd of people, a number of whom are bearing campaign placards. This photograph was evidently taken during the presidential campaign, 1960. One of the placards bears a photograph of President Kennedy and alongside the photograph in vertical letters appears "RUBY".

The following caption appears underneath the photograph:

"SAN JOSE, CALIF., NOV.2--KENNEDY COMES A CALLING--Sen. John Kennedy waves to crowd as he arrives to address huge crowd here today. Kennedy, campaigning in this northern California city, was well received. Police estimated the crowd at more than 12,000 people. (APWIREPHOTO) (rh41740stf)'60."

AT SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA

Campaign photo of "Senator JOHN F. KENNEDY" taken November 2, 1960 at San Jose, California with a placard bearing the name "RUBY".

San Francisco determined that the then Senator JOHN F. KENNEDY appeared at a campaign rally at San Jose, California, on November 2, 1960.

On December 13, 1963, ALAN PARKER, State Inheritance Tax Appraiser, 210 North 4th Street, San Jose, advised SA WILLIAM N. KIDWELL, JR., that he was associated with the California State Democratic Committee at the time of the aforementioned rally. Mr. PARKER was in charge of this rally. He recalled that he and his staff expected a crowd of three to four thousand. However, approximately twenty thousand persons were actually present. Mr. PARKER also informed regarding the KENNEDY placard which appears in a photograph taken by Associated Press on the occasion of this rally and bearing the name "RUBY". Mr. PARKER advised that there is no doubt in his mind that this placard was being carried by one RUBY DERANJA, also known as Mrs. JOHN DERANJA and who was in charge of the headquarters office of the Citizens for KENNEDY Campaign Committee in San Jose during the November, 1960 campaign. He stated that a number of the persons who bought KENNEDY placards on this occasion may have also included their own names as a matter of identification to the Senator JOHN F. KENNEDY placard.

There is no one named SAMMY TUCKER at his establishment and he does not know anyone by that name. He believes that the name SAMMY TUCKER, telephone number WH 3-4581, actually refers to himself.

He never personally met JACK RUBY. Approximately two weeks prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, JACK RUBY came to the Tommy Tucker Plastics, Inc., and made inquiry at the office concerning the cost of business cards. No order was placed by RUBY and RUBY did not recontact his establishment. Mr. TUCKER said that apparently, RUBY was given his name and telephone number at that time.

Mr. TUCKER said he had no information concerning the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He has no personal information concerning the past activities of RUBY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA TOM E. CHAPOTON:

On December 13, 1963, Mrs. JOSEPH R. MARANDO, 11320 Wyatt Street, Garland, Texas, telephone number DA 1-5749 was interviewed in that that telephone number with the notation "COPELAND" was found in JACK RUBY's automobile.

Mrs. MARANDO stated that telephone number DA 1-5749 was assigned to them approximately 1½ to 2 years ago and that the name "COPELAND" means nothing to her. She stated that she is not acquainted with JACK RUBY and has no knowledge concerning him.

On December 13, 1963, LEON MASON, 1127 Bayonne Street, Dallas, Texas, telephone number RI 8-4136, was interviewed in that his telephone number with the notation "NOEL" was found in JACK RUBY's automobile. MASON stated that this telephone number has been assigned to him for at least two years. He said the name "NOEL" has no meaning to him whatsoever. He stated he does not know JACK RUBY and has no information concerning him.

A check of the Dallas telephone criss-cross directory for 1961 reflects under telephone number DA 1-5749, the name NOEL COPELAND, 1060 Magellan. The Dallas City directory for 1961 reflects NOEL and JEAN COPELAND, 1060 Magellan, NOEL being employed as an assistant accounting executive, Sam Bloom Advertising Agency, Dallas, Texas.

On December 14, 1963, Miss DARLA BROOKS, Sam Bloom Advertising Agency, advised that NOEL COPELAND was a former employee and is believed presently employed by Abe Chapman & Associates, Dallas, Texas.

On December 16, 1963, Mrs. MARY M. COGHLAN, Office Manager, Abe Chapman and Associates, Dallas, advised that NOEL COPELAND has been employed as a salesman for that company for the past 2½ years and resides and works from his home at 202 38th Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

Lieutenant FLOYD HANNON, (National Academy) Wichita, Kansas Police Department, advised SA ROBERT ALLEN ELKINS this date, that a THELMA CORNWELL, waitress at the Westair Club, Wichita, Kansas, called him and advised him that she had given some information to two FBI Agents. HANNON advised that CORNWELL said that some of this information was not correct, and that she wanted to correct this information. She related the following to HANNON:

GAIL RAVEN was working at the T-Bone Club in Wichita, Kansas at the time JACK RUBY came to the T-Bone Club in Wichita, Kansas, instead of exotic dancer, PRECIOUS DIAMOND. CORNWELL told HANNON that this was the later part of January 1963, and while RUBY was in town he stayed at the Cassa Siesta Motel. Lieutenant HANNON advised that he checked the records of the Cassa Siesta Motel and found that JACK RUBY made one phone call from the Cassa Siesta Motel while he stayed there in January 1963. This phone call was to number JA 4-3224, which is listed as the T-Bone Club, Wichita, Kansas.

JIM JONKER, 4523 South Market Street, Wichita, Kansas, advised that he is the manager of the T-Bone Club, Wichita, Kansas. JONKER stated that last February, JACK RUBY was at the T-Bone Club to visit a dancer by the name of GAIL RAVEN of Dallas, Texas. JONKER stated that RAVEN was performing as an exotic dancer at the T-Bone Club at that time. JONKER stated that there was a couple with RUBY from Dallas, whom he did not know. JONKER advised that the man with RUBY was of average size and the woman was blond, that was all he could remember concerning this couple.

JONKER stated that GAIL RAVEN had spoken of JACK RUBY several times and of the Carousel Club at Dallas, Texas, where RAVEN had performed in the past. JONKER stated that he did not know JACK RUBY and had only met him on this one occasion when he was introduced to RUBY by GAIL RAVEN. JONKER advised that in the entertainment circle he had never heard anything about RUBY in connection with subversive activities.

EARL JACKSON, 4420 Larchmont Avenue, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

This interview was based on information received from Mrs. ALLEN TAYLOR, former manager Fontainebleau Apartments, San Antonio, Texas, that JACK RUBY was at San Antonio in February, 1963, and possibly before and that RUBY is personally known to the owner of the Fontainebleau Apartments, EARL JACKSON who resides at 4420 Larchmont Avenue, Dallas.

JACKSON advised he is the owner of the Fontainebleau Apartments, San Antonio, Texas. He is not acquainted with JACK RUBY and to his knowledge has never seen JACK RUBY. JACKSON recalled that in about August, 1962, during the opening of the Fontainebleau Apartments, San Antonio, he talked briefly at the Apartments to an individual whose name is unknown, who was operator of the Red Carpet Bottle Club in San Antonio. JACKSON believes he may have discussed this individual with Mrs. ALLEN TAYLOR, the manager of the Apartments, and that this is the individual Mrs. TAYLOR mistook for JACK RUBY.

JACKSON said to his knowledge JACK RUBY has never been at the Fontainebleau Apartments in San Antonio.

JACKSON is definitely not acquainted with JACK RUBY and never knew of any clubs operated by JACK RUBY in Dallas prior to the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by RUBY on November 24, 1963.

JACKSON was not acquainted with and had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of any association between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

HOLLIS McMAHAN, Chief of Police, advised that he had heard rumors and reports, sources not recalled, during the past few days to the effect that JACK RUBY of Dallas, Texas, was acquainted with a man named LUNDY who operates a beer joint near West, Texas. He advised he had also heard the report that RUBY had friends in the Chat community in Hill County and that RUBY reportedly was in the Chat or West communities on the week end before November 22, 1963. McMAHAN advised he had not conducted any investigation concerning these rumors nor could he furnish any information as to their source.

U. J. LUNDY, 1112 North Davis Street, WEST TEXAS advised that he has owned and operated a beer joint located approximately two miles north of West, Texas, on U. S. Highway 81 since 1942.

LUNDY advised that when the name, photograph, and description of JACK RUBY appeared on television programs, he "believed" that RUBY was the same man who had been in his beer joint approximately 3 or 4 times in the past two years. He stated he had never been introduced to the man, but that the man had simply dropped in his place, stayed for a while, and then moved on. He stated he had noted that the individual acted like a "big shot" and had bought drinks for a number of people who were in the place at the time. He stated he believed he recalled that this man, whom he believes was RUBY, had invited people who were in the Nite Owl to come to Dallas and visit his place in Dallas. LUNDY advised that he did not remember the names of the places in Dallas, and advised that the names "Vegas Club" and "Carousel" were not familiar to him.

LUNDY advised that the last time this man, whom he believes was RUBY, was in the Nite Owl was in about September 1963. He advised he did not know the names of anyone with whom RUBY was acquainted or with whom he associated, other than the fact that he believed he recalled that JAMES SMITH may have been with RUBY on one occasion. He identified SMITH as being a former resident of and a member of a family that had lived in the Chat community in Hill County, but BELIEVED 1131 he believed SMITH now lived in Dallas, Texas, where he worked as a freight handler on a freight dock. He stated he did not know where SMITH lived in Dallas nor did he know the name of SMITH's employer.

LUNDY advised that he did not know the name of any other person in the Chat community who might know RUBY.

LUNDY again stated that he had not been introduced to RUBY nor had he had any conversation with him, but had simply overheard his conversation with other people in the beer joint.

during the time he was there. He stated he did not remember the name of any person who might have been there at the time that RUBY was there. He stated he had no information to indicate that RUBY had friends or associates either at West, Texas, or the Chat community. He stated he believed that the time SMITH was last in the Kite Owl was in about July 1963.

LUNDY examined a photograph of JACK RUBY, and stated that the photograph resembled the man who was in his beer joint but that he could not be positive in his identification. LUNDY stated he could not recall whether he had heard the name "RUBY" when the man was in his beer joint or whether he first heard it on television.

LUNDY admitted that he had told several people in the West area that RUBY had been in his place on several occasions and had been with JAMES SMITH who was from Chat community.

LUNDY stated he could not advise as to the purpose of RUBY's visits in his beer joint, other than the fact that numerous people from Dallas stopped in his place when passing through or when in the area. He noted that his place was about the first place on the highway south of Hill County and he further noted that Hill County is "dry" and does not allow sale of beer anywhere in the county.

GEORGE RUSSELL, Route 4, Hillsboro, Texas, advised that he lived on and operated a farm in the center of the Chat community. He advised he was a lifelong resident of that community and was well acquainted with all persons who had lived or associated in that area. RUSSELL advised that he was not acquainted with JACK RUBY and that he had never seen anyone resembling, or possibly identical with, JACK RUBY in that area. He stated he was certain that RUBY had not been in that area recently. He pointed out that that community now consists only of a cotton gin that has been shut down and about three or four farm residences even these are widely separated. He advised that a family named SMITH had formerly lived in the Chat community for a number of years and that a farm owned by Mrs. SMITH, the widow, was still rented out by her although she no longer lived in that community. He stated he remembered that Mrs. SMITH had a son named JAMES SMITH, who would be approximately 25 years of age, and who is now living in Dallas, Texas, address and occupation unknown. RUSSELL stated that he had not seen JAMES SMITH or any other member of the SMITH family in the area in quite a long while. He stated that JOE SINCULE was renting the SMITH farm at the present time.

DALLAS, TEXAS

HENRY LEE BROTHERTON, 4318 Kushla, who is employed as a public relations specialist, Hexter Title and Abstract Company, was interviewed concerning his knowledge of JACK RUBY and a "Motion of District Attorney to Dismiss Prosecution" in the case of the State of Texas vs. JACK LEON RUBY, Docket Nos. 1788-C and 1789-C, filed in Dallas County Criminal Court #3 on February 8, 1955, which was signed by BROTHERTON when he was serving as Assistant District Attorney of Dallas County. BROTHERTON was advised he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to consult an attorney at any time he desired. BROTHERTON voluntarily furnished the following:

He served as Assistant District Attorney of Dallas County from 1954 through 1959 and was a Justice of the Peace in Dallas from 1959 to 1962. During the five years he served as Assistant District Attorney of Dallas County, JACK RUBY frequently visited the District Attorney's Office in Dallas just to talk to anyone who did not look busy. RUBY made an effort to become acquainted with ever public official, and BROTHERTON assumed RUBY was acquainted with many Dallas police officers. BROTHERTON, however, knew no Dallas police officers who were well acquainted with RUBY. Furthermore, he knew none of RUBY's friends or acquaintances.

BROTHERTON related he talked with RUBY occasionally when RUBY made visits to the District Attorney's Office, but he never became well acquainted with RUBY, and he had no social contacts with him. BROTHERTON said RUBY never approached him or anyone in the District Attorney's Office to his knowledge concerning his (RUBY's) arrest or anyone's case in the District Attorney's Office. BROTHERTON said he never had any information that would indicate RUBY was connection with prostitution, gambling or narcotics.

BROTHERTON stated he patronized RUBY's night club only on one occasion and that was approximately four years ago when he visited RUBY's Carousel Club in Dallas. On that occasion, BROTHERTON went into the club and as he entered, RUBY saw him and would not let BROTHERTON pay the cover charge.

BROTHERTON said he had a beer which he paid for himself. He added this was the last time he saw JACK RUBY.

It was pointed out to BROTHERTON that the above-mentioned "Motion of District Attorney to Dismiss Prosecution" signed by BROTHERTON when he was serving as Assistant District Attorney of Dallas County, in the case of the State of Texas vs. JACK LEON RUBY, reflects "This is a liquor violation case. The witnessed in this case, Officers BLAKENSHIP and CARLEON, advised they conducted the investigation but that it was filed without their knowledge. The police report states that they observed customers consuming beer after hours. Both officers stated this is incorrect and they did not observe the customers consuming beer. It is recommended that this case be dismissed because of insufficient evidence."

Concerning the above, BROTHERTON stated he does not recall the case since he handled many cases during the five years he was in the District Attorney's Office. He stated he was not assigned to handle cases in Dallas County Criminal Court #3, but probably did handle some out of that court when the schedules of other Assistant District Attorneys became too heavy. BROTHERTON opined that he probably contacted the arresting officers in the above case by telephone, which was frequently done by all Assistant District Attorneys at that time, and as a result of what the officers told him, s e t u p a "Motion to Dismiss" the case. He stated his statement as set out in the "Motion" is true and correct. He added that if there had been anything unusual about the case, he would have remembered it.

BROTHERTON stated RUBY impressed him as a publicity seeker and RUBY probably killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD because he thought he would be a hero. He had no idea how RUBY gained entrance to the basement of the Dallas City Hall on November 24, 1963, and he knew of no conspiracy on RUBY's part in the shooting of OSWALD. BROTHERTON stated he never knew OSWALD, and he knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date December 15, 1963

Officer J. B. TONEY, Detective, Forgery Bureau, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, was immediately advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents; of the fact that he did not have to make any statement; that any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law; and that he had the right to consult an attorney. He then furnished the following information:

On November 23 and 24, 1963, he was off duty and out of town both Saturday and Sunday.

In 1952, he worked in the police district that covered South Ervay where JACK RUBY had his club. He knew RUBY from visits to the club and in fact, arrested RUBY after he became involved in a fight in the Burgundy Room of the Hotel Adolphus, in February, 1963. He did not work for RUBY nor did he know any other officers who did. He did not see RUBY any time between the November 22-24, 1963, period and he knew of no relationship that existed between RUBY and OSWALD.

With regard to the complaint filed by DON TABON against RUBY in connection with a fist fight in the Hotel Adolphus Burgundy Room, TONEY stated that he did call TABON at home and advised TABON that all he could do against RUBY was to file simple assault charges against him inasmuch as the only weapons RUBY used were his fists. TABON still wished to press the charges and TONEY filed these charges for TABON as TABON's agent. TONEY then called RUBY by telephone and told him he would have to come down and explained to him the charges that were being filed against him. He stated that RUBY did come down and TONEY believes he posted bond. TONEY has been in the Carousel Club both on business and for pleasure. He was investigating an individual by the name of PHYLLIS SHEA who used the stage name, "SUGAR," and who was filed on as a check writer. He was in the club socially in December, 1959 with relatives but could not recall being in the club with one HAROLD TENANT. He explained that he formerly worked with TENANT as a machinist during his off hours from the police department. He could not recall ever taking TENANT to RUBY's clubs or introducing TENANT to RUBY. He reiterated that he did call TABON, but he did not try to get TABON to drop the charges against RUBY. He merely explained to him the simple assault charge and law.

Agent ROBERT TAYLOR, Bureau of Federal Narcotics, 433 West Van Buren, Chicago, Illinois, made available on December 5, 1963, their file for the following pertaining to PAUL ROLAND JONES, MAURICE COSTELLO MELTON, and TAYLOR CROSSLAND. These three individuals had contacted and were associated with JACK RUBY and his brother, HYMAN RUBENSTEIN, while in Chicago during 1947:

MEXICO ILL. TEXAS

TAYLOR CROSSLAND was arrested on August 27, 1947, Laredo, Texas, by U.S. Customs for having 48 pounds of raw and smoking opium brought into Texas from Mexico in his possession. CROSSLAND implicated MAURICE C. MELTON and PAUL ROLAND JONES. MELTON and his brother, JOHN MELTON, were arrested October 29, 1947, at Houston, Texas. MAURICE MELTON corroborated the information given by CROSSLAND implicating PAUL ROLAND JONES and JONES was subsequently arrested October 24, 1947, Dallas, Texas, by Federal Narcotics agents as was MELTON.

Prior to these arrests, the above subjects were surveilled during the course of this investigation and they checked into the Central Plaza Hotel, Chicago, on August 2, 1947. While at this hotel, they made several telephone calls which were checked out and the number of Kedzie 1717 was listed to HYMAN and JACK RUBENSTEIN, 3650 West Lexington, Chicago. The RUBENSTEINs were subsequently interviewed by Federal Narcotics agents, Chicago, and the results of these interviews are set forth as follows:

"I, HY RUBENSTEIN, having been informed by ALBERT E. AMAN known to me to be an agent of the Bureau of Narcotics of the Treasury Department of the United States, and ARTHUR R. ADAMS, known to me to be an agent of the Bureau of Customs of the Treasury Department, that I may decline to answer any questions propounded to me by him on the grounds that the answers thereto may tend to incriminate me; and having also been informed that this statement may be used in evidence against me in criminal or other proceedings; and no threats of any character having been made against me and no physical violence having been used against my person; and no reward nor immunity having been promised to me in consideration for my making said statements by said AMAN or any other person acting for or on behalf of the United States; I do freely and voluntarily make the following statement:

"My name is HYMAN RUBENSTEIN, I am forty-six years of age, born in Warsaw, Poland, and I was naturalized about 1922, in Federal Building, Chicago, Illinois, my occupation is the candy and novelty business and I am the proprietor of the Victory Products Company, 3650 Lexington Street, Chicago, Illinois.

"I reside with my father, my brother, SAMMY, my sister, MARIAN, and a nephew named RONNIE at 3650 Lexington Street. I lived in Chicago since I have been two and a half years of age, at which time my people migrated from Poland.

"Question: I hand you three photographs, will you examine them and inform me whether or not you know these people?

"Answer: I met TAYLOR CROSSLAND and MAURICE COSTELLO MELTON only once. PAUL ROLAND JONES I have known for about a year or less.

"Question: When was the first time you met PAUL JONES?

"Answer: About ten months ago. He called me at my house and said he was a friend of my sister, EVA GRANT, and that he would like to see me if I wasn't too busy. We met at the Sherman Hotel in the Celtic Room and our conversation was merely general subjects of the day. The last time we met was on a Sunday morning, after he called me at my home and this meeting was held at the Sherman Hotel in the Celtic Room. He introduced me to TAYLOR CROSSLAND and MAURICE COSTELLO MELTON and we all had breakfast together.

"The latter meeting held at the Sherman Hotel, Celtic Room, took place during the first week of August, 1947, During this period of time, the conversation was about general subjects. We walked around the Loop for about an hour and I pointed out places of interest to the men. Later I suggested driving them to the airport because I wasn't busy and inasmuch as they said they were going to Wichita, Kansas. While in my automobile, MELTON and CROSSLAND asked me if I would get them a connection on steel pipes and I said I would let them know tomorrow, which I did, and mailed them the sample (3/4" pipe) to PAUL JONES at 3904 Junius Street, Dallas, Texas. I also wrote him a letter with specifications and prices. I never heard a word from him since.

"During the period of time spent with JONES, MELTON and CROSSLAND, a discussion came up about lumber inasmuch as MELTON asked me. MELTON suggested that he could get many carloads of lumber at a very good price. I believe a brother of his had a connection in a lumber mill. I suggested if he would cut off a one foot sample slab so that I could show it to some people in Chicago, we might be able to to some business. He promised me he would, but I never got a sample.

"While we were waiting for the plane, TAYLOR suggested something about a gold mine that he had with an engineer partner on the Pacific Coast of Mexico. I told him that it took too much money for a guy like me. He said 'Do you think you can find somebody?'. I told him there was only one party that I knew who was a prospector and a miner and knows more about that business than I do, and I gave him the name of JOSEPH CUNNINGHAM, located at Room 428, Rowan Building, 458 Spring, Los Angeles, office telephone Van Dyke 4044.

CALIF.

"CROSSLAND said he would have his engineer write to CUNNINGHAM as he knows more about the details of gold mining. No more was ever heard on this subject. (Residence telephone Chapman 5-2801).

"During this conversation, PAUL JONES said that he would like to pick up some new cars if any contacts could be made, but I never tried to make any and that ended that.

"The next time I met PAUL JONES was on or about the 15th of October and he remained in Chicago approximately a week. He called me upon his arrival at my home and asked me to meet him in Room 674 at the Sherman Hotel, which I did. He introduced me to a Mr. WAGNER and the importance of my meeting with him each day that he was here was that Mr. WAGNER was the inventor of a new type of rubber fabric to be used for recapping tires. PAUL JONES said that he met and talked with JACK KEESHIN of the Keeshin Motor Express Corp. and that JACK KEESHIN was going to give it a trial. PAUL JONES also said that he made a trip to Canada and attempted to interest the Goodyear Rubber and the United States Rubber Company in this product, but was informed that he would have to take the matter up with the United States Office in Ohio. Ill.

"During this week, PAUL JONES asked me if I could get him seven hundred gallons of bulk four year old whiskey. I wrote him a special delivery air mail letter after he left Chicago and I told him I could get him the whiskey--to find out from his people what they would pay and to let me know immediately. I never heard from him on this matter either.

FOUNDATION

"During these several meetings that I had with PAUL JONES, he never mentioned opium nor any other narcotics drug to me, nor did CROSSLAND or MAURICE MELTON.

"For the Government's information, I want it to be known clearly that I am a businessman, that I have never been arrested on any charge, and that I absolutely know nothing about opium or narcotics in any shape, manner or form, nor the elicit traffic of narcotic drugs."

"/s/HYMAN RUBENSTEIN"

"Witnessed by: /s/ALBERT AMAN, Narcotics Agent, Chicago, Illinois, October 30, 1947"

A further review of the above Narcotics Bureau file reflected that Agent AMAN of this Bureau interviewed JACK RUBY on October 27, 1947. RUBY was a permanent guest of Room 6-142 of the Congress Hotel, Chicago. RUBY identified the photograph of PAUL ROLAND JONES and has known him for the past four to five months inasmuch as PAUL JONES is a friend of his sister, EVA GRANT, Proprietress of the Singapore Supper Club, 1717 South Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas. He was introduced to PAUL JONES by EVA GRANT.

JACK RUBY had talked to PAUL JONES on numerous occasions while visiting his sister in Dallas but he never had any conversations with him relative to narcotic drugs nor has he ever talked to PAUL JONES in the City of Chicago either personally or via telephone. According to JACK RUBY, he was visiting in Dallas on October 2 and 3, 1947, which are the dates that PAUL JONES, TAYLOR CROSSLAND, and MAURICE MELTON were in Chicago.

JACK RUBY is a sales promoter and calls himself a merchandise distributor. He is 36 years of age, 5' 9" tall, 160 pounds, wavy hair with a high receding hairline, a large pointed nose, a fashionable dresser, born in Chicago. He is also the brother of HYMAN RUBENSTEIN who is previously interviewed.

CG 44-645

The registration records of the Sherman Hotel, Chicago, indicate PAUL JONES occupied Rooms 1024 and 674 from October 10 to 21, 1947, and the telephone calls made by him had been checked and were made to all legitimate organizations.

Files of the Federal Narcotics Bureau and files of the Bureau of Identification, Chicago Police Department, were examined in 1947 and there were no records involving HYMAN RUBENSTEIN, 3615 West Lexington, Chicago, or JACK RUBY, his brother, who resides as a permanent guest of the Congress Hotel, Chicago.

TAYLOR CROSSLAND, 4173 East Behymer, advised he does not recall ever having known JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN personally. In 1947, when he and MAURICE MELTON brought a load of opium from Mexico to Dallas, Texas, MELTON contacted PAUL JONES in an effort to dispose of the opium. JONES took him and MELTON to an unknown motel in Dallas, where JONES introduced them to an individual who might possibly have been identical with RUBY. JONES and this man went into the motel for about five minutes and then JONES returned to the car and said, "We'll have to go to Chicago to dispose of the stuff." MAURICE COSTELLO MELTON, 10273 Timbertrail, advised that to the best of his recollection he has never met JACK RUBY and is certain he has not met him during the past few years.

NO

He advised it is remotely possible that he might have met RUBY as JACK RUBENSTEIN in either Dallas, Texas, or Chicago, Illinois, or this man's brother HYMAN RUBENSTEIN in Chicago back in 1947, but, if so, he does not recall meeting these men by name. He explained that in 1947 he was involved in a federal narcotics violation with TAYLOR CROSSLAND and PAUL JONES, with regard to the transportation of narcotics from Mexico to Chicago, Illinois. In an attempt to sell this narcotic, JONES contacted a number of people, might have contacted JACK RUBY or his brother HYMAN RUBENSTEIN in MELTON's presence as several individuals were contacted. If such were true, however, he does not recall these individuals by name.

MAURICE C. MELTON also advised he was not acquainted with EVA GRANT, whom he now knows is RUBY's sister.

TELEGRAM RECEIVED BY THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, WASHINGTON, D.C., DECEMBER 3, 1963, CONCERNING JACOB RUBENSTEIN

JAY W. DE YOUNG, 1527 York Avenue, Manhattan New York, N.Y. Apartment 2F, on December 5, 1963, advised the following:

He has been blind since December 3, 1960.

Since the assassination of President KENNEDY, he has been listening to all news reports and news commentators on the radio. On the evening of December 1, a friend of his, whose identity he did not disclose, read him some newspaper accounts from the Journal-American and the New York Daily News, issues of November 29 and 30, 1963. His recollection was that these newspaper accounts indicated that one JACOB RUBENSTEIN had been in the Americana Hotel in New York just prior to the time President KENNEDY addressed the AFL-CIO convention in November, 1963. His recollection was that RUBENSTEIN had checked out of the Americana Hotel because the President's security guard was extremely heavy.

He felt that these newspaper reports might be of some significance and, therefore, he had sent a telegram to the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington setting forth the above information. He also sent the telegram because he wanted to know if the federal government could arrested JACK RUBY and charge him with OSWALD's murder if RUBY should be cleared of the murder by a local jury in Dallas.

Mrs. BERTHA CHEEK, Manager of the apartments at 3914 Swiss, Dallas, TEXAS advised as follows:

1. That she had operated Check's Boarding House at 5212 Gaston, Dallas, from about 1956 to 1961, when it was razed for the construction of luxury-type apartments;

2. That she recalled having rented to two Cuban males in 1959 or 1960 but could provide no other information concerning them;

3. That EARLINE ROBERTS, her sister, had rented the room to LEE HARVEY OSWALD at 1026 Beckley, Dallas, Texas, Mrs. ROBERTS being employed as a housekeeper by Mrs. A. C. JOHNSON at this Beckley address;

4. That Mrs. CHEEK has been acquainted with JACK RUBY since about 1948 to the present, she formerly having operated night clubs in Dallas, this being the basis for their acquaintanceship:

   a. In 1948, JACK RUBY, according to Mrs. CHEEK, attempted to secure her investment of $12,000 in a night club venture.

   b. About eight days ago, on or about November 18, 1963, according to Mrs. CHEEK, RUBY had invited her to the Carousel where she spent several hours, during which time he attempted to secure her investment of several thousand dollars in the Carousel.

(Mrs. CHEEK stated that she had parked her car in the parking garage next door to the Carousel during this period.)

5. Mrs. CHEEK could not identify a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as anyone known to her, although when first having seen him on television, she felt she might have rented to him in the past.

On November 25, 1963, a man (who refused to identify himself) called the Fort Worth, Texas, Resident Agency Office, stating that about the date of the Texas-Oklahoma game in Dallas, Texas, (October 12, 1963) he saw a male in a car with "MARGIE" (LNU), a waitress at the Carousel Club. He stated "MARGIE" at that time was driving a 1956 Chevrolet 4-door, white and red in color. This male caller stated that after viewing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the paper, he was of the opinion the person in the car with MARGIE was OSWALD. This individual said he had no other information concerning this matter.

"MARGIE" had been identified as MARGIE NORMAN.

At 10:17 a.m., a telephone call was received from a person who identified himself as THORNTON X. AIKE, a patient at the Veterans Administration Hospital, Gulfport, Mississippi. He advised that during the last week of September, 1963, he was working at the fair at Tupelo, Mississippi and while there, he positively observed LEE OSWALD and JACK RUBY. They were living together at one of the hotels in town, the name of which he did not know, and they were both working with a rodeo which was in connection with the fair. He claimed that RUBY was dressed as a clown and that OSWALD was the master of ceremonies. He further claimed he heard these two talking together and they mentioned they intended to do bodily harm to the President of the United States. He said he tried to make a collect telephone call to the President in Washington, D. C. to warn him but the White House refused to accept the collect telephone call. He stated this was all the information he had concerning this.

He also stated while at the fair he personally saw RUBY kill a Negro with a knife. This was all the information he had about this.

Mr. FLOYD S. ANTRIM, 2659 Belknap, Dallas, Texas, who is self employed in the pharmaceutical business was interviewed at which time he furnished the following information:

Mr. ANTRIM advised that on November 27, 1963, he had occasion to talk with an associate by the name of HUGH L. SCARBOROUGH, who was the owner of Gena Laboratories, 1343 Plowman, Dallas, at which time HUGH advised him that he had heard rumors to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had visited RUBY's residence sometime previous to November 27, 1963. He went on to say that he had heard these rumors from various people including his wife, GENA SCARBOROUGH, but was under the impression that the information they possessed was very nebulous and extremely hearsay. Mr. ANTRIM further advised that although the information was hearsay he felt that the FBI would desire to interview the SCARBOROUGHs in connection with any information they may have of the relationship between RUBY and OSWALD.

Mr. ANDRIM further advised that he did not possess any other information concerning either the assassination or the shooting of OSWALD other than the fact that his brother, H. RAY ANTRIM, who resides at 507 Douglas Street, Paris, Illinois, had telephonically contacted him on Thanksgiving Day and stated that he, RAY, had heard rumors to the effect that RUBY was married to a girl by the name of "HARDY." Mr. ANTRIM went on to explain that he felt that this information was obtained strictly through rumors and was quite sure that RAY would not be able to elaborate on the fact that RUBY may or may not have been married.

202 Mrs. GENA SCARBOROUGH, TEXAS was interviewed at her residence, 202 East Sixth Street, Dallas, telephone number WH 1-5505, at which time she advised that she is the wife of HUGH L. SCARBOROUGH, the owner and manager of Gena Laboratories located in Dallas. She stated that during the past few days she and her husband have talked at great length concerning both the assassination of President KENNEDY and the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that during their conversations they have drawn several conclusions none of which have been based on fact. She could recall relating to her husband during one of these conversations something to the effect that she felt that OSWALD may have been on his way to see RUBY at RUBY's residence shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY. She stated that this was strictly an assumption and could not substantiate it by any particular fact or person.

Mrs. SCARBOROUGH was advised that if she ever received any information concerning either the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of OSWALD she would immediately relay same to the FBI.

Just prior to the completion of the interview, Mrs. SCARBOROUGH stated that she had heard something to the effect that OSWALD used to be a regular customer at the Washeteria which she explained was a laundromat in the neighborhood, and that OSWALD used to do his laundry there. She said that an individual by the name of Mr. SLEIGH was the owner and manager and that he may have some information concerning OSWALD's present in the washeteria.

JOSEPH McREE, Resident Secretary, Young Men's Christian Association (Y.M.C.A), 605 North Ervay, advised he was previously interviewed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation on December 2, 1963, concerning JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He advised his records reflect OSWALD registered at the Dallas Y.M.C.A. on October 15, 1962, and checked out on October 19, 1962. OSWALD also registered at the Y.M.C.A. on October 3, 1963, and checked out on October 4, 1963.

McREE advised JACK RUBY resided at the Dallas Y.M.C.A. for several months about 10 or 12 years ago when RUBY first came to Dallas, but records of his residence here have been lost or destroyed.

McREE made available the account card of JACK RUBY, dated September 2, 1958, reflecting his membership in the Y.M.C.A. Health Club on the following dates:

September 10, 1958 to September 10, 1959

November 1, 1959 to November 1, 1960

April 20, 1962 to April 20, 1963

June 1, 1963 to September 1, 1963

His membership was not renewed after September 1, 1963. RUBY's account card reflected the following additional information:

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES E. GARRIS on December 13, 1963:

AT DALLAS, TEXAS

Photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD taken August 9, 1963, and JACK L. RUBY taken November 24, 1963, were exhibited to the following employees and residents at the YMCA, 605 North Ervay, Dallas, and they advised as follows:

Mr. RAE BARKER, Desk Clerk, YMCA, advised that according to records at the YMCA, he checked OSWALD in at the YMCA on October 3, 1963, but he does not recall OSWALD and does not recall seeing him at the YMCA at any time. BARKER stated he recognized RUBY as he has seen him occasionally going to and from the YMCA Health Club, but he knows nothing about RUBY. He added he has never seen anyone with RUBY and knows of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

BARKER advised he has never seen a group of Cubans or any other foreigners conversing at the YMCA.

B. B. KELTY, Room 522, YMCA, who is employed as an inspector, Ling-Tempco-Vought Company, Grand Prairie, Texas, advised he has resided at the YMCA since 1948. He stated that approximately 12 years ago he met JACK RUBY when RUBY first moved into the Dallas YMCA. He said during the few months RUBY resided at the YMCA he talked with him on a few occasions, but he never became well acquainted with RUBY. He said when RUBY moved from the YMCA he saw nothing of him until he joined the Health Club here approximately five years ago. Since that time, KELTY has seen RUBY occasionally going to and from the Health Club but never had any conversation with him.

KELTY advised that he never saw anyone with RUBY, and he knew none of RUBY's friends or acquaintances. He said from his brief acquaintance with RUBY many years ago, he found him to be a very friendly person, neat and likeable. He said RUBY never discussed his personal life with him. He added he never had any reason to question RUBY's loyalty to the United States.

100-10461

KELTY stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never seen him at the YMCA. He knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

KELTY advised he had never seen a group of Cubans or any other foreigners conversing at the YMCA.

W. G. BURGESS, Desk Clerk, YMCA, advised he does not know OSWALD or RUBY and has never seen either at the YMCA. He said furthermore, he has never seen a group of Cubans or any other foreigners at the YMCA.

LOLA MAE DOWEL, elevator operator, YMCA, advised she vaguely recalls seeing OSWALD, she believes, at the YMCA but remembers nothing about him or the dates she may have seen him or whether or not anyone accompanied him. She does not recall ever seeing JACK RUBY at the YMCA. Mrs. DOWEL added that the Health Club is on the second floor of the YMCA building and most members of the Health Club take the stairway to the club. She knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY. She said she has never seen a group of Cubans or other freigners conversing at the YMCA.

Mrs. AUTRY WILLIAMS, elevator operator, YMCA, advised that the photograph of OSWALD looks familiar, and she may have seen him at the YMCA but she was unable to recall when, where or under what circumstances she may have seen him here.

Mrs. WILLIAMS advised she does not know JACK RUBY and has never seen him at the YMCA. She knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

She further advised she has never seen a group of Cubans or any other foreigners conversing at the YMCA.

Mrs. EMMA ARMSTRONG, maid, YMCA, advised she did not know JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never seen either at the YMCA.

She further advised she has never seen a group of Cubans or any other foreigners conversing at the YMCA.

RUBY COLE, YMCA, cafeteria cashier, advised she may have seen OSWALD leaving the cafeteria, but she was unable to recall anything about him, the date or whether anyone accompanied him at the time. She stated she does not know JACK RUBY and has never seen him at the YMCA. She knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY.

She further advised she has never seen a group of Cubans or any other foreigners conversing at the YMCA.

LAUDELINO TRELLES, Room 426, YMCA, who is employed as a dishwasher at the Statler Hilton Hotel, Dallas, a native of Cuba; OSWALDO MARQUEZ, Room 415, YMCA, who is presently unemployed, a native of Cuba; and CARLOS EDUARDO CARDENAS, Room 421, YMCA, who is employed as a waiter, Sheraton-Dallas Hotel, a native of Costa Rica, all advised that to the best of their knowledge they are the only permanent Cuban and Costa Rican guests at the YMCA, although many transients are here from time to time. All stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY are unknown to them, they have never conversed with either and they have no information concerning them. They know of no Cubans or other foreigners who may have talked with OSWALD at the YMCA or any other places.

LYNN R. REYNOLDS, locker boy, YMCA Health Club, advised he knows JACK RUBY only as a member of the club, and he has never engaged in any conversation with him. He added that on the occasions he saw RUBY at the Health Club, RUBY was always alone. REYNOLDS said he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has never seen him at the YMCA. He knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

He further advised he has never seen a group of Cubans or any other foreigners conversing at the YMCA.

CARL GRAVES, physical director, YMCA Health Club, TEXAS advised he is acquainted with JACK RUBY only as a member of the Health Club. He said he has talked with RUBY occasionally at the club and he further stated he found RUBY very friendly. He said RUBY's conversations generally related to "show business" and his physical condition. GRAVES advised that on every occasion he saw RUBY at the club, he was alone. He knew none

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

DL 44-1639
100-10461

of RUBY's friends or acquaintances, and he never heard RUBY mention the Dallas Police Department in any way or comment that he had friends on the Dallas Police Department. He added that RUBY never lost his temper in his presence.

GRAVES stated RUBY frequently carried large sums of money on his person, which he would check with the Health Club Office instead of placing the money in his locker in the club.

He never had any reason to question RUBY's moral behavior, and RUBY made no statements that would cause him to question RUBY's loyalty to the United States.

GRAVES advised he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has never seen OSWALD in the YMCA. He knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

He further advised he has never seen a group of Cubans or any other foreigners conversing in the YMCA.

DICK HULEN, Associate Director, YMCA Health Club, advised he knows JACK RUBY only as a member of the Health Club, and in this capacity he has had occasion to talk with RUBY many times. He said RUBY was a friendly person who never "talked" politics and his conversations related mostly to his night club business and his physical condition. HULEN added he never saw anyone accompany RUBY, to, at or from the Health Club, although RUBY was a friendly person and would engage others at the club in general conversation. TEXAS

HULEN knew none of RUBY's friends or associates, and RUBY never mentioned the Dallas Police Department or comment that he had friends on the Dallas Police Department. HULEN advised that on several occasions RUBY invited him to his night club as his guest but HULEN never went.

He related that RUBY never discussed his personal life. He stated he never had any reason to question RUBY's moral character, and RUBY never made any comment to cause HULEN to question his loyalty to the United States.

HULEN said he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never seen him at the YMCA. He knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD. He further advised he has never seen a group of Cubans or any other foreigners conversing at the YMCA.

Mrs. CLYDE VANCE, telephone No. EL 6-9876 (Quinlan, Texas telephone exchange), owner and operator of Vance's Drive-In, Lake Tawakoni, Hunt County, Texas, was interviewed at her place of business by SA DEL D. DRAKE, JR., who immediately advised Mrs. VANCE of his identity.

Mrs. VANCE stated emphatically that she had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY prior to seeing them on television and their pictures in the newspapers after the assassination of President KENNEDY. She said if they ever visited her cafe, she did not know it and that she did not know how the rumor got started that she had seen them in her cafe. She stated she had even been called by a reporter from the Greenville, Texas Herald Banner concerning the rumor and that she had immediately advised this reporter that it was definitely a false rumor.

Mrs. VANCE did state however, that about two years ago the woman who is depicted in the newspapers and on television as the mother of OSWALD, resided in Vernon, Texas across the street from her mother, Mrs. J. T. DAVIS, who at the present time is under the medical care of a Dr. WALTER for a serious heart condition. Mrs. VANCE said she did not want her mother interviewed due to her illness, but if it was necessary to make inquiry in Vernon, Texas, she would appreciate it if her sister, Mrs. J. O. SIMMONDS, who resides on Paradise Street be interviewed. She said Mrs. SIMMONDS' husband is a farmer.

Mrs. VANCE stated that at the time Mrs. OSWALD lived across the street from her mother, she was using the given name of GEORGIA, and that she, Mrs. VANCE, had verified this with her sister, Mrs. SIMMONDS, since the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mr. FLOYD LESTER WHELLER, 2938 Bardell, Dallas, who is better known as "COTTON WHELLER", was interviewed at which time he advised that he is self-employed and as a general rule works as a concessionnaire for the local carnivals. In connection with this business, Mr. WHELLER travels extensively and has met several people in the line of carnival business.

Mr. WHELLER advised that sometime in November, 1963, approximately one week prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY, he was in Jack's Bar located on Exposition Street and while there he met an individual by the name of VERN DAVIS, who is from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He was introduced to DAVIS by JACK HARPER, who owns and manages Jack's Bar. During the conversation, Mr. DAVIS stated that he was interested in joining the Lone Star Showman's Club, a club of carnival people in Dallas and mentioned something to the effect that his intentions were to finance an elephant and to create a small act so as he could travel among the various carnivals. In connection with this, Mr. WHELLER advised that DAVIS requested someone to represent him so as he could obtain a membership to the Lone Star Showman's Club. Mr. WHELLER went on to say that he signed the application for VERN DAVIS so as he could have the opportunity to become a member of this club. Mr. WHELLER was unable to furnish any pertinent information concerning VERN DAVIS other than the fact that he had signed his application and had talked briefly with him that afternoon. He could recall nothing unusual concerning their conversation that particular day at Jack's Bar and could not recall all of the individuals present during their conversation.

TEXAS

Mr. WHELLER advised that shortly after JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he received a long-distance telephone call from two different individuals who identified themselves as being newspaper reporters from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. On both occasions, these reporters asked if he, WHELLER, had any information pertaining to the presence of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY at a bar called Jack's Bar in Dallas, Texas. Mr. WHELLER told both of the reporters that he could not imagine where they got this erroneous information and stated that he has never been acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD other than what he had read in the local newspapers. To the best of his knowledge, he has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and could only recall seeing JACK RUBY several years ago. In regard to these telephone calls, Mr. WHELLER stated that he later learned that VERN DAVIS, whom he had signed the application for, for the Showman's Club, had mentioned that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY were present at Jack's Bar during their conversation in November, 1963. WHELLER was under the impression that VERN DAVIS was possibly imagining things and stated that the information furnished by VERN DAVIS was quite erroneous. After viewing photographs, Mr. WHELLER stated that he had never seen this individual at any time other than in the newspapers and was positive that OSWALD was never in Jack's Bar when he was talking to VERN DAVIS in November, 1963.

Mr. WHELLER further advised that he first met JACK RUBY when he was driving a taxicab in Dallas approximately nine years ago and could recall taking various customers to the Silver Spur which he believed was owned and operated by JACK RUBY at that time. His association with JACK RUBY was strictly a casual acquaintance and stated that he never became a close associate of RUBY. He could recall seeing JACK RUBY on the streets of Dallas on several occasions and could recall one specific time several years ago when he had seen RUBY at the Adolphus Hotel and believed that RUBY was handing out pass cards for his club believed to be the Silver Spur at that time. WHELLER explained that it has been almost eight or nine years since he last talked with RUBY and could offer no information as to his present activities, associates or friends. He explained that he had no pertinent information whatsoever concerning JACK RUBY and know of no connection between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY. He had heard nothing that would indicate RUBY had possibly conspired with any particular individual to shoot LEE HARVEY OSWALD and could offer no information as to why RUBY had actually shot OSWALD.

A photograph of JACK RUBY was shown to Mr. WHELLER at which time he advised that this was the same individual he was acquainted with several years ago and knew him only as JACK RUBY. He related that he had never seen RUBY in any of the bars during the past several years and definitely did not see him when had conversed with VERN DAVIS at Jack's Bar in November, 1963.

The following individuals were contacted on December 12, 1963, by SAs LANSING P. LOGAN and ALTON E. BRAMBLETT at Jack's Bar, sometimes referred to as Ed's Bar located at 813 Exposition Street, Dallas, in efforts to determine if LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY had visited this bar at any time. It was noted that VERN A. DAVIS, who was interviewed by Bureau agents at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, had furnished information to the effect that he had visited this particular bar in Dallas on one occasion during the month of November, 1963, and had indicated that he observed both LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY at this bar. During the interview of DAVIS, it was noted that he was not positive of the presence of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

NORMAN BETTS, 815 Exposition Street, Dallas;

ETHEL EYKES, 840 Portmona, Dallas (bartender);

REBEL BEAVER, 815 Exposition Street, Dallas.

All of the above individuals were contacted and advised that they had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY other than from the local newspapers and television. Photographs of OSWALD and RUBY were exhibited to each of the foregoing individuals at which time they all advised that they had never seen either of these individuals at this bar. All of the above individuals are frequent patrons of Jack's Bar, also called Ed's Bar and have been in the area for several years. In addition, they all advised that if OSWALD or RUBY had been in the club at any time, they would definitely know their names and would be able to identify them.

For information receiving offices, Bureau has instructed we be alert to sources of funds for RUBY's defense. A battery of attorneys, including some who would normally be considered in the "high-priced class", are representing RUBY. A habeas corpus hearing is scheduled for Monday, 12/23/63, in effort to consider RUBY to be released on bond, which his attorneys argue is necessary in order that psychiatric examinations can be made.

A confidential source has revealed that a private detective has been employed by RUBY by defense attorneys to conduct certain investigation. A check given to the investigators as a portion of the retainer was drawn on the account of [redacted], Arlington, Texas, who, it has been established, has been financially associated with RUBY in the Carousel Club, Dallas.

The same confidential source has advised defense attorneys are planning to import persons to picket in Dallas in connection with efforts to have RUBY released on bond. Presumably, considerable expense would be incurred in bringing pickets from a distance.

Information has been received heretofore that subject's brother EARL RUBY has traveled to California, where he has been in touch with persons interested in buying "The JACK RUBY Story". Subject's sister, EVA GRANT, who lives in Dallas, has also reportedly mentioned this possibility of raising funds.

An item appeared in the Dallas Morning News 12/19/63 to the effect that relatives of RUBY claim the night clubs in Dallas will be sold, that they were actually owned by relatives and only managed by JACK RUBY. This information is contrary to that previously developed by relatives when contacted several days ago.

All offices are requested to advise promptly of any information coming to their attention as to "Defense Funds" or other sources, for financing RUBY's offense.

Re Dallas teletype to Bureau 12/19/63.

Enclosed for Dallas are 25 copies of an investigative insert reflecting results of interview with [redacted]

[redacted] advised that he sent telegram to RUBY following discussion with friends at home one evening re President KENNEDY's assassination and subsequent shooting of OSWALD by RUBY. He stated friends on this occasion came over for drinks and during discussion he became "worked up" over President's assassination and felt OSWALD got what he deserved. After visitors left his home that evening he sent a telegram to RUBY, the contents of which he can not recall, but which was congratulatory in nature.

[redacted] denies any knowledge of RUBY and OSWALD and any connection between them.

This memo discusses the question of dissemination of reports in the captioned case.

Four reports have been received from the Dallas Office since the assassination which totaled approximately 2500 pages. In addition, we have already received approximately 145 reports from auxiliary offices and, of course, many more will be received. These reports contain pertinent information pertaining to the captioned individual and the investigation of him after the assassination but in addition contain the results of coverage of dozens and dozens of false leads, hoaxes and allegations. Some of the material contained in the reports includes nonspecific-type data concerning statements made by persons who were opposed to President Kennedy and his Administration, data alleging that persons or groups are in possession of firearms and may be a threat to the security of President Johnson or other public figures and data pertaining to mental cases who might possibly be considered dangerous. Such material was previously forwarded to the Bureau by teletype and/or letterhead memo and disseminated locally as well as at the Bureau to the Secret Service.

In view of the fact that we are making reports to the Commission which was created to investigate the assassination it is not believed necessary or desirable that we automatically disseminate all of these investigative reports in the captioned case to the Secret Service. Unless advised to the contrary we will take the following action:

1. Screen each report for specific information re any person or group who might be considered dangerous and a possible threat to Government officials and establish that this information has previously been disseminated to the Secret Service. (If any instances are noted where no prior dissemination has been made, it will be disseminated promptly. If the report consists entirely of such data, the entire report will be given to Secret Service, but if it contains other results of investigation of the subject, it will be excerpted from the report and the excerpt given to Secret Service.)

2. These reports will be screened for additional pertinent data to be included in any subsequent supplementary report which is furnished to the Commission.

3. They will be screened for any additional pertinent material to be added to the brief prepared for the Director's use.

4. Since we furnished to the Department the summary which went to the Commission and since the investigative reports are being furnished to the Commission, we will not send them to the Department or any other agency.

Dear Lee:

Based on the resolution adopted by the Commission on December 16, 1963, which was set out in your letter of December 17, 1963, the following reports prepared by this Bureau are being furnished for your assistance:

Report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling at Dallas, Texas, dated November 30, 1963.

Report of Special Agent Manning C. Clements at Dallas, Texas, dated November 30, 1963.

Report of Special Agent Warren C. DeMuneys at Dallas, Texas, dated December 2, 1963.

Report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling at Dallas, Texas, dated December 10, 1963.

As you are aware, this matter is by no means complete and active investigation is being vigorously pressed by this Bureau to conclude our investigative responsibilities at the earliest possible time. It is noted, however, that numerous leads needing investigative attention are still being received on a daily basis and additional reports will be made available to you as rapidly as possible.

If I can be of any assistance to you, please feel free to call upon me.

[redacted], Dallas, Texas, who requested his identity be concealed, advised SA HENRY J. OLIVER, on 12/3/63, that his secretary was formerly employed in the entertainment field and speak-easies in Chicago, Illinois. The secretary is supposedly well acquainted with Chicago hoodlums.

A CHARLES GLASSMAN, Texas believed to be a pawn broker and fence, and associate SAM SABER, identity not further known, were in Dallas in the Spring of 1963, and GLASSMAN contacted the secretary. GLASSMAN called the secretary December 2, 1963, and asked if Jewish Community was supporting RUBY. GLASSMAN told the secretary that he and SAM had come to Dallas in the Spring of 1963 for the purpose of seeing RUBY and SAM cuffed RUBY around at that time to keep him in line. He told the secretary they would come to Dallas for the trial.

[redacted] has no further information and does not know the significance of the above. He stated no reference should ever be made to the secretary and refused to give her name, as the information then could be traced back to him.

The following investigation was conducted by SA VINCENT E. DRAIN:

On December 13, 1963, [redacted] confidentially advised that STEVE GUTHRIE, former sheriff of Dallas County, was a most unreliable and untruthful individual. [redacted] stated GUTHRIE had a reputation of "a night club operator who was always on the fringe of the law" and would get publicity by whatever means possible. As to RAY ZAUBER, [redacted] states he is well known to the business leaders in the City of Dallas as an unreliable, untruthful and unethical individual who formerly worked for the Dallas Morning News and was fired from that paper. His credit rating in the City of Dallas is extremely bad. He is a sensationalist and will make up any story to further his ambition.

On December 13, 1963, [redacted] and one of the most highly respected leaders in the City of Dallas, confidentially advised that he had known RAY ZAUBER for many years. He stated he was deeply in debt to [redacted], as well as every other store in Dallas where he could obtain credit, and [redacted] regards ZAUBER as an unethical sheriff without principle or reputation. [redacted] stated GUTHRIE has political ambition and uses every vehicle at his command to further this ambition. [redacted] advised he would not put any credence whatever in anything GUTHRIE might relate.

Sheriff RALPH LAMB, Las Vegas Nevada, advised SAC DEAN W. ELSON on November 29, 1963, that he had received the following information from a very reliable source:

401 Parkway West P.O. Ill.

On November 16, 1963, JACK RUBY was at the Tropicana Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada, and was hosted by PRESTON FEINBERG, a part-owner of the Tropicana Hotel. The Tropicana maintains a Rolls Royce courtesy car for special guests, and according to the Sheriff's source RUBY has this car at his disposal while at the Tropicana. The Sheriff did not reveal the identity of his source.

On November 29, 1963, PCI [redacted] (protect identity), [redacted], Las Vegas, Nevada, advised SA MARVIN T. BELL that a JACK RUBY stayed at the Tropicana Hotel about November 16, 1963, and made several long distance calls. After RUBY's recent publicity she tried to locate the records of his calls from the hotel but has been unable to locate them or to locate his hotel registration. She is certain that a JACK RUBY was registered at the hotel because she personally checked out his telephone account for the front office when he checked out. She is unable to explain how the hotel records of JACK RUBY disappeared.

PCI [redacted] has heard that a bartender named ERNIE MUSCATELLE and a bellman named "CHUCK", both at the Tropicana, knew that RUBY was at the hotel. PCI's reliability unknown due to the limited number of contacts.

PCI [redacted] Nevada aka [redacted], advised SA MARVIN T. BELL on November 29, 1963, that he knows JACK RUBY as a long time friend of PRESTON FEINBERG, part-owner, Tropicana Hotel. According to [redacted] RUBY has come to Las Vegas often and visited FEINBERG, who is supposed to have known RUBY for years as a friend from Chicago.

PCI [redacted] was told RUBY was in Las Vegas on the week end of November 17, 1963, and that he played golf at the Tropicana Golf Club with FEINBERG. According to HAMER, RUBY allegedly gave a golf caddy a drink card bearing RUBY's name and his club in Dallas, Texas. PCI advised that RUBY has used the names RUBIN or RUBEN and has brought strippers to Las Vegas and has often registered at the Tropicana Hotel as Mr. and Mrs., while staying in Las Vegas, with these girls.

MC WILLIE was interviewed in this matter on November 25, 1963. Information and FD-302, reflecting results, have been furnished to Bureau and Dallas.

On December 2, 1963, PCI [redacted] (Conceal Identity) advised Special Agent MARVIN T. BELL that he had heard that information which had been attributed to someone at the Tropicana Hotel that RUBY, while he was alleged to be in Las Vegas, had the use of the hotel's Rolls Royce. The PCI stated that this information is not accurate. [redacted] said that SIDNEY SALTZ, a stockholder of the Tropicana Hotel from Chicago, Illinois, comes to Las Vegas about once a month at which time he always uses the Rolls Royce. [redacted] said that SIDNEY SALTZ bears a strong resemblance to JACK RUBY.

PCI [redacted] further advised that SALTZ is a close friend of PRESTON FEINBERG, Hotel Tropicana Official, and that whenever SALTZ is in town FEINBERG is always with him.

[redacted] Nevada (protect her identity at her request,) Las Vegas, advised SAS WILLIAM MC PAUL and ARTHUR N. BARRETT on November 29, 1963, that on the day of President KENNEDY's assassination, she, as telephone operator of the Castaways Casino, Las Vegas, received a collect call from Dallas, Texas, for (FNU) FROG, supposidly an employee at the Casino. The call was between the hours of 1:00 and 3:00 p.m. She stated that there is no one employed at the Casino by the name of FROG and she did not accept the call from Dallas. She said she believed the individual who placed the call in Dallas, was a JACK RUBY.

Nevada

[redacted] (protect his identity at his request,) advised SA WAYNE H. DRAKE on 11/30/63, that the nickname of RALPH FRANCE, Shill Boss at the Castaways, is "FROG."

DL 44-1639

On December 4, 1963, [redacted] Louisiana, advised SAs DONALD R. BELMONT and JACKIE L. AUSTIN as follows:

PAUL WRIGHT, JR., [redacted] a friend whom she has known for fifteen years and who lives in Fort Worth, Texas, visited her in Shreveport on November 30, 1963, returning to Fort Worth December 1, 1963.

During this visit he made a remark in the presence of [redacted] and three other persons that an unidentified male friend of his told him that a waitress named MARY (LNU) who works in a restaurant in Dallas, said that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY came into that restaurant together on the morning of November 22, 1963, and had breakfast together, and RUBY paid the check.

[redacted] stated that WRIGHT said he had no more information about this incident, and that he was not joking. He had not been drinking when he told of this incident and appeared sincere. He remarked he would try to identify the waitress named MARY and the restaurant where she worked and would notify the Dallas Office of the FBI.

[redacted] was unable to furnish the address of WRIGHT but furnished the following information about him:

WRIGHT is a white male, age 35 years, 135 pounds, short build, married, wife's name LORRAINE, has three children. She stated he has lived in Fort Worth several years and she believed that he has lived there long enough in his present home to be listed in the phone book, since he commented he had just finished adding to his home.

WRIGHT works in an automotive plant in or near Dallas, possibly the Ford plant in Dallas, or General Motors Plant in Arlington. WRIGHT has a sister NANCY WRIGHT, who is employed with an unknown government agency in Washington. His father is PAUL WRIGHT, SR., who is employed in some atomic plant, location unknown. His stepmother is MABEL WRIGHT, who lives in or near Bay Village, Arkansas.

COVER PAGE

[redacted] stated that MABEL WRIGHT would know WRIGHT's address, if he cannot be located through other information. She also stated that WRIGHT has a married sister in Shreveport, who would know his address, but she refused to give the name or address of this sister, stating that his sister resents her association with WRIGHT and if she knew [redacted] had furnished this information it would cause further friction.

She refused to identify the other persons present during the comments by WRIGHT, stating that they had no more information, and would not know how to locate WRIGHT. [redacted] stated that she is a [redacted] she does not desire any publicity, and that she wished her identity concealed.

Investigation at Dallas, Texas, has established the "MARY" referred to above is MARY LAWRENCE, 4425 Chestnut, Mesquite, Texas, who is employed as a waitress at the Lucas B & B Restaurant, Dallas, Texas.

AT ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

On 12-4-63, [redacted] advised SAA HOWARD C. KENNEDY that on the night of [redacted] he was talking to JACK BUHLINGLER, address unknown, who is employed as a cab driver by St. Louis County Cab Company. BUHLINGLER remarked to the informant that JACK RUBY, the man who shot LEE OSWALD in Dallas, Texas, was a cab driver employed by the Ace Cab Company at St. Louis "years ago." The informant said that BUHLINGLER indicated to him that BUHLINGLER had been furnished this information by one or more "old-time cab drivers" who used to work for Ace Cab Company, or by veteran cab drivers still at Ace Cab Company.

The informant expressed awareness that several drivers who worked for Ace Cab Company ten to fifteen years are now employed by St. Louis County Cab Company, although he was unable to furnish their names. The informant could furnish no further information concerning this matter and requested that his identity as the recipient of this information from BUHLINGLER be concealed since he did not know whether BUHLINGER had furnished the information to anyone other than the informant.

Joe Mueth

With regard to the interview with JOSEPH P. MUETH on 12-4-63, as reflected in this report, the following information was received:

MO

[redacted] on 12-5-63, advised that MUETH told Mrs. JOSEPH (BARBARA) COSTELLO, owner of Checker Cab Company (formerly known as Ace Cab Company) that he had been interviewed by the FBI regarding the investigation being conducted in Dallas, Texas, and that he had been questioned as to whether RUBY had ever been employed as a driver with the company. Mrs. COSTELLO exclaimed, "RUBY!", and asked, "What did you tell them?" MUETH stated he told the FBI that RUBY had never been employed there to his knowledge. Mrs. COSTELLO then indicated to MUETH that what MUETH should have told the FBI was that RUBY was employed there and that he should have told them that "about two days before that happened he must have taken a plane down there."

It is the interpretation of the foregoing at the St. Louis Office that Mrs. COSTELLO was being sarcastic and facetious in her comments as set forth above, as she has expressed extremely bitter feeling toward the FBI in the past because of the FBI's investigation of her husband (now deceased), who was a prime suspect in the investigation of the Greenlease kidnapping case.

Mr. ELMER MOORE, Special Agent, U. S. Secret Service, 505 North Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas, advised Agents of the Secret Service had interviewed JACK LEON RUBY on the following occasions, at which time the following information was obtained. Mr. MOORE stated in conducting these interviews he was present on each interview and he was accompanied by various other Secret Service Agents on the interviews:

On November 30, 1963, RUBY was interviewed regarding information received by Secret Service that RUBY owned or possessed a Minifon, which MOORE described as a small wire recorder. MOORE said the Secret Service Office at Dallas received a long distance telephone call from the Los Angeles Secret Service Office regarding this Minifon. On that date, RUBY denied owning a Minifon.

On December 1, 1963, Agent MOORE again interviewed RUBY regarding the Minifon since the Secret Service Office at Dallas had received additional information regarding the background of the Minifon machine. The information had been supplied to Secret Service in Los Angeles by VIVIAN CURRY, 4855 Elmwood Avenue, Hollywood, California. CURRY had Texas furnished information that in 1958 and 1959 she was working in Dallas and she sold wire recording equipment on the side. Agent MOORE said this interview was negative as to his ownership of the Minifon and Secret Service subsequently ascertained BARNEY WEINSTEIN, Owner of the Theater Lounge Night Club in Dallas, was the one who actually bought a Minifon from VIVIAN CURRY. MOORE said apparently CURRY was confused on having sold a Minifon to RUBY when it was actually WEINSTEIN. CURRY was interviewed by Los Angeles Agents of the Secret Service on November 29, 1963.

Texas

In the interview on December 1, 1963, which was conducted at the Dallas County Jail, RUBY was questioned regarding information furnished to Secret Service by Assistant to the Commissioner of Narcotics, Mr. GEORGE GAFFNEY. With regard to the interview with RUBY concerning information furnished by Mr. GAFFNEY, RUBY advised the Secret Service Agents as follows: Texas

"He was first asked if he knew a TAYLOR CROSSLAND Texas

on 12/9/63 at Dallas, Texas File # DL 44-1639

and he replied in the negative as he did to the same question regarding MORRIS MELTON. When he was asked if he knew PAUL JONES he said "I know what you are getting at now. Yes, I know him. I'll tell you all about that. About 1947 I met Paul Jones at the Silver Spur, it was the Singapore Club first, on Ervay Street here in Dallas - my sister, Eva, was running it then. Later I heard that I had a phone call from Paul Jones at the Congress Hotel in Chicago where I was staying but I wasn't there at the time and I didn't talk to him. Later some Narcotics Agents came to see me and showed me some pictures. I think the only one I knew was JONES. I told the agents all I knew but I didn't know anything about narcotics or what those fellows were doing. I know that HYMIE, my brother in Chicago, had some kind of a deal with PAUL JONES. I think it was something to do with iron pipe. Everyone was trying to make a buck in those days after the war when things were short. For all I know, maybe they were shipping narcotics in iron pipe but I didn't know anything about it."

RUBY said that he couldn't remember anymore about the incident but he was sure that he did not meet with JONES, MELTON or CROSSLAND in Chicago and that he was not 'propositioned' on narcotics by JONES. He acknowledged that he was introduced to JONES by his sister, EVA GRANT."

On December 2, 1963, RUBY was interviewed by Agent MOORE, at which time he was questioned concerning a trip he reportedly made to Cuba in 1959. RUBY admitted to Agent MOORE that he did make a trip to Cuba, which was supposed to last for ten days on an invitation from LOUIS MC WILLIE, described by Agent MOORE as a gambler who is well known in Fort Worth and Dallas, Texas. MC WILLIE was known to run gambling games in Dallas prior to 1959, according to MOORE. RUBY became acquainted with him in Dallas. RUBY told Secret Service Agents he and MC WILLIE had mutual friends and MC WILLIE left Dallas in about 1958 to move to Havana, Cuba. In 1959, MC WILLIE was pit boss or had a similar job at a Havana casino. MC WILLIE, according to RUBY, wrote RUBY or sent word to RUBY in Dallas that he, MC WILLIE, would like for RUBY to visit with him in Havana. MC WILLIE reportedly sent RUBY plane tickets to Havana and RUBY went down as a guest. RUBY told Agent MOORE, although he was supposed to spend ten days in Cuba, following his arrival, he found he did not have as good time as he expected, he was not a gambler, and after several days in Havana with nothing to do, he was glad to return to Dallas.

On December 4, 1963, RUBY was interviewed by Agent MOORE, at which time RUBY was questioned regarding his whereabouts and movements on the day preceding the visit of President JOHN F. KENNEDY to Dallas. Agent MOORE said RUBY at first stated that the only thing he could think of at this time was that he had talked to a bartender named MICKEY RYAN and that the conversation took place at his club, probably in the early afternoon hours. Later in the conversation, RUBY recalled that he had been in downtown Dallas when he went to the Merchants State Bank and got a $500 Cashier's check which he gave to Miss MARY LEWANDOWSKI, secretary of LEO F. CORRIGAN, JR., for rental of one of his clubs. Agent MOORE advised this interview with RUBY was interrupted due to a visit with RUBY by his attorney, Mr. TOM HOWARD, and RUBY's brother, Mr. EARL RUBENSTEIN. The interviewed was discontinued when Mr. HOWARD and Mr. RUBENSTEIN appeared.

On December 4, 1963, RUBY was also questioned by Secret Service Agents regarding his alleged presence in Houston, Texas, on November 21, 1963. RUBY denied being in Houston, Texas, on that date. Agent MOORE said that the information RUBY was in Houston on November 21, 1963, was false and did not come from Secret Service. He stated the information came from a photograph of RUBY which was observed in a Houston paper by an unidentified complainant.

MOORE said in interviews conducted with RUBY by Secret Service Agents RUBY was asked a specific question, after which RUBY would talk profusely. MOORE said efforts were made to confine RUBY to an answer to the question.

which had been the basis for the Secret Service interview, but RUBY continued talking long after the question had been answered MOORE said RUBY talked about the family of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, his grief over their loss, and RUBY claimed he killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD because he is an American and he did not want Mrs. KENNEDY brought back to Dallas as a witness in the trial of a "no good bastard like OSWALD." RUBY told Secret Service Agents as a Jew he knew right from wrong and "he had the guts to do something about it." He further stated he"wanted to prove to the world that a Jew has guts." Agent MOORE said the foregoing statement was as close to RUBY's actual statement as he could recall, stating it was "something of that nature."

Agent MOORE said in the interviews with RUBY he was advised on several occasions that the Secret Service was not interviewing him on a Dallas police matter; however, RUBY would continue to talk about different phases of the case. Agent MOORE said that RUBY jumped around a lot in his answers, and he would ramble from one subject to another in the interviews.

Agent MOORE furnished the results of an interview with RUBY's sister as follows:

"Eva Grant, 3929 Rawlins Avenue, Apt. I, telephone LA 6-6258, was interviewed December 1, 5, and 6, 1963 and stated that sometime in 1947 while she was preparing to open the Singapore Supper Club, 1717 S. Ervay St., Dallas, she met Paul Roland Jones through a chiropractic doctor, Waldon Duncan, with whom she was going at the time. She understood that Jones was in the brokerage business and that he dealt in eggs and metals. Jones frequently used her telephone, paying her for any long distance calls.

"During this time Jack Ruby met Jones. Jones advised Mrs. Grant against going into the night club business as he believes it was too tough for her and suggested that she stick to selling. He suggested several business deals to her, one of which involved iron pipe which was in demand at the time. Jones said he had access to thousands of feet of 1½' pipe which was stored in a warehouse at Ardmore, Oklahoma. He gave her a sample about 6' long which she mailed to her brother, Hyman Rubenstein, in Chicago. As a result of this transaction, both Jack and Hyman were questioned by Narcotics Agents. An agent interrogated Mrs. Grant at Dallas and suggested that she contact the Chicago Narcotics office on her next visit to that city. She did so, possibly four or five months later. At Chicago, she stated, she was shown books of photographs but recognized only one - that of Jones. She recalled that she was questioned regarding a Benny Weinberg whom she did not know but remembers the incident as she has relatives named Weinberg. Hyman was called as a witness to either Austin or Houston for the trial.

"Eva Grant, who now operates the Vegas Club, 3508 Oaklawn Avenue, Dallas, with Jack Ruby, stated that he has never been involved in any narcotic deals and that she is 'absolutely positive' that none of her brothers have ever been engaged in the narcotic business. None have had any association with Mexicans or persons in Mexico."

RAY K. BROSSEAU, Director, Curtis Enterprises Division, Curtis Publishing Company, 380 Madison Avenue, New York, N.Y., was interviewed at the Philadelphia Offices of the Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia, Pa. Mr. BROSSEAU advised that the telephone call received in his New York Office on October 25, 1963, which call originated in Dallas, Texas, was received by MIKE SHORE, who was there on business. He stated, as he recalled, someone had either called him from Dallas or he had unsuccessfully tried to place a call to Dallas earlier that date. He stated subsequently SHORE received a telephone call from this same Dallas, Texas, number.

Mr. BROSSEAU stated he first heard of MIKE SHORE sometime during the late summer 1963. He stated that the Curtis Enterprises Division of the Curtis Publishing Company is a new division of Curtis dealing in diversification of business and joint ventures. In this regard, he received an interoffice memorandum from another department or division of Curtis reflecting that the writer thereof had become acquainted with MIKE SHORE at a Premium Convention held in New York during the summer. At this convention, SHORE was promoting the use of a limited number of record albums manufactured by Reprise Records of Los Angeles as sales premiums.

On reviewing the memorandum, BROSSEAU noted that the four records specifically referred to were show albums performed by a repertory company of top name stars, including FRANK SINATRA, ALLAN SHERMAN, BING CROSBY, etc.

BROSSEAU stated that getting the idea that such a record album promotion might be a good project and a successful money-making enterprise for Curtis Enterprises, he studied up on the album business and subsequently contacted MIKE SHORE.

He stated his initial contact with MIKE SHORE was telephonic and was made in approximately September at the business address of Reprise Records. He stated at this time he proposed to SHORE a deal in which albums would be offered as an exclusive promotion of Curtis Enterprises published in the various publications of the Curtis Publishing Company. He stated SHORE was interested and advised that he would recontact Mr. BROSSEAU after talking the deal over with FRANK SINATRA and other directors of Reprise Records.

Mr. BROSSEAU stated he was subsequently recontacted by SHORE, who indicated that Reprise Records was interested in the deal. After several telephone calls between BROSSEAU and SHORE they had their first physical meeting at the New York Offices of the Curtis Company on 10/2,3/63. At this meeting contract arrangements, promotional material, etc., were discussed between MIKE SHORE and BROSSEAU.

Mr. BROSSEAU stated that SHORE subsequently returned to Los Angeles and they had numerous telephone calls before they again met physically on 10/25/63 at the Philadelphia Offices of Curtis Publishing Company. On this occasion, SHORE was the recipient of the telephone call from Dallas, Texas, referred to above. Mr. BROSSEAU stated the meeting on 10/25/63 was transferred to New York the following day and lasted until approximately the following Tuesday, 10/29/63 whereupon SHORE again returned to Los Angeles. Mr. BROSSEAU stated this last meeting concerned layout for advertising, final contractual arrangements, and other things connected with the album promotion. He noted that the album series consists of four albums of the shows "Guys and Dolls," "Finian's Rainbow," "Kiss Me Kate," and "South Pacific." The albums are offered exclusively through coupons printed in the various Curtis Publishing Company magazines. The ads for these magazines appeared in the December 7 issue of "Post" and the four previous issues. They likewise appeared in the December issues of the "Journal," the December issue of "American Home," and the January issue of "Holiday."

Mr. BROSSEAU advised that the records are manufactured by Reprise Records, a FRANK SINATRA enterprise, which has recently been sold to Warner Brothers. The business address of Reprise Records is 1347 North Cahuenga Boulevard, Hollywood 28, Calif., telephone number 213-466-8277. MIKE SHORE is the promotional man for Reprise Records. His home address is 109 North Almont Drive, Los Angeles 48, Calif., and his telephone number is 213-BR 2-9836.

Mr. BROSSEAU advised he did not know whether SHORE was also a Director or stockholder of Reprise Records, or whether he worked on a commission or salary basis or anything else concerning his exact position with the company.

Since their final meeting which began 10/25/63, Mr. BROSSEAU has continued to have telephonic contact with MIKE SHORE. In this regard, he noted that Saturday, 11/30/63, SHORE called him at his, BROSSEAU's, residence and inquired as to whether Curtis Publishing Company was interested in the exclusive story of JACK RUBY. He explained he had grown up in Chicago with JACK's brother EARL, and had maintained contact with EARL, who is a current resident of Detroit. He stated EARL has subsequently gone to Dallas, Texas, to be of whatever assistance possible to JACK RUBY. SHORE advised BROSSEAU that EARL RUBY called him thinking he had contacts in the publication industry and offered to throw his way or to a contact of his JACK RUBY's exclusive story. Mr. BROSSEAU stated that he subsequently placed SHORE in telephonic contact with DON SCHANCHE, Managing Editor of "Saturday Evening Post," whose business address is the New York headquarters of the Curtis Publishing Company.

Mr. BROSSEAU stated MIKE SHORE subsequently telephoned him and advised that he (SHORE) had placed SCHANCHE in contact with EARL RUBY. He stated that he was out of the picture and wanted no part of any arrangements and no financial reward for making any arrangements.

Mr. BROSSEAU stated he knows nothing further about MIKE SHORE other than the fact that he appears to be a brilliant businessman who was supposedly formerly associated with "Madman" MUNTZ. He stated he has never met or talked with JACK RUBY or EARL RUBY and knows nothing concerning them.

MICHAEL SHORE, 1347 Cahuenga Boulevard, Hollywood, Calif., on 12/2/63, telephonically contacted the Los Angeles Office of the FBI and requested that he be telephonically contacted at his address in Hollywood by SA CLAUDE E. WILLIS, who had previously interviewed him on November 27, 1963, in connection with telephone calls which he had received from JACK RUBY in August, 1963.

SHORE stated that on December 1, 1963, he had received a telephone call from EARL RUBY, brother of JACK RUBY, from Chicago, Illinois. EARL RUBY seemed very worried about his brother's case, stating that they were in need of funds to aid in his defense. EARL RUBY stated that he desires to raise funds for his brother by selling the rights for a story of JACK RUBY's life. EARL RUBY asked SHORE if he knew of anyone who would be interested in writing such a story or in putting him in touch with someone who would be interested in this matter. SHORE stated that he suggested WILLIAM REED WOODFIELD, 12336 Rye Street, Studio City, California, who is a well-known photographer, independent writer and biographer, who had aided in writing the book, "The Ninth Life," concerning CARYL CHESSMAN, who was condemned to death for crimes in California. SHORE stated that he would trust WOODFIELD implicitly in handling this matter.

EARL RUBY stated that his brother has no money for his defense and would depend on funds raised from the story of his life. SHORE stated that he did not want to become involved in this matter without first advising the FBI. SHORE was clearly advised that this was a matter for his own decision.

SHORE stated that he had also called JACK RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, in Dallas, Texas, who seemed almost irrational and was very concerned over her brother's case. She stated that she feels JACK RUBY does not have adequate legal defense.

SHORE stated that EARL RUBY had called him at his residence and then he, SHORE, had contacted WILLIAM WOODFIELD and they later talked to EARL RUBY by phone in Chicago.

SHORE stated that EARL RUBY was apparently leaving Chicago to return to Detroit, Michigan, and that after he, SHORE, and WOODFIELD discussed this matter further in his office, they planned to attempt to call EARL RUBY in Detroit to get his approval for them to contact JACK RUBY in jail in Dallas, to see if JACK RUBY will approve WOODFIELD's handling of the life story.

SHORE stated that after he contacted WOODFIELD, WOODFIELD had made some inquiries to see about how much JACK RUBY's life story would be worth. He then asked MIKE SHORE if he would fly with him to Dallas to introduce him to JACK RUBY.

SHORE further stated that he was expecting WOODFIELD to come to his office in a few minutes and that probably WOODFIELD would want to discuss matters telephonically with SA WILLIS.

WILLIAM REED WOODFIELD telephonically contacted SA CLAUDE E. WILLIS at his residence at 1432 Fulton Avenue, Monterey Park, California, 12/2/63, indicating he was calling from the office of MICHAEL SHORE, 1347 Cahuenga Boulevard, Hollywood, California. WOODFIELD indicated he currently resides at 12336 Rye Street, Studio City, California, phone numbers TR 7-4482 and PO 3-3921.

WOODFIELD stated that MICHAEL SHORE had contacted him in connection with EARL RUBY's request to attempt to locate someone who might be interested in buying the rights to do the life story on his brother, JACK RUBY.

WOODFIELD stated that both he and MICHAEL SHORE had had a high regard for President JOHN F. KENNEDY. They felt that JACK RUBY, who had killed LEE OSWALD, the alleged killer of President KENNEDY, has a right to a proper defense and a fair trial.

WOODFIELD stated that he had already made several inquiries around the world concerning the value of JACK RUBY's life story, and that he had requested MICHAEL SHORE to accompany him to Dallas to introduce him to JACK RUBY in order to determine if RUBY would authorize his handling of his story. WOODFIELD stated that had the opportunity been given him for writing the story of LEE OSWALD, the situation would have been very different, and he indicated that he would probably have not wanted to become involved.

WOODFIELD was clearly advised that any action taken by him in connection with JACK RUBY's case was a matter for his own decision. WOODFIELD stated that he would like to help the FBI in any way he can but he does not feel he has any pertinent information for the FBI at this time. He further stated that if he does get permission to do JACK RUBY's story, he feels it should be kept confidential until published. He stated that he wanted MICHAEL SHORE to accompany him to Dallas as a witness to some of the things that might take place inasmuch as this situation is "so touchy" in Dallas. He further stated that he felt that the story could be "very explosive."

Re: NELSON N. SOLL, Associate

On November 26, 1963, Sergeant NORMAN H. MOORE, Los Angeles Police Department, Highland Park Division and Executive Director of Fire and Police Research Association (FIPO), furnished the following information concerning NELSON N. SOLL, 4509 West Pico Blvd., Telephone No. WEbster 3-7226, and who resides at 1142 South Park Drive, West Los Angeles, Telephone Nos. TR 8-2528 and CR 3-0631, to SA JOHN S. TEMPLE:

Sergeant MOORE noted that SOLL was one of the local Los Angeles residents interested in starting a defense fund for JACK RUBENSTEIN. MOORE stated his files reflect that SOLL in 1954 gave $5,000 for the defense of one PROET, a Negro who was charged with a crime in one of the southern states. Further, in 1957 he was prominent in an organization known as Council for the Condemned. The Executive Director of this organization was ELYSE DE MONT MOLLIN. The publication for this organization was entitled, "Justice." Sergeant MOORE stated as a result of SOLL's activities in this organization person or persons unknown burned a cross on SOLL's lawn.

The following investigation was conducted by SA EUGENE P. PITTMAN at Los Angeles:

GENE BARNES, cameraman for National Broadcasting Company, Inc., (NBC), News Staff, Hollywood, California, furnished the following information on December 3, 1963:

In connection with NBC news coverage of events at Dallas, Texas, BARNES interviewed NELSON SOLL, Soll Bail Bonds, 4509 West Pico, Los Angeles. After they were off camera SOLL told BARNES that he was ready to post $50,000 to $100,000.00 as bail bond for JACK RUBY in Dallas, Texas. EARL RUBY, brother of JACK RUBY was present during the interview of SOLL, however, EARL RUBY refused to make any comment or permit himself to be photographed.

Inspector THOMAS KELLY, AKA Tom U. S. Secret Service, 505 North Ervay, Dallas, Texas, advised that on November 24, 1963, he and Mr. FORREST SORRELS, Special Agent in Charge, U. S. Secret Service, Dallas, were interviewing LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the office of Captain WILL FRITZ, at the Homicide & Robbery Detail Room, Dallas Police Department. Texas FORREST V. SORRELS Fritz

Inspector KELLY said he and SORRELS were questioning OSWALD regarding the identity of one A. HIDELL and, during the course of this questioning, Chief Jesse E. CURRY, of the Dallas Police Department, came into Captain FRITZ's office. KELLY said he and SORRELS were busily engaged in questioning OSWALD at that time, and Captain WILL FRITZ and Chief CURRY engaged in a brief conversation at one side of the room, which was not overheard by KELLY. KELLY said shortly after the brief conversation between CURRY and FRITZ arrangements were made to move OSWALD to the Dallas County Jail, at which time the Secret Service interview with OSWALD was discontinued.

Mr. FORREST V. SORRELS, Special Agent in Charge, U. S. Secret Service, 505 North Ervay, Dallas, Texas, advised he and Inspector TOM KELLY, U. S. Secret Service, were interviewing LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the office of Captain WILL FRITZ, of the Homicide & Robbery Detail, Dallas Police Department, on November 24, 1963. Mr. SORRELS recalled during the course of the interview he was questioning OSWALD as to the identity of one A. HIDELL, and both he and Inspector KELLY were paying strict attention to OSWALD when Chief CURRY, of the Dallas Police Department, came into the room and engaged in a brief conversation with Captain FRITZ.

SORRELS added, due to their interest in OSWALD's answer to questions about A. HIDELL, he did not hear the conversation between Chief CURRY and Captain FRITZ, who conversed at one side of the room. SORRELS added, when the short conversation was completed between Chief CURRY and Captain FRITZ, the interview was discontinued shortly thereafter, when the Dallas Police began moving OSWALD to the Dallas County Jail.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date Dec. 7, 1963

Mr. STEVE GUTHRIE with offices at 820 Big Town, Mesquite, Texas, advised that his name was formerly S. W. GUTHRIE but he had legally changed his name some years ago to STEVE GUTHRIE. Mr. GUTHRIE furnished the following information:

He was elected former sheriff of Dallas County in July, 1946, and was to go into office in January, 1947. He was an ex-policemen and had returned from the service a short time previous to his election. He served as sheriff of Dallas County in 1947 through 1948.

Shortly after his election in July, 1946, a man identified as PAUL ROLAND JONES, contacted him on a Dallas golf course and asked him how he would like to make some big money. He stated he told JONES he would be very interested. At that time, Dallas County was "wide open" with prostitution and gambling and other vices running full steam and there were an average of 2 or 3 murders a month which looked like murders by gangs. JONES told GUTHRIE that between them they could make approximately $40,000 per month.

This contact by JONES was made since he was spokesman for the "syndicate" out of Chicago and the "syndicate" was planning to move into Dallas and take over the vices. There were approximately 25 "thugs" and hoodlums from Chicago in Dallas from time to time. GUTHRIE got in touch with Dallas Chief of Police JANSSON, Texas GEORGE BUTLER, a detective of the Dallas Police Department and the Texas Department of Public Safety to see if they could make bribery cases on the "thugs" who had planned to take over vice in Dallas. With the assistance of these officers, they wired GUTHRIE's house for sound and made numerous recordings of conversations had in GUTHRIE's house with a number of hoodlums from Chicago. Included in the names was SONNY LABRIOLA and a LIPSKE. As a result of this investigation, a great number of records were made.

GUTHRIE [illegible] last time was a "small time peanut" with this group who were going to bribe GUTHRIE. RUBY's name came up on numerous occasions, according to GUTHRIE, as being the person who would take over a very fabulous restaurant at Industrial and Commerce Streets in Dallas. The first floor of that building was to be a regular restaurant and the upper floor would be used for gambling. RUBY was to run this club. JACK RUBY never in person talked with GUTHRIE about this matter and, in fact, GUTHRIE and RUBY had no conversation during this investigation. However, according to GUTHRIE, RUBY's name constantly came up as being the person who would run the restaurant and GUTHRIE said if the records can still be heard, RUBY's name will be heard on numerous occasions. Texas Department of Public Safety has one set of these records and "DUB" NAYLOR, then a Texas Ranger, conducted a great deal of the investigation in that case.

As a result of the investigation, PAUL ROLAND JONES was sentenced to a term of 3 to 5 years, according to GUTHRIE's memory, and ROMEO JACK KNAPPI was indicted by the grand jury. KNAPPI was believed to be related to JACK KNETTI, well known Chicago hoodlum; however, Dallas authorities were never able to get custody of KNAPPI.

GUTHRIE advised he has never heard a good thing about JACK RUBY to the best of his knowledge. He believes RUBY has operated some prostitution activities and other vices in his club since RUBY has been in Dallas.

GUTHRIE further informed he has heard and believes it is fairly well known around Dallas that either Mayor CABELL or City Manager CRULL ordered Chief of Police CURRY to "put on the show for TV" of transporting OSWALD from the City Jail to the County Jail. He said as a result of this, CABELL will not discharge CURRY since CURRY was acting under orders.

Mayor EARLE CABELL was interviewed at his office in the Municipal Building, Dallas, Texas, at which time the identities of the interviewing agents were made known to Mayor CABELL. Mayor CABELL was advised that he no doubt was aware of the investigation being conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in connection with the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mayor CABELL advised that he was aware of this investigation. He was aware that he did not have to make any statement and volunteered that he was most anxious to furnish any information in his possession that would be of assistance in this investigation. He understood that any information he furnished could possibly be used against him in court and was aware of his rights to an attorney. He then furnished the following information in response to inquiry:

Mayor CABELL advised that from the time of the assassination to the time of this interview there was only one occasion when he took any form of administrative action that might in any way be conceivably related to either the OSWALD or the RUBY case. He explained that this occurred either on Saturday or Sunday morning, November 23 or 24, 1963, after the assassination, at which time he received an inquiry from a Mr. LANCASTER SMITH, a local attorney representing a Catholic men's group in Texas Dallas, relative to the advisability of proceeding with a torchlight procession which that group planned for Sunday, November 24, 1963. According to Mayor CABELL, this procession was to go by the site of the assassination and also was to pass in front of the County Jail.

Mayor CABELL very definitely recalls on this occasion that he called Chief JESSE E. CURRY concerning this inquiry from Mr. SMITH, and he also was concerned about this procession but, in effect, had no valid reason to refuse the permit. Mayor CABELL explained that since the procession was to be in the area where OSWALD was incarcerated, that a condition conducive to rowdyism might develop, and he felt that it would be inadvisable to approve of this planned procession. He stated for this reason he told Chief CURRY that it should not be approved, and that he would take the full responsibility as the party who was responsible for the cancellation of the permit for the aforementioned procession.

Mayor CABELL, of course, also categorically stated he at no time had given any orders to Chief CURRY to remove OSWALD from the City Jail and transport him to the County Jail.

At this point, he emphasized that his office is a policy office and not an administrative office, that the City Manager appoints the Chief of Police and that he, CABELL, has no direct contact with department heads. He pointed out that the only reason he contacted Chief CURRY directly in connection with the above parade permit was because City Manager ELGIN CRULL was out of town or not available.

According to Mayor CABELL, he was not in the City Hall from the time of President KENNEDY's assassination until the council meeting, which took place on the morning of Tuesday, November 26, 1963. He related that he was working during that period of time from his home.

As concerns any possible information that he may have given the press, he categorically stated he does not recall that he had at any time given any information to newsmen or persons representing a news media relative to OSWALD's removal from the City Jail to the County Jail. In fact, he believes the only information he gave to the press was that which he gave on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, relative to his planned travel to Washington, D. C.

On the subject matter of the press, Mayor CABELL volunteered that he had learned from the City Manager that the press had put a great deal of pressure on Chief CURRY relative to the removal of OSWALD from the City Jail to the County Jail. Some of this pressure concerned statements from the press to Chief CURRY that the press would have to stay up all night in order to be assured that they would not miss the removal of OSWALD as stated. Mayor CABELL states that according to information he received from the City Manager, Chief CURRY was alleged to have retorted that if they (the press) were back by 10 (am) that "they would be safe." Mayor CABELL stated specifically he received this information from City Manager CRULL after the shooting of OSWALD.

Mayor CABELL also volunteered that he had heard through the City Manager that Chief CURRY wanted to do everything possible to avoid even the impression as well as possible allegations that OSWALD's civil rights were being violated by denial of such things as the freedom of the press and the like. He mentioned in this regard that even the president of the Dallas County Bar was allowed to visit OSWALD in the jail.

As concerns any other conversation that may have transpired between Mayor CABELL and Chief CURRY, it was elicited from Mayor CABELL that Mayor CABELL spoke to Chief CURRY Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, by telephone in connection with the Mayor's planned flight to Washington, D. C. Mayor CABELL remarked that Chief CURRY had called him at his home by telephone and had advised him that a call had been received by direct dialing from a person who said there was going to be an attempt made against CABELL's life. During that telephonic conversation, Chief CURRY told Mayor CABELL he had given the aforementioned information to ROBERT C. LISH of the local Federal Bureau of Investigation Office, and LISH called the Mayor at home, at which time the Mayor said that he had received the information from Chief CURRY. Chief CURRY recommended that the Mayor take a later flight. Subsequent to this call, he received a telephone call from a friend of his, whom he did not name, that OSWALD had been shot and to turn his television set on, which he did. He then received a call from Chief CURRY advising that OSWALD had been shot. Mayor CABELL relates that he then told Chief CURRY that he was watching television regarding that incident at that moment.

Mayor CABELL also advised that he had heard no information at any time prior to the shooting of OSWALD that there was any threat made against OSWALD's life or

OSWALD's safety from any sources. Mayor CABELL stated that, of course, he had read such a statement in the papers to the effect that Chief CURRY had received word regarding a threat to OSWALD's safety prior to OSWALD's shooting.

At the conclusion of this interview with Mayor CABELL, he voluntarily stated he had always had a high regard for the Director and for Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and has always enjoyed a good working relationship with them and desired that the facts in this case be established. Mayor CABELL concluded by stating that there are people who are crying for "blood" in this matter; however, he is not taking any unwarranted action against Chief CURRY to satisfy the "wolves."

City Manager ELGIN E. CRULL, Municipal Building, Dallas, Texas, was advised he did not have to make any statement and any statement he made could be used against him. He was also advised he could consult an attorney of his own choice. At the outset of the interview, Mr. CRULL was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents, Dallas Police Department Texas

Mr. CRULL stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that when he was first notified by Deputy Chief M. W. STEVENSON on November 22, 1963, that OSWALD was in custody and responsible for the assassination of President KENNEDY, and was described by STEVENSON as having been the individual who had defected to Russia several years previously, CRULL could not place OSWALD and could not recall the obvious publicity which logically surrounded OSWALD at that time. He stated on November 23, 1963, he offered any assistance of his office to Deputy Chief STEVENSON and was informed that the Police Department, with the assistance of the FBI and Secret Service, apparently had the matter well wrapped up and, thereupon, CRULL departed on Saturday, November 23, 1963, for his cabin at a nearby lake to spend the week end.

He stated on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, he heard over the radio of OSWALD's having been shot by RUBY and thereupon returned to Dallas and again contacted the Police Department asking if there was any assistance his office could render. He stated he did not know JACK RUBY.

Mr. CRULL stated he has been employed by the City of Dallas for the past twenty-four years; that prior to that time was in the newspaper business for ten years, and that he selected Chief CURRY as Chief of Police and had selected the prior Chief of Police, and never interfered with the operation of the Police Department, leaving it entirely in the Chief's hands, as he did with other city departments.

He stated he was never contacted by news media or by the Police Department concerning the transfer of OSWALD from the jail at the Police Department to the County Jail, and was not aware of any plans being formulated for such transfer. According to Mr. CRULL, he said he had been concerned over the available facilities for interviewing OSWALD at the Dallas Police Department, but felt that, under existing conditions, the officers handling the matter were doing so in a very competent manner.

He stated that after the assassination he was in Chief CURRY's office on Saturday morning, November 23, 1963, and observed the large number of television and news representatives in the area, and recalls he commented on this to Chief CURRY and Chief CURRY stated he felt it was necessary to cooperate with the news media representatives, in order to avoid being accused of using Gestapo tactics in connection with the handling of OSWALD. He stated he was in agreement with CURRY's statement.

Mr. CRULL advised that at no time was he contacted by any individuals connected with television or news media concerning the transfer of OSWALD from the City Jail to the County Jail. He said, as a matter of actual fact, he was never formally interviewed by any news media people at any time concerning the events beginning on November 22, 1963, in Dallas. He stated on November 25, 1963, he issued instructions to his subordinates and to Chief CURRY and the Police Department to make no comment concerning these matters and, as far as he knows, these instructions have been followed. He stated an article appeared in the Oak Cliff Tribune, a weekly publication, the first week of December, 1963, which stated, in effect, that Chief CURRY was taking the rap for "higher ups" who had insisted that OSWALD be transferred to the County Jail during daylight hours at the request of the press. He stated RAY ZAUBER is the publisher of the Oak Cliff Tribune and described him as a "yellow sheet journalist," who formerly worked for the Dallas News and the Dallas Times Herald and was fired from both of those newspapers. He stated ZAUBER, when questioned by him in the past about the truth of an article written by ZAUBER, stated, "I can't sell newspapers by telling the truth." He stated as far as he knows there is no truth to the article published by ZAUBER.

He stated the Dallas Police Department is conducting an investigation in an effort to determine where the security failed in the transfer of OSWALD, and that it is his intention that this report be made available to the FBI and to the County Attorney for whatever action is deemed appropriate. In this connection, he said he was most anxious that no one officer be blamed for the breach of security, unless and until it was determined that an officer willfully and deliberately allowed RUBY access to the basement. He said he did not feel the wrath of world opinion should be directed at any officer whose post RUBY may have passed unbeknown to the officer. He stated he has no knowledge of the information indicating there was any conspiracy between any officer or officers and JACK RUBY, permitting RUBY to gain entrance to the basement on November 24, 1963.

Mr. CRULL stated he has issued instructions to Chief CURRY to co-operate 100 per cent with the FBI in this matter.

Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY, of the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, was advised he did not have to make any statement and any statement he made could be used against him in court. He was advised he could consult an attorney of his own choice. At the outset of the interview, Chief CURRY was advised of the Agents' identities.

Chief CURRY advised that at no time during November 22, 1963, or since that time had the Mayor, EARLE CABELL, or City Manager, ELGIN CRULL, issued or contacted him with any orders or instructions relative to handling of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY in any manner whatsoever. Chief CURRY advised that during the morning of November 24, 1963, at the time JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the basement of the Dallas Police Department building, he was talking on the telephone to Mayor CABELL, which conversation was for the purpose of advising Mayor CABELL of possible threats against CABELL's life. According to CURRY, Mayor CABELL was taking a plane to Washington that day to attend the funeral of President JOHN F. KENNEDY on November 25, 1963. CURRY stated shortly after he had hung up the telephone from conversing with Mayor CABELL, he was advised LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been shot. He immediately picked up the telephone and called Mayor CABELL and told him OSWALD had been shot by JACK RUBY.

CURRY reiterated that at no time did anyone inside the city government of the City of Dallas, or outside, issue any orders or instructions to him relative to handling the removal of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the Dallas City Jail to the Dallas County Jail, or any orders or instructions relative to the custody of OSWALD, or any other orders relative to the handling of OSWALD while OSWALD was in custody of the Dallas Police Department. Chief CURRY stated the same applied to the handling of JACK RUBY.

A. B. HAMMETT, Patrolman, Police Department, Dallas, Texas, advised that he has no specific information to the effect that numerous members of the Dallas Police Department frequented the Carousel Club on a "free-loading" basis. He has been at the Carousel Club on only one occasion. He is not sure of the date, but believes it was about 18 to 24 months ago. He was off duty and was there only long enough to observe one floor show, possibly not more than 20 to 30 minutes. Sergeant JERRY HILL of the Dallas Police Department was with him. He is not sure whether or not he met RUBY that night at the Carousel Club, but believes he may have. About the time he and Sergeant HILL were leaving, the Carousel was beginning to fill up with customers. He noticed several off-duty policeman and their wives or dates in the crowd, but does not presently recall their identities other than Lieutenant JAY FINLEY. He has no information to indicate they were being treated by RUBY at no cost.

AKA Jim

Mr. HAMMETT has been told by JAMES UNDERWOOD and JOE SCOTT of KRLD that Sergeant JERRY HILL has boasted to them that officers could go to the Carousel Club after hours to drink and associate with the girl employees. He stated he attached no significance to this report since Sergeant HILL is commonly known to make idle boasts of this nature.

TIMOTHY M. HANSEN, JR., Patrolman, Traffic Bureau, Police Department, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He is commonly known as "CATFISH" HANSEN. He resides at 1107 Moore Terrace, Arlington, Texas. He has no residence phone. He joined the Dallas Police Department in 1948 and has been a patrolman in the Traffic Bureau since that time. He first met JACK RUBY when he was working in District #41 about 11-12 years ago. That district covers one of the roughest sections in Dallas and included in it was RUBY's Silver Spur Club. There are a lot of tavern brawls in the district and as he recalls he first met RUBY when he was assigned to check on a brawl at the club. He also recalled that one night he went to RUBY's Club on a call and it was determined that an individual had bitten RUBY's finger so badly during a fight that part of it had to be amputated. He did not know the identity of this individual.

During the last four years or so he has socially visited RUBY's Carousel Club but has never been there on an assignment while on duty. He has never been to RUBY's Vegas Club.

The only thing that he knows about RUBY's background is that he was raised in a slum area of either Chicago or New York City. RUBY told him that he had to scrap for a living when he was a young boy but he could recall nothing else concerning RUBY's background. During the last 8 years he has directed traffic at the intersection of Main and Akard Streets in downtown Dallas. He would see JACK RUBY a number of times during the week, just as he would see many other downtown businessmen. RUBY was always friendly to him and often chatted with him briefly on these occasions. He is not a social friend of RUBY and has never had any dealings or conversations with him other than when he was on duty or the few times he visited RUBY's club. RUBY was always nice to him on these occasions. He described RUBY as being very big hearted and has seen him give money to needy people on the streets of Dallas on a number of occasions. He also has heard that RUBY has been very liberal with some of the girls who work for him and when they were sick would send them flowers and money. He felt that RUBY liked policemen in general and he was very surprised to learn that RUBY had placed his (HANSEN) name on the visitor's list at the county jail.

JOHN E. DALLMAN:BL Date dictated 12/11/63

He considered RUBY to be a thoroughly emotional individual and recalled that on one occasion at the Silver Spur Club RUBY hit a man who made a derogatory remark concerning his ethnic background.

He also stated that RUBY was always respectful towards him and always referred to him as HANSEN and not by his nickname "CATFISH." The only favor that RUBY ever did for him was to occasionally buy him a cup of coffee. He also recalled that on visiting the Carousel Club one night, RUBY would not let him pay for the set-ups but this only amounted to about 70¢ worth of ice and mix.

He recalled that while stationed at the Main and Akard intersection about 4 months ago, RUBY conversed with him briefly concerning President JOHN F. KENNEDY. RUBY told him that he felt KENNEDY had done many things for the American people. He stated that in the past RUBY also told him that he considered FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT to be one of the greatest men of all times. RUBY never told him if he was a Republican or Democrat and he did not feel that RUBY's feelings concerning KENNEDY or ROOSEVELT had any connection with RUBY's political beliefs, but were more out of admiration for them as men. He also recalled that after ADLAI STEVENSON visited Dallas, RUBY mentioned to him that the people should have been more respectful to STEVENSON regardless of whether or not they liked him.

He knows very little concerning RUBY's personal life and although he has heard rumors that RUBY was a homosexual he never believed them. He cannot recall who he heard these rumors from but he had never had any reason to believe it himself. RUBY struck him as being a very manly individual and was particularly impressed by his good physical condition for a man of his age.

He stated he knows GEORGE SENATOR who allegedly lived with RUBY at one time but he had no personal knowledge of this. He first met SENATOR near the intersection of Akard and Main Streets while SENATOR was conducting business.

he recalled SENATOR drove a Volkswagen truck and was in some type of novelty business. That was the only knowledge he had of SENATOR and the only place he has ever seen him.

He has never worked for RUBY although RUBY at one time suggested that he might like to work as a bouncer at the Silver Spur Club. This was not an unusual request because of the rough neighborhood the club was in and the number of disturbance calls that were made to the club. He stated he told RUBY he could not work there and the main reason he turned RUBY down was because he knew so little concerning his background. He knows of no Dallas police officer that at any time worked for RUBY. He knew of no officer from the Dallas Police Department who is a particular friend of RUBY. He stated that probably every officer who worked a downtown corner would know RUBY as well as he does.

He stated it came as a complete surprise when he heard RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He never personally knew RUBY to carry a gun but because of the business RUBY was in he would be a fool not to.

On Friday, November 22, 1963, he worked the intersection of Main and Akard from 10:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. On Saturday November 23, 1963, he was off duty and worked at his part-time job at the H. L. Green Company, 1623 Elm Street, Dallas. He spent all of Sunday, November 24, 1963, at his residence. He had no knowledge of the security precautions taken at the Dallas Police Headquarters during the weekend of November 24, 1963.

As best he could recall the last time he saw JACK RUBY was on November 22, 1963, between 9:00 and 9:30 a.m. He was entering the City Hall Building from the Harwood Street entrance, and RUBY was standing on the north side of the entrance directly to the side of the stairway which leads to the basement. He said there were four or five individuals standing with RUBY but he could not recall their identity and at this time was not certain whether or not they were police officers. He felt that the crowd was apparently gathering at that time in anticipation of the fact that President KENNEDY would be driving through the downtown section of Dallas later in the morning. As he walked by RUBY he shook his hand and said good morning but did not engage in conversation with him. He has not seen or heard from him since that time and has made no effort to get in touch with him. He cannot understand why RUBY would have his name on the visiting list at the county jail unless it was because he had known him for so long and saw him so often in the downtown area. At this time, he could think of nothing further concerning RUBY's person life, background, or political convictions.

He had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. If OSWALD had had frequented the downtown area he felt he would possibly have recognized him from the photographs he has seen but he does not recall such an individual. He knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

ERICH KAMINSKI, Lieutenant, Vice Squad, Special Services Bureau, Police Department, Dallas, Texas, was advised he did not have to make any statement and any statement he made could be used against him. He was also advised he could consult an attorney of his own choice. At the outset of the interview, Lieutenant KAMINSKI was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent. He advised as follows:

He resides at 11018 Joaquin, Dallas, Texas. He joined the Dallas Police Department in May, 1951. Prior to that, he was a member of the Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Police Department for five years. Upon joining the Dallas Police Department, he was assigned to the Patrol Division until 1952. He worked with the Vice Squad for a number of months between 1952 and 1954, when he rejoined the Vice Squad on a permanent basis.

He first met JACK RUBY sometime during 1953 or 1954, while working with the Patrol Division. As he recalled, this was during the course of checking the Vegas Club as part of his regular duties. All of his dealings with JACK RUBY since that time have been during the regular course of business. In recent years, he has recalled seeing JACK RUBY a number of times at the Special Services Bureau when RUBY was filing applications for dancing and liquor licenses. During the last two years, he has checked the Carousel Club in downtown Dallas about once a week. During that time, he has also checked the Vegas Club, but he does not recall seeing RUBY there during that time.

He has never visited any of RUBY's clubs socially. He has never accepted favors of any kind from JACK RUBY. RUBY did ask him frequently during the last six years if he could buy him a steak dinner, but he always politely declined and made it clear to RUBY that as a police officer he would not accept favors.

Most of the officers in the Special Services Bureau have met JACK RUBY at one time or another during their work, as have the officers of the Patrol & Traffic Divisions who have worked the districts where RUBY's businesses are located. He does not know the identity of any officer who is a particularly good friend of RUBY, and did not know anyone who knew RUBY better than anyone else. He never heard of any officers working for RUBY and he, personally, never worked for RUBY and was never asked to.

Lieutenant KAMINSKI recalled that the last time he saw RUBY was sometime during late October or early November, 1963. This was at the Special Services Bureau and RUBY was apparently inquiring about some type of license. He did not converse with him, but merely said, "Hello," as he recalls.

He knows very little concerning RUBY's personal life and had no idea that he was violent. RUBY always acted like a "big shot" and he had heard RUBY came from Chicago. He knows nothing concerning RUBY's background other than that and knows of no connection between RUBY and the mob element in Chicago or elsewhere.

He never heard RUBY engage in conversation concerning politics and has no idea what his political convictions or connections are. He never knew RUBY to carry a gun.

RUBY was a braggart and he recalled the last time he saw him at the Carousel Club that RUBY had told him he had the Persona Razor Blade dealership for the whole State of Texas. He stated he, naturally, did not believe this statement.

On November 22, 1963, his assignment was to handle a security detail on Main Street, in downtown Dallas. After the assassination of the President, he spent the afternoon at the Texas Book Depository Building, but arrived there after the escape of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He was part of the security force at the Police Headquarters after OSWALD's arrest. On November 23, 1963, he was in the offices of the Special Services Bureau from 8:00 AM to 6:00 PM. He was not assigned to any security detail detail on that day and did not know what security arrangements were made. On November 24, 1963, he was again in his office from 9:00 AM until 9:30 PM and took no part in the security arrangements. He had no knowledge of the general security arrangements taken during the entire week end and knew of no unauthorized persons that were allowed to enter the building. He, personally, did not check the identification of anyone, as he had no opportunity to.

He knew nothing concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and knows of no connection between OSWALD and JACK RUBY.

Lieutenant KAMINSKI stated he was not a good friend of JACK RUBY and he had no particular respect or liking for the individual. He made it his point to have no social contact with him, including off-duty visits to his clubs, and his on-duty contacts were brief and businesslike.

Date December 11, 1963

Dallas, Texas

Sergeant C. B. OWENS, Oak Cliff Station, Dallas Police Department, home address 1830 Milbourne, advised that officer TIPPIT has been associated with him under his supervision practically ever since the latter began working at the Dallas Police Department. Mr. TIPPIT has been assigned to the Oak Cliff area for about 95 per cent of the time he has been working and also worked in the West Dallas area under Sergeant OWENS for a short time.

Sergeant OWENS advised that in the Oak Cliff area, officer TIPPIT has been assigned to districts 83 and 78 most of the time. District 83 roughly covers an area bounded on the north by the Santa Fe Railroad tracks on the east by Zangs Boulevard, on the south by Kiest Boulevard and on the west by Hampton Boulevard. District 78 covers that area around the south Oak Clif Shopping Center.

Sergeant OWENS advised that to his knowledge, Officer TIPPIT has never been assigned to an area which includes the following residence addresses of JACK RUBY:

4160 Hawthorne
4727 Homer
508 South Marsalis
223 South Ewing
3929 Rawlins

He has never been assigned to a district which covers the following places of business operated by RUBY:

The Vegas Club, 3508 Oak Lawn;
Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce;
Silver Spur, 1717 South Ervay.

Sergeant OWENS advised that he is almost positive officer TIPPIT did not know JACK RUBY. He is certain he had no opportunity to frequent the Silver Spur at 1717 South Ervay while employed by the Dallas Police Department.

Sergeant OWENS related that he personally had worked the area around the Silver Spur at one time and knew JACK RUBY when he was operating this club. It was necessary for the officers to go in frequently on business, as is common at all taverns and night clubs. He disliked RUBY and the type of business he was operating that is a tavern and did not get well enough acquainted with him to be in a position to furnish pertinent information concerning his activities, associates or travel.

Sergeant OWENS advised that there are at least two other policemen working for the Dallas Police Department who pronounced their names "TIPPIT" although there are minor differences in spelling. This gives room for some confusion in identifying the different officers.

Sergeant OWENS advised that he knows from experience that Officer TIPPIT was the type of a policeman who quickly checked persons who aroused his suspicions. On November 22, 1963, all officers had been furnished a meager description of the assassin of President KENNEDY and Sergeant OWENS believes that Officer TIPPIT stopped OSWALD to check him because of the similiarity in description. He has no reason to believe that Mr. TIPPIT had ever previously known OSWALD.

Lieutenant RICHARD E. SWAIN, JR., Dallas, Police Department, advised that in reference to the information he furnished on November 24, 1963, he wanted to reiterate he did not have a specific assignment in moving OSWALD from the city to county jail on November 24, 1963. He stated that he was in the Burglary and Theft Division which is directly across the hall from the Homicide Squad where they had OSWALD in Captain FRITZ's office. He stated he had been down to the basement floor earlier in the morning, exact time not recalled, but stated at that time there was no one in there except police officers and two or three people who were in the jail office transacting business there. He stated it was during this period that a complete search of all cars and areas in the basement was made. He stated that just prior to the time that OSWALD was taken downstairs he stepped across the hall to Captain FRITZ's office to see if he could be of assistance. He advised that Captain FRITZ asked him to go down the elevator with FRITZ, OSWALD, and Detectives LEAVELLE, GRAVES and MONTGOMERY. He stated that when the elevator left the basement floor, Captain FRITZ indicated that he was to lead the way out and keep the crowd back which information he furnished previously. He advised that he has known JACK RUBY since about 1946 or 1947 because at that time he was working on the Vice Squad and they frequently had occasion to be in contact with people who were running the type of entertainment places that RUBY engaged in. He stated he has not seen RUBY since 1948 or 1949 to his knowledge. He advised that he would estimate there were approximately 60 to 80 people of various types of news media present in the basement beside police officers.

Dallas Police Department, Texas

SWAIN stated that when he stepped out of the jail office into the corridor, the banks of lights which were arranged in the driveway at the end of the corridor, that he could not tell who was there in the crowd and therefore was unable to name anyone that he personally knew. He stated everyone was in position there and he did not see anyone being admitted at the time he was leading the group out of the jail office. He stated he never worked for RUBY and did not know of any other police officers who did. He advised he did not know all the security measures that were put into effect but did know that there was not

Captain W. R. WESTBROOK, Personnel Division, Dallas Police Department, furnished the following information from the personnel records:

J. D. TIPPIT, 3115 Desseau Place, Dallas, was appointed to the position of apprentice policeman on July 28, 1952, with Identification No. 848. His file reflects he was born on September 18, 1924, at Annona, Texas, and relatives are listed as follows:

EDGAR TIPPIT - father, Route #1, DePort, Texas.

MAE PETERSON (last name questionable, writing illegible) mother, 715 Southwest Twenty-Third Street--no city listed.

MARIE TIPPIT, nee Gassway - wife, 238 Glencairn, Dallas, Texas.

CHARLES ALLAN TIPPIT - son (same address); born January 1, 1950.

BRENDA RAY - daughter (same address); born June 5, 1953.

CURTIS GLENN TIPPIT - son (same address); born December 10, 1958.

CHRISTINE CHRISTOPHER - sister, 3107 West Turtle Creek, Dallas, Texas.

DONALD RAY TIPPIT - brother, Lubbock, Texas.

JOYCE DEBOARD - sister, 3311 Perkins, Dallas, Texas.

WAYNE TIPPIT - brother, Route #1, Deport, Texas.

WALTER GASWAY - father-in-law, Bogota, Texas.

MAUDE GASWAY - mother-in-law (same address).

Officer TIPPIT served in the U. S. Army from 1944 until June 30, 1946, when he received an honorable discharge. He was employed by Sears-Roebuck and Company at Dallas in 1948 and 1949 and was self-employed as a farmer at Route # 2, Bogota, Texas, in 1950-1951 and part of 1952. Officer TIPPIT was promoted to patrolman on October 28, 1953, and has worked on radio patrol during most of the period of his employment. The personnel file does not reflect his exact assignments during his career, but Captain WESTBROOK advised he believed Officer TIPPIT worked in the Oak Cliff District most of the time.

Sgt. C. B. OWENS, Oak Cliff Station, was suggested as TIPPIT's immediate superior who would have a personal knowledge of his assignments. The file reflects that on April 28, 1956, while Officer TIPPIT was taking one ROBERT LEE SHAVER, 731 North Edgefield, a demented person, into custody, SHAVER stabbed him in the stomach and right knee with an ice pick.

On September 2, 1956, at the Club 80, 441 West Commerce, TIPPIT and another officer shot and killed LEONARD GARLAND, who drew a gun as they approached him to take him into custody. Other incidents relating to hospital treatment of Officer TIPPIT for minor injuries suffered in performance of duty are reflected. He was commended on more than one occasion by his superiors for the manner in which his duties had been performed. The only complaints against TIPPIT were those originating in his own department, listed as follows:

October 28, 1954--failed to appear in court; given letter of censure.

May 12, 1955--failed to appear in court; given one day suspension.

January 22, 1958--missed a radio call. Given verbal reprimand.

March 18, 1959--missed radio call. Disposition not shown

February 2, 1960--failed to appear in court. No action taken.

There was nothing in the file to reflect that TIPPIT was acquainted with OSWALD or RUBY.

The area covered by the Oak Cliff Station includes all that south of the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike and south of the Trinity River and, in addition, a small section bounded by Sylvan Avenue on the west, the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike on the south, and the Trinity River on the northeast.

On December 2, 1963, MOSS WIMBISH, Professor of Law, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas, advised SA CARL E. UNDERHILL Articles 483 through 489 C in Vernon's Annotated Texas Penal Code, cover the subject of weapons for the State of Texas. He advised that Article 483 specifically prohibits carrying a concealed weapon and that exceptions to Article 483 are set forth in Article 484, which gives special officers and certain enumerated persons the right to carry weapons if they receive a minimum of $40.00 per month.

Professor WIMBISH further advised that he has previously researched the subject of gun permits for students and has not located any statute for Texas authorizing local law enforcement agencies to issue gun permits.

Sheriff BILL DECKER, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, Dallas, Texas, advised that his office does not issue gun permits to person requesting same, nor is the City of Dallas permitted to issue permits.

He said he could only do so if the man is a special officer, receives at least $40.00 per month, and is ~~giva~~ given assignments in connection with his position and remuneration.

Pertinent statute is quoted as follows:

"Whoever shall carry on or about his person, saddle or in his saddle bags, or in his portfolio or purse any pistol, dirk, dagger, slung-shot, blackjack, hand chain, night stick, pipe stick, sword cane, spear or knuckles made of any metal or any hard substance, bowie knife or any other knife manufactured or sold for the purposes of offense or defense shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or by confinement in jail for not less than one (1) month nor more than one (1) year. Previous information was set forth to the effect GEORGE SCHEPPS was observed by SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS at the time LEE HARVEY OSWALD was removed in the jail to the show up room for a line-up on the evening of November 22, 1963.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agents TOM E. CHAPOTON and ALLEN H. SMITH:

On December 9, 1963, GEORGE SCHEPPS, National Sales Representative, Schepps Dairy, 4935 Dolphin Road, Dallas, home address 4206 Newton, Apartment 203A, Dallas, Texas, advised that on November 22, 1963, he had left a partyabout 11:15 p.m. and he heard on his car radio that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was to appear in the Police Line-Up Room for a press show-up about midnight.

SCHEPPS stated that he has owned the Dallas Baseball Company for many years and is also a member of the Dallas Press Club. He is acquainted with practically every reporter and newscaster in the Dallas area because of this. He is also well acquainted with numerous highly placed police officials and other police officers. SCHEPPS stated he was curious and decided he would like to observe OSWALD, therefore he proceeded to the Dallas Police Department arriving about 11:30 p.m. He parked his automobile and entered the Dallas Police Department from the Commerce Street entrance and proceeded down the steps to the jail office and on to the basement press room. He stated he observed many members of the press and Dallas Police Department and spoke to several of these people, but does not recall specifically to whom he spoke. He did recall nodding to District Attorney HENRY WADE, and

Texas

WADE acknowledged his greeting. SCHEPPS stated there were 100 or more people in this room and there were many people in this room that he did not know and he had no knowledge whether they were all representatives of the press or police officers.

SCHEPPS stated he observed uniformed police officers who appeared to be standing at the various entrances to this area, but did not observe them keeping anyone away for lack of identification. He stated no one asked him for any type of identification.

SCHEPPS advised he stood on one side of the KRLD - TV Camera and remained in this press conference for approximately ten minutes. He stated that he had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD before that night.

SCHEPPS continued that he has known JACK RUBY for several years as an acquaintance, having met RUBY at various sporting events and closed circuit TV sportscasts. His acquaintance with RUBY is limited to a speaking acquaintanceship and they have never visited socially. He has no knowledge of RUBY's activities, business dealings or associates and has no idea whether or not RUBY and OSWALD were acquainted.

INTERVIEW WITH NEWSMEN

MAURICE CARROLL, 14 Symor Drive, Convent Station, New Jersey telephone Jefferson 8-7694 was interviewed at the office of the New York Herald Tribune, 230 West 41st Street, where he is employed as a news reporter. He indicated he is generally known as "MICKEY" CARROLL. He furnished the following information:

He arrived Dallas, Texas from New York the night of November 22, 1963. He was in and around the Dallas Municipal Building, Dallas, Texas on Saturday, November 23, 1963. He spent the majority of his time on the third floor of this building where the Homicide Bureau of the Dallas Police Department was located and where LEE HARVEY OSWALD was being held. He recalled that when he went to the third floor of this building, his credentials were always checked by a police officer stationed in the corridor on the third floor.

JESSE CURRY, Chief of the Dallas Police Department at an informal press conference on the night of November 23, 1963, indicated that OSWALD would be moved into the County Jail about 10:00 a.m. on the following morning. CURRY told those present at the conference that they need not show up before 10:00 a.m. the following day, but that they should not be much later than 10:00 a.m. CURRY said there had been threats made against the life of OSWALD, and that an armored car would be used to transport OSWALD to the County Jail.

CARROLL arrived at the Dallas Municipal Building shortly before 10:00 a.m. on Sunday, November 24, 1963. He went to the third floor of the building. His credentials were checked by an officer of the Dallas Police Department. There were other newsmen on the third floor, but most of them wandered down to the basement of the building, as they knew OSWALD would be taken through the basement to an armored car parked on the ramp in the basement.

CARROLL remained on the third floor and with him were "IKE" PAPPAS, reporter for New York City Radio Station WNEW, and a newpaper reporter named, "JERRY" Last Name Unknown. CARROLL did not know what newspaper "JERRY" worked for or of the city he worked out of.

At about 10:00 a.m. OSWALD was lead out of the room on the third floor by three or four Dallas Police Department officers. CARROLL was unable to state exactly how many officers there were. OSWALD was lead down the hall to an elevator.

CARROLL, PAPPAS, and "JERRY" ran down the stairway to the basement. In the basement corridor leading to the garage, he was required to show identification by a uniformed officer stationed in this corridor.

When he entered the basement, OSWALD had not yet appeared. CARROLL explained this was probably due to the fact that the elevator was very slow moving.

CARROLL noticed that there were two rows of people who had formed in the corridor leaving from a doorway from which OSWALD was expected to appear.

CARROLL started toward the side of the corridor where the television camera was located, but he was directed by a plain clothes policeman to stand back on the other side. There were newsmen standing two and three deep on this side, and CARROLL was behind them.

Within a very short time, which CARROLL estimated to be less than one minute, OSWALD emerged from the doorway. About this same time, CARROLL saw a blue car backing down the ramp behind the armored car.

When OSWALD emerged into the basement, the crowd of newsmen and television reporters on both sides surged forward toward OSWALD, and one man appeared to thrust a microphone towards him. Just then CARROLL heard a "pop" and then there was a lot of confusion. OSWALD was then taken back through the doorway from which he had emerged.

CARROLL had been leaning forward trying to get a look at OSWALD and to hear anything that OSWALD might say. He was not able to have a good view of OSWALD. He did not actually see OSWALD get shot. He did not see RUBY prior to the time that OSWALD was shot, and only had a fleeing glimpse of a man being lead out of the basement garage by the police.

CARROLL does not know of any unauthorized person who may have entered the basement of the Dallas Municipal Building, nor does he know of any authorized person permitted to enter the basement without identification.

CARROLL did not have any information that any person conspired with RUBY, or any information that a police officer, or other official conspired with RUBY or wilfully committed the killing of OSWALD.

CARROLL did not see or talk to RUBY at any time from November 22 through November 24, 1963.

CARROLL has no knowledge of any relationship or prior acquaintance between RUBY and OSWALD.

The following is a list of persons whom CARROLL recalled were in the basement at the time of the shooting of OSWALD:

JOSEPH GOULDEN, news reporter, "Philadelphia Inquirer," advised that he was the only reporter from the "Philadelphia Inquirer" to be in Dallas and write anything regarding the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. He stated he was in Dallas from about 9:00 a.m., Tuesday, December 3, 1963, until the late evening of December 7, 1963.

Mr. GOULDEN said that prior to coming to work for the "Inquirer" in Philadelphia in 1961, he had for three years been a news reporter covering the Sheriff's Office and Police Department in Dallas for the "Dallas News." As a result, he stated he had many contacts in the law enforcement field and news media in the Dallas area.

Mr. GOULDEN said that he had obtained the information that JACK LEON RUBY had gotten into the basement of the Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963, from a law enforcement officer in Dallas whom he declined to identify. He said that the officer told him that he had obtained this information from RUBY himself and GOULDEN said that he believed the word of the officer to be unimpeachable; however, GOULDEN did not, of course, know whether or not RUBY had been speaking the truth when he told the officer that he had gotten into the building by carrying TV camera equipment on the morning of the shooting of OSWALD.

Mr. GOULDEN stated that he would attempt to contact the unnamed officer by telephone to see if he would consent to having his name revealed.

Later in the evening of December 9, 1963, Mr. GOULDEN telephonically advised that he had been unable to contact the officer by telephone but that he would attempt to do so again late in the evening of December 10, 1963.

Mr. GOULDEN also advised that the identity of the cameraman who allowed RUBY to carry in his camera equipment to the basement of the Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963, when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was to be transferred from the custody of the Police Department

He stated that the immediate superior of RENFRO is JAMES KERR, and they both are normally working in the city of Dallas. GOULDEN said that while he was in Dallas he questioned RENFRO regarding the information that RENFRO had allowed RUBY to obtain entrance to the basement of the Police Department by carrying RENFRO's equipment. RENFRO told GOULDEN that he did not know how RUBY got into the building and refused to discuss the matter further.

JACKIE D. RENERO, 430 North Star Road, Garland, Texas, was interviewed at the Press Room of the Criminal Courts Building, Dallas, Texas, and furnished the following information:

He is commonly known as JACK RENERO. He has been a newsman for five years and presently is the Newsman at the Dallas News Bureau of Television Station KTVT, Fort Worth, Texas. This station is an independent and the Dallas News Bureau is located in the Press Room at the Criminal Courts Building.

On November 24, 1963, he went directly from his home to Parkland Memorial Hospital, where a press conference was to be held with the wife of Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY. He arrived there at about 10:00 AM and, moments after the conference was concluded, word was received that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been shot.

His station cooperated with the National Broadcasting Company concerning television coverage at the Dallas Police Department and, to his knowledge, all of KTVT's equipment and crews were at the hospital. He is not personally acquainted with the members of the crew as he does not do production work.

He has not heard any rumor indicating that he, or any other member of his firm, assisted JACK RUBY to enter the Police Department basement. He has never personally given a press pass to anyone. He does not know JACK RUBY and would not recognize him if he saw him. Shortly after OSWALD's murder, he recalled hearing rumors that RUBY had entered the Police Department with a press badge and he also recalled reading this in the New York Times Newspaper. He stated this was one of the many rumors he heard on the week end of November 24, 1963, and pointed out it had even been rumored that a Secret Service man had been killed at the time the President was assassinated. He did not hear these rumors from anyone in particular.

He recalled going to JACK RUBY's Carousel Club on one occasion about three years ago, but did not even know if RUBY was in the place at the time. His only knowledge of RUBY was that he is a Dallas night club owner and he knows nothing concerning his background, personal life, or political convictions.

He is acquainted with JAMES KERR, WBAP-TV, Fort Worth, Texas, and sees him on a daily basis at the Press Room in Dallas. He has no information indicating that KERR or any members of his television station assisted RUBY in entering the basement, or that they were in possession of any facts relating to how RUBY entered the basement.

On November 22, 1963, he was in the Dallas Police Headquarters in the vicinity of the Press Room on the third floor. His identification was checked both on entering the City Hall Building and upon leaving the elevator at the third floor. On November 23, 1963, he again went to the Police Department during the afternoon and stayed there until late at night. He was checked both upon entering the building and leaving the elevator on the third floor and felt the security precautions on both days were adequate. He knows of no unauthorized persons who were in the Police Department on either day.

He had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and knows of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD. He did not recall seeing anyone who might be identical with JACK RUBY during his visits to the Police Department on November 22 & 23, 1963.

WESTLEY ARTHUR WISE, 10026 Lake Dale Drive, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his residence, at which time he was advised that he did not have to make a statement and that any statement he did make could be used in a court of law. He was advised of his right to consult with an attorney. Mr. WISE stated that he would be glad to volunteer any information in his possession to the interviewing Agents of the FBI and stated his willingness to cooperate with the FBI in any way that he could.

WISE stated that he is employed as a sports announcer for Station KRLD Radio and TV, Channel 4, Dallas, Texas, and as such handles news assignments out of the KRLD News Department in addition to sports assignments.

In the afternoon on the day following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, November 23, 1963, WISE was assigned by the News Director of Station KRLD, EDDIE BARKER, Texas to conduct a motion picture camera survey of the route taken by LEE OSWALD from the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository to the place of his subsequent arrest by authorities on the day of the assassination. In connection with this assignment, WISE drove to the Texas School Book Depository in the Station KRLD station wagon news unit. WISE endeavored at the door of the Texas School Book Depository to enter the building for the purpose of going to the sixth floor where it was his understanding the assassin had stood at a window with the weapon which killed the President. WISE was confronted at the back doorway on the north side of the building by a Secret Service Agent whom he could not identify who advised him that no one was being authorized to go to the sixth floor. WISE thereupon returned to the KRLD news unit which he had parked previously across the street from the building and was in the process of radioing to Station KRLD to contact JIM UNDERWOOD, KRLD newsman, to have UNDERWOOD make an effort to obtain permission for WISE to take pictures on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository. WISE estimated the time as approximately 3:00 P.M. when he observed a man in a navy blue suit approaching the KRLD TV unit from the rear of the Texas School Book Depository along Houston Street on the east side of the building.

When this man came to the door of the station wagon, WISE recognized him as JACK RUBY, however, WISE at that moment had the window of the station wagon rolled up so that this person could not hear his radio transmission to station KRLD. Upon rolling down the window following this radio transmissin, RUBY introduced himself, stating, "Hi Wes, I'm Jack Ruby, do you remember me?" engaging WISE in general conversation concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY. They talked about how terrible the assassination was and RUBY volunteered how terrible it was for the President's wife and children. At this point, WISE noted that RUBY's eyes filled with tears and he appeared to be emotional regarding this particular point. WISE informed RUBY that he had gone to the Dallas Trade Mart that morning for the purpose of photographing the wrapped packages, gifts for the KENNEDY children, which were Western saddles to be presented to the President for the children.

WISE then informed RUBY that he had heard RUBY's name mentioned on the radio the night before and RUBY replied to the effect that he had furnished the information, however, he would have given it to him, WISE, or any other newsman.

WISE recalled that he had heard on the late news emanating from Station KLIF on the night of the President's assassination that KLIF had learned exclusively from a source which WISE could not definitely identify but believes was the Dallas District Attorney or the Chief of the Dallas Police Department, or possibly some other authority, that night club owner JACK RUBY had taken a newsman whose name WISE was not sure of, to the authorities with information that RUBY had obtained.

WISE commented that it was his distinct impression that at the time of his conversation on November 23, 1963, at approximately 3:00 pm with RUBY that RUBY was endeavoring to be interviewed by WISE and WISE paid no particular attention to his conversation with RUBY on that date and their conversation was very casual. WISE noted that from past experience he has determined that RUBY is the type of individual who welcomes newsmen and likes to receive publicity, and would endeavor to be interviewed by newsmen.

WISE noted that he has an acquaintance with RUBY as a local Dallas figure whom he has observed at various public functions such as prize fights and sports events. WISE has also been to RUBY's club, the Carousel Club, and on occasion has seen RUBY at the Dallas City Hall and present in the audience at trials in local Dallas courts. WISE stated that he did not consider it unusual to see RUBY at a location of news interest such as was the Texas School Book Depository Building on the day following the assassination of President KENNEDY. He stated that RUBY impressed him as the type of person who could be characterized as a "news hound". WISE further pointed out that there were numerous persons gathered in the vicinity of the Texas School Book Depository on the afternoon following the assassination of the President, and he assumed that RUBY was sightseeing that afternoon at the Texas School Book Depository Building vicinity.

Following his conversation with RUBY, WISE observed RUBY to return in the same direction from which he had previously come, as he walked down Houston Street on the East side of the Texas School Book Depository toward some railroad tracks that WISE knows to be located in the rear of the building. WISE stated that he could not understand why RUBY would walk toward the back of the building unless he had parked his car in a parking space located in that area.

WISE stated that he had not seen RUBY on any other occasion prior to the time that LEE OSWALD was shot. He noted that on the morning of November 24, 1963, he was assigned to go to the Dallas County Jail with the KRLD news unit for the purpose of covering the transfer of LEE OSWALD from the Dallas City Jail to the County Jail. On the way to the jail, WISE dropped GEORGE PHENIX, KRLD camerman, off at the Dallas City Jail. He and PHENIX went in the Main Street entrance on the North side of the City Jail and went into the basement of the building. In the basement of the Police Department, WISE noted there were ten or twelve persons gathered. He noted that they were newsmen and other people. He estimated the time as being approximately an hour and a half prior to the time that OSWALD was shot. He noted that BOB HUFFAKER, newsman of KRLD, was present and he, HUFFAKER and PHENIX were the only newsmen that WISE could identify as being in the Police Department basement at the time that WISE was there.

WISE noted that in bringing GEORGE PHENIX to the City Jail, he had driven the news unit right into the basement of the Police Department and he was not checked or challenged in this regard by members of the Dallas Police Department. It did not appear to him that there were any security measures being taken at that time. He further advised that he could not recall observing any unauthorized persons present at the basement of the Police Department at the time that he was there. WISE proceeded to the Dallas County Jail where he was assigned with other newmen to cover the OSWALD transfer. He noted that at the County Building the Dallas Police Department had taken measures to provide security around the entrance of the County Building by roping off the area across the street from the building. He noted further that there were police officers present as well as TV cameramen and other newsmen. The fact that OSWALD was to be moved was announced to the newsmen by BILL DECKER, Sheriff, Dallas County, who came to the door of the Dallas County Jail.

A few minutes later, DECKER again came to the door at which time he announced that OSWALD had been shot. In the meantime, the newsmen had obtained the fact of OSWALD's being shot at the Dallas Police Department by viewing portable television monitors set up in the television news units.

WISE advised that the only associate of RUBY that he could suggest was RUBY's roommate whose name was unknown to WISE. WISE pointed out that he had recently talked to SAM CAMPISI, operator of the Egyptian Restaurant, Dallas, who advised WISE that JACK RUBY had following his arrest for the murder of LEE OSWALD asked to see JOE CAMPISI, SAM CAMPISI's brother and co-owner of the Egyptian Restaurant. On November 30, 1963, SAM CAMPISI told WISE that RUBY had told JOE CAMPISI in connection with his shooting of OSWALD "someone had to do it, so it might as well have been me."

WISE stated that he had heard from an unrecalled source that JACK RUBY at one time was associated with JOE BONDS, former operator of the Sky View Club in the Oak Cliff Section of Dallas which is no longer in operation. WISE stated that BONDS approximately three years ago was charged with and arrested for a sex offense in Dallas and might now be in custody at the penitentiary in Huntsville, Texas.

WISE stated that he had never heard of or seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD before, was not acquainted with OSWALD and had no information as to his activities prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

WISE stated further that from his past knowledge of JACK RUBY he has determined that RUBY is rather an emotional type of man as evidenced by WISE's observations of RUBY following prize fights when RUBY disagreed violently with the decision of the judges as to the winner of the contest and would behave in a very angry and overly emotional manner. He stated that it was RUBY's general nature to want to be in on activities that were going on in Dallas and WISE has observed him in the past at many sports events. WISE pointed out that on the occasion of WISE's transfer from TV Channel 8 to TV Channel 4, he was given a going away party which was held at the Carousel Club. On this occasion, WISE was given a bottle of champagne for having won first prize in a twist contest at the club. A man took the bottle of champagne and RUBY observed him take it and became very angry with the man and actually was violent in his reaction to the man having taken the champagne. WISE thought at the time that RUBY was going to strike this man and WISE interceded in an effort to calm RUBY down.

The following investigation was conducted by IC THOMAS JACKSON WHITE at Washington, D. C.:

On December 3, 1963, LOIS TURNEY, Contact Representative, Central Office of Immigration and Naturalization Service, Washington, D. C., advised that Certificate Number C2331714 for HYMAN RUBENSTEIN naturalized July 9, 1926 (court not shown), has been transferred to INS District Office, Chicago, Illinois as of December 2, 1963.

Alien Registration Form Number 5058201 for JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN shows he was born February 2, 1871 in city of Sokolov, Province of Sedlitz in Poland. RUBENSTEIN arrived us at New York July, 1903 (day not given) and reported himself a former subject of Russia.

Alien Registration Form Number 3746214 for FANNY RUBENSTEIN, nee TUREK, states she was born October, 1875 (day unknown) near Warsaw, Poland. Arrived us at New York June, 1905 and reported herself a former subject of Poland.

The following investigation was conducted by SA REID M. LEISHMAN at Chicago, Illinois:

Naturalization Records, U. S. District Court, Chicago, Illinois, examined on December 3, 1963. HYMAN RUBENSTEIN filed Declaration of Intention Number 113921 on February 24, 1920, in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois. This reflected he was born on December 28, 1901 at Warsaw, Poland, Russia (SIC). His residence was 1232 South Morgan, Chicago, and his last foreign address was Russia. He entered the United States in June, 1904 at New York.

He filed Petition for Naturalization Number 22275 on February 4, 1926 in U. S. District Court, Chicago, Illinois. His address at that time was 1129 South Sacramento Boulevard, Chicago, and his occupation was soda dispenser. He was born December 28, 1901 in Warsaw, Poland, and entered the United States in June, 1904 at New York. He was single at the time of filing the petition. Witnesses listed are: MAURICE Maurice X KATZENITZ, 1721 Roosevelt Road, Chicago; and HARRY M. X LEWIS, 3 45 Eastwood Avenue, Chicago. HYMAN was naturalized on July 9, 1926 in U. S. District Court, Chicago, and received Certificate of Naturalization Number 2331714.

It is noted that HYMAN listed place of birth as Warsaw, Poland, Russia. It is also noted that in 1901 Poland as a nation did not exist and Warsaw at that time was under Russian control.

Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) Investigator RICHARD PLZAK, Chicago, Illinois, advised on December 2, 1963, that 1940 alien registration cards in their office reflect that JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN was born in Poland in 1871, exact date not listed. JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN had INS File Number A5-058-201. Alien registration card for FANNY RUBENSTEIN reflected she was born in Poland in 1875, exact date not listed. She had INS File Number A3-746-214. PLZAK advised that these files were located at Central Office, INS, Washington, D. C. and that he had requested them by teletype on November 27, 1963, that they be sent to INS, Chicago. They have not as yet arrived.

PLZAK further advised that JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN, according to a Chicago newspaper death notice, died on December 24, 1958, at 1044 Loyola, Chicago. This notice listed him as the husband of the late FANNY RUBENSTEIN and listed the following children:

HYMAN RUBENSTEIN, 1129 Sacramento, Chicago — S.V. Ruby
ANNA VOLPERT, 1044 Loyola, Chicago
MARION CARROLL (Mrs. NORMAN CARROLL), 1044 Loyola, Chicago — 11616 Jamestown Rd. — Sam Ruby
SAM RUBENSTEIN, 1162 Rachel, Dallas, Texas — ILL.
EARL RUBENSTEIN, Detroit, Michigan — D.O.B. 12-21-12
EVA GRANT, Dallas, Texas — Samuel Rubenstein
JACK RUBENSTEIN, Dallas, Texas — Samuel David Rubenstein
EILEEN KAMINSKI (Mrs. HAROLD KAMINSKI), no address given. — Rubenstein (Nee) ILL. - Texas

PLZAK further advised that a check of naturalization records, United States District Court, Chicago, failed to reflect that JOSEPH or FANNY RUBENSTEIN were ever naturalized in that court. Naturalization records did reflect that HYMAN RUBENSTEIN, 1129 South Sacramento, Chicago, born December 28, 1901, in Poland, was naturalized in United States District Court, Chicago, on July 9, 1926, and received Certificate of Naturalization Number 2331714. He entered the United States at New York in 1904. PLZAK stated he has also requested HYMAN RUBENSTEIN's file from the Central Office, INS, Washington, D. C.

An anonymous female telephonically contacted the Chicago Office at 5:30 p.m., December 3, 1963, and advised as follows:

Her husband, who had a position in the Family Court of Cook County (FCCC) had told her that JACK RUBY had an extensive record with the court and that RUBY and his brothers had been settled with a foster family or a foundling home by the court. EDWARD J. NERAD and SA HERBERT F. BRIICK contacted Family Court of Cook County (FCCC), presiding Judge ALFRED J. CILLELLA in his chambers, 2246 West Roosevelt Road, Chicago Ill.

Judge CILLELLA advised that, after being apprised of receipt of the information relative to RUBY and the FCCC, while Illinois statutes make it illegal to disclose information concerning children who have appeared before the FCCC, he felt that the RUBY - OSWALD case was of such importance to the national interest that he would authorize full disclosure to Federal Authorities only any information contained in FCCC records concerning RUBY and any near relative of his who may have also appeared before the court. Judge CILLELLA stated that he would only authorize this disclosure on the conditions that it is used only by the Federal Government in its investigation of RUBY, and that it is not disclosed to local authorities to assist in their prosecution of RUBY, or that it is released for publication. Judge CILLELLA advised that he would not object, however, to the use of the FCCC information in any possible Federal prosecution of RUBY, but that he could not envision that happening. He instructed NERAD, Chief Administrative Officer of the FCCC, to provide this Bureau with any information concerning RUBY and his relatives which was available.

EDWARD J. NERAD, Chief Administrative Officer, Family Court of Cook County (FCCC), 2246 West Roosevelt Road, Chicago, advised that the files of his office would contain certain limited information regarding an individual he believed identical with subject RUBY but that before he could release the information, he felt that he must first obtain permission from FCCC presiding Judge ALFRED J. CILLELLA. NERAD then stated that almost simultaneous with SA HERBERT F. BRIICK's initial contact with his office, he had learned that the "Chicago Sun Times" newspaper had apparently received information similar to that obtained by this Bureau concerning RUBY's connection with the FCCC. NERAD declined to identify the reporter or the employee of the office of the Clerk of the Cook County Circuit Court at the FCCC who was involved but stated as follows:

A clerical employee of the Clerk of the Cook County Circuit Court at the FCCC had reviewed the Master File Card in NERAD's office yesterday on the individual NERAD believes identical with subject RUBY, and had made the information available to a reporter of the Sun Times. NERAD stated that this little specific information could be obtained from the card but that it would indicate the Circuit Court Docket Case Number, the child's name, date of birth, the names of his parents, and nature of the proceedings and possibly the dispositions involved. NERAD stated that the detailed background information developed by probation officers on his staff concerning children's appearances before the FCCC would be contained in the "Social Files" which are destroyed periodically and which in RUBY's case would have been destroyed years ago.

NERAD stated that the official "legal" records of the proceedings of the FCCC are maintained by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County and that legal records concerning RUBY and any member of his family would have been reduced to microfilm which are located at the Cook County Court House, Chicago, Illinois.

After having received permission from Judge CILLELLA to make available any information concerning RUBY and his family NERAD furnished for review four

FCCC Master File Cards to SA BRIICK. The cards bear the following FCCC Docket Case Numbers respectively:

90342 (last two digits illegible and uncertain)
90340

NERAD stated that Case Number 90342 related to the individual he believes identical with the subject RUBY.

FCCC Master File Card Case Number 90342 reflected that JACOB RUBENSTEIN, date of birth April 21, 1911, first appeared before FCCC predecessor, the Juvenile Court, on July 10, 1923, on dependency hearing. His father was indicated as JOSEPH, residing at 1250 South Morgan, his mother as FANNY, residing at 3647 Roosevelt Road, both Chicago. At the time of the first appearance, the child's father was ordered to pay support and the boy was committed to the Jewish Home Finding Society.

On November 24, 1924, the above order was vacated and the petition dismissed. The proceeding was continued on four successive dates: December 8, 1924; December 15, 1924; January 13, 1925; and January 27, 1925.

On April 8, 1925, the proceeding was continued "generally" (NERAD advised that this meant the case was pending inactive but that it could be reactivated at a future date if the court so desired).

The only other notations on the card were "see EVA" and the number 83383 and the surname of the probable case officer BLUMENTHAL. NERAD advised that BLUMENTHAL is unknown to his office.

FCCC Master File Card Case Number 90340 was for SAM RUBENSTEIN, date of birth December 28, 1912. This card bore identical notations in every respect to that for JACOB RUBENSTEIN, case number 90342.

Master File Card Case Number 60011 was for HYMAN RUBENSTEIN, date of birth December 28, 1901. This card bore the notation also "see EVA, number 83383." There were only two juvenile court appearances indicated on this card. The first was for May 1, 1916, in which ROGIN was appointed probation or parole officer and on February 20, 1918, at which time the child was released from parole.

Master File Card Case Number 83383 was for EVA RUBENSTEIN, date of birth March 15, 1909. This card bore the following indicated court appearances: September 26, 1921, continued to October 6, 1921; October 6, 1921, L. J. ROBIN appointed as guard to place, Father to pay $3 per week; September 30, 1922, BLUMENTHAL; April 23, 1926, released from probation.

NERAD advised he would have the Cook County Circuit Court microfilm records relating to the above records pulled and made available for review by an Agent of the Bureau, December 5, 1963. He also advised that he would make a member of his staff available to interprete the records if necessary.

NERAD expressed the opinion that he doubted that little additional information would be obtained other than possibly the name of some social service agencies who might have been in contact with the RUBY family and who still might have case files on them.

MICHAEL F. HENEGHAN, Chief Probation Officer, Family Court of Cook County (FCCC), stated that according to instructions received by him from EDWARD J. MERAD, Chief Administrative Officer, FCCC, he was making available the following information obtained from the legal files of the Cook County Circuit Court Clerk's Office, which relates to subject RUBY and his brothers and sisters:

HENEGHAN stated that JACOB RUBENSTEIN's legal record, Case Docket Number 90342, reflects he appeared in Juvenile Court, Chicago, on a dependency hearing, July 10, 1923, and that this was the first time his name appeared in court records. The petition which had been filed was to the effect that RUBENSTEIN, age 1½, had not had proper parental care. At the time he was in custody of his mother, FANNIE RUBENSTEIN, 3647 Roosevelt Road. His father, JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN was residing at 1250 South Morgan. Judge H. STERLING POMEROY made a finding of dependency and appointed the Jewish Home Finding Society (JHFS) guardian with the right to place. The child's father was ordered to pay the Clerk of the Court $4 per week to be drawn by the JHFS. On November 21, 1924, MICHAEL M. CAGNEY (possibly a case worker) asked that the case be reopened. A rehearing before Judge VICTOR P. ARNOLD was held November 24, 1924. At the same time a second dependency petition was filed naming JACOB KEPECS who had become Superintendent of the JHFS, as having custody. Judge ARNOLD vacated all previous orders and set them aside. He continued the hearing on the new petition to December 8, 1924. The hearing on the second petition was further continued on the following dates; December 15, 1924, January 13 and 27, 1925, and April 7, 1925. On April 8, 1925, the hearing was continued "generally". HENEGHAN advised that continuing the hearing generally meant that for all intents and purposes the case had been closed. He further stated the effect of the action on November 24, 1924, would have been to return the child to its parents.

There was no additional information in the legal files concerning JACOB RUBENSTEIN, HENEGHAN stated.

With regard to HYMAN RUBENSTEIN's legal file, Docket Case Number 60011, who was age 14, on December 25, 1915, HENEGHAN stated that on May 1, 1916, a delinquency petition was filed in Juvenile Court to the effect that the boy was incorrigible. His parents were indicated as JOE and FANNIE RUBENSTEIN, 1232 South Morgan, Chicago. The finding on the hearing was "delinquency" and HYMAN RUBENSTEIN was ordered placed on probation to live at the home of his mother who was in court that day. On February 14, 1918, Probation Officer LUBA J. ROBIN recommended that the child be released from parole to live at the Deborah Boys Club, 5930 South Park Avenue. On February 20, 1918, Judge POMEROY signed a permanent discharge for HYMAN RUBENSTEIN.

With regard to the legal records concerning SAMUEL RUBENSTEIN, the brother of JACOB, Case Docket Number 90340, ISIDORE RUBENSTEIN, Case Docket Number 90341, and IDA RUBENSTEIN, Case Docket Number 90343, Mr. HENEGHAN advised that their files were identical in every respect but their names with that for JACOB RUBENSTEIN.

With regard to EVA RUBENSTEIN, Case Docket Number 83383, HENEGHAN stated that she first appeared in Juvenile court on September 26, 1921, on a dependency hearing. She was indicated as 12 years of age at the time and her father, JOSEPH, resided at 1252 South Morgan, and her mother, FANNIE, resided at 1128 South Marshfield. The hearing was continued to October 6, 1921, at which time LUBA J. ROBIN was appointed EVA'S guardian with the right to place her. Her father was ordered to pay the Clerk of the Circuit Court $3 per week to be drawn by LUBA J. ROBIN.

On March 23, 1926, a recommendation was made in Juvenile Court that the guardianship be removed and that EVA RUBENSTEIN was to be allowed to reside with Mrs. B. ZUCKERMAN, 1339 South Lawndale, MARY LAWRENCE, Executive Director, Jewish Children's Bureau, 1 South Franklin, advised that the file concerning her organization's contacts with JACOB RUBENSTEIN, born April 25, 1911, and his family had been destroyed because of age. She stated, however, that the "master file cards" had not been destroyed and that they indicated that JACOB RUBENSTEIN as well as his siblings, ISIDORE, IDA and SAMUEL had been wards of the Jewish Home Finding Society, the predecessor organization of the Jewish Children's Bureau, for a short time in 1922-23. She stated that her master file cards contain little information relative to the RUBENSTEINs other than that apparently there had been a considerable amount of parental discord in the family inasmuch as the master file card bears several notations to the effect that between 1915 and 1921, the subject's father, JOSEPH, had appeared in court on disorderly conduct, and assault and battery charges some of which appeared to have been filed by FANNIE RUBENSTEIN. Mrs. LAWRENCE stated that her records are so sketchy that she could make no definite statement as to dates and causes for JOE RUBENSTEIN's appearances in court. Mrs. LAWRENCE stated the only additional specific item appearing in her records was a notation that JACOB RUBENSTEIN had visited the Institute for Juvenile Research on July 6, 1922, under their Case Number 4376. She stated that this organization is a state agency dealing with children's mental problems. She stated she did not know what significance this notation had but was mentioning it for what it was worth.

He advised "off the record" it appears that the information contained in RUBENSTEIN's record could be very "informative". He stated, however, that the records are considered "privileged" and that he does feel that he should release this information only with RUBENSTEIN's permission. He stated, however, the information could be made available upon the issuance of a subpoena to him if this was necessary. On December 5, 1963, Mr. NATHAN NORMAN CARROLL, 6916 North Lakewood Avenue, Apartment 207, Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed by SAs GEORGE H. PARFET and RICHARD B. LEE.

Mr. CARROLL stated that he married ANN CARROLL, nee RUBENSTEIN, in 1951, and was separated from her in 1958; however, they have not been divorced. He advised that JACK RUBY is his wife, ANN's brother, and that he has known JACK RUBY for at least thirty-five years, inasmuch as they grew up in the same neighborhood. He stated that he did not know JACK RUBY was his wife's brother until shortly before they were married in 1951; however, he said that he had never been an intimate associate of JACK RUBY and that during the years they were growing up they never went out together and their only contacts were simply as neighborhood acquaintances.

He described JACK RUBY as an ambitious individual who engaged in many sales and promotional activities in order to "make a buck." He said, to the best of his knowledge, RUBY had no hoodlum connections nor was he engaged in the night club or tavern business in Chicago at any time.

He said that he had only seen JACK RUBY on two occasions since World War II, these being when JACK RUBY came to Chicago to attend the wedding of his sister to Mr. CARROLL and again in approximately 1957 when RUBY came to Chicago for the funeral of his wife's father.

He said that on neither of these occasions was RUBY's business or associates mentioned due to the nature of the occasions. He advised he had not seen or been in contact with RUBY in any way since 1957.

He advised that he had read newspaper articles pertaining to RUBY's participation in the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had read about possible Communistic connections of JACK RUBY, but said he felt this to be erroneous, as he had never seen or heard anything that would indicate RUBY would have any such connections.

He advised that he is still on friendly terms

Mr. HYMAN RUBENSTEIN, 1044 Loyola Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, telephone number SHeldrake 3-0984, personally appeared at the Chicago Office of the FBI. He advised he had previously been contacted by the FBI and could not recall at that time when he went to Laredo, Texas, in connection with a narcotics trial of JOHN PAUL JONES. He said he met JONES through his sister, EVA GRANT, who resides in Dallas, Texas. JONES appeared in Chicago, Illinois, date unrecalled, and represented himself as seeking an outlet for surplus pipe of one inch size. During discussions with JONES, he believed JONES might have stayed at the La Salle Hotel, Chicago, he furnished JONES with one of his, RUBENSTEIN's, business cards. He was subsequently contacted by a member of the Federal Narcotics Bureau, (first name unknown) AMAN, regarding his association with JONES and explained their relationship. He also appeared as a witness in Laredo, Texas, in United States District Court in connection with JONES' narcotics trial.

He furnished a receipt from HERMAN SAYMER and Son, 115-117 North Wabash Avenue, Chicago 2, Illinois, dated January 10, 1947, for a grand piano and bench in the amount of $620. He said this piano was purchased for his sister's, EVA GRANT's, use in a nightclub venture and he knows that his contact with JONES took place either before or after this date. He said he could not be more specific.

He said he did not believe his brother, JACK RUBY, had any knowledge of JOHN PAUL JONES at this time because when his sister, EVA GRANT, received the piano, JACK RUBY was not with her. He did not know where RUBY was living at the time the piano was obtained for EVA GRANT. He said he did not believe his brother, JACK RUBY, knew JONES at the time although he was not aware if RUBY subsequently became acquainted with JONES.

Mrs. ARTHUR MORTON VOLPERT, Administrative Assistant-Payroll and Timekeeper, Perry Mason Studios, Columbia Broadcasting System, 1416 La Brea Avenue, residence address 20891 Kelvin Place, Woodland Hills, California, furnished the following information:

Mr. VOLPERT is a nephew of JACK LEON RUBY, VOLPERT's mother, ANN VOLPERT, being a sister of RUBY. ANN VOLPERT presently resides at 1044 West Loyola, Chicago, Illinois, with her sister, MARIAN CARROLL. Mr. VOLPERT's father, RALPH PHILLIP VOLPERT, is deceased.

Mr. VOLPERT last saw his uncle, RUBY, in August, 1960, at Dallas, Texas. Mr. VOLPERT and his wife, FLORENCE, were at that time on their way to Los Angeles, California, from Youngstown, Ohio. Mr. VOLPERT was coming to Los Angeles to obtain employment. He and his wife saw RUBY briefly and did have dinner with RUBY at the Restaurant Chateaubriand in Dallas, Texas. At that time, RUBY was operating the Club Vegas in Dallas, Texas, and was preparing to open the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas.

As well as Mr. VOLPERT can recall, RUBY started in business for himself with the operation of Club Vegas. Mr. VOLPERT has always been friendly with RUBY, but has not been any more closely associated with him than he has with any of his other relatives. He recalled that during his brief visit with RUBY at Dallas, Texas, in August, 1960, RUBY expressed himself as being a staunch Democrat and a supporter of Presidential candidate, JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY. RUBY, as well as his brothers and sisters, has always been a staunch Democrat, according to Mr. VOLPERT.

RUBY has always been close with his sister, EVE GRANT, and his brother, SAM RUBY, both of whom reside in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. VOLPERT does not have any information concerning RUBY's political activities, his personal life, or his associates in Dallas, Texas. Insofar as Mr. VOLPERT knows, RUBY is and has been regarded as a person of good character and reputation, and has never been engaged in any type of subversive or illegal activity. RUBY has always been regarded by his family as being a staunch Democrat, but at no time, to the knowledge of Mr. VOLPERT, has RUBY expressed any radical or extremist views. RUBY has always "gotten along well with members of his family." Mr. VOLPERT does not have any information indicating that RUBY knows or has ever known LEE HARVEY OSWALD, has been associated with him, or that OSWALD has ever been in any place of business operated by RUBY.

Mr. VOLPERT learned that RUBY had shot OSWALD from hearing a radio broadcast. This came to Mr. VOLPERT as a "great shock" as he could not understand why his uncle would have done such a thing. He, as well as other members of the family, regard his uncle as being "impetuous" but never had any idea that he would commit such an act of violence. Shortly after hearing the broadcast, Mr. VOLPERT talked with EVE GRANT in Dallas, Texas (by telephone), and she expressed a "complete loss of understanding as to why RUBY did the shooting."

On December 3, 1963, Mr. JIM BOWIE, Assistant District Attorney, Dallas County, stated he had received an anonymous telephone call to the effect that JACK RUBY had a wife and grown son residing in Dallas; that this alleged ex-wife, identity unknown, had a sister, whose family owned an auto parts store on S. Lancaster Road, Dallas; and that the name was ADELESTON.

The following investigation was conducted by SA TOM E. CHAPOTON and ALLEN H. SMITH:

The 1963 Dallas City Directory and 1963 Telephone Directory listed no person with the surname of ADESTON, ADLESTON, or ADDLESTON. The City Directory lists one JACK H. ADELSTEIN, (wife, MAXINE) who resided at 7107 Lavendale, and whose occupation was shown as operator of A&S Auto Supply Co., 4717 S. Lancaster Road, and 1916 W. Jefferson, both Dallas, Texas.

On December 9, 1963, JACK H. ADELSTEIN was interview at the A&S Auto Supply Company, 4717 S. Lancaster Road.

Mr. ADELSTEIN stated he had been married for 18 years, his wife's maiden name being MAXINE SYLVIA MYER. She has two sisters, BESSIE MYER (Mrs. ADOLPH) STOUPS, who resides at 1122 W. Illinois, Dallas, and FANNIE MYER (Mrs. HENRY) LEVINE, 906 W. Greenbrier Lane, Dallas. Mrs. LEVINE operates the Quick Way Auto Supply Company at 1101 S. Houston.

Mrs. BESSIE STOUPS is divorced. Mr. ADELSTEIN stated neither BESSIE MYER or FANNIE MYER or his wife, MAXINE MYER, have ever been married to JACK RUBY.

ADELSTEIN stated that he was unacquainted with JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

GEORGE BIEBER, Attorney and member of the firm Bieber and Brodkin, Criminal Attorney, Chicago, Illinois, advised that he recalled JACK LEON RUBY, whom he knew as SPARKY. He advised that RUBY was a "hanger on," and a ticket scalper at the various ball parks at Chicago. BIEBER advised RUBY never connected with any prominent individuals in the hoodlum element. RUBY was the type of individual who had a hot temper and liked to associate with individuals of prominence, although he was never able to successfully cultivate their friendship. BIEBER described RUBY as a "nothing."

BIEBER further advised that about eighteen or twenty years ago he seemed to recall that RUBY was arrested for rape in Chicago, and was eventually found not guilty after a trial. He advised that an individual, whose name he believed was VINCE "SNEAKY" HEALY, was the co-defendant with RUBY in the rape case, and was also found not guilty. BIEBER could not remember specifics regarding this particular case. BIEBER advised that one "SWIFTY" MORGAN, an individual who frequented the Halsted and Roosevelt area of Chicago, and one MARTY ERRETT, connected with the Town Rambler Automobile Dealer in Chicago, knows both HEALY and RUBY.

MARTIN BRIN, 3819 Greenleaf, Lincolnwood, Illinois, advised that he was a former partner of IRA COLITZ in the operation of a bar on West Randolph Street, Chicago. BRIN stated that a HARRY RUBENSTEIN owned and operated the Hollywood Lounge, which was located across the street from his bar and that HARRY RUBENSTEIN, to the best of his knowledge, is no relation of JACK RUBENSTEIN.

BRIN stated that he knew RUBENSTEIN as an acquaintance merely due to the fact that RUBENSTEIN on occasion hung out in his bar and that he always considered RUBENSTEIN as a "hustler" with no specific source of gainful employment. He did state, however, that for a period of time RUBENSTEIN and two of his brothers, first names unrecalled, operated at Earl's Product Company, handling the sale of pepper and salt shakers. BRIN stated that this company, however, was dissolved because of a disagreement in the management of the company, according to the rumors that he had heard subsequent to the dissolvement of the company. BRIN stated that he never knew RUBENSTEIN to take bets in his bar or that he was employed as a bookmaker in Chicago.

BRIN advised that he considered RUBENSTEIN as a patriotic citizen with no subversive ties, to the best of his knowledge. He explained that he knows RUBENSTEIN was responsible for "cracking a few heads" at the time the German - American Bund was flourishing in Chicago. BRIN advised that he has never had any indication that RUBENSTEIN had any hoodlum connections.

BRIN indicated that he has not seen RUBENSTEIN for about 15 years but recalled that about 12 years ago an unrecalled individual stopped to see him, indicating that he had been referred to BRIN by RUBENSTEIN. This individual had an act called "Jerry the Talking Dog" and was attempting to obtain Chicago booking for the act. BRIN recalled that he in turn put the individual in touch with Chicago Columnist IRV KUPCINET, who inturn secured a job for the act.

MARTE KRITT, owner of Towne Rambler, 5338 West Cermak Road, Cicero, Illinois, advised he knew JACK RUBY as "SPARKY" some 20 odd years ago in his old neighborhood on West Roosevelt Road near Springfield Avenue in Chicago. He knew JACK's brother EARL better and believes EARL is living in Detroit. He saw EARL about one year ago, but has not seen JACK in at least 20 years. He was not closely associated with JACK and did not know him well enough to even be a character witness in his behalf. However, he did not know him to have a violent temper, but understands he got his nickname "SPARKY" from his reputation as a fighter. He has no personal knowledge that JACK was involved in any fights. He could not recall JACK ever having trouble with the police and has no knowledge that he was ever arrested. He further stated he has no knowledge of JACK being involved in a rape case, pointing out he believes he would have known of this if it were true. KRITT stated he could not say one derogatory thing about JACK RUBY on the basis of his recollection of him.

He stated he knows VINCE HEALY, whose true name is CARL SLOAN, who now operates a fruit stand on West Roosevelt Road near Sawyer Avenue. He also knew SWIFTY MORGAN, who used to pedal neck ties around the Croydon Hotel near Rush and Ohio Streets in Chicago many years ago. SWIFTY did a lot of traveling and his present whereabouts are unknown to KRITT, who has not seen him in 20 years. SWIFTY would be in his 70's now and may not even be in Chicago.

ISRAEL HORWITZ, who admitted using the stage name of JACK HOWARD, was contacted at Jack Howard's Music City, 1106 West Lawrence Avenue. HORWITZ stated that he has known JACK RUBENSTEIN for about 30 years but has never known him as JACK RUBY. He stated that RUBENSTEIN was never considered to be a fighter or a "strong armed guy." He advised that to the contrary RUBENSTEIN would always back down when offered a challenge.

HORWITZ stated that he never knew RUBENSTEIN to work as a bookmaker as such, even though he knew him to hang around the lobby of the Sherman Hotel and the Gym Club and accept or make bets amongst the group of individuals who used to frequent both locations. HORWITZ explained that both he and RUBENSTEIN were raised on the West Side of Chicago and both frequented the Sherman Hotel and the Gym Club, as did the majority of individuals of the same age group from the West Side of Chicago. HORWITZ stated that the Gym Club was formerly located behind a cigar store on North La Salle Street and for the most part the group that used to frequent the Gym Club currently hangs around the H & H Restaurant located on North LaSalle Street, Chicago.

HORWITZ stated that he never knew RUBENSTEIN to be employed at 54 West Randolph Street, Chicago, nor has he ever known him to be connected with the entertainment business in any capacity in Chicago. BARNEY ROSS was interviewed at the New York Office on November 25, 1963. He resides at 301 East 86th Street, Apartment 10E, home telephone PL 1-2488. He is employed by the Milton Blackstone Advertising Agency, 221 West 57th Street, Manhattan, New York, telephone CI 7-4915.

ROSS furnished the following information:

He is a former prize fighter. He has known JACK LEON RUBY for 35 years or since about 1927. RUBY was not a close neighbor of ROSS, but they both grew up in the same general area of the 24th Ward in Chicago, Illinois.

ROSS was an amateur boxer beginning 1926 for several years and then boxed professionally until 1938. While both an amateur and professional boxer, ROSS frequented the Lawndale Restaurant in Chicago, Illinois, and RUBY also used to hang around this restaurant.

RUBY was almost always present when ROSS fought both as an amateur and a professional. RUBY also traveled to any out of town fights in which ROSS was engaged, including championship fights in New York during the 1930s. ROSS never knew RUBY to have any gainful employment. He was never on ROSS' payroll and ROSS never gave him any money or loaned him any money. RUBY seemed to make a living as a free lance salesman in Chicago selling small jewelry items and other miscellaneous small articles.

ROSS pointed out that he knew RUBY as "Sparky" RUBENSTEIN although he had no knowledge of how RUBY happened to have this nickname.

ROSS left Chicago in 1942 and went to military service. He returned to Chicago for a few years at the end of 1944 when he was released from service.

ROSS believes that RUBY left Chicago 10 or 12 years ago, and went to Dallas, Texas, where RUBY operated a night club owned by a sister or some relative of RUBY's.

ROSS has had very little association with RUBY over the past 10 or 12 years. He did see RUBY two years ago when they both met accidentally in the lobby of the Sherman Hotel in Chicago. They only had a brief visit at that time.

RUBY has telephonically contacted ROSS at New York from Dallas several times a year over the past 10 years. These calls concerned RUBY's attempts to secure talent for his club and the problems RUBY was having in securing talent for his club. ROSS pointed out that the advertising agency he works for also handles some talent bookings. ROSS never did actually secure any talent for RUBY. ROSS described RUBY as a well behaved quiet individual whom he did not consider antagonistic in manner or the type of person who was a troublemaker. He had never known RUBY to be involved with any law enforcement agency and also never had been involved in any subversive activities.

ROSS added that he was unable to offer any explanation as to why RUBY shot OSWALD. ROSS had never known RUBY to carry any firearms.

In view of numerous allegations from various sources that JACK L. RUBY operated night clubs in Chicago prior to coming to Dallas, and the inferences of possible confusion of RUBY with HARRY RUBENSTEIN, the Chicago Office has advised as follows:

HARRY B. RUBENSTEIN, 420 Melrose, Chicago, born 1895, Seattle, Washington, advised Special Agent MAURICE J. WHITE on November 26, 1963 and November 27, 1963, that he has never heard of JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN. He stated he knew or knows of everyone of any consequence in the 1930's and 1940's in this business in above general areas, and is positive subject is not so connected. RUBENSTEIN claimed he operated and partly owner Olympic Hotel, 1015 North Clark, 1925 to 1956, and ran Harry's Royal Palm, a night club in the building. He operated Hollywood Show Lounge, Randolph Street in Loop, under wife's name, 1946 to 1960. Also, he operated Randcroft Hotel, same location, later placed a steak house at this spot, and also operated Sunny Italy Restaurant nearby. The building was demolished in late 1961. He operated and claimed "piece of" breakfast club, a speakeasy on Erie Street, near north area, about 1930 and operated 225 Club, 225 East Superior, about 1934. He also had additional rooming houses in Chicago. He lived at Maple Manor Hotel, 1925 to 1960, at 65 West Maple, owned by now divorced wife.

RUBENSTEIN was arrested 1945 for shooting and killing a man at Olympic Hotel and charged with manslaughter, later exonerated.

RUBENSTEIN admitted knowing or knowing of most of hoodlum element who frequented clubs in this area, many of whom eventually "muscled in" to many of them. He denied personal association with them. He recalls Folies Bergere Club on Superior Street between Clark and Dearborn around 1940, but it lasted less than a year. It was operated by LEONARD LEON, an old time night club operator in Chicago known to many in the trade. LEON would be about 80 years old, but he is quite sure he is dead. He stated LEON considered to be primarily night club operator, however, naturally would have had to know bootleggers especially during prohibition in an effort to operate his clubs, as did all night spot operators at that time.

RUBENSTEIN believes the French Casino was located on Clark between Erie and Ontario in the mid forties. This club was operated by HARRY BOSHES and was closed by then Mayor KELLY

RUBENSTEIN stated he has never been to Texas and is no relation to the subject. He stated he has never heard of JACK RUBY, also known as "SPARKY", and is sure RUBY never operated, managed or was connected with clubs in Chicago.

RUBENSTEIN stated that he personally was well known in his day to police and politicians in the old 42nd ward, where his hotel was located. He stated it is possible RUBY is being confused with him.

Nineteen Fortyseven Chicago Crime Commission report reflects Olympic Hotel was owned by DORSEY CROWE, 42nd ward Alderman, and managed by HARRY RUBENSTEIN. HARRY RUBENSTEIN allegedly kill three men although only one killing definitely linked to him. The report also reflects LEONARD LEON, described as ex-convict, operated 5 O'Clock Club, 512 West Diversey, Chicago, at this time.

DANIEL M. SLOAN, 5090 West Gladys Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, who operates a fruit stand at Roosevelt Road and Spaulding Avenue in Chicago, advised that he has known JACK RUBY and his family all of his life and knew JACK quite well during the 1930's. He himself was in the Army from 1939 to 1945, during which period he had no contact with JACK except on one occasion in about 1941 when JACK and his brother EARL were in Seattle, Washington, reason unknown, and they came to visit him in camp at Bremerton, Washington. He recalled that on that occasion JACK and EARL took him out on the town and treated him royally. He did not believe that either JACK or EARL were in military service at that time.

He remembered JACK as a good-hearted fellow who always favored the underdog and would not stand for anyone taking advantage of any person. He further recalled JACK was very patriotic and would not put up with anyone who said anything against the uniform of this country or the country itself. He further described JACK as "a coo coo nut" on patriotism and recalled that there was a hall in the vicinity of Western Avenue and Roosevelt Road in Chicago where the German American Bund held meetings about the time HITLER came to power in Germany. JACK RUBY used to take part in raids on these meetings with other young men from the neighborhood in an effort to break up the meetings. SLOAN stated that JACK RUBY was not a violent person, but rather one who believed in "righteousness." He knows of no trouble with the police in which JACK was ever involved and he was asked if he ever heard of JACK being involved in a rape charge. He replited, "Don't you believe it, JACK would not do such a thing." SLOAN stated he could not say a bad word about JACK RUBY and always considered him a friend.

On December 3, 1963, HARMON (HY) ZIMMERMAN, Part Owner, Zimmerman's Cut Rate Liquors, 240 West Randolph, Chicago, advised SA ROGER J. GRATTAN he knew RUBY as JACK or SPARKY RUBENSTEIN, approximately thirty years ago.

ZIMMERMAN said RUBY was a hustler who scalped tickets, sold newspapers and programs, but was a "nobody." He does not know of any relationship between RUBY and LENNY PATRICK, either by blood or marriage.

ZIMMERMAN was a better friend of RUBY's brother, HYMAN. He did not know RUBY to operate a book and said if he took any bets, it was on a small scale. He has no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and the Dallas Police Department. Several times ZIMMERMAN remarked, "He was a good kid" when speaking of RUBY.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agents EDWARD S. LENEHAN and JAMES M. BRADSLEY at New York City, New York.

Telephone number YU 2-2805 is listed to MICHARL BLICKMAN, 605 FDR Drive, New York City, which is located in the low rent housing project in New York City area. Subsequent interview of BLICKMAN on December 2, 1963, revealed employed at New York City Transit Authority as car cleaner and had above phone number for approximately five years. BLICKMAN denied call from Dallas. BLICKMAN claims he has exclusive control over the phone and therefore is not accessible to any neighbors in the building.

Number TE 1-8877 is listed to JOE ADAMS, 1050 5th Avenue, New York City, entertainer and President of American Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA). He was interviewed December 2, 1963, and claimed he never met RUBY personally, however, was contacted telephonically on several occasions by him requesting AGVA to have nite clubs in Dallas discontinue use of non-paid entertainers. ADAMS said AGVA investigated and found RUBY's competitors were paying performers, therefore, made complaint baseless. ADAMS stated while in New Orleans over November 30, 1963 weekend, he met a female named GLORIA (Last Name Unknown) in company of TONY ZOPPI, both employees Dallas Daily News. GLORIA believed to be the girl friend of RUBY for the past three months and due to publicity of case, resigned job with newspaper several days ago.

Phone CI 7-4915 is listed to Milton Blackstone Advertising, 221 West 57th Street, New York City. It is noted BARNEY ROSS, previously interviewed by New York Office, is employed at Milton Blackstone Advertising.

The following investigation was conducted on November 29, 1963, by Special Agents TERENCE D. DINAN and MALCOLM R. HARWELL at Houston, Texas, regarding telephone toll charges of RUBY:

The 1963 Cole's Criss Cross Directory for Houston reflects the following subscribers to these telephone numbers:

CA 2-1351 - Sam Houston Hotel, 1119 Prairie;
FA 3-6269 - The Gaiety Club, 1212 Texas;
RE 3-0024 - LUMA B. JENKINS, 4517 Edfield;
CA 5-1781 - JACK R. CHANEY, 101 Main.

J. S. MICHELSON, Manager Sam Houston Hotel, advised after record search that he was unable to furnish the names of any hotel guest who might have known or communicated with RUBY.

RALPH SMITH, JR., owner of the Stork Club (formerly the Gaiety Club), 1212 Texas, advised Special Agent WILLIAM J. SCHMIDT on November 25, 1963, that he has managed that club since his father's death one month ago. SMITH met RUBY once in Dallas and discussed business with him for 15 minutes. He advised that this was the only time he has seen RUBY, but was sure his father had several business dealings with RUBY.

CAROLYN BLANCHARD, 4517 Edfield, advised she resides at that address with her grandmother, LUMMA BELL JENKINS. Miss BLANCHARD stated she is a night club singer and on one occasion talked with RUBY by phone regarding a booking. She advised she never worked for RUBY, and never met him.

RICHARD LLOYD ADAMS, 3521 Dorothy Lane South, President of Pastelite Engineering Company, 920 Poch St., furnished the following information:

In August or September of 1963, his firm started manufacturing a small item called "the twist board". This board was used by dancers in performing "the twist". During the latter part of September, 1963, ADAMS received a phone call from a man by the name of JACK RUBY from Dallas. RUBY was interested in talking to ADAMS about the sale and promotion of this twist board. RUBY came to Fort Worth during the last few days of September of 1963 and visited with ADAMS in the office of ADAMS. RUBY was by himself. They discussed the idea of selling and promoting this twist board. They did not arrive at any definite decision regarding this business transaction.

Approximately three or four days later, RUBY called ADAMS on the phone and invited him to come to Dallas. ADAMS did go to Dallas and met RUBY in the lobby of the Statler-Hilton Hotel. There were two newspaper men around RUBY at that time; one was from the "Dallas News" and one was from the "Dallas Times-Herald". ADAMS does not recall their names and does not know if RUBY had them there for this particular purpose or if he happened to meet them in the hotel. They talked for a few minutes with the newspaper men present and then ADAMS and RUBY had lunch at the Statler-Hilton Hotel. After lunch, they drove down Commerce Street to the Carousel Club. All during the time that ADAMS was with RUBY, he seemed to know a great number of people in Dallas and he spoke to every uniformed officer on the street and he believes that RUBY called these officers by their names. They talked a short time at the Carousel Club and RUBY agreed to handle some of these twist boards for ADAMS. At this time RUBY asked ADAMS to bring his wife for a visit to the Carousel Club.

One night about a week later, ADAMS and his wife did go over to Dallas and visited the Carousel Club and saw the show that night. They did not discuss any transaction with RUBY on this occasion.

Approximately three weeks later, ADAMS was in Dallas for another business transaction and he dropped in at the Carousel Club and talked to RUBY for a very short time.

ADAMS agreed to send some of these twist boards to RUBY and RUBY was going to sell them in and around Dallas. RUBY talked in big terms and asked to be made the distributor for the Southwest and other parts of the United States. ADAMS recalled shipping three or four dozen of these twist boards to RUBY and he advised that RUBY had never paid for any of these twist boards.

RUBY appeared to be very popular in Dallas, talked fluently, and made a good impression on ADAMS from a business standpoint. They never discussed any politics and at no time during their conversation did RUBY indicate any disloyalty to the Government or the President of the United States.

ADAMS stated that he was completely stunned when he heard that RUBY had shot OSWALD as he did not impress him as being this type of an individual. ADAMS did not know any of the associates of RUBY and was unable to furnish any further information concerning RUBY.

On November 27, 1963, EMER ROSS HARWOOD, 4513 Venitian Way, advised that he is a former resident of Dallas, Texas, having lived there in 1950. He stated he was employed as a sign painter at this time and painted several signs for JACK RUBY, who was then the owner of the Silver Spur Night Club; that he was also a frequent customer of the Silver Spur but knew RUBY only on the basis of a customer. He further stated that he knows nothing whatsoever about RUBY's associates, activities, or political views, and that RUBY always appeared to be a very friendly individual who was well liked. He again stated that he knew RUBY only on a casual basis and nothing about his personal life.

ROBERT ROOSEVELT BEALS, Negro, age 41, 2000 Foster Street, Evanston, Illinois, advised, at the Warwick Manufacturing Company, Niles, Illinois, the following information: B. Approx. 1922

BEALS stated that during the latter part of 1948 he was under a show business contract to one JACK STARR. STARR was the owner of Jack Starr's Show Bar, located west of Dallas, Texas. BEALS stated his act consisted of doing a record pantomime where he would mimic certain well-known performers as their record was playing in the background. BEALS stated there were three individuals in the act, consisting of RANDY BAYNES and BEALS, who are Negro males, and JACK STARR, who is a white male.

BEALS said through one BENNY JAMES, another Negro entertainer, he was introduced to JACK RUBY, who was then the owner of a night club which served setups in the 1200 block of South Ervey Street in Dallas.

BEALS said RUBY hired him along with BENNY JAMES to do three acts a night of record pantomime and RUBY also hired one SAMMY PRATT, a Negro male, who was a tap dancer.

BEALS stated that RUBY appeared to be a sincere individual in assisting BEALS and JAMES to "build up their act", and RUBY took a personal interest in improving BEALS' act. RUBY, at his own expense, placed several ads in Downbeat Magazine and Variety, both show business periodicals, in order to publicize the act, which was popularly known as ROOSEVELT BEALS and UNCLE BENNY. RUBY also went as far as having still pictures of this act shown at movie theaters in Negro neighborhoods in order to give them additional publicity.

BEALS stated he saw RUBY almost every night for nearly a year during the latter part of 1948 until August of 1949. BEALS said he would characterize RUBY as a good businessman and as a person who would help people. BEALS said that RUBY was the type who would "give the shirt off his back to you". BEALS said, however, that RUBY appeared to be a perfectionist inasmuch as he wanted things done "just right" in connection with the act. RUBY would also make suggestions as to the type of material used in the act and if the material was not used, RUBY would become very angry and at times say things to BENNY JAMES that the entertainer should listen to him and do what he wanted since his suggestions were what was good for the act.

BEALS said that RUBY could defend himself with his fists; however, he was friendly but stern with customers that got out of hand at the night club. BEALS saw RUBY get into one fight where RUBY threw out a customer who became very sarcastic and caused trouble at the club. BEALS said RUBY appeared to be an emotional type of a man inasmuch as at times RUBY would discuss things with BEALS in connection with World War II. RUBY appeared very interested in BEALS when BEALS told him that he was in combat during World War II and received injuries to his hand in connection with an explosion. RUBY mostly would talk of how the act was progressing and how business was doing and very rarely discussed politics. However, RUBY appeared very emotional at times when he discussed the atrocities committed by Fascists and Nazis during World War II. RUBY would talk about the war and how HITLER ordered millions of innocent people to be killed and tears would come to RUBY's eyes.

BEALS said that he remembered RUBY stated that "We lost a great man when ROOSEVELT died". Otherwise, RUBY did not express any opinion as to his political beliefs.

BEALS stated that RUBY had a gun, which was believed to be a Smith & Wesson .38 caliber with a six inch barrel. This gun was maintained on a shelf under the cash register.

BEALS said that in August of 1949 he received word that his father had died and RUBY voluntarily gave him money, approximately $35.00, in order to attend his father's funeral.

BEALS said (FNU) ALLEN, Texas piano player, who had a barber shop on the 4200 block of Sourth Myrtle Street in Dallas would be another individual who would know RUBY.

BEALS stated that it was his opinion RUBY was a loyal American citizen and not connected with any subversive type of organization. BEALS said he could not believe that RUBY was the type of individual to commit murder. BEALS stated he had no knowledge of RUBY having hoodlum connections.

FRANK BELLOCCHIO, 9832 San Lea Drive, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

Mr. BELLOCCHIO operates the jewelry firm, Bellocchio's, Inc., 1517 Commerce Street, Dallas. Texas

On the afternoon of November 23, 1963, the day following the assassination of President KENNEDY, BELLOCCHIO met a friend, TOM APPLE, 2124 Forrest Oakes, Dallas, at Sol's Turf Bar, Commerce Street. BELLOCCHIO estimated the time that he and TOM APPLE were at Sol's Turf Bar as between 8:00 and 9:00 p.m.

While sitting at the bar discussing the death of President KENNEDY with APPLE, BELLOCCHIO decided to walk towards the rear of the bar.

BELLOCCHIO who has known JACK RUBY casually for approximately 7-8 years, saw RUBY standing away from the bar and he stopped to talk with RUBY. During their conversation BELLOCCHIO took from his pocket a folded full page article prepared by BERNARD WEISMAN that had appared in a Dallas newspaper on November 22, 1963. Texas

RUBY upon seeing the article, became very upset and loud and he told BELLOCCHIO that he had been to the newspaper office and had been advised that there was no such person by the name of BERNARD WEISMAN. RUBY also was disturbed by the name WEISMAN as RUBY felt that the name may have been used to create anti-semitic feelings. RUBY told BELLOCCHIO that he had learned that the ad placed by the person using the name WEISMAN had been partially paid in cash and that a third of the price of the ad still remained unpaid. BELLOCCHIO is specific in this recollection because he thought that it was odd that the paper would accept an ad on partial payment.

RUBY then displayed to BELLOCCHIO a polaroid photograph of an outdoor sign board displaying the sign, "Impeach EARL WARREN." BELLOCCHIO stated that RUBY thought the sign board improper and did not like it.

It is BELLOCCHIO's recollection that RUBY had two copies of the photograph and BELLOCCHIO asked RUBY for a copy of the photograph. RUBY refused to give BELLOCCHIO a photograph. BELLOCCHIO then asked RUBY if RUBY would let him show it to a friend of his who was at the bar.

RUBY and BELLOCCHIO then walked to the front of the bar where TOM APPLE was sitting and BELLOCCHIO showed APPLE the photograph. BELLOCCHIO again asked RUBY for the photograph but RUBY again refused and said that he wanted to make sure that the photograph got into the right hands.

It is BELLOCCHIO's recollection that RUBY may have used the word "scoop" in stating his reasons for not giving BELLOCCHIO the photograph. It is BELLOCCHIO's opinion that RUBY may have had in mind furnishing the photograph to the newspaper.

According to BELLOCCHIO, during the time that he talked to and saw RUBY at the bar, RUBY was not drinking and he gave no inference of having been drinking. Shortly thereafter, RUBY departed the bar alone. BELLOCCHIO has no information or knowledge of RUBY's associates or personal activities. BELLOCCHIO did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor did he have any information pertaining to any association or acquaintance between OSWALD and RUBY.

TOM APPLE, 2124 Forrest Oakes, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

Mr. APPLE is employed as a co-pilot for American Airlines. On the afternoon of November 23, 1963, Mr. APPLE and Mr. FRANK BELLOCCHIO, 9832 San Lea Drive, Dallas, met at Sol's Turf Bar, Commerce Street. Mr. APPLE and Mr. BELLOCCHIO sat discussing the death of President KENNEDY which had happened the day before. BELLOCCHIO got up from the bar and walked to the rear of the bar. A short time later BELLOCCHIO returned to the bar where APPLE was sitting and displayed to him a polaroid camera photograph showing a sign which read, "Impeach EARL WARREN." It is Mr. APPLE's recollection that the sign "Impeach EARL WARREN" had been nailed to a board similar to a picket sign and had been stuffed behind a business plaque presumably on the side of the building which read Potter Art Iron Works. When BELLOCCHIO displayed the photograph to TOM APPLE, BELLOCCHIO was in the company of JACK RUBY, whom APPLE had never met before. APPLE stated that he asked RUBY if Texas POTTER, of the Potter Art Iron Works Company, was aware that the sign had been placed on POTTER's business sign, and it was APPLE's recollection that RUBY stated that POTTER probably was not aware of it. APPLE stated that BELLOCCHIO had asked RUBY for the photograph but RUBY refused to give it to him. It is APPLE's recollection that RUBY had remarked that he had some plans for the photograph and in giving a reason, he had used the word "scoop." APPLE is unable to recall or explain what RUBY meant; however, APPLE speculated that he may have planned to furnish it to a newspaper. APPLE stated that shortly thereafter, RUBY departed Sol's Turf Bar alone. Mr. APPLE had never known RUBY before this meeting and had no other information concerning him. Mr. APPLE stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor did he have any information of any acquaintanceship between OSWALD and RUBY.

FRED BRUNER, Attorney at Law, Room 858 Mercantile Dallas Building, 1811 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

He resides at 4000 Gillon Street, Dallas, Texas. Until 1956, he was a member of the District Attorney's staff at Dallas and has been engaged in the general practice of law since that time. He is very active in Democratic Party activities and was at the Trade Mart in Dallas awaiting the arrival of President JOHN F. KENNEDY at the time he learned of the President's assassination. He was not at the Central Police Headquarters in Dallas at anytime during the weekend of November 24, 1963, and has not seen JACK RUBY for over three weeks.

On November 24, 1963, he learned that JACK RUBY's sister, whose name he believes is EVA GRANT, had called his law partner, SAM DOUGHERTY. SAM DOUGHERTY is hardly acquainted with JACK RUBY but in view of the fact, he, BRUNER, was at his farm on that day, GRANT apparently called DOUGHERTY in an effort to locate him. GRANT told DOUGHERTY that she had called Attorney STANLEY KAUFMAN and KAUFMAN had told her to call him. She apparently called DOUGHERTY because he had a local phone. He has never officially represented JACK RUBY in any type of legal matter and is certain that he has never been paid a fee by RUBY. He decided not to represent RUBY regarding the murder charge against him for reasons which he felt were of a legal nature and hence would have no bearing on the investigation being conducted by the FBI or any other agency.

He has known JACK RUBY for about fifteen years and RUBY has been to his office a number of times. The reasons for RUBY's visits were usually in regards to some club or business venture that RUBY was promoting and he was just one of a number of individuals that RUBY would contact when discussing these ventures. He never represented RUBY or handled any legalwork for him nor did he give him legal advise. Attorney STANLEY KAUFMAN, who is located in the Mercantile Securities Building in Dallas, handled incorporations for RUBY.

He also recalled that RUBY telephonically contacted him concerning an altercation he had with one of his strippers recently, but after hearing the facts he told RUBY that he felt RUBY could handle that matter without the services of an attorney. He stated most of the time RUBY did not need an attorney to handle his problems arising out of his business unless the matter was going to trial. RUBY apparently was very well known at the City Hall and through his contacts with police officers, was able to learn enough about the operations there that he could handle minor matters that arose from time to time. He did not mean this in the sense that RUBY bribed anyone but rather in the sense that RUBY was able to gauge the seriousness of situations and determine for himself whether or not legal counsel was required.

He always had certain suspicions concerning RUBY because of the fact that he was bachelor but he never heard anything or known of anything indicating that RUBY was a homosexual. He knew that RUBY had come from Chicago but he did not know of any of RUBY's Chicago connections nor did he ever hear anything regarding his background prior to coming to Dallas. JACK RUBY was not a personal friend of his but he liked him as a person. RUBY had a good knack for getting along with people and he probably knew police officers as wil as anyone in Dallas. For that reason, it was not surprising that he heard that RUBY had gotten in the basement of the City Hall Building. RUBY was a very talkative individual but he never considered him to be particularly emotional. He recalled hearing that RUBY had thrown people out of his clubs but he never knew RUBY to carry a gun. He stated that it was difficult for him to believe that RUBY had shot OSWALD to be a hero or that he had done it to seek vengeance for some third party. He stated he felt it was strictly a spur of the moment action on the part of RUBY.

He recalled being to the Silver Spur Club on one occasion during 1950. He recalled being at RUBY's Vegas Club on one occasion but he has never been to the Carousel Club. Prior to the time the Carousel was opened to the public, RUBY approached him, as he would a number of other individuals, indicating that he was opening a private club for the "carriage trade". He purchased a $25.00 membership in the club from RUBY but he never used the membership to go to the club. When this form of operation apparently fell through RUBY opened the club to the public as the Carousel.

He knows nothing concerning RUBY's political views and pointed out that since he personally was active in political affairs in Dallas that it would probably have come to his attention if RUBY was in any active political group.

He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination and knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

As concerns RUBY's close friends, the only persons he could think of were Attorney STANLEY KAUFMAN and a woman that RUBY was allegedly engaged to marry about six or seven years ago. He stated he had seen RUBY on the streets a number of times with this woman who was introduced to him as being a legal secretary for BOB DILLARD, General Counsel, for the Southland Life Insurance Company of Dallas. He did not know this woman's name but recalled that she had red hair.

He stated he has searched his mind ever since the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD regarding RUBY's motivation. He stated he has also tried to recall all he could concerning RUBY's background which might be of assistance in analyzing his action. He stated he could think of nothing further at this time but that if he did, he would immediately contact the FBI Office in Dallas.

Mr. CLYDE RUSSELL BRYANT, 2003 Meadow Lane, Arlington, Texas, was interviewed at his place of employemnt, Terrace Barber Shop located at 918 East Park Row, at which time he furnished the following information:

He advised that he first met JACK RUBY in 1959 and can recall only seeing him on one occasion or two occasions since 1959. He advised that his first introduction to JACK RUBY was very casual and that their conversation had lasted only two or three minutes. He went on to say that a friend and associate by the name of JACK ROWE, a local bandsman, had originally told him about the Vegas Club. ROWE had advised him to see JACK RUBY so he would not have to pay a cover charge for his visit to the Vegas Club. BRYANT went on to say that JACK ROWE was at one time employed by JACK RUBY and gained the impression that ROWE was quite friendly with RUBY.

Jack K. J. Rowe 1003 Broad Hollow Irving Texas

Mr. BRYANT further advised that he could offer no information concerning the background, associates or personal character of RUBY inasmuch as he had talked with him on only one occasion.

In regard to any knowledge concerning anyone related to JACK RUBY, Mr. BRYANT advised that he has never been acquainted with any of RUBY's friends or relatives. He continued on to say that he has never been married to any of RUBY's sisters and to the best of his knowledge has never been introduced to any of RUBY's sisters. He advised that he has been married three times and was recently married this past year. He stated that his second wife, THELMA JOAN, whose last name he could not recall, was a little on the "crazy side" and could recall a specific incident concerning him and his second wife. In connection with this particular incident, Mr. BRYANT advised that he and his wife at that time were having several difficulties and one thing lead to another until they decided to obtain a divorce. He stated that on one particular day, she, THELMA JOAN, had requested his company while seeing her lawyer and it was on this day that she became quite violent and later that same day, had shot him five times in the back. Mr. BRYANT could offer no reason for her actions in regard to this shooting and felt that it had developed

Mr. BRYANT stated that he was positive that there was no relationship whatsoever between THELMA JOAN and JACK RUBY and doubted very seriously that THELMA JOAN even knew RUBY.

B. B. BRUNER, Attorney, Room 1502, National Bankers Life Building, Commerce and Ervay Streets, Dallas, Texas, advised he has never represented JACK LEON RUBY concerning any legal matter and he knows RUBY only by reputation.

He stated he telephonically contacted the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on November 26, 1963, and stated an Agent may desire to check with him concerning an incident that he observed in March, 1961, which, in his opinion, reflected adversely against RUBY's character and reputation.

He said he represented a client in a child custody case in March, 1961 and had occasion to observe his client's former wife at RUBY's Vegas Club in Dallas. He added that his client's former wife was sitting at a table with seven or eight other unescorted women and JACK RUBY was the only man at the table.

BRUNER later observed that same evening his client's former wife with a musician at the Vegas Club at that time, whom he (BRUNER) identified as a member of a minority race, in a car behind the Vegas Club for a period of fifteen to twenty minutes embracing and engaging in sexual relations with his client's former wife. He added he saw RUBY at the car during the above period for about five minutes talking to the former wife of BRUNER's client and/or her companion.

BRUNER suspected RUBY of operating a house of prostitution but added that he had no evidence or personal knowledge of such, other than possibly the above situation.

He said he desired to call this matter to the attention of the Federal Bureau of Investigation Office since the above indicated RUBY is "no family man" and does reflect against his general character and reputation.

BRUNER said M. R. "BUD" BLOOM, Vice President and Local Manager, Musicians Union, 1415 Commerce Street, Dallas, informed him he believed RUBY has or had an interest in the University Club on Mockingbird Lane in Dallas. He added that BLOOM indicated he has played pool with RUBY in the past and described RUBY as a "lousy pool player".

Date December 13, 1963

GLENN W. BYRD, 5531 Merrimac, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed inasmuch as his name was found among the personal possessions of JACK RUBY. BYRD furnished the following information:

He was a member of the University Park Police Department, a suburb of Dallas, Texas, for many years and graduated from the FBI National Academy in 1940. After completing military service and working as a Special Agent for the Office of Price Administration (OPA), he was hired in 1947 as Chief Investigator for District Attorney WILL WILSON, Dallas, Texas. It was about this time that he first heard of JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN. He had no occasion to come into contact with this man even though he knew RUBY as a night club operator.

In October, 1951, BYRD stated he became Justice of the Peace of Precinct #1, Dallas County, Texas. He believes RUBY was brought into his courtroom on one occasion on a simple assault charge or some breach of peace charge with some entertainer who was working at RUBY's club. [redacted] was of the opinion the charges were dropped without prosecution. BYRD continued that he remained a Justice of the Peace until September, 1962, when he was elected to the office of County Clerk, Dallas County, Texas.

About October, 1963, RUBY came to the County Clerk's Office and was attempting to obtain information regarding some charges concerning a peace bond brought against him by a girl entertainer at one of his clubs. RUBY was concerned that Justice of the Peace Judge RICHBERG might void his business license. RUBY's inquiries were referred to BYRD and BYRD telephonically contacted Judge RICHBERG. Judge RICHBERG told BYRD that he was of the opinion that the girl entertainer who was a strip tease dancer had brought these charges against RUBY in an effort to gain publicity and the Judge planned to dismiss these charges. BYRD related the information to RUBY and RUBY appeared to be very grateful. In fact, he said he planned to send "courtesy cards" to BYRD and other staff members in the County Clerk's Office. BYRD stated that he did not receive a card to the Carousel Club and that to his knowledge none of his staff members received such a card.

ALLEN H. SMITH

BYRD continued that cards to various night clubs in the Dallas area are passed out rather freely and in fact he, BYRD, passes out "courtesy cards" to individuals. BYRD stated he has been giving out these "courtesy cards" since he was a Justice of the Peace in 1951. BYRD stated these "courtesy cards"are addressed to "public officials" and indicate that the bearer should be extended any courtesy that the official is empowered to extend under the laws imposed on him by his office. BYRD continued that these cards mean absolutely nothing and will get the holder nothing but the people who get these cards feel that they are "privileged" or "something special" and they are terrific for "making friends." BYRD estimated that he has given out over 50,000 of these "courtesy cards" since 1951. He continued that if one of these cards bore the name of JACK RUBY it is quite possible that RUBY could have obtained one from any member of his office or that a card could have been mailed to RUBY in a routine fashion in that RUBY's name may have appeared on one of numerous mailing lists from which cards were prepared and mailed.

BYRD continued that he has seen RUBY only on rare occasions, is acquainted with him, but does not consider him to be a friend or business associate. He has no knowledge of any business activities or business associates or friends of RUBY, nor does he know of any contacts RUBY may have had with the Dallas Police Department. BYRD stated he did not know OSWALD and had no knowledge of any connection or association between RUBY and OSWALD.

JOE CAMPISI, 4445 Ashford, Dallas, Texas, owner of the Egyptian Restaurant, 5610 East Mockingbird Lane, furnished the following information:

On Friday, November 29, 1963, he received a telephone call from Captain DECKER, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, in which Captain DECKER told him that JACK RUBY wanted to see him. He said Captain DECKER told him he was one of several people that RUBY had requested permission to see.

CAMPISI advised on Saturday evening, November 30, 1963, he went to the Dallas County Jail where he talked with RUBY for approximately ten minutes. He said RUBY told him he had received a lot of mail and commented: "All the girls love me." He said RUBY asked him if his, RUBY's, friends were mad at him and also asked him about the lawyer he had retained.

CAMPISI said while he was talking to RUBY, he, RUBY, broke down and started crying and said: "Here I am fighting for my life and feeling sorry for myself, when I really feel sorry for Mrs. KENNEDY and the kids."

CAMPISI said RUBY did not give any indication of why he killed OSWALD, however, he said "Somebody had to kill him." He said RUBY gave no indication of ever having known OSWALD previously.

CAMPISI advised he has known RUBY since about 1948, however, has never associated with him and the only contacts he has ever had with RUBY were when he would stop in at the Carousel Club after he closed his place of business, when RUBY would come to his, CAMPISI's place of business, and at various sporting events which were held in the city.

He said his last contact with RUBY was on the Thursday night before Thanksgiving when RUBY came to the Egyptian Restaurant for a steak.

CAMPISI advised RUBY was a very impulsive individual and he has seen him hit guests at his club without provocation. He said RUBY was a "crazy S.O.B."

CAMPISI said he never knew of RUBY to carry a gun and never knew of him to carry large sums of money. He said he was surprised when he heard RUBY had $2,000 on his person at the time of his arrest. He said he had always considered RUBY to be very frugal and close-fisted with his money.

CAMPISI said he knows nothing of RUBY's background or associates and doesn't know of anyone who ever lived with him, as he never socialized with him.

CAMPISI advised he was surprised when Captain DECKER called him and told him that RUBY wanted to see him. He said he doesn't know of anyone else who has visited RUBY and the only person present at the time he talked to RUBY was a Deputy Sheriff.

JOSEPH R. CAVAGNARO, Front Office Manager of the Sheraton-Hilton Hotel, downtown Dallas, who resides at 604 Opal Lane furnished the following information:

He was transferred to Dallas approximately eight years ago and JACK RUBY was one of the first men he met after arriving in Dallas. He met RUBY at the B & B Restaurant in Dallas where they both ate occasionally. A friendship developed between him and JACK RUBY and has continued since that time. He has had JACK RUBY to his home on three or four occasions for dinner and RUBY often stops by the hotel for coffee with CAVAGNARO. After CAVAGNARO married, he did not have as close an association with RUBY as previously but they have continued to be friends. RUBY has given a Dachshund dog to CAVAGNARO for his boys and comes by CAVAGNARO's home approximately once every six months to see how the dog is getting along and to visit with CAVAGNARO and his family.

RUBY has talked politics with CAVAGNARO on occasion at CAVAGNARO's desk in the hotel. CAVAGNARO stated that he, CAVAGNARO, was an ardent KENNEDY man and JACK RUBY apparently was pro-KENNEDY himself. RUBY had made statements to CAVAGNARO that KENNEDY was doing a great job and CAVAGNARO felt that RUBY meant this sincerely. CAVAGNARO and his wife were in RUBY's night club approximately two months ago but have not made a habit of going there often.

CAVAGNARO said that he liked JACK RUBY very much and that he found RUBY to be a "square shooter". He advised that RUBY was very emotional and was very gentle, particularly to his dogs. He advised that RUBY always had two or three dogs with him and seemed to be very fond of dogs. He stated that RUBY "cried like a baby" on one occasion when one of the dogs got hurt.

CAVAGNARO stated that he had seen RUBY at the hotel most of the time and that RUBY would go out of his way to do things for him and his wife. He stated that his wife is very fond of RUBY. He characterized RUBY as being irresponsible and pointed out that he was very irresponsible as far as keeping appointments.

on 12/9/63 at Dallas, Texas File # DL 44-1639

RUBY did not impress CAVAGNARO as being particularly interested in current events and at no time did he notice that RUBY had any subversive tendencies. RUBY spent a great deal of time, thought and energy in connection with his business and many of his trips to the hotel were for the purpose of ascertaining what conventions were due to be held in Dallas in the near future. RUBY apparently did this so that he could plan his own night club business on the basis of the conventions expected.

RUBY according to CAVAGNARO "knew all the policemen in town". CAVAGNARO stated RUBY was well acquainted with a great number of policemen and particularly the policemen who were in or had been in the Special Service of the Police. He stated that he knew RUBY was a close friend of Lieutenant GILMORE and ERIC KAMINSKI. CAVAGNARO informed that in approximately 1957, RUBY managed a little colored boy who sang and danced. RUBY apparently thought the boy had talent and was helping the boy make a success in the entertainment world. RUBY on one occasion took the boy to Chicago to appear on television. CAVAGNARO has no information as to whether the boy was a success or not.

CAVAGNARO informed that he was certainly surprised at the news when it came to his attention that RUBY had shot OSWALD, as he had never observed anything in RUBY's character to indicate that RUBY would do such a thing. CAVAGNARO advised that he knows of no connection between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he never heard RUBY speak of OSWALD. He further stated that he had never seen OSWALD to his knowledge.

BERTHA CHEEK, 3914 [illegible], Dallas, Texas, was interviewed concerning her contact which she had reported previously with JACK RUBY on or about November 18, 1963, at RUBY's club, the Carousel.

Mrs. CHEEK outlined the following basis for her having been in contact with JACK RUBY:

Mrs. CHEEK stated that she has been in the real estate business in Dallas, Texas, for a number of years; that she frequently has bought and sold interests in night clubs; that during the past several months she has been attempting to locate a good night club investment; and that in this connection she had visited practically every night club in Dallas which she considered might be purchased outright or in which an interest might be obtained.

Clubs which she had visited, she said, included among others the Pago, the Starlighter, the Stork Club, and the University Club. At the Stork Club, she had talked with BILL MARTIN, owner, who she found wanted $25,000 just for an interest. She said she could establish her own club for that amount and had not dealt further. MARTIN, however, who she said was acquainted with RUBY, mentioned the Vegas Club and the Carousel as possibilities. Several days later, RUBY called her and invited her to the Carousel to discuss her investment in a club. Mrs. CHEEK said that she did not know that MARTIN had suggested this to RUBY. The information concerning her interest in such investment could have reached RUBY through any number of sources, she said.

Texas

At RUBY's invitation, Mrs. CHEEK said she did discuss such investment with RUBY at the Carousel. RUBY proposed her investment of $6,000.00 in a club, the identity or location of which he would not disclose, apparently Mrs. CHEEK said to preclude her going around him on the deal." Mrs. CHEEK said that she would not consider the investment of $6,000.00 without full disclosure and had suggested to RUBY that he get an option on the business so that he might discuss the proposal openly. This concluded the discussion of such investment by Mrs. CHEEK with JACK RUBY.

Throughout these discussions at the Carousel, Mrs. CHEEK stated that RUBY was assisted by one FRANK, whose last name Mrs. CHEEK did not recall. She described FRANK as a man of Jewish extraction about 60 years of age with gray hair. FRANK was present, she said, apparently to provide RUBY with a good recommendation as a night club operator as this was the extent of his participation in the discussion.

Mrs. CHEEK was unable to provide any additional information of pertinence concerning JACK RUBY.

On November 27, 1963, Mr. ORVILLE ALLEN, Reginal Director, Producer's ~~Life~~ Insurance Company, Phoenix, Arizona, advised that about five months ago, he was visited in Phoenix by THOMAS R. YOUNG, Group Insurance man, Pan American Life Insurance Company, Dallas, Texas, in connection with insurance business. He stated that inasmuch as considerable publicity was at that time being given the VALACHI disclosures, he inquired of YOUNG if the Mafia existed in Dallas. YOUNG allegedly replied that the only person he knew of in Dallas who had a real connection with the Mafia was JACK RUBY, a night club owner. Mr. ALLEN stated that YOUNG furnished no details concerning this matter nor a basis for his statement.

On December 10, 1963, THOMAS R. YOUNG, 3434 Nogales Street, Dallas, Texas, who is presently employed as Group Insurance man by the Girard Life Insurance Company, 250B Exchange Park North, Dallas, Texas, advised SAs EDMOND C. He stated that about a month ago, after DAVIS' name had been in the papers regarding the bankruptcy, he received a call from a man who identified himself to DAVIS as JACK RUBY. RUBY told DAVIS that he had heard about DAVIS going bankrupt and that RUBY wanted someone with ability to operate a night club in Dallas. RUBY said, according to DAVIS, that he had an idea of opening a club similar to the Playboy Night Clubs and that he knew of a location. DAVIS stated that he was noncommittal and DAVIS ended the conversation that if he were interested he would get in touch with RUBY. DAVIS stated that he has never met RUBY and has never been in any of RUBY's clubs.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date December 11, 1963

JAMES HENRY DOLAN, 101 North Edgefield, Dallas, Texas, interviewed Dallas, Texas Police Department, furnished the following information: Jim Dolan

DOLAN has known JACK RUBY since 1957. From 1957 to 1960, DOLAN was union representative, American Guild of Variety Artists, 510 Interurban Building, Dallas, and during this time he saw a lot of JACK RUBY. He has visited RUBY at his club on several occasions. DOLAN was shocked when he heard that RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD as he did not believe him to be the type of individual who would so such a thing. He recalled that RUBY was "an intense fellow", and "hot tempered", however, he considered him to be a nice guy, cordial and a free spender who frequently gave money to friends and acquaintances. Based on his knowledge of RUBY, DOLAN does not believe RUBY to be the type who would plan to murder someone. He has always known RUBY to be law abiding and RUBY was always strict in observing union regulations in connection with contacts with entertainers. RUBY was very high tempered and on occasion, would "flare up" and punch someone but he would get over these flare ups quickly.

DOLAN knew RUBY to be very friendly toward all police officers and it was his impression that RUBY was trying to abide by the law in the operation of his club. DOLAN does not know of any particular police officer with which RUBY was particularly friendly.

DOLAN had not been in RUBY's club in over a year and he last saw RUBY about three months ago at the Town and Country Restaurant in downtown Dallas.

During the time DOLAN was in contact with RUBY, RUBY never discussed politics and did not indicate any interest in politics. RUBY liked to impress people, he was an "attention getter". He was interested in prize fights and during the short time that DOLAN promoted fights in Dallas, RUBY always wanted to be on the front row of these fights. RUBY seemed to be a fanatic on physical fitness and muscle building and DOLAN considered this to be unusual for a man of RUBY's age.

To DOLAN's knowledge, RUBY did not have many outside

on 12/10/63 at Dallas, Texas File # DL 44-1639

PAUL L. SCOTT &
CHARLES T. [illegible]

connections and he has no knowledge of any travel by RUBY.

DOLAN recalled that sometime ago, RUBY had some difficulty with an entertainer at the Carousel Club and she made a complaint to DOLAN as union representative for AGVA. DOLAN said such complaints were common during the time he was union representative and he does not recall any details concerning this particular incident.

DOLAN said he considered RUBY to be a rather unstable individual as evidenced by his apparent desire for attention and publicity. It is his opinion that RUBY is not the type of individual who would plan to commit a violent crime and that the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was a "flash action" on the part of RUBY.

DOLAN said he could furnish no additional information concerning JACK RUBY. RUBY, to his knowledge, was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and there was no connection between these individuals.

DOLAN had never seen or heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mr. MYRON EDWARD DORSEY, 525 Melba Street, Dallas, Texas, was interveiwed at his place of employment, Red Arrow Freight Lines, 4444 Irving Boulevard, Dallas, at which time he furnished the following information:

DORSEY first met JACK RUBY sometime back in the early 1950's, exact date he could not recall, while he was working for an individual by the name of JOE BONDS, who at that time was the owner of the Sky Club Lounge, Dallas, Texas. He could not recall the exact circumstances surrounding the meeting of RUBY, but felt that JOE BONDS, who was a close associate of JACK RUBY had apparently introduced him to RUBY. During this time, the early 1950's, DORSEY was also in the U.S. Navy, stationed at Dallas and in addition to his Naval duties, he obtained a part-time employment with JOE BONDS at the Sky Club Lounge. He advised that he was employed in the capacity of a bartender and parking attendant at the Sky Club Lounge for a period of approximately five years, noting that his employment was not always steady.

DORSEY could recall that RUBY's name first came to his attention back in the early 1950's and knew that BONDS and RUBY were very good friends. He could recall that RUBY had arrived in the Dallas area the same time that a well known "police character" whose name he recalled as LOIS GREEN, was killed either at the Sky Club or next door to the Sky Club. Again DORSEY was unable to recall the exact date, but was under the impression that it was around 1953 or 1954. DORSEY related that he knew of no connection between LOIS GREEN, the "police character" and RUBY, but had just mentioned it in association with the approximate arrival time of RUBY in the Dallas area.

In regards to association with JACK RUBY, DORSEY stated that he never had any long conversations with RUBY and only knew him in a casual matter. He advised that to the best of his knowledge, RUBY always appeared to be friendly and seemed to associate with several individuals. He continued on to say that although he was not very well acquainted with RUBY, he had for some reason gained the impression that RUBY was a nervous and emotional individual. In addition, DORSEY had always felt that RUBY was a little "queer", but could not substantiate his opinions on any particular facts. He explained that when he referred to the word "queer" he meant that RUBY gave the appearance of being a little feminine and was often referred to as a "sissy." DORSEY stated that he had never discussed politics with RUBY and could therefore not be aware of RUBY's opinions in regard to this matter.

DORSEY said that the last time he saw RUBY was approximatley two weeks prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY at which time he saw RUBY at the B & B Coffee Shop, located on Oak Lawn, Dallas, Texas. He stated that RUBY was accompanied by a man whom he had never seen before and was unable to furnish a description of any kind concerning this individual. He explained that he did not have a conversation with RUBY at this time and had only said "hello" to him. He could recall that RUBY replied something to the effect, "hello old timer". DORSEY stated that RUBY apparently called him "old timer" because he had met him several years ago.

DORSEY went on to say that he definitely did not consider RUBY a close friend or associate and stated that he had visited the Vegas Club only on four or five occasions. During his visits he could never recall talking with RUBY and as a matter of fact could not recall ever seeing RUBY at the Vegas Club.

In regards to any relationship between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY, Mr. DORSEY stated that he had never heard the name OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and has heard nothing that would connect RUBY and OSWALD since the assassination. He related that he was not aware of any of RUBY's friends or associates other than JOE BONDS.

Mr. DORSEY furthr advised that he could recall an individual by the name of REESE DEAN PARSONS, whom he described as being an old friend. He added that PARSONS was also employed by JOE BONDS at the Sky Club Lounge during the period of his employment with BONDS. DORSEY stated that he was under the impression that PARSONS was not a very close friend of RU and believed that his association with RUBY was much on the same basis as his was. Although DORSEY could not recall the exact circumstances surrounding PARSONS'employment at the Sky Club Lounge, he did state that he may have helped PARSONS obtain the job at the Sky Club Lounge. To the best of his knowledge, PARSONS had never worked for RUBY and stated that he had never made any arrangements for PARSONS to work either for RUBY or at any of RUBY's night clubs.

The following investigation was conducted by SA TOM E. CHAPOTON, JR., at Dallas, Texas:

On December 2, 1963, RICHARD DRAKE, Texas Ticket Agent, Greyhound Bus Station, advised that the owner of Hamburger Haven, (FNU) LEIPSEIG is acquainted with JACK RUBY.

On December 9, 1963, JOSEPH LEIPSIC, owner Hamburger Haven, 5410 Harry Hines Boulevard, Dallas, Texas, advised SAs ALLEN H. SMITH and TOM E. CHAPOTON, JR. that approximately eight years ago he purchased pizza pie crusts from JACK RUBY who sold this type merchandise to restaurants. Since that time RUBY has been operating night clubs and LEIPSIC has only seen RUBY when RUBY has come into the Hamburger Haven as a customer. LEIPSIC stated that RUBY might possibly eat at the Hamburger Haven once or twice a year. LEIPSIC continued that he is acquainted with JACK RUBY only as a customer and that he has no knowledge of RUBY's associates, business dealings or activities. LEIPSIC does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no idea whether or not there was any association between OSWALD and RUBY.

CHARLES DUARTE, 1418½ Congress, Houston, Texas, advised SA JAMES L. WILLIAMSON that he has resided in Houston for the past year but for the 14 years before, resided in Dallas and knew JACK RUBY during that time.

He stated he knew RUBY was from Chicago but knew of no connections with any hoodlum element in Chicago and stated he believed RUBY's night club operation in Dallas was not financed by any hoodlum element.

He stated he did not believe RUBY had any extreme political beliefs and stated RUBY was only interested in making money.

He stated RUBY had mentioned to him on several occasions that he was selling hot jewelry and furs but said he had never seen any of these items.

He advised he did not know OSWALD and did not know if he was known to RUBY.

He stated he knew of no girl friends of RUBY and said that R. D. MATTHEWS, who is employed at a Redman's Club in Dallas and who was a past member of the DELOIS GREEN Gang, is well acquainted with RUBY.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JACK T. HAZEN and SA J. HOMER THOMASSON at Danville, Illinois:

LIL ELDRIDGE, owner and operator Lil's Jockey Club, located on the outskirts of Danville, Illinois, in a community known as Belgium, Illinois, advised on November 26, 1963, that she had never met JACK RUBY of the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, but had heard numerous statements from various entertainers concerning him. She stated that she had heard from entertainers in the past who worked in her club that they did not care to work for JACK RUBY because of his antagonistic personality. She stated that she had also heard from an individual by the name of BOB MITCHELL, a former emcee, who was presently working for the Ted Mack Show in New York, that JACK RUBY was a homosexual. She stated that MITCHELL had informed her in the past that he had worked for RUBY in the band at the Carousel Club. She stated that from a review of her records MITCHELL could be located in care of his mother-in-law, 714 George Street, Owensboro, Kentucky. On November 27, 1963, LIL ELDRIDGE advised that she had engaged her singer in conversation on the night of November 26, 1963, and that the singer, by the name of JOAN GILLESPIE, admitted to her that she was a lesbian. She also advised that GILLESPIE had told her that JACK RUBY, manager of the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, was definitely a homosexual.

CHRIS ELSON, Owner and Operator, Kings Club, Adolphus Hotel, Dallas, Texas, advised he could furnish no information regarding JACK RUBY except what he had heard from club owners in the Dallas area. ELSON had seen RUBY on ten or twelve occasions during the time RUBY has been in Dallas and has had only one conversation with him.

During this particular conversation, ELSON advised he told RUBY that he did not want RUBY in the Kings Club as it was a respectable club and that from the rumors he had heard RUBY could cause a disturbance. From then on, ELSON advised RUBY had not attempted to frequent the Kings Club.
